1 Kings 21:20 Ahab said to Elijah, “So you have found me, my enemy!” “I have found you,” he answered, “because you have sold yourself to do evil in the eyes of the LORD.

1 Kings 21:21 `I am going to bring disaster on you. I will consume your descendants and cut off from Ahab every last male in Israel— slave or free.

1 Kings 21:22 I will make your house like that of Jeroboam son of Nebat and that of Baasha son of Ahijah, because you have provoked me to anger and have caused Israel to sin.’

1 Kings 21:23 “And also concerning Jezebel the LORD says:`Dogs will devour Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel.’

1 Kings 21:24 “Dogs will eat those belonging to Ahab who die in the city, and the birds of the air will feed on those who die in the country.”

1 Kings 21:25 (There was never a man like Ahab, who sold himself to do evil in the eyes of the LORD, urged on by Jezebel his wife.

1 Kings 21:26 He behaved in the vilest manner by going after idols, like the Amorites the LORD drove out before Israel.)

1 Kings 21:27 When Ahab heard these words, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and fasted. He lay in sackcloth and went around meekly.

1 Kings 21:28 Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite:

1 Kings 21:29 “Have you noticed how Ahab has humbled himself before me? Because he has humbled himself, I will not bring this disaster in his day, but I will bring it on his house in the days of his son.”

1 Kings 22:1 For three years there was no war between Aram and Israel.

1 Kings 22:2 But in the third year Jehoshaphat king of Judah went down to see the king of Israel.

1 Kings 22:3 The king of Israel had said to his officials, “Don’t you know that Ramoth Gilead belongs to us and yet we are doing nothing to retake it from the king of Aram?”

1 Kings 22:4 So he asked Jehoshaphat, “Will you go with me to fight against Ramoth Gilead?” Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, “I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.”

1 Kings 22:5 But Jehoshaphat also said to the king of Israel, “First seek the counsel of the LORD.”

1 Kings 22:6 So the king of Israel brought together the prophets—about four hundred men—and asked them, “Shall I go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?” “Go,” they answered, “for the Lord will give it into the king’s hand.”

1 Kings 22:7 But Jehoshaphat asked, “Is there not a prophet of the LORD here whom we can enquire of?”

1 Kings 22:8 The king of Israel answered Jehoshaphat, “There is still one man through whom we can enquire of the LORD, but I hate him because he never prophesies anything good about me, but always bad. He is Micaiah son of Imlah.” “The king should not say that,” Jehoshaphat replied.

1 Kings 22:9 So the king of Israel called one of his officials and said, “Bring Micaiah son of Imlah at once.”

1 Kings 22:10 Dressed in their royal robes, the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting on their thrones at the threshing-floor by the entrance of the gate of Samaria, with all the prophets prophesying before them.

1 Kings 22:11 Now Zedekiah son of Kenaanah had made iron horns and he declared, “This is what the LORD says:`With these you will gore the Arameans until they are destroyed.’“

1 Kings 22:12 All the other prophets were prophesying the same thing. “Attack Ramoth Gilead and be victorious,” they said, “for the LORD will give it into the king’s hand.”

1 Kings 22:13 The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah said to him, “Look, as one man the other prophets are predicting success for the king. Let your word agree with theirs, and speak favourably.”

1 Kings 22:14 But Micaiah said, “As surely as the LORD lives, I can tell him only what the LORD tells me.”

1 Kings 22:15 When he arrived, the king asked him, “Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?” “Attack and be victorious,” he answered, “for the LORD will give it into the king’s hand.”

1 Kings 22:16 The king said to him, “How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

1 Kings 22:17 Then Micaiah answered, “I saw all Israel scattered on the hills like sheep without a shepherd, and the LORD said,`These people have no master. Let each one go home in peace.’“

1 Kings 22:18 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Didn’t I tell you that he never prophesies anything good about me, but only bad?”

1 Kings 22:19 Micaiah continued, “Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne with all the host of heaven standing round him on his right and on his left.

1 Kings 22:20 And the LORD said,`Who will entice Ahab into attacking Ramoth Gilead and going to his death there?’ “One suggested this, and another that.

1 Kings 22:21 Finally, a spirit came forward, stood before the LORD and said,`I will entice him.’

1 Kings 22:22 “`By what means?’ the LORD asked. “`I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouths of all his prophets,’ he said. “`You will succeed in enticing him,’ said the LORD.`Go and do it.’

1 Kings 22:23 “So now the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouths of all these prophets of yours. The LORD has decreed disaster for you.”

1 Kings 22:24 Then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah went up and slapped Micaiah in the face. “Which way did the spirit from the LORD go when he went from me to speak to you?” he asked.

1 Kings 22:25 Micaiah replied, “You will find out on the day you go to hide in an inner room.”

1 Kings 22:26 The king of Israel then ordered, “Take Micaiah and send him back to Amon the ruler of the city and to Joash the king’s son

1 Kings 22:27 and say,`This is what the king says: Put this fellow in prison and give him nothing but bread and water until I return safely.’“

1 Kings 22:28 Micaiah declared, “If you ever return safely, the LORD has not spoken through me.” Then he added, “Mark my words, all you people!”

1 Kings 22:29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.

1 Kings 22:30 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will enter the battle in disguise, but you wear your royal robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.

1 Kings 22:31 Now the king of Aram had ordered his thirty-two chariot commanders, “Do not fight with anyone, small or great, except the king of Israel.”

1 Kings 22:32 When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they thought, “Surely this is the king of Israel.” So they turned to attack him, but when Jehoshaphat cried out,

1 Kings 22:33 the chariot commanders saw that he was not the king of Israel and stopped pursuing him.

1 Kings 22:34 But someone drew his bow at random and hit the king of Israel between the sections of his armour. The king told his chariot driver, “Wheel round and get me out of the fighting. I’ve been wounded.”

1 Kings 22:35 All day long the battle raged, and the king was propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans. The blood from his wound ran onto the floor of the chariot, and that evening he died.

1 Kings 22:36 As the sun was setting, a cry spread through the army: “Every man to his town; everyone to his land!”

1 Kings 22:37 So the king died and was brought to Samaria, and they buried him there.

1 Kings 22:38 They washed the chariot at a pool in Samaria (where the prostitutes bathed), and the dogs licked up his blood, as the word of the LORD had declared.

1 Kings 22:39 As for the other events of Ahab’s reign, including all he did, the palace he built and inlaid with ivory, and the cities he fortified, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

1 Kings 22:40 Ahab rested with his fathers. And Ahaziah his son succeeded him as king.

1 Kings 22:41 Jehoshaphat son of Asa became king of Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

1 Kings 22:42 Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-five years. His mother’s name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi.

1 Kings 22:43 In everything he walked in the ways of his father Asa and did not stray from them; he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD. The high places, however, were not removed, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

1 Kings 22:44 Jehoshaphat was also at peace with the king of Israel.

1 Kings 22:45 As for the other events of Jehoshaphat's reign, the things he achieved and his military exploits, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

1 Kings 22:46 He rid the land of the rest of the male shrine-prostitutes who remained there even after the reign of his father Asa.

1 Kings 22:47 There was then no king in Edom; a deputy ruled.

1 Kings 22:48 Now Jehoshaphat built a fleet of trading ships to go to Ophir for gold, but they never set sail—they were wrecked at Ezion Geber.

1 Kings 22:49 At that time Ahaziah son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my men sail with your men," but Jehoshaphat refused.

1 Kings 22:50 Then Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the city of David his father. And Jehoram his son succeeded him.

1 Kings 22:51 Ahaziah son of Ahab became king of Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel for two years.

1 Kings 22:52 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, because he walked in the ways of his father and mother and in the ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin.

1 Kings 22:53 He served and worshipped Baal and provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger, just as his father had done.

2 Kings

1:1 After Ahab's death, Moab rebelled against Israel.

2 Kings 1:2 Now Ahaziah had fallen through the lattice of his upper room in Samaria and injured himself. So he sent messengers, saying to them, "Go and consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron, to see if I will recover from this injury."

2 Kings 1:3 But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Go up and meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and ask them,`Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going off to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron?'

2 Kings 1:4 Therefore this is what the LORD says:`You will not leave the bed you are lying on. You will certainly die!'" So Elijah went.

2 Kings 1:5 When the messengers returned to the king, he asked them, "Why have you come back?"

2 Kings 1:6 "A man came to meet us," they replied. "And he said to us,`Go back to the king who sent you and tell him, "This is what the LORD says: Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending men to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not leave the bed you are lying on. You will certainly die!”“

2 Kings 1:7 The king asked them, “What kind of man was it who came to meet you and told you this?”

2 Kings 1:8 They replied, “He was a man with a garment of hair and with a leather belt round his waist.” The king said, “That was Elijah the Tishbite.”

2 Kings 1:9 Then he sent to Elijah a captain with his company of fifty men. The captain went up to Elijah, who was sitting on the top of a hill, and said to him, “Man of God, the king says,`Come down!’“

2 Kings 1:10 Elijah answered the captain, “If I am a man of God, may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men!” Then the fire fell from heaven and consumed the captain and his men.

2 Kings 1:11 At this the king sent to Elijah another captain with his fifty men. The captain said to him, “Man of God, this is what the king says,`Come down at once!’“

2 Kings 1:12 “If I am a man of God,” Elijah replied, “may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men!” Then the fire of God fell from heaven and consumed him and his fifty men.

2 Kings 1:13 So the king sent a third captain with his fifty men. This third captain went up and fell on his knees before Elijah. “Man of God,” he begged, “please have respect for my life and the lives of these fifty men, your servants!

2 Kings 1:14 See, fire has fallen from heaven and consumed the first two captains and all their men. But now have respect for my life!”

2 Kings 1:15 The angel of the LORD said to Elijah, “Go down with him; do not be afraid of him.” So Elijah got up and went down with him to the king.

2 Kings 1:16 He told the king, “This is what the LORD says: Is it because there is no God in Israel for you to consult that you have sent messengers to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Because you have done this, you will never leave the bed you are lying on. You will certainly die!”

2 Kings 1:17 So he died, according to the word of the LORD that Elijah had spoken. Because Ahaziah had no son, Joram succeeded him as king in the second year of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah.

2 Kings 1:18 As for all the other events of Ahaziah’s reign, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2 Kings 2:1 When the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven in a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal.

2 Kings 2:2 Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here; the LORD has sent me to Bethel.” But Elisha said, “As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you.” So they went down to Bethel.

2 Kings 2:3 The company of the prophets at Bethel came out to Elisha and asked, “Do you know that the LORD is going to take your master from you today?” “Yes, I know,” Elisha replied, “but do not speak of it.”

2 Kings 2:4 Then Elijah said to him, “Stay here, Elisha; the LORD has sent me to Jericho.” And he replied, “As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you.” So they went to Jericho.

2 Kings 2:5 The company of the prophets at Jericho went up to Elisha and asked him, “Do you know that the LORD is going to take your master from you today?” “Yes, I know,” he replied, “but do not speak of it.”

2 Kings 2:6 Then Elijah said to him, “Stay here; the LORD has sent me to the Jordan.” And he replied, “As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you.” So the two of them walked on.

2 Kings 2:7 Fifty men of the company of the prophets went and stood at a distance, facing the place where Elijah and Elisha had stopped at the Jordan.

2 Kings 2:8 Elijah took his cloak, rolled it up and struck the water with it. The water divided to the right and to the left, and the two of them crossed over on dry ground.

2 Kings 2:9 When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, “Tell me, what can I do for you before I am taken from you?” “Let me inherit a double portion of your spirit,” Elisha replied.

2 Kings 2:10 “You have asked a difficult thing,” Elijah said, “yet if you see me when I am taken from you, it will be yours— otherwise not.”

2 Kings 2:11 As they were walking along and talking together, suddenly a chariot of fire and horses of fire appeared and separated the two of them, and Elijah went up to heaven in a whirlwind.

2 Kings 2:12 Elisha saw this and cried out, “My father! My father! The chariots and horsemen of Israel!” And Elisha saw him no more. Then he took hold of his own clothes and tore them apart.

2 Kings 2:13 He picked up the cloak that had fallen from Elijah and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan.

2 Kings 2:14 Then he took the cloak that had fallen from him and struck the water with it. “Where now is the LORD, the God of Elijah?” he asked. When he struck the water, it divided to the right and to the left, and he crossed over.

2 Kings 2:15 The company of the prophets from Jericho, who were watching, said, “The spirit of Elijah is resting on Elisha.” And they went to meet him and bowed to the ground before him.

2 Kings 2:16 “Look,” they said, “we your servants have fifty able men. Let them go and look for your master. Perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has picked him up and set him down on some mountain or in some valley.” “No,” Elisha replied, “do not send them.”

2 Kings 2:17 But they persisted until he was too ashamed to refuse. So he said, “Send them.” And they sent fifty men, who searched for three days but did not find him.

2 Kings 2:18 When they returned to Elisha, who was staying in Jericho, he said to them, “Didn’t I tell you not to go?”

2 Kings 2:19 The men of the city said to Elisha, “Look, our lord, this town is well situated, as you can see, but the water is bad and the land is unproductive.”

2 Kings 2:20 “Bring me a new bowl,” he said, “and put salt in it.” So they brought it to him.

2 Kings 2:21 Then he went out to the spring and threw the salt into it, saying, “This is what the LORD says:`I have healed this water. Never again will it cause death or make the land unproductive.’“

2 Kings 2:22 And the water has remained wholesome to this day, according to the word Elisha had spoken.

2 Kings 2:23 From there Elisha went up to Bethel. As he was walking along the road, some youths came out of the town and jeered at him. “Go on up, you baldhead!” they said. “Go on up, you baldhead!”

2 Kings 2:24 He turned round, looked at them and called down a curse on them in the name of the LORD. Then two bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the youths.

2 Kings 2:25 And he went on to Mount Carmel and from there returned to Samaria.

2 Kings 3:1 Joram son of Ahab became king of Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned for twelve years.

2 Kings 3:2 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, but not as his father and mother had done. He got rid of the sacred stone of Baal that his father had made.

2 Kings 3:3 Nevertheless he clung to the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit; he did not turn away from them.

2 Kings 3:4 Now Mesha king of Moab raised sheep, and he had to supply the king of Israel with a hundred thousand lambs and with the wool of a hundred thousand rams.

2 Kings 3:5 But after Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

2 Kings 3:6 So at that time King Joram set out from Samaria and mobilised all Israel.

2 Kings 3:7 He also sent this message to Jehoshaphat king of Judah: “The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?” “I will go with you,” he replied. “I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.”

2 Kings 3:8 “By what route shall we attack?” he asked. “Through the Desert of Edom,” he answered.

2 Kings 3:9 So the king of Israel set out with the king of Judah and the king of Edom. After a roundabout march of seven days, the army had no more water for themselves or for the animals with them.

2 Kings 3:10 “What!” exclaimed the king of Israel. “Has the LORD called us three kings together only to hand us over to Moab?”

2 Kings 3:11 But Jehoshaphat asked, “Is there no prophet of the LORD here, that we may enquire of the LORD through him?” An officer of the king of Israel answered, “Elisha son of Shaphat is here. He used to pour water on the hands of Elijah.”

2 Kings 3:12 Jehoshaphat said, “The word of the LORD is with him.” So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

2 Kings 3:13 Elisha said to the king of Israel, “What do we have to do with each other? Go to the prophets of your father and the prophets of your mother.” “No,” the king of Israel answered, “because it was the LORD who called us three kings together to hand us over to Moab.”

2 Kings 3:14 Elisha said, “As surely as the LORD Almighty lives, whom I serve, if I did not have respect for the presence of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I would not look at you or even notice you.

2 Kings 3:15 But now bring me a harpist.” While the harpist was playing, the hand of the LORD came upon Elisha

2 Kings 3:16 and he said, “This is what the LORD says: Make this valley full of ditches.

2 Kings 3:17 For this is what the LORD says: You will see neither wind nor rain, yet this valley will be filled with water, and you, your cattle and your other animals will drink.

2 Kings 3:18 This is an easy thing in the eyes of the LORD; he will also hand Moab over to you.

2 Kings 3:19 You will overthrow every fortified city and every major town. You will cut down every good tree, stop up all the springs, and ruin every good field with stones.”

2 Kings 3:20 The next morning, about the time for offering the sacrifice, there it was—water flowing from the direction of Edom! And the land was filled with water.

2 Kings 3:21 Now all the Moabites had heard that the kings had come to fight against them; so every man, young and old, who could bear arms was called up and stationed on the border.

2 Kings 3:22 When they got up early in the morning, the sun was shining on the water. To the Moabites across the way, the water looked red—like blood.

2 Kings 3:23 "That's blood!" they said. "Those kings must have fought and slaughtered each other. Now to the plunder, Moab!"

2 Kings 3:24 But when the Moabites came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and fought them until they fled. And the Israelites invaded the land and slaughtered the Moabites.

2 Kings 3:25 They destroyed the towns, and each man threw a stone on every good field until it was covered. They stopped up all the springs and cut down every good tree. Only Kir Hareseth was left with its stones in place, but men armed with slings surrounded it and attacked it as well.

2 Kings 3:26 When the king of Moab saw that the battle had gone against him, he took with him seven hundred swordsmen to break through to the king of Edom, but they failed.

2 Kings 3:27 Then he took his firstborn son, who was to succeed him as king, and offered him as a sacrifice on the city wall. The fury against Israel was great; they withdrew and returned to their own land.

2 Kings 4:1 The wife of a man from the company of the prophets cried out to Elisha, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that he revered the LORD. But now his creditor is coming to take my two boys as his slaves."

2 Kings 4:2 Elisha replied to her, "How can I help you? Tell me, what do you have in your house?" "Your servant has nothing there at all," she said, "except a little oil."

2 Kings 4:3 Elisha said, "Go round and ask all your neighbours for empty jars. Don't ask for just a few.

2 Kings 4:4 Then go inside and shut the door behind you and your sons. Pour oil into all the jars, and as each is filled, put it to one side."

2 Kings 4:5 She left him and afterwards shut the door behind her and her sons. They brought the jars to her and she kept pouring.

2 Kings 4:6 When all the jars were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another one." But he replied, "There is not a jar left." Then the oil stopped flowing.

2 Kings 4:7 She went and told the man of God, and he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debts. You and your sons can live on what is left."

2 Kings 4:8 One day Elisha went to Shunem. And a well-to-do woman was there, who urged him to stay for a meal. So whenever he came by, he stopped there to eat.

2 Kings 4:9 She said to her husband, “I know that this man who often comes our way is a holy man of God.

2 Kings 4:10 Let’s make a small room on the roof and put in it a bed and a table, a chair and a lamp for him. Then he can stay there whenever he comes to us.”

2 Kings 4:11 One day when Elisha came, he went up to his room and lay down there.

2 Kings 4:12 He said to his servant Gehazi, “Call the Shunammite.” So he called her, and she stood before him.

2 Kings 4:13 Elisha said to him, “Tell her,`You have gone to all this trouble for us. Now what can be done for you? Can we speak on your behalf to the king or the commander of the army?‘“ She replied, “I have a home among my own people.”

2 Kings 4:14 “What can be done for her?” Elisha asked. Gehazi said, “Well, she has no son and her husband is old.”

2 Kings 4:15 Then Elisha said, “Call her.” So he called her, and she stood in the doorway.

2 Kings 4:16 “About this time next year,” Elisha said, “you will hold a son in your arms.” “No, my lord,” she objected. “Don’t mislead your servant, O man of God!”

2 Kings 4:17 But the woman became pregnant, and the next year about that same time she gave birth to a son, just as Elisha had told her.

2 Kings 4:18 The child grew, and one day he went out to his father, who was with the reapers.

2 Kings 4:19 “My head! My head!” he said to his father. His father told a servant, “Carry him to his mother.”

2 Kings 4:20 After the servant had lifted him up and carried him to his mother, the boy sat on her lap until noon, and then he died.

2 Kings 4:21 She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, then shut the door and went out.

2 Kings 4:22 She called her husband and said, “Please send me one of the servants and a donkey so I can go to the man of God quickly and return.”

2 Kings 4:23 “Why go to him today?” he asked. “It’s not the New Moon or the Sabbath.” “It’s all right,” she said.

2 Kings 4:24 She saddled the donkey and said to her servant, “Lead on; don’t slow down for me unless I tell you.”

2 Kings 4:25 So she set out and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel. When he saw her in the distance, the man of God said to his servant Gehazi, “Look! There’s the Shunammite!

2 Kings 4:26 Run to meet her and ask her,`Are you all right? Is your husband all right? Is your child all right?'" "Everything is all right," she said.

2 Kings 4:27 When she reached the man of God at the mountain, she took hold of his feet. Gehazi came over to push her away, but the man of God said, "Leave her alone! She is in bitter distress, but the LORD has hidden it from me and has not told me why."

2 Kings 4:28 "Did I ask you for a son, my lord?" she said. "Didn't I tell you,`Don't raise my hopes'?"

2 Kings 4:29 Elisha said to Gehazi, "Tuck your cloak into your belt, take my staff in your hand and run. If you meet anyone, do not greet him, and if anyone greets you, do not answer. Lay my staff on the boy's face."

2 Kings 4:30 But the child's mother said, "As surely as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So he got up and followed her.

2 Kings 4:31 Gehazi went on ahead and laid the staff on the boy's face, but there was no sound or response. So Gehazi went back to meet Elisha and told him, "The boy has not awakened."

2 Kings 4:32 When Elisha reached the house, there was the boy lying dead on his couch.

2 Kings 4:33 He went in, shut the door on the two of them and prayed to the LORD.

2 Kings 4:34 Then he got on the bed and lay upon the boy, mouth to mouth, eyes to eyes, hands to hands. As he stretched himself out upon him, the boy's body grew warm.

2 Kings 4:35 Elisha turned away and walked back and forth in the room and then got onto the bed and stretched out upon him once more. The boy sneezed seven times and opened his eyes.

2 Kings 4:36 Elisha summoned Gehazi and said, "Call the Shunammite." And he did. When she came, he said, "Take your son."

2 Kings 4:37 She came in, fell at his feet and bowed to the ground. Then she took her son and went out.

2 Kings 4:38 Elisha returned to Gilgal and there was a famine in that region. While the company of the prophets was meeting with him, he said to his servant, "Put on the large pot and cook some stew for these men."

2 Kings 4:39 One of them went out into the fields to gather herbs and found a wild vine. He gathered some of its gourds and filled the fold of his cloak. When he returned, he cut them up into the pot of stew, though no-one knew what they were.

2 Kings 4:40 The stew was poured out for the men, but as they began to eat it, they cried out, "O man of God, there is death in the pot!" And they could not eat it.

2 Kings 4:41 Elisha said, “Get some flour.” He put it into the pot and said, “Serve it to the people to eat.” And there was nothing harmful in the pot.

2 Kings 4:42 A man came from Baal Shalishah, bringing the man of God twenty loaves of barley bread baked from the first ripe corn, along with some ears of new corn. “Give it to the people to eat,” Elisha said.

2 Kings 4:43 “How can I set this before a hundred men?” his servant asked. But Elisha answered, “Give it to the people to eat. For this is what the LORD says:`They will eat and have some left over.’“

2 Kings 4:44 Then he set it before them, and they ate and had some left over, according to the word of the LORD.

2 Kings 5:1 Now Naaman was commander of the army of the king of Aram. He was a great man in the sight of his master and highly regarded, because through him the LORD had given victory to Aram. He was a valiant soldier, but he had leprosy.

2 Kings 5:2 Now bands from Aram had gone out and had taken captive a young girl from Israel, and she served Naaman’s wife.

2 Kings 5:3 She said to her mistress, “If only my master would see the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy.”

2 Kings 5:4 Naaman went to his master and told him what the girl from Israel had said.

2 Kings 5:5 “By all means, go,” the king of Aram replied. “I will send a letter to the king of Israel.” So Naaman left, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold and ten sets of clothing.

2 Kings 5:6 The letter that he took to the king of Israel read: “With this letter I am sending my servant Naaman to you so that you may cure him of his leprosy.”

2 Kings 5:7 As soon as the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his robes and said, “Am I God? Can I kill and bring back to life? Why does this fellow send someone to me to be cured of his leprosy? See how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me!”

2 Kings 5:8 When Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his robes, he sent him this message: “Why have you torn your robes? Make the man come to me and he will know that there is a prophet in Israel.”

2 Kings 5:9 So Naaman went with his horses and chariots and stopped at the door of Elisha’s house.

2 Kings 5:10 Elisha sent a messenger to say to him, “Go, wash yourself seven times in the Jordan, and your flesh will be restored and you will be cleansed.”

2 Kings 5:11 But Naaman went away angry and said, “I thought that he would surely come out to me and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, wave his hand over the spot and cure me of my leprosy.

2 Kings 5:12 Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than any of the waters of Israel? Couldn’t I wash in them and be cleansed?” So he turned and went off in a rage.

2 Kings 5:13 Naaman’s servants went to him and said, “My father, if the prophet had told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more, then, when he tells you,`Wash and be cleansed’?”

2 Kings 5:14 So he went down and dipped himself in the Jordan seven times, as the man of God had told him, and his flesh was restored and became clean like that of a young boy.

2 Kings 5:15 Then Naaman and all his attendants went back to the man of God. He stood before him and said, “Now I know that there is no God in all the world except in Israel. Please accept now a gift from your servant.”

2 Kings 5:16 The prophet answered, “As surely as the LORD lives, whom I serve, I will not accept a thing.” And even though Naaman urged him, he refused.

2 Kings 5:17 “If you will not,” said Naaman, “please let me, your servant, be given as much earth as a pair of mules can carry, for your servant will never again make burnt offerings and sacrifices to any other god but the LORD.

2 Kings 5:18 But may the LORD forgive your servant for this one thing: When my master enters the temple of Rimmon to bow down and he is leaning on my arm and I bow there also—when I bow down in the temple of Rimmon, may the LORD forgive your servant for this.”

2 Kings 5:19 “Go in peace,” Elisha said. After Naaman had travelled some distance,

2 Kings 5:20 Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said to himself, “My master was too easy on Naaman, this Aramean, by not accepting from him what he brought. As surely as the LORD lives, I will run after him and get something from him.”

2 Kings 5:21 So Gehazi hurried after Naaman. When Naaman saw him running towards him, he got down from the chariot to meet him. “Is everything all right?” he asked.

2 Kings 5:22 “Everything is all right,” Gehazi answered. “My master sent me to say,`Two young men from the company of the prophets have just come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two sets of clothing.’“

2 Kings 5:23 “By all means, take two talents,” said Naaman. He urged Gehazi to accept them, and then tied up the two talents of silver in two bags, with two sets of clothing. He gave them to two of his servants, and they carried them ahead of Gehazi.

2 Kings 5:24 When Gehazi came to the hill, he took the things from the servants and put them away in the house. He sent the men away and they left.

2 Kings 5:25 Then he went in and stood before his master Elisha. “Where have you been, Gehazi?” Elisha asked. “Your servant didn’t go anywhere,” Gehazi answered.

2 Kings 5:26 But Elisha said to him, “Was not my spirit with you when the man got down from his chariot to meet you? Is this the time to take money, or to accept clothes, olive groves, vineyards, flocks, herds, or menservants and maidservants?

2 Kings 5:27 Naaman’s leprosy will cling to you and to your descendants for ever.” Then Gehazi went from Elisha’s presence and he was leprous, as white as snow.

2 Kings 6:1 The company of the prophets said to Elisha, “Look, the place where we meet with you is too small for us.

2 Kings 6:2 Let us go to the Jordan, where each of us can get a pole; and let us build a place there for us to live.” And he said, “Go.”

2 Kings 6:3 Then one of them said, “Won’t you please come with your servants?” “I will,” Elisha replied.

2 Kings 6:4 And he went with them. They went to the Jordan and began to cut down trees.

2 Kings 6:5 As one of them was cutting down a tree, the iron axe-head fell into the water. “Oh, my lord,” he cried out, “it was borrowed!”

2 Kings 6:6 The man of God asked, “Where did it fall?” When he showed him the place, Elisha cut a stick and threw it there, and made the iron float.

2 Kings 6:7 “Lift it out,” he said. Then the man reached out his hand and took it.

2 Kings 6:8 Now the king of Aram was at war with Israel. After conferring with his officers, he said, “I will set up my camp in such and such a place.”

2 Kings 6:9 The man of God sent word to the king of Israel: “Beware of passing that place, because the Arameans are going down there.”

2 Kings 6:10 So the king of Israel checked on the place indicated by the man of God. Time and again Elisha warned the king, so that he was on his guard in such places.

2 Kings 6:11 This enraged the king of Aram. He summoned his officers and demanded of them, “Will you not tell me which of us is on the side of the king of Israel?”

2 Kings 6:12 “None of us, my lord the king,” said one of his officers, “but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the very words you speak in your bedroom.”

2 Kings 6:13 “Go, find out where he is,” the king ordered, “so that I can send men and capture him.” The report came back: “He is in Dothan.”

2 Kings 6:14 Then he sent horses and chariots and a strong force there. They went by night and surrounded the city.

2 Kings 6:15 When the servant of the man of God got up and went out early the next morning, an army with horses and chariots had surrounded the city. “Oh, my lord, what shall we do?” the servant asked.

2 Kings 6:16 “Don’t be afraid,” the prophet answered. “Those who are with us are more than those who are with them.”

2 Kings 6:17 And Elisha prayed, “O LORD, open his eyes so that he may see.” Then the LORD opened the servant’s eyes, and he looked and saw the hills full of horses and chariots of fire all round Elisha.

2 Kings 6:18 As the enemy came down towards him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, “Strike these people with blindness.” So he struck them with blindness, as Elisha had asked.

2 Kings 6:19 Elisha told them, “This is not the road and this is not the city. Follow me, and I will lead you to the man you are looking for.” And he led them to Samaria.

2 Kings 6:20 After they entered the city, Elisha said, “LORD, open the eyes of these men so that they can see.” Then the LORD opened their eyes and they looked, and there they were, inside Samaria.

2 Kings 6:21 When the king of Israel saw them, he asked Elisha, “Shall I kill them, my father? Shall I kill them?”

2 Kings 6:22 “Do not kill them,” he answered. “Would you kill men you have captured with your own sword or bow? Set food and water before them so that they may eat and drink and then go back to their master.”

2 Kings 6:23 So he prepared a great feast for them, and after they had finished eating and drinking, he sent them away, and they returned to their master. So the bands from Aram stopped raiding Israel’s territory.

2 Kings 6:24 Some time later, Ben-Hadad king of Aram mobilised his entire army and marched up and laid siege to Samaria.

2 Kings 6:25 There was a great famine in the city; the siege lasted so long that a donkey’s head sold for eighty shekels of silver, and a quarter of a cab of seed pods for five shekels.

2 Kings 6:26 As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried to him, “Help me, my lord the king!”

2 Kings 6:27 The king replied, “If the LORD does not help you, where can I get help for you? From the threshing-floor? From the winepress?”

2 Kings 6:28 Then he asked her, “What’s the matter?” She answered, “This woman said to me,`Give up your son so that we may eat him today, and tomorrow we’ll eat my son.’

2 Kings 6:29 So we cooked my son and ate him. The next day I said to her,`Give up your son so that we may eat him,’ but she had hidden him.”

2 Kings 6:30 When the king heard the woman’s words, he tore his robes. As he went along the wall, the people looked, and there, underneath, he had sackcloth on his body.

2 Kings 6:31 He said, “May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if the head of Elisha son of Shaphat remains on his shoulders today!”

2 Kings 6:32 Now Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. The king sent a messenger ahead, but before he arrived, Elisha said to the elders, “Don’t you see how this murderer is sending someone to cut off my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door and hold it shut against him. Is not the sound of his master’s footsteps behind him?”

2 Kings 6:33 While he was still talking to them, the messenger came down to him. And [the king] said, “This disaster is from the LORD. Why should I wait for the LORD any longer?”

2 Kings 7:1 Elisha said, “Hear the word of the LORD. This is what the LORD says: About this time tomorrow, a seah of flour will sell for a shekel and two seahs of barley for a shekel at the gate of Samaria.”

2 Kings 7:2 The officer on whose arm the king was leaning said to the man of God, “Look, even if the LORD should open the floodgates of the heavens, could this happen?” “You will see it with your own eyes,” answered Elisha, “but you will not eat any of it!”

2 Kings 7:3 Now there were four men with leprosy at the entrance of the city gate. They said to each other, “Why stay here until we die?

2 Kings 7:4 If we say,`We’ll go into the city’—the famine is there, and we will die. And if we stay here, we will die. So let’s go over to the camp of the Arameans and surrender. If they spare us, we live; if they kill us, then we die.”

2 Kings 7:5 At dusk they got up and went to the camp of the Arameans. When they reached the edge of the camp, not a man was there,

2 Kings 7:6 for the Lord had caused the Arameans to hear the sound of chariots and horses and a great army, so that they said to one another, “Look, the king of Israel has hired the Hittite and Egyptian kings to attack us!”

2 Kings 7:7 So they got up and fled in the dusk and abandoned their tents and their horses and donkeys. They left the camp as it was and ran for their lives.

2 Kings 7:8 The men who had leprosy reached the edge of the camp and entered one of the tents. They ate and drank, and carried away silver, gold and clothes, and went off and hid them. They returned and entered another tent and took some things from it and hid them also.

2 Kings 7:9 Then they said to each other, “We’re not doing right. This is a day of good news and we are keeping it to ourselves. If we wait until daylight, punishment will overtake us. Let’s go at once and report this to the royal palace.”

2 Kings 7:10 So they went and called out to the city gatekeepers and told them, “We went into the Aramean camp and not a man was there—not a sound of anyone—only tethered horses and donkeys, and the tents left just as they were.”

2 Kings 7:11 The gatekeepers shouted the news, and it was reported within the palace.

2 Kings 7:12 The king got up in the night and said to his officers, “I will tell you what the Arameans have done to us. They know we are starving; so they have left the camp to hide in the countryside, thinking,`They will surely come out, and then we will take them alive and get into the city.’“

2 Kings 7:13 One of his officers answered, “Make some men take five of the horses that are left in the city. Their plight will be like that of all the Israelites left here—yes, they will only be like all these Israelites who are doomed. So let us send them to find out what happened.”

2 Kings 7:14 So they selected two chariots with their horses, and the king sent them after the Aramean army. He commanded the drivers, “Go and find out what has happened.”

2 Kings 7:15 They followed them as far as the Jordan, and they found the whole road strewn with the clothing and equipment the Arameans had thrown away in their headlong flight. So the messengers returned and reported to the king.

2 Kings 7:16 Then the people went out and plundered the camp of the Arameans. So a seah of flour sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley sold for a shekel, as the LORD had said.

2 Kings 7:17 Now the king had put the officer on whose arm he leaned in charge of the gate, and the people trampled him in the gateway, and he died, just as the man of God had foretold when the king came down to his house.

2 Kings 7:18 It happened as the man of God had said to the king: “About this time tomorrow, a seah of flour will sell for a shekel and two seahs of barley for a shekel at the gate of Samaria.”

2 Kings 7:19 The officer had said to the man of God, “Look, even if the LORD should open the floodgates of the heavens, could this happen?” The man of God had replied, “You will see it with your own eyes, but you will not eat any of it!”

2 Kings 7:20 And that is exactly what happened to him, for the people trampled him in the gateway, and he died.

2 Kings 8:1 Now Elisha had said to the woman whose son he had restored to life, “Go away with your family and stay for a while wherever you can, because the LORD has decreed a famine in the land that will last seven years.”

2 Kings 8:2 The woman proceeded to do as the man of God said. She and her family went away and stayed in the land of the Philistines for seven years.

2 Kings 8:3 At the end of the seven years she came back from the land of the Philistines and went to the king to beg for her house and land.

2 Kings 8:4 The king was talking to Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, and had said, “Tell me about all the great things Elisha has done.”

2 Kings 8:5 Just as Gehazi was telling the king how Elisha had restored the dead to life, the woman whose son Elisha had brought back to life came to beg the king for her house and land. Gehazi said, “This is the woman, my lord the king, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life.”

2 Kings 8:6 The king asked the woman about it, and she told him. Then he assigned an official to her case and said to him, “Give back everything that belonged to her, including all the income from her land from the day she left the country until now.”

2 Kings 8:7 Elisha went to Damascus, and Ben-Hadad king of Aram was ill. When the king was told, “The man of God has come all the way up here,”

2 Kings 8:8 he said to Hazael, “Take a gift with you and go to meet the man of God. Consult the LORD through him; ask him,`Will I recover from this illness?’“

2 Kings 8:9 Hazael went to meet Elisha, taking with him as a gift forty camel-loads of all the finest wares of Damascus. He went in and stood before him, and said, “Your son Ben-Hadad king of Aram has sent me to ask,`Will I recover from this illness?’“

2 Kings 8:10 Elisha answered, “Go and say to him,`You will certainly recover’; but the LORD has revealed to me that he will in fact die.”

2 Kings 8:11 He stared at him with a fixed gaze until Hazael felt ashamed. Then the man of God began to weep.

2 Kings 8:12 “Why is my lord weeping?” asked Hazael. “Because I know the harm you will do to the Israelites,” he answered. “You will set fire to their fortified places, kill their young men with the sword, dash their little children to the ground, and rip open their pregnant women.”

2 Kings 8:13 Hazael said, “How could your servant, a mere dog, accomplish such a feat?” “The LORD has shown me that you will become king of Aram,” answered Elisha.

2 Kings 8:14 Then Hazael left Elisha and returned to his master. When Ben-Hadad asked, “What did Elisha say to you?” Hazael replied, “He told me that you would certainly recover.”

2 Kings 8:15 But the next day he took a thick cloth, soaked it in water and spread it over the king’s face, so that he died. Then Hazael succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 8:16 In the fifth year of Joram son of Ahab king of Israel, when Jehoshaphat was king of Judah, Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat began his reign as king of Judah.

2 Kings 8:17 He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eight years.

2 Kings 8:18 He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for he married a daughter of Ahab. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

2 Kings 8:19 Nevertheless, for the sake of his servant David, the LORD was not willing to destroy Judah. He had promised to maintain a lamp for David and his descendants for ever.

2 Kings 8:20 In the time of Jehoram, Edom rebelled against Judah and set up its own king.

2 Kings 8:21 So Jehoram went to Zair with all his chariots. The Edomites surrounded him and his chariot commanders, but he rose up and broke through by night; his army, however, fled back home.

2 Kings 8:22 To this day Edom has been in rebellion against Judah. Libnah revolted at the same time.

2 Kings 8:23 As for the other events of Jehoram’s reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2 Kings 8:24 Jehoram rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David. And Ahaziah his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 8:25 In the twelfth year of Joram son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.

2 Kings 8:26 Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for one year. His mother’s name was Athaliah, a granddaughter of Omri king of Israel.

2 Kings 8:27 He walked in the ways of the house of Ahab and did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as the house of Ahab had done, for he was related by marriage to Ahab’s family.

2 Kings 8:28 Ahaziah went with Joram son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram;

2 Kings 8:29 so King Joram returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds the Arameans had inflicted on him at Ramoth in his battle with Hazael king of Aram. Then Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to Jezreel to see Joram son of Ahab, because he had been wounded.

2 Kings 9:1 The prophet Elisha summoned a man from the company of the prophets and said to him, “Tuck your cloak into your belt, take this flask of oil with you and go to Ramoth Gilead.

2 Kings 9:2 When you get there, look for Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi. Go to him, get him away from his companions and take him into an inner room.

2 Kings 9:3 Then take the flask and pour the oil on his head and declare,`This is what the LORD says: I anoint you king over Israel.’ Then open the door and run; don’t delay!”

2 Kings 9:4 So the young man, the prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead.

2 Kings 9:5 When he arrived, he found the army officers sitting together. “I have a message for you, commander,” he said. “For which of us?” asked Jehu. “For you, commander,” he replied.

2 Kings 9:6 Jehu got up and went into the house. Then the prophet poured the oil on Jehu’s head and declared, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:`I anoint you king over the LORD’s people Israel.

2 Kings 9:7 You are to destroy the house of Ahab your master, and I will avenge the blood of my servants the prophets and the blood of all the LORD’s servants shed by Jezebel.

2 Kings 9:8 The whole house of Ahab will perish. I will cut off from Ahab every last male in Israel—slave or free.

2 Kings 9:9 I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha son of Ahijah.

2 Kings 9:10 As for Jezebel, dogs will devour her on the plot of ground at Jezreel, and no-one will bury her.’“ Then he opened the door and ran.

2 Kings 9:11 When Jehu went out to his fellow officers, one of them asked him, “Is everything all right? Why did this madman come to you?” “You know the man and the sort of things he says,” Jehu replied.

2 Kings 9:12 “That’s not true!” they said. “Tell us.” Jehu said, “Here is what he told me:`This is what the LORD says: I anoint you king over Israel.’“

2 Kings 9:13 They hurried and took their cloaks and spread them under him on the bare steps. Then they blew the trumpet and shouted, “Jehu is king!”

2 Kings 9:14 So Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. (Now Joram and all Israel had been defending Ramoth Gilead against Hazael king of Aram,

2 Kings 9:15 but King Joram had returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds the Arameans had inflicted on him in the battle with Hazael king of Aram.) Jehu said, “If this is the way you feel, don’t let anyone slip out of the city to go and tell the news in Jezreel.”

2 Kings 9:16 Then he got into his chariot and rode to Jezreel, because Joram was resting there and Ahaziah king of Judah had gone down to see him.

2 Kings 9:17 When the lookout standing on the tower in Jezreel saw Jehu’s troops approaching, he called out, “I see some troops coming.” “Get a horseman,” Joram ordered. “Send him to meet them and ask,`Do you come in peace?‘“

2 Kings 9:18 The horseman rode off to meet Jehu and said, “This is what the king says:`Do you come in peace?‘“ “What do you have to do with peace?” Jehu replied. “Fall in behind me.” The lookout reported, “The messenger has reached them, but he isn’t coming back.”

2 Kings 9:19 So the king sent out a second horseman. When he came to them he said, “This is what the king says:`Do you come in peace?‘“ Jehu replied, “What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me.”

2 Kings 9:20 The lookout reported, “He has reached them, but he isn’t coming back either. The driving is like that of Jehu son of Nimshi—he drives like a madman.”

2 Kings 9:21 “Hitch up my chariot,” Joram ordered. And when it was hitched up, Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah rode out, each in his own chariot, to meet Jehu. They met him at the plot of ground that had belonged to Naboth the Jezreelite.

2 Kings 9:22 When Joram saw Jehu he asked, “Have you come in peace, Jehu?” “How can there be peace,” Jehu replied, “as long as all the idolatry and witchcraft of your mother Jezebel abound?”

2 Kings 9:23 Joram turned about and fled, calling out to Ahaziah, “Treachery, Ahaziah!”

2 Kings 9:24 Then Jehu drew his bow and shot Joram between the shoulders. The arrow pierced his heart and he slumped down in his chariot.

2 Kings 9:25 Jehu said to Bidkar, his chariot officer, “Pick him up and throw him on the field that belonged to Naboth the Jezreelite. Remember how you and I were riding together in chariots behind Ahab his father when the LORD made this prophecy about him:

2 Kings 9:26 `Yesterday I saw the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons, declares the LORD, and I will surely make you pay for it on this plot of ground, declares the LORD.’ Now then, pick him up and throw him on that plot, in accordance with the word of the LORD.”

2 Kings 9:27 When Ahaziah king of Judah saw what had happened, he fled up the road to Beth Haggan. Jehu chased him, shouting, “Kill him too!” They wounded him in his chariot on the way up to Gur near Ibleam, but he escaped to Megiddo and died there.

2 Kings 9:28 His servants took him by chariot to Jerusalem and buried him with his fathers in his tomb in the City of David.

2 Kings 9:29 (In the eleventh year of Joram son of Ahab, Ahaziah had become king of Judah.)

2 Kings 9:30 Then Jehu went to Jezreel. When Jezebel heard about it, she painted her eyes, arranged her hair and looked out of a window.

2 Kings 9:31 As Jehu entered the gate, she asked, “Have you come in peace, Zimri, you murderer of your master?”

2 Kings 9:32 He looked up at the window and called out, “Who is on my side? Who?” Two or three eunuchs looked down at him.

2 Kings 9:33 “Throw her down!” Jehu said. So they threw her down, and some of her blood spattered the wall and the horses as they trampled her underfoot.

2 Kings 9:34 Jehu went in and ate and drank. “Take care of that cursed woman,” he said, “and bury her, for she was a king’s daughter.”

2 Kings 9:35 But when they went out to bury her, they found nothing except her skull, her feet and her hands.

2 Kings 9:36 They went back and told Jehu, who said, “This is the word of the LORD that he spoke through his servant Elijah the Tishbite: On the plot of ground at Jezreel dogs will devour Jezebel’s flesh.

2 Kings 9:37 Jezebel’s body will be like refuse on the ground in the plot at Jezreel, so that no-one will be able to say,`This is Jezebel.’“

2 Kings 10:1 Now there were in Samaria seventy sons of the house of Ahab. So Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria: to the officials of Jezreel, to the elders and to the guardians of Ahab’s children. He said,

2 Kings 10:2 “As soon as this letter reaches you, since your master’s sons are with you and you have chariots and horses, a fortified city and weapons,

2 Kings 10:3 choose the best and most worthy of your master’s sons and set him on his father’s throne. Then fight for your master’s house.”

2 Kings 10:4 But they were terrified and said, “If two kings could not resist him, how can we?”

2 Kings 10:5 So the palace administrator, the city governor, the elders and the guardians sent this message to Jehu: “We are your servants and we will do anything you say. We will not appoint anyone as king; you do whatever you think best.”

2 Kings 10:6 Then Jehu wrote them a second letter, saying, “If you are on my side and will obey me, take the heads of your master’s sons and come to me in Jezreel by this time tomorrow.” Now the royal princes, seventy of them, were with the leading men of the city, who were bringing them up.

2 Kings 10:7 When the letter arrived, these men took the princes and slaughtered all seventy of them. They put their heads in baskets and sent them to Jehu in Jezreel.

2 Kings 10:8 When the messenger arrived, he told Jehu, “They have brought the heads of the princes.” Then Jehu ordered, “Put them in two piles at the entrance of the city gate until morning.”

2 Kings 10:9 The next morning Jehu went out. He stood before all the people and said, “You are innocent. It was I who conspired against my master and killed him, but who killed all these?

2 Kings 10:10 Know then, that not a word the LORD has spoken against the house of Ahab will fail. The LORD has done what he promised through his servant Elijah.”

2 Kings 10:11 So Jehu killed everyone in Jezreel who remained of the house of Ahab, as well as all his chief men, his close friends and his priests, leaving him no survivor.

2 Kings 10:12 Jehu then set out and went towards Samaria. At Beth Eked of the Shepherds,

2 Kings 10:13 he met some relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah and asked, “Who are you?” They said, “We are relatives of Ahaziah, and we have come down to greet the families of the king and of the queen mother.”

2 Kings 10:14 “Take them alive!” he ordered. So they took them alive and slaughtered them by the well of Beth Eked—forty-two men. He left no survivor.

2 Kings 10:15 After he left there, he came upon Jehonadab son of Recab, who was on his way to meet him. Jehu greeted him and said, “Are you in accord with me, as I am with you?” “I am,” Jehonadab answered. “If so,” said Jehu, “give me your hand.” So he did, and Jehu helped him up into the chariot.

2 Kings 10:16 Jehu said, “Come with me and see my zeal for the LORD.” Then he made him ride in his chariot.

2 Kings 10:17 When Jehu came to Samaria, he killed all who were left there of Ahab’s family; he destroyed them, according to the word of the LORD spoken to Elijah.

2 Kings 10:18 Then Jehu brought all the people together and said to them, “Ahab served Baal a little; Jehu will serve him much.

2 Kings 10:19 Now summon all the prophets of Baal, all his ministers and all his priests. See that no-one is missing, because I am going to hold a great sacrifice for Baal. Anyone who fails to come will no longer live.” But Jehu was acting deceptively in order to destroy the ministers of Baal.

2 Kings 10:20 Jehu said, “Call an assembly in honour of Baal.” So they proclaimed it.

2 Kings 10:21 Then he sent word throughout Israel, and all the ministers of Baal came; not one stayed away. They crowded into the temple of Baal until it was full from one end to the other.

2 Kings 10:22 And Jehu said to the keeper of the wardrobe, “Bring robes for all the ministers of Baal.” So he brought out robes for them.

2 Kings 10:23 Then Jehu and Jehonadab son of Recab went into the temple of Baal. Jehu said to the ministers of Baal, “Look around and see that no servants of the LORD are here with you—only ministers of Baal.”

2 Kings 10:24 So they went in to make sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had posted eighty men outside with this warning: “If one of you lets any of the men I am placing in your hands escape, it will be your life for his life.”

2 Kings 10:25 As soon as Jehu had finished making the burnt offering, he ordered the guards and officers: “Go in and kill them; let no-one escape.” So they cut them down with the sword. The guards and officers threw the bodies out and then entered the inner shrine of the temple of Baal.

2 Kings 10:26 They brought the sacred stone out of the temple of Baal and burned it.

2 Kings 10:27 They demolished the sacred stone of Baal and tore down the temple of Baal, and people have used it for a latrine to this day.

2 Kings 10:28 So Jehu destroyed Baal worship in Israel.

2 Kings 10:29 However, he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit—the worship of the golden calves at Bethel and Dan.

2 Kings 10:30 The LORD said to Jehu, “Because you have done well in accomplishing what is right in my eyes and have done to the house of Ahab all I had in mind to do, your descendants will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation.”

2 Kings 10:31 Yet Jehu was not careful to keep the law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam, which he had caused Israel to commit.

2 Kings 10:32 In those days the LORD began to reduce the size of Israel. Hazael overpowered the Israelites throughout their territory

2 Kings 10:33 east of the Jordan in all the land of Gilead (the region of Gad, Reuben and Manasseh), from Aroer by the Arnon Gorge through Gilead to Bashan.

2 Kings 10:34 As for the other events of Jehu’s reign, all he did, and all his achievements, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2 Kings 10:35 Jehu rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 10:36 The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

2 Kings 11:1 When Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she proceeded to destroy the whole royal family.

2 Kings 11:2 But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Jehoram and sister of Ahaziah, took Joash son of Ahaziah and stole him away from among the royal princes, who were about to be murdered. She put him and his nurse in a bedroom to hide him from Athaliah; so he was not killed.

2 Kings 11:3 He remained hidden with his nurse at the temple of the LORD for six years while Athaliah ruled the land.

2 Kings 11:4 In the seventh year Jehoiada sent for the commanders of units of a hundred, the Carites and the guards and had them brought to him at the temple of the LORD. He made a covenant with them and put them under oath at the temple of the LORD. Then he showed them the king’s son.

2 Kings 11:5 He commanded them, saying, “This is what you are to do: You who are in the three companies that are going on duty on the Sabbath—a third of you guarding the royal palace,

2 Kings 11:6 a third at the Sur Gate, and a third at the gate behind the guard, who take turns guarding the temple—

2 Kings 11:7 and you who are in the other two companies that normally go off Sabbath duty are all to guard the temple for the king.

2 Kings 11:8 Station yourselves round the king, each man with his weapon in his hand. Anyone who approaches your ranks must be put to death. Stay close to the king wherever he goes.”

2 Kings 11:9 The commanders of units of a hundred did just as Jehoiada the priest ordered. Each one took his men—those who were going on duty on the Sabbath and those who were going off duty— and came to Jehoiada the priest.

2 Kings 11:10 Then he gave the commanders the spears and shields that had belonged to King David and that were in the temple of the LORD.

2 Kings 11:11 The guards, each with his weapon in his hand, stationed themselves round the king—near the altar and the temple, from the south side to the north side of the temple.

2 Kings 11:12 Jehoiada brought out the king’s son and put the crown on him; he presented him with a copy of the covenant and proclaimed him king. They anointed him, and the people clapped their hands and shouted, “Long live the king!”

2 Kings 11:13 When Athaliah heard the noise made by the guards and the people, she went to the people at the temple of the LORD.

2 Kings 11:14 She looked and there was the king, standing by the pillar, as the custom was. The officers and the trumpeters were beside the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her robes and called out, “Treason! Treason!”

2 Kings 11:15 Jehoiada the priest ordered the commanders of units of a hundred, who were in charge of the troops: “Bring her out between the ranks and put to the sword anyone who follows her.” For the priest had said, “She must not be put to death in the temple of the LORD.”

2 Kings 11:16 So they seized her as she reached the place where the horses enter the palace grounds, and there she was put to death.

2 Kings 11:17 Jehoiada then made a covenant between the LORD and the king and people that they would be the LORD’s people. He also made a covenant between the king and the people.

2 Kings 11:18 All the people of the land went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They smashed the altars and idols to pieces and killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars. Then Jehoiada the priest posted guards at the temple of the LORD.

2 Kings 11:19 He took with him the commanders of hundreds, the Carites, the guards and all the people of the land, and together they brought the king down from the temple of the LORD and went into the palace, entering by way of the gate of the guards. The king then took his place on the royal throne,

2 Kings 11:20 and all the people of the land rejoiced. And the city was quiet, because Athaliah had been slain with the sword at the palace.

2 Kings 11:21 Joash was seven years old when he began his reign.

2 Kings 12:1 In the seventh year of Jehu, Joash became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for forty years. His mother’s name was Zibiah; she was from Beersheba.

2 Kings 12:2 Joash did what was right in the eyes of the LORD all the years Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

2 Kings 12:3 The high places, however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

2 Kings 12:4 Joash said to the priests, “Collect all the money that is brought as sacred offerings to the temple of the LORD—the money collected in the census, the money received from personal vows and the money brought voluntarily to the temple.

2 Kings 12:5 Let every priest receive the money from one of the treasurers, and let it be used to repair whatever damage is found in the temple.”

2 Kings 12:6 But by the twenty-third year of King Joash the priests still had not repaired the temple.

2 Kings 12:7 Therefore King Joash summoned Jehoiada the priest and the other priests and asked them, “Why aren’t you repairing the damage done to the temple? Take no more money from your treasurers, but hand it over for repairing the temple.”

2 Kings 12:8 The priests agreed that they would not collect any more money from the people and that they would not repair the temple themselves.

2 Kings 12:9 Jehoiada the priest took a chest and bored a hole in its lid. He placed it beside the altar, on the right side as one enters the temple of the LORD. The priests who guarded the entrance put into the chest all the money that was brought to the temple of the LORD.

2 Kings 12:10 Whenever they saw that there was a large amount of money in the chest, the royal secretary and the high priest came, counted the money that had been brought into the temple of the LORD and put it into bags.

2 Kings 12:11 When the amount had been determined, they gave the money to the men appointed to supervise the work on the temple. With it they paid those who worked on the temple of the LORD—the carpenters and builders,

2 Kings 12:12 the masons and stonecutters. They purchased timber and dressed stone for the repair of the temple of the LORD, and met all the other expenses of restoring the temple.

2 Kings 12:13 The money brought into the temple was not spent for making silver basins, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, trumpets or any other articles of gold or silver for the temple of the LORD;

2 Kings 12:14 it was paid to the workmen, who used it to repair the temple.

2 Kings 12:15 They did not require an accounting from those to whom they gave the money to pay the workers, because they acted with complete honesty.

2 Kings 12:16 The money from the guilt offerings and sin offerings was not brought into the temple of the LORD; it belonged to the priests.

2 Kings 12:17 About this time Hazael king of Aram went up and attacked Gath and captured it. Then he turned to attack Jerusalem.

2 Kings 12:18 But Joash king of Judah took all the sacred objects dedicated by his fathers—Jehoshaphat, Jehoram and Ahaziah, the kings of Judah—and the gifts he himself had dedicated and all the gold found in the treasuries of the temple of the LORD and of the royal palace, and he sent them to Hazael king of Aram, who then withdrew from Jerusalem.

2 Kings 12:19 As for the other events of the reign of Joash, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2 Kings 12:20 His officials conspired against him and assassinated him at Beth Millo, on the road down to Silla.

2 Kings 12:21 The officials who murdered him were Jozabad son of Shimeath and Jehozabad son of Shomer. He died and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. And Amaziah his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 13:1 In the twenty-third year of Joash son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned for seventeen years.

2 Kings 13:2 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD by following the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit, and he did not turn away from them.

2 Kings 13:3 So the LORD’s anger burned against Israel, and for a long time he kept them under the power of Hazael king of Aram and Ben-Hadad his son.

2 Kings 13:4 Then Jehoahaz sought the LORD’s favour, and the LORD listened to him, for he saw how severely the king of Aram was oppressing Israel.

2 Kings 13:5 The LORD provided a deliverer for Israel, and they escaped from the power of Aram. So the Israelites lived in their own homes as they had before.

2 Kings 13:6 But they did not turn away from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, which he had caused Israel to commit; they continued in them. Also, the Asherah pole remained standing in Samaria.

2 Kings 13:7 Nothing had been left of the army of Jehoahaz except fifty horsemen, ten chariots and ten thousand foot soldiers, for the king of Aram had destroyed the rest and made them like the dust at threshing time.

2 Kings 13:8 As for the other events of the reign of Jehoahaz, all he did and his achievements, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2 Kings 13:9 Jehoahaz rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria. And Jehoash his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 13:10 In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash son of Jehoahaz became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned for sixteen years.

2 Kings 13:11 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD and did not turn away from any of the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit; he continued in them.

2 Kings 13:12 As for the other events of the reign of Jehoash, all he did and his achievements, including his war against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2 Kings 13:13 Jehoash rested with his fathers, and Jeroboam succeeded him on the throne. Jehoash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

2 Kings 13:14 Now Elisha was suffering from the illness from which he died. Jehoash king of Israel went down to see him and wept over him. “My father! My father!” he cried. “The chariots and horsemen of Israel!”

2 Kings 13:15 Elisha said, “Get a bow and some arrows,” and he did so.

2 Kings 13:16 “Take the bow in your hands,” he said to the king of Israel. When he had taken it, Elisha put his hands on the king’s hands.

2 Kings 13:17 “Open the east window,” he said, and he opened it. “Shoot!” Elisha said, and he shot. “The LORD’s arrow of victory, the arrow of victory over Aram!” Elisha declared. “You will completely destroy the Arameans at Aphek.”

2 Kings 13:18 Then he said, “Take the arrows,” and the king took them. Elisha told him, “Strike the ground.” He struck it three times and stopped.

2 Kings 13:19 The man of God was angry with him and said, “You should have struck the ground five or six times; then you would have defeated Aram and completely destroyed it. But now you will defeat it only three times.”

2 Kings 13:20 Elisha died and was buried. Now Moabite raiders used to enter the country every spring.

2 Kings 13:21 Once while some Israelites were burying a man, suddenly they saw a band of raiders; so they threw the man’s body into Elisha’s tomb. When the body touched Elisha’s bones, the man came to life and stood up on his feet.

2 Kings 13:22 Hazael king of Aram oppressed Israel throughout the reign of Jehoahaz.

2 Kings 13:23 But the LORD was gracious to them and had compassion and showed concern for them because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. To this day he has been unwilling to destroy them or banish them from his presence.

2 Kings 13:24 Hazael king of Aram died, and Ben-Hadad his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 13:25 Then Jehoash son of Jehoahaz recaptured from Ben-Hadad son of Hazael the towns he had taken in battle from his father Jehoahaz. Three times Jehoash defeated him, and so he recovered the Israelite towns.

2 Kings 14:1 In the second year of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah began to reign.

2 Kings 14:2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Jehoaddin; she was from Jerusalem.

2 Kings 14:3 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, but not as his father David had done. In everything he followed the example of his father Joash.

2 Kings 14:4 The high places, however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

2 Kings 14:5 After the kingdom was firmly in his grasp, he executed the officials who had murdered his father the king.

2 Kings 14:6 Yet he did not put the sons of the assassins to death, in accordance with what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses where the LORD commanded: "Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor children put to death for their fathers; each is to die for his own sins."

2 Kings 14:7 He was the one who defeated ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt and captured Sela in battle, calling it Joktheel, the name it has to this day.

2 Kings 14:8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, with the challenge: "Come, meet me face to face."

2 Kings 14:9 But Jehoash king of Israel replied to Amaziah king of Judah: "A thistle in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar in Lebanon,`Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' Then a wild beast in Lebanon came along and trampled the thistle underfoot.

2 Kings 14:10 You have indeed defeated Edom and now you are arrogant. Glory in your victory, but stay at home! Why ask for trouble and cause your own downfall and that of Judah also?"

2 Kings 14:11 Amaziah, however, would not listen, so Jehoash king of Israel attacked. He and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other at Beth Shemesh in Judah.

2 Kings 14:12 Judah was routed by Israel, and every man fled to his home.

2 Kings 14:13 Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh. Then Jehoash went to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate—a section about six hundred feet long.

2 Kings 14:14 He took all the gold and silver and all the articles found in the temple of the LORD and in the treasuries of the royal palace. He also took hostages and returned to Samaria.

2 Kings 14:15 As for the other events of the reign of Jehoash, what he did and his achievements, including his war against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2 Kings 14:16 Jehoash rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. And Jeroboam his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 14:17 Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah lived for fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel.

2 Kings 14:18 As for the other events of Amaziah's reign, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2 Kings 14:19 They conspired against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish, but they sent men after him to Lachish and killed him there.

2 Kings 14:20 He was brought back by horse and was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers, in the City of David.

2 Kings 14:21 Then all the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah.

2 Kings 14:22 He was the one who rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah after Amaziah rested with his fathers.

2 Kings 14:23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam son of Jehoash king of Israel became king in Samaria, and he reigned for forty-one years.

2 Kings 14:24 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD and did not turn away from any of the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

2 Kings 14:25 He was the one who restored the boundaries of Israel from Lebo Hamath to the Sea of the Arabah, in accordance with the word of the LORD, the God of Israel, spoken through his servantJonah son of Amittai, the prophet from Gath Hepher.

2 Kings 14:26 The LORD had seen how bitterly everyone in Israel, whether slave or free, was suffering; there was no-one to help them.

2 Kings 14:27 And since the LORD had not said he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven, he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam son of Jehoash.

2 Kings 14:28 As for the other events of Jeroboam's reign, all he did, and his military achievements, including how he recovered for Israel both

Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Yaudi, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2 Kings 14:29 Jeroboam rested with his fathers, the kings of Israel. And Zechariah his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 15:1 In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah began to reign.

2 Kings 15:2 He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for fifty-two years. His mother's name was Jecoliah; she was from Jerusalem.

2 Kings 15:3 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Amaziah had done.

2 Kings 15:4 The high places, however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.

2 Kings 15:5 The LORD afflicted the king with leprosy until the day he died, and he lived in a separate house. Jotham the king's son had charge of the palace and governed the people of the land.

2 Kings 15:6 As for the other events of Azariah's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2 Kings 15:7 Azariah rested with his fathers and was buried near them in the City of David. And Jotham his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 15:8 In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned for six months.

2 Kings 15:9 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as his fathers had done. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

2 Kings 15:10 Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against Zechariah. He attacked him in front of the people, assassinated him and succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 15:11 The other events of Zechariah's reign are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

2 Kings 15:12 So the word of the LORD spoken to Jehu was fulfilled: "Your descendants will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation."

2 Kings 15:13 Shallum son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah, and he reigned in Samaria for one month.

2 Kings 15:14 Then Menahem son of Gadi went from Tirzah up to Samaria. He attacked Shallum son of Jabesh in Samaria, assassinated him and succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 15:15 The other events of Shallum’s reign, and the conspiracy he led, are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

2 Kings 15:16 At that time Menahem, starting out from Tirzah, attacked Tiphsah and everyone in the city and its vicinity, because they refused to open their gates. He sacked Tiphsah and ripped open all the pregnant women.

2 Kings 15:17 In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi became king of Israel, and he reigned in Samaria for ten years.

2 Kings 15:18 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD. During his entire reign he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

2 Kings 15:19 Then Pul king of Assyria invaded the land, and Menahem gave him a thousand talents of silver to gain his support and strengthen his own hold on the kingdom.

2 Kings 15:20 Menahem exacted this money from Israel. Every wealthy man had to contribute fifty shekels of silver to be given to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria withdrew and stayed in the land no longer.

2 Kings 15:21 As for the other events of Menahem’s reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2 Kings 15:22 Menahem rested with his fathers. And Pekahiah his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 15:23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah son of Menahem became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned for two years.

2 Kings 15:24 Pekahiah did evil in the eyes of the LORD. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

2 Kings 15:25 One of his chief officers, Pekah son of Remaliah, conspired against him. Taking fifty men of Gilead with him, he assassinated Pekahiah, along with Argob and Arieh, in the citadel of the royal palace at Samaria. So Pekah killed Pekahiah and succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 15:26 The other events of Pekahiah’s reign, and all he did, are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

2 Kings 15:27 In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned for twenty years.

2 Kings 15:28 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he had caused Israel to commit.

2 Kings 15:29 In the time of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came and took Ijon, Abel Beth Maacah, Janoah, Kedesh and Hazor. He took Gilead and Galilee, including all the land of Naphtali, and deported the people to Assyria.

2 Kings 15:30 Then Hoshea son of Elah conspired against Pekah son of Remaliah. He attacked and assassinated him, and then succeeded him as king in the twentieth year of Jotham son of Uzziah.

2 Kings 15:31 As for the other events of Pekah's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

2 Kings 15:32 In the second year of Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel, Jotham son of Uzziah king of Judah began to reign.

2 Kings 15:33 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years. His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok.

2 Kings 15:34 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Uzziah had done.

2 Kings 15:35 The high places, however, were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there. Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate of the temple of the LORD.

2 Kings 15:36 As for the other events of Jotham's reign, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2 Kings 15:37 (In those days the LORD began to send Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah against Judah.)

2 Kings 15:38 Jotham rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David, the city of his father. And Ahaz his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 16:1 In the seventeenth year of Pekah son of Remaliah, Ahaz son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign.

2 Kings 16:2 Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years. Unlike David his father, he did not do what was right in the eyes of the LORD his God.

2 Kings 16:3 He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel and even sacrificed his son in the fire, following the detestable ways of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.

2 Kings 16:4 He offered sacrifices and burned incense at the high places, on the hilltops and under every spreading tree.

2 Kings 16:5 Then Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel marched up to fight against Jerusalem and besieged Ahaz, but they could not overpower him.

2 Kings 16:6 At that time, Rezin king of Aram recovered Elath for Aram by driving out the men of Judah. Edomites then moved into Elath and have lived there to this day.

2 Kings 16:7 Ahaz sent messengers to say to Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, “I am your servant and vassal. Come up and save me out of the hand of the king of Aram and of the king of Israel who are attacking me.”

2 Kings 16:8 And Ahaz took the silver and gold found in the temple of the LORD and in the treasuries of the royal palace and sent it as a gift to the king of Assyria.

2 Kings 16:9 The king of Assyria complied by attacking Damascus and capturing it. He deported its inhabitants to Kir and put Rezin to death.

2 Kings 16:10 Then King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria. He saw an altar in Damascus and sent to Uriah the priest a sketch of the altar, with detailed plans for its construction.

2 Kings 16:11 So Uriah the priest built an altar in accordance with all the plans that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus and finished it before King Ahaz returned.

2 Kings 16:12 When the king came back from Damascus and saw the altar, he approached it and presented offerings on it.

2 Kings 16:13 He offered up his burnt offering and grain offering, poured out his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his fellowship offerings on the altar.

2 Kings 16:14 The bronze altar that stood before the LORD he brought from the front of the temple—from between the new altar and the temple of the LORD—and put it on the north side of the new altar.

2 Kings 16:15 King Ahaz then gave these orders to Uriah the priest: “On the large new altar, offer the morning burnt offering and the evening grain offering, the king’s burnt offering and his grain offering, and the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their grain offering and their drink offering. Sprinkle on the altar all the blood of the burnt offerings and sacrifices. But I will use the bronze altar for seeking guidance.”

2 Kings 16:16 And Uriah the priest did just as King Ahaz had ordered.

2 Kings 16:17 King Ahaz took away the side panels and removed the basins from the movable stands. He removed the Sea from the bronze bulls that supported it and set it on a stone base.

2 Kings 16:18 He took away the Sabbath canopy that had been built at the temple and removed the royal entrance outside the temple of the LORD, in deference to the king of Assyria.

2 Kings 16:19 As for the other events of the reign of Ahaz, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2 Kings 16:20 Ahaz rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David. And Hezekiah his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 17:1 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned for nine years.

2 Kings 17:2 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, but not like the kings of Israel who preceded him.

2 Kings 17:3 Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up to attack Hoshea, who had been Shalmaneser’s vassal and had paid him tribute.

2 Kings 17:4 But the king of Assyria discovered that Hoshea was a traitor, for he had sent envoys to So king of Egypt, and he no longer paid tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. Therefore Shalmaneser seized him and put him in prison.

2 Kings 17:5 The king of Assyria invaded the entire land, marched against Samaria and laid siege to it for three years.

2 Kings 17:6 In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria captured Samaria and deported the Israelites to Assyria. He settled them in Halah, in Gozan on the Habor River and in the towns of the Medes.

2 Kings 17:7 All this took place because the Israelites had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of Egypt from under the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt. They worshipped other gods

2 Kings 17:8 and followed the practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before them, as well as the practices that the kings of Israel had introduced.

2 Kings 17:9 The Israelites secretly did things against the LORD their God that were not right. From watchtower to fortified city they built themselves high places in all their towns.

2 Kings 17:10 They set up sacred stones and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every spreading tree.

2 Kings 17:11 At every high place they burned incense, as the nations whom the LORD had driven out before them had done. They did wicked things that provoked the LORD to anger.

2 Kings 17:12 They worshipped idols, though the LORD had said, “You shall not do this.”

2 Kings 17:13 The LORD warned Israel and Judah through all his prophets and seers: “Turn from your evil ways. Observe my commands and decrees, in accordance with the entire Law that I commanded your fathers to obey and that I delivered to you through my servants the prophets.”

2 Kings 17:14 But they would not listen and were as stiff-necked as their fathers, who did not trust in the LORD their God.

2 Kings 17:15 They rejected his decrees and the covenant he had made with their fathers and the warnings he had given them. They followed worthless idols and themselves became worthless. They imitated the nations around them although the LORD had ordered them, “Do not do as they do," and they did the things the LORD had forbidden them to do.

2 Kings 17:16 They forsook all the commands of the LORD their God and made for themselves two idols cast in the shape of calves, and an Asherah pole. They bowed down to all the starry hosts, and they worshipped Baal.

2 Kings 17:17 They sacrificed their sons and daughters in the fire. They practised divination and sorcery and sold themselves to do evil in the eyes of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

2 Kings 17:18 So the LORD was very angry with Israel and removed them from his presence. Only the tribe of Judah was left,

2 Kings 17:19 and even Judah did not keep the commands of the LORD their God. They followed the practices Israel had introduced.

2 Kings 17:20 Therefore the LORD rejected all the people of Israel; he afflicted them and gave them into the hands of plunderers, until he thrust them from his presence.

2 Kings 17:21 When he tore Israel away from the house of David, they made Jeroboam son of Nebat their king. Jeroboam enticed Israel away from following the LORD and caused them to commit a great sin.

2 Kings 17:22 The Israelites persisted in all the sins of Jeroboam and did not turn away from them

2 Kings 17:23 until the LORD removed them from his presence, as he had warned through all his servants the prophets. So the people of Israel were taken from their homeland into exile in Assyria, and they are still there.

2 Kings 17:24 The king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath and Sepharvaim and settled them in the towns of Samaria to replace the Israelites. They took over Samaria and lived in its towns.

2 Kings 17:25 When they first lived there, they did not worship the LORD; so he sent lions among them and they killed some of the people.

2 Kings 17:26 It was reported to the king of Assyria: "The people you deported and resettled in the towns of Samaria do not know what the god of that country requires. He has sent lions among them, which are killing them off, because the people do not know what he requires."

2 Kings 17:27 Then the king of Assyria gave this order: "Make one of the priests you took captive from Samaria go back to live there and teach the people what the god of the land requires."

2 Kings 17:28 So one of the priests who had been exiled from Samaria came to live in Bethel and taught them how to worship the LORD.

2 Kings 17:29 Nevertheless, each national group made its own gods in the several towns where they settled, and set them up in the shrines the people of Samaria had made at the high places.

2 Kings 17:30 The men from Babylon made Succoth Benoth, the men from Cuthah made Nergal, and the men from Hamath made Ashima;

2 Kings 17:31 the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire as sacrifices to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

2 Kings 17:32 They worshipped the LORD, but they also appointed all sorts of their own people to officiate for them as priests in the shrines at the high places.

2 Kings 17:33 They worshipped the LORD, but they also served their own gods in accordance with the customs of the nations from which they had been brought.

2 Kings 17:34 To this day they persist in their former practices. They neither worship the LORD nor adhere to the decrees and ordinances, the laws and commands that the LORD gave the descendants of Jacob, whom he named Israel.

2 Kings 17:35 When the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites, he commanded them: “Do not worship any other gods or bow down to them, serve them or sacrifice to them.

2 Kings 17:36 But the LORD, who brought you up out of Egypt with mighty power and outstretched arm, is the one you must worship. To him you shall bow down and to him offer sacrifices.

2 Kings 17:37 You must always be careful to keep the decrees and ordinances, the laws and commands he wrote for you. Do not worship other gods.

2 Kings 17:38 Do not forget the covenant I have made with you, and do not worship other gods.

2 Kings 17:39 Rather, worship the LORD your God; it is he who will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies.”

2 Kings 17:40 They would not listen, however, but persisted in their former practices.

2 Kings 17:41 Even while these people were worshipping the LORD, they were serving their idols. To this day their children and grandchildren continue to do as their fathers did.

2 Kings 18:1 In the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Hezekiah son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.

2 Kings 18:2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother’s name was Abijah daughter of Zechariah.

2 Kings 18:3 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father David had done.

2 Kings 18:4 He removed the high places, smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles. He broke into pieces the bronze snake Moses had made, for up to that time the Israelites had been burning incense to it. (It was called Nehushtan.)

2 Kings 18:5 Hezekiah trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel. There was no-one like him among all the kings of Judah, either before him or after him.

2 Kings 18:6 He held fast to the LORD and did not cease to follow him; he kept the commands the LORD had given Moses.

2 Kings 18:7 And the LORD was with him; he was successful in whatever he undertook. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him.

2 Kings 18:8 From watchtower to fortified city, he defeated the Philistines, as far as Gaza and its territory.

2 Kings 18:9 In King Hezekiah's fourth year, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Assyria marched against Samaria and laid siege to it.

2 Kings 18:10 At the end of three years the Assyrians took it. So Samaria was captured in Hezekiah's sixth year, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel.

2 Kings 18:11 The king of Assyria deported Israel to Assyria and settled them in Halah, in Gozan on the Habor River, and in towns of the Medes.

2 Kings 18:12 This happened because they had not obeyed the LORD their God, but had violated his covenant—all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded. They neither listened to the commands nor carried them out.

2 Kings 18:13 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah's reign, Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.

2 Kings 18:14 So Hezekiah king of Judah sent this message to the king of Assyria at Lachish: "I have done wrong. Withdraw from me, and I will pay whatever you demand of me." The king of Assyria exacted from Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

2 Kings 18:15 So Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the temple of the LORD and in the treasuries of the royal palace.

2 Kings 18:16 At this time Hezekiah king of Judah stripped off the gold with which he had covered the doors and doorposts of the temple of the LORD, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

2 Kings 18:17 The king of Assyria sent his supreme commander, his chief officer and his field commander with a large army, from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. They came up to Jerusalem and stopped at the aqueduct of the Upper Pool, on the road to the Washerman’s Field.

2 Kings 18:18 They called for the king; and Eliakim son of Hilkiah the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went out to them.

2 Kings 18:19 The field commander said to them, “Tell Hezekiah: “`This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: On what are you basing this confidence of yours?

2 Kings 18:20 You say you have strategy and military strength—but you speak only empty words. On whom are you depending, that you rebel against me?

2 Kings 18:21 Look now, you are depending on Egypt, that splintered reed of a staff, which pierces a man’s hand and wounds him if he leans on it! Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who depend on him.

2 Kings 18:22 And if you say to me, “We are depending on the LORD our God”—isn’t he the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah removed, saying to Judah and Jerusalem, “You must worship before this altar in Jerusalem”?

2 Kings 18:23 “`Come now, make a bargain with my master, the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses—if you can put riders on them!

2 Kings 18:24 How can you repulse one officer of the least of my master’s officials, even though you are depending on Egypt for chariots and horsemen?

2 Kings 18:25 Furthermore, have I come to attack and destroy this place without word from the LORD? The LORD himself told me to march against this country and destroy it.”“

2 Kings 18:26 Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, and Shebna and Joah said to the field commander, “Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it. Don’t speak to us in Hebrew in the hearing of the people on the wall.”

2 Kings 18:27 But the commander replied, “Was it only to your master and you that my master sent me to say these things, and not to the men sitting on the wall—who, like you, will have to eat their own filth and drink their own urine?”

2 Kings 18:28 Then the commander stood and called out in Hebrew: “Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria!

2 Kings 18:29 This is what the king says: Do not let Hezekiah deceive you. He cannot deliver you from my hand.

2 Kings 18:30 Do not let Hezekiah persuade you to trust in the LORD when he says,`The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'

2 Kings 18:31 "Do not listen to Hezekiah. This is what the king of Assyria says: Make peace with me and come out to me. Then every one of you will eat from his own vine and fig-tree and drink water from his own cistern,

2 Kings 18:32 until I come and take you to a land like your own, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey. Choose life and not death! "Do not listen to Hezekiah, for he is misleading you when he says,`The LORD will deliver us.'

2 Kings 18:33 Has the god of any nation ever delivered his land from the hand of the king of Assyria?

2 Kings 18:34 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivvah? Have they rescued Samaria from my hand?

2 Kings 18:35 Who of all the gods of these countries has been able to save his land from me? How then can the LORD deliver Jerusalem from my hand?"

2 Kings 18:36 But the people remained silent and said nothing in reply, because the king had commanded, "Do not answer him."

2 Kings 18:37 Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went to Hezekiah, with their clothes torn, and told him what the field commander had said.

2 Kings 19:1 When King Hezekiah heard this, he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and went into the temple of the LORD.

2 Kings 19:2 He sent Eliakim the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary and the leading priests, all wearing sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

2 Kings 19:3 They told him, "This is what Hezekiah says: This day is a day of distress and rebuke and disgrace, as when children come to the point of birth and there is no strength to deliver them.

2 Kings 19:4 It may be that the LORD your God will hear all the words of the field commander, whom his master, the king of Assyria, has sent to ridicule the living God, and that he will rebuke him for the words the LORD your God has heard. Therefore pray for the remnant that still survives."

2 Kings 19:5 When King Hezekiah's officials came to Isaiah,

2 Kings 19:6 Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master,`This is what the LORD says: Do not be afraid of what you have heard—those words with which the underlings of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

2 Kings 19:7 Listen! I am going to put such a spirit in him that when he hears a certain report, he will return to his own country, and there I will have him cut down with the sword.'"

2 Kings 19:8 When the field commander heard that the king of Assyria had left Lachish, he withdrew and found the king fighting against Libnah.

2 Kings 19:9 Now Sennacherib received a report that Tirhakah, the Cushite king [of Egypt], was marching out to fight against him. So he again sent messengers to Hezekiah with this word:

2 Kings 19:10 "Say to Hezekiah king of Judah: Do not let the god you depend on deceive you when he says,`Jerusalem will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.'

2 Kings 19:11 Surely you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the countries, destroying them completely. And will you be delivered?

2 Kings 19:12 Did the gods of the nations that were destroyed by my forefathers deliver them: the gods of Gozan, Haran, Rezeph and the people of Eden who were in Tel Assar?

2 Kings 19:13 Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, or of Hena or Ivvah?"

2 Kings 19:14 Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the temple of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD.

2 Kings 19:15 And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD: "O LORD, God of Israel, enthroned between the cherubim, you alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.

2 Kings 19:16 Give ear, O LORD, and hear; open your eyes, O LORD, and see; listen to the words Sennacherib has sent to insult the living God.

2 Kings 19:17 "It is true, O LORD, that the Assyrian kings have laid waste these nations and their lands.

2 Kings 19:18 They have thrown their gods into the fire and destroyed them, for they were not gods but only wood and stone, fashioned by men's hands.

2 Kings 19:19 Now, O LORD our God, deliver us from his hand, so that all kingdoms on earth may know that you alone, O LORD, are God."

2 Kings 19:20 Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah: "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I have heard your prayer concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria.

2 Kings 19:21 This is the word that the LORD has spoken against him: "`The Virgin Daughter of Zion despises you and mocks you. The Daughter of Jerusalem tosses her head as you flee.

2 Kings 19:22 Who is it you have insulted and blasphemed? Against whom have you raised your voice and lifted your eyes in pride? Against the Holy One of Israel!

2 Kings 19:23 By your messengers you have heaped insults on the Lord. And you have said, “With my many chariots I have ascended the heights of the mountains, the utmost heights of Lebanon. I have cut down its tallest cedars, the choicest of its pines. I have reached its remotest parts, the finest of its forests.

2 Kings 19:24 I have dug wells in foreign lands and drunk the water there. With the soles of my feet I have dried up all the streams of Egypt.”

2 Kings 19:25 “`Have you not heard? Long ago I ordained it. In days of old I planned it; now I have brought it to pass, that you have turned fortified cities into piles of stone.

2 Kings 19:26 Their people, drained of power, are dismayed and put to shame. They are like plants in the field, like tender green shoots, like grass sprouting on the roof, scorched before it grows up.

2 Kings 19:27 “`But I know where you stay and when you come and go and how you rage against me.

2 Kings 19:28 Because you rage against me and your insolence has reached my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth, and I will make you return by the way you came.’

2 Kings 19:29 “This will be the sign for you, O Hezekiah: This year you will eat what grows by itself, and the second year what springs from that. But in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

2 Kings 19:30 Once more a remnant of the house of Judah will take root below and bear fruit above.

2 Kings 19:31 For out of Jerusalem will come a remnant, and out of Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

2 Kings 19:32 “Therefore this is what the LORD says concerning the king of Assyria: “He will not enter this city or shoot an arrow here. He will not come before it with shield or build a siege ramp against it.

2 Kings 19:33 By the way that he came he will return; he will not enter this city, declares the LORD.

2 Kings 19:34 I will defend this city and save it, for my sake and for the sake of David my servant.”

2 Kings 19:35 That night the angel of the LORD went out and put to death a hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the Assyrian camp. When the people got up the next morning—there were all the dead bodies!

2 Kings 19:36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria broke camp and withdrew. He returned to Nineveh and stayed there.

2 Kings 19:37 One day, while he was worshipping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer cut him down with the sword, and they escaped to the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 20:1 In those days Hezekiah became ill and was at the point of death. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to him and said, “This is what the LORD says: Put your house in order, because you are going to die; you will not recover.”

2 Kings 20:2 Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD,

2 Kings 20:3 “Remember, O LORD, how I have walked before you faithfully and with wholehearted devotion and have done what is good in your eyes.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

2 Kings 20:4 Before Isaiah had left the middle court, the word of the LORD came to him:

2 Kings 20:5 “Go back and tell Hezekiah, the leader of my people,`This is what the LORD, the God of your father David, says: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears; I will heal you. On the third day from now you will go up to the temple of the LORD.

2 Kings 20:6 I will add fifteen years to your life. And I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city for my sake and for the sake of my servant David.’“

2 Kings 20:7 Then Isaiah said, “Prepare a poultice of figs.” They did so and applied it to the boil, and he recovered.

2 Kings 20:8 Hezekiah had asked Isaiah, “What will be the sign that the LORD will heal me and that I will go up to the temple of the LORD on the third day from now?”

2 Kings 20:9 Isaiah answered, “This is the LORD’s sign to you that the LORD will do what he has promised: Shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or shall it go back ten steps?”

2 Kings 20:10 “It is a simple matter for the shadow to go forward ten steps,” said Hezekiah. “Rather, have it go back ten steps.”

2 Kings 20:11 Then the prophet Isaiah called upon the LORD, and the LORD made the shadow go back the ten steps it had gone down on the stairway of Ahaz.

2 Kings 20:12 At that time Merodach-Baladan son of Baladan king of Babylon sent Hezekiah letters and a gift, because he had heard of Hezekiah’s illness.

2 Kings 20:13 Hezekiah received the messengers and showed them all that was in his storehouses—the silver, the gold, the spices and the fine oil—his armoury and everything found among his treasures. There was nothing in his palace or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.

2 Kings 20:14 Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah and asked, “What did those men say, and where did they come from?” “From a distant land,” Hezekiah replied. “They came from Babylon.”

2 Kings 20:15 The prophet asked, “What did they see in your palace?” “They saw everything in my palace,” Hezekiah said. “There is nothing among my treasures that I did not show them.”

2 Kings 20:16 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD:

2 Kings 20:17 The time will surely come when everything in your palace, and all that your fathers have stored up until this day, will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the LORD.

2 Kings 20:18 And some of your descendants, your own flesh and blood, that will be born to you, will be taken away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.”

2 Kings 20:19 “The word of the LORD you have spoken is good,” Hezekiah replied. For he thought, “Will there not be peace and security in my lifetime?”

2 Kings 20:20 As for the other events of Hezekiah’s reign, all his achievements and how he made the pool and the tunnel by which he brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2 Kings 20:21 Hezekiah rested with his fathers. And Manasseh his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 21:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for fifty-five years. His mother’s name was Hephzibah.

2 Kings 21:2 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, following the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.

2 Kings 21:3 He rebuilt the high places his father Hezekiah had destroyed; he also erected altars to Baal and made an Asherah pole, as Ahab king of Israel had done. He bowed down to all the starry hosts and worshipped them.

2 Kings 21:4 He built altars in the temple of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, “In Jerusalem I will put my Name.”

2 Kings 21:5 In both courts of the temple of the LORD, he built altars to all the starry hosts.

2 Kings 21:6 He sacrificed his own son in the fire, practised sorcery and divination, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the eyes of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

2 Kings 21:7 He took the carved Asherah pole he had made and put it in the temple, of which the LORD had said to David and to his son

Solomon, “In this temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my Name for ever.

2 Kings 21:8 I will not again make the feet of the Israelites wander from the land I gave their forefathers, if only they will be careful to do everything I commanded them and will keep the whole Law that my servant Moses gave them.”

2 Kings 21:9 But the people did not listen. Manasseh led them astray, so that they did more evil than the nations the LORD had destroyed before the Israelites.

2 Kings 21:10 The LORD said through his servants the prophets:

2 Kings 21:11 “Manasseh king of Judah has committed these detestable sins. He has done more evil than the Amorites who preceded him and has led Judah into sin with his idols.

2 Kings 21:12 Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I am going to bring such disaster on Jerusalem and Judah that the ears of everyone who hears of it will tingle.

2 Kings 21:13 I will stretch out over Jerusalem the measuring line used against Samaria and the plumb-line used against the house of Ahab. I will wipe out Jerusalem as one wipes out a dish, wiping it and turning it upside-down.

2 Kings 21:14 I will forsake the remnant of my inheritance and hand them over to their enemies. They will be looted and plundered by all their foes,

2 Kings 21:15 because they have done evil in my eyes and have provoked me to anger from the day their forefathers came out of Egypt until this day.”

2 Kings 21:16 Moreover, Manasseh also shed so much innocent blood that he filled Jerusalem from end to end—besides the sin that he had caused Judah to commit, so that they did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

2 Kings 21:17 As for the other events of Manasseh’s reign, and all he did, including the sin he committed, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2 Kings 21:18 Manasseh rested with his fathers and was buried in his palace garden, the garden of Uzza. And Amon his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 21:19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for two years. His mother’s name was Meshullemeth daughter of Haruz; she was from Jotbah.

2 Kings 21:20 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done.

2 Kings 21:21 He walked in all the ways of his father; he worshipped the idols his father had worshipped, and bowed down to them.

2 Kings 21:22 He forsook the LORD, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD.

2 Kings 21:23 Amon’s officials conspired against him and assassinated the king in his palace.

2 Kings 21:24 Then the people of the land killed all who had plotted against King Amon, and they made Josiah his son king in his place.

2 Kings 21:25 As for the other events of Amon’s reign, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2 Kings 21:26 He was buried in his grave in the garden of Uzza. And Josiah his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 22:1 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for thirty-one years. His mother’s name was Jedidah daughter of Adaiah; she was from Bozkath.

2 Kings 22:2 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD and walked in all the ways of his father David, not turning aside to the right or to the left.

2 Kings 22:3 In the eighteenth year of his reign, King Josiah sent the secretary, Shaphan son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, to the temple of the LORD. He said:

2 Kings 22:4 “Go up to Hilkiah the high priest and make him get ready the money that has been brought into the temple of the LORD, which the doorkeepers have collected from the people.

2 Kings 22:5 Make them entrust it to the men appointed to supervise the work on the temple. And make these men pay the workers who repair the temple of the LORD—

2 Kings 22:6 the carpenters, the builders and the masons. Also make them purchase timber and dressed stone to repair the temple.

2 Kings 22:7 But they need not account for the money entrusted to them, because they are acting faithfully.”

2 Kings 22:8 Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the secretary, “I have found the Book of the Law in the temple of the LORD.” He gave it to Shaphan, who read it.

2 Kings 22:9 Then Shaphan the secretary went to the king and reported to him: “Your officials have paid out the money that was in the temple of the LORD and have entrusted it to the workers and supervisors at the temple.”

2 Kings 22:10 Then Shaphan the secretary informed the king, “Hilkiah the priest has given me a book.” And Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

2 Kings 22:11 When the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, he tore his robes.

2 Kings 22:12 He gave these orders to Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Acbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the secretary and Asaiah the king's attendant:

2 Kings 22:13 "Go and enquire of the LORD for me and for the people and for all Judah about what is written in this book that has been found. Great is the LORD's anger that burns against us because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book; they have not acted in accordance with all that is written there concerning us."

2 Kings 22:14 Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Acbor, Shaphan and Asaiah went to speak to the prophetess Huldah, who was the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe. She lived in Jerusalem, in the Second District.

2 Kings 22:15 She said to them, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Tell the man who sent you to me,

2 Kings 22:16 `This is what the LORD says: I am going to bring disaster on this place and its people, according to everything written in the book the king of Judah has read.

2 Kings 22:17 Because they have forsaken me and burned incense to other gods and provoked me to anger by all the idols their hands have made, my anger will burn against this place and will not be quenched.'

2 Kings 22:18 Tell the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the LORD,`This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says concerning the words you heard:

2 Kings 22:19 Because your heart was responsive and you humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I have spoken against this place and its people, that they would become accursed and laid waste, and because you tore your robes and wept in my presence, I have heard you, declares the LORD.

2 Kings 22:20 Therefore I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be buried in peace. Your eyes will not see all the disaster I am going to bring on this place.'" So they took her answer back to the king.

2 Kings 23:1 Then the king called together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

2 Kings 23:2 He went up to the temple of the LORD with the men of Judah, the people of Jerusalem, the priests and the prophets—all the people from the least to the greatest. He read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant, which had been found in the temple of the LORD.

2 Kings 23:3 The king stood by the pillar and renewed the covenant in the presence of the LORD—to follow the LORD and keep his commands, regulations and decrees with all his heart and all his soul, thus confirming the words of the covenant written in this book. Then all the people pledged themselves to the covenant.

2 Kings 23:4 The king ordered Hilkiah the high priest, the priests next in rank and the doorkeepers to remove from the temple of the LORD all the articles made for Baal and Asherah and all the starry hosts. He burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron Valley and took the ashes to Bethel.

2 Kings 23:5 He did away with the pagan priests appointed by the kings of Judah to burn incense on the high places of the towns of Judah and on those around Jerusalem—those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun and moon, to the constellations and to all the starry hosts.

2 Kings 23:6 He took the Asherah pole from the temple of the LORD to the Kidron Valley outside Jerusalem and burned it there. He ground it to powder and scattered the dust over the graves of the common people.

2 Kings 23:7 He also tore down the quarters of the male shrine-prostitutes, which were in the temple of the LORD and where women did weaving for Asherah.

2 Kings 23:8 Josiah brought all the priests from the towns of Judah and desecrated the high places, from Geba to Beersheba, where the priests had burned incense. He broke down the shrines at the gates—at the entrance to the Gate of Joshua, the city governor, which is on the left of the city gate.

2 Kings 23:9 Although the priests of the high places did not serve at the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, they ate unleavened bread with their fellow priests.

2 Kings 23:10 He desecrated Topheth, which was in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, so no-one could use it to sacrifice his son or daughter in the fire to Molech.

2 Kings 23:11 He removed from the entrance to the temple of the LORD the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun. They were in the court near the room of an official named Nathan-Melech. Josiah then burned the chariots dedicated to the sun.

2 Kings 23:12 He pulled down the altars the kings of Judah had erected on the roof near the upper room of Ahaz, and the altars Manasseh had built in the two courts of the temple of the LORD. He removed them from there, smashed them to pieces and threw the rubble into the Kidron Valley.

2 Kings 23:13 The king also desecrated the high places that were east of Jerusalem on the south of the Hill of Corruption—the ones Solomon king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the vile goddess of the Sidonians, for Chemosh the vile god of Moab, and for Molech the detestable god of the people of Ammon.

2 Kings 23:14 Josiah smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles and covered the sites with human bones.

2 Kings 23:15 Even the altar at Bethel, the high place made by Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin—even that altar and high place he demolished. He burned the high place and ground it to powder, and burned the Asherah pole also.

2 Kings 23:16 Then Josiah looked around, and when he saw the tombs that were there on the hillside, he had the bones removed from them and burned on the altar to defile it, in accordance with the word of the LORD proclaimed by the man of God who foretold these things.

2 Kings 23:17 The king asked, “What is that tombstone I see?” The men of the city said, “It marks the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and pronounced against the altar of Bethel the very things you have done to it.”

2 Kings 23:18 “Leave it alone,” he said. “Don’t let anyone disturb his bones.” So they spared his bones and those of the prophet who had come from Samaria.

2 Kings 23:19 Just as he had done at Bethel, Josiah removed and defiled all the shrines at the high places that the kings of Israel had built in the towns of Samaria that had provoked the LORD to anger.

2 Kings 23:20 Josiah slaughtered all the priests of those high places on the altars and burned human bones on them. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

2 Kings 23:21 The king gave this order to all the people: “Celebrate the Passover to the LORD your God, as it is written in this Book of the Covenant.”

2 Kings 23:22 Not since the days of the judges who led Israel, nor throughout the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah, had any such Passover been observed.

2 Kings 23:23 But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, this Passover was celebrated to the LORD in Jerusalem.

2 Kings 23:24 Furthermore, Josiah got rid of the mediums and spiritists, the household gods, the idols and all the other detestable things seen in Judah and Jerusalem. This he did to fulfil the requirements of the law written in the book that Hilkiah the priest had discovered in the temple of the LORD.

2 Kings 23:25 Neither before nor after Josiah was there a king like him who turned to the LORD as he did—with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his strength, in accordance with all the Law of Moses.

2 Kings 23:26 Nevertheless, the LORD did not turn away from the heat of his fierce anger, which burned against Judah because of all that Manasseh had done to provoke him to anger.

2 Kings 23:27 So the LORD said, "I will remove Judah also from my presence as I removed Israel, and I will reject Jerusalem, the city I chose, and this temple, about which I said,`There shall my Name be.'"

2 Kings 23:28 As for the other events of Josiah's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2 Kings 23:29 While Josiah was king, Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt went up to the Euphrates River to help the king of Assyria. King Josiah marched out to meet him in battle, but Neco faced him and killed him at Megiddo.

2 Kings 23:30 Josiah's servants brought his body in a chariot from Megiddo to Jerusalem and buried him in his own tomb. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and anointed him and made him king in place of his father.

2 Kings 23:31 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for three months. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah.

2 Kings 23:32 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as his fathers had done.

2 Kings 23:33 Pharaoh Neco put him in chains at Riblah in the land of Hamath so that he might not reign in Jerusalem, and he imposed on Judah a levy of a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

2 Kings 23:34 Pharaoh Neco made Eliakim son of Josiah king in place of his father Josiah and changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. But he took Jehoahaz and carried him off to Egypt, and there he died.

2 Kings 23:35 Jehoiakim paid Pharaoh Neco the silver and gold he demanded. In order to do so, he taxed the land and exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land according to their assessments.

2 Kings 23:36 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother's name was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiah; she was from Rumah.

2 Kings 23:37 And he did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as his fathers had done.

2 Kings 24:1 During Jehoiakim's reign, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon invaded the land, and Jehoiakim became his vassal for three years. But then he changed his mind and rebelled against Nebuchadnezzar.

2 Kings 24:2 The LORD sent Babylonian, Aramean, Moabite and Ammonite raiders against him. He sent them to destroy Judah, in accordance with the word of the LORD proclaimed by his servants the prophets.

2 Kings 24:3 Surely these things happened to Judah according to the LORD's command, in order to remove them from his presence because of the sins of Manasseh and all he had done,

2 Kings 24:4 including the shedding of innocent blood. For he had filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the LORD was not willing to forgive.

2 Kings 24:5 As for the other events of Jehoiakim's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

2 Kings 24:6 Jehoiakim rested with his fathers. And Jehoiachin his son succeeded him as king.

2 Kings 24:7 The king of Egypt did not march out from his own country again, because the king of Babylon had taken all his territory, from the Wadi of Egypt to the Euphrates River.

2 Kings 24:8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for three months. His mother's name was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan; she was from Jerusalem.

2 Kings 24:9 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father had done.

2 Kings 24:10 At that time the officers of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon advanced on Jerusalem and laid siege to it,

2 Kings 24:11 and Nebuchadnezzar himself came up to the city while his officers were besieging it.

2 Kings 24:12 Jehoiachin king of Judah, his mother, his attendants, his nobles and his officials all surrendered to him. In the eighth year of the reign of the king of Babylon, he took Jehoiachin prisoner.

2 Kings 24:13 As the LORD had declared, Nebuchadnezzar removed all the treasures from the temple of the LORD and from the royal palace, and took away all the gold articles that Solomon king of Israel had made for the temple of the LORD.

2 Kings 24:14 He carried into exile all Jerusalem: all the officers and fighting men, and all the craftsmen and artisans—a total of ten thousand. Only the poorest people of the land were left.

2 Kings 24:15 Nebuchadnezzar took Jehoiachin captive to Babylon. He also took from Jerusalem to Babylon the king's mother, his wives, his officials and the leading men of the land.

2 Kings 24:16 The king of Babylon also deported to Babylon the entire force of seven thousand fighting men, strong and fit for war, and a thousand craftsmen and artisans.

2 Kings 24:17 He made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's uncle, king in his place and changed his name to Zedekiah.

2 Kings 24:18 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah.

2 Kings 24:19 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done.

2 Kings 24:20 It was because of the LORD’s anger that all this happened to Jerusalem and Judah, and in the end he thrust them from his presence. Now Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

2 Kings 25:1 So in the ninth year of Zedekiah’s reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. He encamped outside the city and built siege works all around it.

2 Kings 25:2 The city was kept under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

2 Kings 25:3 By the ninth day of the [fourth] month the famine in the city had become so severe that there was no food for the people to eat.

2 Kings 25:4 Then the city wall was broken through, and the whole army fled at night through the gate between the two walls near the king’s garden, though the Babylonians were surrounding the city. They fled towards the Arabah,

2 Kings 25:5 but the Babylonian army pursued the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his soldiers were separated from him and scattered,

2 Kings 25:6 and he was captured. He was taken to the king of Babylon at Riblah, where sentence was pronounced on him.

2 Kings 25:7 They killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. Then they put out his eyes, bound him with bronze shackles and took him to Babylon.

2 Kings 25:8 On the seventh day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard, an official of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

2 Kings 25:9 He set fire to the temple of the LORD, the royal palace and all the houses of Jerusalem. Every important building he burned down.

2 Kings 25:10 The whole Babylonian army, under the commander of the imperial guard, broke down the walls around Jerusalem.

2 Kings 25:11 Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard carried into exile the people who remained in the city, along with the rest of the populace and those who had gone over to the king of Babylon.

2 Kings 25:12 But the commander left behind some of the poorest people of the land to work the vineyards and fields.

2 Kings 25:13 The Babylonians broke up the bronze pillars, the movable stands and the bronze Sea that were at the temple of the LORD and they carried the bronze to Babylon.

2 Kings 25:14 They also took away the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, dishes and all the bronze articles used in the temple service.

2 Kings 25:15 The commander of the imperial guard took away the censers and sprinkling bowls—all that were made of pure gold or silver.

2 Kings 25:16 The bronze from the two pillars, the Sea and the movable stands, which Solomon had made for the temple of the LORD, was more than could be weighed.

2 Kings 25:17 Each pillar was twenty-seven feet high. The bronze capital on top of one pillar was four and a half feet high and was decorated with a network and pomegranates of bronze all around. The other pillar, with its network, was similar.

2 Kings 25:18 The commander of the guard took as prisoners Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest next in rank and the three doorkeepers.

2 Kings 25:19 Of those still in the city, he took the officer in charge of the fighting men and five royal advisers. He also took the secretary who was chief officer in charge of conscripting the people of the land and sixty of his men who were found in the city.

2 Kings 25:20 Nebuzaradan the commander took them all and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

2 Kings 25:21 There at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, the king had them executed. So Judah went into captivity, away from her land.

2 Kings 25:22 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to be over the people he had left behind in Judah.

2 Kings 25:23 When all the army officers and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah as governor, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, and their men.

2 Kings 25:24 Gedaliah took an oath to reassure them and their men. “Do not be afraid of the Babylonian officials,” he said. “Settle down in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you.”

2 Kings 25:25 In the seventh month, however, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, who was of royal blood, came with ten men and assassinated Gedaliah and also the men of Judah and the Babylonians who were with him at Mizpah.

2 Kings 25:26 At this, all the people from the least to the greatest, together with the army officers, fled to Egypt for fear of the Babylonians.

2 Kings 25:27 In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the year Evil-Merodach became king of Babylon, he released Jehoiachin from prison on the twenty-seventh day of the twelfth month.

2 Kings 25:28 He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat of honour higher than those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.

2 Kings 25:29 So Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes and for the rest of his life ate regularly at the king’s table.

2 Kings 25:30 Day by day the king gave Jehoiachin a regular allowance as long as he lived.

1 Chronicles 3:24 The sons of Elioenai: Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah and Anani—seven in all.

1 Chronicles 4:1 The descendants of Judah: Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur and Shobal.

1 Chronicles 4:2 Reaiah son of Shobal was the father of Jahath, and Jahath the father of Ahumai and Lahad. These were the clans of the Zorathites.

1 Chronicles 4:3 These were the sons of Etam: Jezreel, Ishma and Idbash. Their sister was named Hazzelelponi.

1 Chronicles 4:4 Penuel was the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah. These were the descendants of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah and father of Bethlehem.

1 Chronicles 4:5 Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah.

1 Chronicles 4:6 Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, Hepher, Temeni and Haahashtari. These were the descendants of Naarah.

1 Chronicles 4:7 The sons of Helah: Zereth, Zohar, Ethnan,

1 Chronicles 4:8 and Koz, who was the father of Anub and Hazzobebah and of the clans of Aharhel son of Harum.

1 Chronicles 4:9 Jabez was more honourable than his brothers. His mother had named him Jabez, saying, “I gave birth to him in pain.”

1 Chronicles 4:10 Jabez cried out to the God of Israel, “Oh, that you would bless me and enlarge my territory! Let your hand be with me, and keep me from harm so that I will be free from pain.” And God granted his request.

1 Chronicles 4:11 Kelub, Shuhah’s brother, was the father of Mehir, who was the father of Eshton.

1 Chronicles 4:12 Eshton was the father of Beth Rapha, Paseah and Tehinnah the father of Ir Nahash. These were the men of Recah.

1 Chronicles 4:13 The sons of Kenaz: Othniel and Seraiah. The sons of Othniel: Hathath and Meonothai.

1 Chronicles 4:14 Meonothai was the father of Ophrah. Seraiah was the father of Joab, the father of Ge Harashim. It was called this because its people were craftsmen.

1 Chronicles 4:15 The sons of Caleb son of Jephunneh: Iru, Elah and Naam. The son of Elah: Kenaz.

1 Chronicles 4:16 The sons of Jehallelel: Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria and Asarel.

1 Chronicles 4:17 The sons of Ezrah: Jether, Mered, Epher and Jalon. One of Mered’s wives gave birth to Miriam, Shammai and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa.

1 Chronicles 4:18 (His Judean wife gave birth to Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Soco, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah.) These were the children of Pharaoh’s daughter Bithiah, whom Mered had married.

1 Chronicles 4:19 The sons of Hodiah’s wife, the sister of Naham: the father of Keilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Maacathite.

1 Chronicles 4:20 The sons of Shimon: Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-Hanan and Tilon. The descendants of Ishi: Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth.

1 Chronicles 4:21 The sons of Shelah son of Judah: Er the father of Lecah, Laadah the father of Mareshah and the clans of the linen workers at Beth Ashbea,

1 Chronicles 4:22 Jokim, the men of Cozeba, and Joash and Saraph, who ruled in Moab and Jashubi Lehem. (These records are from ancient times.)

1 Chronicles 4:23 They were the potters who lived at Netaim and Gederah; they stayed there and worked for the king.

1 Chronicles 4:24 The descendants of Simeon: Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerah and Shaul;

1 Chronicles 4:25 Shallum was Shaul’s son, Mibsam his son and Mishma his son.

1 Chronicles 4:26 The descendants of Mishma: Hammuel his son, Zaccur his son and Shimei his son.

1 Chronicles 4:27 Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters, but his brothers did not have many children; so their entire clan did not become as numerous as the people of Judah.

1 Chronicles 4:28 They lived in Beersheba, Moladah, Hazar Shual,

1 Chronicles 4:29 Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad,

1 Chronicles 4:30 Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag,

1 Chronicles 4:31 Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susim, Beth Biri and Shaaraim. These were their towns until the reign of David.

1 Chronicles 4:32 Their surrounding villages were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Token and Ashan—five towns—

1 Chronicles 4:33 and all the villages around these towns as far as Baalath. These were their settlements. And they kept a genealogical record.

1 Chronicles 4:34 Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah son of Amaziah,

1 Chronicles 4:35 Joel, Jehu son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel,

1 Chronicles 4:36 also Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah,

1 Chronicles 4:37 and Ziza son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah.

1 Chronicles 4:38 The men listed above by name were leaders of their clans. Their families increased greatly,

1 Chronicles 4:39 and they went to the outskirts of Gedor to the east of the valley in search of pasture for their flocks.

1 Chronicles 4:40 They found rich, good pasture, and the land was spacious, peaceful and quiet. Some Hamites had lived there formerly.

1 Chronicles 4:41 The men whose names were listed came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. They attacked the Hamites in their dwellings and also the Meunites who were there and completely destroyed them, as is evident to this day. Then they settled in their place, because there was pasture for their flocks.

1 Chronicles 4:42 And five hundred of these Simeonites, led by Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, invaded the hill country of Seir.

1 Chronicles 4:43 They killed the remaining Amalekites who had escaped, and they have lived there to this day.

1 Chronicles 5:1 The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel (he was the firstborn, but when he defiled his father’s marriage bed, his rights as firstborn were given to the sons of Joseph son of Israel; so he could not be listed in the genealogical record in accordance with his birthright,

1 Chronicles 5:2 and though Judah was the strongest of his brothers and a ruler came from him, the rights of the firstborn belonged to Joseph)—

1 Chronicles 5:3 the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.

1 Chronicles 5:4 The descendants of Joel: Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son,

1 Chronicles 5:5 Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son,

1 Chronicles 5:6 and Beerah his son, whom Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria took into exile. Beerah was a leader of the Reubenites.

1 Chronicles 5:7 Their relatives by clans, listed according to their genealogical records: Jeiel the chief, Zechariah,

1 Chronicles 5:8 and Bela son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel. They settled in the area from Aroer to Nebo and Baal Meon.

1 Chronicles 5:9 To the east they occupied the land up to the edge of the desert that extends to the Euphrates River, because their livestock had increased in Gilead.

1 Chronicles 5:10 During Saul's reign they waged war against the Hagrites, who were defeated at their hands; they occupied the dwellings of the Hagrites throughout the entire region east of Gilead.

1 Chronicles 5:11 The Gadites lived next to them in Bashan, as far as Salecah:

1 Chronicles 5:12 Joel was the chief, Shapham the second, then Janai and Shaphat, in Bashan.

1 Chronicles 5:13 Their relatives, by families, were: Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia and Eber—seven in all.

1 Chronicles 5:14 These were the sons of Abihail son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz.

1 Chronicles 5:15 Ahi son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was head of their family.

1 Chronicles 5:16 The Gadites lived in Gilead, in Bashan and its outlying villages, and on all the pasture-lands of Sharon as far as they extended.

1 Chronicles 5:17 All these were entered in the genealogical records during the reigns of Jotham king of Judah and Jeroboam king of Israel.

1 Chronicles 5:18 The Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh had 44,760 men ready for military service—able-bodied men who could handle shield and sword, who could use a bow, and who were trained for battle.

1 Chronicles 5:19 They waged war against the Hagrites, Jetur, Naphish and Nodab.

1 Chronicles 5:20 They were helped in fighting them, and God handed the Hagrites and all their allies over to them, because they cried out to him during the battle. He answered their prayers, because they trusted in him.

1 Chronicles 5:21 They seized the livestock of the Hagrites—fifty thousand camels, two hundred and fifty thousand sheep and two thousand donkeys. They also took one hundred thousand people captive,

1 Chronicles 5:22 and many others fell slain, because the battle was God's. And they occupied the land until the exile.

1 Chronicles 5:23 The people of the half-tribe of Manasseh were numerous; they settled in the land from Bashan to Baal Hermon, that is, to Senir (Mount Hermon).

1 Chronicles 5:24 These were the heads of their families: Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah and Jahdiel. They were brave warriors, famous men, and heads of their families.

1 Chronicles 5:25 But they were unfaithful to the God of their fathers and prostituted themselves to the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them.

1 Chronicles 5:26 So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria (that is, Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria), who took the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh into exile. He took them to Halah, Habor, Hara and the river of Gozan, where they are to this day.

1 Chronicles 8:35 The sons of Micah: Pithon, Melech, Tarea and Ahaz.

1 Chronicles 8:36 Ahaz was the father of Jehoaddah, Jehoaddah was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri, and Zimri was the father of Moza.

1 Chronicles 8:37 Moza was the father of Binea; Raphah was his son, Eleasah his son and Azel his son.

1 Chronicles 8:38 Azel had six sons, and these were their names: Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel.

1 Chronicles 8:39 The sons of his brother Eshek: Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second son and Eliphelet the third.

1 Chronicles 8:40 The sons of Ulam were brave warriors who could handle the bow. They had many sons and grandsons—150 in all. All these were the descendants of Benjamin.

1 Chronicles 9:1 All Israel was listed in the genealogies in the book of the kings of Israel. The people of Judah were taken captive to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness.

1 Chronicles 9:2 Now the first to resettle on their own property in their own towns were some Israelites, priests, Levites and temple servants.

1 Chronicles 9:3 Those from Judah, from Benjamin, and from Ephraim and Manasseh who lived in Jerusalem were:

1 Chronicles 9:4 Uthai son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, a descendant of Perez son of Judah.

1 Chronicles 9:5 Of the Shilonites: Asaiah the firstborn and his sons.

1 Chronicles 9:6 Of the Zerahites: Jeuel. The people from Judah numbered 690.

1 Chronicles 9:7 Of the Benjamites: Sallu son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah;

1 Chronicles 9:8 Ibneiah son of Jeroham; Elah son of Uzzi, the son of Micri; and Meshullam son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah.

1 Chronicles 9:9 The people from Benjamin, as listed in their genealogy, numbered 956. All these men were heads of their families.

1 Chronicles 9:10 Of the priests: Jedaiah; Jehoiarib; Jakin;

1 Chronicles 9:11 Azariah son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the official in charge of the house of God;

1 Chronicles 9:12 Adaiah son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malkijah; and Maasai son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer.

1 Chronicles 9:13 The priests, who were heads of families, numbered 1,760. They were able men, responsible for ministering in the house of God.

1 Chronicles 9:14 Of the Levites: Shemaiah son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, a Merarite;

1 Chronicles 9:15 Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal and Mattaniah son of Mica, the son of Zicri, the son of Asaph;

1 Chronicles 9:16 Obadiah son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berekiah son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

1 Chronicles 9:17 The gatekeepers: Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman and their brothers, Shallum their chief

1 Chronicles 9:18 being stationed at the King's Gate on the east, up to the present time. These were the gatekeepers belonging to the camp of the Levites.

1 Chronicles 9:19 Shallum son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his fellow gatekeepers from his family (the Korahites) were responsible for guarding the thresholds of the Tent just as their fathers had been responsible for guarding the entrance to the dwelling of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 9:20 In earlier times Phinehas son of Eleazar was in charge of the gatekeepers, and the LORD was with him.

1 Chronicles 9:21 Zechariah son of Meshelemiah was the gatekeeper at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

1 Chronicles 9:22 Altogether, those chosen to be gatekeepers at the thresholds numbered 212. They were registered by genealogy in their villages. The gatekeepers had been assigned to their positions of trust by David and Samuel the seer.

1 Chronicles 9:23 They and their descendants were in charge of guarding the gates of the house of the LORD—the house called the Tent.

1 Chronicles 9:24 The gatekeepers were on the four sides: east, west, north and south.

1 Chronicles 9:25 Their brothers in their villages had to come from time to time and share their duties for seven-day periods.

1 Chronicles 9:26 But the four principal gatekeepers, who were Levites, were entrusted with the responsibility for the rooms and treasuries in the house of God.

1 Chronicles 9:27 They would spend the night stationed round the house of God, because they had to guard it; and they had charge of the key for opening it each morning.

1 Chronicles 9:28 Some of them were in charge of the articles used in the temple service; they counted them when they were brought in and when they were taken out.

1 Chronicles 9:29 Others were assigned to take care of the furnishings and all the other articles of the sanctuary, as well as the flour and wine, and the oil, incense and spices.

1 Chronicles 9:30 But some of the priests took care of mixing the spices.

1 Chronicles 9:31 A Levite named Mattithiah, the firstborn son of Shallum the Korahite, was entrusted with the responsibility for baking the offering bread.

1 Chronicles 9:32 Some of their Kohathite brothers were in charge of preparing for every Sabbath the bread set out on the table.

1 Chronicles 9:33 Those who were musicians, heads of Levite families, stayed in the rooms of the temple and were exempt from other duties because they were responsible for the work day and night.

1 Chronicles 9:34 All these were heads of Levite families, chiefs as listed in their genealogy, and they lived in Jerusalem.

1 Chronicles 9:35 Jeiel the father of Gibeon lived in Gibeon. His wife's name was Maacah,

1 Chronicles 9:36 and his firstborn son was Abdon, followed by Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab,

1 Chronicles 9:37 Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah and Mikloth.

1 Chronicles 9:38 Mikloth was the father of Shimeam. They too lived near their relatives in Jerusalem.

1 Chronicles 9:39 Ner was the father of Kish, Kish the father of Saul, and Saul the father of Jonathan, Malki-Shua, Abinadab and Esh-Baal.

1 Chronicles 9:40 The son of Jonathan: Merib-Baal, who was the father of Micah.

1 Chronicles 9:41 The sons of Micah: Pithon, Melech, Tahrea and Ahaz.

1 Chronicles 9:42 Ahaz was the father of Jadah, Jadah was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri, and Zimri was the father of Moza.

1 Chronicles 9:43 Moza was the father of Binea; Rephaiah was his son, Eleasah his son and Azel his son.

1 Chronicles 9:44 Azel had six sons, and these were their names: Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

1 Chronicles 10:1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; the Israelites fled before them, and many fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

1 Chronicles 10:2 The Philistines pressed hard after Saul and his sons, and they killed his sons Jonathan, Abinadab and Malki-Shua.

1 Chronicles 10:3 The fighting grew fierce around Saul, and when the archers overtook him, they wounded him.

1 Chronicles 10:4 Saul said to his armour-bearer, “Draw your sword and run me through, or these uncircumcised fellows will come and abuse me.” But his armour-bearer was terrified and would not do it; so Saul took his own sword and fell on it.

1 Chronicles 10:5 When the armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too fell on his sword and died.

1 Chronicles 10:6 So Saul and his three sons died, and all his house died together.

1 Chronicles 10:7 When all the Israelites in the valley saw that the army had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, they abandoned their towns and fled. And the Philistines came and occupied them.

1 Chronicles 10:8 The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

1 Chronicles 10:9 They stripped him and took his head and his armour, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news among their idols and their people.

1 Chronicles 10:10 They put his armour in the temple of their gods and hung up his head in the temple of Dagon.

1 Chronicles 10:11 When all the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead heard of everything the Philistines had done to Saul,

1 Chronicles 10:12 all their valiant men went and took the bodies of Saul and his sons and brought them to Jabesh. Then they buried their bones under the great tree in Jabesh, and they fasted seven days.

1 Chronicles 10:13 Saul died because he was unfaithful to the LORD; he did not keep the word of the LORD, and even consulted a medium for guidance,

1 Chronicles 10:14 and did not enquire of the LORD. So the LORD put him to death and turned the kingdom over to David son of Jesse.

1 Chronicles 11:1 All Israel came together to David at Hebron and said, “We are your own flesh and blood.

1 Chronicles 11:2 In the past, even while Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel on their military campaigns. And the LORD your God said to you,`You will shepherd my people Israel, and you will become their ruler.’“

1 Chronicles 11:3 When all the elders of Israel had come to King David at Hebron, he made a compact with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed David king over Israel, as the LORD had promised through Samuel.

1 Chronicles 11:4 David and all the Israelites marched to Jerusalem (that is, Jebus). The Jebusites who lived there

1 Chronicles 11:5 said to David, “You will not get in here.” Nevertheless, David captured the fortress of Zion, the City of David.

1 Chronicles 11:6 David had said, “Whoever leads the attack on the Jebusites will become commander-in-chief.” Joab son of Zeruiah went up first, and so he received the command.

1 Chronicles 11:7 David then took up residence in the fortress, and so it was called the City of David.

1 Chronicles 11:8 He built up the city around it, from the supporting terraces to the surrounding wall, while Joab restored the rest of the city.

1 Chronicles 11:9 And David became more and more powerful, because the LORD Almighty was with him.

1 Chronicles 11:10 These were the chiefs of David’s mighty men—they, together with all Israel, gave his kingship strong support to extend it over the whole land, as the LORD had promised—

1 Chronicles 11:11 this is the list of David’s mighty men: Jashobeam, a Hacmonite, was chief of the officers; he raised his spear against three hundred men, whom he killed in one encounter.

1 Chronicles 11:12 Next to him was Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men.

1 Chronicles 11:13 He was with David at Pas Dammim when the Philistines gathered there for battle. At a place where there was a field full of barley, the troops fled from the Philistines.

1 Chronicles 11:14 But they took their stand in the middle of the field. They defended it and struck the Philistines down, and the LORD brought about a great victory.

1 Chronicles 11:15 Three of the thirty chiefs came down to David to the rock at the cave of Adullam, while a band of Philistines was encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.

1 Chronicles 11:16 At that time David was in the stronghold, and the Philistine garrison was at Bethlehem.

1 Chronicles 11:17 David longed for water and said, “Oh, that someone would get me a drink of water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem!”

1 Chronicles 11:18 So the Three broke through the Philistine lines, drew water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem and carried it back to David. But he refused to drink it; instead, he poured it out before the LORD.

1 Chronicles 11:19 “God forbid that I should do this!” he said. “Should I drink the blood of these men who went at the risk of their lives?” Because they risked their lives to bring it back, David would not drink it. Such were the exploits of the three mighty men.

1 Chronicles 11:20 Abishai the brother of Joab was chief of the Three. He raised his spear against three hundred men, whom he killed, and so he became as famous as the Three.

1 Chronicles 11:21 He was doubly honoured above the Three and became their commander, even though he was not included among them.

1 Chronicles 11:22 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a valiant fighter from Kabzeel, who performed great exploits. He struck down two of Moab’s best men. He also went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion.

1 Chronicles 11:23 And he struck down an Egyptian who was seven and a half feet tall. Although the Egyptian had a spear like a weaver’s rod in his hand, Benaiah went against him with a club. He snatched the spear from the Egyptian’s hand and killed him with his own spear.

1 Chronicles 11:24 Such were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada; he too was as famous as the three mighty men.

1 Chronicles 11:25 He was held in greater honour than any of the Thirty, but he was not included among the Three. And David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

1 Chronicles 11:26 The mighty men were: Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem,

1 Chronicles 11:27 Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,

1 Chronicles 11:28 Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa, Abiezer from Anathoth,

1 Chronicles 11:29 Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,

1 Chronicles 11:30 Maharai the Netophathite, Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite,

1 Chronicles 11:31 Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah in Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite,

1 Chronicles 11:32 Hurai from the ravines of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,

1 Chronicles 11:33 Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite,

1 Chronicles 11:34 the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan son of Shagee the Hararite,

1 Chronicles 11:35 Ahiam son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal son of Ur,

1 Chronicles 11:36 Hepher the Mekerathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,

1 Chronicles 11:37 Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai son of Ezbai,

1 Chronicles 11:38 Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar son of Hagri,

1 Chronicles 11:39 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armour-bearer of Joab son of Zeruiah,

1 Chronicles 11:40 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,

1 Chronicles 11:41 Uriah the Hittite, Zabad son of Ahlai,

1 Chronicles 11:42 Adina son of Shiza the Reubenite, who was chief of the Reubenites, and the thirty with him,

1 Chronicles 11:43 Hanan son of Maacah, Joshaphat the Mithnite,

1 Chronicles 11:44 Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite,

1 Chronicles 11:45 Jediael son of Shimri, his brother Joha the Tizite,

1 Chronicles 11:46 Eliel the Mahavite, Jeribai and Joshaviah the sons of Elnaam, Ithmah the Moabite,

1 Chronicles 11:47 Eliel, Obed and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

1 Chronicles 12:1 These were the men who came to David at Ziklag, while he was banished from the presence of Saul son of Kish (they were among the warriors who helped him in battle;

1 Chronicles 12:2 they were armed with bows and were able to shoot arrows or to sling stones right-handed or left-handed; they were kinsmen of Saul from the tribe of Benjamin):

1 Chronicles 12:3 Ahiezer their chief and Joash the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Beracah, Jehu the Anathothite,

1 Chronicles 12:4 and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the Thirty, who was a leader of the Thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite,

1 Chronicles 12:5 Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah and Shephatiah the Haruphite;

1 Chronicles 12:6 Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer and Jashobeam the Korahites;

1 Chronicles 12:7 and Joelah and Zebadiah the sons of Jeroham from Gedor.

1 Chronicles 12:8 Some Gadites defected to David at his stronghold in the desert. They were brave warriors, ready for battle and able to handle the shield and spear. Their faces were the faces of lions, and they were as swift as gazelles in the mountains.

1 Chronicles 12:9 Ezer was the chief, Obadiah the second in command, Eliab the third,

1 Chronicles 12:10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

1 Chronicles 12:11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

1 Chronicles 12:12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

1 Chronicles 12:13 Jeremiah the tenth and Macbannai the eleventh.

1 Chronicles 12:14 These Gadites were army commanders; the least was a match for a hundred, and the greatest for a thousand.

1 Chronicles 12:15 It was they who crossed the Jordan in the first month when it was overflowing all its banks, and they put to flight everyone living in the valleys, to the east and to the west.

1 Chronicles 12:16 Other Benjamites and some men from Judah also came to David in his stronghold.

1 Chronicles 12:17 David went out to meet them and said to them, “If you have come to me in peace, to help me, I am ready to have you unite with me. But if you have come to betray me to my enemies when my hands are free from violence, may the God of our fathers see it and judge you.”

1 Chronicles 12:18 Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, chief of the Thirty, and he said: “We are yours, O David! We are with you, O son of Jesse! Success, success to you, and success to those who help you, for your God will help you.” So David received them and made them leaders of his raiding bands.

1 Chronicles 12:19 Some of the men of Manasseh defected to David when he went with the Philistines to fight against Saul. (He and his men did not help the Philistines because, after consultation, their rulers sent him away. They said, “It will cost us our heads if he deserts to his master Saul.”)

1 Chronicles 12:20 When David went to Ziklag, these were the men of Manasseh who defected to him: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu and Zillethai, leaders of units of a thousand in Manasseh.

1 Chronicles 12:21 They helped David against raiding bands, for all of them were brave warriors, and they were commanders in his army.

1 Chronicles 12:22 Day after day men came to help David, until he had a great army, like the army of God.

1 Chronicles 12:23 These are the numbers of the men armed for battle who came to David at Hebron to turn Saul’s kingdom over to him, as the LORD had said:

1 Chronicles 12:24 men of Judah, carrying shield and spear—6,800 armed for battle;

1 Chronicles 12:25 men of Simeon, warriors ready for battle—7,100;

1 Chronicles 12:26 men of Levi—4,600,

1 Chronicles 12:27 including Jehoiada, leader of the family of Aaron with 3,700 men,

1 Chronicles 12:28 and Zadok, a brave young warrior, with 22 officers from his family;

1 Chronicles 12:29 men of Benjamin, Saul’s kinsmen—3,000, most of whom had remained loyal to Saul’s house until then;

1 Chronicles 12:30 men of Ephraim, brave warriors, famous in their own clans—20,800;

1 Chronicles 12:31 men of half the tribe of Manasseh, designated by name to come and make David king—18,000;

1 Chronicles 12:32 men of Issachar, who understood the times and knew what Israel should do—200 chiefs, with all their relatives under their command;

1 Chronicles 12:33 men of Zebulun, experienced soldiers prepared for battle with every type of weapon, to help David with undivided loyalty—50,000;

1 Chronicles 12:34 men of Naphtali—1,000 officers, together with 37,000 men carrying shields and spears;

1 Chronicles 12:35 men of Dan, ready for battle—28,600;

1 Chronicles 12:36 men of Asher, experienced soldiers prepared for battle— 40,000;

1 Chronicles 12:37 and from east of the Jordan, men of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, armed with every type of weapon—120,000.

1 Chronicles 12:38 All these were fighting men who volunteered to serve in the ranks. They came to Hebron fully determined to make David king over all Israel. All the rest of the Israelites were also of one mind to make David king.

1 Chronicles 12:39 The men spent three days there with David, eating and drinking, for their families had supplied provisions for them.

1 Chronicles 12:40 Also, their neighbours from as far away as Issachar, Zebulun and Naphtali came bringing food on donkeys, camels, mules and oxen. There were plentiful supplies of flour, fig cakes, raisin cakes, wine, oil, cattle and sheep, for there was joy in Israel.

1 Chronicles 13:1 David conferred with each of his officers, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds.

1 Chronicles 13:2 He then said to the whole assembly of Israel, “If it seems good to you and if it is the will of the LORD our God, let us send word far and wide to the rest of our brothers throughout the territories of Israel, and also to the priests and Levites who are with them in their towns and pasture-lands, to come and join us.

1 Chronicles 13:3 Let us bring the ark of our God back to us, for we did not enquire of it during the reign of Saul.”

1 Chronicles 13:4 The whole assembly agreed to do this, because it seemed right to all the people.

1 Chronicles 13:5 So David assembled all the Israelites, from the Shihor River in Egypt to Lebo Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim.

1 Chronicles 13:6 David and all the Israelites with him went to Baalah of Judah (Kiriath Jearim) to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD, who is enthroned between the cherubim—the ark that is called by the Name.

1 Chronicles 13:7 They moved the ark of God from Abinadab's house on a new cart, with Uzzah and Ahio guiding it.

1 Chronicles 13:8 David and all the Israelites were celebrating with all their might before God, with songs and with harps, lyres, tambourines, cymbals and trumpets.

1 Chronicles 13:9 When they came to the threshing-floor of Kidon, Uzzah reached out his hand to steady the ark, because the oxen stumbled.

1 Chronicles 13:10 The LORD's anger burned against Uzzah, and he struck him down because he had put his hand on the ark. So he died there before God.

1 Chronicles 13:11 Then David was angry because the LORD's wrath had broken out against Uzzah, and to this day that place is called Perez Uzzah.

1 Chronicles 13:12 David was afraid of God that day and asked, "How can I ever bring the ark of God to me?"

1 Chronicles 13:13 He did not take the ark to be with him in the City of David. Instead, he took it aside to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

1 Chronicles 13:14 The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house for three months, and the LORD blessed his household and everything he had.

1 Chronicles 14:1 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, along with cedar logs, stonemasons and carpenters to build a palace for him.

1 Chronicles 14:2 And David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and that his kingdom had been highly exalted for the sake of his people Israel.

1 Chronicles 14:3 In Jerusalem David took more wives and became the father of more sons and daughters.

1 Chronicles 14:4 These are the names of the children born to him there: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

1 Chronicles 14:5 Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet,

1 Chronicles 14:6 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,

1 Chronicles 14:7 Elishama, Beeliada and Eliphelet.

1 Chronicles 14:8 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, they went up in full force to search for him, but David heard about it and went out to meet them.

1 Chronicles 14:9 Now the Philistines had come and raided the Valley of Rephaim;

1 Chronicles 14:10 so David enquired of God: “Shall I go and attack the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?” The LORD answered him, “Go, I will hand them over to you.”

1 Chronicles 14:11 So David and his men went up to Baal Perazim, and there he defeated them. He said, “As waters break out, God has broken out against my enemies by my hand.” So that place was called Baal Perazim.

1 Chronicles 14:12 The Philistines had abandoned their gods there, and David gave orders to burn them in the fire.

1 Chronicles 14:13 Once more the Philistines raided the valley;

1 Chronicles 14:14 so David enquired of God again, and God answered him, “Do not go straight up, but circle round them and attack them in front of the balsam trees.

1 Chronicles 14:15 As soon as you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, move out to battle, because that will mean God has gone out in front of you to strike the Philistine army.”

1 Chronicles 14:16 So David did as God commanded him, and they struck down the Philistine army, all the way from Gibeon to Gezer.

1 Chronicles 14:17 So David’s fame spread throughout every land, and the LORD made all the nations fear him.

1 Chronicles 15:1 After David had constructed buildings for himself in the City of David, he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it.

1 Chronicles 15:2 Then David said, “No-one but the Levites may carry the ark of God, because the LORD chose them to carry the ark of the LORD and to minister before him for ever.”

1 Chronicles 15:3 David assembled all Israel in Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the LORD to the place he had prepared for it.

1 Chronicles 15:4 He called together the descendants of Aaron and the Levites:

1 Chronicles 15:5 From the descendants of Kohath, Uriel the leader and 120 relatives;

1 Chronicles 15:6 from the descendants of Merari, Asaiah the leader and 220 relatives;

1 Chronicles 15:7 from the descendants of Gershon, Joel the leader and 130 relatives;

1 Chronicles 15:8 from the descendants of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the leader and 200 relatives;

1 Chronicles 15:9 from the descendants of Hebron, Eliel the leader and 80 relatives;

1 Chronicles 15:10 from the descendants of Uzziel, Amminadab the leader and 112 relatives.

1 Chronicles 15:11 Then David summoned Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel and Amminadab the Levites.

1 Chronicles 15:12 He said to them, “You are the heads of the Levitical families; you and your fellow Levites are to consecrate yourselves and bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, to the place I have prepared for it.

1 Chronicles 15:13 It was because you, the Levites, did not bring it up the first time that the LORD our God broke out in anger against us. We did not enquire of him about how to do it in the prescribed way.”

1 Chronicles 15:14 So the priests and Levites consecrated themselves in order to bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel.

1 Chronicles 15:15 And the Levites carried the ark of God with the poles on their shoulders, as Moses had commanded in accordance with the word of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 15:16 David told the leaders of the Levites to appoint their brothers as singers to sing joyful songs, accompanied by musical instruments: lyres, harps and cymbals.

1 Chronicles 15:17 So the Levites appointed Heman son of Joel; from his brothers, Asaph son of Berekiah; and from their brothers the Merarites, Ethan son of Kushaiah;

1 Chronicles 15:18 and with them their brothers next in rank: Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom and Jeiel, the gatekeepers.

1 Chronicles 15:19 The musicians Heman, Asaph and Ethan were to sound the bronze cymbals;

1 Chronicles 15:20 Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah and Benaiah were to play the lyres according to alamoth,

1 Chronicles 15:21 and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel and Azaziah were to play the harps, directing according to sheminith.

1 Chronicles 15:22 Kenaniah the head Levite was in charge of the singing; that was his responsibility because he was skilful at it.

1 Chronicles 15:23 Berekiah and Elkanah were to be doorkeepers for the ark.

1 Chronicles 15:24 Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah and Eliezer the priests were to blow trumpets before the ark of God. Obed-Edom and Jehiah were also to be doorkeepers for the ark.

1 Chronicles 15:25 So David and the elders of Israel and the commanders of units of a thousand went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-Edom, with rejoicing.

1 Chronicles 15:26 Because God had helped the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams were sacrificed.

1 Chronicles 15:27 Now David was clothed in a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who were carrying the ark, and as were the singers, and Kenaniah, who was in charge of the singing of the choirs. David also wore a linen ephod.

1 Chronicles 15:28 So all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouts, with the sounding of rams’ horns and trumpets, and of cymbals, and the playing of lyres and harps.

1 Chronicles 15:29 As the ark of the covenant of the LORD was entering the City of David, Michal daughter of Saul watched from a window. And when she saw King David dancing and celebrating, she despised him in her heart.

1 Chronicles 16:1 They brought the ark of God and set it inside the tent that David had pitched for it, and they presented burnt offerings and fellowship offerings before God.

1 Chronicles 16:2 After David had finished sacrificing the burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 16:3 Then he gave a loaf of bread, a cake of dates and a cake of raisins to each Israelite man and woman.

1 Chronicles 16:4 He appointed some of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, to make petition, to give thanks, and to praise the LORD, the God of Israel:

1 Chronicles 16:5 Asaph was the chief, Zechariah second, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom and Jeiel. They were to play the lyres and harps, Asaph was to sound the cymbals,

1 Chronicles 16:6 and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests were to blow the trumpets regularly before the ark of the covenant of God.

1 Chronicles 16:7 That day David first committed to Asaph and his associates this psalm of thanks to the LORD:

1 Chronicles 16:8 Give thanks to the LORD, call on his name; make known among the nations what he has done.

1 Chronicles 16:9 Sing to him, sing praise to him; tell of all his wonderful acts.

1 Chronicles 16:10 Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.

1 Chronicles 16:11 Look to the LORD and his strength; seek his face always.

1 Chronicles 16:12 Remember the wonders he has done, his miracles, and the judgments he pronounced,

1 Chronicles 16:13 O descendants of Israel his servant, O sons of Jacob, his chosen ones.

1 Chronicles 16:14 He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

1 Chronicles 16:15 He remembers his covenant for ever, the word he commanded, for a thousand generations,

1 Chronicles 16:16 the covenant he made with Abraham, the oath he swore to Isaac.

1 Chronicles 16:17 He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree, to Israel as an everlasting covenant:

1 Chronicles 16:18 "To you I will give the land of Canaan as the portion you will inherit."

1 Chronicles 16:19 When they were but few in number, few indeed, and strangers in it,

1 Chronicles 16:20 they wandered from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another.

1 Chronicles 16:21 He allowed no man to oppress them; for their sake he rebuked kings:

1 Chronicles 16:22 "Do not touch my anointed ones; do my prophets no harm."

1 Chronicles 16:23 Sing to the LORD, all the earth; proclaim his salvation day after day.

1 Chronicles 16:24 Declare his glory among the nations, his marvellous deeds among all peoples.

1 Chronicles 16:25 For great is the LORD and most worthy of praise; he is to be feared above all gods.

1 Chronicles 16:26 For all the gods of the nations are idols, but the LORD made the heavens.

1 Chronicles 16:27 Splendour and majesty are before him; strength and joy in his dwelling-place.

1 Chronicles 16:28 Ascribe to the LORD, O families of nations, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength,

1 Chronicles 16:29 ascribe to the LORD the glory due to his name. Bring an offering and come before him; worship the LORD in the splendour of his holiness.

1 Chronicles 16:30 Tremble before him, all the earth! The world is firmly established; it cannot be moved.

1 Chronicles 16:31 Let the heavens rejoice, let the earth be glad; let them say among the nations, “The LORD reigns!”

1 Chronicles 16:32 Let the sea resound, and all that is in it; let the fields be jubilant, and everything in them!

1 Chronicles 16:33 Then the trees of the forest will sing, they will sing for joy before the LORD, for he comes to judge the earth.

1 Chronicles 16:34 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his love endures for ever.

1 Chronicles 16:35 Cry out, “Save us, O God our Saviour; gather us and deliver us from the nations, that we may give thanks to your holy name, that we may glory in your praise.”

1 Chronicles 16:36 Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. Then all the people said “Amen” and “Praise the LORD.”

1 Chronicles 16:37 David left Asaph and his associates before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister there regularly, according to each day’s requirements.

1 Chronicles 16:38 He also left Obed-Edom and his sixty-eight associates to minister with them. Obed-Edom son of Jeduthun, and also Hosah, were gatekeepers.

1 Chronicles 16:39 David left Zadok the priest and his fellow priests before the tabernacle of the LORD at the high place in Gibeon

1 Chronicles 16:40 to present burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering regularly, morning and evening, in accordance with everything written in the Law of the LORD, which he had given Israel.

1 Chronicles 16:41 With them were Heman and Jeduthun and the rest of those chosen and designated by name to give thanks to the LORD, “for his love endures for ever.”

1 Chronicles 16:42 Heman and Jeduthun were responsible for the sounding of the trumpets and cymbals and for the playing of the other instruments for sacred song. The sons of Jeduthun were stationed at the gate.

1 Chronicles 16:43 Then all the people left, each for his own home, and David returned home to bless his family.

1 Chronicles 17:1 After David was settled in his palace, he said to Nathan the prophet, “Here I am, living in a palace of cedar, while the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under a tent.”

1 Chronicles 17:2 Nathan replied to David, “Whatever you have in mind, do it, for God is with you.”

1 Chronicles 17:3 That night the word of God came to Nathan, saying:

1 Chronicles 17:4 “Go and tell my servant David,`This is what the LORD says: You are not the one to build me a house to dwell in.

1 Chronicles 17:5 I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought Israel up out of Egypt to this day. I have moved from one tent site to another, from one dwelling-place to another.

1 Chronicles 17:6 Wherever I have moved with all the Israelites, did I ever say to any of their leaders whom I commanded to shepherd my people, “Why have you not built me a house of cedar?”‘

1 Chronicles 17:7 “Now then, tell my servant David,`This is what the LORD Almighty says: I took you from the pasture and from following the flock, to be ruler over my people Israel.

1 Chronicles 17:8 I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you. Now I will make your name like the names of the greatest men of the earth.

1 Chronicles 17:9 And I will provide a place for my people Israel and will plant them so that they can have a home of their own and no longer be disturbed. Wicked people will not oppress them any more, as they did at the beginning

1 Chronicles 17:10 and have done ever since the time I appointed leaders over my people Israel. I will also subdue all your enemies. “`I declare to you that the LORD will build a house for you:

1 Chronicles 17:11 When your days are over and you go to be with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, one of your own sons, and I will establish his kingdom.

1 Chronicles 17:12 He is the one who will build a house for me, and I will establish his throne for ever.

1 Chronicles 17:13 I will be his father, and he will be my son. I will never take my love away from him, as I took it away from your predecessor.

1 Chronicles 17:14 I will set him over my house and my kingdom for ever; his throne will be established for ever.’“

1 Chronicles 17:15 Nathan reported to David all the words of this entire revelation.

1 Chronicles 17:16 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD, and he said: “Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my family, that you have brought me this far?

1 Chronicles 17:17 And as if this were not enough in your sight, O God, you have spoken about the future of the house of your servant. You have looked on me as though I were the most exalted of men, O LORD God.

1 Chronicles 17:18 “What more can David say to you for honouring your servant? For you know your servant,

1 Chronicles 17:19 O LORD. For the sake of your servant and according to your will, you have done this great thing and made known all these great promises.

1 Chronicles 17:20 “There is no-one like you, O LORD, and there is no God but you, as we have heard with our own ears.

1 Chronicles 17:21 And who is like your people Israel—the one nation on earth whose God went out to redeem a people for himself, and to make a name for yourself, and to perform great and awesome wonders by driving out nations from before your people, whom you redeemed from Egypt?

1 Chronicles 17:22 You made your people Israel your very own for ever, and you, O LORD, have become their God.

1 Chronicles 17:23 “And now, LORD, let the promise you have made concerning your servant and his house be established for ever. Do as you promised,

1 Chronicles 17:24 so that it will be established and that your name will be great for ever. Then men will say,`The LORD Almighty, the God over Israel, is Israel’s God!’ And the house of your servant David will be established before you.

1 Chronicles 17:25 “You, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build a house for him. So your servant has found courage to pray to you.

1 Chronicles 17:26 O LORD, you are God! You have promised these good things to your servant.

1 Chronicles 17:27 Now you have been pleased to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue for ever in your sight; for you, O LORD, have blessed it, and it will be blessed for ever.”

1 Chronicles 18:1 In the course of time, David defeated the Philistines and subdued them, and he took Gath and its surrounding villages from the control of the Philistines.

1 Chronicles 18:2 David also defeated the Moabites, and they became subject to him and brought tribute.

1 Chronicles 18:3 Moreover, David fought Hadadezer king of Zobah, as far as Hamath, when he went to establish his control along the Euphrates River.

1 Chronicles 18:4 David captured a thousand of his chariots, seven thousand charioteers and twenty thousand foot soldiers. He hamstrung all but a hundred of the chariot horses.

1 Chronicles 18:5 When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck down twenty-two thousand of them.

1 Chronicles 18:6 He put garrisons in the Aramean kingdom of Damascus, and the Arameans became subject to him and brought tribute. The LORD gave David victory everywhere he went.

1 Chronicles 18:7 David took the gold shields carried by the officers of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem.

1 Chronicles 18:8 From Tebah and Cun, towns that belonged to Hadadezer, David took a great quantity of bronze, which Solomon used to make the bronze Sea, the pillars and various bronze articles.

1 Chronicles 18:9 When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the entire army of Hadadezer king of Zobah,

1 Chronicles 18:10 he sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet him and congratulate him on his victory in battle over Hadadezer, who had been at war with Tou. Hadoram brought all kinds of articles of gold and silver and bronze.

1 Chronicles 18:11 King David dedicated these articles to the LORD, as he had done with the silver and gold he had taken from all these nations: Edom and Moab, the Ammonites and the Philistines, and Amalek.

1 Chronicles 18:12 Abishai son of Zeruiah struck down eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

1 Chronicles 18:13 He put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became subject to David. The LORD gave David victory everywhere he went.

1 Chronicles 18:14 David reigned over all Israel, doing what was just and right for all his people.

1 Chronicles 18:15 Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;

1 Chronicles 18:16 Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Shavsha was secretary;

1 Chronicles 18:17 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and Pelethites; and David’s sons were chief officials at the king’s side.

1 Chronicles 19:1 In the course of time, Nahash king of the Ammonites died, and his son succeeded him as king.

1 Chronicles 19:2 David thought, “I will show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me.” So David sent a delegation to express his sympathy to Hanun concerning his father. When David’s men came to Hanun in the land of the Ammonites to express sympathy to him,

1 Chronicles 19:3 the Ammonite nobles said to Hanun, “Do you think David is honouring your father by sending men to you to express sympathy? Haven’t his men come to you to explore and spy out the country and overthrow it?”

1 Chronicles 19:4 So Hanun seized David’s men, shaved them, cut off their garments in the middle at the buttocks, and sent them away.

1 Chronicles 19:5 When someone came and told David about the men, he sent messengers to meet them, for they were greatly humiliated. The king said, “Stay at Jericho till your beards have grown, and then come back.”

1 Chronicles 19:6 When the Ammonites realised that they had become an offence to David’s nostrils, Hanun and the Ammonites sent a thousand talents of silver to hire chariots and charioteers from Aram Naharaim, Aram Maacah and Zobah.

1 Chronicles 19:7 They hired thirty-two thousand chariots and charioteers, as well as the king of Maacah with his troops, who came and camped near Medeba, while the Ammonites were mustered from their towns and moved out for battle.

1 Chronicles 19:8 On hearing this, David sent Joab out with the entire army of fighting men.

1 Chronicles 19:9 The Ammonites came out and drew up in battle formation at the entrance to their city, while the kings who had come were by themselves in the open country.

1 Chronicles 19:10 Joab saw that there were battle lines in front of him and behind him; so he selected some of the best troops in Israel and deployed them against the Arameans.

1 Chronicles 19:11 He put the rest of the men under the command of Abishai his brother, and they were deployed against the Ammonites.

1 Chronicles 19:12 Joab said, “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you are to rescue me; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will rescue you.

1 Chronicles 19:13 Be strong and let us fight bravely for our people and the cities of our God. The LORD will do what is good in his sight.”

1 Chronicles 19:14 Then Joab and the troops with him advanced to fight the Arameans, and they fled before him.

1 Chronicles 19:15 When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans were fleeing, they too fled before his brother Abishai and went inside the city. So Joab went back to Jerusalem.

1 Chronicles 19:16 After the Arameans saw that they had been routed by Israel, they sent messengers and had Arameans brought from beyond the River, with Shophach the commander of Hadadezer’s army leading them.

1 Chronicles 19:17 When David was told of this, he gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan; he advanced against them and formed his battle lines opposite them. David formed his lines to meet the Arameans in battle, and they fought against him.

1 Chronicles 19:18 But they fled before Israel, and David killed seven thousand of their charioteers and forty thousand of their foot soldiers. He also killed Shophach the commander of their army.

1 Chronicles 19:19 When the vassals of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became subject to him. So the Arameans were not willing to help the Ammonites any more.

1 Chronicles 20:1 In the spring, at the time when kings go off to war, Joab led out the armed forces. He laid waste the land of the Ammonites and went to Rabbah and besieged it, but David remained in Jerusalem. Joab attacked Rabbah and left it in ruins.

1 Chronicles 20:2 David took the crown from the head of their king—its weight was found to be a talent of gold, and it was set with precious stones—and it was placed on David's head. He took a great quantity of plunder from the city

1 Chronicles 20:3 and brought out the people who were there, consigning them to labour with saws and with iron picks and axes. David did this to all the Ammonite towns. Then David and his entire army returned to Jerusalem.

1 Chronicles 20:4 In the course of time, war broke out with the Philistines, at Gezer. At that time Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, one of the descendants of the Rephaites, and the Philistines were subjugated.

1 Chronicles 20:5 In another battle with the Philistines, Elhanan son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, who had a spear with a shaft like a weaver's rod.

1 Chronicles 20:6 In still another battle, which took place at Gath, there was a huge man with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot—twenty-four in all. He also was descended from Rapha.

1 Chronicles 20:7 When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of Shimea, David's brother, killed him.

1 Chronicles 20:8 These were descendants of Rapha in Gath, and they fell at the hands of David and his men.

1 Chronicles 21:1 Satan rose up against Israel and incited David to take a census of Israel.

1 Chronicles 21:2 So David said to Joab and the commanders of the troops, "Go and count the Israelites from Beersheba to Dan. Then report back to me so that I may know how many there are."

1 Chronicles 21:3 But Joab replied, "May the LORD multiply his troops a hundred times over. My lord the king, are they not all my lord's subjects? Why does my lord want to do this? Why should he bring guilt on Israel?"

1 Chronicles 21:4 The king’s word, however, overruled Joab; so Joab left and went throughout Israel and then came back to Jerusalem.

1 Chronicles 21:5 Joab reported the number of the fighting men to David: In all Israel there were one million one hundred thousand men who could handle a sword, including four hundred and seventy thousand in Judah.

1 Chronicles 21:6 But Joab did not include Levi and Benjamin in the numbering, because the king’s command was repulsive to him.

1 Chronicles 21:7 This command was also evil in the sight of God; so he punished Israel.

1 Chronicles 21:8 Then David said to God, “I have sinned greatly by doing this. Now, I beg you, take away the guilt of your servant. I have done a very foolish thing.”

1 Chronicles 21:9 The LORD said to Gad, David’s seer,

1 Chronicles 21:10 “Go and tell David,`This is what the LORD says: I am giving you three options. Choose one of them for me to carry out against you.’“

1 Chronicles 21:11 So Gad went to David and said to him, “This is what the LORD says:`Take your choice:

1 Chronicles 21:12 three years of famine, three months of being swept away before your enemies, with their swords overtaking you, or three days of the sword of the LORD—days of plague in the land, with the angel of the LORD ravaging every part of Israel.’ Now then, decide how I should answer the one who sent me.”

1 Chronicles 21:13 David said to Gad, “I am in deep distress. Let me fall into the hands of the LORD, for his mercy is very great; but do not let me fall into the hands of men.”

1 Chronicles 21:14 So the LORD sent a plague on Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell dead.

1 Chronicles 21:15 And God sent an angel to destroy Jerusalem. But as the angel was doing so, the LORD saw it and was grieved because of the calamity and said to the angel who was destroying the people, “Enough! Withdraw your hand.” The angel of the LORD was then standing at the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

1 Chronicles 21:16 David looked up and saw the angel of the LORD standing between heaven and earth, with a drawn sword in his hand extended over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell face down.

1 Chronicles 21:17 David said to God, “Was it not I who ordered the fighting men to be counted? I am the one who has sinned and done wrong. These are but sheep. What have they done? O LORD my God, let your hand fall upon me and my family, but do not let this plague remain on your people.”

1 Chronicles 21:18 Then the angel of the LORD ordered Gad to tell David to go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

1 Chronicles 21:19 So David went up in obedience to the word that Gad had spoken in the name of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 21:20 While Araunah was threshing wheat, he turned and saw the angel; his four sons who were with him hid themselves.

1 Chronicles 21:21 Then David approached, and when Araunah looked and saw him, he left the threshing-floor and bowed down before David with his face to the ground.

1 Chronicles 21:22 David said to him, “Let me have the site of your threshing-floor so that I can build an altar to the LORD, that the plague on the people may be stopped. Sell it to me at the full price.”

1 Chronicles 21:23 Araunah said to David, “Take it! Let my lord the king do whatever pleases him. Look, I will give the oxen for the burnt offerings, the threshing-sledges for the wood, and the wheat for the grain offering. I will give all this.”

1 Chronicles 21:24 But King David replied to Araunah, “No, I insist on paying the full price. I will not take for the LORD what is yours, or sacrifice a burnt offering that costs me nothing.”

1 Chronicles 21:25 So David paid Araunah six hundred shekels of gold for the site.

1 Chronicles 21:26 David built an altar to the LORD there and sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. He called on the LORD, and the LORD answered him with fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering.

1 Chronicles 21:27 Then the LORD spoke to the angel, and he put his sword back into its sheath.

1 Chronicles 21:28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite, he offered sacrifices there.

1 Chronicles 21:29 The tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses had made in the desert, and the altar of burnt offering were at that time on the high place at Gibeon.

1 Chronicles 21:30 But David could not go before it to enquire of God, because he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 22:1 Then David said, “The house of the LORD God is to be here, and also the altar of burnt offering for Israel.”

1 Chronicles 22:2 So David gave orders to assemble the aliens living in Israel, and from among them he appointed stonecutters to prepare dressed stone for building the house of God.

1 Chronicles 22:3 He provided a large amount of iron to make nails for the doors of the gateways and for the fittings, and more bronze than could be weighed.

1 Chronicles 22:4 He also provided more cedar logs than could be counted, for the Sidonians and Tyrians had brought large numbers of them to David.

1 Chronicles 22:5 David said, “My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the house to be built for the LORD should be of great magnificence and fame and splendour in the sight of all the nations. Therefore I will make preparations for it.” So David made extensive preparations before his death.

1 Chronicles 22:6 Then he called for his son Solomon and charged him to build a house for the LORD, the God of Israel.

1 Chronicles 22:7 David said to Solomon: “My son, I had it in my heart to build a house for the Name of the LORD my God.

1 Chronicles 22:8 But this word of the LORD came to me:`You have shed much blood and have fought many wars. You are not to build a house for my Name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in my sight.

1 Chronicles 22:9 But you will have a son who will be a man of peace and rest, and I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side. His name will be Solomon, and I will grant Israel peace and quiet during his reign.

1 Chronicles 22:10 He is the one who will build a house for my Name. He will be my son, and I will be his father. And I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.’

1 Chronicles 22:11 “Now, my son, the LORD be with you, and may you have success and build the house of the LORD your God, as he said you would.

1 Chronicles 22:12 May the LORD give you discretion and understanding when he puts you in command over Israel, so that you may keep the law of the LORD your God.

1 Chronicles 22:13 Then you will have success if you are careful to observe the decrees and laws that the LORD gave to Moses for Israel. Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or discouraged.

1 Chronicles 22:14 “I have taken great pains to provide for the temple of the LORD a hundred thousand talents of gold, a million talents of silver, quantities of bronze and iron too great to be weighed, and wood and stone. And you may add to them.

1 Chronicles 22:15 You have many workmen: stonecutters, masons and carpenters, as well as men skilled in every kind of work

1 Chronicles 22:16 in gold and silver, bronze and iron—craftsmen beyond number. Now begin the work, and the LORD be with you.”

1 Chronicles 22:17 Then David ordered all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon.

1 Chronicles 22:18 He said to them, “Is not the LORD your God with you? And has he not granted you rest on every side? For he has handed the inhabitants of the land over to me, and the land is subject to the LORD and to his people.

1 Chronicles 22:19 Now devote your heart and soul to seeking the LORD your God. Begin to build the sanctuary of the LORD God, so that you may bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the sacred articles belonging to God into the temple that will be built for the Name of the LORD.”

1 Chronicles 23:1 When David was old and full of years, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.

1 Chronicles 23:2 He also gathered together all the leaders of Israel, as well as the priests and Levites.

1 Chronicles 23:3 The Levites thirty years old or more were counted, and the total number of men was thirty-eight thousand.

1 Chronicles 23:4 David said, “Of these, twenty-four thousand are to supervise the work of the temple of the LORD and six thousand are to be officials and judges.

1 Chronicles 23:5 Four thousand are to be gatekeepers and four thousand are to praise the LORD with the musical instruments I have provided for that purpose.”

1 Chronicles 23:6 David divided the Levites into groups corresponding to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

1 Chronicles 23:7 Belonging to the Gershonites: Ladan and Shimei.

1 Chronicles 23:8 The sons of Ladan: Jehiel the first, Zetham and Joel— three in all.

1 Chronicles 23:9 The sons of Shimei: Shelomoth, Haziel and Haran—three in all. These were the heads of the families of Ladan.

1 Chronicles 23:10 And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Ziza, Jeush and Beriah. These were the sons of Shimei—four in all.

1 Chronicles 23:11 Jahath was the first and Ziza the second, but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons; so they were counted as one family with one assignment.

1 Chronicles 23:12 The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel— four in all.

1 Chronicles 23:13 The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses. Aaron was set apart, he and his descendants for ever, to consecrate the most holy things, to offer sacrifices before the LORD, to minister before him and to pronounce blessings in his name for ever.

1 Chronicles 23:14 The sons of Moses the man of God were counted as part of the tribe of Levi.

1 Chronicles 23:15 The sons of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer.

1 Chronicles 23:16 The descendants of Gershom: Shubael was the first.

1 Chronicles 23:17 The descendants of Eliezer: Rehabiah was the first. Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very numerous.

1 Chronicles 23:18 The sons of Izhar: Shelomith was the first.

1 Chronicles 23:19 The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third and Jekameam the fourth.

1 Chronicles 23:20 The sons of Uzziel: Micah the first and Isshiah the second.

1 Chronicles 23:21 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish.

1 Chronicles 23:22 Eleazar died without having sons: he had only daughters. Their cousins, the sons of Kish, married them.

1 Chronicles 23:23 The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth—three in all.

1 Chronicles 23:24 These were the descendants of Levi by their families— the heads of families as they were registered under their names and counted individually, that is, the workers twenty years old or more who served in the temple of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 23:25 For David had said, “Since the LORD, the God of Israel, has granted rest to his people and has come to dwell in Jerusalem for ever,

1 Chronicles 23:26 the Levites no longer need to carry the tabernacle or any of the articles used in its service.”

1 Chronicles 23:27 According to the last instructions of David, the Levites were counted from those twenty years old or more.

1 Chronicles 23:28 The duty of the Levites was to help Aaron’s descendants in the service of the temple of the LORD: to be in charge of the courtyards, the side rooms, the purification of all sacred things and the performance of other duties at the house of God.

1 Chronicles 23:29 They were in charge of the bread set out on the table, the flour for the grain offerings, the unleavened wafers, the baking and the mixing, and all measurements of quantity and size.

1 Chronicles 23:30 They were also to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD. They were to do the same in the evening

1 Chronicles 23:31 and whenever burnt offerings were presented to the LORD on Sabbaths and at New Moon festivals and at appointed feasts. They were to serve before the LORD regularly in the proper number and in the way prescribed for them.

1 Chronicles 23:32 And so the Levites carried out their responsibilities for the Tent of Meeting, for the Holy Place and, under their brothers the descendants of Aaron, for the service of the temple of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 24:1 These were the divisions of the sons of Aaron: The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

1 Chronicles 24:2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father did, and they had no sons; so Eleazar and Ithamar served as the priests.

1 Chronicles 24:3 With the help of Zadok a descendant of Eleazar and Ahimelech a descendant of Ithamar, David separated them into divisions for their appointed order of ministering.

1 Chronicles 24:4 A larger number of leaders were found among Eleazar’s descendants than among Ithamar’s, and they were divided accordingly: sixteen heads of families from Eleazar’s descendants and eight heads of families from Ithamar’s descendants.

1 Chronicles 24:5 They divided them impartially by drawing lots, for there were officials of the sanctuary and officials of God among the descendants of both Eleazar and Ithamar.

1 Chronicles 24:6 The scribe Shemaiah son of Nethanel, a Levite, recorded their names in the presence of the king and of the officials: Zadok the priest, Ahimelech son of Abiathar and the heads of families of the priests and of the Levites—one family being taken from Eleazar and then one from Ithamar.

1 Chronicles 24:7 The first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

1 Chronicles 24:8 the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

1 Chronicles 24:9 the fifth to Malkijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

1 Chronicles 24:10 the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,

1 Chronicles 24:11 the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah,

1 Chronicles 24:12 the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,

1 Chronicles 24:13 the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,

1 Chronicles 24:14 the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,

1 Chronicles 24:15 the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzez,

1 Chronicles 24:16 the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel,

1 Chronicles 24:17 the twenty-first to Jakin, the twenty-second to Gamul,

1 Chronicles 24:18 the twenty-third to Delaiah and the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.

1 Chronicles 24:19 This was their appointed order of ministering when they entered the temple of the LORD, according to the regulations prescribed for them by their forefather Aaron, as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded him.

1 Chronicles 24:20 As for the rest of the descendants of Levi: from the sons of Amram: Shubael; from the sons of Shubael: Jehdeiah.

1 Chronicles 24:21 As for Rehabiah, from his sons: Isshiah was the first.

1 Chronicles 24:22 From the Izharites: Shelomoth; from the sons of Shelomoth: Jahath.

1 Chronicles 24:23 The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third and Jekameam the fourth.

1 Chronicles 24:24 The son of Uzziel: Micah; from the sons of Micah: Shamir.

1 Chronicles 24:25 The brother of Micah: Isshiah; from the sons of Isshiah: Zechariah.

1 Chronicles 24:26 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The son of Jaaziah: Beno.

1 Chronicles 24:27 The sons of Merari: from Jaaziah: Beno, Shoham, Zaccur and Ibri.

1 Chronicles 24:28 From Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons.

1 Chronicles 24:29 From Kish: the son of Kish: Jerahmeel.

1 Chronicles 24:30 And the sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth. These were the Levites, according to their families.

1 Chronicles 24:31 They also cast lots, just as their brothers the descendants of Aaron did, in the presence of King David and of Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of families of the priests and of the Levites. The families of the oldest brother were treated the same as those of the youngest.

1 Chronicles 25:1 David, together with the commanders of the army, set apart some of the sons of Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun for the ministry of prophesying, accompanied by harps, lyres and cymbals. Here is the list of the men who performed this service:

1 Chronicles 25:2 From the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah and Asarelah. The sons of Asaph were under the supervision of Asaph, who prophesied under the king’s supervision.

1 Chronicles 25:3 As for Jeduthun, from his sons: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei, Hashabiah and Mattithiah, six in all, under the supervision of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied, using the harp in thanking and praising the LORD.

1 Chronicles 25:4 As for Heman, from his sons: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shubael and Jerimoth; Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti and Romamti-Ezer; Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir and Mahazioth.

1 Chronicles 25:5 All these were sons of Heman the king's seer. They were given to him through the promises of God to exalt him. God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

1 Chronicles 25:6 All these men were under the supervision of their fathers for the music of the temple of the LORD, with cymbals, lyres and harps, for the ministry at the house of God. Asaph, Jeduthun and Heman were under the supervision of the king.

1 Chronicles 25:7 Along with their relatives—all of them trained and skilled in music for the LORD—they numbered 288.

1 Chronicles 25:8 Young and old alike, teacher as well as student, cast lots for their duties.

1 Chronicles 25:9 The first lot, which was for Asaph, fell to Joseph, his sons and relatives, 12 the second to Gedaliah, he and his relatives and sons, 12

1 Chronicles 25:10 the third to Zaccur, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:11 the fourth to Izri, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:12 the fifth to Nethaniah, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:13 the sixth to Bukkiah, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:14 the seventh to Jesarelah, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:15 the eighth to Jeshaiah, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:16 the ninth to Mattaniah, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:17 the tenth to Shimei, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:18 the eleventh to Azarel, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:19 the twelfth to Hashabiah, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:20 the thirteenth to Shubael, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:21 the fourteenth to Mattithiah, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:22 the fifteenth to Jerimoth, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:23 the sixteenth to Hananiah, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:24 the seventeenth to Joshbekashah, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:25 the eighteenth to Hanani, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:26 the nineteenth to Mallothi, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:27 the twentieth to Eliathah, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:28 the twenty-first to Hothir, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:29 the twenty-second to Giddalti, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:30 the twenty-third to Mahazioth, his sons and relatives, 12

1 Chronicles 25:31 the twenty-fourth to Romamti-Ezer, his sons and relatives. 12

1 Chronicles 26:1 The divisions of the gatekeepers: From the Korahites: Meshelemiah son of Kore, one of the sons of Asaph.

1 Chronicles 26:2 Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

1 Chronicles 26:3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth and Eliehoenai the seventh.

1 Chronicles 26:4 Obed-Edom also had sons: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth,

1 Chronicles 26:5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh and Peullethai the eighth. (For God had blessed Obed-Edom.)

1 Chronicles 26:6 His son Shemaiah also had sons, who were leaders in their father’s family because they were very capable men.

1 Chronicles 26:7 The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, Rephael, Obed and Elzabad; his relatives Elihu and Semakiah were also able men.

1 Chronicles 26:8 All these were descendants of Obed-Edom; they and their sons and their relatives were capable men with the strength to do the work—descendants of Obed-Edom, 62 in all.

1 Chronicles 26:9 Meshelemiah had sons and relatives, who were able men—18 in all.

1 Chronicles 26:10 Hosah the Merarite had sons: Shimri the first (although he was not the firstborn, his father had appointed him the first),

1 Chronicles 26:11 Hilkiah the second, Tabaliah the third and Zechariah the fourth. The sons and relatives of Hosah were 13 in all.

1 Chronicles 26:12 These divisions of the gatekeepers, through their chief men, had duties for ministering in the temple of the LORD, just as their relatives had.

1 Chronicles 26:13 Lots were cast for each gate, according to their families, young and old alike.

1 Chronicles 26:14 The lot for the East Gate fell to Shelemiah. Then lots were cast for his son Zechariah, a wise counsellor, and the lot for the North Gate fell to him.

1 Chronicles 26:15 The lot for the South Gate fell to Obed-Edom, and the lot for the storehouse fell to his sons.

1 Chronicles 26:16 The lots for the West Gate and the Shalleketh Gate on the upper road fell to Shuppim and Hosah. Guard was alongside guard:

1 Chronicles 26:17 There were six Levites a day on the east, four a day on the north, four a day on the south and two at a time at the storehouse.

1 Chronicles 26:18 As for the court to the west, there were four at the road and two at the court itself.

1 Chronicles 26:19 These were the divisions of the gatekeepers who were descendants of Korah and Merari.

1 Chronicles 26:20 Their fellow Levites were in charge of the treasuries of the house of God and the treasuries for the dedicated things.

1 Chronicles 26:21 The descendants of Ladan, who were Gershonites through Ladan and who were heads of families belonging to Ladan the Gershonite, were Jehieli,

1 Chronicles 26:22 the sons of Jehieli, Zetham and his brother Joel. They were in charge of the treasuries of the temple of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 26:23 From the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites and the Uzzielites:

1 Chronicles 26:24 Shubael, a descendant of Gershom son of Moses, was the officer in charge of the treasuries.

1 Chronicles 26:25 His relatives through Eliezer: Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiah his son, Joram his son, Zicri his son and Shelomith his son.

1 Chronicles 26:26 Shelomith and his relatives were in charge of all the treasuries for the things dedicated by King David, by the heads of families who were the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and by the other army commanders.

1 Chronicles 26:27 Some of the plunder taken in battle they dedicated for the repair of the temple of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 26:28 And everything dedicated by Samuel the seer and by Saul son of Kish, Abner son of Ner and Joab son of Zeruiah, and all the other dedicated things were in the care of Shelomith and his relatives.

1 Chronicles 26:29 From the Izharites: Kenaniah and his sons were assigned duties away from the temple, as officials and judges over Israel.

1 Chronicles 26:30 From the Hebronites: Hashabiah and his relatives— seventeen hundred able men—were responsible in Israel west of the Jordan for all the work of the LORD and for the king’s service.

1 Chronicles 26:31 As for the Hebronites, Jeriah was their chief according to the genealogical records of their families. In the fortieth year of David’s reign a search was made in the records, and capable men among the Hebronites were found at Jazer in Gilead.

1 Chronicles 26:32 Jeriah had two thousand seven hundred relatives, who were able men and heads of families, and King David put them in charge of the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh for every matter pertaining to God and for the affairs of the king.

1 Chronicles 27:1 This is the list of the Israelites—heads of families, commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and their officers, who served the king in all that concerned the army divisions that were on duty month by month throughout the year. Each division consisted of 24,000 men.

1 Chronicles 27:2 In charge of the first division, for the first month, was Jashobeam son of Zabdiel. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:3 He was a descendant of Perez and chief of all the army officers for the first month.

1 Chronicles 27:4 In charge of the division for the second month was Dodai the Ahohite; Mikloth was the leader of his division. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:5 The third army commander, for the third month, was Benaiah son of Jehoiada the priest. He was chief and there were 24,000 men in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:6 This was the Benaiah who was a mighty man among the Thirty and was over the Thirty. His son Ammizabad was in charge of his division.

1 Chronicles 27:7 The fourth, for the fourth month, was Asahel the brother of Joab; his son Zebadiah was his successor. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:8 The fifth, for the fifth month, was the commander Shamhuth the Izrahite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:9 The sixth, for the sixth month, was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:10 The seventh, for the seventh month, was Helez the Pelonite, an Ephraimite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:11 The eighth, for the eighth month, was Sibbecai the Hushathite, a Zerahite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:12 The ninth, for the ninth month, was Abiezer the Anathothite, a Benjamite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:13 The tenth, for the tenth month, was Maharai the Netophathite, a Zerahite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:14 The eleventh, for the eleventh month, was Benaiah the Pirathonite, an Ephraimite. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:15 The twelfth, for the twelfth month, was Heldai the Netophathite, from the family of Othniel. There were 24,000 men in his division.

1 Chronicles 27:16 The officers over the tribes of Israel: over the Reubenites: Eliezer son of Zicri; over the Simeonites: Shephatiah son of Maacah;

1 Chronicles 27:17 over Levi: Hashabiah son of Kemuel; over Aaron: Zadok;

1 Chronicles 27:18 over Judah: Elihu, a brother of David; over Issachar: Omri son of Michael;

1 Chronicles 27:19 over Zebulun: Ishmaiah son of Obadiah; over Naphtali: Jerimoth son of Azriel;

1 Chronicles 27:20 over the Ephraimites: Hoshea son of Azaziah; over half the tribe of Manasseh: Joel son of Pedaiah;

1 Chronicles 27:21 over the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead: Iddo son of Zechariah; over Benjamin: Jaasiel son of Abner;

1 Chronicles 27:22 over Dan: Azarel son of Jeroham. These were the officers over the tribes of Israel.

1 Chronicles 27:23 David did not take the number of the men twenty years old or less, because the LORD had promised to make Israel as numerous as the stars in the sky.

1 Chronicles 27:24 Joab son of Zeruiah began to count the men but did not finish. Wrath came on Israel on account of this numbering, and the number was not entered in the book of the annals of King David.

1 Chronicles 27:25 Azmaveth son of Adiel was in charge of the royal storehouses. Jonathan son of Uzziah was in charge of the storehouses in the outlying districts, in the towns, the villages and the watchtowers.

1 Chronicles 27:26 Ezri son of Kelub was in charge of the field workers who farmed the land.

1 Chronicles 27:27 Shimei the Ramathite was in charge of the vineyards. Zabdi the Shiphmite was in charge of the produce of the vineyards for the wine vats.

1 Chronicles 27:28 Baal-Hanan the Gederite was in charge of the olive and sycamore-fig trees in the western foothills. Joash was in charge of the supplies of olive oil.

1 Chronicles 27:29 Shitrai the Sharonite was in charge of the herds grazing in Sharon. Shaphat son of Adlai was in charge of the herds in the valleys.

1 Chronicles 27:30 Obil the Ishmaelite was in charge of the camels. Jehdeiah the Meronothite was in charge of the donkeys.

1 Chronicles 27:31 Jaziz the Hagrite was in charge of the flocks. All these were the officials in charge of King David's property.

1 Chronicles 27:32 Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counsellor, a man of insight and a scribe. Jehiel son of Hacmoni took care of the king's sons.

1 Chronicles 27:33 Ahithophel was the king's counsellor. Hushai the Arkite was the king's friend.

1 Chronicles 27:34 Ahithophel was succeeded by Jehoiada son of Benaiah and by Abiathar. Joab was the commander of the royal army.

1 Chronicles 28:1 David summoned all the officials of Israel to assemble at Jerusalem: the officers over the tribes, the commanders of the divisions in the service of the king, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and the officials in charge of all the property and livestock belonging to the king and his sons, together with the palace officials, the mighty men and all the brave warriors.

1 Chronicles 28:2 King David rose to his feet and said: "Listen to me, my brothers and my people. I had it in my heart to build a house as a place of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, for the footstool of our God, and I made plans to build it.

1 Chronicles 28:3 But God said to me,`You are not to build a house for my Name, because you are a warrior and have shed blood.'

1 Chronicles 28:4 "Yet the LORD, the God of Israel, chose me from my whole family to be king over Israel for ever. He chose Judah as leader, and from the house of Judah he chose my family, and from my father's sons he was pleased to make me king over all Israel.

1 Chronicles 28:5 Of all my sons—and the LORD has given me many—he has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

1 Chronicles 28:6 He said to me,`Solomon your son is the one who will build my house and my courts, for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

1 Chronicles 28:7 I will establish his kingdom for ever if he is unswerving in carrying out my commands and laws, as is being done at this time.'

1 Chronicles 28:8 "So now I charge you in the sight of all Israel and of the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God: Be careful to follow all the commands of the LORD your God, that you may possess this good land and pass it on as an inheritance to your descendants for ever.

1 Chronicles 28:9 “And you, my son Solomon, acknowledge the God of your father, and serve him with wholehearted devotion and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches every heart and understands every motive behind the thoughts. If you seek him, he will be found by you; but if you forsake him, he will reject you for ever.

1 Chronicles 28:10 Consider now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a temple as a sanctuary. Be strong and do the work.”

1 Chronicles 28:11 Then David gave his son Solomon the plans for the portico of the temple, its buildings, its storerooms, its upper parts, its inner rooms and the place of atonement.

1 Chronicles 28:12 He gave him the plans of all that the Spirit had put in his mind for the courts of the temple of the LORD and all the surrounding rooms, for the treasuries of the temple of God and for the treasuries for the dedicated things.

1 Chronicles 28:13 He gave him instructions for the divisions of the priests and Levites, and for all the work of serving in the temple of the LORD, as well as for all the articles to be used in its service.

1 Chronicles 28:14 He designated the weight of gold for all the gold articles to be used in various kinds of service, and the weight of silver for all the silver articles to be used in various kinds of service:

1 Chronicles 28:15 the weight of gold for the gold lampstands and their lamps, with the weight for each lampstand and its lamps; and the weight of silver for each silver lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand;

1 Chronicles 28:16 the weight of gold for each table for consecrated bread; the weight of silver for the silver tables;

1 Chronicles 28:17 the weight of pure gold for the forks, sprinkling bowls and pitchers; the weight of gold for each gold dish; the weight of silver for each silver dish;

1 Chronicles 28:18 and the weight of the refined gold for the altar of incense. He also gave him the plan for the chariot, that is, the cherubim of gold that spread their wings and shelter the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

1 Chronicles 28:19 “All this,” David said, “I have in writing from the hand of the LORD upon me, and he gave me understanding in all the details of the plan.”

1 Chronicles 28:20 David also said to Solomon his son, “Be strong and courageous, and do the work. Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you or forsake you until all the work for the service of the temple of the LORD is finished.

1 Chronicles 28:21 The divisions of the priests and Levites are ready for all the work on the temple of God, and every willing man skilled in any craft will help you in all the work. The officials and all the people will obey your every command."

1 Chronicles 29:1 Then King David said to the whole assembly: "My son Solomon, the one whom God has chosen, is young and inexperienced. The task is great, because this palatial structure is not for man but for the LORD God.

1 Chronicles 29:2 With all my resources I have provided for the temple of my God—gold for the gold work, silver for the silver, bronze for the bronze, iron for the iron and wood for the wood, as well as onyx for the settings, turquoise, stones of various colours, and all kinds of fine stone and marble—all of these in large quantities.

1 Chronicles 29:3 Besides, in my devotion to the temple of my God I now give my personal treasures of gold and silver for the temple of my God, over and above everything I have provided for this holy temple:

1 Chronicles 29:4 three thousand talents of gold (gold of Ophir) and seven thousand talents of refined silver, for the overlaying of the walls of the buildings,

1 Chronicles 29:5 for the gold work and the silver work, and for all the work to be done by the craftsmen. Now, who is willing to consecrate himself today to the LORD?"

1 Chronicles 29:6 Then the leaders of families, the officers of the tribes of Israel, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and the officials in charge of the king's work gave willingly.

1 Chronicles 29:7 They gave towards the work on the temple of God five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of bronze and a hundred thousand talents of iron.

1 Chronicles 29:8 Any who had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the temple of the LORD in the custody of Jehiel the Gershonite.

1 Chronicles 29:9 The people rejoiced at the willing response of their leaders, for they had given freely and wholeheartedly to the LORD. David the king also rejoiced greatly.

1 Chronicles 29:10 David praised the LORD in the presence of the whole assembly, saying, "Praise be to you, O LORD, God of our father Israel, from everlasting to everlasting.

1 Chronicles 29:11 Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the majesty and the splendour, for everything in heaven and earth is yours. Yours, O LORD, is the kingdom; you are exalted as head over all.

1 Chronicles 29:12 Wealth and honour come from you; you are the ruler of all things. In your hands are strength and power to exalt and give strength to all.

1 Chronicles 29:13 Now, our God, we give you thanks, and praise your glorious name.

1 Chronicles 29:14 “But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to give as generously as this? Everything comes from you, and we have given you only what comes from your hand.

1 Chronicles 29:15 We are aliens and strangers in your sight, as were all our forefathers. Our days on earth are like a shadow, without hope.

1 Chronicles 29:16 O LORD our God, as for all this abundance that we have provided for building you a temple for your Holy Name, it comes from your hand, and all of it belongs to you.

1 Chronicles 29:17 I know, my God, that you test the heart and are pleased with integrity. All these things have I given willingly and with honest intent. And now I have seen with joy how willingly your people who are here have given to you.

1 Chronicles 29:18 O LORD, God of our fathers Abraham, Isaac and Israel, keep this desire in the hearts of your people for ever, and keep their hearts loyal to you.

1 Chronicles 29:19 And give my son Solomon the wholehearted devotion to keep your commands, requirements and decrees and to do everything to build the palatial structure for which I have provided.”

1 Chronicles 29:20 Then David said to the whole assembly, “Praise the LORD your God.” So they all praised the LORD, the God of their fathers; they bowed low and fell prostrate before the LORD and the king.

1 Chronicles 29:21 The next day they made sacrifices to the LORD and presented burnt offerings to him: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams and a thousand male lambs, together with their drink offerings, and other sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

1 Chronicles 29:22 They ate and drank with great joy in the presence of the LORD that day. Then they acknowledged Solomon son of David as king a second time, anointing him before the LORD to be ruler and Zadok to be priest.

1 Chronicles 29:23 So Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king in place of his father David. He prospered and all Israel obeyed him.

1 Chronicles 29:24 All the officers and mighty men, as well as all of King David’s sons, pledged their submission to King Solomon.

1 Chronicles 29:25 The LORD highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel and bestowed on him royal splendour such as no king over Israel ever had before.

1 Chronicles 29:26 David son of Jesse was king over all Israel.

1 Chronicles 29:27 He ruled over Israel for forty years—seven in Hebron and thirty-three in Jerusalem.

1 Chronicles 29:28 He died at a good old age, having enjoyed long life, wealth and honour. His son Solomon succeeded him as king.

1 Chronicles 29:29 As for the events of King David’s reign, from beginning to end, they are written in the records of Samuel the seer, the records of Nathan the prophet and the records of Gad the seer,

1 Chronicles 29:30 together with the details of his reign and power, and the circumstances that surrounded him and Israel and the kingdoms of all the other lands.

2 Chronicles

1:1 Solomon son of David established himself firmly over his kingdom, for the LORD his God was with him and made him exceedingly great.

2 Chronicles 1:2 Then Solomon spoke to all Israel—to the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, to the judges and to all the leaders in Israel, the heads of families—

2 Chronicles 1:3 and Solomon and the whole assembly went to the high place at Gibeon, for God’s Tent of Meeting was there, which Moses the LORD’s servant had made in the desert.

2 Chronicles 1:4 Now David had brought up the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim to the place he had prepared for it, because he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 1:5 But the bronze altar that Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made was in Gibeon in front of the tabernacle of the LORD; so Solomon and the assembly enquired of him there.

2 Chronicles 1:6 Solomon went up to the bronze altar before the LORD in the Tent of Meeting and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

2 Chronicles 1:7 That night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, “Ask for whatever you want me to give you.”

2 Chronicles 1:8 Solomon answered God, “You have shown great kindness to David my father and have made me king in his place.

2 Chronicles 1:9 Now, LORD God, let your promise to my father David be confirmed, for you have made me king over a people who are as numerous as the dust of the earth.

2 Chronicles 1:10 Give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may lead this people, for who is able to govern this great people of yours?”

2 Chronicles 1:11 God said to Solomon, “Since this is your heart’s desire and you have not asked for wealth, riches or honour, nor for the death of your enemies, and since you have not asked for a long life but for wisdom and knowledge to govern my people over whom I have made you king,

2 Chronicles 1:12 therefore wisdom and knowledge will be given you. And I will also give you wealth, riches and honour, such as no king who was before you ever had and none after you will have."

2 Chronicles 1:13 Then Solomon went to Jerusalem from the high place at Gibeon, from before the Tent of Meeting. And he reigned over Israel.

2 Chronicles 1:14 Solomon accumulated chariots and horses; he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses, which he kept in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 1:15 The king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as plentiful as sycamore-fig trees in the foothills.

2 Chronicles 1:16 Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt— and from Kue the royal merchants purchased them from Kue.

2 Chronicles 1:17 They imported a chariot from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty. They also exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and of the Arameans.

2 Chronicles 2:1 Solomon gave orders to build a temple for the Name of the LORD and a royal palace for himself.

2 Chronicles 2:2 He conscripted seventy thousand men as carriers and eighty thousand as stonecutters in the hills and thirty-six hundred as foremen over them.

2 Chronicles 2:3 Solomon sent this message to Hiram king of Tyre: "Send me cedar logs as you did for my father David when you sent him cedar to build a palace to live in.

2 Chronicles 2:4 Now I am about to build a temple for the Name of the LORD my God and to dedicate it to him for burning fragrant incense before him, for setting out the consecrated bread regularly, and for making burnt offerings every morning and evening and on Sabbaths and New Moons and at the appointed feasts of the LORD our God. This is a lasting ordinance for Israel.

2 Chronicles 2:5 "The temple I am going to build will be great, because our God is greater than all other gods.

2 Chronicles 2:6 But who is able to build a temple for him, since the heavens, even the highest heavens, cannot contain him? Who then am I to build a temple for him, except as a place to burn sacrifices before him?

2 Chronicles 2:7 "Send me, therefore, a man skilled to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, and in purple, crimson and blue yarn, and experienced in the art of engraving, to work in Judah and Jerusalem with my skilled craftsmen, whom my father David provided.

2 Chronicles 2:8 “Send me also cedar, pine and algum logs from Lebanon, for I know that your men are skilled in cutting timber there. My men shall work with yours

2 Chronicles 2:9 to provide me with plenty of timber, because the temple I build must be large and magnificent.

2 Chronicles 2:10 I will give your servants, the woodsmen who cut the timber, twenty thousand cors of ground wheat, twenty thousand cors of barley, twenty thousand baths of wine and twenty thousand baths of olive oil.”

2 Chronicles 2:11 Hiram king of Tyre replied by letter to Solomon: “Because the LORD loves his people, he has made you their king.”

2 Chronicles 2:12 And Hiram added: “Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who made heaven and earth! He has given King David a wise son, endowed with intelligence and discernment, who will build a temple for the LORD and a palace for himself.

2 Chronicles 2:13 “I am sending you Huram-Abi, a man of great skill,

2 Chronicles 2:14 whose mother was from Dan and whose father was from Tyre. He is trained to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, stone and wood, and with purple and blue and crimson yarn and fine linen. He is experienced in all kinds of engraving and can execute any design given to him. He will work with your craftsmen and with those of my lord, David your father.

2 Chronicles 2:15 “Now let my lord send his servants the wheat and barley and the olive oil and wine he promised,

2 Chronicles 2:16 and we will cut all the logs from Lebanon that you need and will float them in rafts by sea down to Joppa. You can then take them up to Jerusalem.”

2 Chronicles 2:17 Solomon took a census of all the aliens who were in Israel, after the census his father David had taken; and they were found to be 153,600.

2 Chronicles 2:18 He assigned 70,000 of them to be carriers and 80,000 to be stonecutters in the hills, with 3,600 foremen over them to keep the people working.

2 Chronicles 3:1 Then Solomon began to build the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD had appeared to his father David. It was on the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite, the place provided by David.

2 Chronicles 3:2 He began building on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign.

2 Chronicles 3:3 The foundation Solomon laid for building the temple of God was sixty cubits long and twenty cubits wide (using the cubit of the old standard).

2 Chronicles 3:4 The portico at the front of the temple was twenty cubits long across the width of the building and twenty cubits high. He overlaid the inside with pure gold.

2 Chronicles 3:5 He panelled the main hall with pine and covered it with fine gold and decorated it with palm tree and chain designs.

2 Chronicles 3:6 He adorned the temple with precious stones. And the gold he used was gold of Parvaim.

2 Chronicles 3:7 He overlaid the ceiling beams, door-frames, walls and doors of the temple with gold, and he carved cherubim on the walls.

2 Chronicles 3:8 He built the Most Holy Place, its length corresponding to the width of the temple—twenty cubits long and twenty cubits wide. He overlaid the inside with six hundred talents of fine gold.

2 Chronicles 3:9 The gold nails weighed fifty shekels. He also overlaid the upper parts with gold.

2 Chronicles 3:10 In the Most Holy Place he made a pair of sculptured cherubim and overlaid them with gold.

2 Chronicles 3:11 The total wing-span of the cherubim was twenty cubits. One wing of the first cherub was five cubits long and touched the temple wall, while its other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the other cherub.

2 Chronicles 3:12 Similarly one wing of the second cherub was five cubits long and touched the other temple wall, and its other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the first cherub.

2 Chronicles 3:13 The wings of these cherubim extended twenty cubits. They stood on their feet, facing the main hall.

2 Chronicles 3:14 He made the curtain of blue, purple and crimson yarn and fine linen, with cherubim worked into it.

2 Chronicles 3:15 In the front of the temple he made two pillars, which [together] were thirty-five cubits long, each with a capital on top measuring five cubits.

2 Chronicles 3:16 He made interwoven chains and put them on top of the pillars. He also made a hundred pomegranates and attached them to the chains.

2 Chronicles 3:17 He erected the pillars in the front of the temple, one to the south and one to the north. The one to the south he named Jakin and the one to the north Boaz.

2 Chronicles 4:1 He made a bronze altar twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide and ten cubits high.

2 Chronicles 4:2 He made the Sea of cast metal, circular in shape, measuring ten cubits from rim to rim and five cubits high. It took a line of thirty cubits to measure round it.

2 Chronicles 4:3 Below the rim, figures of bulls encircled it—ten to a cubit. The bulls were cast in two rows in one piece with the Sea.

2 Chronicles 4:4 The Sea stood on twelve bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south and three facing east. The Sea rested on top of them, and their hindquarters were towards the centre.

2 Chronicles 4:5 It was a handbreadth in thickness, and its rim was like the rim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It held three thousand baths.

2 Chronicles 4:6 He then made ten basins for washing and placed five on the south side and five on the north. In them the things to be used for the burnt offerings were rinsed, but the Sea was to be used by the priests for washing.

2 Chronicles 4:7 He made ten gold lampstands according to the specifications for them and placed them in the temple, five on the south side and five on the north.

2 Chronicles 4:8 He made ten tables and placed them in the temple, five on the south side and five on the north. He also made a hundred gold sprinkling bowls.

2 Chronicles 4:9 He made the courtyard of the priests, and the large court and the doors for the court, and overlaid the doors with bronze.

2 Chronicles 4:10 He placed the Sea on the south side, at the south-east corner.

2 Chronicles 4:11 He also made the pots and shovels and sprinkling bowls. So Huram finished the work he had undertaken for King Solomon in the temple of God:

2 Chronicles 4:12 the two pillars; the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars; the two sets of network decorating the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars;

2 Chronicles 4:13 the four hundred pomegranates for the two sets of network (two rows of pomegranates for each network, decorating the bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars);

2 Chronicles 4:14 the stands with their basins;

2 Chronicles 4:15 the Sea and the twelve bulls under it;

2 Chronicles 4:16 the pots, shovels, meat forks and all related articles. All the objects that Huram-Abi made for King Solomon for the temple of the LORD were of polished bronze.

2 Chronicles 4:17 The king had them cast in clay moulds in the plain of the Jordan between Succoth and Zarethan.

2 Chronicles 4:18 All these things that Solomon made amounted to so much that the weight of the bronze was not determined.

2 Chronicles 4:19 Solomon also made all the furnishings that were in God’s temple: the golden altar; the tables on which was the bread of the Presence;

2 Chronicles 4:20 the lampstands of pure gold with their lamps, to burn in front of the inner sanctuary as prescribed;

2 Chronicles 4:21 the gold floral work and lamps and tongs (they were solid gold);

2 Chronicles 4:22 the pure gold wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, dishes and censers; and the gold doors of the temple: the inner doors to the Most Holy Place and the doors of the main hall.

2 Chronicles 5:1 When all the work Solomon had done for the temple of the LORD was finished, he brought in the things his father David had dedicated—the silver and gold and all the furnishings— and he placed them in the treasuries of God's temple.

2 Chronicles 5:2 Then Solomon summoned to Jerusalem the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes and the chiefs of the Israelite families, to bring up the ark of the LORD's covenant from Zion, the City of David.

2 Chronicles 5:3 And all the men of Israel came together to the king at the time of the festival in the seventh month.

2 Chronicles 5:4 When all the elders of Israel had arrived, the Levites took up the ark,

2 Chronicles 5:5 and they brought up the ark and the Tent of Meeting and all the sacred furnishings in it. The priests, who were Levites, carried them up;

2 Chronicles 5:6 and King Solomon and the entire assembly of Israel that had gathered about him were before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and cattle that they could not be recorded or counted.

2 Chronicles 5:7 The priests then brought the ark of the LORD's covenant to its place in the inner sanctuary of the temple, the Most Holy Place, and put it beneath the wings of the cherubim.

2 Chronicles 5:8 The cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark and covered the ark and its carrying poles.

2 Chronicles 5:9 These poles were so long that their ends, extending from the ark, could be seen from in front of the inner sanctuary, but not from outside the Holy Place; and they are still there today.

2 Chronicles 5:10 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets that Moses had placed in it at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites after they came out of Egypt.

2 Chronicles 5:11 The priests then withdrew from the Holy Place. All the priests who were there had consecrated themselves, regardless of their divisions.

2 Chronicles 5:12 All the Levites who were musicians—Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun and their sons and relatives—stood on the east side of the altar, dressed in fine linen and playing cymbals, harps and lyres. They were accompanied by 120 priests sounding trumpets.

2 Chronicles 5:13 The trumpeters and singers joined in unison, as with one voice, to give praise and thanks to the LORD. Accompanied by trumpets, cymbals and other instruments, they raised their voices in praise to the LORD and sang: “He is good; his love endures for ever.” Then the temple of the LORD was filled with a cloud,

2 Chronicles 5:14 and the priests could not perform their service because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the temple of God.

2 Chronicles 6:1 Then Solomon said, “The LORD has said that he would dwell in a dark cloud;

2 Chronicles 6:2 I have built a magnificent temple for you, a place for you to dwell for ever.”

2 Chronicles 6:3 While the whole assembly of Israel was standing there, the king turned round and blessed them.

2 Chronicles 6:4 Then he said: “Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who with his hands has fulfilled what he promised with his mouth to my father David. For he said,

2 Chronicles 6:5 `Since the day I brought my people out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city in any tribe of Israel to have a temple built for my Name to be there, nor have I chosen anyone to be the leader over my people Israel.

2 Chronicles 6:6 But now I have chosen Jerusalem for my Name to be there, and I have chosen David to rule my people Israel.’

2 Chronicles 6:7 “My father David had it in his heart to build a temple for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 6:8 But the LORD said to my father David,`Because it was in your heart to build a temple for my Name, you did well to have this in your heart.

2 Chronicles 6:9 Nevertheless, you are not the one to build the temple, but your son, who is your own flesh and blood—he is the one who will build the temple for my Name.’

2 Chronicles 6:10 “The LORD has kept the promise he made. I have succeeded David my father and now I sit on the throne of Israel, just as the LORD promised, and I have built the temple for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 6:11 There I have placed the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD that he made with the people of Israel.”

2 Chronicles 6:12 Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the whole assembly of Israel and spread out his hands.

2 Chronicles 6:13 Now he had made a bronze platform, five cubits long, five cubits wide and three cubits high, and had placed it in the centre of the outer court. He stood on the platform and then knelt down before the whole assembly of Israel and spread out his hands towards heaven.

2 Chronicles 6:14 He said: “O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven or on earth—you who keep your covenant of love with your servants who continue wholeheartedly in your way.

2 Chronicles 6:15 You have kept your promise to your servant David my father; with your mouth you have promised and with your hand you have fulfilled it—as it is today.

2 Chronicles 6:16 “Now LORD, God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father the promises you made to him when you said,`You shall never fail to have a man to sit before me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons are careful in all they do to walk before me according to my law, as you have done.’

2 Chronicles 6:17 And now, O LORD, God of Israel, let your word that you promised your servant David come true.

2 Chronicles 6:18 “But will God really dwell on earth with men? The heavens, even the highest heavens, cannot contain you. How much less this temple that I have built!

2 Chronicles 6:19 Yet give attention to your servant’s prayer and his plea for mercy, O LORD my God. Hear the cry and the prayer that your servant is praying in your presence.

2 Chronicles 6:20 May your eyes be open towards this temple day and night, this place of which you said you would put your Name there. May you hear the prayer your servant prays towards this place.

2 Chronicles 6:21 Hear the supplications of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray towards this place. Hear from heaven, your dwelling-place; and when you hear, forgive.

2 Chronicles 6:22 “When a man wrongs his neighbour and is required to take an oath and he comes and swears the oath before your altar in this temple,

2 Chronicles 6:23 then hear from heaven and act. Judge between your servants, repaying the guilty by bringing down on his own head what he has done. Declare the innocent not guilty and so establish his innocence.

2 Chronicles 6:24 “When your people Israel have been defeated by an enemy because they have sinned against you and when they turn back and confess your name, praying and making supplication before you in this temple,

2 Chronicles 6:25 then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel and bring them back to the land you gave to them and their fathers.

2 Chronicles 6:26 “When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because your people have sinned against you, and when they pray towards this place and confess your name and turn from their sin because you have afflicted them,

2 Chronicles 6:27 then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel. Teach them the right way to live, and send rain on the land that you gave your people for an inheritance.

2 Chronicles 6:28 “When famine or plague comes to the land, or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers, or when enemies besiege them in any of their cities, whatever disaster or disease may come,

2 Chronicles 6:29 and when a prayer or plea is made by any of your people Israel—each one aware of his afflictions and pains, and spreading out his hands towards this temple—

2 Chronicles 6:30 then hear from heaven, your dwelling-place. Forgive, and deal with each man according to all he does, since you know his heart (for you alone know the hearts of men),

2 Chronicles 6:31 so that they will fear you and walk in your ways all the time they live in the land that you gave our fathers.

2 Chronicles 6:32 “As for the foreigner who does not belong to your people Israel but has come from a distant land because of your great name and your mighty hand and your outstretched arm—when he comes and prays towards this temple,

2 Chronicles 6:33 then hear from heaven, your dwelling-place, and do whatever the foreigner asks of you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your own people Israel, and may know that this house that I have built bears your Name.

2 Chronicles 6:34 “When your people go to war against their enemies, wherever you send them, and when they pray to you towards this city you have chosen and the temple I have built for your Name,

2 Chronicles 6:35 then hear from heaven their prayer and their plea, and uphold their cause.

2 Chronicles 6:36 “When they sin against you—for there is no-one who does not sin—and you become angry with them and give them over to the enemy, who takes them captive to a land far away or near;

2 Chronicles 6:37 and if they have a change of heart in the land where they are held captive, and repent and plead with you in the land of their captivity and say,`We have sinned, we have done wrong and acted wickedly’;

2 Chronicles 6:38 and if they turn back to you with all their heart and soul in the land of their captivity where they were taken, and pray towards the land that you gave their fathers, towards the city you have chosen and towards the temple that I have built for your Name;

2 Chronicles 6:39 then from heaven, your dwelling-place, hear their prayer and their pleas, and uphold their cause. And forgive your people, who have sinned against you.

2 Chronicles 6:40 “Now, my God, may your eyes be open and your ears attentive to the prayers offered in this place.

2 Chronicles 6:41 “Now arise, O LORD God, and come to your resting place, you and the ark of your might. May your priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, may your saints rejoice in your goodness.

2 Chronicles 6:42 O LORD God, do not reject your anointed one. Remember the great love promised to David your servant.”

2 Chronicles 7:1 When Solomon finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

2 Chronicles 7:2 The priests could not enter the temple of the LORD because the glory of the LORD filled it.

2 Chronicles 7:3 When all the Israelites saw the fire coming down and the glory of the LORD above the temple, they knelt on the pavement with their faces to the ground, and they worshipped and gave thanks to the LORD, saying, “He is good; his love endures for ever.”

2 Chronicles 7:4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

2 Chronicles 7:5 And King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand head of cattle and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep and goats. So the king and all the people dedicated the temple of God.

2 Chronicles 7:6 The priests took their positions, as did the Levites with the LORD’s musical instruments, which King David had made for praising the LORD and which were used when he gave thanks, saying, “His love endures for ever.” Opposite the Levites, the priests blew their trumpets, and all the Israelites were standing.

2 Chronicles 7:7 Solomon consecrated the middle part of the courtyard in front of the temple of the LORD, and there he offered burnt offerings and the fat of the fellowship offerings, because the bronze altar he had made could not hold the burnt offerings, the grain offerings and the fat portions.

2 Chronicles 7:8 So Solomon observed the festival at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him—a vast assembly, people from Lebo Hamath to the Wadi of Egypt.

2 Chronicles 7:9 On the eighth day they held an assembly, for they had celebrated the dedication of the altar for seven days and the festival for seven days more.

2 Chronicles 7:10 On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people to their homes, joyful and glad in heart for the good things the LORD had done for David and Solomon and for his people Israel.

2 Chronicles 7:11 When Solomon had finished the temple of the LORD and the royal palace, and had succeeded in carrying out all he had in mind to do in the temple of the LORD and in his own palace,

2 Chronicles 7:12 the LORD appeared to him at night and said: “I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for myself as a temple for sacrifices.

2 Chronicles 7:13 “When I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain, or command locusts to devour the land or send a plague among my people,

2 Chronicles 7:14 if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land.

2 Chronicles 7:15 Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to the prayers offered in this place.

2 Chronicles 7:16 I have chosen and consecrated this temple so that my Name may be there for ever. My eyes and my heart will always be there.

2 Chronicles 7:17 “As for you, if you walk before me as David your father did, and do all I command, and observe my decrees and laws,

2 Chronicles 7:18 I will establish your royal throne, as I covenanted with David your father when I said,`You shall never fail to have a man to rule over Israel.’

2 Chronicles 7:19 “But if you turn away and forsake the decrees and commands I have given you and go off to serve other gods and worship them,

2 Chronicles 7:20 then I will uproot Israel from my land, which I have given them, and will reject this temple which I have consecrated for my Name. I will make it a byword and an object of ridicule among all peoples.

2 Chronicles 7:21 And though this temple is now so imposing, all who pass by will be appalled and say,`Why has the LORD done such a thing to this land and to this temple?’

2 Chronicles 7:22 People will answer,`Because they have forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of Egypt, and have embraced other gods, worshipping and serving them—that is why he brought all this disaster on them.’“

2 Chronicles 8:1 At the end of twenty years, during which Solomon built the temple of the LORD and his own palace,

2 Chronicles 8:2 Solomon rebuilt the villages that Hiram had given him, and settled Israelites in them.

2 Chronicles 8:3 Solomon then went to Hamath Zobah and captured it.

2 Chronicles 8:4 He also built up Tadmor in the desert and all the store cities he had built in Hamath.

2 Chronicles 8:5 He rebuilt Upper Beth Horon and Lower Beth Horon as fortified cities, with walls and with gates and bars,

2 Chronicles 8:6 as well as Baalath and all his store cities, and all the cities for his chariots and for his horses— whatever he desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon and throughout all the territory that he ruled.

2 Chronicles 8:7 All the people left from the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites (these peoples were not Israelites),

2 Chronicles 8:8 that is, their descendants remaining in the land, whom the Israelites had not destroyed—these Solomon conscripted for his slave labour force, as it is to this day.

2 Chronicles 8:9 But Solomon did not make slaves of the Israelites for his work; they were his fighting men, commanders of his captains, and commanders of his chariots and charioteers.

2 Chronicles 8:10 They were also King Solomon’s chief officials—two hundred and fifty officials supervising the men.

2 Chronicles 8:11 Solomon brought Pharaoh’s daughter up from the City of David to the palace he had built for her, for he said, “My wife must not live in the palace of David king of Israel, because the places the ark of the LORD has entered are holy.”

2 Chronicles 8:12 On the altar of the LORD that he had built in front of the portico, Solomon sacrificed burnt offerings to the LORD,

2 Chronicles 8:13 according to the daily requirement for offerings commanded by Moses for Sabbaths, New Moons and the three annual feasts— the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of Tabernacles.

2 Chronicles 8:14 In keeping with the ordinance of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their duties and the Levites to lead the praise and to assist the priests according to each day’s requirement. He also appointed the gatekeepers by divisions for the various gates, because this was what David the man of God had ordered.

2 Chronicles 8:15 They did not deviate from the king’s commands to the priests or to the Levites in any matter, including that of the treasuries.

2 Chronicles 8:16 All Solomon’s work was carried out, from the day the foundation of the temple of the LORD was laid until its completion. So the temple of the LORD was finished.

2 Chronicles 8:17 Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and Elath on the coast of Edom.

2 Chronicles 8:18 And Hiram sent him ships commanded by his own officers, men who knew the sea. These, with Solomon’s men, sailed to Ophir and brought back four hundred and fifty talents of gold, which they delivered to King Solomon.

2 Chronicles 9:1 When the queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's fame, she came to Jerusalem to test him with hard questions. Arriving with a very great caravan—with camels carrying spices, large quantities of gold, and precious stones—she came to Solomon and talked with him about all she had on her mind.

2 Chronicles 9:2 Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was too hard for him to explain to her.

2 Chronicles 9:3 When the queen of Sheba saw the wisdom of Solomon, as well as the palace he had built,

2 Chronicles 9:4 the food on his table, the seating of his officials, the attending servants in their robes, the cupbearers in their robes and the burnt offerings he made at the temple of the LORD, she was overwhelmed.

2 Chronicles 9:5 She said to the king, "The report I heard in my own country about your achievements and your wisdom is true.

2 Chronicles 9:6 But I did not believe what they said until I came and saw with my own eyes. Indeed, not even half the greatness of your wisdom was told me; you have far exceeded the report I heard.

2 Chronicles 9:7 How happy your men must be! How happy your officials, who continually stand before you and hear your wisdom!

2 Chronicles 9:8 Praise be to the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and placed you on his throne as king to rule for the LORD your God. Because of the love of your God for Israel and his desire to uphold them for ever, he has made you king over them, to maintain justice and righteousness."

2 Chronicles 9:9 Then she gave the king 120 talents of gold, large quantities of spices, and precious stones. There had never been such spices as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

2 Chronicles 9:10 (The men of Hiram and the men of Solomon brought gold from Ophir; they also brought algum-wood and precious stones.

2 Chronicles 9:11 The king used the algum-wood to make steps for the temple of the LORD and for the royal palace, and to make harps and lyres for the musicians. Nothing like them had ever been seen in Judah.)

2 Chronicles 9:12 King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired and asked for; he gave her more than she had brought to him. Then she left and returned with her retinue to her own country.

2 Chronicles 9:13 The weight of the gold that Solomon received yearly was 666 talents,

2 Chronicles 9:14 not including the revenues brought in by merchants and traders. Also all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the land brought gold and silver to Solomon.

2 Chronicles 9:15 King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred bekas of hammered gold went into each shield.

2 Chronicles 9:16 He also made three hundred small shields of hammered gold, with three hundred bekas of gold in each shield. The king put them in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.

2 Chronicles 9:17 Then the king made a great throne inlaid with ivory and overlaid with pure gold.

2 Chronicles 9:18 The throne had six steps, and a footstool of gold was attached to it. On both sides of the seat were armrests, with a lion standing beside each of them.

2 Chronicles 9:19 Twelve lions stood on the six steps, one at either end of each step. Nothing like it had ever been made for any other kingdom.

2 Chronicles 9:20 All King Solomon’s goblets were gold, and all the household articles in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Nothing was made of silver, because silver was considered of little value in Solomon’s day.

2 Chronicles 9:21 The king had a fleet of trading ships manned by Hiram’s men. Once every three years it returned, carrying gold, silver and ivory, and apes and baboons.

2 Chronicles 9:22 King Solomon was greater in riches and wisdom than all the other kings of the earth.

2 Chronicles 9:23 All the kings of the earth sought audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom God had put in his heart.

2 Chronicles 9:24 Year after year, everyone who came brought a gift— articles of silver and gold, and robes, weapons and spices, and horses and mules.

2 Chronicles 9:25 Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horses, which he kept in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 9:26 He ruled over all the kings from the River to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt.

2 Chronicles 9:27 The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as plentiful as sycamore-fig trees in the foothills.

2 Chronicles 9:28 Solomon’s horses were imported from Egypt and from all other countries.

2 Chronicles 9:29 As for the other events of Solomon’s reign, from beginning to end, are they not written in the records of Nathan the prophet, in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam son of Nebat?

2 Chronicles 9:30 Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years.

2 Chronicles 9:31 Then he rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of David his father. And Rehoboam his son succeeded him as king.

2 Chronicles 10:1 Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all the Israelites had gone there to make him king.

2 Chronicles 10:2 When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard this (he was in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon), he returned from Egypt.

2 Chronicles 10:3 So they sent for Jeroboam, and he and all Israel went to Rehoboam and said to him:

2 Chronicles 10:4 “Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but now lighten the harsh labour and the heavy yoke he put on us, and we will serve you.”

2 Chronicles 10:5 Rehoboam answered, “Come back to me in three days.” So the people went away.

2 Chronicles 10:6 Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who had served his father Solomon during his lifetime. “How would you advise me to answer these people?” he asked.

2 Chronicles 10:7 They replied, “If you will be kind to these people and please them and give them a favourable answer, they will always be your servants.”

2 Chronicles 10:8 But Rehoboam rejected the advice the elders gave him and consulted the young men who had grown up with him and were serving him.

2 Chronicles 10:9 He asked them, “What is your advice? How should we answer these people who say to me,`Lighten the yoke your father put on us’?”

2 Chronicles 10:10 The young men who had grown up with him replied, “Tell the people who have said to you,`Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but make our yoke lighter’—tell them,`My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist.

2 Chronicles 10:11 My father laid on you a heavy yoke; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions.’“

2 Chronicles 10:12 Three days later Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam, as the king had said, “Come back to me in three days.”

2 Chronicles 10:13 The king answered them harshly. Rejecting the advice of the elders,

2 Chronicles 10:14 he followed the advice of the young men and said, “My father made your yoke heavy; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions.”

2 Chronicles 10:15 So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was from God, to fulfil the word that the LORD had spoken to Jeroboam son of Nebat through Ahijah the Shilonite.

2 Chronicles 10:16 When all Israel saw that the king refused to listen to them, they answered the king: “What share do we have in David, what part in Jesse’s son? To your tents, O Israel! Look after your own house, O David!” So all the Israelites went home.

2 Chronicles 10:17 But as for the Israelites who were living in the towns of Judah, Rehoboam still ruled over them.

2 Chronicles 10:18 King Rehoboam sent out Adoniram, who was in charge of forced labour, but the Israelites stoned him to death. King Rehoboam, however, managed to get into his chariot and escape to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 10:19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

2 Chronicles 11:1 When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he mustered the house of Judah and Benjamin—a hundred and eighty thousand fighting men—to make war against Israel and to regain the kingdom for Rehoboam.

2 Chronicles 11:2 But this word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God:

2 Chronicles 11:3 “Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon king of Judah and to all the Israelites in Judah and Benjamin,

2 Chronicles 11:4 `This is what the LORD says: Do not go up to fight against your brothers. Go home, every one of you, for this is my doing.’“ So they obeyed the words of the LORD and turned back from marching against Jeroboam.

2 Chronicles 11:5 Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and built up towns for defence in Judah:

2 Chronicles 11:6 Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,

2 Chronicles 11:7 Beth Zur, Soco, Adullam,

2 Chronicles 11:8 Gath, Mareshah, Ziph,

2 Chronicles 11:9 Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,

2 Chronicles 11:10 Zorah, Aijalon and Hebron. These were fortified cities in Judah and Benjamin.

2 Chronicles 11:11 He strengthened their defences and put commanders in them, with supplies of food, olive oil and wine.

2 Chronicles 11:12 He put shields and spears in all the cities, and made them very strong. So Judah and Benjamin were his.

2 Chronicles 11:13 The priests and Levites from all their districts throughout Israel sided with him.

2 Chronicles 11:14 The Levites even abandoned their pasture-lands and property, and came to Judah and Jerusalem because Jeroboam and his sons had rejected them as priests of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 11:15 And he appointed his own priests for the high places and for the goat and calf idols he had made.

2 Chronicles 11:16 Those from every tribe of Israel who set their hearts on seeking the LORD, the God of Israel, followed the Levites to Jerusalem to offer sacrifices to the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 11:17 They strengthened the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam son of Solomon for three years, walking in the ways of David and Solomon during this time.

2 Chronicles 11:18 Rehoboam married Mahalath, who was the daughter of David's son Jerimoth and of Abihail, the daughter of Jesse's son Eliab.

2 Chronicles 11:19 She bore him sons: Jeush, Shemariah and Zaham.

2 Chronicles 11:20 Then he married Maacah daughter of Absalom, who bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza and Shelomith.

2 Chronicles 11:21 Rehoboam loved Maacah daughter of Absalom more than any of his other wives and concubines. In all he had eighteen wives and sixty concubines, twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

2 Chronicles 11:22 Rehoboam appointed Abijah son of Maacah to be the chief prince among his brothers, in order to make him king.

2 Chronicles 11:23 He acted wisely, dispersing some of his sons throughout the districts of Judah and Benjamin, and to all the fortified cities. He gave them abundant provisions and took many wives for them.

2 Chronicles 12:1 After Rehoboam's position as king was established and he had become strong, he and all Israel with him abandoned the law of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 12:2 Because they had been unfaithful to the LORD, Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem in the fifth year of King Rehoboam.

2 Chronicles 12:3 With twelve hundred chariots and sixty thousand horsemen and the innumerable troops of Libyans, Sukkites and Cushites that came with him from Egypt,

2 Chronicles 12:4 he captured the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 12:5 Then the prophet Shemaiah came to Rehoboam and to the leaders of Judah who had assembled in Jerusalem for fear of

Shishak, and he said to them, “This is what the LORD says:`You have abandoned me; therefore I now abandon you to Shishak.'“

2 Chronicles 12:6 The leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, “The LORD is just.”

2 Chronicles 12:7 When the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, this word of the LORD came to Shemaiah: “Since they have humbled themselves, I will not destroy them but will soon give them deliverance. My wrath will not be poured out on Jerusalem through Shishak.

2 Chronicles 12:8 They will, however, become subject to him, so that they may learn the difference between serving me and serving the kings of other lands.”

2 Chronicles 12:9 When Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem, he carried off the treasures of the temple of the LORD and the treasures of the royal palace. He took everything, including the gold shields that Solomon had made.

2 Chronicles 12:10 So King Rehoboam made bronze shields to replace them and assigned these to the commanders of the guard on duty at the entrance to the royal palace.

2 Chronicles 12:11 Whenever the king went to the LORD’s temple, the guards went with him, bearing the shields, and afterwards they returned them to the guardroom.

2 Chronicles 12:12 Because Rehoboam humbled himself, the LORD’s anger turned from him, and he was not totally destroyed. Indeed, there was some good in Judah.

2 Chronicles 12:13 King Rehoboam established himself firmly in Jerusalem and continued as king. He was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel in which to put his Name. His mother’s name was Naamah; she was an Ammonite.

2 Chronicles 12:14 He did evil because he had not set his heart on seeking the LORD.

2 Chronicles 12:15 As for the events of Rehoboam’s reign, from beginning to end, are they not written in the records of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer that deal with genealogies? There was continual warfare between Rehoboam and Jeroboam.

2 Chronicles 12:16 Rehoboam rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. And Abijah his son succeeded him as king.

2 Chronicles 13:1 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Jeroboam, Abijah became king of Judah,

2 Chronicles 13:2 and he reigned in Jerusalem for three years. His mother’s name was Maacah, a daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

2 Chronicles 13:3 Abijah went into battle with a force of four hundred thousand able fighting men, and Jeroboam drew up a battle line against him with eight hundred thousand able troops.

2 Chronicles 13:4 Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, “Jeroboam and all Israel, listen to me!

2 Chronicles 13:5 Don’t you know that the LORD, the God of Israel, has given the kingship of Israel to David and his descendants for ever by a covenant of salt?

2 Chronicles 13:6 Yet Jeroboam son of Nebat, an official of Solomon son of David, rebelled against his master.

2 Chronicles 13:7 Some worthless scoundrels gathered around him and opposed Rehoboam son of Solomon when he was young and indecisive and not strong enough to resist them.

2 Chronicles 13:8 “And now you plan to resist the kingdom of the LORD, which is in the hands of David’s descendants. You are indeed a vast army and have with you the golden calves that Jeroboam made to be your gods.

2 Chronicles 13:9 But didn’t you drive out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and make priests of your own as the peoples of other lands do? Whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams may become a priest of what are not gods.

2 Chronicles 13:10 “As for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him. The priests who serve the LORD are sons of Aaron, and the Levites assist them.

2 Chronicles 13:11 Every morning and evening they present burnt offerings and fragrant incense to the LORD. They set out the bread on the ceremonially clean table and light the lamps on the gold lampstand every evening. We are observing the requirements of the LORD our God. But you have forsaken him.

2 Chronicles 13:12 God is with us; he is our leader. His priests with their trumpets will sound the battle cry against you. Men of Israel, do not fight against the LORD, the God of your fathers, for you will not succeed.”

2 Chronicles 13:13 Now Jeroboam had sent troops round to the rear, so that while he was in front of Judah the ambush was behind them.

2 Chronicles 13:14 Judah turned and saw that they were being attacked at both front and rear. Then they cried out to the LORD. The priests blew their trumpets

2 Chronicles 13:15 and the men of Judah raised the battle cry. At the sound of their battle cry, God routed Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

2 Chronicles 13:16 The Israelites fled before Judah, and God delivered them into their hands.

2 Chronicles 13:17 Abijah and his men inflicted heavy losses on them, so that there were five hundred thousand casualties among Israel’s able men.

2 Chronicles 13:18 The men of Israel were subdued on that occasion, and the men of Judah were victorious because they relied on the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 13:19 Abijah pursued Jeroboam and took from him the towns of Bethel, Jeshanah and Ephron, with their surrounding villages.

2 Chronicles 13:20 Jeroboam did not regain power during the time of Abijah. And the LORD struck him down and he died.

2 Chronicles 13:21 But Abijah grew in strength. He married fourteen wives and had twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

2 Chronicles 13:22 The other events of Abijah’s reign, what he did and what he said, are written in the annotations of the prophet Iddo.

2 Chronicles 14:1 And Abijah rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. Asa his son succeeded him as king, and in his days the country was at peace for ten years.

2 Chronicles 14:2 Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God.

2 Chronicles 14:3 He removed the foreign altars and the high places, smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles.

2 Chronicles 14:4 He commanded Judah to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, and to obey his laws and commands.

2 Chronicles 14:5 He removed the high places and incense altars in every town in Judah, and the kingdom was at peace under him.

2 Chronicles 14:6 He built up the fortified cities of Judah, since the land was at peace. No-one was at war with him during those years, for the LORD gave him rest.

2 Chronicles 14:7 “Let us build up these towns,” he said to Judah, “and put walls round them, with towers, gates and bars. The land is still ours, because we have sought the LORD our God; we sought him and he has given us rest on every side.” So they built and prospered.

2 Chronicles 14:8 Asa had an army of three hundred thousand men from Judah, equipped with large shields and with spears, and two hundred and eighty thousand from Benjamin, armed with small shields and with bows. All these were brave fighting men.

2 Chronicles 14:9 Zerah the Cushite marched out against them with a vast army and three hundred chariots, and came as far as Mareshah.

2 Chronicles 14:10 Asa went out to meet him, and they took up battle positions in the Valley of Zephathah near Mareshah.

2 Chronicles 14:11 Then Asa called to the LORD his God and said, “LORD, there is no-one like you to help the powerless against the mighty.

Help us, O LORD our God, for we rely on you, and in your name we have come against this vast army. O LORD, you are our God; do not let man prevail against you.”

2 Chronicles 14:12 The LORD struck down the Cushites before Asa and Judah. The Cushites fled,

2 Chronicles 14:13 and Asa and his army pursued them as far as Gerar. Such a great number of Cushites fell that they could not recover; they were crushed before the LORD and his forces. The men of Judah carried off a large amount of plunder.

2 Chronicles 14:14 They destroyed all the villages around Gerar, for the terror of the LORD had fallen upon them. They plundered all these villages, since there was much booty there.

2 Chronicles 14:15 They also attacked the camps of the herdsmen and carried off droves of sheep and goats and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 15:1 The Spirit of God came upon Azariah son of Oded.

2 Chronicles 15:2 He went out to meet Asa and said to him, “Listen to me, Asa and all Judah and Benjamin. The LORD is with you when you are with him. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will forsake you.

2 Chronicles 15:3 For a long time Israel was without the true God, without a priest to teach and without the law.

2 Chronicles 15:4 But in their distress they turned to the LORD, the God of Israel, and sought him, and he was found by them.

2 Chronicles 15:5 In those days it was not safe to travel about, for all the inhabitants of the lands were in great turmoil.

2 Chronicles 15:6 One nation was being crushed by another and one city by another, because God was troubling them with every kind of distress.

2 Chronicles 15:7 But as for you, be strong and do not give up, for your work will be rewarded.”

2 Chronicles 15:8 When Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Azariah son of Oded the prophet, he took courage. He removed the detestable idols from the whole land of Judah and Benjamin and from the towns he had captured in the hills of Ephraim. He repaired the altar of the LORD that was in front of the portico of the LORD’s temple.

2 Chronicles 15:9 Then he assembled all Judah and Benjamin and the people from Ephraim, Manasseh and Simeon who had settled among them, for large numbers had come over to him from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

2 Chronicles 15:10 They assembled at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa’s reign.

2 Chronicles 15:11 At that time they sacrificed to the LORD seven hundred head of cattle and seven thousand sheep and goats from the plunder they had brought back.

2 Chronicles 15:12 They entered into a covenant to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and soul.

2 Chronicles 15:13 All who would not seek the LORD, the God of Israel, were to be put to death, whether small or great, man or woman.

2 Chronicles 15:14 They took an oath to the LORD with loud acclamation, with shouting and with trumpets and horns.

2 Chronicles 15:15 All Judah rejoiced about the oath because they had sworn it wholeheartedly. They sought God eagerly, and he was found by them. So the LORD gave them rest on every side.

2 Chronicles 15:16 King Asa also deposed his grandmother Maacah from her position as queen mother, because she had made a repulsive Asherah pole. Asa cut the pole down, broke it up and burned it in the Kidron Valley.

2 Chronicles 15:17 Although he did not remove the high places from Israel, Asa's heart was fully committed [to the LORD] all his life.

2 Chronicles 15:18 He brought into the temple of God the silver and gold and the articles that he and his father had dedicated.

2 Chronicles 15:19 There was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

2 Chronicles 16:1 In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah and fortified Ramah to prevent anyone from leaving or entering the territory of Asa king of Judah.

2 Chronicles 16:2 Asa then took the silver and gold out of the treasuries of the LORD's temple and of his own palace and sent it to Ben-Hadad king of Aram, who was ruling in Damascus.

2 Chronicles 16:3 "Let there be a treaty between me and you," he said, "as there was between my father and your father. See, I am sending you silver and gold. Now break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so that he will withdraw from me."

2 Chronicles 16:4 Ben-Hadad agreed with King Asa and sent the commanders of his forces against the towns of Israel. They conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel Maim and all the store cities of Naphtali.

2 Chronicles 16:5 When Baasha heard this, he stopped building Ramah and abandoned his work.

2 Chronicles 16:6 Then King Asa brought all the men of Judah, and they carried away from Ramah the stones and timber Baasha had been using. With them he built up Geba and Mizpah.

2 Chronicles 16:7 At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him: "Because you relied on the king of Aram and not on the LORD your God, the army of the king of Aram has escaped from your hand.

2 Chronicles 16:8 Were not the Cushites and Libyans a mighty army with great numbers of chariots and horsemen? Yet when you relied on the LORD, he delivered them into your hand.

2 Chronicles 16:9 For the eyes of the LORD range throughout the earth to strengthen those whose hearts are fully committed to him. You have done a foolish thing, and from now on you will be at war.”

2 Chronicles 16:10 Asa was angry with the seer because of this; he was so enraged that he put him in prison. At the same time Asa brutally oppressed some of the people.

2 Chronicles 16:11 The events of Asa’s reign, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

2 Chronicles 16:12 In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa was afflicted with a disease in his feet. Though his disease was severe, even in his illness he did not seek help from the LORD, but only from the physicians.

2 Chronicles 16:13 Then in the forty-first year of his reign Asa died and rested with his fathers.

2 Chronicles 16:14 They buried him in the tomb that he had cut out for himself in the City of David. They laid him on a bier covered with spices and various blended perfumes, and they made a huge fire in his honour.

2 Chronicles 17:1 Jehoshaphat his son succeeded him as king and strengthened himself against Israel.

2 Chronicles 17:2 He stationed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah and put garrisons in Judah and in the towns of Ephraim that his father Asa had captured.

2 Chronicles 17:3 The LORD was with Jehoshaphat because in his early years he walked in the ways that his father David had followed. He did not consult the Baals

2 Chronicles 17:4 but sought the God of his father and followed his commands rather than the practices of Israel.

2 Chronicles 17:5 The LORD established the kingdom under his control; and all Judah brought gifts to Jehoshaphat, so that he had great wealth and honour.

2 Chronicles 17:6 His heart was devoted to the ways of the LORD; furthermore, he removed the high places and the Asherah poles from Judah.

2 Chronicles 17:7 In the third year of his reign he sent his officials Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel and Micaiah to teach in the towns of Judah.

2 Chronicles 17:8 With them were certain Levites—Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah and Tob-Adonijah—and the priests Elishama and Jehoram.

2 Chronicles 17:9 They taught throughout Judah, taking with them the Book of the Law of the LORD; they went round to all the towns of Judah and taught the people.

2 Chronicles 17:10 The fear of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands surrounding Judah, so that they did not make war with Jehoshaphat.

2 Chronicles 17:11 Some Philistines brought Jehoshaphat gifts and silver as tribute, and the Arabs brought him flocks: seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred goats.

2 Chronicles 17:12 Jehoshaphat became more and more powerful; he built forts and store cities in Judah

2 Chronicles 17:13 and had large supplies in the towns of Judah. He also kept experienced fighting men in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 17:14 Their enrolment by families was as follows: From Judah, commanders of units of 1,000: Adnah the commander, with 300,000 fighting men;

2 Chronicles 17:15 next, Jehohanan the commander, with 280,000;

2 Chronicles 17:16 next, Amasiah son of Zicri, who volunteered himself for the service of the LORD, with 200,000.

2 Chronicles 17:17 From Benjamin: Eliada, a valiant soldier, with 200,000 men armed with bows and shields;

2 Chronicles 17:18 next, Jehozabad, with 180,000 men armed for battle.

2 Chronicles 17:19 These were the men who served the king, besides those he stationed in the fortified cities throughout Judah.

2 Chronicles 18:1 Now Jehoshaphat had great wealth and honour, and he allied himself with Ahab by marriage.

2 Chronicles 18:2 Some years later he went down to visit Ahab in Samaria. Ahab slaughtered many sheep and cattle for him and the people with him and urged him to attack Ramoth Gilead.

2 Chronicles 18:3 Ahab king of Israel asked Jehoshaphat king of Judah, “Will you go with me against Ramoth Gilead?” Jehoshaphat replied, “I am as you are, and my people as your people; we will join you in the war.”

2 Chronicles 18:4 But Jehoshaphat also said to the king of Israel, “First seek the counsel of the LORD.”

2 Chronicles 18:5 So the king of Israel brought together the prophets—four hundred men—and asked them, “Shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?” “Go,” they answered, “for God will give it into the king’s hand.”

2 Chronicles 18:6 But Jehoshaphat asked, “Is there not a prophet of the LORD here whom we can enquire of?”

2 Chronicles 18:7 The king of Israel answered Jehoshaphat, “There is still one man through whom we can enquire of the LORD, but I hate him because he never prophesies anything good about me, but always bad. He is Micaiah son of Imlah.” “The king should not say that,” Jehoshaphat replied.

2 Chronicles 18:8 So the king of Israel called one of his officials and said, “Bring Micaiah son of Imlah at once.”

2 Chronicles 18:9 Dressed in their royal robes, the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting on their thrones at the threshing-floor by the entrance to the gate of Samaria, with all the prophets prophesying before them.

2 Chronicles 18:10 Now Zedekiah son of Kenaanah had made iron horns, and he declared, “This is what the LORD says:`With these you will gore the Arameans until they are destroyed.’“

2 Chronicles 18:11 All the other prophets were prophesying the same thing. “Attack Ramoth Gilead and be victorious,” they said, “for the LORD will give it into the king’s hand.”

2 Chronicles 18:12 The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah said to him, “Look, as one man the other prophets are predicting success for the king. Let your word agree with theirs, and speak favourably.”

2 Chronicles 18:13 But Micaiah said, “As surely as the LORD lives, I can tell him only what my God says.”

2 Chronicles 18:14 When he arrived, the king asked him, “Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?” “Attack and be victorious,” he answered, “for they will be given into your hand.”

2 Chronicles 18:15 The king said to him, “How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?”

2 Chronicles 18:16 Then Micaiah answered, “I saw all Israel scattered on the hills like sheep without a shepherd, and the LORD said,`These people have no master. Let each one go home in peace.’“

2 Chronicles 18:17 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Didn’t I tell you that he never prophesies anything good about me, but only bad?”

2 Chronicles 18:18 Micaiah continued, “Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne with all the host of heaven standing on his right and on his left.

2 Chronicles 18:19 And the LORD said,`Who will entice Ahab king of Israel into attacking Ramoth Gilead and going to his death there?' "One suggested this, and another that.

2 Chronicles 18:20 Finally, a spirit came forward, stood before the LORD and said,`I will entice him.' "`By what means?' the LORD asked.

2 Chronicles 18:21 "`I will go and be a lying spirit in the mouths of all his prophets,' he said. "`You will succeed in enticing him,' said the LORD.`Go and do it.'

2 Chronicles 18:22 "So now the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouths of these prophets of yours. The LORD has decreed disaster for you."

2 Chronicles 18:23 Then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah went up and slapped Micaiah in the face. "Which way did the spirit from the LORD go when he went from me to speak to you?" he asked.

2 Chronicles 18:24 Micaiah replied, "You will find out on the day you go to hide in an inner room."

2 Chronicles 18:25 The king of Israel then ordered, "Take Micaiah and send him back to Amon the ruler of the city and to Joash the king's son,

2 Chronicles 18:26 and say,`This is what the king says: Put this fellow in prison and give him nothing but bread and water until I return safely.'"

2 Chronicles 18:27 Micaiah declared, "If you ever return safely, the LORD has not spoken through me." Then he added, "Mark my words, all you people!"

2 Chronicles 18:28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.

2 Chronicles 18:29 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will enter the battle in disguise, but you wear your royal robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle.

2 Chronicles 18:30 Now the king of Aram had ordered his chariot commanders, "Do not fight with anyone, small or great, except the king of Israel."

2 Chronicles 18:31 When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they thought, "This is the king of Israel." So they turned to attack him, but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him. God drew them away from him,

2 Chronicles 18:32 for when the chariot commanders saw that he was not the king of Israel, they stopped pursuing him.

2 Chronicles 18:33 But someone drew his bow at random and hit the king of Israel between the sections of his armour. The king told the chariot driver, "Wheel around and get me out of the fighting. I've been wounded."

2 Chronicles 18:34 All day long the battle raged, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Arameans until evening. Then at sunset he died.

2 Chronicles 19:1 When Jehoshaphat king of Judah returned safely to his palace in Jerusalem,

2 Chronicles 19:2 Jehu the seer, the son of Hanani, went out to meet him and said to the king, “Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the LORD? Because of this, the wrath of the LORD is upon you.

2 Chronicles 19:3 There is, however, some good in you, for you have rid the land of the Asherah poles and have set your heart on seeking God.”

2 Chronicles 19:4 Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem, and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim and turned them back to the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 19:5 He appointed judges in the land, in each of the fortified cities of Judah.

2 Chronicles 19:6 He told them, “Consider carefully what you do, because you are not judging for man but for the LORD, who is with you whenever you give a verdict.

2 Chronicles 19:7 Now let the fear of the LORD be upon you. Judge carefully, for with the LORD our God there is no injustice or partiality or bribery.”

2 Chronicles 19:8 In Jerusalem also, Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites, priests and heads of Israelite families to administer the law of the LORD and to settle disputes. And they lived in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 19:9 He gave them these orders: “You must serve faithfully and wholeheartedly in the fear of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 19:10 In every case that comes before you from your fellow countrymen who live in the cities—whether bloodshed or other concerns of the law, commands, decrees or ordinances—you are to warn them not to sin against the LORD; otherwise his wrath will come on you and your brothers. Do this, and you will not sin.

2 Chronicles 19:11 “Amariah the chief priest will be over you in any matter concerning the LORD, and Zebadiah son of Ishmael, the leader of the tribe of Judah, will be over you in any matter concerning the king, and the Levites will serve as officials before you. Act with courage, and may the LORD be with those who do well.”

2 Chronicles 20:1 After this, the Moabites and Ammonites with some of the Meunites came to make war on Jehoshaphat.

2 Chronicles 20:2 Some men came and told Jehoshaphat, “A vast army is coming against you from Edom, from the other side of the Sea. It is already in Hazezon Tamar” (that is, En Gedi).

2 Chronicles 20:3 Alarmed, Jehoshaphat resolved to enquire of the LORD, and he proclaimed a fast for all Judah.

2 Chronicles 20:4 The people of Judah came together to seek help from the LORD; indeed, they came from every town in Judah to seek him.

2 Chronicles 20:5 Then Jehoshaphat stood up in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem at the temple of the LORD in the front of the new courtyard

2 Chronicles 20:6 and said: “O LORD, God of our fathers, are you not the God who is in heaven? You rule over all the kingdoms of the nations. Power and might are in your hand, and no-one can withstand you.

2 Chronicles 20:7 O our God, did you not drive out the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel and give it for ever to the descendants of Abraham your friend?

2 Chronicles 20:8 They have lived in it and have built in it a sanctuary for your Name, saying,

2 Chronicles 20:9 `If calamity comes upon us, whether the sword of judgment, or plague or famine, we will stand in your presence before this temple that bears your Name and will cry out to you in our distress, and you will hear us and save us.’

2 Chronicles 20:10 “But now here are men from Ammon, Moab and Mount Seir, whose territory you would not allow Israel to invade when they came from Egypt; so they turned away from them and did not destroy them.

2 Chronicles 20:11 See how they are repaying us by coming to drive us out of the possession you gave us as an inheritance.

2 Chronicles 20:12 O our God, will you not judge them? For we have no power to face this vast army that is attacking us. We do not know what to do, but our eyes are upon you.”

2 Chronicles 20:13 All the men of Judah, with their wives and children and little ones, stood there before the LORD.

2 Chronicles 20:14 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite and descendant of Asaph, as he stood in the assembly.

2 Chronicles 20:15 He said: “Listen, King Jehoshaphat and all who live in Judah and Jerusalem! This is what the LORD says to you:`Do not be afraid or discouraged because of this vast army. For the battle is not yours, but God’s.

2 Chronicles 20:16 Tomorrow march down against them. They will be climbing up by the Pass of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the gorge in the Desert of Jeruel.

2 Chronicles 20:17 You will not have to fight this battle. Take up your positions; stand firm and see the deliverance the LORD will give you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged. Go out to face them tomorrow, and the LORD will be with you.’“

2 Chronicles 20:18 Jehoshaphat bowed with his face to the ground, and all the people of Judah and Jerusalem fell down in worship before the LORD.

2 Chronicles 20:19 Then some Levites from the Kohathites and Korahites stood up and praised the LORD, the God of Israel, with a very loud voice.

2 Chronicles 20:20 Early in the morning they left for the Desert of Tekoa. As they set out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Listen to me, Judah and people of Jerusalem! Have faith in the LORD your God and you will be upheld; have faith in his prophets and you will be successful.”

2 Chronicles 20:21 After consulting the people, Jehoshaphat appointed men to sing to the LORD and to praise him for the splendour of his holiness as they went out at the head of the army, saying: “Give thanks to the LORD, for his love endures for ever.”

2 Chronicles 20:22 As they began to sing and praise, the LORD set ambushes against the men of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir who were invading Judah, and they were defeated.

2 Chronicles 20:23 The men of Ammon and Moab rose up against the men from Mount Seir to destroy and annihilate them. After they finished slaughtering the men from Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

2 Chronicles 20:24 When the men of Judah came to the place that overlooks the desert and looked towards the vast army, they saw only dead bodies lying on the ground; no-one had escaped.

2 Chronicles 20:25 So Jehoshaphat and his men went to carry off their plunder, and they found among them a great amount of equipment and clothing and also articles of value—more than they could take away. There was so much plunder that it took three days to collect it.

2 Chronicles 20:26 On the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Beracah, where they praised the LORD. This is why it is called the Valley of Beracah to this day.

2 Chronicles 20:27 Then, led by Jehoshaphat, all the men of Judah and Jerusalem returned joyfully to Jerusalem, for the LORD had given them cause to rejoice over their enemies.

2 Chronicles 20:28 They entered Jerusalem and went to the temple of the LORD with harps and lutes and trumpets.

2 Chronicles 20:29 The fear of God came upon all the kingdoms of the countries when they heard how the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.

2 Chronicles 20:30 And the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was at peace, for his God had given him rest on every side.

2 Chronicles 20:31 So Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king of Judah, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-five years. His mother's name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi.

2 Chronicles 20:32 He walked in the ways of his father Asa and did not stray from them; he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 20:33 The high places, however, were not removed, and the people still had not set their hearts on the God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 20:34 The other events of Jehoshaphat's reign, from beginning to end, are written in the annals of Jehu son of Hanani, which are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel.

2 Chronicles 20:35 Later, Jehoshaphat king of Judah made an alliance with Ahaziah king of Israel, who was guilty of wickedness.

2 Chronicles 20:36 He agreed with him to construct a fleet of trading ships. After these were built at Ezion Geber,

2 Chronicles 20:37 Eliezer son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have made an alliance with Ahaziah, the LORD will destroy what you have made." The ships were wrecked and were not able to set sail to trade.

2 Chronicles 21:1 Then Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David. And Jehoram his son succeeded him as king.

2 Chronicles 21:2 Jehoram's brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat, were Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariahu, Michael and Shephatiah. All these were sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

2 Chronicles 21:3 Their father had given them many gifts of silver and gold and articles of value, as well as fortified cities in Judah, but he had given the kingdom to Jehoram because he was his firstborn son.

2 Chronicles 21:4 When Jehoram established himself firmly over his father's kingdom, he put all his brothers to the sword along with some of the princes of Israel.

2 Chronicles 21:5 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eight years.

2 Chronicles 21:6 He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for he married a daughter of Ahab. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 21:7 Nevertheless, because of the covenant the LORD had made with David, the LORD was not willing to destroy the house of David. He had promised to maintain a lamp for him and his descendants for ever.

2 Chronicles 21:8 In the time of Jehoram, Edom rebelled against Judah and set up its own king.

2 Chronicles 21:9 So Jehoram went there with his officers and all his chariots. The Edomites surrounded him and his chariot commanders, but he rose up and broke through by night.

2 Chronicles 21:10 To this day Edom has been in rebellion against Judah. Libnah revolted at the same time, because Jehoram had forsaken the LORD, the God of his fathers.

2 Chronicles 21:11 He had also built high places on the hills of Judah and had caused the people of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves and had led Judah astray.

2 Chronicles 21:12 Jehoram received a letter from Elijah the prophet, which said: “This is what the LORD, the God of your father David, says:`You have not walked in the ways of your father Jehoshaphat or of Asa king of Judah.

2 Chronicles 21:13 But you have walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and you have led Judah and the people of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves, just as the house of Ahab did. You have also murdered your own brothers, members of your father’s house, men who were better than you.

2 Chronicles 21:14 So now the LORD is about to strike your people, your sons, your wives and everything that is yours, with a heavy blow.

2 Chronicles 21:15 You yourself will be very ill with a lingering disease of the bowels, until the disease causes your bowels to come out.’“

2 Chronicles 21:16 The LORD aroused against Jehoram the hostility of the Philistines and of the Arabs who lived near the Cushites.

2 Chronicles 21:17 They attacked Judah, invaded it and carried off all the goods found in the king’s palace, together with his sons and wives. Not a son was left to him except Ahaziah, the youngest.

2 Chronicles 21:18 After all this, the LORD afflicted Jehoram with an incurable disease of the bowels.

2 Chronicles 21:19 In the course of time, at the end of the second year, his bowels came out because of the disease, and he died in great pain. His people made no fire in his honour, as they had for his fathers.

2 Chronicles 21:20 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eight years. He passed away, to no-one’s regret, and was buried in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

2 Chronicles 22:1 The people of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, Jehoram’s youngest son, king in his place, since the raiders, who came with the Arabs into the camp, had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.

2 Chronicles 22:2 Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for one year. His mother’s name was Athaliah, a granddaughter of Omri.

2 Chronicles 22:3 He too walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother encouraged him in doing wrong.

2 Chronicles 22:4 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as the house of Ahab had done, for after his father’s death they became his advisers, to his undoing.

2 Chronicles 22:5 He also followed their counsel when he went with Joram son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram;

2 Chronicles 22:6 so he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds they had inflicted on him at Ramoth in his battle with Hazael king of Aram. Then Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to Jezreel to see Joram son of Ahab because he had been wounded.

2 Chronicles 22:7 Through Ahaziah’s visit to Joram, God brought about Ahaziah’s downfall. When Ahaziah arrived, he went out with Joram to meet Jehu son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to destroy the house of Ahab.

2 Chronicles 22:8 While Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, he found the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah’s relatives, who had been attending Ahaziah, and he killed them.

2 Chronicles 22:9 He then went in search of Ahaziah, and his men captured him while he was hiding in Samaria. He was brought to Jehu and put to death. They buried him, for they said, “He was a son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart.” So there was no-one in the house of Ahaziah powerful enough to retain the kingdom.

2 Chronicles 22:10 When Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she proceeded to destroy the whole royal family of the house of Judah.

2 Chronicles 22:11 But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Jehoram, took Joash son of Ahaziah and stole him away from among the royal princes who were about to be murdered and put him and his nurse in a bedroom. Because Jehosheba, the daughter of King Jehoram and wife of the priest Jehoiada, was Ahaziah’s sister, she hid the child from Athaliah so that she could not kill him.

2 Chronicles 22:12 He remained hidden with them at the temple of God for six years while Athaliah ruled the land.

2 Chronicles 23:1 In the seventh year Jehoiada showed his strength. He made a covenant with the commanders of units of a hundred: Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zicri.

2 Chronicles 23:2 They went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites and the heads of Israelite families from all the towns. When they came to Jerusalem,

2 Chronicles 23:3 the whole assembly made a covenant with the king at the temple of God. Jehoiada said to them, “The king’s son shall reign, as the LORD promised concerning the descendants of David.

2 Chronicles 23:4 Now this is what you are to do: A third of you priests and Levites who are going on duty on the Sabbath are to keep watch at the doors,

2 Chronicles 23:5 a third of you at the royal palace and a third at the Foundation Gate, and all the other men are to be in the courtyards of the temple of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 23:6 No-one is to enter the temple of the LORD except the priests and Levites on duty; they may enter because they are consecrated, but all the other men are to guard what the LORD has assigned to them.

2 Chronicles 23:7 The Levites are to station themselves round the king, each man with his weapons in his hand. Anyone who enters the temple must be put to death. Stay close to the king wherever he goes.”

2 Chronicles 23:8 The Levites and all the men of Judah did just as Jehoiada the priest ordered. Each one took his men—those who were going on duty on the Sabbath and those who were going off duty— for Jehoiada the priest had not released any of the divisions.

2 Chronicles 23:9 Then he gave the commanders of units of a hundred the spears and the large and small shields that had belonged to King David and that were in the temple of God.

2 Chronicles 23:10 He stationed all the men, each with his weapon in his hand, round the king—near the altar and the temple, from the south side to the north side of the temple.

2 Chronicles 23:11 Jehoiada and his sons brought out the king’s son and put the crown on him; they presented him with a copy of the covenant and proclaimed him king. They anointed him and shouted, “Long live the king!”

2 Chronicles 23:12 When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and cheering the king, she went to them at the temple of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 23:13 She looked, and there was the king, standing by his pillar at the entrance. The officers and the trumpeters were beside the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets, and singers with musical instruments were leading the praises. Then Athaliah tore her robes and shouted, “Treason! Treason!”

2 Chronicles 23:14 Jehoiada the priest sent out the commanders of units of a hundred, who were in charge of the troops, and said to them: “Bring her out between the ranks and put to the sword anyone who follows her.” For the priest had said, “Do not put her to death at the temple of the LORD.”

2 Chronicles 23:15 So they seized her as she reached the entrance of the Horse Gate on the palace grounds, and there they put her to death.

2 Chronicles 23:16 Jehoiada then made a covenant that he and the people and the king would be the LORD’s people.

2 Chronicles 23:17 All the people went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They smashed the altars and idols and killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars.

2 Chronicles 23:18 Then Jehoiada placed the oversight of the temple of the LORD in the hands of the priests, who were Levites, to whom David had made assignments in the temple, to present the burnt offerings of the LORD as written in the Law of Moses, with rejoicing and singing, as David had ordered.

2 Chronicles 23:19 He also stationed doorkeepers at the gates of the LORD’s temple so that no-one who was in any way unclean might enter.

2 Chronicles 23:20 He took with him the commanders of hundreds, the nobles, the rulers of the people and all the people of the land and brought the king down from the temple of the LORD. They went into the palace through the Upper Gate and seated the king on the royal throne,

2 Chronicles 23:21 and all the people of the land rejoiced. And the city was quiet, because Athaliah had been slain with the sword.

2 Chronicles 24:1 Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for forty years. His mother’s name was Zibiah; she was from Beersheba.

2 Chronicles 24:2 Joash did what was right in the eyes of the LORD all the years of Jehoiada the priest.

2 Chronicles 24:3 Jehoiada chose two wives for him, and he had sons and daughters.

2 Chronicles 24:4 Some time later Joash decided to restore the temple of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 24:5 He called together the priests and Levites and said to them, “Go to the towns of Judah and collect the money due annually from all Israel, to repair the temple of your God. Do it now.” But the Levites did not act at once.

2 Chronicles 24:6 Therefore the king summoned Jehoiada the chief priest and said to him, “Why haven’t you required the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the tax imposed by Moses the servant of the LORD and by the assembly of Israel for the Tent of the Testimony?”

2 Chronicles 24:7 Now the sons of that wicked woman Athaliah had broken into the temple of God and had used even its sacred objects for the Baals.

2 Chronicles 24:8 At the king’s command, a chest was made and placed outside, at the gate of the temple of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 24:9 A proclamation was then issued in Judah and Jerusalem that they should bring to the LORD the tax that Moses the servant of God had required of Israel in the desert.

2 Chronicles 24:10 All the officials and all the people brought their contributions gladly, dropping them into the chest until it was full.

2 Chronicles 24:11 Whenever the chest was brought in by the Levites to the king’s officials and they saw that there was a large amount of money, the royal secretary and the officer of the chief priest would come and empty the chest and carry it back to its place. They did this regularly and collected a great amount of money.

2 Chronicles 24:12 The king and Jehoiada gave it to the men who carried out the work required for the temple of the LORD. They hired masons and carpenters to restore the LORD’s temple, and also workers in iron and bronze to repair the temple.

2 Chronicles 24:13 The men in charge of the work were diligent, and the repairs progressed under them. They rebuilt the temple of God according to its original design and reinforced it.

2 Chronicles 24:14 When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money to the king and Jehoiada, and with it were made articles for the LORD’s temple: articles for the service and for the burnt offerings, and also dishes and other objects of gold and silver. As long as Jehoiada lived, burnt offerings were presented continually in the temple of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 24:15 Now Jehoiada was old and full of years, and he died at the age of a hundred and thirty.

2 Chronicles 24:16 He was buried with the kings in the City of David, because of the good he had done in Israel for God and his temple.

2 Chronicles 24:17 After the death of Jehoiada, the officials of Judah came and paid homage to the king, and he listened to them.

2 Chronicles 24:18 They abandoned the temple of the LORD, the God of their fathers, and worshipped Asherah poles and idols. Because of their guilt, God’s anger came upon Judah and Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 24:19 Although the LORD sent prophets to the people to bring them back to him, and though they testified against them, they would not listen.

2 Chronicles 24:20 Then the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah son of Jehoiada the priest. He stood before the people and said, “This is what God says:`Why do you disobey the LORD’s commands? You will not prosper. Because you have forsaken the LORD, he has forsaken you.’“

2 Chronicles 24:21 But they plotted against him, and by order of the king they stoned him to death in the courtyard of the LORD’s temple.

2 Chronicles 24:22 King Joash did not remember the kindness Zechariah’s father Jehoiada had shown him but killed his son, who said as he lay dying, “May the LORD see this and call you to account.”

2 Chronicles 24:23 At the turn of the year, the army of Aram marched against Joash; it invaded Judah and Jerusalem and killed all the leaders of the people. They sent all the plunder to their king in Damascus.

2 Chronicles 24:24 Although the Aramean army had come with only a few men, the LORD delivered into their hands a much larger army. Because Judah had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers, judgment was executed on Joash.

2 Chronicles 24:25 When the Arameans withdrew, they left Joash severely wounded. His officials conspired against him for murdering the son of Jehoiada the priest, and they killed him in his bed. So he died and was buried in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

2 Chronicles 24:26 Those who conspired against him were Zabad, son of Shimeath an Ammonite woman, and Jehozabad, son of Shimrith a Moabite woman.

2 Chronicles 24:27 The account of his sons, the many prophecies about him, and the record of the restoration of the temple of God are written in the annotations on the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son succeeded him as king.

2 Chronicles 25:1 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother’s name was Jehoaddin; she was from Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 25:2 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, but not wholeheartedly.

2 Chronicles 25:3 After the kingdom was firmly in his control, he executed the officials who had murdered his father the king.

2 Chronicles 25:4 Yet he did not put their sons to death, but acted in accordance with what is written in the Law, in the Book of Moses, where the LORD commanded: “Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor children put to death for their fathers; each is to die for his own sins.”

2 Chronicles 25:5 Amaziah called the people of Judah together and assigned them according to their families to commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds for all Judah and Benjamin. He then mustered those twenty years old or more and found that there were three hundred thousand men ready for military service, able to handle the spear and shield.

2 Chronicles 25:6 He also hired a hundred thousand fighting men from Israel for a hundred talents of silver.

2 Chronicles 25:7 But a man of God came to him and said, “O king, these troops from Israel must not march with you, for the LORD is not with Israel—not with any of the people of Ephraim.

2 Chronicles 25:8 Even if you go and fight courageously in battle, God will overthrow you before the enemy, for God has the power to help or to overthrow.”

2 Chronicles 25:9 Amaziah asked the man of God, “But what about the hundred talents I paid for these Israelite troops?” The man of God replied, “The LORD can give you much more than that.”

2 Chronicles 25:10 So Amaziah dismissed the troops who had come to him from Ephraim and sent them home. They were furious with Judah and left for home in a great rage.

2 Chronicles 25:11 Amaziah then marshalled his strength and led his army to the Valley of Salt, where he killed ten thousand men of Seir.

2 Chronicles 25:12 The army of Judah also captured ten thousand men alive, took them to the top of a cliff and threw them down so that all were dashed to pieces.

2 Chronicles 25:13 Meanwhile the troops that Amaziah had sent back and had not allowed to take part in the war raided Judean towns from Samaria to Beth Horon. They killed three thousand people and carried off great quantities of plunder.

2 Chronicles 25:14 When Amaziah returned from slaughtering the Edomites, he brought back the gods of the people of Seir. He set them up as his own gods, bowed down to them and burned sacrifices to them.

2 Chronicles 25:15 The anger of the LORD burned against Amaziah, and he sent a prophet to him, who said, “Why do you consult this people’s gods, which could not save their own people from your hand?”

2 Chronicles 25:16 While he was still speaking, the king said to him, “Have we appointed you an adviser to the king? Stop! Why be struck down?” So the prophet stopped but said, “I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel.”

2 Chronicles 25:17 After Amaziah king of Judah consulted his advisers, he sent this challenge to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel: “Come, meet me face to face.”

2 Chronicles 25:18 But Jehoash king of Israel replied to Amaziah king of Judah, “A thistle in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar in Lebanon,`Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' Then a wild beast in Lebanon came along and trampled the thistle underfoot.

2 Chronicles 25:19 You say to yourself that you have defeated Edom, and now you are arrogant and proud. But stay at home! Why ask for trouble and cause your own downfall and that of Judah also?"

2 Chronicles 25:20 Amaziah, however, would not listen, for God so worked that he might hand them over to [Jehoash], because they sought the gods of Edom.

2 Chronicles 25:21 So Jehoash king of Israel attacked. He and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other at Beth Shemesh in Judah.

2 Chronicles 25:22 Judah was routed by Israel, and every man fled to his home.

2 Chronicles 25:23 Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh. Then Jehoash brought him to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate—a section about six hundred feet long.

2 Chronicles 25:24 He took all the gold and silver and all the articles found in the temple of God that had been in the care of Obed-Edom, together with the palace treasures and the hostages, and returned to Samaria.

2 Chronicles 25:25 Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah lived for fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel.

2 Chronicles 25:26 As for the other events of Amaziah's reign, from beginning to end, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

2 Chronicles 25:27 From the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, they conspired against him in Jerusalem and he fled to Lachish, but they sent men after him to Lachish and killed him there.

2 Chronicles 25:28 He was brought back by horse and was buried with his fathers in the City of Judah.

2 Chronicles 26:1 Then all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah.

2 Chronicles 26:2 He was the one who rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah after Amaziah rested with his fathers.

2 Chronicles 26:3 Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for fifty-two years. His mother's name was Jecoliah; she was from Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 26:4 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Amaziah had done.

2 Chronicles 26:5 He sought God during the days of Zechariah, who instructed him in the fear of God. As long as he sought the LORD, God gave him success.

2 Chronicles 26:6 He went to war against the Philistines and broke down the walls of Gath, Jabneh and Ashdod. He then rebuilt towns near Ashdod and elsewhere among the Philistines.

2 Chronicles 26:7 God helped him against the Philistines and against the Arabs who lived in Gur Baal and against the Meunites.

2 Chronicles 26:8 The Ammonites brought tribute to Uzziah, and his fame spread as far as the border of Egypt, because he had become very powerful.

2 Chronicles 26:9 Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate and at the angle of the wall, and he fortified them.

2 Chronicles 26:10 He also built towers in the desert and dug many cisterns, because he had much livestock in the foothills and in the plain. He had people working his fields and vineyards in the hills and in the fertile lands, for he loved the soil.

2 Chronicles 26:11 Uzziah had a well-trained army, ready to go out by divisions according to their numbers as mustered by Jeiel the secretary and Maaseiah the officer under the direction of Hananiah, one of the royal officials.

2 Chronicles 26:12 The total number of family leaders over the fighting men was 2,600.

2 Chronicles 26:13 Under their command was an army of 307,500 men trained for war, a powerful force to support the king against his enemies.

2 Chronicles 26:14 Uzziah provided shields, spears, helmets, coats of armour, bows and slingstones for the entire army.

2 Chronicles 26:15 In Jerusalem he made machines designed by skilful men for use on the towers and on the corner defences to shoot arrows and hurl large stones. His fame spread far and wide, for he was greatly helped until he became powerful.

2 Chronicles 26:16 But after Uzziah became powerful, his pride led to his downfall. He was unfaithful to the LORD his God, and entered the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense.

2 Chronicles 26:17 Azariah the priest with eighty other courageous priests of the LORD followed him in.

2 Chronicles 26:18 They confronted him and said, “It is not right for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD. That is for the priests, the descendants of Aaron, who have been consecrated to burn incense. Leave the sanctuary, for you have been unfaithful; and you will not be honoured by the LORD God.”

2 Chronicles 26:19 Uzziah, who had a censer in his hand ready to burn incense, became angry. While he was raging at the priests in their presence before the incense altar in the LORD's temple, leprosy broke out on his forehead.

2 Chronicles 26:20 When Azariah the chief priest and all the other priests looked at him, they saw that he had leprosy on his forehead, so they hurried him out. Indeed, he himself was eager to leave, because the LORD had afflicted him.

2 Chronicles 26:21 King Uzziah had leprosy until the day he died. He lived in a separate house— leprous, and excluded from the temple of the LORD. Jotham his son had charge of the palace and governed the people of the land.

2 Chronicles 26:22 The other events of Uzziah's reign, from beginning to end, are recorded by the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

2 Chronicles 26:23 Uzziah rested with his fathers and was buried near them in a field for burial that belonged to the kings, for people said, "He had leprosy." And Jotham his son succeeded him as king.

2 Chronicles 27:1 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years. His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok.

2 Chronicles 27:2 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Uzziah had done, but unlike him he did not enter the temple of the LORD. The people, however, continued their corrupt practices.

2 Chronicles 27:3 Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate of the temple of the LORD and did extensive work on the wall at the hill of Ophel.

2 Chronicles 27:4 He built towns in the Judean hills and forts and towers in the wooded areas.

2 Chronicles 27:5 Jotham made war on the king of the Ammonites and conquered them. That year the Ammonites paid him a hundred talents of silver, ten thousand cors of wheat and ten thousand cors of barley. The Ammonites brought him the same amount also in the second and third years.

2 Chronicles 27:6 Jotham grew powerful because he walked steadfastly before the LORD his God.

2 Chronicles 27:7 The other events in Jotham's reign, including all his wars and the other things he did, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

2 Chronicles 27:8 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years.

2 Chronicles 27:9 Jotham rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. And Ahaz his son succeeded him as king.

2 Chronicles 28:1 Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years. Unlike David his father, he did not do what was right in the eyes of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 28:2 He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel and also made cast idols for worshipping the Baals.

2 Chronicles 28:3 He burned sacrifices in the Valley of Ben Hinnom and sacrificed his sons in the fire, following the detestable ways of the nations that the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.

2 Chronicles 28:4 He offered sacrifices and burned incense at the high places, on the hilltops and under every spreading tree.

2 Chronicles 28:5 Therefore the LORD his God handed him over to the king of Aram. The Arameans defeated him and took many of his people as prisoners and brought them to Damascus. He was also given into the hands of the king of Israel, who inflicted heavy casualties on him.

2 Chronicles 28:6 In one day Pekah son of Remaliah killed a hundred and twenty thousand soldiers in Judah—because Judah had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 28:7 Zicri, an Ephraimite warrior, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the officer in charge of the palace, and Elkanah, second to the king.

2 Chronicles 28:8 The Israelites took captive from their kinsmen two hundred thousand wives, sons and daughters. They also took a great deal of plunder, which they carried back to Samaria.

2 Chronicles 28:9 But a prophet of the LORD named Oded was there, and he went out to meet the army when it returned to Samaria. He said to them, "Because the LORD, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, he gave them into your hand. But you have slaughtered them in a rage that reaches to heaven.

2 Chronicles 28:10 And now you intend to make the men and women of Judah and Jerusalem your slaves. But aren't you also guilty of sins against the LORD your God?

2 Chronicles 28:11 Now listen to me! Send back your fellow countrymen that you have taken as prisoners, for the LORD's fierce anger rests on you."

2 Chronicles 28:12 Then some of the leaders in Ephraim—Azariah son of Jehohanan, Berekiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai—confronted those who were arriving from the war.

2 Chronicles 28:13 "You must not bring those prisoners here," they said, "or we will be guilty before the LORD. Do you intend to add to our sin and guilt? For our guilt is already great, and his fierce anger rests on Israel."

2 Chronicles 28:14 So the soldiers gave up the prisoners and plunder in the presence of the officials and all the assembly.

2 Chronicles 28:15 The men designated by name took the prisoners, and from the plunder they clothed all who were naked. They provided them with clothes and sandals, food and drink, and healing balm. All those who were weak they put on donkeys. So they took them back to their fellow countrymen at Jericho, the City of Palms, and returned to Samaria.

2 Chronicles 28:16 At that time King Ahaz sent to the king of Assyria for help.

2 Chronicles 28:17 The Edomites had again come and attacked Judah and carried away prisoners,

2 Chronicles 28:18 while the Philistines had raided towns in the foothills and in the Negev of Judah. They captured and occupied Beth Shemesh, Aijalon and Gederoth, as well as Soco, Timnah and Gimzo, with their surrounding villages.

2 Chronicles 28:19 The LORD had humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of Israel, for he had promoted wickedness in Judah and had been most unfaithful to the LORD.

2 Chronicles 28:20 Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came to him, but gave him trouble instead of help.

2 Chronicles 28:21 Ahaz took some of the things from the temple of the LORD and from the royal palace and from the princes and presented them to the king of Assyria, but that did not help him.

2 Chronicles 28:22 In his time of trouble King Ahaz became even more unfaithful to the LORD.

2 Chronicles 28:23 He offered sacrifices to the gods of Damascus, who had defeated him; for he thought, “Since the gods of the kings of Aram have helped them, I will sacrifice to them so that they will help me.” But they were his downfall and the downfall of all Israel.

2 Chronicles 28:24 Ahaz gathered together the furnishings from the temple of God and took them away. He shut the doors of the LORD’s temple and set up altars at every street corner in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 28:25 In every town in Judah he built high places to burn sacrifices to other gods and provoked the LORD, the God of his fathers, to anger.

2 Chronicles 28:26 The other events of his reign and all his ways, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

2 Chronicles 28:27 Ahaz rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of Jerusalem, but he was not placed in the tombs of the kings of Israel. And Hezekiah his son succeeded him as king.

2 Chronicles 29:1 Hezekiah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother’s name was Abijah daughter of Zechariah.

2 Chronicles 29:2 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father David had done.

2 Chronicles 29:3 In the first month of the first year of his reign, he opened the doors of the temple of the LORD and repaired them.

2 Chronicles 29:4 He brought in the priests and the Levites, assembled them in the square on the east side

2 Chronicles 29:5 and said, “Listen to me, Levites! Consecrate yourselves now and consecrate the temple of the LORD, the God of your fathers. Remove all defilement from the sanctuary.

2 Chronicles 29:6 Our fathers were unfaithful; they did evil in the eyes of the LORD our God and forsook him. They turned their faces away from the LORD’s dwelling-place and turned their backs on him.

2 Chronicles 29:7 They also shut the doors of the portico and put out the lamps. They did not burn incense or present any burnt offerings at the sanctuary to the God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 29:8 Therefore, the anger of the LORD has fallen on Judah and Jerusalem; he has made them an object of dread and horror and scorn, as you can see with your own eyes.

2 Chronicles 29:9 This is why our fathers have fallen by the sword and why our sons and daughters and our wives are in captivity.

2 Chronicles 29:10 Now I intend to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, so that his fierce anger will turn away from us.

2 Chronicles 29:11 My sons, do not be negligent now, for the LORD has chosen you to stand before him and serve him, to minister before him and to burn incense.”

2 Chronicles 29:12 Then these Levites set to work: from the Kohathites, Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah; from the Merarites, Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel; from the Gershonites, Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah;

2 Chronicles 29:13 from the descendants of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; from the descendants of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;

2 Chronicles 29:14 from the descendants of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; from the descendants of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

2 Chronicles 29:15 When they had assembled their brothers and consecrated themselves, they went in to purify the temple of the LORD, as the king had ordered, following the word of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 29:16 The priests went into the sanctuary of the LORD to purify it. They brought out to the courtyard of the LORD’s temple everything unclean that they found in the temple of the LORD. The Levites took it and carried it out to the Kidron Valley.

2 Chronicles 29:17 They began the consecration on the first day of the first month, and by the eighth day of the month they reached the portico of the LORD. For eight more days they consecrated the temple of the LORD itself, finishing in the sixteenth day of the first month.

2 Chronicles 29:18 Then they went in to King Hezekiah and reported: “We have purified the entire temple of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the table for setting out the consecrated bread, with all its articles.

2 Chronicles 29:19 We have prepared and consecrated all the articles that King Ahaz removed in his unfaithfulness while he was king. They are now in front of the LORD’s altar.”

2 Chronicles 29:20 Early the next morning King Hezekiah gathered the city officials together and went up to the temple of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 29:21 They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven male lambs and seven male goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary and for Judah. The king commanded the priests, the descendants of Aaron, to offer these on the altar of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 29:22 So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests took the blood and sprinkled it on the altar; next they slaughtered the rams and sprinkled their blood on the altar; then they slaughtered the lambs and sprinkled their blood on the altar.

2 Chronicles 29:23 The goats for the sin offering were brought before the king and the assembly, and they laid their hands on them.

2 Chronicles 29:24 The priests then slaughtered the goats and presented their blood on the altar for a sin offering to atone for all Israel, because the king had ordered the burnt offering and the sin offering for all Israel.

2 Chronicles 29:25 He stationed the Levites in the temple of the LORD with cymbals, harps and lyres in the way prescribed by David and Gad the king’s seer and Nathan the prophet; this was commanded by the LORD through his prophets.

2 Chronicles 29:26 So the Levites stood ready with David’s instruments, and the priests with their trumpets.

2 Chronicles 29:27 Hezekiah gave the order to sacrifice the burnt offering on the altar. As the offering began, singing to the LORD began also, accompanied by trumpets and the instruments of David king of Israel.

2 Chronicles 29:28 The whole assembly bowed in worship, while the singers sang and the trumpeters played. All this continued until the sacrifice of the burnt offering was completed.

2 Chronicles 29:29 When the offerings were finished, the king and everyone present with him knelt down and worshipped.

2 Chronicles 29:30 King Hezekiah and his officials ordered the Levites to praise the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with gladness and bowed their heads and worshipped.

2 Chronicles 29:31 Then Hezekiah said, “You have now dedicated yourselves to the LORD. Come and bring sacrifices and thank-offerings to the temple of the LORD.” So the assembly brought sacrifices and thank-offerings, and all whose hearts were willing brought burnt offerings.

2 Chronicles 29:32 The number of burnt offerings the assembly brought was seventy bulls, a hundred rams and two hundred male lambs—all of them for burnt offerings to the LORD.

2 Chronicles 29:33 The animals consecrated as sacrifices amounted to six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep and goats.

2 Chronicles 29:34 The priests, however, were too few to skin all the burnt offerings; so their kinsmen the Levites helped them until the task was finished and until other priests had been consecrated, for the Levites had been more conscientious in consecrating themselves than the priests had been.

2 Chronicles 29:35 There were burnt offerings in abundance, together with the fat of the fellowship offerings and the drink offerings that accompanied the burnt offerings. So the service of the temple of the LORD was re-established.

2 Chronicles 29:36 Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced at what God had brought about for his people, because it was done so quickly.

2 Chronicles 30:1 Hezekiah sent word to all Israel and Judah and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, inviting them to come to the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem and celebrate the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 30:2 The king and his officials and the whole assembly in Jerusalem decided to celebrate the Passover in the second month.

2 Chronicles 30:3 They had not been able to celebrate it at the regular time because not enough priests had consecrated themselves and the people had not assembled in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 30:4 The plan seemed right both to the king and to the whole assembly.

2 Chronicles 30:5 They decided to send a proclamation throughout Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, calling the people to come to Jerusalem and celebrate the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel. It had not been celebrated in large numbers according to what was written.

2 Chronicles 30:6 At the king’s command, couriers went throughout Israel and Judah with letters from the king and from his officials, which read: “People of Israel, return to the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, that he may return to you who are left, who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria.

2 Chronicles 30:7 Do not be like your fathers and brothers, who were unfaithful to the LORD, the God of their fathers, so that he made them an object of horror, as you see.

2 Chronicles 30:8 Do not be stiff-necked, as your fathers were; submit to the LORD. Come to the sanctuary, which he has consecrated for ever. Serve the LORD your God, so that his fierce anger will turn away from you.

2 Chronicles 30:9 If you return to the LORD, then your brothers and your children will be shown compassion by their captors and will come back to this land, for the LORD your God is gracious and compassionate. He will not turn his face from you if you return to him.”

2 Chronicles 30:10 The couriers went from town to town in Ephraim and Manasseh, as far as Zebulun, but the people scorned and ridiculed them.

2 Chronicles 30:11 Nevertheless, some men of Asher, Manasseh and Zebulun humbled themselves and went to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 30:12 Also in Judah the hand of God was on the people to give them unity of mind to carry out what the king and his officials had ordered, following the word of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 30:13 A very large crowd of people assembled in Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month.

2 Chronicles 30:14 They removed the altars in Jerusalem and cleared away the incense altars and threw them into the Kidron Valley.

2 Chronicles 30:15 They slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and the Levites were ashamed and consecrated themselves and brought burnt offerings to the temple of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 30:16 Then they took up their regular positions as prescribed in the Law of Moses the man of God. The priests sprinkled the blood handed to them by the Levites.

2 Chronicles 30:17 Since many in the crowd had not consecrated themselves, the Levites had to kill the Passover lambs for all those who were not ceremonially clean and could not consecrate [their lambs] to the LORD.

2 Chronicles 30:18 Although most of the many people who came from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun had not purified themselves, yet they ate the Passover, contrary to what was written. But

Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, “May the LORD, who is good, pardon everyone

2 Chronicles 30:19 who sets his heart on seeking God—the LORD, the God of his fathers—even if he is not clean according to the rules of the sanctuary.”

2 Chronicles 30:20 And the LORD heard Hezekiah and healed the people.

2 Chronicles 30:21 The Israelites who were present in Jerusalem celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great rejoicing, while the Levites and priests sang to the LORD every day, accompanied by the LORD’s instruments of praise.

2 Chronicles 30:22 Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites, who showed good understanding of the service of the LORD. For the seven days they ate their assigned portion and offered fellowship offerings and praised the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 30:23 The whole assembly then agreed to celebrate the festival seven more days; so for another seven days they celebrated joyfully.

2 Chronicles 30:24 Hezekiah king of Judah provided a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep and goats for the assembly, and the officials provided them with a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep and goats. A great number of priests consecrated themselves.

2 Chronicles 30:25 The entire assembly of Judah rejoiced, along with the priests and Levites and all who had assembled from Israel, including the aliens who had come from Israel and those who lived in Judah.

2 Chronicles 30:26 There was great joy in Jerusalem, for since the days of Solomon son of David king of Israel there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 30:27 The priests and the Levites stood to bless the people, and God heard them, for their prayer reached heaven, his holy dwelling-place.

2 Chronicles 31:1 When all this had ended, the Israelites who were there went out to the towns of Judah, smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles. They destroyed the high places and the altars throughout Judah and Benjamin and in Ephraim and Manasseh. After they had destroyed all of them, the Israelites returned to their own towns and to their own property.

2 Chronicles 31:2 Hezekiah assigned the priests and Levites to divisions— each of them according to their duties as priests or Levites—to offer burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, to minister, to give thanks and to sing praises at the gates of the LORD’s dwelling.

2 Chronicles 31:3 The king contributed from his own possessions for the morning and evening burnt offerings and for the burnt offerings on the Sabbaths, New Moons and appointed feasts as written in the Law of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 31:4 He ordered the people living in Jerusalem to give the portion due to the priests and Levites so that they could devote themselves to the Law of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 31:5 As soon as the order went out, the Israelites generously gave the firstfruits of their grain, new wine, oil and honey and all that the fields produced. They brought a great amount, a tithe of everything.

2 Chronicles 31:6 The men of Israel and Judah who lived in the towns of Judah also brought a tithe of their herds and flocks and a tithe of the holy things dedicated to the LORD their God, and they piled them in heaps.

2 Chronicles 31:7 They began doing this in the third month and finished in the seventh month.

2 Chronicles 31:8 When Hezekiah and his officials came and saw the heaps, they praised the LORD and blessed his people Israel.

2 Chronicles 31:9 Hezekiah asked the priests and Levites about the heaps;

2 Chronicles 31:10 and Azariah the chief priest, from the family of Zadok, answered, “Since the people began to bring their contributions to the temple of the LORD, we have had enough to eat and plenty to spare, because the LORD has blessed his people, and this great amount is left over.”

2 Chronicles 31:11 Hezekiah gave orders to prepare storerooms in the temple of the LORD, and this was done.

2 Chronicles 31:12 Then they faithfully brought in the contributions, tithes and dedicated gifts. Conaniah, a Levite, was in charge of these things, and his brother Shimei was next in rank.

2 Chronicles 31:13 Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismakiah, Mahath and Benaiah were supervisors under Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by appointment of King Hezekiah and Azariah the official in charge of the temple of God.

2 Chronicles 31:14 Kore son of Imnah the Levite, keeper of the East Gate, was in charge of the freewill offerings given to God, distributing the contributions made to the LORD and also the consecrated gifts.

2 Chronicles 31:15 Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah and Shecaniah assisted him faithfully in the towns of the priests, distributing to their fellow priests according to their divisions, old and young alike.

2 Chronicles 31:16 In addition, they distributed to the males three years old or more whose names were in the genealogical records—all who would enter the temple of the LORD to perform the daily duties of their various tasks, according to their responsibilities and their divisions.

2 Chronicles 31:17 And they distributed to the priests enrolled by their families in the genealogical records and likewise to the Levites twenty years old or more, according to their responsibilities and their divisions.

2 Chronicles 31:18 They included all the little ones, the wives, and the sons and daughters of the whole community listed in these genealogical records. For they were faithful in consecrating themselves.

2 Chronicles 31:19 As for the priests, the descendants of Aaron, who lived on the farm lands around their towns or in any other towns, men were designated by name to distribute portions to every male among them and to all who were recorded in the genealogies of the Levites.

2 Chronicles 31:20 This is what Hezekiah did throughout Judah, doing what was good and right and faithful before the LORD his God.

2 Chronicles 31:21 In everything that he undertook in the service of God's temple and in obedience to the law and the commands, he sought his God and worked wholeheartedly. And so he prospered.

2 Chronicles 32:1 After all that Hezekiah had so faithfully done, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah. He laid siege to the fortified cities, thinking to conquer them for himself.

2 Chronicles 32:2 When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and that he intended to make war on Jerusalem,

2 Chronicles 32:3 he consulted with his officials and military staff about blocking off the water from the springs outside the city, and they helped him.

2 Chronicles 32:4 A large force of men assembled, and they blocked all the springs and the stream that flowed through the land. “Why should the kings of Assyria come and find plenty of water?” they said.

2 Chronicles 32:5 Then he worked hard repairing all the broken sections of the wall and building towers on it. He built another wall outside that one and reinforced the supporting terraces of the City of David. He also made large numbers of weapons and shields.

2 Chronicles 32:6 He appointed military officers over the people and assembled them before him in the square at the city gate and encouraged them with these words:

2 Chronicles 32:7 “Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or discouraged because of the king of Assyria and the vast army with him, for there is a greater power with us than with him.

2 Chronicles 32:8 With him is only the arm of flesh, but with us is the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles.” And the people gained confidence from what Hezekiah the king of Judah said.

2 Chronicles 32:9 Later, when Sennacherib king of Assyria and all his forces were laying siege to Lachish, he sent his officers to Jerusalem with this message for Hezekiah king of Judah and for all the people of Judah who were there:

2 Chronicles 32:10 “This is what Sennacherib king of Assyria says: On what are you basing your confidence, that you remain in Jerusalem under siege?

2 Chronicles 32:11 When Hezekiah says,`The LORD our God will save us from the hand of the king of Assyria,’ he is misleading you, to let you die of hunger and thirst.

2 Chronicles 32:12 Did not Hezekiah himself remove this god’s high places and altars, saying to Judah and Jerusalem,`You must worship before one altar and burn sacrifices on it’?

2 Chronicles 32:13 “Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the other lands? Were the gods of those nations ever able to deliver their land from my hand?

2 Chronicles 32:14 Who of all the gods of these nations that my fathers destroyed has been able to save his people from me? How then can your god deliver you from my hand?

2 Chronicles 32:15 Now do not let Hezekiah deceive you and mislead you like this. Do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to deliver his people from my hand or the hand of my fathers. How much less will your god deliver you from my hand!”

2 Chronicles 32:16 Sennacherib’s officers spoke further against the LORD God and against his servant Hezekiah.

2 Chronicles 32:17 The king also wrote letters insulting the LORD, the God of Israel, and saying this against him: “Just as the gods of the peoples of the other lands did not rescue their people from my hand, so the god of Hezekiah will not rescue his people from my hand.”

2 Chronicles 32:18 Then they called out in Hebrew to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to terrify them and make them afraid in order to capture the city.

2 Chronicles 32:19 They spoke about the God of Jerusalem as they did about the gods of the other peoples of the world—the work of men’s hands.

2 Chronicles 32:20 King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz cried out in prayer to heaven about this.

2 Chronicles 32:21 And the LORD sent an angel, who annihilated all the fighting men and the leaders and officers in the camp of the Assyrian king. So he withdrew to his own land in disgrace. And when he went into the temple of his god, some of his sons cut him down with the sword.

2 Chronicles 32:22 So the LORD saved Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib king of Assyria and from the hand of all others. He took care of them on every side.

2 Chronicles 32:23 Many brought offerings to Jerusalem for the LORD and valuable gifts for Hezekiah king of Judah. From then on he was highly regarded by all the nations.

2 Chronicles 32:24 In those days Hezekiah became ill and was at the point of death. He prayed to the LORD, who answered him and gave him a miraculous sign.

2 Chronicles 32:25 But Hezekiah's heart was proud and he did not respond to the kindness shown him; therefore the LORD's wrath was on him and on Judah and Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 32:26 Then Hezekiah repented of the pride of his heart, as did the people of Jerusalem; therefore the LORD's wrath did not come upon them during the days of Hezekiah.

2 Chronicles 32:27 Hezekiah had very great riches and honour, and he made treasuries for his silver and gold and for his precious stones, spices, shields and all kinds of valuables.

2 Chronicles 32:28 He also made buildings to store the harvest of grain, new wine and oil; and he made stalls for various kinds of cattle, and pens for the flocks.

2 Chronicles 32:29 He built villages and acquired great numbers of flocks and herds, for God had given him very great riches.

2 Chronicles 32:30 It was Hezekiah who blocked the upper outlet of the Gihon spring and channelled the water down to the west side of the City of David. He succeeded in everything he undertook.

2 Chronicles 32:31 But when envoys were sent by the rulers of Babylon to ask him about the miraculous sign that had occurred in the land, God left him to test him and to know everything that was in his heart.

2 Chronicles 32:32 The other events of Hezekiah's reign and his acts of devotion are written in the vision of the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

2 Chronicles 32:33 Hezekiah rested with his fathers and was buried on the hill where the tombs of David's descendants are. All Judah and the people of Jerusalem honoured him when he died. And Manasseh his son succeeded him as king.

2 Chronicles 33:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for fifty-five years.

2 Chronicles 33:2 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, following the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.

2 Chronicles 33:3 He rebuilt the high places his father Hezekiah had demolished; he also erected altars to the Baals and made Asherah poles. He bowed down to all the starry hosts and worshipped them.

2 Chronicles 33:4 He built altars in the temple of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, “My Name will remain in Jerusalem for ever.”

2 Chronicles 33:5 In both courts of the temple of the LORD, he built altars to all the starry hosts.

2 Chronicles 33:6 He sacrificed his sons in the fire in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, practised sorcery, divination and witchcraft, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the eyes of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

2 Chronicles 33:7 He took the carved image he had made and put it in God’s temple, of which God had said to David and to his son Solomon, “In this temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my Name for ever.

2 Chronicles 33:8 I will not again make the feet of the Israelites leave the land I assigned to your forefathers, if only they will be careful to do everything that I commanded them concerning all the laws, decrees and ordinances given through Moses.”

2 Chronicles 33:9 But Manasseh led Judah and the people of Jerusalem astray, so that they did more evil than the nations the LORD had destroyed before the Israelites.

2 Chronicles 33:10 The LORD spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they paid no attention.

2 Chronicles 33:11 So the LORD brought against them the army commanders of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh prisoner, put a hook in his nose, bound him with bronze shackles and took him to Babylon.

2 Chronicles 33:12 In his distress he sought the favour of the LORD his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers.

2 Chronicles 33:13 And when he prayed to him, the LORD was moved by his entreaty and listened to his plea; so he brought him back to Jerusalem and to his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD is God.

2 Chronicles 33:14 Afterwards he rebuilt the outer wall of the City of David, west of the Gihon spring in the valley, as far as the entrance of the Fish Gate and encircling the hill of Ophel; he also made it much higher. He stationed military commanders in all the fortified cities in Judah.

2 Chronicles 33:15 He got rid of the foreign gods and removed the image from the temple of the LORD, as well as all the altars he had built on the temple hill and in Jerusalem; and he threw them out of the city.

2 Chronicles 33:16 Then he restored the altar of the LORD and sacrificed fellowship offerings and thank-offerings on it, and told Judah to serve the LORD, the God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 33:17 The people, however, continued to sacrifice at the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

2 Chronicles 33:18 The other events of Manasseh’s reign, including his prayer to his God and the words the seers spoke to him in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, are written in the annals of the kings of Israel.

2 Chronicles 33:19 His prayer and how God was moved by his entreaty, as well as all his sins and unfaithfulness, and the sites where he built high places and set up Asherah poles and idols before he humbled himself—all are written in the records of the seers.

2 Chronicles 33:20 Manasseh rested with his fathers and was buried in his palace. And Amon his son succeeded him as king.

2 Chronicles 33:21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for two years.

2 Chronicles 33:22 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done. Amon worshipped and offered sacrifices to all the idols Manasseh had made.

2 Chronicles 33:23 But unlike his father Manasseh, he did not humble himself before the LORD; Amon increased his guilt.

2 Chronicles 33:24 Amon’s officials conspired against him and assassinated him in his palace.

2 Chronicles 33:25 Then the people of the land killed all who had plotted against King Amon, and they made Josiah his son king in his place.

2 Chronicles 34:1 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for thirty-one years.

2 Chronicles 34:2 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD and walked in the ways of his father David, not turning aside to the right or to the left.

2 Chronicles 34:3 In the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek the God of his father David. In his twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of high places, Asherah poles, carved idols and cast images.

2 Chronicles 34:4 Under his direction the altars of the Baals were torn down; he cut to pieces the incense altars that were above them, and smashed the Asherah poles, the idols and the images. These he broke to pieces and scattered over the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

2 Chronicles 34:5 He burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and so he purged Judah and Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 34:6 In the towns of Manasseh, Ephraim and Simeon, as far as Naphtali, and in the ruins around them,

2 Chronicles 34:7 he tore down the altars and the Asherah poles and crushed the idols to powder and cut to pieces all the incense altars throughout Israel. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 34:8 In the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign, to purify the land and the temple, he sent Shaphan son of Azaliah and Maaseiah the ruler of the city, with Joah son of Joahaz, the recorder, to repair the temple of the LORD his God.

2 Chronicles 34:9 They went to Hilkiah the high priest and gave him the money that had been brought into the temple of God, which the Levites who were the doorkeepers had collected from the people of Manasseh, Ephraim and the entire remnant of Israel and from all the people of Judah and Benjamin and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 34:10 Then they entrusted it to the men appointed to supervise the work on the LORD's temple. These men paid the workers who repaired and restored the temple.

2 Chronicles 34:11 They also gave money to the carpenters and builders to purchase dressed stone, and timber for joists and beams for the buildings that the kings of Judah had allowed to fall into ruin.

2 Chronicles 34:12 The men did the work faithfully. Over them to direct them were Jahath and Obadiah, Levites descended from Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, descended from Kohath. The Levites— all who were skilled in playing musical instruments—

2 Chronicles 34:13 had charge of the labourers and supervised all the workers from job to job. Some of the Levites were secretaries, scribes and doorkeepers.

2 Chronicles 34:14 While they were bringing out the money that had been taken into the temple of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD that had been given through Moses.

2 Chronicles 34:15 Hilkiah said to Shaphan the secretary, "I have found the Book of the Law in the temple of the LORD." He gave it to Shaphan.

2 Chronicles 34:16 Then Shaphan took the book to the king and reported to him: "Your officials are doing everything that has been committed to them.

2 Chronicles 34:17 They have paid out the money that was in the temple of the LORD and have entrusted it to the supervisors and workers."

2 Chronicles 34:18 Then Shaphan the secretary informed the king, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

2 Chronicles 34:19 When the king heard the words of the Law, he tore his robes.

2 Chronicles 34:20 He gave these orders to Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, Shaphan the secretary and Asaiah the king’s attendant:

2 Chronicles 34:21 “Go and enquire of the LORD for me and for the remnant in Israel and Judah about what is written in this book that has been found. Great is the LORD’s anger that is poured out on us because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD; they have not acted in accordance with all that is written in this book.”

2 Chronicles 34:22 Hilkiah and those the king had sent with him went to speak to the prophetess Huldah, who was the wife of Shallum son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe. She lived in Jerusalem, in the Second District.

2 Chronicles 34:23 She said to them, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Tell the man who sent you to me,

2 Chronicles 34:24 `This is what the LORD says: I am going to bring disaster on this place and its people—all the curses written in the book that has been read in the presence of the king of Judah.

2 Chronicles 34:25 Because they have forsaken me and burned incense to other gods and provoked me to anger by all that their hands have made, my anger will be poured out on this place and will not be quenched.’

2 Chronicles 34:26 Tell the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the LORD,`This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says concerning the words you heard:

2 Chronicles 34:27 Because your heart was responsive and you humbled yourself before God when you heard what he spoke against this place and its people, and because you humbled yourself before me and tore your robes and wept in my presence, I have heard you, declares the LORD.

2 Chronicles 34:28 Now I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be buried in peace. Your eyes will not see all the disaster I am going to bring on this place and on those who live here.’“ So they took her answer back to the king.

2 Chronicles 34:29 Then the king called together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 34:30 He went up to the temple of the LORD with the men of Judah, the people of Jerusalem, the priests and the Levites— all the people from the least to the greatest. He read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant, which had been found in the temple of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 34:31 The king stood by his pillar and renewed the covenant in the presence of the LORD—to follow the LORD and keep his commands, regulations and decrees with all his heart and all his soul, and to obey the words of the covenant written in this book.

2 Chronicles 34:32 Then he made everyone in Jerusalem and Benjamin pledge themselves to it; the people of Jerusalem did this in accordance with the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 34:33 Josiah removed all the detestable idols from all the territory belonging to the Israelites, and he made all who were present in Israel serve the LORD their God. As long as he lived, they did not fail to follow the LORD, the God of their fathers.

2 Chronicles 35:1 Josiah celebrated the Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem, and the Passover lamb was slaughtered on the fourteenth day of the first month.

2 Chronicles 35:2 He appointed the priests to their duties and encouraged them in the service of the LORD's temple.

2 Chronicles 35:3 He said to the Levites, who instructed all Israel and who had been consecrated to the LORD: "Put the sacred ark in the temple that Solomon son of David king of Israel built. It is not to be carried about on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and his people Israel.

2 Chronicles 35:4 Prepare yourselves by families in your divisions, according to the directions written by David king of Israel and by his son Solomon.

2 Chronicles 35:5 "Stand in the holy place with a group of Levites for each sub-division of the families of your fellow countrymen, the lay people.

2 Chronicles 35:6 Slaughter the Passover lambs, consecrate yourselves and prepare [the lambs] for your fellow countrymen, doing what the LORD commanded through Moses."

2 Chronicles 35:7 Josiah provided for all the lay people who were there a total of thirty thousand sheep and goats for the Passover offerings, and also three thousand cattle—all from the king's own possessions.

2 Chronicles 35:8 His officials also contributed voluntarily to the people and the priests and Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah and Jehiel, the administrators of God's temple, gave the priests two thousand six hundred Passover offerings and three hundred cattle.

2 Chronicles 35:9 Also Conaniah along with Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah, Jeiel and Jozabad, the leaders of the Levites, provided five thousand Passover offerings and five hundred head of cattle for the Levites.

2 Chronicles 35:10 The service was arranged and the priests stood in their places with the Levites in their divisions as the king had ordered.

2 Chronicles 35:11 The Passover lambs were slaughtered, and the priests sprinkled the blood handed to them, while the Levites skinned the animals.

2 Chronicles 35:12 They set aside the burnt offerings to give them to the sub-divisions of the families of the people to offer to the LORD, as is written in the Book of Moses. They did the same with the cattle.

2 Chronicles 35:13 They roasted the Passover animals over the fire as prescribed, and boiled the holy offerings in pots, cauldrons and pans and served them quickly to all the people.

2 Chronicles 35:14 After this, they made preparations for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the descendants of Aaron, were sacrificing the burnt offerings and the fat portions until nightfall. So the Levites made preparations for themselves and for the Aaronic priests.

2 Chronicles 35:15 The musicians, the descendants of Asaph, were in the places prescribed by David, Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun the king’s seer. The gatekeepers at each gate did not need to leave their posts, because their fellow Levites made the preparations for them.

2 Chronicles 35:16 So at that time the entire service of the LORD was carried out for the celebration of the Passover and the offering of burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, as King Josiah had ordered.

2 Chronicles 35:17 The Israelites who were present celebrated the Passover at that time and observed the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days.

2 Chronicles 35:18 The Passover had not been observed like this in Israel since the days of the prophet Samuel; and none of the kings of Israel had ever celebrated such a Passover as did Josiah, with the priests, the Levites and all Judah and Israel who were there with the people of Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 35:19 This Passover was celebrated in the eighteenth year of Josiah’s reign.

2 Chronicles 35:20 After all this, when Josiah had set the temple in order, Neco king of Egypt went up to fight at Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah marched out to meet him in battle.

2 Chronicles 35:21 But Neco sent messengers to him saying, “What quarrel is there between you and me, O king of Judah? It is not you I am attacking at this time, but the house with which I am at war. God has told me to hurry; so stop opposing God, who is with me, or he will destroy you.”

2 Chronicles 35:22 Josiah, however, would not turn away from him, but disguised himself to engage him in battle. He would not listen to what Neco had said at God’s command but went to fight him on the plain of Megiddo.

2 Chronicles 35:23 Archers shot King Josiah, and he told his officers, “Take me away; I am badly wounded.”

2 Chronicles 35:24 So they took him out of his chariot, put him in the other chariot he had and brought him to Jerusalem, where he died. He was buried in the tombs of his fathers, and all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for him.

2 Chronicles 35:25 Jeremiah composed laments for Josiah, and to this day all the men and women singers commemorate Josiah in the laments. These became a tradition in Israel and are written in the Laments.

2 Chronicles 35:26 The other events of Josiah’s reign and his acts of devotion, according to what is written in the Law of the LORD—

2 Chronicles 35:27 all the events, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

2 Chronicles 36:1 And the people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and made him king in Jerusalem in place of his father.

2 Chronicles 36:2 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for three months.

2 Chronicles 36:3 The king of Egypt dethroned him in Jerusalem and imposed on Judah a levy of a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

2 Chronicles 36:4 The king of Egypt made Eliakim, a brother of Jehoahaz, king over Judah and Jerusalem and changed Eliakim’s name to Jehoiakim. But Neco took Eliakim’s brother Jehoahaz and carried him off to Egypt.

2 Chronicles 36:5 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eleven years. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD his God.

2 Chronicles 36:6 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked him and bound him with bronze shackles to take him to Babylon.

2 Chronicles 36:7 Nebuchadnezzar also took to Babylon articles from the temple of the LORD and put them in his temple there.

2 Chronicles 36:8 The other events of Jehoiakim’s reign, the detestable things he did and all that was found against him, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. And Jehoiachin his son succeeded him as king.

2 Chronicles 36:9 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for three months and ten days. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 36:10 In the spring, King Nebuchadnezzar sent for him and brought him to Babylon, together with articles of value from the temple of the LORD, and he made Jehoiachin's uncle, Zedekiah, king over Judah and Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 36:11 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eleven years.

2 Chronicles 36:12 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD his God and did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke the word of the LORD.

2 Chronicles 36:13 He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him take an oath in God's name. He became stiff-necked and hardened his heart and would not turn to the LORD, the God of Israel.

2 Chronicles 36:14 Furthermore, all the leaders of the priests and the people became more and more unfaithful, following all the detestable practices of the nations and defiling the temple of the LORD, which he had consecrated in Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles 36:15 The LORD, the God of their fathers, sent word to them through his messengers again and again, because he had pity on his people and on his dwelling-place.

2 Chronicles 36:16 But they mocked God's messengers, despised his words and scoffed at his prophets until the wrath of the LORD was aroused against his people and there was no remedy.

2 Chronicles 36:17 He brought up against them the king of the Babylonians, who killed their young men with the sword in the sanctuary, and spared neither young man nor young woman, old man or aged. God handed all of them over to Nebuchadnezzar.

2 Chronicles 36:18 He carried to Babylon all the articles from the temple of God, both large and small, and the treasures of the LORD's temple and the treasures of the king and his officials.

2 Chronicles 36:19 They set fire to God's temple and broke down the wall of Jerusalem; they burned all the palaces and destroyed everything of value there.

2 Chronicles 36:20 He carried into exile to Babylon the remnant who escaped from the sword, and they became servants to him and his sons until the kingdom of Persia came to power.

2 Chronicles 36:21 The land enjoyed its sabbath rests; all the time of its desolation it rested, until the seventy years were completed in fulfilment of the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah.

2 Chronicles 36:22 In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, in order to fulfil the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah, the LORD moved the heart of Cyrus king of Persia to make a proclamation throughout his realm and to put it in writing:

2 Chronicles 36:23 “This is what Cyrus king of Persia says: “`The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and he has appointed me to build a temple for him at Jerusalem in Judah. Anyone of his people among you—may the LORD his God be with him, and let him go up.’“

Ezra

1:1 In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, in order to fulfil the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah, the LORD moved the heart of Cyrus king of Persia to make a proclamation throughout his realm and to put it in writing:

Ezra 1:2 “This is what Cyrus king of Persia says: “`The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and he has appointed me to build a temple for him at Jerusalem in Judah.

Ezra 1:3 Anyone of his people among you—may his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem in Judah and build the temple of the LORD, the God of Israel, the God who is in Jerusalem.

Ezra 1:4 And the people of any place where survivors may now be living are to provide him with silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with freewill offerings for the temple of God in Jerusalem.’“

Ezra 1:5 Then the family heads of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and Levites—everyone whose heart God had moved—prepared to go up and build the house of the LORD in Jerusalem.

Ezra 1:6 All their neighbours assisted them with articles of silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with valuable gifts, in addition to all the freewill offerings.

Ezra 1:7 Moreover, King Cyrus brought out the articles belonging to the temple of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem and had placed in the temple of his god.

Ezra 1:8 Cyrus king of Persia had them brought by Mithredath the treasurer, who counted them out to Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.

Ezra 1:9 This was the inventory: gold dishes 30 silver dishes 1,000 silver pans 29

Ezra 1:10 gold bowls 30 matching silver bowls 410 other articles 1,000

Ezra 1:11 In all, there were 5,400 articles of gold and of silver. Sheshbazzar brought all these along when the exiles came up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Ezra 2:1 Now these are the people of the province who came up from the captivity of the exiles, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had taken captive to Babylon (they returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own town, Ezra 2:2 in company with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum and Baanah): The list of the men of the people of Israel:

Ezra 2:40 The Levites: the descendants of Jeshua and Kadmiel (through the line of Hodaviah) 74

Ezra 2:41 The singers: the descendants of Asaph 128

Ezra 2:42 The gatekeepers of the temple: the descendants of Shallum, Ater, Talmon, Akkub, Hatita and Shobai 139

Ezra 2:43 The temple servants: the descendants of Ziha, Hasupha, Tabbaoth,

Ezra 2:44 Keros, Siaha, Padon,

Ezra 2:45 Lebanah, Hagabah, Akkub,

Ezra 2:46 Hagab, Shalmai, Hanan,

Ezra 2:47 Giddel, Gahar, Reaiah,

Ezra 2:48 Rezin, Nekoda, Gazzam,

Ezra 2:49 Uzza, Paseah, Besai,

Ezra 2:50 Asnah, Meunim, Nephussim,

Ezra 2:51 Bakbuk, Hakupha, Harhur,

Ezra 2:52 Bazluth, Mehida, Harsha,

Ezra 2:53 Barkos, Sisera, Temah,

Ezra 2:54 Neziah and Hatipha

Ezra 2:55 The descendants of the servants of Solomon: the descendants of Sotai, Hassophereth, Peruda,

Ezra 2:56 Jaala, Darkon, Giddel,

Ezra 2:57 Shephatiah, Hattil, Pokereth-Hazzebaim and Ami

Ezra 2:58 The temple servants and the descendants of the servants of Solomon 392

Ezra 2:59 The following came up from the towns of Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon and Immer, but they could not show that their families were descended from Israel:

Ezra 2:60 The descendants of Delaiah, Tobiah and Nekoda 652

Ezra 2:61 And from among the priests: The descendants of Hobaiah, Hakkoz and Barzillai (a man who had married a daughter of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by that name).

Ezra 2:62 These searched for their family records, but they could not find them and so were excluded from the priesthood as unclean.

Ezra 2:63 The governor ordered them not to eat any of the most sacred food until there was a priest ministering with the Urim and Thummim.

Ezra 2:64 The whole company numbered 42,360,

Ezra 2:65 besides their 7,337 menservants and maidservants; and they also had 200 men and women singers.

Ezra 2:66 They had 736 horses, 245 mules,

Ezra 2:67 435 camels and 6,720 donkeys.

Ezra 2:68 When they arrived at the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, some of the heads of the families gave freewill offerings towards the rebuilding of the house of God on its site.

Ezra 2:69 According to their ability they gave to the treasury for this work 61,000 drachmas of gold, 5,000 minas of silver and 100 priestly garments.

Ezra 2:70 The priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers and the temple servants settled in their own towns, along with some of the other people, and the rest of the Israelites settled in their towns.

Ezra 3:1 When the seventh month came and the Israelites had settled in their towns, the people assembled as one man in Jerusalem.

Ezra 3:2 Then Jeshua son of Jozadak and his fellow priests and Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and his associates began to build the altar of the God of Israel to sacrifice burnt offerings on it, in accordance with what is written in the Law of Moses the man of God.

Ezra 3:3 Despite their fear of the peoples around them, they built the altar on its foundation and sacrificed burnt offerings on it to the LORD, both the morning and evening sacrifices.

Ezra 3:4 Then in accordance with what is written, they celebrated the Feast of Tabernacles with the required number of burnt offerings prescribed for each day.

Ezra 3:5 After that, they presented the regular burnt offerings, the New Moon sacrifices and the sacrifices for all the appointed sacred feasts of the LORD, as well as those brought as freewill offerings to the LORD.

Ezra 3:6 On the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, though the foundation of the LORD’s temple had not yet been laid.

Ezra 3:7 Then they gave money to the masons and carpenters, and gave food and drink and oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre, so that they would bring cedar logs by sea from Lebanon to Joppa, as authorised by Cyrus king of Persia.

Ezra 3:8 In the second month of the second year after their arrival at the house of God in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Jeshua son of Jozadak and the rest of their brothers (the priests and the Levites and all who had returned from the captivity to Jerusalem) began the work, appointing Levites twenty years of age and older to supervise the building of the house of the LORD.

Ezra 3:9 Jeshua and his sons and brothers and Kadmiel and his sons (descendants of Hodaviah) and the sons of Henadad and their sons and brothers—all Levites—joined together in supervising those working on the house of God.

Ezra 3:10 When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests in their vestments and with trumpets, and the Levites (the sons of Asaph) with cymbals, took their places to praise the LORD, as prescribed by David king of Israel.

Ezra 3:11 With praise and thanksgiving they sang to the LORD: “He is good; his love to Israel endures for ever.” And all the people gave a great shout of praise to the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

Ezra 3:12 But many of the older priests and Levites and family heads, who had seen the former temple, wept aloud when they saw the foundation of this temple being laid, while many others shouted for joy.

Ezra 3:13 No-one could distinguish the sound of the shouts of joy from the sound of weeping, because the people made so much noise. And the sound was heard far away.

Ezra 4:1 When the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the exiles were building a temple for the LORD, the God of Israel,

Ezra 4:2 they came to Zerubbabel and to the heads of the families and said, “Let us help you build because, like you, we seek your God and have been sacrificing to him since the time of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us here.”

Ezra 4:3 But Zerubbabel, Jeshua and the rest of the heads of the families of Israel answered, “You have no part with us in building a temple to our God. We alone will build it for the LORD, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus, the king of Persia, commanded us.”

Ezra 4:4 Then the peoples around them set out to discourage the people of Judah and make them afraid to go on building.

Ezra 4:5 They hired counsellors to work against them and frustrate their plans during the entire reign of Cyrus king of Persia and down to the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Ezra 4:6 At the beginning of the reign of Xerxes, they lodged an accusation against the people of Judah and Jerusalem.

Ezra 4:7 And in the days of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and the rest of his associates wrote a letter to Artaxerxes. The letter was written in Aramaic script and in the Aramaic language.

Ezra 4:8 Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king as follows:

Ezra 4:9 Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary, together with the rest of their associates—the judges and officials over the men from Tripolis, Persia, Erech and Babylon, the Elamites of Susa,

Ezra 4:10 and the other people whom the great and honourable Ashurbanipal deported and settled in the city of Samaria and elsewhere in Trans-Euphrates.

Ezra 4:11 (This is a copy of the letter they sent him.) To King Artaxerxes, From your servants, the men of Trans-Euphrates:

Ezra 4:12 The king should know that the Jews who came up to us from you have gone to Jerusalem and are rebuilding that rebellious and wicked city. They are restoring the walls and repairing the foundations.

Ezra 4:13 Furthermore, the king should know that if this city is built and its walls are restored, no more taxes, tribute or duty will be paid, and the royal revenues will suffer.

Ezra 4:14 Now since we are under obligation to the palace and it is not proper for us to see the king dishonoured, we are sending this message to inform the king,

Ezra 4:15 so that a search may be made in the archives of your predecessors. In these records you will find that this city is a rebellious city, troublesome to kings and provinces, a place of rebellion from ancient times. That is why this city was destroyed.

Ezra 4:16 We inform the king that if this city is built and its walls are restored, you will be left with nothing in Trans-Euphrates.

Ezra 4:17 The king sent this reply: To Rehum the commanding officer, Shimshai the secretary and the rest of their associates living in Samaria and elsewhere in Trans-Euphrates: Greetings.

Ezra 4:18 The letter you sent us has been read and translated in my presence.

Ezra 4:19 I issued an order and a search was made, and it was found that this city has a long history of revolt against kings and has been a place of rebellion and sedition.

Ezra 4:20 Jerusalem has had powerful kings ruling over the whole of Trans-Euphrates, and taxes, tribute and duty were paid to them.

Ezra 4:21 Now issue an order to these men to stop work, so that this city will not be rebuilt until I so order.

Ezra 4:22 Be careful not to neglect this matter. Why let this threat grow, to the detriment of the royal interests?

Ezra 4:23 As soon as the copy of the letter of King Artaxerxes was read to Rehum and Shimshai the secretary and their associates, they went immediately to the Jews in Jerusalem and compelled them by force to stop.

Ezra 4:24 Thus the work on the house of God in Jerusalem came to a standstill until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Ezra 5:1 Now Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the prophet, a descendant of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them.

Ezra 5:2 Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak set to work to rebuild the house of God in Jerusalem. And the prophets of God were with them, helping them.

Ezra 5:3 At that time Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates went to them and asked, “Who authorised you to rebuild this temple and restore this structure?”

Ezra 5:4 They also asked, “What are the names of the men constructing this building?”

Ezra 5:5 But the eye of their God was watching over the elders of the Jews, and they were not stopped until a report could go to Darius and his written reply be received.

Ezra 5:6 This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates, the officials of Trans-Euphrates, sent to King Darius.

Ezra 5:7 The report they sent him read as follows: To King Darius: Cordial greetings.

Ezra 5:8 The king should know that we went to the district of Judah, to the temple of the great God. The people are building it with large stones and placing the timbers in the walls. The work is being carried on with diligence and is making rapid progress under their direction.

Ezra 5:9 We questioned the elders and asked them, “Who authorised you to rebuild this temple and restore this structure?”

Ezra 5:10 We also asked them their names, so that we could write down the names of their leaders for your information.

Ezra 5:11 This is the answer they gave us: “We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the temple that was built many years ago, one that a great king of Israel built and finished.

Ezra 5:12 But because our fathers angered the God of heaven, he handed them over to Nebuchadnezzar the Chaldean, king of Babylon, who destroyed this temple and deported the people to Babylon.

Ezra 5:13 “However, in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree to rebuild this house of God.

Ezra 5:14 He even removed from the temple of Babylon the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to the temple in Babylon.

“Then King Cyrus gave them to a man named Sheshbazzar, whom he had appointed governor,

Ezra 5:15 and he told him,`Take these articles and go and deposit them in the temple in Jerusalem. And rebuild the house of God on its site.’

Ezra 5:16 So this Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the house of God in Jerusalem. From that day to the present it has been under construction but is not yet finished.”

Ezra 5:17 Now if it pleases the king, let a search be made in the royal archives of Babylon to see if King Cyrus did in fact issue a decree to rebuild this house of God in Jerusalem. Then let the king send us his decision in this matter.

Ezra 6:1 King Darius then issued an order, and they searched in the archives stored in the treasury at Babylon.

Ezra 6:2 A scroll was found in the citadel of Ecbatana in the province of Media, and this was written on it: Memorandum:

Ezra 6:3 In the first year of King Cyrus, the king issued a decree concerning the temple of God in Jerusalem: Let the temple be rebuilt as a place to present sacrifices, and let its foundations be laid. It is to be ninety feet high and ninety feet wide,

Ezra 6:4 with three courses of large stones and one of timbers. The costs are to be paid by the royal treasury.

Ezra 6:5 Also, the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, are to be returned to their places in the temple in Jerusalem; they are to be deposited in the house of God.

Ezra 6:6 Now then, Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and you, their fellow officials of that province, stay away from there.

Ezra 6:7 Do not interfere with the work on this temple of God. Let the governor of the Jews and the Jewish elders rebuild this house of God on its site.

Ezra 6:8 Moreover, I hereby decree what you are to do for these elders of the Jews in the construction of this house of God: The expenses of these men are to be fully paid out of the royal treasury, from the revenues of Trans-Euphrates, so that the work will not stop.

Ezra 6:9 Whatever is needed—young bulls, rams, male lambs for burnt offerings to the God of heaven, and wheat, salt, wine and oil, as requested by the priests in Jerusalem—must be given them daily without fail,

Ezra 6:10 so that they may offer sacrifices pleasing to the God of heaven and pray for the well-being of the king and his sons.

Ezra 6:11 Furthermore, I decree that if anyone changes this edict, a beam is to be pulled from his house and he is to be lifted up and impaled on it. And for this crime his house is to be made a pile of rubble.

Ezra 6:12 May God, who has caused his Name to dwell there, overthrow any king or people who lifts a hand to change this decree or to destroy this temple in Jerusalem. I Darius have decreed it. Let it be carried out with diligence.

Ezra 6:13 Then, because of the decree King Darius had sent, Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates carried it out with diligence.

Ezra 6:14 So the elders of the Jews continued to build and prosper under the preaching of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah, a descendant of Iddo. They finished building the temple according to the command of the God of Israel and the decrees of Cyrus, Darius and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia.

Ezra 6:15 The temple was completed on the third day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

Ezra 6:16 Then the people of Israel—the priests, the Levites and the rest of the exiles—celebrated the dedication of the house of God with joy.

Ezra 6:17 For the dedication of this house of God they offered a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred male lambs and, as a sin offering for all Israel, twelve male goats, one for each of the tribes of Israel.

Ezra 6:18 And they installed the priests in their divisions and the Levites in their groups for the service of God at Jerusalem, according to what is written in the Book of Moses.

Ezra 6:19 On the fourteenth day of the first month, the exiles celebrated the Passover.

Ezra 6:20 The priests and Levites had purified themselves and were all ceremonially clean. The Levites slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the exiles, for their brothers the priests and for themselves.

Ezra 6:21 So the Israelites who had returned from the exile ate it, together with all who had separated themselves from the unclean practices of their Gentile neighbours in order to seek the LORD, the God of Israel.

Ezra 6:22 For seven days they celebrated with joy the Feast of Unleavened Bread, because the LORD had filled them with joy by changing the attitude of the king of Assyria, so that he assisted them in the work on the house of God, the God of Israel.

Ezra 7:1 After these things, during the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

Ezra 7:2 the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

Ezra 7:3 the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, Ezra 7:4 the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

Ezra 7:5 the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest—

Ezra 7:6 this Ezra came up from Babylon. He was a teacher well versed in the Law of Moses, which the LORD, the God of Israel, had given. The king had granted him everything he asked, for the hand of the LORD his God was on him.

Ezra 7:7 Some of the Israelites, including priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers and temple servants, also came up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

Ezra 7:8 Ezra arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king.

Ezra 7:9 He had begun his journey from Babylon on the first day of the first month, and he arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month, for the gracious hand of his God was on him.

Ezra 7:10 For Ezra had devoted himself to the study and observance of the Law of the LORD, and to teaching its decrees and laws in Israel.

Ezra 7:11 This is a copy of the letter King Artaxerxes had given to Ezra the priest and teacher, a man learned in matters concerning the commands and decrees of the LORD for Israel:

Ezra 7:12 Artaxerxes, king of kings, To Ezra the priest, a teacher of the Law of the God of heaven: Greetings.

Ezra 7:13 Now I decree that any of the Israelites in my kingdom, including priests and Levites, who wish to go to Jerusalem with you, may go.

Ezra 7:14 You are sent by the king and his seven advisers to enquire about Judah and Jerusalem with regard to the Law of your God, which is in your hand.

Ezra 7:15 Moreover, you are to take with you the silver and gold that the king and his advisers have freely given to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem,

Ezra 7:16 together with all the silver and gold you may obtain from the province of Babylon, as well as the freewill offerings of the people and priests for the temple of their God in Jerusalem.

Ezra 7:17 With this money be sure to buy bulls, rams and male lambs, together with their grain offerings and drink offerings, and sacrifice them on the altar of the temple of your God in Jerusalem.

Ezra 7:18 You and your brother Jews may then do whatever seems best with the rest of the silver and gold, in accordance with the will of your God.

Ezra 7:19 Deliver to the God of Jerusalem all the articles entrusted to you for worship in the temple of your God.

Ezra 7:20 And anything else needed for the temple of your God that you may have occasion to supply, you may provide from the royal treasury.

Ezra 7:21 Now I, King Artaxerxes, order all the treasurers of Trans-Euphrates to provide with diligence whatever Ezra the priest, a teacher of the Law of the God of heaven, may ask of you—

Ezra 7:22 up to a hundred talents of silver, a hundred cors of wheat, a hundred baths of wine, a hundred baths of olive oil, and salt without limit.

Ezra 7:23 Whatever the God of heaven has prescribed, let it be done with diligence for the temple of the God of heaven. Why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and of his sons?

Ezra 7:24 You are also to know that you have no authority to impose taxes, tribute or duty on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, temple servants or other workers at this house of God.

Ezra 7:25 And you, Ezra, in accordance with the wisdom of your God, which you possess, appoint magistrates and judges to administer justice to all the people of Trans-Euphrates—all who know the laws of your God. And you are to teach any who do not know them.

Ezra 7:26 Whoever does not obey the law of your God and the law of the king must surely be punished by death, banishment, confiscation of property, or imprisonment.

Ezra 7:27 Praise be to the LORD, the God of our fathers, who has put it into the king's heart to bring honour to the house of the LORD in Jerusalem in this way

Ezra 7:28 and who has extended his good favour to me before the king and his advisers and all the king's powerful officials. Because the hand of the LORD my God was on me, I took courage and gathered leading men from Israel to go up with me.

Ezra 8:1 These are the family heads and those registered with them who came up with me from Babylon during the reign of King Artaxerxes:

Ezra 8:2 of the descendants of Phinehas, Gershom; of the descendants of Ithamar, Daniel; of the descendants of David, Hattush

Ezra 8:3 of the descendants of Shecaniah; of the descendants of Parosh, Zechariah, and with him were registered 150 men;

Ezra 8:4 of the descendants of Pahath-Moab, Eliehoenai son of Zerahiah, and with him 200 men;

Ezra 8:5 of the descendants of Zattu, Shecaniah son of Jahaziel, and with him 300 men;

Ezra 8:6 of the descendants of Adin, Ebed son of Jonathan, and with him 50 men;

Ezra 8:7 of the descendants of Elam, Jeshaiah son of Athaliah, and with him 70 men;

Ezra 8:8 of the descendants of Shephatiah, Zebadiah son of Michael, and with him 80 men;

Ezra 8:9 of the descendants of Joab, Obadiah son of Jehiel, and with him 218 men;

Ezra 8:10 of the descendants of Bani, Shelomith son of Josiphiah, and with him 160 men;

Ezra 8:11 of the descendants of Bebai, Zechariah son of Bebai, and with him 28 men;

Ezra 8:12 of the descendants of Azgad, Johanan son of Hakkatan, and with him 110 men;

Ezra 8:13 of the descendants of Adonikam, the last ones, whose names were Eliphelet, Jeuel and Shemaiah, and with them 60 men;

Ezra 8:14 of the descendants of Bigvai, Uthai and Zaccur, and with them 70 men.

Ezra 8:15 I assembled them at the canal that flows towards Ahava, and we camped there three days. When I checked among the people and the priests, I found no Levites there.

Ezra 8:16 So I summoned Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah and Meshullam, who were leaders, and Joiarib and Elnathan, who were men of learning,

Ezra 8:17 and I sent them to Iddo, the leader in Casiphia. I told them what to say to Iddo and his kinsmen, the temple servants in Casiphia, so that they might bring attendants to us for the house of our God.

Ezra 8:18 Because the gracious hand of our God was on us, they brought us Sherebiah, a capable man, from the descendants of Mahli son of Levi, the son of Israel, and Sherebiah's sons and brothers, 18 men;

Ezra 8:19 and Hashabiah, together with Jeshaiah from the descendants of Merari, and his brothers and nephews, 20 men.

Ezra 8:20 They also brought 220 of the temple servants—a body that David and the officials had established to assist the Levites. All were registered by name.

Ezra 8:21 There, by the Ahava Canal, I proclaimed a fast, so that we might humble ourselves before our God and ask him for a safe journey for us and our children, with all our possessions.

Ezra 8:22 I was ashamed to ask the king for soldiers and horsemen to protect us from enemies on the road, because we had told the king, "The gracious hand of our God is on everyone who looks to him, but his great anger is against all who forsake him."

Ezra 8:23 So we fasted and petitioned our God about this, and he answered our prayer.

Ezra 8:24 Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests, together with Sherebiah, Hashabiah and ten of their brothers,

Ezra 8:25 and I weighed out to them the offering of silver and gold and the articles that the king, his advisers, his officials and all Israel present there had donated for the house of our God.

Ezra 8:26 I weighed out to them 650 talents of silver, silver articles weighing 100 talents, 100 talents of gold,

Ezra 8:27 20 bowls of gold valued at 1,000 darics, and two fine articles of polished bronze, as precious as gold.

Ezra 8:28 I said to them, “You as well as these articles are consecrated to the LORD. The silver and gold are a freewill offering to the LORD, the God of your fathers.

Ezra 8:29 Guard them carefully until you weigh them out in the chambers of the house of the LORD in Jerusalem before the leading priests and the Levites and the family heads of Israel.”

Ezra 8:30 Then the priests and Levites received the silver and gold and sacred articles that had been weighed out to be taken to the house of our God in Jerusalem.

Ezra 8:31 On the twelfth day of the first month we set out from the Ahava Canal to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was on us, and he protected us from enemies and bandits along the way.

Ezra 8:32 So we arrived in Jerusalem, where we rested three days.

Ezra 8:33 On the fourth day, in the house of our God, we weighed out the silver and gold and the sacred articles into the hands of Meremoth son of Uriah, the priest. Eleazar son of Phinehas was with him, and so were the Levites Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui.

Ezra 8:34 Everything was accounted for by number and weight, and the entire weight was recorded at that time.

Ezra 8:35 Then the exiles who had returned from captivity sacrificed burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven male lambs and, as a sin offering, twelve male goats. All this was a burnt offering to the LORD.

Ezra 8:36 They also delivered the king’s orders to the royal satraps and to the governors of Trans-Euphrates who then gave assistance to the people and to the house of God.

Ezra 9:1 After these things had been done, the leaders came to me and said, “The people of Israel, including the priests and the Levites, have not kept themselves separate from the neighbouring peoples with their detestable practices, like those of the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians and Amorites.

Ezra 9:2 They have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and their sons, and have mingled the holy race with the peoples around them. And the leaders and officials have led the way in this unfaithfulness."

Ezra 9:3 When I heard this, I tore my tunic and cloak, pulled hair from my head and beard and sat down appalled.

Ezra 9:4 Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel gathered round me because of this unfaithfulness of the exiles. And I sat there appalled until the evening sacrifice.

Ezra 9:5 Then, at the evening sacrifice, I rose from my self-abasement, with my tunic and cloak torn, and fell on my knees with my hands spread out to the LORD my God

Ezra 9:6 and prayed: "O my God, I am too ashamed and disgraced to lift up my face to you, my God, because our sins are higher than our heads and our guilt has reached to the heavens.

Ezra 9:7 From the days of our forefathers until now, our guilt has been great. Because of our sins, we and our kings and our priests have been subjected to the sword and captivity, to pillage and humiliation at the hand of foreign kings, as it is today.

Ezra 9:8 "But now, for a brief moment, the LORD our God has been gracious in leaving us a remnant and giving us a firm place in his sanctuary, and so our God gives light to our eyes and a little relief in our bondage.

Ezra 9:9 Though we are slaves, our God has not deserted us in our bondage. He has shown us kindness in the sight of the kings of Persia: He has granted us new life to rebuild the house of our God and repair its ruins, and he has given us a wall of protection in Judah and Jerusalem.

Ezra 9:10 "But now, O our God, what can we say after this? For we have disregarded the commands

Ezra 9:11 you gave through your servants the prophets when you said:`The land you are entering to possess is a land polluted by the corruption of its peoples. By their detestable practices they have filled it with their impurity from one end to the other.

Ezra 9:12 Therefore, do not give your daughters in marriage to their sons or take their daughters for your sons. Do not seek a treaty of friendship with them at any time, that you may be strong and eat the good things of the land and leave it to your children as an everlasting inheritance.'

Ezra 9:13 "What has happened to us is a result of our evil deeds and our great guilt, and yet, our God, you have punished us less than our sins have deserved and have given us a remnant like this.

Ezra 9:14 Shall we again break your commands and intermarry with the peoples who commit such detestable practices? Would you not be angry enough with us to destroy us, leaving us no remnant or survivor?

Ezra 9:15 O LORD, God of Israel, you are righteous! We are left this day as a remnant. Here we are before you in our guilt, though because of it not one of us can stand in your presence."

Ezra 10:1 While Ezra was praying and confessing, weeping and throwing himself down before the house of God, a large crowd of Israelites—men, women and children—gathered round him. They too wept bitterly.

Ezra 10:2 Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, one of the descendants of Elam, said to Ezra, "We have been unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women from the peoples around us. But in spite of this, there is still hope for Israel.

Ezra 10:3 Now let us make a covenant before our God to send away all these women and their children, in accordance with the counsel of my lord and of those who fear the commands of our God. Let it be done according to the Law.

Ezra 10:4 Rise up; this matter is in your hands. We will support you, so take courage and do it."

Ezra 10:5 So Ezra rose up and put the leading priests and Levites and all Israel under oath to do what had been suggested. And they took the oath.

Ezra 10:6 Then Ezra withdrew from before the house of God and went to the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. While he was there, he ate no food and drank no water, because he continued to mourn over the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

Ezra 10:7 A proclamation was then issued throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all the exiles to assemble in Jerusalem.

Ezra 10:8 Anyone who failed to appear within three days would forfeit all his property, in accordance with the decision of the officials and elders, and would himself be expelled from the assembly of the exiles.

Ezra 10:9 Within the three days, all the men of Judah and Benjamin had gathered in Jerusalem. And on the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the people were sitting in the square before the house of God, greatly distressed by the occasion and because of the rain.

Ezra 10:10 Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "You have been unfaithful; you have married foreign women, adding to Israel's guilt.

Ezra 10:11 Now make confession to the LORD, the God of your fathers, and do his will. Separate yourselves from the peoples around you and from your foreign wives."

Ezra 10:12 The whole assembly responded with a loud voice: “You are right! We must do as you say.

Ezra 10:13 But there are many people here and it is the rainy season; so we cannot stand outside. Besides, this matter cannot be taken care of in a day or two, because we have sinned greatly in this thing.

Ezra 10:14 Let our officials act for the whole assembly. Then let everyone in our towns who has married a foreign woman come at a set time, along with the elders and judges of each town, until the fierce anger of our God in this matter is turned away from us.”

Ezra 10:15 Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah, supported by Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite, opposed this.

Ezra 10:16 So the exiles did as was proposed. Ezra the priest selected men who were family heads, one from each family division, and all of them designated by name. On the first day of the tenth month they sat down to investigate the cases,

Ezra 10:17 and by the first day of the first month they finished dealing with all the men who had married foreign women.

Ezra 10:18 Among the descendants of the priests, the following had married foreign women: From the descendants of Jeshua son of Jozadak, and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib and Gedaliah.

Ezra 10:19 (They all gave their hands in pledge to put away their wives, and for their guilt they each presented a ram from the flock as a guilt offering.)

Ezra 10:20 From the descendants of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah.

Ezra 10:21 From the descendants of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel and Uzziah.

Ezra 10:22 From the descendants of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad and Elasah.

Ezra 10:23 Among the Levites: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (that is Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah and Eliezer.

Ezra 10:24 From the singers: Eliashib. From the gatekeepers: Shallum, Telem and Uri.

Ezra 10:25 And among the other Israelites: From the descendants of Parosh: Ramiah, Izziah, Malkijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malkijah and Benaiah.

Ezra 10:26 From the descendants of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth and Elijah.

Ezra 10:27 From the descendants of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad and Aziza.

Ezra 10:28 From the descendants of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai and Athlai.

Ezra 10:29 From the descendants of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal and Jeremoth.

Ezra 10:30 From the descendants of Pahath-Moab: Adna, Kelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui and Manasseh.

Ezra 10:31 From the descendants of Harim: Eliezer, Ishijah, Malkijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, Ezra 10:32 Benjamin, Malluch and Shemariah.

Ezra 10:33 From the descendants of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh and Shimei.

Ezra 10:34 From the descendants of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel,

Ezra 10:35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Keluhi,

Ezra 10:36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

Ezra 10:37 Mattaniah, Mattenai and Jaasu.

Ezra 10:38 From the descendants of Binnui: Shimei,

Ezra 10:39 Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah,

Ezra 10:40 Macnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,

Ezra 10:41 Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah,

Ezra 10:42 Shallum, Amariah and Joseph.

Ezra 10:43 From the descendants of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel and Benaiah.

Ezra 10:44 All these had married foreign women, and some of them had children by these wives.

Nehemiah

1:1 The words of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah: In the month of Kislev in the twentieth year, while I was in the citadel of Susa,

Nehemiah 1:2 Hanani, one of my brothers, came from Judah with some other men, and I questioned them about the Jewish remnant that survived the exile, and also about Jerusalem.

Nehemiah 1:3 They said to me, “Those who survived the exile and are back in the province are in great trouble and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire.”

Nehemiah 1:4 When I heard these things, I sat down and wept. For some days I mourned and fasted and prayed before the God of heaven.

Nehemiah 1:5 Then I said: “O LORD, God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps his covenant of love with those who love him and obey his commands,

Nehemiah 1:6 let your ear be attentive and your eyes open to hear the prayer your servant is praying before you day and night for your servants, the people of Israel. I confess the sins we Israelites, including myself and my father’s house, have committed against you.

Nehemiah 1:7 We have acted very wickedly towards you. We have not obeyed the commands, decrees and laws you gave your servant Moses.

Nehemiah 1:8 “Remember the instruction you gave your servant Moses, saying,`If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the nations,

Nehemiah 1:9 but if you return to me and obey my commands, then even if your exiled people are at the farthest horizon, I will gather them from there and bring them to the place I have chosen as a dwelling for my Name.’

Nehemiah 1:10 “They are your servants and your people, whom you redeemed by your great strength and your mighty hand.

Nehemiah 1:11 O Lord, let your ear be attentive to the prayer of this your servant and to the prayer of your servants who delight in revering your name. Give your servant success today by granting him favour in the presence of this man.” I was cupbearer to the king.

Nehemiah 2:1 In the month of Nisan in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was brought for him, I took the wine and gave it to the king. I had not been sad in his presence before;

Nehemiah 2:2 so the king asked me, “Why does your face look so sad when you are not ill? This can be nothing but sadness of heart.” I was very much afraid,

Nehemiah 2:3 but I said to the king, “May the king live for ever! Why should my face not look sad when the city where my fathers are buried lies in ruins, and its gates have been destroyed by fire?”

Nehemiah 2:4 The king said to me, “What is it you want?” Then I prayed to the God of heaven,

Nehemiah 2:5 and I answered the king, “If it pleases the king and if your servant has found favour in his sight, let him send me to the city in Judah where my fathers are buried so that I can rebuild it.”

Nehemiah 2:6 Then the king, with the queen sitting beside him, asked me, “How long will your journey take, and when will you get back?” It pleased the king to send me; so I set a time.

Nehemiah 2:7 I also said to him, “If it pleases the king, may I have letters to the governors of Trans-Euphrates, so that they will provide me safe-conduct until I arrive in Judah?

Nehemiah 2:8 And may I have a letter to Asaph, keeper of the king’s forest, so he will give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel by the temple and for the city wall and for the residence I will occupy?” And because the gracious hand of my God was upon me, the king granted my requests.

Nehemiah 2:9 So I went to the governors of Trans-Euphrates and gave them the king’s letters. The king had also sent army officers and cavalry with me.

Nehemiah 2:10 When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard about this, they were very much disturbed that someone had come to promote the welfare of the Israelites.

Nehemiah 2:11 I went to Jerusalem, and after staying there three days

Nehemiah 2:12 I set out during the night with a few men. I had not told anyone what my God had put in my heart to do for Jerusalem. There were no mounts with me except the one I was riding on.

Nehemiah 2:13 By night I went out through the Valley Gate towards the Jackal Well and the Dung Gate, examining the walls of Jerusalem, which had been broken down, and its gates, which had been destroyed by fire.

Nehemiah 2:14 Then I moved on towards the Fountain Gate and the King’s Pool, but there was not enough room for my mount to get through;

Nehemiah 2:15 so I went up the valley by night, examining the wall. Finally, I turned back and re-entered through the Valley Gate.

Nehemiah 2:16 The officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing, because as yet I had said nothing to the Jews or the priests or nobles or officials or any others who would be doing the work.

Nehemiah 2:17 Then I said to them, “You see the trouble we are in: Jerusalem lies in ruins, and its gates have been burned with fire. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, and we will no longer be in disgrace.”

Nehemiah 2:18 I also told them about the gracious hand of my God upon me and what the king had said to me. They replied, “Let us start rebuilding.” So they began this good work.

Nehemiah 2:19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they mocked and ridiculed us. “What is this you are doing?” they asked. “Are you rebelling against the king?”

Nehemiah 2:20 I answered them by saying, “The God of heaven will give us success. We his servants will start rebuilding, but as for you, you have no share in Jerusalem or any claim or historic right to it.”

Nehemiah 3:1 Eliashib the high priest and his fellow priests went to work and rebuilt the Sheep Gate. They dedicated it and set its doors in place, building as far as the Tower of the Hundred, which they dedicated, and as far as the Tower of Hananel.

Nehemiah 3:2 The men of Jericho built the adjoining section, and Zaccur son of Imri built next to them.

Nehemiah 3:3 The Fish Gate was rebuilt by the sons of Hassenaah. They laid its beams and put its doors and bolts and bars in place.

Nehemiah 3:4 Meremoth son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, repaired the next section. Next to him Meshullam son of Berekiah, the son of Meshezabel, made repairs, and next to him Zadok son of Baana also made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:5 The next section was repaired by the men of Tekoa, but their nobles would not put their shoulders to the work under their supervisors.

Nehemiah 3:6 The Jeshanah Gate was repaired by Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah. They laid its beams and put its doors and bolts and bars in place.

Nehemiah 3:7 Next to them, repairs were made by men from Gibeon and Mizpah—Melatiah of Gibeon and Jadon of Meronoth—places under the authority of the governor of Trans-Euphrates.

Nehemiah 3:8 Uzziel son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, repaired the next section; and Hananiah, one of the perfume-makers, made repairs next to that. They restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

Nehemiah 3:9 Rephaiah son of Hur, ruler of a half-district of Jerusalem, repaired the next section.

Nehemiah 3:10 Adjoining this, Jedaiah son of Harumaph made repairs opposite his house, and Hattush son of Hashabneiah made repairs next to him.

Nehemiah 3:11 Malkijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-Moab repaired another section and the Tower of the Ovens.

Nehemiah 3:12 Shallum son of Hallohesh, ruler of a half-district of Jerusalem, repaired the next section with the help of his daughters.

Nehemiah 3:13 The Valley Gate was repaired by Hanun and the residents of Zanoah. They rebuilt it and put its doors and bolts and bars in place. They also repaired five hundred yards of the wall as far as the Dung Gate.

Nehemiah 3:14 The Dung Gate was repaired by Malkijah son of Recab, ruler of the district of Beth Hakkerem. He rebuilt it and put its doors and bolts and bars in place.

Nehemiah 3:15 The Fountain Gate was repaired by Shallun son of Col-Hozeh, ruler of the district of Mizpah. He rebuilt it, roofing it over and putting its doors and bolts and bars in place. He also repaired the wall of the Pool of Siloam, by the King’s Garden, as far as the steps going down from the City of David.

Nehemiah 3:16 Beyond him, Nehemiah son of Azbuk, ruler of a half-district of Beth Zur, made repairs up to a point opposite the tombs of David, as far as the artificial pool and the House of the Heroes.

Nehemiah 3:17 Next to him, the repairs were made by the Levites under Rehum son of Bani. Beside him, Hashabiah, ruler of half the district of Keilah, carried out repairs for his district.

Nehemiah 3:18 Next to him, the repairs were made by their countrymen under Binnui son of Henadad, ruler of the other half-district of Keilah.

Nehemiah 3:19 Next to him, Ezer son of Jeshua, ruler of Mizpah, repaired another section, from a point facing the ascent to the armoury as far as the angle.

Nehemiah 3:20 Next to him, Baruch son of Zabbai zealously repaired another section, from the angle to the entrance of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

Nehemiah 3:21 Next to him, Meremoth son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, repaired another section, from the entrance of Eliashib's house to the end of it.

Nehemiah 3:22 The repairs next to him were made by the priests from the surrounding region.

Nehemiah 3:23 Beyond them, Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs in front of their house; and next to them, Azariah son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, made repairs beside his house.

Nehemiah 3:24 Next to him, Binnui son of Henadad repaired another section, from Azariah's house to the angle and the corner,

Nehemiah 3:25 and Palal son of Uzai worked opposite the angle and the tower projecting from the upper palace near the court of the guard. Next to him, Pedaiah son of Parosh

Nehemiah 3:26 and the temple servants living on the hill of Ophel made repairs up to a point opposite the Water Gate towards the east and the projecting tower.

Nehemiah 3:27 Next to them, the men of Tekoa repaired another section, from the great projecting tower to the wall of Ophel.

Nehemiah 3:28 Above the Horse Gate, the priests made repairs, each in front of his own house.

Nehemiah 3:29 Next to them, Zadok son of Immer made repairs opposite his house. Next to him, Shemaiah son of Shecaniah, the guard at the East Gate, made repairs.

Nehemiah 3:30 Next to him, Hananiah son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. Next to them, Meshullam son of Berekiah made repairs opposite his living quarters.

Nehemiah 3:31 Next to him, Malkijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs as far as the house of the temple servants and the merchants, opposite the Inspection Gate, and as far as the room above the corner;

Nehemiah 3:32 and between the room above the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and merchants made repairs.

Nehemiah 4:1 When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became angry and was greatly incensed. He ridiculed the Jews,

Nehemiah 4:2 and in the presence of his associates and the army of Samaria, he said, “What are those feeble Jews doing? Will they restore their wall? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish in a day? Can they bring the stones back to life from those heaps of rubble—burned as they are?”

Nehemiah 4:3 Tobiah the Ammonite, who was at his side, said, “What they are building—if even a fox climbed up on it, he would break down their wall of stones!”

Nehemiah 4:4 Hear us, O our God, for we are despised. Turn their insults back on their own heads. Give them over as plunder in a land of captivity.

Nehemiah 4:5 Do not cover up their guilt or blot out their sins from your sight, for they have thrown insults in the face of the builders.

Nehemiah 4:6 So we rebuilt the wall till all of it reached half its height, for the people worked with all their heart.

Nehemiah 4:7 But when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites and the men of Ashdod heard that the repairs to Jerusalem’s walls had gone ahead and that the gaps were being closed, they were very angry.

Nehemiah 4:8 They all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and stir up trouble against it.

Nehemiah 4:9 But we prayed to our God and posted a guard day and night to meet this threat.

Nehemiah 4:10 Meanwhile, the people in Judah said, “The strength of the labourers is giving out, and there is so much rubble that we cannot rebuild the wall.”

Nehemiah 4:11 Also our enemies said, “Before they know it or see us, we will be right there among them and will kill them and put an end to the work.”

Nehemiah 4:12 Then the Jews who lived near them came and told us ten times over, “Wherever you turn, they will attack us.”

Nehemiah 4:13 Therefore I stationed some of the people behind the lowest points of the wall at the exposed places, posting them by families, with their swords, spears and bows.

Nehemiah 4:14 After I looked things over, I stood up and said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, “Don’t be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your homes.”

Nehemiah 4:15 When our enemies heard that we were aware of their plot and that God had frustrated it, we all returned to the wall, each to his own work.

Nehemiah 4:16 From that day on, half of my men did the work, while the other half were equipped with spears, shields, bows and armour. The officers posted themselves behind all the people of Judah

Nehemiah 4:17 who were building the wall. Those who carried materials did their work with one hand and held a weapon in the other,

Nehemiah 4:18 and each of the builders wore his sword at his side as he worked. But the man who sounded the trumpet stayed with me.

Nehemiah 4:19 Then I said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, “The work is extensive and spread out, and we are widely separated from each other along the wall.

Nehemiah 4:20 Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, join us there. Our God will fight for us!”

Nehemiah 4:21 So we continued the work with half the men holding spears, from the first light of dawn till the stars came out.

Nehemiah 4:22 At that time I also said to the people, “Have every man and his helper stay inside Jerusalem at night, so that they can serve us as guards by night and workmen by day.”

Nehemiah 4:23 Neither I nor my brothers nor my men nor the guards with me took off our clothes; each had his weapon, even when he went for water.

Nehemiah 5:1 Now the men and their wives raised a great outcry against their Jewish brothers.

Nehemiah 5:2 Some were saying, “We and our sons and daughters are numerous; in order for us to eat and stay alive, we must get grain.”

Nehemiah 5:3 Others were saying, “We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards and our homes to get grain during the famine.”

Nehemiah 5:4 Still others were saying, “We have had to borrow money to pay the king’s tax on our fields and vineyards.

Nehemiah 5:5 Although we are of the same flesh and blood as our countrymen and though our sons are as good as theirs, yet we have to subject our sons and daughters to slavery. Some of our daughters have already been enslaved, but we are powerless, because our fields and our vineyards belong to others.”

Nehemiah 5:6 When I heard their outcry and these charges, I was very angry.

Nehemiah 5:7 I pondered them in my mind and then accused the nobles and officials. I told them, “You are exacting usury from your own countrymen!” So I called together a large meeting to deal with them

Nehemiah 5:8 and said: “As far as possible, we have bought back our Jewish brothers who were sold to the Gentiles. Now you are selling your brothers, only for them to be sold back to us!” They kept quiet, because they could find nothing to say.

Nehemiah 5:9 So I continued, “What you are doing is not right. Shouldn’t you walk in the fear of our God to avoid the reproach of our Gentile enemies?

Nehemiah 5:10 I and my brothers and my men are also lending the people money and grain. But let the exacting of usury stop!

Nehemiah 5:11 Give back to them immediately their fields, vineyards, olive groves and houses, and also the usury you are charging them—the hundredth part of the money, grain, new wine and oil.”

Nehemiah 5:12 “We will give it back,” they said. “And we will not demand anything more from them. We will do as you say.” Then I summoned the priests and made the nobles and officials take an oath to do what they had promised.

Nehemiah 5:13 I also shook out the folds of my robe and said, “In this way may God shake out of his house and possessions every man who does not keep this promise. So may such a man be shaken out and emptied!” At this the whole assembly said, “Amen,” and praised the LORD. And the people did as they had promised.

Nehemiah 5:14 Moreover, from the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, until his thirty-second year—twelve years—neither I nor my brothers ate the food allotted to the governor.

Nehemiah 5:15 But the earlier governors—those preceding me—placed a heavy burden on the people and took forty shekels of silver from them in addition to food and wine. Their assistants also lorded it over the people. But out of reverence for God I did not act like that.

Nehemiah 5:16 Instead, I devoted myself to the work on this wall. All my men were assembled there for the work; we did not acquire any land.

Nehemiah 5:17 Furthermore, a hundred and fifty Jews and officials ate at my table, as well as those who came to us from the surrounding nations.

Nehemiah 5:18 Each day one ox, six choice sheep and some poultry were prepared for me, and every ten days an abundant supply of wine of all kinds. In spite of all this, I never demanded the food allotted to the governor, because the demands were heavy on these people.

Nehemiah 5:19 Remember me with favour, O my God, for all I have done for these people.

Nehemiah 6:1 When word came to Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab and the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall and not a gap was left in it—though up to that time I had not set the doors in the gates—

Nehemiah 6:2 Sanballat and Geshem sent me this message: “Come, let us meet together in one of the villages on the plain of Ono.” But they were scheming to harm me;

Nehemiah 6:3 so I sent messengers to them with this reply: “I am carrying on a great project and cannot go down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and go down to you?”

Nehemiah 6:4 Four times they sent me the same message, and each time I gave them the same answer.

Nehemiah 6:5 Then, the fifth time, Sanballat sent his assistant to me with the same message, and in his hand was an unsealed letter

Nehemiah 6:6 in which was written: “It is reported among the nations— and Geshem says it is true— that you and the Jews are plotting to revolt, and therefore you are building the wall. Moreover, according to these reports you are about to become their king

Nehemiah 6:7 and have even appointed prophets to make this proclamation about you in Jerusalem:`There is a king in Judah!’ Now this report will get back to the king; so come, let us confer together.”

Nehemiah 6:8 I sent him this reply: “Nothing like what you are saying is happening; you are just making it up out of your head.”

Nehemiah 6:9 They were all trying to frighten us, thinking, “Their hands will get too weak for the work, and it will not be completed.” [But I prayed,] “Now strengthen my hands.”

Nehemiah 6:10 One day I went to the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was shut in at his home. He said, “Let us meet in the house of God, inside the temple, and let us close the temple doors, because men are coming to kill you—by night they are coming to kill you.”

Nehemiah 6:11 But I said, “Should a man like me run away? Or should one like me go into the temple to save his life? I will not go!”

Nehemiah 6:12 I realised that God had not sent him, but that he had prophesied against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

Nehemiah 6:13 He had been hired to intimidate me so that I would commit a sin by doing this, and then they would give me a bad name to discredit me.

Nehemiah 6:14 Remember Tobiah and Sanballat, O my God, because of what they have done; remember also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who have been trying to intimidate me.

Nehemiah 6:15 So the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth of Elul, in fifty-two days.

Nehemiah 6:16 When all our enemies heard about this, all the surrounding nations were afraid and lost their self-confidence, because they realised that this work had been done with the help of our God.

Nehemiah 6:17 Also, in those days the nobles of Judah were sending many letters to Tobiah, and replies from Tobiah kept coming to them.

Nehemiah 6:18 For many in Judah were under oath to him, since he was son-in-law to Shecaniah son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berekiah.

Nehemiah 6:19 Moreover, they kept reporting to me his good deeds and then telling him what I said. And Tobiah sent letters to intimidate me.

Nehemiah 7:1 After the wall had been rebuilt and I had set the doors in place, the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites were appointed.

Nehemiah 7:2 I put in charge of Jerusalem my brother Hanani, along with Hananiah the commander of the citadel, because he was a man of integrity and feared God more than most men do.

Nehemiah 7:3 I said to them, “The gates of Jerusalem are not to be opened until the sun is hot. While the gatekeepers are still on duty, make them shut the doors and bar them. Also appoint residents of Jerusalem as guards, some at their posts and some near their own houses.”

Nehemiah 7:4 Now the city was large and spacious, but there were few people in it, and the houses had not yet been rebuilt.

Nehemiah 7:5 So my God put it into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials and the common people for registration by families. I found the genealogical record of those who had been the first to return. This is what I found written there:

Nehemiah 7:6 These are the people of the province who came up from the captivity of the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had taken captive (they returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own town, Nehemiah 7:7 in company with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum and Baanah): The list of the men of Israel:

Nehemiah 7:44 The singers: the descendants of Asaph 148

Nehemiah 7:45 The gatekeepers: the descendants of Shallum, Ater, Talmon, Akkub, Hatita and Shobai 138

Nehemiah 7:46 The temple servants: the descendants of Ziha, Hasupha, Tabbaoth,

Nehemiah 7:47 Keros, Sia, Padon,

Nehemiah 7:48 Lebana, Hagaba, Shalmai,

Nehemiah 7:49 Hanan, Giddel, Gahar,

Nehemiah 7:50 Reaiah, Rezin, Nekoda,

Nehemiah 7:51 Gazzam, Uzza, Paseah,

Nehemiah 7:52 Besai, Meunim, Nephussim,

Nehemiah 7:53 Bakbuk, Hakupha, Harhur,

Nehemiah 7:54 Bazluth, Mehida, Harsha,

Nehemiah 7:55 Barkos, Sisera, Temah,

Nehemiah 7:56 Neziah and Hatipha

Nehemiah 7:57 The descendants of the servants of Solomon: the descendants of Sotai, Sophereth, Perida,

Nehemiah 7:58 Jaala, Darkon, Giddel,

Nehemiah 7:59 Shephatiah, Hattil, Pokereth-Hazzebaim and Amon

Nehemiah 7:60 The temple servants and the descendants of the servants of Solomon 392

Nehemiah 7:61 The following came up from the towns of Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon and Immer, but they could not show that their families were descended from Israel:

Nehemiah 7:62 the descendants of Delaiah, Tobiah and Nekoda 642

Nehemiah 7:63 And from among the priests: the descendants of Hobaiah, Hakkoz and Barzillai (a man who had married a daughter of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by that name).

Nehemiah 7:64 These searched for their family records, but they could not find them and so were excluded from the priesthood as unclean.

Nehemiah 7:65 The governor, therefore, ordered them not to eat any of the most sacred food until there should be a priest ministering with the Urim and Thummim.

Nehemiah 7:66 The whole company numbered 42,360,

Nehemiah 7:67 besides their 7,337 menservants and maidservants; and they also had 245 men and women singers.

Nehemiah 7:68 There were 736 horses, 245 mules,

Nehemiah 7:69 435 camels and 6,720 donkeys.

Nehemiah 7:70 Some of the heads of the families contributed to the work. The governor gave to the treasury 1,000 drachmas of gold, 50 bowls and 530 garments for priests.

Nehemiah 7:71 Some of the heads of the families gave to the treasury for the work 20,000 drachmas of gold and 2,200 minas of silver.

Nehemiah 7:72 The total given by the rest of the people was 20,000 drachmas of gold, 2,000 minas of silver and 67 garments for priests.

Nehemiah 7:73 The priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers and the temple servants, along with certain of the people and the rest of the Israelites, settled in their own towns. When the seventh month came and the Israelites had settled in their towns,

Nehemiah 8:1 all the people assembled as one man in the square before the Water Gate. They told Ezra the scribe to bring out the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded for Israel.

Nehemiah 8:2 So on the first day of the seventh month, Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly, which was made up of men and women and all who were able to understand.

Nehemiah 8:3 He read it aloud from daybreak till noon as he faced the square before the Water Gate in the presence of the men, women and others who could understand. And all the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law.

Nehemiah 8:4 Ezra the scribe stood on a high wooden platform built for the occasion. Beside him on his right stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah and Maaseiah; and on his left were Pedaiah, Mishael, Malkijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah and Meshullam.

Nehemiah 8:5 Ezra opened the book. All the people could see him because he was standing above them; and as he opened it, the people all stood up.

Nehemiah 8:6 Ezra praised the LORD, the great God; and all the people lifted their hands and responded, “Amen! Amen!” Then they bowed down and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

Nehemiah 8:7 The Levites—Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan and Pelaiah—instructed the people in the Law while the people were standing there.

Nehemiah 8:8 They read from the Book of the Law of God, making it clear and giving the meaning so that the people could understand what was being read.

Nehemiah 8:9 Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who were instructing the people said to them all, “This day is sacred to the LORD your God. Do not mourn or weep.” For all the people had been weeping as they listened to the words of the Law.

Nehemiah 8:10 Nehemiah said, “Go and enjoy choice food and sweet drinks, and send some to those who have nothing prepared. This day is sacred to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.”

Nehemiah 8:11 The Levites calmed all the people, saying, “Be still, for this is a sacred day. Do not grieve.”

Nehemiah 8:12 Then all the people went away to eat and drink, to send portions of food and to celebrate with great joy, because they now understood the words that had been made known to them.

Nehemiah 8:13 On the second day of the month, the heads of all the families, along with the priests and the Levites, gathered round Ezra the scribe to give attention to the words of the Law.

Nehemiah 8:14 They found written in the Law, which the LORD had commanded through Moses, that the Israelites were to live in booths during the feast of the seventh month

Nehemiah 8:15 and that they should proclaim this word and spread it throughout their towns and in Jerusalem: “Go out into the hill country and bring back branches from olive and wild olive trees, and from myrtles, palms and shade trees, to make booths”— as it is written.

Nehemiah 8:16 So the people went out and brought back branches and built themselves booths on their own roofs, in their courtyards, in the courts of the house of God and in the square by the Water Gate and the one by the Gate of Ephraim.

Nehemiah 8:17 The whole company that had returned from exile built booths and lived in them. From the days of Joshua son of Nun until that day, the Israelites had not celebrated it like this. And their joy was very great.

Nehemiah 8:18 Day after day, from the first day to the last, Ezra read from the Book of the Law of God. They celebrated the feast for seven days, and on the eighth day, in accordance with the regulation, there was an assembly.

Nehemiah 9:1 On the twenty-fourth day of the same month, the Israelites gathered together, fasting and wearing sackcloth and having dust on their heads.

Nehemiah 9:2 Those of Israelite descent had separated themselves from all foreigners. They stood in their places and confessed their sins and the wickedness of their fathers.

Nehemiah 9:3 They stood where they were and read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for a quarter of the day, and spent another quarter in confession and in worshipping the LORD their God.

Nehemiah 9:4 Standing on the stairs were the Levites—Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani and Kenani—who called with loud voices to the LORD their God.

Nehemiah 9:5 And the Levites—Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah and Pethahiah—said: “Stand up and praise the LORD your God, who is from everlasting to everlasting.” “Blessed be your glorious name, and may it be exalted above all blessing and praise.

Nehemiah 9:6 You alone are the LORD. You made the heavens, even the highest heavens, and all their starry host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them. You give life to everything, and the multitudes of heaven worship you.

Nehemiah 9:7 “You are the LORD God, who chose Abram and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans and named him Abraham.

Nehemiah 9:8 You found his heart faithful to you, and you made a covenant with him to give to his descendants the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Jebusites and Girgashites. You have kept your promise because you are righteous.

Nehemiah 9:9 “You saw the suffering of our forefathers in Egypt; you heard their cry at the Red Sea.

Nehemiah 9:10 You sent miraculous signs and wonders against Pharaoh, against all his officials and all the people of his land, for you knew how arrogantly the Egyptians treated them. You made a name for yourself, which remains to this day.

Nehemiah 9:11 You divided the sea before them, so that they passed through it on dry ground, but you hurled their pursuers into the depths, like a stone into mighty waters.

Nehemiah 9:12 By day you led them with a pillar of cloud, and by night with a pillar of fire to give them light on the way they were to take.

Nehemiah 9:13 “You came down on Mount Sinai; you spoke to them from heaven. You gave them regulations and laws that are just and right, and decrees and commands that are good.

Nehemiah 9:14 You made known to them your holy Sabbath and gave them commands, decrees and laws through your servant Moses.

Nehemiah 9:15 In their hunger you gave them bread from heaven and in their thirst you brought them water from the rock; you told them to go in and take possession of the land you had sworn with uplifted hand to give them.

Nehemiah 9:16 “But they, our forefathers, became arrogant and stiff-necked, and did not obey your commands.

Nehemiah 9:17 They refused to listen and failed to remember the miracles you performed among them. They became stiff-necked and in their rebellion appointed a leader in order to return to their slavery. But you are a forgiving God, gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love. Therefore you did not desert them,

Nehemiah 9:18 even when they cast for themselves an image of a calf and said,`This is your god, who brought you up out of Egypt,’ or when they committed awful blasphemies.

Nehemiah 9:19 “Because of your great compassion you did not abandon them in the desert. By day the pillar of cloud did not cease to guide them on their path, nor the pillar of fire by night to shine on the way they were to take.

Nehemiah 9:20 You gave your good Spirit to instruct them. You did not withhold your manna from their mouths, and you gave them water for their thirst.

Nehemiah 9:21 For forty years you sustained them in the desert; they lacked nothing, their clothes did not wear out nor did their feet become swollen.

Nehemiah 9:22 “You gave them kingdoms and nations, allotting to them even the remotest frontiers. They took over the country of Sihon king of Heshbon and the country of Og king of Bashan.

Nehemiah 9:23 You made their sons as numerous as the stars in the sky, and you brought them into the land that you told their fathers to enter and possess.

Nehemiah 9:24 Their sons went in and took possession of the land. You subdued before them the Canaanites, who lived in the land; you handed the Canaanites over to them, along with their kings and the peoples of the land, to deal with them as they pleased.

Nehemiah 9:25 They captured fortified cities and fertile land; they took possession of houses filled with all kinds of good things, wells already dug, vineyards, olive groves and fruit trees in abundance. They ate to the full and were well-nourished; they revelled in your great goodness.

Nehemiah 9:26 “But they were disobedient and rebelled against you; they put your law behind their backs. They killed your prophets, who had admonished them in order to turn them back to you; they committed awful blasphemies.

Nehemiah 9:27 So you handed them over to their enemies, who oppressed them. But when they were oppressed they cried out to you. From heaven you heard them, and in your great compassion you gave them deliverers, who rescued them from the hand of their enemies.

Nehemiah 9:28 “But as soon as they were at rest, they again did what was evil in your sight. Then you abandoned them to the hand of their enemies so that they ruled over them. And when they cried out to you again, you heard from heaven, and in your compassion you delivered them time after time.

Nehemiah 9:29 “You warned them to return to your law, but they became arrogant and disobeyed your commands. They sinned against your ordinances, by which a man will live if he obeys them. Stubbornly they turned their backs on you, became stiff-necked and refused to listen.

Nehemiah 9:30 For many years you were patient with them. By your Spirit you admonished them through your prophets. Yet they paid no attention, so you handed them over to the neighbouring peoples.

Nehemiah 9:31 But in your great mercy you did not put an end to them or abandon them, for you are a gracious and merciful God.

Nehemiah 9:32 “Now therefore, O our God, the great, mighty and awesome God, who keeps his covenant of love, do not let all this hardship seem trifling in your eyes—the hardship that has come upon us, upon our kings and leaders, upon our priests and prophets, upon our fathers and all your people, from the days of the kings of Assyria until today.

Nehemiah 9:33 In all that has happened to us, you have been just; you have acted faithfully, while we did wrong.

Nehemiah 9:34 Our kings, our leaders, our priests and our fathers did not follow your law; they did not pay attention to your commands or the warnings you gave them.

Nehemiah 9:35 Even while they were in their kingdom, enjoying your great goodness to them in the spacious and fertile land you gave them, they did not serve you or turn from their evil ways.

Nehemiah 9:36 “But see, we are slaves today, slaves in the land you gave our forefathers so that they could eat its fruit and the other good things it produces.

Nehemiah 9:37 Because of our sins, its abundant harvest goes to the kings you have placed over us. They rule over our bodies and our cattle as they please. We are in great distress.

Nehemiah 9:38 “In view of all this, we are making a binding agreement, putting it in writing, and our leaders, our Levites and our priests are affixing their seals to it.”

Nehemiah 10:1 Those who sealed it were: Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hacaliah. Zedekiah,

Nehemiah 10:2 Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,

Nehemiah 10:3 Pashhur, Amariah, Malkijah,

Nehemiah 10:4 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,

Nehemiah 10:5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,

Nehemiah 10:6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,

Nehemiah 10:7 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,

Nehemiah 10:8 Maaziah, Bilgai and Shemaiah. These were the priests.

Nehemiah 10:9 The Levites: Jeshua son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel,

Nehemiah 10:10 and their associates: Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,

Nehemiah 10:11 Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah,

Nehemiah 10:12 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

Nehemiah 10:13 Hodiah, Bani and Beninu.

Nehemiah 10:14 The leaders of the people: Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,

Nehemiah 10:15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,

Nehemiah 10:16 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,
Nehemiah 10:17 Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,
Nehemiah 10:18 Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai,
Nehemiah 10:19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,
Nehemiah 10:20 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,
Nehemiah 10:21 Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua,
Nehemiah 10:22 Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,
Nehemiah 10:23 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub,
Nehemiah 10:24 Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,
Nehemiah 10:25 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,
Nehemiah 10:26 Ahiah, Hanan, Anan,
Nehemiah 10:27 Malluch, Harim and Baanah.

Nehemiah 10:28 “The rest of the people—priests, Levites, gatekeepers, singers, temple servants and all who separated themselves from the neighbouring peoples for the sake of the Law of God, together with their wives and all their sons and daughters who are able to understand—

Nehemiah 10:29 all these now join their brothers the nobles, and bind themselves with a curse and an oath to follow the Law of God given through Moses the servant of God and to obey carefully all the commands, regulations and decrees of the LORD our Lord.

Nehemiah 10:30 “We promise not to give our daughters in marriage to the peoples around us or take their daughters for our sons.

Nehemiah 10:31 “When the neighbouring peoples bring merchandise or grain to sell on the Sabbath, we will not buy from them on the Sabbath or on any holy day. Every seventh year we will forgo working the land and will cancel all debts.

Nehemiah 10:32 “We assume the responsibility for carrying out the commands to give a third of a shekel each year for the service of the house of our God:

Nehemiah 10:33 for the bread set out on the table; for the regular grain offerings and burnt offerings; for the offerings on the Sabbaths, New Moon festivals and appointed feasts; for the holy offerings; for sin offerings to make atonement for Israel; and for all the duties of the house of our God.

Nehemiah 10:34 “We—the priests, the Levites and the people—have cast lots to determine when each of our families is to bring to the house of our God at set times each year a contribution of wood to burn on the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the Law.

Nehemiah 10:35 “We also assume responsibility for bringing to the house of the LORD each year the firstfruits of our crops and of every fruit tree.

Nehemiah 10:36 “As it is also written in the Law, we will bring the firstborn of our sons and of our cattle, of our herds and of our flocks to the house of our God, to the priests ministering there.

Nehemiah 10:37 “Moreover, we will bring to the storerooms of the house of our God, to the priests, the first of our ground meal, of our [grain] offerings, of the fruit of all our trees and of our new wine and oil. And we will bring a tithe of our crops to the Levites, for it is the Levites who collect the tithes in all the towns where we work.

Nehemiah 10:38 A priest descended from Aaron is to accompany the Levites when they receive the tithes, and the Levites are to bring a tenth of the tithes up to the house of our God, to the storerooms of the treasury.

Nehemiah 10:39 The people of Israel, including the Levites, are to bring their contributions of grain, new wine and oil to the storerooms where the articles for the sanctuary are kept and where the ministering priests, the gatekeepers and the singers stay. “We will not neglect the house of our God.”

Nehemiah 11:1 Now the leaders of the people settled in Jerusalem, and the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of every ten to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while the remaining nine were to stay in their own towns.

Nehemiah 11:2 The people commended all the men who volunteered to live in Jerusalem.

Nehemiah 11:3 These are the provincial leaders who settled in Jerusalem (now some Israelites, priests, Levites, temple servants and descendants of Solomon’s servants lived in the towns of Judah, each on his own property in the various towns, Nehemiah 11:4 while other people from both Judah and Benjamin lived in Jerusalem): From the descendants of Judah: Athaiah son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, a descendant of Perez;

Nehemiah 11:5 and Maaseiah son of Baruch, the son of Col-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, a descendant of Shelah.

Nehemiah 11:6 The descendants of Perez who lived in Jerusalem totalled 468 able men.

Nehemiah 11:7 From the descendants of Benjamin: Sallu son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiah, Nehemiah 11:8 and his followers, Gabbai and Sallai—928 men.

Nehemiah 11:9 Joel son of Zicri was their chief officer, and Judah son of Hassenuah was over the Second District of the city.

Nehemiah 11:10 From the priests: Jedaiah; the son of Joiarib; Jakin;

Nehemiah 11:11 Seraiah son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, supervisor in the house of God,

Nehemiah 11:12 and their associates, who carried on work for the temple— 822 men; Adaiah son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malkijah,

Nehemiah 11:13 and his associates, who were heads of families— 242 men; Amashsai son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer,

Nehemiah 11:14 and his associates, who were able men—128 men. Their chief officer was Zabdiel son of Haggedolim.

Nehemiah 11:15 From the Levites: Shemaiah son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

Nehemiah 11:16 Shabbethai and Jozabad, two of the heads of the Levites, who had charge of the outside work of the house of God;

Nehemiah 11:17 Mattaniah son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, the director who led in thanksgiving and prayer; Bakbukiah, second among his associates; and Abda son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

Nehemiah 11:18 The Levites in the holy city totalled 284.

Nehemiah 11:19 The gatekeepers: Akkub, Talmon and their associates, who kept watch at the gates—172 men.

Nehemiah 11:20 The rest of the Israelites, with the priests and Levites, were in all the towns of Judah, each on his ancestral property.

Nehemiah 11:21 The temple servants lived on the hill of Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of them.

Nehemiah 11:22 The chief officer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica. Uzzi was one of Asaph's descendants, who were the singers responsible for the service of the house of God.

Nehemiah 11:23 The singers were under the king's orders, which regulated their daily activity.

Nehemiah 11:24 Pethahiah son of Meshezabel, one of the descendants of Zerah son of Judah, was the king's agent in all affairs relating to the people.

Nehemiah 11:25 As for the villages with their fields, some of the people of Judah lived in Kiriath Arba and its surrounding settlements, in Dibon and its settlements, in Jekabzeel and its villages,

Nehemiah 11:26 in Jeshua, in Moladah, in Beth Pelet, Nehemiah 11:27 in Hazar Shual, in Beersheba and its settlements,

Nehemiah 11:28 in Ziklag, in Meconah and its settlements,

Nehemiah 11:29 in En Rimmon, in Zorah, in Jarmuth,

Nehemiah 11:30 Zanoah, Adullam and their villages, in Lachish and its fields, and in Azekah and its settlements. So they were living all the way from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

Nehemiah 11:31 The descendants of the Benjamites from Geba lived in Michmash, Aija, Bethel and its settlements,

Nehemiah 11:32 in Anathoth, Nob and Ananiah,

Nehemiah 11:33 in Hazor, Ramah and Gittaim,

Nehemiah 11:34 in Hadid, Zeboim and Neballat,

Nehemiah 11:35 in Lod and Ono, and in the Valley of the Craftsmen.

Nehemiah 11:36 Some of the divisions of the Levites of Judah settled in Benjamin.

Nehemiah 12:1 These were the priests and Levites who returned with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and with Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

Nehemiah 12:2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,

Nehemiah 12:3 Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,

Nehemiah 12:4 Iddo, Ginnethon, Abijah,

Nehemiah 12:5 Mijamin, Moadiah, Bilgah,

Nehemiah 12:6 Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah,

Nehemiah 12:7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah and Jedaiah. These were the leaders of the priests and their associates in the days of Jeshua.

Nehemiah 12:8 The Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and also Mattaniah, who, together with his associates, was in charge of the songs of thanksgiving.

Nehemiah 12:9 Bakbukiah and Unni, their associates, stood opposite them in the services.

Nehemiah 12:10 Jeshua was the father of Joiakim, Joiakim the father of Eliashib, Eliashib the father of Joiada,

Nehemiah 12:11 Joiada the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan the father of Jaddua.

Nehemiah 12:12 In the days of Joiakim, these were the heads of the priestly families: of Seraiah's family, Meraiah; of Jeremiah's, Hananiah;

Nehemiah 12:13 of Ezra's, Meshullam; of Amariah's, Jehohanan;

Nehemiah 12:14 of Malluch's, Jonathan; of Shecaniah's, Joseph;

Nehemiah 12:15 of Harim's, Adna; of Meremoth's, Helkai;

Nehemiah 12:16 of Iddo's, Zechariah; of Ginnethon's, Meshullam;

Nehemiah 12:17 of Abijah's, Zicri; of Miniamin's and of Moadiah's, Piltai;

Nehemiah 12:18 of Bilgah's, Shammua; of Shemaiah's, Jehonathan;

Nehemiah 12:19 of Joiarib's, Mattenai; of Jedaiah's, Uzzi;

Nehemiah 12:20 of Sallu's, Kallai; of Amok's, Eber;

Nehemiah 12:21 of Hilkiah's, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah's, Nethanel.

Nehemiah 12:22 The family heads of the Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan and Jaddua, as well as those of the priests, were recorded in the reign of Darius the Persian.

Nehemiah 12:23 The family heads among the descendants of Levi up to the time of Johanan son of Eliashib were recorded in the book of the annals.

Nehemiah 12:24 And the leaders of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, Jeshua son of Kadmiel, and their associates, who stood opposite them to give praise and thanksgiving, one section responding to the other, as prescribed by David the man of God.

Nehemiah 12:25 Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon and Akkub were gatekeepers who guarded the storerooms at the gates.

Nehemiah 12:26 They served in the days of Joiakim son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor and of Ezra the priest and scribe.

Nehemiah 12:27 At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, the Levites were sought out from where they lived and were brought to Jerusalem to celebrate joyfully the dedication with songs of thanksgiving and with the music of cymbals, harps and lyres.

Nehemiah 12:28 The singers also were brought together from the region around Jerusalem—from the villages of the Netophathites,

Nehemiah 12:29 from Beth Gilgal, and from the area of Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built villages for themselves around Jerusalem.

Nehemiah 12:30 When the priests and Levites had purified themselves ceremonially, they purified the people, the gates and the wall.

Nehemiah 12:31 I had the leaders of Judah go up on top of the wall. I also assigned two large choirs to give thanks. One was to proceed on top of the wall to the right, towards the Dung Gate.

Nehemiah 12:32 Hoshaiah and half the leaders of Judah followed them,

Nehemiah 12:33 along with Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,

Nehemiah 12:34 Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, Jeremiah,

Nehemiah 12:35 as well as some priests with trumpets, and also Zechariah son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph, Nehemiah 12:36 and his associates—Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah and Hanani—with musical instruments [prescribed by] David the man of God. Ezra the scribe led the procession.

Nehemiah 12:37 At the Fountain Gate they continued directly up the steps of the City of David on the ascent to the wall and passed above the house of David to the Water Gate on the east.

Nehemiah 12:38 The second choir proceeded in the opposite direction. I followed them on top of the wall, together with half the people—past the Tower of the Ovens to the Broad Wall,

Nehemiah 12:39 over the Gate of Ephraim, the Jeshanah Gate, the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Sheep Gate. At the Gate of the Guard they stopped.

Nehemiah 12:40 The two choirs that gave thanks then took their places in the house of God; so did I, together with half the officials,

Nehemiah 12:41 as well as the priests—Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah and Hananiah with their trumpets—

Nehemiah 12:42 and also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malkijah, Elam and Ezer. The choirs sang under the direction of Jezrahiah.

Nehemiah 12:43 And on that day they offered great sacrifices, rejoicing because God had given them great joy. The women and children also rejoiced. The sound of rejoicing in Jerusalem could be heard far away.

Nehemiah 12:44 At that time men were appointed to be in charge of the storerooms for the contributions, firstfruits and tithes. From the fields around the towns they were to bring into the storerooms the portions required by the Law for the priests and the Levites, for Judah was pleased with the ministering priests and Levites.

Nehemiah 12:45 They performed the service of their God and the service of purification, as did also the singers and gatekeepers, according to the commands of David and his son Solomon.

Nehemiah 12:46 For long ago, in the days of David and Asaph, there had been directors for the singers and for the songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

Nehemiah 12:47 So in the days of Zerubbabel and of Nehemiah, all Israel contributed the daily portions for the singers and gatekeepers. They also set aside the portion for the other Levites, and the Levites set aside the portion for the descendants of Aaron.

Nehemiah 13:1 On that day the Book of Moses was read aloud in the hearing of the people and there it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever be admitted into the assembly of God, Nehemiah 13:2 because they had not met the Israelites with food and water but had hired Balaam to call a curse down on them. (Our God, however, turned the curse into a blessing.)

Nehemiah 13:3 When the people heard this law, they excluded from Israel all who were of foreign descent.

Nehemiah 13:4 Before this, Eliashib the priest had been put in charge of the storerooms of the house of our God. He was closely associated with Tobiah,

Nehemiah 13:5 and he had provided him with a large room formerly used to store the grain offerings and incense and temple articles, and also the tithes of grain, new wine and oil prescribed for the Levites, singers and gatekeepers, as well as the contributions for the priests.

Nehemiah 13:6 But while all this was going on, I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I had returned to the king. Some time later I asked his permission Nehemiah 13:7 and came back to Jerusalem. Here I learned about the evil thing Eliashib had done in providing Tobiah a room in the courts of the house of God.

Nehemiah 13:8 I was greatly displeased and threw all Tobiah's household goods out of the room.

Nehemiah 13:9 I gave orders to purify the rooms, and then I put back into them the equipment of the house of God, with the grain offerings and the incense.

Nehemiah 13:10 I also learned that the portions assigned to the Levites had not been given to them, and that all the Levites and singers responsible for the service had gone back to their own fields.

Nehemiah 13:11 So I rebuked the officials and asked them, "Why is the house of God neglected?" Then I called them together and stationed them at their posts.

Nehemiah 13:12 All Judah brought the tithes of grain, new wine and oil into the storerooms.

Nehemiah 13:13 I put Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and a Levite named Pedaiah in charge of the storerooms and made Hanan son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah, their assistant, because these men were considered trustworthy. They were made responsible for distributing the supplies to their brothers.

Nehemiah 13:14 Remember me for this, O my God, and do not blot out what I have so faithfully done for the house of my God and its services.

Nehemiah 13:15 In those days I saw men in Judah treading winepresses on the Sabbath and bringing in grain and loading it on donkeys, together with wine, grapes, figs and all other kinds of loads.

And they were bringing all this into Jerusalem on the Sabbath. Therefore I warned them against selling food on that day.

Nehemiah 13:16 Men from Tyre who lived in Jerusalem were bringing in fish and all kinds of merchandise and selling them in Jerusalem on the Sabbath to the people of Judah.

Nehemiah 13:17 I rebuked the nobles of Judah and said to them, “What is this wicked thing you are doing—desecrating the Sabbath day?

Nehemiah 13:18 Didn’t your forefathers do the same things, so that our God brought all this calamity upon us and upon this city? Now you are stirring up more wrath against Israel by desecrating the Sabbath.”

Nehemiah 13:19 When evening shadows fell on the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath, I ordered the doors to be shut and not opened until the Sabbath was over. I stationed some of my own men at the gates so that no load could be brought in on the Sabbath day.

Nehemiah 13:20 Once or twice the merchants and sellers of all kinds of goods spent the night outside Jerusalem.

Nehemiah 13:21 But I warned them and said, “Why do you spend the night by the wall? If you do this again, I will lay hands on you.” From that time on they no longer came on the Sabbath.

Nehemiah 13:22 Then I commanded the Levites to purify themselves and go and guard the gates in order to keep the Sabbath day holy. Remember me for this also, O my God, and show mercy to me according to your great love.

Nehemiah 13:23 Moreover, in those days I saw men of Judah who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon and Moab.

Nehemiah 13:24 Half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod or the language of one of the other peoples, and did not know how to speak the language of Judah.

Nehemiah 13:25 I rebuked them and called curses down on them. I beat some of the men and pulled out their hair. I made them take an oath in God’s name and said: “You are not to give your daughters in marriage to their sons, nor are you to take their daughters in marriage for your sons or for yourselves.

Nehemiah 13:26 Was it not because of marriages like these that Solomon king of Israel sinned? Among the many nations there was no king like him. He was loved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel, but even he was led into sin by foreign women.

Nehemiah 13:27 Must we hear now that you too are doing all this terrible wickedness and are being unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women?”

Nehemiah 13:28 One of the sons of Joiada son of Eliashib the high priest was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite. And I drove him away from me.

Nehemiah 13:29 Remember them, O my God, because they defiled the priestly office and the covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites.

Nehemiah 13:30 So I purified the priests and the Levites of everything foreign, and assigned them duties, each to his own task.

Nehemiah 13:31 I also made provision for contributions of wood at designated times, and for the firstfruits. Remember me with favour, O my God.

Esther

1:1 This is what happened during the time of Xerxes, the Xerxes who ruled over 127 provinces stretching from India to Cush:

Esther 1:2 At that time King Xerxes reigned from his royal throne in the citadel of Susa,

Esther 1:3 and in the third year of his reign he gave a banquet for all his nobles and officials. The military leaders of Persia and Media, the princes, and the nobles of the provinces were present.

Esther 1:4 For a full 180 days he displayed the vast wealth of his kingdom and the splendour and glory of his majesty.

Esther 1:5 When these days were over, the king gave a banquet, lasting seven days, in the enclosed garden of the king's palace, for all the people from the least to the greatest, who were in the citadel of Susa.

Esther 1:6 The garden had hangings of white and blue linen, fastened with cords of white linen and purple material to silver rings on marble pillars. There were couches of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl and other costly stones.

Esther 1:7 Wine was served in goblets of gold, each one different from the other, and the royal wine was abundant, in keeping with the king's liberality.

Esther 1:8 By the king's command each guest was allowed to drink in his own way, for the king instructed all the wine stewards to serve each man what he wished.

Esther 1:9 Queen Vashti also gave a banquet for the women in the royal palace of King Xerxes.

Esther 1:10 On the seventh day, when King Xerxes was in high spirits from wine, he commanded the seven eunuchs who served him—Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar and Carcas—

Esther 1:11 to bring before him Queen Vashti, wearing her royal crown, in order to display her beauty to the people and nobles, for she was lovely to look at.

Esther 1:12 But when the attendants delivered the king's command, Queen Vashti refused to come. Then the king became furious and burned with anger.

Esther 1:13 Since it was customary for the king to consult experts in matters of law and justice, he spoke with the wise men who understood the times

Esther 1:14 and were closest to the king—Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena and Memucan, the seven nobles of Persia and Media who had special access to the king and were highest in the kingdom.

Esther 1:15 "According to law, what must be done to Queen Vashti?" he asked. "She has not obeyed the command of King Xerxes that the eunuchs have taken to her."

Esther 1:16 Then Memucan replied in the presence of the king and the nobles, "Queen Vashti has done wrong, not only against the king but also against all the nobles and the peoples of all the provinces of King Xerxes.

Esther 1:17 For the queen's conduct will become known to all the women, and so they will despise their husbands and say,`King Xerxes commanded Queen Vashti to be brought before him, but she would not come.'

Esther 1:18 This very day the Persian and Median women of the nobility who have heard about the queen's conduct will respond to all the king's nobles in the same way. There will be no end of disrespect and discord.

Esther 1:19 "Therefore, if it pleases the king, let him issue a royal decree and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media, which cannot be repealed, that Vashti is never again to enter the presence of King Xerxes. Also let the king give her royal position to someone else who is better than she.

Esther 1:20 Then when the king's edict is proclaimed throughout all his vast realm, all the women will respect their husbands, from the least to the greatest."

Esther 1:21 The king and his nobles were pleased with this advice, so the king did as Memucan proposed.

Esther 1:22 He sent dispatches to all parts of the kingdom, to each province in its own script and to each people in its own language, proclaiming in each people's tongue that every man should be ruler over his own household.

Esther 2:1 Later when the anger of King Xerxes had subsided, he remembered Vashti and what she had done and what he had decreed about her.

Esther 2:2 Then the king's personal attendants proposed, "Let a search be made for beautiful young virgins for the king.

Esther 2:3 Let the king appoint commissioners in every province of his realm to bring all these beautiful girls into the harem at the citadel of Susa. Let them be placed under the care of Hegai, the king’s eunuch, who is in charge of the women; and let beauty treatments be given to them.

Esther 2:4 Then let the girl who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti.” This advice appealed to the king, and he followed it.

Esther 2:5 Now there was in the citadel of Susa a Jew of the tribe of Benjamin, named Mordecai son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish,

Esther 2:6 who had been carried into exile from Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, among those taken captive with Jehoiachin king of Judah.

Esther 2:7 Mordecai had a cousin named Hadassah, whom he had brought up because she had neither father nor mother. This girl, who was also known as Esther, was lovely in form and features, and Mordecai had taken her as his own daughter when her father and mother died.

Esther 2:8 When the king’s order and edict had been proclaimed, many girls were brought to the citadel of Susa and put under the care of Hegai. Esther also was taken to the king’s palace and entrusted to Hegai, who had charge of the harem.

Esther 2:9 The girl pleased him and won his favour. Immediately he provided her with her beauty treatments and special food. He assigned to her seven maids selected from the king’s palace and moved her and her maids into the best place in the harem.

Esther 2:10 Esther had not revealed her nationality and family background, because Mordecai had forbidden her to do so.

Esther 2:11 Every day he walked to and fro near the courtyard of the harem to find out how Esther was and what was happening to her.

Esther 2:12 Before a girl’s turn came to go in to King Xerxes, she had to complete twelve months of beauty treatments prescribed for the women, six months with oil of myrrh and six with perfumes and cosmetics.

Esther 2:13 And this is how she would go to the king: Anything she wanted was given to her to take with her from the harem to the king’s palace.

Esther 2:14 In the evening she would go there and in the morning return to another part of the harem to the care of Shaashgaz, the king’s eunuch who was in charge of the concubines. She would not return to the king unless he was pleased with her and summoned her by name.

Esther 2:15 When the turn came for Esther (the girl Mordecai had adopted, the daughter of his uncle Abihail) to go to the king, she asked for nothing other than what Hegai, the king’s eunuch who was in charge of the harem, suggested. And Esther won the favour of everyone who saw her.

Esther 2:16 She was taken to King Xerxes in the royal residence in the tenth month, the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

Esther 2:17 Now the king was attracted to Esther more than to any of the other women, and she won his favour and approval more than any of the other virgins. So he set a royal crown on her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.

Esther 2:18 And the king gave a great banquet, Esther's banquet, for all his nobles and officials. He proclaimed a holiday throughout the provinces and distributed gifts with royal liberality.

Esther 2:19 When the virgins were assembled a second time, Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate.

Esther 2:20 But Esther had kept secret her family background and nationality just as Mordecai had told her to do, for she continued to follow Mordecai's instructions as she had done when he was bringing her up.

Esther 2:21 During the time Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's officers who guarded the doorway, became angry and conspired to assassinate King Xerxes.

Esther 2:22 But Mordecai found out about the plot and told Queen Esther, who in turn reported it to the king, giving credit to Mordecai.

Esther 2:23 And when the report was investigated and found to be true, the two officials were hanged on a gallows. All this was recorded in the book of the annals in the presence of the king.

Esther 3:1 After these events, King Xerxes honoured Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, elevating him and giving him a seat of honour higher than that of all the other nobles.

Esther 3:2 All the royal officials at the king's gate knelt down and paid honour to Haman, for the king had commanded this concerning him. But Mordecai would not kneel down or pay him honour.

Esther 3:3 Then the royal officials at the king's gate asked Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the king's command?"

Esther 3:4 Day after day they spoke to him but he refused to comply. Therefore they told Haman about it to see whether Mordecai's behaviour would be tolerated, for he had told them he was a Jew.

Esther 3:5 When Haman saw that Mordecai would not kneel down or pay him honour, he was enraged.

Esther 3:6 Yet having learned who Mordecai's people were, he scorned the idea of killing only Mordecai. Instead Haman looked for a way to destroy all Mordecai's people, the Jews, throughout the whole kingdom of Xerxes.

Esther 3:7 In the twelfth year of King Xerxes, in the first month, the month of Nisan, they cast the pur (that is, the lot) in the presence of Haman to select a day and month. And the lot fell on the twelfth month, the month of Adar.

Esther 3:8 Then Haman said to King Xerxes, “There is a certain people dispersed and scattered among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom whose customs are different from those of all other people and who do not obey the king’s laws; it is not in the king’s best interest to tolerate them.

Esther 3:9 If it pleases the king, let a decree be issued to destroy them, and I will put ten thousand talents of silver into the royal treasury for the men who carry out this business.”

Esther 3:10 So the king took his signet ring from his finger and gave it to Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews.

Esther 3:11 “Keep the money,” the king said to Haman, “and do with the people as you please.”

Esther 3:12 Then on the thirteenth day of the first month the royal secretaries were summoned. They wrote out in the script of each province and in the language of each people all Haman’s orders to the king’s satraps, the governors of the various provinces and the nobles of the various peoples. These were written in the name of King Xerxes himself and sealed with his own ring.

Esther 3:13 Dispatches were sent by couriers to all the king’s provinces with the order to destroy, kill and annihilate all the Jews—young and old, women and little children—on a single day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, and to plunder their goods.

Esther 3:14 A copy of the text of the edict was to be issued as law in every province and made known to the people of every nationality so that they would be ready for that day.

Esther 3:15 Spurred on by the king’s command, the couriers went out, and the edict was issued in the citadel of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was bewildered.

Esther 4:1 When Mordecai learned of all that had been done, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the city, wailing loudly and bitterly.

Esther 4:2 But he went only as far as the king’s gate, because no-one clothed in sackcloth was allowed to enter it.

Esther 4:3 In every province to which the edict and order of the king came, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping and wailing. Many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

Esther 4:4 When Esther’s maids and eunuchs came and told her about Mordecai, she was in great distress. She sent clothes for him to put on instead of his sackcloth, but he would not accept them.

Esther 4:5 Then Esther summoned Hathach, one of the king’s eunuchs assigned to attend her, and ordered him to find out what was troubling Mordecai and why.

Esther 4:6 So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the open square of the city in front of the king’s gate.

Esther 4:7 Mordecai told him everything that had happened to him, including the exact amount of money Haman had promised to pay into the royal treasury for the destruction of the Jews.

Esther 4:8 He also gave him a copy of the text of the edict for their annihilation, which had been published in Susa, to show to Esther and explain it to her, and he told him to urge her to go into the king’s presence to beg for mercy and plead with him for her people.

Esther 4:9 Hathach went back and reported to Esther what Mordecai had said.

Esther 4:10 Then she instructed him to say to Mordecai,

Esther 4:11 “All the king’s officials and the people of the royal provinces know that for any man or woman who approaches the king in the inner court without being summoned the king has but one law: that he be put to death. The only exception to this is for the king to extend the gold sceptre to him and spare his life. But thirty days have passed since I was called to go to the king.”

Esther 4:12 When Esther’s words were reported to Mordecai,

Esther 4:13 he sent back this answer: “Do not think that because you are in the king’s house you alone of all the Jews will escape.

Esther 4:14 For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place, but you and your father’s family will perish. And who knows but that you have come to royal position for such a time as this?”

Esther 4:15 Then Esther sent this reply to Mordecai:

Esther 4:16 “Go, gather together all the Jews who are in Susa, and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my maids will fast as you do. When this is done, I will go to the king, even though it is against the law. And if I perish, I perish.”

Esther 4:17 So Mordecai went away and carried out all of Esther’s instructions.

Esther 5:1 On the third day Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the palace, in front of the king’s hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the hall, facing the entrance.

Esther 5:2 When he saw Queen Esther standing in the court, he was pleased with her and held out to her the gold sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther approached and touched the tip of the sceptre.

Esther 5:3 Then the king asked, “What is it, Queen Esther? What is your request? Even up to half the kingdom, it will be given you.”

Esther 5:4 “If it pleases the king,” replied Esther, “let the king, together with Haman, come today to a banquet I have prepared for him.”

Esther 5:5 “Bring Haman at once,” the king said, “so that we may do what Esther asks.” So the king and Haman went to the banquet Esther had prepared.

Esther 5:6 As they were drinking wine, the king again asked Esther, “Now what is your petition? It will be given you. And what is your request? Even up to half the kingdom, it will be granted.”

Esther 5:7 Esther replied, “My petition and my request is this:

Esther 5:8 If the king regards me with favour and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfil my request, let the king and Haman come tomorrow to the banquet I will prepare for them. Then I will answer the king’s question.”

Esther 5:9 Haman went out that day happy and in high spirits. But when he saw Mordecai at the king’s gate and observed that he neither rose nor showed fear in his presence, he was filled with rage against Mordecai.

Esther 5:10 Nevertheless, Haman restrained himself and went home. Calling together his friends and Zeresh, his wife,

Esther 5:11 Haman boasted to them about his vast wealth, his many sons, and all the ways the king had honoured him and how he had elevated him above the other nobles and officials.

Esther 5:12 “And that’s not all,” Haman added. “I’m the only person Queen Esther invited to accompany the king to the banquet she gave. And she has invited me along with the king tomorrow.

Esther 5:13 But all this gives me no satisfaction as long as I see that Jew Mordecai sitting at the king’s gate.”

Esther 5:14 His wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, “Have a gallows built, seventy-five feet high, and ask the king in the morning to have Mordecai hanged on it. Then go with the king to the dinner and be happy.” This suggestion delighted Haman, and he had the gallows built.

Esther 6:1 That night the king could not sleep; so he ordered the book of the chronicles, the record of his reign, to be brought in and read to him.

Esther 6:2 It was found recorded there that Mordecai had exposed Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king’s officers who guarded the doorway, who had conspired to assassinate King Xerxes.

Esther 6:3 “What honour and recognition has Mordecai received for this?” the king asked. “Nothing has been done for him,” his attendants answered.

Esther 6:4 The king said, “Who is in the court?” Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the palace to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows he had erected for him.

Esther 6:5 His attendants answered, “Haman is standing in the court.” “Bring him in,” the king ordered.

Esther 6:6 When Haman entered, the king asked him, “What should be done for the man the king delights to honour?” Now Haman thought to himself, “Who is there that the king would rather honour than me?”

Esther 6:7 So he answered the king, “For the man the king delights to honour,

Esther 6:8 have them bring a royal robe the king has worn and a horse the king has ridden, one with a royal crest placed on its head.

Esther 6:9 Then let the robe and horse be entrusted to one of the king’s most noble princes. Let them robe the man the king delights to honour, and lead him on the horse through the city streets, proclaiming before him,`This is what is done for the man the king delights to honour!’“

Esther 6:10 “Go at once,” the king commanded Haman. “Get the robe and the horse and do just as you have suggested for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king’s gate. Do not neglect anything you have recommended.”

Esther 6:11 So Haman got the robe and the horse. He robed Mordecai, and led him on horseback through the city streets, proclaiming before him, “This is what is done for the man the king delights to honour!”

Esther 6:12 Afterwards Mordecai returned to the king’s gate. But Haman rushed home, with his head covered, in grief,

Esther 6:13 and told Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him. His advisers and his wife Zeresh said to him, “Since Mordecai, before whom your downfall has started, is of Jewish origin, you cannot stand against him—you will surely come to ruin!”

Esther 6:14 While they were still talking with him, the king’s eunuchs arrived and hurried Haman away to the banquet Esther had prepared.

Esther 7:1 So the king and Haman went to dine with Queen Esther,

Esther 7:2 and as they were drinking wine on that second day, the king again asked, “Queen Esther, what is your petition? It will be given you. What is your request? Even up to half the kingdom, it will be granted.”

Esther 7:3 Then Queen Esther answered, “If I have found favour with you, O king, and if it pleases your majesty, grant me my life— this is my petition. And spare my people—this is my request.

Esther 7:4 For I and my people have been sold for destruction and slaughter and annihilation. If we had merely been sold as male and female slaves, I would have kept quiet, because no such distress would justify disturbing the king."

Esther 7:5 King Xerxes asked Queen Esther, "Who is he? Where is the man who has dared to do such a thing?"

Esther 7:6 Esther said, "The adversary and enemy is this vile Haman." Then Haman was terrified before the king and queen.

Esther 7:7 The king got up in a rage, left his wine and went out into the palace garden. But Haman, realising that the king had already decided his fate, stayed behind to beg Queen Esther for his life.

Esther 7:8 Just as the king returned from the palace garden to the banquet hall, Haman was falling on the couch where Esther was reclining. The king exclaimed, "Will he even molest the queen while she is with me in the house?" As soon as the word left the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

Esther 7:9 Then Harbona, one of the eunuchs attending the king, said, "A gallows seventy-five feet high stands by Haman's house. He had it made for Mordecai, who spoke up to help the king." The king said, "Hang him on it!"

Esther 7:10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king's fury subsided.

Esther 8:1 That same day King Xerxes gave Queen Esther the estate of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. And Mordecai came into the presence of the king, for Esther had told how he was related to her.

Esther 8:2 The king took off his signet ring, which he had reclaimed from Haman, and presented it to Mordecai. And Esther appointed him over Haman's estate.

Esther 8:3 Esther again pleaded with the king, falling at his feet and weeping. She begged him to put an end to the evil plan of Haman the Agagite, which he had devised against the Jews.

Esther 8:4 Then the king extended the gold sceptre to Esther and she arose and stood before him.

Esther 8:5 "If it pleases the king," she said, "and if he regards me with favour and thinks it the right thing to do, and if he is pleased with me, let an order be written overruling the dispatches that Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, devised and wrote to destroy the Jews in all the king's provinces.

Esther 8:6 For how can I bear to see disaster fall on my people? How can I bear to see the destruction of my family?"

Esther 8:7 King Xerxes replied to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, "Because Haman attacked the Jews, I have given his estate to Esther, and they have hanged him on the gallows.

Esther 8:8 Now write another decree in the king's name on behalf of the Jews as seems best to you, and seal it with the king's signet ring—for no document written in the king's name and sealed with his ring can be revoked."

Esther 8:9 At once the royal secretaries were summoned—on the twenty-third day of the third month, the month of Sivan. They wrote out all Mordecai's orders to the Jews, and to the satraps, governors and nobles of the 127 provinces stretching from India to Cush. These orders were written in the script of each province and the language of each people and also to the Jews in their own script and language.

Esther 8:10 Mordecai wrote in the name of King Xerxes, sealed the dispatches with the king's signet ring, and sent them by mounted couriers, who rode fast horses especially bred for the king.

Esther 8:11 The king's edict granted the Jews in every city the right to assemble and protect themselves; to destroy, kill and annihilate any armed force of any nationality or province that might attack them and their women and children; and to plunder the property of their enemies.

Esther 8:12 The day appointed for the Jews to do this in all the provinces of King Xerxes was the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar.

Esther 8:13 A copy of the text of the edict was to be issued as law in every province and made known to the people of every nationality so that the Jews would be ready on that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

Esther 8:14 The couriers, riding the royal horses, raced out, spurred on by the king's command. And the edict was also issued in the citadel of Susa.

Esther 8:15 Mordecai left the king's presence wearing royal garments of blue and white, a large crown of gold and a purple robe of fine linen. And the city of Susa held a joyous celebration.

Esther 8:16 For the Jews it was a time of happiness and joy, gladness and honour.

Esther 8:17 In every province and in every city, wherever the edict of the king went, there was joy and gladness among the Jews, with feasting and celebrating. And many people of other nationalities became Jews because fear of the Jews had seized them.

Esther 9:1 On the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, the edict commanded by the king was to be carried out. On this day the enemies of the Jews had hoped to overpower them, but now the tables were turned and the Jews got the upper hand over those who hated them.

Esther 9:2 The Jews assembled in their cities in all the provinces of King Xerxes to attack those seeking their destruction. No-one could stand against them, because the people of all the other nationalities were afraid of them.

Esther 9:3 And all the nobles of the provinces, the satraps, the governors and the king’s administrators helped the Jews, because fear of Mordecai had seized them.

Esther 9:4 Mordecai was prominent in the palace; his reputation spread throughout the provinces, and he became more and more powerful.

Esther 9:5 The Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying them, and they did what they pleased to those who hated them.

Esther 9:6 In the citadel of Susa, the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men.

Esther 9:7 They also killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,

Esther 9:8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,

Esther 9:9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai and Vaizatha,

Esther 9:10 the ten sons of Haman son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews. But they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

Esther 9:11 The number of those slain in the citadel of Susa was reported to the king that same day.

Esther 9:12 The king said to Queen Esther, “The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men and the ten sons of Haman in the citadel of Susa. What have they done in the rest of the king’s provinces? Now what is your petition? It will be given you. What is your request? It will also be granted.”

Esther 9:13 “If it pleases the king,” Esther answered, “give the Jews in Susa permission to carry out this day’s edict tomorrow also, and let Haman’s ten sons be hanged on gallows.”

Esther 9:14 So the king commanded that this be done. An edict was issued in Susa, and they hanged the ten sons of Haman.

Esther 9:15 The Jews in Susa came together on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar, and they put to death in Susa three hundred men, but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

Esther 9:16 Meanwhile, the remainder of the Jews who were in the king’s provinces also assembled to protect themselves and get relief from their enemies. They killed seventy-five thousand of them but did not lay their hands on the plunder.

Esther 9:17 This happened on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, and on the fourteenth they rested and made it a day of feasting and joy.

Esther 9:18 The Jews in Susa, however, had assembled on the thirteenth and fourteenth, and then on the fifteenth they rested and made it a day of feasting and joy.

Esther 9:19 That is why rural Jews—those living in villages—observe the fourteenth of the month of Adar as a day of joy and feasting, a day for giving presents to each other.

Esther 9:20 Mordecai recorded these events, and he sent letters to all the Jews throughout the provinces of King Xerxes, near and far,

Esther 9:21 to have them celebrate annually the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar

Esther 9:22 as the time when the Jews got relief from their enemies, and as the month when their sorrow was turned into joy and their mourning into a day of celebration. He wrote to them to observe the days as days of feasting and joy and giving presents of food to one another and gifts to the poor.

Esther 9:23 So the Jews agreed to continue the celebration they had begun, doing what Mordecai had written to them.

Esther 9:24 For Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them and had cast the pur (that is, the lot) for their ruin and destruction.

Esther 9:25 But when the plot came to the king's attention, he issued written orders that the evil scheme Haman had devised against the Jews should come back on to his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

Esther 9:26 (Therefore these days were called Purim, from the word pur.) Because of everything written in this letter and because of what they had seen and what had happened to them,

Esther 9:27 the Jews took it upon themselves to establish the custom that they and their descendants and all who join them should without fail observe these two days every year, in the way prescribed and at the time appointed.

Esther 9:28 These days should be remembered and observed in every generation by every family, and in every province and in every city. And these days of Purim should never cease to be celebrated by the Jews, nor should the memory of them die out among their descendants.

Esther 9:29 So Queen Esther, daughter of Abihail, along with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter concerning Purim.

Esther 9:30 And Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews in the 127 provinces of the kingdom of Xerxes—words of goodwill and assurance—

Esther 9:31 to establish these days of Purim at their designated times, as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had decreed for them, and as they had established for themselves and their descendants in regard to their times of fasting and lamentation.

Esther 9:32 Esther's decree confirmed these regulations about Purim, and it was written down in the records.

Esther 10:1 King Xerxes imposed tribute throughout the empire, to its distant shores.

Esther 10:2 And all his acts of power and might, together with a full account of the greatness of Mordecai to which the king had raised him, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Media and Persia?

Esther 10:3 Mordecai the Jew was second in rank to King Xerxes, pre-eminent among the Jews, and held in high esteem by his many fellow Jews, because he worked for the good of his people and spoke up for the welfare of all the Jews.

Job

1:1 In the land of Uz there lived a man whose name was Job. This man was blameless and upright; he feared God and shunned evil.

Job 1:2 He had seven sons and three daughters,

Job 1:3 and he owned seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen and five hundred donkeys, and had a large number of servants. He was the greatest man among all the people of the East.

Job 1:4 His sons used to take turns holding feasts in their homes, and they would invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them.

Job 1:5 When a period of feasting had run its course, Job would send and have them purified. Early in the morning he would sacrifice a burnt offering for each of them, thinking, "Perhaps my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts." This was Job's regular custom.

Job 1:6 One day the angels came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came with them.

Job 1:7 The LORD said to Satan, "Where have you come from?" Satan answered the LORD, "From roaming through the earth and going to and fro in it."

Job 1:8 Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? There is no-one on earth like him; he is blameless and upright, a man who fears God and shuns evil."

Job 1:9 "Does Job fear God for nothing?" Satan replied.

Job 1:10 "Have you not put a hedge around him and his household and everything he has? You have blessed the work of his hands, so that his flocks and herds are spread throughout the land.

Job 1:11 But stretch out your hand and strike everything he has, and he will surely curse you to your face.”

Job 1:12 The LORD said to Satan, “Very well, then, everything he has is in your hands, but on the man himself do not lay a finger.” Then Satan went out from the presence of the LORD.

Job 1:13 One day when Job’s sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine at the oldest brother’s house,

Job 1:14 a messenger came to Job and said, “The oxen were ploughing and the donkeys were grazing nearby,

Job 1:15 and the Sabeans attacked and carried them off. They put the servants to the sword, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

Job 1:16 While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, “The fire of God fell from the sky and burned up the sheep and the servants, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

Job 1:17 While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, “The Chaldeans formed three raiding parties and swept down on your camels and carried them off. They put the servants to the sword, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

Job 1:18 While he was still speaking, yet another messenger came and said, “Your sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine at the oldest brother’s house,

Job 1:19 when suddenly a mighty wind swept in from the desert and struck the four corners of the house. It collapsed on them and they are dead, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

Job 1:20 At this, Job got up and tore his robe and shaved his head. Then he fell to the ground in worship

Job 1:21 and said: “Naked I came from my mother’s womb, and naked I shall depart. The LORD gave and the LORD has taken away; may the name of the LORD be praised.”

Job 1:22 In all this, Job did not sin by charging God with wrongdoing.

Job 2:1 On another day the angels came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came with them to present himself before him.

Job 2:2 And the LORD said to Satan, “Where have you come from?” Satan answered the LORD, “From roaming through the earth and going to and fro in it.”

Job 2:3 Then the LORD said to Satan, “Have you considered my servant Job? There is no-one on earth like him; he is blameless and upright, a man who fears God and shuns evil. And he still maintains his integrity, though you incited me against him to ruin him without any reason.”

Job 2:4 “Skin for skin!” Satan replied. “A man will give all he has for his own life.

Job 2:5 But stretch out your hand and strike his flesh and bones, and he will surely curse you to your face.”

Job 2:6 The LORD said to Satan, “Very well, then, he is in your hands; but you must spare his life.”

Job 2:7 So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD and afflicted Job with painful sores from the soles of his feet to the top of his head.

Job 2:8 Then Job took a piece of broken pottery and scraped himself with it as he sat among the ashes.

Job 2:9 His wife said to him, “Are you still holding on to your integrity? Curse God and die!”

Job 2:10 He replied, “You are talking like a foolish woman. Shall we accept good from God, and not trouble?” In all this, Job did not sin in what he said.

Job 2:11 When Job’s three friends, Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite, heard about all the troubles that had come upon him, they set out from their homes and met together by agreement to go and sympathise with him and comfort him.

Job 2:12 When they saw him from a distance, they could hardly recognise him; they began to weep aloud, and they tore their robes and sprinkled dust on their heads.

Job 2:13 Then they sat on the ground with him for seven days and seven nights. No-one said a word to him, because they saw how great his suffering was.

Job 3:1 After this, Job opened his mouth and cursed the day of his birth.

Job 3:2 He said:

Job 3:3 “May the day of my birth perish, and the night it was said,`A boy is born!’

Job 3:4 That day—may it turn to darkness; may God above not care about it; may no light shine upon it.

Job 3:5 May darkness and deep shadow claim it once more; may a cloud settle over it; may blackness overwhelm its light.

Job 3:6 That night—may thick darkness seize it; may it not be included among the days of the year nor be entered in any of the months.

Job 3:7 May that night be barren; may no shout of joy be heard in it.

Job 3:8 May those who curse days curse that day, those who are ready to rouse Leviathan.

Job 3:9 May its morning stars become dark; may it wait for daylight in vain and not see the first rays of dawn, Job 3:10 for it did not shut the doors of the womb on me to hide trouble from my eyes.

Job 3:11 “Why did I not perish at birth, and die as I came from the womb?

Job 3:12 Why were there knees to receive me and breasts that I might be nursed?

Job 3:13 For now I would be lying down in peace; I would be asleep and at rest

Job 3:14 with kings and counsellors of the earth, who built for themselves places now lying in ruins,

Job 3:15 with rulers who had gold, who filled their houses with silver.

Job 3:16 Or why was I not hidden in the ground like a stillborn child, like an infant who never saw the light of day?

Job 3:17 There the wicked cease from turmoil, and there the weary are at rest.

Job 3:18 Captives also enjoy their ease; they no longer hear the slave driver’s shout.

Job 3:19 The small and the great are there, and the slave is freed from his master.

Job 3:20 “Why is light given to those in misery, and life to the bitter of soul,

Job 3:21 to those who long for death that does not come, who search for it more than for hidden treasure,

Job 3:22 who are filled with gladness and rejoice when they reach the grave?

Job 3:23 Why is life given to a man whose way is hidden, whom God has hedged in?

Job 3:24 For sighing comes to me instead of food; my groans pour out like water.

Job 3:25 What I feared has come upon me; what I dreaded has happened to me.

Job 3:26 I have no peace, no quietness; I have no rest, but only turmoil.”

Job 4:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

Job 4:2 “If someone ventures a word with you, will you be impatient? But who can keep from speaking?

Job 4:3 Think how you have instructed many, how you have strengthened feeble hands.

Job 4:4 Your words have supported those who stumbled; you have strengthened faltering knees.

Job 4:5 But now trouble comes to you, and you are discouraged; it strikes you, and you are dismayed.

Job 4:6 Should not your piety be your confidence and your blameless ways your hope?

Job 4:7 “Consider now: Who, being innocent, has ever perished? Where were the upright ever destroyed?

Job 4:8 As I have observed, those who plough evil and those who sow trouble reap it.

Job 4:9 At the breath of God they are destroyed; at the blast of his anger they perish.

Job 4:10 The lions may roar and growl, yet the teeth of the great lions are broken.

Job 4:11 The lion perishes for lack of prey, and the cubs of the lioness are scattered.

Job 4:12 “A word was secretly brought to me, my ears caught a whisper of it.

Job 4:13 Amid disquieting dreams in the night, when deep sleep falls on men,

Job 4:14 fear and trembling seized me and made all my bones shake.

Job 4:15 A spirit glided past my face, and the hair on my body stood on end.

Job 4:16 It stopped, but I could not tell what it was. A form stood before my eyes, and I heard a hushed voice:

Job 4:17 `Can a mortal be more righteous than God? Can a man be more pure than his Maker?

Job 4:18 If God places no trust in his servants, if he charges his angels with error,

Job 4:19 how much more those who live in houses of clay, whose foundations are in the dust, who are crushed more readily than a moth!

Job 4:20 Between dawn and dusk they are broken to pieces; unnoticed, they perish for ever.

Job 4:21 Are not the cords of their tent pulled up, so that they die without wisdom?’

Job 5:1 “Call if you will, but who will answer you? To which of the holy ones will you turn?

Job 5:2 Resentment kills a fool, and envy slays the simple.

Job 5:3 I myself have seen a fool taking root, but suddenly his house was cursed.

Job 5:4 His children are far from safety, crushed in court without a defender.

Job 5:5 The hungry consume his harvest, taking it even from among thorns, and the thirsty pant after his wealth.

Job 5:6 For hardship does not spring from the soil, nor does trouble sprout from the ground.

Job 5:7 Yet man is born to trouble as surely as sparks fly upward.

Job 5:8 “But if it were I, I would appeal to God; I would lay my cause before him.

Job 5:9 He performs wonders that cannot be fathomed, miracles that cannot be counted.

Job 5:10 He bestows rain on the earth; he sends water upon the countryside.

Job 5:11 The lowly he sets on high, and those who mourn are lifted to safety.

Job 5:12 He thwarts the plans of the crafty, so that their hands achieve no success.

Job 5:13 He catches the wise in their craftiness, and the schemes of the wily are swept away.

Job 5:14 Darkness comes upon them in the daytime; at noon they grope as in the night.

Job 5:15 He saves the needy from the sword in their mouth; he saves them from the clutches of the powerful.

Job 5:16 So the poor have hope, and injustice shuts its mouth.

Job 5:17 “Blessed is the man whom God corrects; so do not despise the discipline of the Almighty.

Job 5:18 For he wounds, but he also binds up; he injures, but his hands also heal.

Job 5:19 From six calamities he will rescue you; in seven no harm will befall you.

Job 5:20 In famine he will ransom you from death, and in battle from the stroke of the sword.

Job 5:21 You will be protected from the lash of the tongue, and need not fear when destruction comes.

Job 5:22 You will laugh at destruction and famine, and need not fear the beasts of the earth.

Job 5:23 For you will have a covenant with the stones of the field, and the wild animals will be at peace with you.

Job 5:24 You will know that your tent is secure; you will take stock of your property and find nothing missing.

Job 5:25 You will know that your children will be many, and your descendants like the grass of the earth.

Job 5:26 You will come to the grave in full vigour, like sheaves gathered in season.

Job 5:27 “We have examined this, and it is true. So hear it and apply it to yourself.”

Job 6:1 Then Job replied:

Job 6:2 “If only my anguish could be weighed and all my misery be placed on the scales!

Job 6:3 It would surely outweigh the sand of the seas—no wonder my words have been impetuous.

Job 6:4 The arrows of the Almighty are in me, my spirit drinks in their poison; God’s terrors are marshalled against me.

Job 6:5 Does a wild donkey bray when it has grass, or an ox bellow when it has fodder?

Job 6:6 Is tasteless food eaten without salt, or is there flavour in the white of an egg?

Job 6:7 I refuse to touch it; such food makes me ill.

Job 6:8 “Oh, that I might have my request, that God would grant what I hope for,

Job 6:9 that God would be willing to crush me, to let loose his hand and cut me off!

Job 6:10 Then I would still have this consolation—my joy in unrelenting pain—that I had not denied the words of the Holy One.

Job 6:11 “What strength do I have, that I should still hope? What prospects, that I should be patient?

Job 6:12 Do I have the strength of stone? Is my flesh bronze?

Job 6:13 Do I have any power to help myself, now that success has been driven from me?

Job 6:14 “A despairing man should have the devotion of his friends, even though he forsakes the fear of the Almighty.

Job 6:15 But my brothers are as undependable as intermittent streams, as the streams that overflow

Job 6:16 when darkened by thawing ice and swollen with melting snow,

Job 6:17 but that cease to flow in the dry season, and in the heat vanish from their channels.

Job 6:18 Caravans turn aside from their routes; they go up into the wasteland and perish.

Job 6:19 The caravans of Tema look for water, the travelling merchants of Sheba look in hope.

Job 6:20 They are distressed, because they had been confident; they arrive there, only to be disappointed.

Job 6:21 Now you too have proved to be of no help; you see something dreadful and are afraid.

Job 6:22 Have I ever said,`Give something on my behalf, pay a ransom for me from your wealth,

Job 6:23 deliver me from the hand of the enemy, ransom me from the clutches of the ruthless'?

Job 6:24 "Teach me, and I will be quiet; show me where I have been wrong.

Job 6:25 How painful are honest words! But what do your arguments prove?

Job 6:26 Do you mean to correct what I say, and treat the words of a despairing man as wind?

Job 6:27 You would even cast lots for the fatherless and barter away your friend.

Job 6:28 "But now be so kind as to look at me. Would I lie to your face?

Job 6:29 Relent, do not be unjust; reconsider, for my integrity is at stake.

Job 6:30 Is there any wickedness on my lips? Can my mouth not discern malice?

Job 7:1 "Does not man have hard service on earth? Are not his days like those of a hired man?

Job 7:2 Like a slave longing for the evening shadows, or a hired man waiting eagerly for his wages,

Job 7:3 so I have been allotted months of futility, and nights of misery have been assigned to me.

Job 7:4 When I lie down I think,`How long before I get up?' The night drags on, and I toss till dawn.

Job 7:5 My body is clothed with worms and scabs, my skin is broken and festering.

Job 7:6 "My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and they come to an end without hope.

Job 7:7 Remember, O God, that my life is but a breath; my eyes will never see happiness again.

Job 7:8 The eye that now sees me will see me no longer; you will look for me, but I will be no more.

Job 7:9 As a cloud vanishes and is gone, so he who goes down to the grave does not return.

Job 7:10 He will never come to his house again; his place will know him no more.

Job 7:11 “Therefore I will not keep silent; I will speak out in the anguish of my spirit, I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

Job 7:12 Am I the sea, or the monster of the deep, that you put me under guard?

Job 7:13 When I think my bed will comfort me and my couch will ease my complaint,

Job 7:14 even then you frighten me with dreams and terrify me with visions,

Job 7:15 so that I prefer strangling and death, rather than this body of mine.

Job 7:16 I despise my life; I would not live for ever. Let me alone; my days have no meaning.

Job 7:17 “What is man that you make so much of him, that you give him so much attention,

Job 7:18 that you examine him every morning and test him every moment?

Job 7:19 Will you never look away from me, or let me alone even for an instant?

Job 7:20 If I have sinned, what have I done to you, O watcher of men? Why have you made me your target? Have I become a burden to you?

Job 7:21 Why do you not pardon my offences and forgive my sins? For I shall soon lie down in the dust; you will search for me, but I shall be no more.”

Job 8:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

Job 8:2 “How long will you say such things? Your words are a blustering wind.

Job 8:3 Does God pervert justice? Does the Almighty pervert what is right?

Job 8:4 When your children sinned against him, he gave them over to the penalty of their sin.

Job 8:5 But if you will look to God and plead with the Almighty,

Job 8:6 if you are pure and upright, even now he will rouse himself on your behalf and restore you to your rightful place.

Job 8:7 Your beginnings will seem humble, so prosperous will your future be.

Job 8:8 “Ask the former generations and find out what their fathers learned,

Job 8:9 for we were born only yesterday and know nothing, and our days on earth are but a shadow.

Job 8:10 Will they not instruct you and tell you? Will they not bring forth words from their understanding?

Job 8:11 Can papyrus grow tall where there is no marsh? Can reeds thrive without water?

Job 8:12 While still growing and uncut, they wither more quickly than grass.

Job 8:13 Such is the destiny of all who forget God; so perishes the hope of the godless.

Job 8:14 What he trusts in is fragile; what he relies on is a spider’s web.

Job 8:15 He leans on his web, but it gives way; he clings to it, but it does not hold.

Job 8:16 He is like a well-watered plant in the sunshine, spreading its shoots over the garden;

Job 8:17 it entwines its roots around a pile of rocks and looks for a place among the stones.

Job 8:18 But when it is torn from its spot, that place disowns it and says,`I never saw you.’

Job 8:19 Surely its life withers away, and from the soil other plants grow.

Job 8:20 “Surely God does not reject a blameless man or strengthen the hands of evildoers.

Job 8:21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with shouts of joy.

Job 8:22 Your enemies will be clothed in shame, and the tents of the wicked will be no more.”

Job 9:1 Then Job replied:

Job 9:2 “Indeed, I know that this is true. But how can a mortal be righteous before God?

Job 9:3 Though one wished to dispute with him, he could not answer him one time out of a thousand.

Job 9:4 His wisdom is profound, his power is vast. Who has resisted him and come out unscathed?

Job 9:5 He moves mountains without their knowing it and overturns them in his anger.

Job 9:6 He shakes the earth from its place and makes its pillars tremble.

Job 9:7 He speaks to the sun and it does not shine; he seals off the light of the stars.

Job 9:8 He alone stretches out the heavens and treads on the waves of the sea.

Job 9:9 He is the Maker of the Bear and Orion, the Pleiades and the constellations of the south.

Job 9:10 He performs wonders that cannot be fathomed, miracles that cannot be counted.

Job 9:11 When he passes me, I cannot see him; when he goes by, I cannot perceive him.

Job 9:12 If he snatches away, who can stop him? Who can say to him,`What are you doing?'

Job 9:13 God does not restrain his anger; even the cohorts of Rahab cowered at his feet.

Job 9:14 "How then can I dispute with him? How can I find words to argue with him?

Job 9:15 Though I were innocent, I could not answer him; I could only plead with my Judge for mercy.

Job 9:16 Even if I summoned him and he responded, I do not believe he would give me a hearing.

Job 9:17 He would crush me with a storm and multiply my wounds for no reason.

Job 9:18 He would not let me regain my breath but would overwhelm me with misery.

Job 9:19 If it is a matter of strength, he is mighty! And if it is a matter of justice, who will summon him?

Job 9:20 Even if I were innocent, my mouth would condemn me; if I were blameless, it would pronounce me guilty.

Job 9:21 "Although I am blameless, I have no concern for myself; I despise my own life.

Job 9:22 It is all the same; that is why I say,`He destroys both the blameless and the wicked.'

Job 9:23 When a scourge brings sudden death, he mocks the despair of the innocent.

Job 9:24 When a land falls into the hands of the wicked, he blindfolds its judges. If it is not he, then who is it?

Job 9:25 "My days are swifter than a runner; they fly away without a glimpse of joy.

Job 9:26 They skim past like boats of papyrus, like eagles swooping down on their prey.

Job 9:27 If I say,`I will forget my complaint, I will change my expression, and smile,'

Job 9:28 I still dread all my sufferings, for I know you will not hold me innocent.

Job 9:29 Since I am already found guilty, why should I struggle in vain?

Job 9:30 Even if I washed myself with soap and my hands with washing soda,

Job 9:31 you would plunge me into a slime pit so that even my clothes would detest me.

Job 9:32 “He is not a man like me that I might answer him, that we might confront each other in court.

Job 9:33 If only there were someone to arbitrate between us, to lay his hand upon us both,

Job 9:34 someone to remove God’s rod from me, so that his terror would frighten me no more.

Job 9:35 Then I would speak up without fear of him, but as it now stands with me, I cannot.

Job 10:1 “I loathe my very life; therefore I will give free rein to my complaint and speak out in the bitterness of my soul.

Job 10:2 I will say to God: Do not condemn me, but tell me what charges you have against me.

Job 10:3 Does it please you to oppress me, to spurn the work of your hands, while you smile on the schemes of the wicked?

Job 10:4 Do you have eyes of flesh? Do you see as a mortal sees?

Job 10:5 Are your days like those of a mortal or your years like those of a man,

Job 10:6 that you must search out my faults and probe after my sin—

Job 10:7 though you know that I am not guilty and that no-one can rescue me from your hand?

Job 10:8 “Your hands shaped me and made me. Will you now turn and destroy me?

Job 10:9 Remember that you moulded me like clay. Will you now turn me to dust again?

Job 10:10 Did you not pour me out like milk and curdle me like cheese,

Job 10:11 clothe me with skin and flesh and knit me together with bones and sinews?

Job 10:12 You gave me life and showed me kindness, and in your providence watched over my spirit.

Job 10:13 “But this is what you concealed in your heart, and I know that this was in your mind:

Job 10:14 If I sinned, you would be watching me and would not let my offence go unpunished.

Job 10:15 If I am guilty—woe to me! Even if I am innocent, I cannot lift my head, for I am full of shame and drowned in my affliction.

Job 10:16 If I hold my head high, you stalk me like a lion and again display your awesome power against me.

Job 10:17 You bring new witnesses against me and increase your anger towards me; your forces come against me wave upon wave.

Job 10:18 “Why then did you bring me out of the womb? I wish I had died before any eye saw me.

Job 10:19 If only I had never come into being, or had been carried straight from the womb to the grave!

Job 10:20 Are not my few days almost over? Turn away from me so that I can have a moment’s joy

Job 10:21 before I go to the place of no return, to the land of gloom and deep shadow,

Job 10:22 to the land of deepest night, of deep shadow and disorder, where even the light is like darkness.”

Job 11:1 Then Zophar the Naamathite replied:

Job 11:2 “Are all these words to go unanswered? Is this talker to be vindicated?

Job 11:3 Will your idle talk reduce men to silence? Will no-one rebuke you when you mock?

Job 11:4 You say to God,`My beliefs are flawless and I am pure in your sight.’

Job 11:5 Oh, how I wish that God would speak, that he would open his lips against you

Job 11:6 and disclose to you the secrets of wisdom, for true wisdom has two sides. Know this: God has even forgotten some of your sin.

Job 11:7 “Can you fathom the mysteries of God? Can you probe the limits of the Almighty?

Job 11:8 They are higher than the heavens—what can you do? They are deeper than the depths of the grave— what can you know?

Job 11:9 Their measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sea.

Job 11:10 “If he comes along and confines you in prison and convenes a court, who can oppose him?

Job 11:11 Surely he recognises deceitful men; and when he sees evil, does he not take note?

Job 11:12 But a witless man can no more become wise than a wild donkey’s colt can be born a man.

Job 11:13 “Yet if you devote your heart to him and stretch out your hands to him, Job 11:14 if you put away the sin that is in your hand and allow no evil to dwell in your tent,

Job 11:15 then you will lift up your face without shame; you will stand firm and without fear.

Job 11:16 You will surely forget your trouble, recalling it only as waters gone by.

Job 11:17 Life will be brighter than noonday, and darkness will become like morning.

Job 11:18 You will be secure, because there is hope; you will look about you and take your rest in safety.

Job 11:19 You will lie down, with no-one to make you afraid, and many will court your favour.

Job 11:20 But the eyes of the wicked will fail, and escape will elude them; their hope will become a dying gasp."

Job 12:1 Then Job replied:

Job 12:2 "Doubtless you are the people, and wisdom will die with you!

Job 12:3 But I have a mind as well as you; I am not inferior to you. Who does not know all these things?

Job 12:4 "I have become a laughing-stock to my friends, though I called upon God and he answered—a mere laughing-stock, though righteous and blameless!

Job 12:5 Men at ease have contempt for misfortune as the fate of those whose feet are slipping.

Job 12:6 The tents of marauders are undisturbed, and those who provoke God are secure—those who carry their god in their hands.

Job 12:7 "But ask the animals, and they will teach you, or the birds of the air, and they will tell you;

Job 12:8 or speak to the earth, and it will teach you, or let the fish of the sea inform you.

Job 12:9 Which of all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this?

Job 12:10 In his hand is the life of every creature and the breath of all mankind.

Job 12:11 Does not the ear test words as the tongue tastes food?

Job 12:12 Is not wisdom found among the aged? Does not long life bring understanding?

Job 12:13 "To God belong wisdom and power; counsel and understanding are his.

Job 12:14 What he tears down cannot be rebuilt; the man he imprisons cannot be released.

Job 12:15 If he holds back the waters, there is drought; if he lets them loose, they devastate the land.

Job 12:16 To him belong strength and victory; both deceived and deceiver are his.

Job 12:17 He leads counsellors away stripped and makes fools of judges.

Job 12:18 He takes off the shackles put on by kings and ties a loincloth round their waist.

Job 12:19 He leads priests away stripped and overthrows men long established.

Job 12:20 He silences the lips of trusted advisers and takes away the discernment of elders.

Job 12:21 He pours contempt on nobles and disarms the mighty.

Job 12:22 He reveals the deep things of darkness and brings deep shadows into the light.

Job 12:23 He makes nations great, and destroys them; he enlarges nations, and disperses them.

Job 12:24 He deprives the leaders of the earth of their reason; he sends them wandering through a trackless waste.

Job 12:25 They grope in darkness with no light; he makes them stagger like drunkards.

Job 13:1 “My eyes have seen all this, my ears have heard and understood it.

Job 13:2 What you know, I also know; I am not inferior to you.

Job 13:3 But I desire to speak to the Almighty and to argue my case with God.

Job 13:4 You, however, smear me with lies; you are worthless physicians, all of you!

Job 13:5 If only you would be altogether silent! For you, that would be wisdom.

Job 13:6 Hear now my argument; listen to the plea of my lips.

Job 13:7 Will you speak wickedly on God’s behalf? Will you speak deceitfully for him?

Job 13:8 Will you show him partiality? Will you argue the case for God?

Job 13:9 Would it turn out well if he examined you? Could you deceive him as you might deceive men?

Job 13:10 He would surely rebuke you if you secretly showed partiality.

Job 13:11 Would not his splendour terrify you? Would not the dread of him fall on you?

Job 13:12 Your maxims are proverbs of ashes; your defences are defences of clay.

Job 13:13 “Keep silent and let me speak; then let come to me what may.

Job 13:14 Why do I put myself in jeopardy and take my life in my hands?

Job 13:15 Though he slay me, yet will I hope in him; I will surely defend my ways to his face.

Job 13:16 Indeed, this will turn out for my deliverance, for no godless man would dare come before him!

Job 13:17 Listen carefully to my words; let your ears take in what I say.

Job 13:18 Now that I have prepared my case, I know I will be vindicated.

Job 13:19 Can anyone bring charges against me? If so, I will be silent and die.

Job 13:20 “Only grant me these two things, O God, and then I will not hide from you:

Job 13:21 Withdraw your hand far from me, and stop frightening me with your terrors.

Job 13:22 Then summon me and I will answer, or let me speak, and you reply.

Job 13:23 How many wrongs and sins have I committed? Show me my offence and my sin.

Job 13:24 Why do you hide your face and consider me your enemy?

Job 13:25 Will you torment a wind-blown leaf? Will you chase after dry chaff?

Job 13:26 For you write down bitter things against me and make me inherit the sins of my youth.

Job 13:27 You fasten my feet in shackles; you keep close watch on all my paths by putting marks on the soles of my feet.

Job 13:28 “So man wastes away like something rotten, like a garment eaten by moths.

Job 14:1 “Man born of woman is of few days and full of trouble.

Job 14:2 He springs up like a flower and withers away; like a fleeting shadow, he does not endure.

Job 14:3 Do you fix your eye on such a one? Will you bring him before you for judgment?

Job 14:4 Who can bring what is pure from the impure? No-one!

Job 14:5 Man’s days are determined; you have decreed the number of his months and have set limits he cannot exceed.

Job 14:6 So look away from him and let him alone, till he has put in his time like a hired man.

Job 14:7 “At least there is hope for a tree: If it is cut down, it will sprout again, and its new shoots will not fail.

Job 14:8 Its roots may grow old in the ground and its stump die in the soil,

Job 14:9 yet at the scent of water it will bud and put forth shoots like a plant.

Job 14:10 But man dies and is laid low; he breathes his last and is no more.

Job 14:11 As water disappears from the sea or a river bed becomes parched and dry,

Job 14:12 so man lies down and does not rise; till the heavens are no more, men will not awake or be roused from their sleep.

Job 14:13 “If only you would hide me in the grave and conceal me till your anger has passed! If only you would set me a time and then remember me!

Job 14:14 If a man dies, will he live again? All the days of my hard service I will wait for my renewal to come.

Job 14:15 You will call and I will answer you; you will long for the creature your hands have made.

Job 14:16 Surely then you will count my steps but not keep track of my sin.

Job 14:17 My offences will be sealed up in a bag; you will cover over my sin.

Job 14:18 “But as a mountain erodes and crumbles and as a rock is moved from its place,

Job 14:19 as water wears away stones and torrents wash away the soil, so you destroy man’s hope.

Job 14:20 You overpower him once for all, and he is gone; you change his countenance and send him away.

Job 14:21 If his sons are honoured, he does not know it; if they are brought low, he does not see it.

Job 14:22 He feels but the pain of his own body and mourns only for himself.”

Job 15:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

Job 15:2 “Would a wise man answer with empty notions or fill his belly with the hot east wind?

Job 15:3 Would he argue with useless words, with speeches that have no value?

Job 15:4 But you even undermine piety and hinder devotion to God.

Job 15:5 Your sin prompts your mouth; you adopt the tongue of the crafty.

Job 15:6 Your own mouth condemns you, not mine; your own lips testify against you.

Job 15:7 “Are you the first man ever born? Were you brought forth before the hills?

Job 15:8 Do you listen in on God’s council? Do you limit wisdom to yourself?

Job 15:9 What do you know that we do not know? What insights do you have that we do not have?

Job 15:10 The grey-haired and the aged are on our side, men even older than your father.

Job 15:11 Are God’s consolations not enough for you, words spoken gently to you?

Job 15:12 Why has your heart carried you away, and why do your eyes flash,

Job 15:13 so that you vent your rage against God and pour out such words from your mouth?

Job 15:14 “What is man, that he could be pure, or one born of woman, that he could be righteous?

Job 15:15 If God places no trust in his holy ones, if even the heavens are not pure in his eyes,

Job 15:16 how much less man, who is vile and corrupt, who drinks up evil like water!

Job 15:17 “Listen to me and I will explain to you; let me tell you what I have seen,

Job 15:18 what wise men have declared, hiding nothing received from their fathers

Job 15:19 (to whom alone the land was given when no alien passed among them):

Job 15:20 All his days the wicked man suffers torment, the ruthless through all the years stored up for him.

Job 15:21 Terrifying sounds fill his ears; when all seems well, marauders attack him.

Job 15:22 He despairs of escaping the darkness; he is marked for the sword.

Job 15:23 He wanders about—food for vultures; he knows the day of darkness is at hand.

Job 15:24 Distress and anguish fill him with terror; they overwhelm him, like a king poised to attack, Job 15:25 because he shakes his fist at God and vaunts himself against the Almighty,

Job 15:26 defiantly charging against him with a thick, strong shield.

Job 15:27 “Though his face is covered with fat and his waist bulges with flesh,

Job 15:28 he will inhabit ruined towns and houses where no-one lives, houses crumbling to rubble.

Job 15:29 He will no longer be rich and his wealth will not endure, nor will his possessions spread over the land.

Job 15:30 He will not escape the darkness; a flame will wither his shoots, and the breath of God’s mouth will carry him away.

Job 15:31 Let him not deceive himself by trusting what is worthless, for he will get nothing in return.

Job 15:32 Before his time he will be paid in full, and his branches will not flourish.

Job 15:33 He will be like a vine stripped of its unripe grapes, like an olive tree shedding its blossoms.

Job 15:34 For the company of the godless will be barren, and fire will consume the tents of those who love bribes.

Job 15:35 They conceive trouble and give birth to evil; their womb fashions deceit.”

Job 16:1 Then Job replied:

Job 16:2 “I have heard many things like these; miserable comforters are you all!

Job 16:3 Will your long-winded speeches never end? What ails you that you keep on arguing?

Job 16:4 I also could speak like you, if you were in my place; I could make fine speeches against you and shake my head at you.

Job 16:5 But my mouth would encourage you; comfort from my lips would bring you relief.

Job 16:6 “Yet if I speak, my pain is not relieved; and if I refrain, it does not go away.

Job 16:7 Surely, O God, you have worn me out; you have devastated my entire household.

Job 16:8 You have bound me—and it has become a witness; my gauntness rises up and testifies against me.

Job 16:9 God assails me and tears me in his anger and gnashes his teeth at me; my opponent fastens on me his piercing eyes.

Job 16:10 Men open their mouths to jeer at me; they strike my cheek in scorn and unite together against me.

Job 16:11 God has turned me over to evil men and thrown me into the clutches of the wicked.

Job 16:12 All was well with me, but he shattered me; he seized me by the neck and crushed me. He has made me his target;

Job 16:13 his archers surround me. Without pity, he pierces my kidneys and spills my gall on the ground.

Job 16:14 Again and again he bursts upon me; he rushes at me like a warrior.

Job 16:15 “I have sewed sackcloth over my skin and buried my brow in the dust.

Job 16:16 My face is red with weeping, deep shadows ring my eyes;

Job 16:17 yet my hands have been free of violence and my prayer is pure.

Job 16:18 “O earth, do not cover my blood; may my cry never be laid to rest!

Job 16:19 Even now my witness is in heaven; my advocate is on high.

Job 16:20 My intercessor is my friend as my eyes pour out tears to God;

Job 16:21 on behalf of a man he pleads with God as a man pleads for his friend.

Job 16:22 “Only a few years will pass before I go on the journey of no return.

Job 17:1 My spirit is broken, my days are cut short, the grave awaits me.

Job 17:2 Surely mockers surround me; my eyes must dwell on their hostility.

Job 17:3 “Give me, O God, the pledge you demand. Who else will put up security for me?

Job 17:4 You have closed their minds to understanding; therefore you will not let them triumph.

Job 17:5 If a man denounces his friends for reward, the eyes of his children will fail.

Job 17:6 “God has made me a byword to everyone, a man in whose face people spit.

Job 17:7 My eyes have grown dim with grief; my whole frame is but a shadow.

Job 17:8 Upright men are appalled at this; the innocent are aroused against the ungodly.

Job 17:9 Nevertheless, the righteous will hold to their ways, and those with clean hands will grow stronger.

Job 17:10 “But come on, all of you, try again! I will not find a wise man among you.

Job 17:11 My days have passed, my plans are shattered, and so are the desires of my heart.

Job 17:12 These men turn night into day; in the face of darkness they say,`Light is near.’

Job 17:13 If the only home I hope for is the grave, if I spread out my bed in darkness,

Job 17:14 if I say to corruption,`You are my father,’ and to the worm,`My mother’ or`My sister’,

Job 17:15 where then is my hope? Who can see any hope for me?

Job 17:16 Will it go down to the gates of death? Will we descend together into the dust?”

Job 18:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

Job 18:2 “When will you end these speeches? Be sensible, and then we can talk.

Job 18:3 Why are we regarded as cattle and considered stupid in your sight?

Job 18:4 You who tear yourself to pieces in your anger, is the earth to be abandoned for your sake? Or must the rocks be moved from their place?

Job 18:5 “The lamp of the wicked is snuffed out; the flame of his fire stops burning.

Job 18:6 The light in his tent becomes dark; the lamp beside him goes out.

Job 18:7 The vigour of his step is weakened; his own schemes throw him down.

Job 18:8 His feet thrust him into a net and he wanders into its mesh.

Job 18:9 A trap seizes him by the heel; a snare holds him fast.

Job 18:10 A noose is hidden for him on the ground; a trap lies in his path.

Job 18:11 Terrors startle him on every side and dog his every step.

Job 18:12 Calamity is hungry for him; disaster is ready for him when he falls.

Job 18:13 It eats away parts of his skin; death’s firstborn devours his limbs.

Job 18:14 He is torn from the security of his tent and marched off to the king of terrors.

Job 18:15 Fire resides in his tent; burning sulphur is scattered over his dwelling.

Job 18:16 His roots dry up below and his branches wither above.

Job 18:17 The memory of him perishes from the earth; he has no name in the land.

Job 18:18 He is driven from light into darkness and is banished from the world.

Job 18:19 He has no offspring or descendants among his people, no survivor where once he lived.

Job 18:20 Men of the west are appalled at his fate; men of the east are seized with horror.

Job 18:21 Surely such is the dwelling of an evil man; such is the place of one who knows not God."

Job 19:1 Then Job replied:

Job 19:2 "How long will you torment me and crush me with words?

Job 19:3 Ten times now you have reproached me; shamelessly you attack me.

Job 19:4 If it is true that I have gone astray, my error remains my concern alone.

Job 19:5 If indeed you would exalt yourselves above me and use my humiliation against me,

Job 19:6 then know that God has wronged me and drawn his net around me.

Job 19:7 "Though I cry,`I've been wronged!' I get no response; though I call for help, there is no justice.

Job 19:8 He has blocked my way so that I cannot pass; he has shrouded my paths in darkness.

Job 19:9 He has stripped me of my honour and removed the crown from my head.

Job 19:10 He tears me down on every side till I am gone; he uproots my hope like a tree.

Job 19:11 His anger burns against me; he counts me among his enemies.

Job 19:12 His troops advance in force; they build a siege ramp against me and encamp around my tent.

Job 19:13 "He has alienated my brothers from me; my acquaintances are completely estranged from me.

Job 19:14 My kinsmen have gone away; my friends have forgotten me.

Job 19:15 My guests and my maidservants count me a stranger; they look upon me as an alien.

Job 19:16 I summon my servant, but he does not answer, though I beg him with my own mouth.

Job 19:17 My breath is offensive to my wife; I am loathsome to my own brothers.

Job 19:18 Even the little boys scorn me; when I appear, they ridicule me.

Job 19:19 All my intimate friends detest me; those I love have turned against me.

Job 19:20 I am nothing but skin and bones; I have escaped by only the skin of my teeth.

Job 19:21 “Have pity on me, my friends, have pity, for the hand of God has struck me.

Job 19:22 Why do you pursue me as God does? Will you never get enough of my flesh?

Job 19:23 “Oh, that my words were recorded, that they were written on a scroll,

Job 19:24 that they were inscribed with an iron tool on lead, or engraved in rock for ever!

Job 19:25 I know that my Redeemer lives, and that in the end he will stand upon the earth.

Job 19:26 And after my skin has been destroyed, yet in my flesh I will see God;

Job 19:27 I myself will see him with my own eyes—I, and not another. How my heart yearns within me!

Job 19:28 “If you say,`How we will hound him, since the root of the trouble lies in him,’

Job 19:29 you should fear the sword yourselves; for wrath will bring punishment by the sword, and then you will know that there is judgment.”

Job 20:1 Then Zophar the Naamathite replied:

Job 20:2 “My troubled thoughts prompt me to answer because I am greatly disturbed.

Job 20:3 I hear a rebuke that dishonours me, and my understanding inspires me to reply.

Job 20:4 “Surely you know how it has been from of old, ever since man was placed on the earth,

Job 20:5 that the mirth of the wicked is brief, the joy of the godless lasts but a moment.

Job 20:6 Though his pride reaches to the heavens and his head touches the clouds,

Job 20:7 he will perish for ever, like his own dung; those who have seen him will say,`Where is he?’

Job 20:8 Like a dream he flies away, no more to be found, banished like a vision of the night.

Job 20:9 The eye that saw him will not see him again; his place will look on him no more.

Job 20:10 His children must make amends to the poor; his own hands must give back his wealth.

Job 20:11 The youthful vigour that fills his bones will lie with him in the dust.

Job 20:12 “Though evil is sweet in his mouth and he hides it under his tongue,

Job 20:13 though he cannot bear to let it go and keeps it in his mouth,

Job 20:14 yet his food will turn sour in his stomach; it will become the venom of serpents within him.

Job 20:15 He will spit out the riches he swallowed; God will make his stomach vomit them up.

Job 20:16 He will suck the poison of serpents; the fangs of an adder will kill him.

Job 20:17 He will not enjoy the streams, the rivers flowing with honey and cream.

Job 20:18 What he toiled for he must give back uneaten; he will not enjoy the profit from his trading.

Job 20:19 For he has oppressed the poor and left them destitute; he has seized houses he did not build.

Job 20:20 “Surely he will have no respite from his craving; he cannot save himself by his treasure.

Job 20:21 Nothing is left for him to devour; his prosperity will not endure.

Job 20:22 In the midst of his plenty, distress will overtake him; the full force of misery will come upon him.

Job 20:23 When he has filled his belly, God will vent his burning anger against him and rain down his blows upon him.

Job 20:24 Though he flees from an iron weapon, a bronze-tipped arrow pierces him.

Job 20:25 He pulls it out of his back, the gleaming point out of his liver. Terrors will come over him;

Job 20:26 total darkness lies in wait for his treasures. A fire unfanned will consume him and devour what is left in his tent.

Job 20:27 The heavens will expose his guilt; the earth will rise up against him.

Job 20:28 A flood will carry off his house, rushing waters on the day of God's wrath.

Job 20:29 Such is the fate God allots the wicked, the heritage appointed for them by God."

Job 21:1 Then Job replied:

Job 21:2 "Listen carefully to my words; let this be the consolation you give me.

Job 21:3 Bear with me while I speak, and after I have spoken, mock on.

Job 21:4 "Is my complaint directed to man? Why should I not be impatient?

Job 21:5 Look at me and be astonished; clap your hand over your mouth.

Job 21:6 When I think about this, I am terrified; trembling seizes my body.

Job 21:7 Why do the wicked live on, growing old and increasing in power?

Job 21:8 They see their children established around them, their offspring before their eyes.

Job 21:9 Their homes are safe and free from fear; the rod of God is not upon them.

Job 21:10 Their bulls never fail to breed; their cows calve and do not miscarry.

Job 21:11 They send forth their children as a flock; their little ones dance about.

Job 21:12 They sing to the music of tambourine and harp; they make merry to the sound of the flute.

Job 21:13 They spend their years in prosperity and go down to the grave in peace.

Job 21:14 Yet they say to God,`Leave us alone! We have no desire to know your ways.

Job 21:15 Who is the Almighty, that we should serve him? What would we gain by praying to him?'

Job 21:16 But their prosperity is not in their own hands, so I stand aloof from the counsel of the wicked.

Job 21:17 "Yet how often is the lamp of the wicked snuffed out? How often does calamity come upon them, the fate God allots in his anger?

Job 21:18 How often are they like straw before the wind, like chaff swept away by a gale?

Job 21:19 [It is said,]`God stores up a man's punishment for his sons.' Let him repay the man himself, so that he will know it!

Job 21:20 Let his own eyes see his destruction; let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

Job 21:21 For what does he care about the family he leaves behind when his allotted months come to an end?

Job 21:22 “Can anyone teach knowledge to God, since he judges even the highest?

Job 21:23 One man dies in full vigour, completely secure and at ease,

Job 21:24 his body well nourished, his bones rich with marrow.

Job 21:25 Another man dies in bitterness of soul, never having enjoyed anything good.

Job 21:26 Side by side they lie in the dust, and worms cover them both.

Job 21:27 “I know full well what you are thinking, the schemes by which you would wrong me.

Job 21:28 You say,`Where now is the great man’s house, the tents where wicked men lived?’

Job 21:29 Have you never questioned those who travel? Have you paid no regard to their accounts—

Job 21:30 that the evil man is spared from the day of calamity, that he is delivered from the day of wrath?

Job 21:31 Who denounces his conduct to his face? Who repays him for what he has done?

Job 21:32 He is carried to the grave, and watch is kept over his tomb.

Job 21:33 The soil in the valley is sweet to him; all men follow after him, and a countless throng goes before him.

Job 21:34 “So how can you console me with your nonsense? Nothing is left of your answers but falsehood!”

Job 22:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

Job 22:2 “Can a man be of benefit to God? Can even a wise man benefit him?

Job 22:3 What pleasure would it give the Almighty if you were righteous? What would he gain if your ways were blameless?

Job 22:4 “Is it for your piety that he rebukes you and brings charges against you?

Job 22:5 Is not your wickedness great? Are not your sins endless?

Job 22:6 You demanded security from your brothers for no reason; you stripped men of their clothing, leaving them naked.

Job 22:7 You gave no water to the weary and you withheld food from the hungry, Job 22:8 though you were a powerful man, owning land—an honoured man, living on it.

Job 22:9 And you sent widows away empty-handed and broke the strength of the fatherless.

Job 22:10 That is why snares are all around you, why sudden peril terrifies you,

Job 22:11 why it is so dark that you cannot see, and why a flood of water covers you.

Job 22:12 “Is not God in the heights of heaven? And see how lofty are the highest stars!

Job 22:13 Yet you say,`What does God know? Does he judge through such darkness?

Job 22:14 Thick clouds veil him, so he does not see us as he goes about in the vaulted heavens.’

Job 22:15 Will you keep to the old path that evil men have trod?

Job 22:16 They were carried off before their time, their foundations washed away by a flood.

Job 22:17 They said to God,`Leave us alone! What can the Almighty do to us?’

Job 22:18 Yet it was he who filled their houses with good things, so I stand aloof from the counsel of the wicked.

Job 22:19 “The righteous see their ruin and rejoice; the innocent mock them, saying,

Job 22:20 `Surely our foes are destroyed, and fire devours their wealth.’

Job 22:21 “Submit to God and be at peace with him; in this way prosperity will come to you.

Job 22:22 Accept instruction from his mouth and lay up his words in your heart.

Job 22:23 If you return to the Almighty, you will be restored: If you remove wickedness far from your tent

Job 22:24 and assign your nuggets to the dust, your gold of Ophir to the rocks in the ravines,

Job 22:25 then the Almighty will be your gold, the choicest silver for you.

Job 22:26 Surely then you will find delight in the Almighty and will lift up your face to God.

Job 22:27 You will pray to him, and he will hear you, and you will fulfil your vows.

Job 22:28 What you decide on will be done, and light will shine on your ways.

Job 22:29 When men are brought low and you say,`Lift them up!' then he will save the downcast.

Job 22:30 He will deliver even one who is not innocent, who will be delivered through the cleanness of your hands."

Job 23:1 Then Job replied:

Job 23:2 "Even today my complaint is bitter; his hand is heavy in spite of my groaning.

Job 23:3 If only I knew where to find him; if only I could go to his dwelling!

Job 23:4 I would state my case before him and fill my mouth with arguments.

Job 23:5 I would find out what he would answer me, and consider what he would say.

Job 23:6 Would he oppose me with great power? No, he would not press charges against me.

Job 23:7 There an upright man could present his case before him, and I would be delivered for ever from my judge.

Job 23:8 "But if I go to the east, he is not there; if I go to the west, I do not find him.

Job 23:9 When he is at work in the north, I do not see him; when he turns to the south, I catch no glimpse of him.

Job 23:10 But he knows the way that I take; when he has tested me, I shall come forth as gold.

Job 23:11 My feet have closely followed his steps; I have kept to his way without turning aside.

Job 23:12 I have not departed from the commands of his lips; I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my daily bread.

Job 23:13 "But he stands alone, and who can oppose him? He does whatever he pleases.

Job 23:14 He carries out his decree against me, and many such plans he still has in store.

Job 23:15 That is why I am terrified before him; when I think of all this, I fear him.

Job 23:16 God has made my heart faint; the Almighty has terrified me.

Job 23:17 Yet I am not silenced by the darkness, by the thick darkness that covers my face.

Job 24:1 "Why does the Almighty not set times for judgment? Why must those who know him look in vain for such days?

Job 24:2 Men move boundary stones; they pasture flocks they have stolen.

Job 24:3 They drive away the orphan’s donkey and take the widow’s ox in pledge.

Job 24:4 They thrust the needy from the path and force all the poor of the land into hiding.

Job 24:5 Like wild donkeys in the desert, the poor go about their labour of foraging food; the wasteland provides food for their children.

Job 24:6 They gather fodder in the fields and glean in the vineyards of the wicked.

Job 24:7 Lacking clothes, they spend the night naked; they have nothing to cover themselves in the cold.

Job 24:8 They are drenched by mountain rains and hug the rocks for lack of shelter.

Job 24:9 The fatherless child is snatched from the breast; the infant of the poor is seized for a debt.

Job 24:10 Lacking clothes, they go about naked; they carry the sheaves, but still go hungry.

Job 24:11 They crush olives among the terraces; they tread the winepresses, yet suffer thirst.

Job 24:12 The groans of the dying rise from the city, and the souls of the wounded cry out for help. But God charges no-one with wrongdoing.

Job 24:13 “There are those who rebel against the light, who do not know its ways or stay in its paths.

Job 24:14 When daylight is gone, the murderer rises up and kills the poor and needy; in the night he steals forth like a thief.

Job 24:15 The eye of the adulterer watches for dusk; he thinks,`No eye will see me,’ and he keeps his face concealed.

Job 24:16 In the dark, men break into houses, but by day they shut themselves in; they want nothing to do with the light.

Job 24:17 For all of them, deep darkness is their morning; they make friends with the terrors of darkness.

Job 24:18 “Yet they are foam on the surface of the water; their portion of the land is cursed, so that no-one goes to the vineyards.

Job 24:19 As heat and drought snatch away the melted snow, so the grave snatches away those who have sinned.

Job 24:20 The womb forgets them, the worm feasts on them; evil men are no longer remembered but are broken like a tree.

Job 24:21 They prey on the barren and childless woman, and to the widow show no kindness.

Job 24:22 But God drags away the mighty by his power; though they become established, they have no assurance of life.

Job 24:23 He may let them rest in a feeling of security, but his eyes are on their ways.

Job 24:24 For a little while they are exalted, and then they are gone; they are brought low and gathered up like all others; they are cut off like ears of corn.

Job 24:25 “If this is not so, who can prove me false and reduce my words to nothing?”

Job 25:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

Job 25:2 “Dominion and awe belong to God; he establishes order in the heights of heaven.

Job 25:3 Can his forces be numbered? Upon whom does his light not rise?

Job 25:4 How then can a man be righteous before God? How can one born of woman be pure?

Job 25:5 If even the moon is not bright and the stars are not pure in his eyes,

Job 25:6 how much less man, who is but a maggot—a son of man, who is only a worm!”

Job 26:1 Then Job replied:

Job 26:2 “How you have helped the powerless! How you have saved the arm that is feeble!

Job 26:3 What advice you have offered to one without wisdom! And what great insight you have displayed!

Job 26:4 Who has helped you utter these words? And whose spirit spoke from your mouth?

Job 26:5 “The dead are in deep anguish, those beneath the waters and all that live in them.

Job 26:6 Death is naked before God; Destruction lies uncovered.

Job 26:7 He spreads out the northern [skies] over empty space; he suspends the earth over nothing.

Job 26:8 He wraps up the waters in his clouds, yet the clouds do not burst under their weight.

Job 26:9 He covers the face of the full moon, spreading his clouds over it.

Job 26:10 He marks out the horizon on the face of the waters for a boundary between light and darkness.

Job 26:11 The pillars of the heavens quake, aghast at his rebuke.

Job 26:12 By his power he churned up the sea; by his wisdom he cut Rahab to pieces.

Job 26:13 By his breath the skies became fair; his hand pierced the gliding serpent.

Job 26:14 And these are but the outer fringe of his works; how faint the whisper we hear of him! Who then can understand the thunder of his power?”

Job 27:1 And Job continued his discourse:

Job 27:2 “As surely as God lives, who has denied me justice, the Almighty, who has made me taste bitterness of soul,

Job 27:3 as long as I have life within me, the breath of God in my nostrils,

Job 27:4 my lips will not speak wickedness, and my tongue will utter no deceit.

Job 27:5 I will never admit you are in the right; till I die, I will not deny my integrity.

Job 27:6 I will maintain my righteousness and never let go of it; my conscience will not reproach me as long as I live.

Job 27:7 “May my enemies be like the wicked, my adversaries like the unjust!

Job 27:8 For what hope has the godless when he is cut off, when God takes away his life?

Job 27:9 Does God listen to his cry when distress comes upon him?

Job 27:10 Will he find delight in the Almighty? Will he call upon God at all times?

Job 27:11 “I will teach you about the power of God; the ways of the Almighty I will not conceal.

Job 27:12 You have all seen this yourselves. Why then this meaningless talk?

Job 27:13 “Here is the fate God allots to the wicked, the heritage a ruthless man receives from the Almighty:

Job 27:14 However many his children, their fate is the sword; his offspring will never have enough to eat.

Job 27:15 The plague will bury those who survive him, and their widows will not weep for them.

Job 27:16 Though he heaps up silver like dust and clothes like piles of clay,

Job 27:17 what he lays up the righteous will wear, and the innocent will divide his silver.

Job 27:18 The house he builds is like a moth’s cocoon, like a hut made by a watchman.

Job 27:19 He lies down wealthy, but will do so no more; when he opens his eyes, all is gone.

Job 27:20 Terrors overtake him like a flood; a tempest snatches him away in the night.

Job 27:21 The east wind carries him off, and he is gone; it sweeps him out of his place.

Job 27:22 It hurls itself against him without mercy as he flees headlong from its power.

Job 27:23 It claps its hands in derision and hisses him out of his place.

Job 28:1 “There is a mine for silver and a place where gold is refined.

Job 28:2 Iron is taken from the earth, and copper is smelted from ore.

Job 28:3 Man puts an end to the darkness; he searches the farthest recesses for ore in the blackest darkness.

Job 28:4 Far from where people dwell he cuts a shaft, in places forgotten by the foot of man; far from men he dangles and sways.

Job 28:5 The earth, from which food comes, is transformed below as by fire;

Job 28:6 sapphires come from its rocks, and its dust contains nuggets of gold.

Job 28:7 No bird of prey knows that hidden path, no falcon’s eye has seen it.

Job 28:8 Proud beasts do not set foot on it, and no lion prowls there.

Job 28:9 Man’s hand assaults the flinty rock and lays bare the roots of the mountains.

Job 28:10 He tunnels through the rock; his eyes see all its treasures.

Job 28:11 He searches the sources of the rivers and brings hidden things to light.

Job 28:12 “But where can wisdom be found? Where does understanding dwell?

Job 28:13 Man does not comprehend its worth; it cannot be found in the land of the living.

Job 28:14 The deep says,`It is not in me’; the sea says,`It is not with me.’

Job 28:15 It cannot be bought with the finest gold, nor can its price be weighed in silver.

Job 28:16 It cannot be bought with the gold of Ophir, with precious onyx or sapphires.

Job 28:17 Neither gold nor crystal can compare with it, nor can it be had for jewels of gold.

Job 28:18 Coral and jasper are not worthy of mention; the price of wisdom is beyond rubies.

Job 28:19 The topaz of Cush cannot compare with it; it cannot be bought with pure gold.

Job 28:20 “Where then does wisdom come from? Where does understanding dwell?

Job 28:21 It is hidden from the eyes of every living thing, concealed even from the birds of the air.

Job 28:22 Destruction and Death say,`Only a rumour of it has reached our ears.’

Job 28:23 God understands the way to it and he alone knows where it dwells,

Job 28:24 for he views the ends of the earth and sees everything under the heavens.

Job 28:25 When he established the force of the wind and measured out the waters,

Job 28:26 when he made a decree for the rain and a path for the thunderstorm,

Job 28:27 then he looked at wisdom and appraised it; he confirmed it and tested it.

Job 28:28 And he said to man,`The fear of the Lord—that is wisdom, and to shun evil is understanding.’“

Job 29:1 Job continued his discourse:

Job 29:2 “How I long for the months gone by, for the days when God watched over me,

Job 29:3 when his lamp shone upon my head and by his light I walked through darkness!

Job 29:4 Oh, for the days when I was in my prime, when God’s intimate friendship blessed my house,

Job 29:5 when the Almighty was still with me and my children were around me,

Job 29:6 when my path was drenched with cream and the rock poured out for me streams of olive oil.

Job 29:7 “When I went to the gate of the city and took my seat in the public square,

Job 29:8 the young men saw me and stepped aside and the old men rose to their feet;

Job 29:9 the chief men refrained from speaking and covered their mouths with their hands;

Job 29:10 the voices of the nobles were hushed, and their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths.

Job 29:11 Whoever heard me spoke well of me, and those who saw me commended me,

Job 29:12 because I rescued the poor who cried for help, and the fatherless who had none to assist him.

Job 29:13 The man who was dying blessed me; I made the widow’s heart sing.

Job 29:14 I put on righteousness as my clothing; justice was my robe and my turban.

Job 29:15 I was eyes to the blind and feet to the lame.

Job 29:16 I was a father to the needy; I took up the case of the stranger.

Job 29:17 I broke the fangs of the wicked and snatched the victims from their teeth.

Job 29:18 “I thought,`I shall die in my own house, my days as numerous as the grains of sand.

Job 29:19 My roots will reach to the water, and the dew will lie all night on my branches.

Job 29:20 My glory will remain fresh in me, the bow ever new in my hand.’

Job 29:21 “Men listened to me expectantly, waiting in silence for my counsel.

Job 29:22 After I had spoken, they spoke no more; my words fell gently on their ears.

Job 29:23 They waited for me as for showers and drank in my words as the spring rain.

Job 29:24 When I smiled at them, they scarcely believed it; the light of my face was precious to them.

Job 29:25 I chose the way for them and sat as their chief; I dwelt as a king among his troops; I was like one who comforts mourners.

Job 30:1 “But now they mock me, men younger than I, whose fathers I would have disdained to put with my sheep dogs.

Job 30:2 Of what use was the strength of their hands to me, since their vigour had gone from them?

Job 30:3 Haggard from want and hunger, they roamed the parched land in desolate wastelands at night.

Job 30:4 In the brush they gathered salt herbs, and their food was the root of the broom tree.

Job 30:5 They were banished from their fellow-men, shouted at as if they were thieves.

Job 30:6 They were forced to live in the dry stream beds, among the rocks and in holes in the ground.

Job 30:7 They brayed among the bushes and huddled in the undergrowth.

Job 30:8 A base and nameless brood, they were driven out of the land.

Job 30:9 “And now their sons mock me in song; I have become a byword among them.

Job 30:10 They detest me and keep their distance; they do not hesitate to spit in my face.

Job 30:11 Now that God has unstrung my bow and afflicted me, they throw off restraint in my presence.

Job 30:12 On my right the tribe attacks; they lay snares for my feet, they build their siege ramps against me.

Job 30:13 They break up my road; they succeed in destroying me—without anyone’s helping them.

Job 30:14 They advance as through a gaping breach; amid the ruins they come rolling in.

Job 30:15 Terrors overwhelm me; my dignity is driven away as by the wind, my safety vanishes like a cloud.

Job 30:16 “And now my life ebbs away; days of suffering grip me.

Job 30:17 Night pierces my bones; my gnawing pains never rest.

Job 30:18 In his great power [God] becomes like clothing to me; he binds me like the neck of my garment.

Job 30:19 He throws me into the mud, and I am reduced to dust and ashes.

Job 30:20 “I cry out to you, O God, but you do not answer; I stand up, but you merely look at me.

Job 30:21 You turn on me ruthlessly; with the might of your hand you attack me.

Job 30:22 You snatch me up and drive me before the wind; you toss me about in the storm.

Job 30:23 I know you will bring me down to death, to the place appointed for all the living.

Job 30:24 “Surely no-one lays a hand on a broken man when he cries for help in his distress.

Job 30:25 Have I not wept for those in trouble? Has not my soul grieved for the poor?

Job 30:26 Yet when I hoped for good, evil came; when I looked for light, then came darkness.

Job 30:27 The churning inside me never stops; days of suffering confront me.

Job 30:28 I go about blackened, but not by the sun; I stand up in the assembly and cry for help.

Job 30:29 I have become a brother of jackals, a companion of owls.

Job 30:30 My skin grows black and peels; my body burns with fever.

Job 30:31 My harp is tuned to mourning, and my flute to the sound of wailing.

Job 31:1 “I made a covenant with my eyes not to look lustfully at a girl.

Job 31:2 For what is man’s lot from God above, his heritage from the Almighty on high?

Job 31:3 Is it not ruin for the wicked, disaster for those who do wrong?

Job 31:4 Does he not see my ways and count my every step?

Job 31:5 “If I have walked in falsehood or my foot has hurried after deceit—

Job 31:6 let God weigh me in honest scales and he will know that I am blameless—

Job 31:7 if my steps have turned from the path, if my heart has been led by my eyes, or if my hands have been defiled,

Job 31:8 then may others eat what I have sown, and may my crops be uprooted.

Job 31:9 “If my heart has been enticed by a woman, or if I have lurked at my neighbour’s door,

Job 31:10 then may my wife grind another man’s grain, and may other men sleep with her.

Job 31:11 For that would have been shameful, a sin to be judged.

Job 31:12 It is a fire that burns to Destruction; it would have uprooted my harvest.

Job 31:13 “If I have denied justice to my menservants and maidservants when they had a grievance against me,

Job 31:14 what will I do when God confronts me? What will I answer when called to account?

Job 31:15 Did not he who made me in the womb make them? Did not the same one form us both within our mothers?

Job 31:16 “If I have denied the desires of the poor or let the eyes of the widow grow weary,

Job 31:17 if I have kept my bread to myself, not sharing it with the fatherless—

Job 31:18 but from my youth I reared him as would a father, and from my birth I guided the widow—

Job 31:19 if I have seen anyone perishing for lack of clothing, or a needy man without a garment,

Job 31:20 and his heart did not bless me for warming him with the fleece from my sheep, Job 31:21 if I have raised my hand against the fatherless, knowing that I had influence in court,

Job 31:22 then let my arm fall from the shoulder, let it be broken off at the joint.

Job 31:23 For I dreaded destruction from God, and for fear of his splendour I could not do such things.

Job 31:24 “If I have put my trust in gold or said to pure gold,`You are my security,’

Job 31:25 if I have rejoiced over my great wealth, the fortune my hands had gained,

Job 31:26 if I have regarded the sun in its radiance or the moon moving in splendour,

Job 31:27 so that my heart was secretly enticed and my hand offered them a kiss of homage,

Job 31:28 then these also would be sins to be judged, for I would have been unfaithful to God on high.

Job 31:29 “If I have rejoiced at my enemy’s misfortune or gloated over the trouble that came to him—

Job 31:30 I have not allowed my mouth to sin by invoking a curse against his life—

Job 31:31 if the men of my household have never said,`Who has not had his fill of Job’s meat?’—

Job 31:32 but no stranger had to spend the night in the street, for my door was always open to the traveller—

Job 31:33 if I have concealed my sin as men do, by hiding my guilt in my heart

Job 31:34 because I so feared the crowd and so dreaded the contempt of the clans that I kept silent and would not go outside—

Job 31:35 (“Oh, that I had someone to hear me! I sign now my defence— let the Almighty answer me; let my accuser put his indictment in writing.

Job 31:36 Surely I would wear it on my shoulder, I would put it on like a crown.

Job 31:37 I would give him an account of my every step; like a prince I would approach him.)—

Job 31:38 “if my land cries out against me and all its furrows are wet with tears,

Job 31:39 if I have devoured its yield without payment or broken the spirit of its tenants,

Job 31:40 then let briers come up instead of wheat and weeds instead of barley.” The words of Job are ended.

Job 32:1 So these three men stopped answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

Job 32:2 But Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, became very angry with Job for justifying himself rather than God.

Job 32:3 He was also angry with the three friends, because they had found no way to refute Job, and yet had condemned him.

Job 32:4 Now Elihu had waited before speaking to Job because they were older than he.

Job 32:5 But when he saw that the three men had nothing more to say, his anger was aroused.

Job 32:6 So Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite said: “I am young in years, and you are old; that is why I was fearful, not daring to tell you what I know.

Job 32:7 I thought,`Age should speak; advanced years should teach wisdom.’

Job 32:8 But it is the spirit in a man, the breath of the Almighty, that gives him understanding.

Job 32:9 It is not only the old who are wise, not only the aged who understand what is right.

Job 32:10 “Therefore I say: Listen to me; I too will tell you what I know.

Job 32:11 I waited while you spoke, I listened to your reasoning; while you were searching for words,

Job 32:12 I gave you my full attention. But not one of you has proved Job wrong; none of you has answered his arguments.

Job 32:13 Do not say,`We have found wisdom; let God refute him, not man.’

Job 32:14 But Job has not marshalled his words against me, and I will not answer him with your arguments.

Job 32:15 “They are dismayed and have no more to say; words have failed them.

Job 32:16 Must I wait, now that they are silent, now that they stand there with no reply?

Job 32:17 I too will have my say; I too will tell what I know.

Job 32:18 For I am full of words, and the spirit within me compels me;

Job 32:19 inside I am like bottled-up wine, like new wineskins ready to burst.

Job 32:20 I must speak and find relief; I must open my lips and reply.

Job 32:21 I will show partiality to no-one, nor will I flatter any man;

Job 32:22 for if I were skilled in flattery, my Maker would soon take me away.

Job 33:1 “But now, Job, listen to my words; pay attention to everything I say.

Job 33:2 I am about to open my mouth; my words are on the tip of my tongue.

Job 33:3 My words come from an upright heart; my lips sincerely speak what I know.

Job 33:4 The Spirit of God has made me; the breath of the Almighty gives me life.

Job 33:5 Answer me then, if you can; prepare yourself and confront me.

Job 33:6 I am just like you before God; I too have been taken from clay.

Job 33:7 No fear of me should alarm you, nor should my hand be heavy upon you.

Job 33:8 “But you have said in my hearing—I heard the very words—

Job 33:9 `I am pure and without sin; I am clean and free from guilt.

Job 33:10 Yet God has found fault with me; he considers me his enemy.

Job 33:11 He fastens my feet in shackles; he keeps close watch on all my paths.’

Job 33:12 “But I tell you, in this you are not right, for God is greater than man.

Job 33:13 Why do you complain to him that he answers none of man’s words?

Job 33:14 For God does speak—now one way, now another—though man may not perceive it.

Job 33:15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on men as they slumber in their beds,

Job 33:16 he may speak in their ears and terrify them with warnings,

Job 33:17 to turn man from wrongdoing and keep him from pride,

Job 33:18 to preserve his soul from the pit, his life from perishing by the sword.

Job 33:19 Or a man may be chastened on a bed of pain with constant distress in his bones,

Job 33:20 so that his very being finds food repulsive and his soul loathes the choicest meal.

Job 33:21 His flesh wastes away to nothing, and his bones, once hidden, now stick out.

Job 33:22 His soul draws near to the pit, and his life to the messengers of death.

Job 33:23 “Yet if there is an angel on his side as a mediator, one out of a thousand, to tell a man what is right for him,

Job 33:24 to be gracious to him and say,`Spare him from going down to the pit; I have found a ransom for him’—

Job 33:25 then his flesh is renewed like a child’s; it is restored as in the days of his youth.

Job 33:26 He prays to God and finds favour with him, he sees God’s face and shouts for joy; he is restored by God to his righteous state.

Job 33:27 Then he comes to men and says,`I have sinned, and perverted what was right, but I did not get what I deserved.

Job 33:28 He redeemed my soul from going down to the pit, and I shall live to enjoy the light.’

Job 33:29 “God does all these things to a man—twice, even three times—

Job 33:30 to turn back his soul from the pit, that the light of life may shine on him.

Job 33:31 “Pay attention, Job, and listen to me; be silent, and I will speak.

Job 33:32 If you have anything to say, answer me; speak up, for I want you to be cleared.

Job 33:33 But if not, then listen to me; be silent, and I will teach you wisdom.”

Job 34:1 Then Elihu said:

Job 34:2 “Hear my words, you wise men; listen to me, you men of learning.

Job 34:3 For the ear tests words as the tongue tastes food.

Job 34:4 Let us discern for ourselves what is right; let us learn together what is good.

Job 34:5 “Job says,`I am innocent, but God denies me justice.

Job 34:6 Although I am right, I am considered a liar; although I am guiltless, his arrow inflicts an incurable wound.’

Job 34:7 What man is like Job, who drinks scorn like water?

Job 34:8 He keeps company with evildoers; he associates with wicked men.

Job 34:9 For he says,`It profits a man nothing when he tries to please God.’

Job 34:10 “So listen to me, you men of understanding. Far be it from God to do evil, from the Almighty to do wrong.

Job 34:11 He repays a man for what he has done; he brings upon him what his conduct deserves.

Job 34:12 It is unthinkable that God would do wrong, that the Almighty would pervert justice.

Job 34:13 Who appointed him over the earth? Who put him in charge of the whole world?

Job 34:14 If it were his intention and he withdrew his spirit and breath,

Job 34:15 all mankind would perish together and man would return to the dust.

Job 34:16 “If you have understanding, hear this; listen to what I say.

Job 34:17 Can he who hates justice govern? Will you condemn the just and mighty One?

Job 34:18 Is he not the One who says to kings,`You are worthless,’ and to nobles,`You are wicked,’

Job 34:19 who shows no partiality to princes and does not favour the rich over the poor, for they are all the work of his hands?

Job 34:20 They die in an instant, in the middle of the night; the people are shaken and they pass away; the mighty are removed without human hand.

Job 34:21 “His eyes are on the ways of men; he sees their every step.

Job 34:22 There is no dark place, no deep shadow, where evildoers can hide.

Job 34:23 God has no need to examine men further, that they should come before him for judgment.

Job 34:24 Without enquiry he shatters the mighty and sets up others in their place.

Job 34:25 Because he takes note of their deeds, he overthrows them in the night and they are crushed.

Job 34:26 He punishes them for their wickedness where everyone can see them,

Job 34:27 because they turned from following him and had no regard for any of his ways.

Job 34:28 They caused the cry of the poor to come before him, so that he heard the cry of the needy.

Job 34:29 But if he remains silent, who can condemn him? If he hides his face, who can see him? Yet he is over man and nation alike,

Job 34:30 to keep a godless man from ruling, from laying snares for the people.

Job 34:31 “Suppose a man says to God,`I am guilty but will offend no more.

Job 34:32 Teach me what I cannot see; if I have done wrong, I will not do so again.'

Job 34:33 Should God then reward you on your terms, when you refuse to repent? You must decide, not I; so tell me what you know.

Job 34:34 "Men of understanding declare, wise men who hear me say to me,

Job 34:35 `Job speaks without knowledge; his words lack insight.'

Job 34:36 Oh, that Job might be tested to the utmost for answering like a wicked man!

Job 34:37 To his sin he adds rebellion; scornfully he claps his hands among us and multiplies his words against God."

Job 35:1 Then Elihu said:

Job 35:2 "Do you think this is just? You say,`I shall be cleared by God.'

Job 35:3 Yet you ask him,`What profit is it to me, and what do I gain by not sinning?'

Job 35:4 "I would like to reply to you and to your friends with you.

Job 35:5 Look up at the heavens and see; gaze at the clouds so high above you.

Job 35:6 If you sin, how does that affect him? If your sins are many, what does that do to him?

Job 35:7 If you are righteous, what do you give to him, or what does he receive from your hand?

Job 35:8 Your wickedness affects only a man like yourself, and your righteousness only the sons of men.

Job 35:9 "Men cry out under a load of oppression; they plead for relief from the arm of the powerful.

Job 35:10 But no-one says,`Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night,

Job 35:11 who teaches more to us than to the beasts of the earth and makes us wiser than the birds of the air?'

Job 35:12 He does not answer when men cry out because of the arrogance of the wicked.

Job 35:13 Indeed, God does not listen to their empty plea; the Almighty pays no attention to it.

Job 35:14 How much less, then, will he listen when you say that you do not see him, that your case is before him and you must wait for him,

Job 35:15 and further, that his anger never punishes and he does not take the least notice of wickedness.

Job 35:16 So Job opens his mouth with empty talk; without knowledge he multiplies words."

Job 36:2 “Bear with me a little longer and I will show you that there is more to be said on God’s behalf.

Job 36:3 I get my knowledge from afar; I will ascribe justice to my Maker.

Job 36:4 Be assured that my words are not false; one perfect in knowledge is with you.

Job 36:5 “God is mighty, but does not despise men; he is mighty, and firm in his purpose.

Job 36:6 He does not keep the wicked alive but gives the afflicted their rights.

Job 36:7 He does not take his eyes off the righteous; he enthrones them with kings and exalts them for ever.

Job 36:8 But if men are bound in chains, held fast by cords of affliction,

Job 36:9 he tells them what they have done—that they have sinned arrogantly.

Job 36:10 He makes them listen to correction and commands them to repent of their evil.

Job 36:11 If they obey and serve him, they will spend the rest of their days in prosperity and their years in contentment.

Job 36:12 But if they do not listen, they will perish by the sword and die without knowledge.

Job 36:13 “The godless in heart harbour resentment; even when he fetters them, they do not cry for help.

Job 36:14 They die in their youth, among male prostitutes of the shrines.

Job 36:15 But those who suffer he delivers in their suffering; he speaks to them in their affliction.

Job 36:16 “He is wooing you from the jaws of distress to a spacious place free from restriction, to the comfort of your table laden with choice food.

Job 36:17 But now you are laden with the judgment due to the wicked; judgment and justice have taken hold of you.

Job 36:18 Be careful that no-one entices you by riches; do not let a large bribe turn you aside.

Job 36:19 Would your wealth or even all your mighty efforts sustain you so you would not be in distress?

Job 36:20 Do not long for the night, to drag people away from their homes.

Job 36:21 Beware of turning to evil, which you seem to prefer to affliction.

Job 36:22 “God is exalted in his power. Who is a teacher like him?

Job 36:23 Who has prescribed his ways for him, or said to him,`You have done wrong’?

Job 36:24 Remember to extol his work, which men have praised in song.

Job 36:25 All mankind has seen it; men gaze on it from afar.

Job 36:26 How great is God—beyond our understanding! The number of his years is past finding out.

Job 36:27 “He draws up the drops of water, which distil as rain to the streams;

Job 36:28 the clouds pour down their moisture and abundant showers fall on mankind.

Job 36:29 Who can understand how he spreads out the clouds, how he thunders from his pavilion?

Job 36:30 See how he scatters his lightning about him, bathing the depths of the sea.

Job 36:31 This is the way he governs the nations and provides food in abundance.

Job 36:32 He fills his hands with lightning and commands it to strike its mark.

Job 36:33 His thunder announces the coming storm; even the cattle make known its approach.

Job 37:1 “At this my heart pounds and leaps from its place.

Job 37:2 Listen! Listen to the roar of his voice, to the rumbling that comes from his mouth.

Job 37:3 He unleashes his lightning beneath the whole heaven and sends it to the ends of the earth.

Job 37:4 After that comes the sound of his roar; he thunders with his majestic voice. When his voice resounds, he holds nothing back.

Job 37:5 God’s voice thunders in marvellous ways; he does great things beyond our understanding.

Job 37:6 He says to the snow,`Fall on the earth,’ and to the rain shower,`Be a mighty downpour.’

Job 37:7 So that all men he has made may know his work, he stops every man from his labour.

Job 37:8 The animals take cover; they remain in their dens.

Job 37:9 The tempest comes out from its chamber, the cold from the driving winds.

Job 37:10 The breath of God produces ice, and the broad waters become frozen.

Job 37:11 He loads the clouds with moisture; he scatters his lightning through them.

Job 37:12 At his direction they swirl around over the face of the whole earth to do whatever he commands them.

Job 37:13 He brings the clouds to punish men, or to water his earth and show his love.

Job 37:14 “Listen to this, Job; stop and consider God’s wonders.

Job 37:15 Do you know how God controls the clouds and makes his lightning flash?

Job 37:16 Do you know how the clouds hang poised, those wonders of him who is perfect in knowledge?

Job 37:17 You who swelter in your clothes when the land lies hushed under the south wind,

Job 37:18 can you join him in spreading out the skies, hard as a mirror of cast bronze?

Job 37:19 “Tell us what we should say to him; we cannot draw up our case because of our darkness.

Job 37:20 Should he be told that I want to speak? Would any man ask to be swallowed up?

Job 37:21 Now no-one can look at the sun, bright as it is in the skies after the wind has swept them clean.

Job 37:22 Out of the north he comes in golden splendour; God comes in awesome majesty.

Job 37:23 The Almighty is beyond our reach and exalted in power; in his justice and great righteousness, he does not oppress.

Job 37:24 Therefore, men revere him, for does he not have regard for all the wise in heart?”

Job 38:1 Then the LORD answered Job out of the storm. He said:

Job 38:2 “Who is this that darkens my counsel with words without knowledge?

Job 38:3 Brace yourself like a man; I will question you, and you shall answer me.

Job 38:4 “Where were you when I laid the earth’s foundation? Tell me, if you understand.

Job 38:5 Who marked off its dimensions? Surely you know! Who stretched a measuring line across it?

Job 38:6 On what were its footings set, or who laid its cornerstone—

Job 38:7 while the morning stars sang together and all the angels shouted for joy?

Job 38:8 “Who shut up the sea behind doors when it burst forth from the womb,

Job 38:9 when I made the clouds its garment and wrapped it in thick darkness,

Job 38:10 when I fixed limits for it and set its doors and bars in place,

Job 38:11 when I said,`This far you may come and no farther; here is where your proud waves halt’?

Job 38:12 “Have you ever given orders to the morning, or shown the dawn its place,

Job 38:13 that it might take the earth by the edges and shake the wicked out of it?

Job 38:14 The earth takes shape like clay under a seal; its features stand out like those of a garment.

Job 38:15 The wicked are denied their light, and their upraised arm is broken.

Job 38:16 “Have you journeyed to the springs of the sea or walked in the recesses of the deep?

Job 38:17 Have the gates of death been shown to you? Have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?

Job 38:18 Have you comprehended the vast expanses of the earth? Tell me, if you know all this.

Job 38:19 “What is the way to the abode of light? And where does darkness reside?

Job 38:20 Can you take them to their places? Do you know the paths to their dwellings?

Job 38:21 Surely you know, for you were already born! You have lived so many years!

Job 38:22 “Have you entered the storehouses of the snow or seen the storehouses of the hail,

Job 38:23 which I reserve for times of trouble, for days of war and battle?

Job 38:24 What is the way to the place where the lightning is dispersed, or the place where the east winds are scattered over the earth?

Job 38:25 Who cuts a channel for the torrents of rain, and a path for the thunderstorm,

Job 38:26 to water a land where no man lives, a desert with no-one in it,

Job 38:27 to satisfy a desolate wasteland and make it sprout with grass?

Job 38:28 Does the rain have a father? Who fathers the drops of dew?

Job 38:29 From whose womb comes the ice? Who gives birth to the frost from the heavens

Job 38:30 when the waters become hard as stone, when the surface of the deep is frozen?

Job 38:31 “Can you bind the beautiful Pleiades? Can you loose the cords of Orion?

Job 38:32 Can you bring forth the constellations in their seasons or lead out the Bear with its cubs?

Job 38:33 Do you know the laws of the heavens? Can you set up [God’s] dominion over the earth?

Job 38:34 “Can you raise your voice to the clouds and cover yourself with a flood of water?

Job 38:35 Do you send the lightning bolts on their way? Do they report to you,`Here we are’?

Job 38:36 Who endowed the heart with wisdom or gave understanding to the mind?

Job 38:37 Who has the wisdom to count the clouds? Who can tip over the water jars of the heavens

Job 38:38 when the dust becomes hard and the clods of earth stick together?

Job 38:39 “Do you hunt the prey for the lioness and satisfy the hunger of the lions

Job 38:40 when they crouch in their dens or lie in wait in a thicket?

Job 38:41 Who provides food for the raven when its young cry out to God and wander about for lack of food?

Job 39:1 “Do you know when the mountain goats give birth? Do you watch when the doe bears her fawn?

Job 39:2 Do you count the months till they bear? Do you know the time they give birth?

Job 39:3 They crouch down and bring forth their young; their labour pains are ended.

Job 39:4 Their young thrive and grow strong in the wilds; they leave and do not return.

Job 39:5 “Who let the wild donkey go free? Who untied his ropes?

Job 39:6 I gave him the wasteland as his home, the salt flats as his habitat.

Job 39:7 He laughs at the commotion in the town; he does not hear a driver’s shout.

Job 39:8 He ranges the hills for his pasture and searches for any green thing.

Job 39:9 “Will the wild ox consent to serve you? Will he stay by your manger at night?

Job 39:10 Can you hold him to the furrow with a harness? Will he till the valleys behind you?

Job 39:11 Will you rely on him for his great strength? Will you leave your heavy work to him?

Job 39:12 Can you trust him to bring in your grain and gather it to your threshing-floor?

Job 39:13 “The wings of the ostrich flap joyfully, but they cannot compare with the pinions and feathers of the stork.

Job 39:14 She lays her eggs on the ground and lets them warm in the sand,

Job 39:15 unmindful that a foot may crush them, that some wild animal may trample them.

Job 39:16 She treats her young harshly, as if they were not hers; she cares not that her labour was in vain,

Job 39:17 for God did not endow her with wisdom or give her a share of good sense.

Job 39:18 Yet when she spreads her feathers to run, she laughs at horse and rider.

Job 39:19 “Do you give the horse his strength or clothe his neck with a flowing mane?

Job 39:20 Do you make him leap like a locust, striking terror with his proud snorting?

Job 39:21 He paws fiercely, rejoicing in his strength, and charges into the fray.

Job 39:22 He laughs at fear, afraid of nothing; he does not shy away from the sword.

Job 39:23 The quiver rattles against his side, along with the flashing spear and lance.

Job 39:24 In frenzied excitement he eats up the ground; he cannot stand still when the trumpet sounds.

Job 39:25 At the blast of the trumpet he snorts,`Aha!’ He catches the scent of battle from afar, the shout of commanders and the battle cry.

Job 39:26 “Does the hawk take flight by your wisdom and spread his wings towards the south?

Job 39:27 Does the eagle soar at your command and build his nest on high?

Job 39:28 He dwells on a cliff and stays there at night; a rocky crag is his stronghold.

Job 39:29 From there he seeks out his food; his eyes detect it from afar.

Job 39:30 His young ones feast on blood, and where the slain are, there is he.”

Job 40:1 The LORD said to Job:

Job 40:2 “Will the one who contends with the Almighty correct him? Let him who accuses God answer him!”

Job 40:3 Then Job answered the LORD:

Job 40:4 “I am unworthy—how can I reply to you? I put my hand over my mouth.

Job 40:5 I spoke once, but I have no answer—twice, but I will say no more.”

Job 40:6 Then the LORD spoke to Job out of the storm:

Job 40:7 “Brace yourself like a man; I will question you, and you shall answer me.

Job 40:8 “Would you discredit my justice? Would you condemn me to justify yourself?

Job 40:9 Do you have an arm like God’s, and can your voice thunder like his?

Job 40:10 Then adorn yourself with glory and splendour, and clothe yourself in honour and majesty.

Job 40:11 Unleash the fury of your wrath, look at every proud man and bring him low,

Job 40:12 look at every proud man and humble him, crush the wicked where they stand.

Job 40:13 Bury them all in the dust together; shroud their faces in the grave.

Job 40:14 Then I myself will admit to you that your own right hand can save you.

Job 40:15 “Look at the behemoth, which I made along with you and which feeds on grass like an ox.

Job 40:16 What strength he has in his loins, what power in the muscles of his belly!

Job 40:17 His tail sways like a cedar; the sinews of his thighs are close-knit.

Job 40:18 His bones are tubes of bronze, his limbs like rods of iron.

Job 40:19 He ranks first among the works of God, yet his Maker can approach him with his sword.

Job 40:20 The hills bring him their produce, and all the wild animals play nearby.

Job 40:21 Under the lotus plant he lies, hidden among the reeds in the marsh.

Job 40:22 The lotuses conceal him in their shadow; the poplars by the stream surround him.

Job 40:23 When the river rages, he is not alarmed; he is secure, though the Jordan should surge against his mouth.

Job 40:24 Can anyone capture him by the eyes, or trap him and pierce his nose?

Job 41:1 “Can you pull in the leviathan with a fishhook or tie down his tongue with a rope?

Job 41:2 Can you put a cord through his nose or pierce his jaw with a hook?

Job 41:3 Will he keep begging you for mercy? Will he speak to you with gentle words?

Job 41:4 Will he make an agreement with you for you to take him as your slave for life?

Job 41:5 Can you make a pet of him like a bird or put him on a leash for your girls?

Job 41:6 Will traders barter for him? Will they divide him up among the merchants?

Job 41:7 Can you fill his hide with harpoons or his head with fishing spears?

Job 41:8 If you lay a hand on him, you will remember the struggle and never do it again!

Job 41:9 Any hope of subduing him is false; the mere sight of him is overpowering.

Job 41:10 No-one is fierce enough to rouse him. Who then is able to stand against me?

Job 41:11 Who has a claim against me that I must pay? Everything under heaven belongs to me.

Job 41:12 “I will not fail to speak of his limbs, his strength and his graceful form.

Job 41:13 Who can strip off his outer coat? Who would approach him with a bridle?

Job 41:14 Who dares open the doors of his mouth, ringed about with his fearsome teeth?

Job 41:15 His back has rows of shields tightly sealed together;

Job 41:16 each is so close to the next that no air can pass between.

Job 41:17 They are joined fast to one another; they cling together and cannot be parted.

Job 41:18 His snorting throws out flashes of light; his eyes are like the rays of dawn.

Job 41:19 Firebrands stream from his mouth; sparks of fire shoot out.

Job 41:20 Smoke pours from his nostrils as from a boiling pot over a fire of reeds.

Job 41:21 His breath sets coals ablaze, and flames dart from his mouth.

Job 41:22 Strength resides in his neck; dismay goes before him.

Job 41:23 The folds of his flesh are tightly joined; they are firm and immovable.

Job 41:24 His chest is hard as rock, hard as a lower millstone.

Job 41:25 When he rises up, the mighty are terrified; they retreat before his thrashing.

Job 41:26 The sword that reaches him has no effect, nor does the spear or the dart or the javelin.

Job 41:27 Iron he treats like straw and bronze like rotten wood.

Job 41:28 Arrows do not make him flee; slingstones are like chaff to him.

Job 41:29 A club seems to him but a piece of straw; he laughs at the rattling of the lance.

Job 41:30 His undersides are jagged potsherds, leaving a trail in the mud like a threshing-sledge.

Job 41:31 He makes the depths churn like a boiling cauldron and stirs up the sea like a pot of ointment.

Job 41:32 Behind him he leaves a glistening wake; one would think the deep had white hair.

Job 41:33 Nothing on earth is his equal—a creature without fear.

Job 41:34 He looks down on all that are haughty; he is king over all that are proud.”

Job 42:1 Then Job replied to the LORD:

Job 42:2 “I know that you can do all things; no plan of yours can be thwarted.

Job 42:3 [You asked,]`Who is this that obscures my counsel without knowledge?’ Surely I spoke of things I did not understand, things too wonderful for me to know.

Job 42:4 [“You said,]`Listen now, and I will speak; I will question you, and you shall answer me.’

Job 42:5 My ears had heard of you but now my eyes have seen you.

Job 42:6 Therefore I despise myself and repent in dust and ashes.”

Job 42:7 After the LORD had said these things to Job, he said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “I am angry with you and your two friends, because you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has.

Job 42:8 So now take seven bulls and seven rams and go to my servant Job and sacrifice a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer and not deal with you according to your folly. You have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has.”

Job 42:9 So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite did what the LORD told them; and the LORD accepted Job’s prayer.

Job 42:10 After Job had prayed for his friends, the LORD made him prosperous again and gave him twice as much as he had before.

Job 42:11 All his brothers and sisters and everyone who had known him before came and ate with him in his house. They comforted and consoled him over all the trouble the LORD had brought upon him, and each one gave him a piece of silver and a gold ring.

Job 42:12 The LORD blessed the latter part of Job’s life more than the first. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen and a thousand donkeys.

Job 42:13 And he also had seven sons and three daughters.

Job 42:14 The first daughter he named Jemimah, the second Keziah and the third Keren-Happuch.

Job 42:15 Nowhere in all the land were there found women as beautiful as Job’s daughters, and their father granted them an inheritance along with their brothers.

Job 42:16 After this, Job lived a hundred and forty years; he saw his children and their children to the fourth generation.

Job 42:17 And so he died, old and full of years.

Psalms

1:1 Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked or stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of mockers.

Psalms 1:2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night.

Psalms 1:3 He is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither. Whatever he does prospers.

Psalms 1:4 Not so the wicked! They are like chaff that the wind blows away.

Psalms 1:5 Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.

Psalms 1:6 For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

Psalms 2:1 Why do the nations conspire and the peoples plot in vain?

Psalms 2:2 The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers gather together against the LORD and against his Anointed One.

Psalms 2:3 “Let us break their chains,” they say, “and throw off their fetters.”

Psalms 2:4 The One enthroned in heaven laughs; the Lord scoffs at them.

Psalms 2:5 Then he rebukes them in his anger and terrifies them in his wrath, saying,

Psalms 2:6 “I have installed my King on Zion, my holy hill.”

Psalms 2:7 I will proclaim the decree of the LORD: He said to me, “You are my Son; today I have become your Father.

Psalms 2:8 Ask of me, and I will make the nations your inheritance, the ends of the earth your possession.

Psalms 2:9 You will rule them with an iron sceptre; you will dash them to pieces like pottery.”

Psalms 2:10 Therefore, you kings, be wise; be warned, you rulers of the earth.

Psalms 2:11 Serve the LORD with fear and rejoice with trembling.

Psalms 2:12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry and you be destroyed in your way, for his wrath can flare up in a moment. Blessed are all who take refuge in him.

Psalms 3:1 [A psalm of David. When he fled from his son Absalom.] O LORD, how many are my foes! How many rise up against me!

Psalms 3:2 Many are saying of me, “God will not deliver him.” Selah

Psalms 3:3 But you are a shield around me, O LORD; you bestow glory on me and lift up my head.

Psalms 3:4 To the LORD I cry aloud, and he answers me from his holy hill. Selah

Psalms 3:5 I lie down and sleep; I wake again, because the LORD sustains me.

Psalms 3:6 I will not fear the tens of thousands drawn up against me on every side.

Psalms 3:7 Arise, O LORD! Deliver me, O my God! Strike all my enemies on the jaw; break the teeth of the wicked.

Psalms 3:8 From the LORD comes deliverance. May your blessing be on your people. Selah

Psalms 4:1 [For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A psalm of David.] Answer me when I call to you, O my righteous God. Give me relief from my distress; be merciful to me and hear my prayer.

Psalms 4:2 How long, O men, will you turn my glory into shame? How long will you love delusions and seek false gods? Selah

Psalms 4:3 Know that the LORD has set apart the godly for himself; the LORD will hear when I call to him.

Psalms 4:4 In your anger do not sin; when you are on your beds, search your hearts and be silent. Selah

Psalms 4:5 Offer right sacrifices and trust in the LORD.

Psalms 4:6 Many are asking, “Who can show us any good?” Let the light of your face shine upon us, O LORD.

Psalms 4:7 You have filled my heart with greater joy than when their grain and new wine abound.

Psalms 4:8 I will lie down and sleep in peace, for you alone, O LORD, make me dwell in safety.

Psalms 5:1 [For the director of music. For flutes. A psalm of David.] Give ear to my words, O LORD, consider my sighing.

Psalms 5:2 Listen to my cry for help, my King and my God, for to you I pray.

Psalms 5:3 In the morning, O LORD, you hear my voice; in the morning I lay my requests before you and wait in expectation.

Psalms 5:4 You are not a God who takes pleasure in evil; with you the wicked cannot dwell.

Psalms 5:5 The arrogant cannot stand in your presence; you hate all who do wrong.

Psalms 5:6 You destroy those who tell lies; bloodthirsty and deceitful men the LORD abhors.

Psalms 5:7 But I, by your great mercy, will come into your house; in reverence will I bow down towards your holy temple.

Psalms 5:8 Lead me, O LORD, in your righteousness because of my enemies—make straight your way before me.

Psalms 5:9 Not a word from their mouth can be trusted; their heart is filled with destruction. Their throat is an open grave; with their tongue they speak deceit.

Psalms 5:10 Declare them guilty, O God! Let their intrigues be their downfall. Banish them for their many sins, for they have rebelled against you.

Psalms 5:11 But let all who take refuge in you be glad; let them ever sing for joy. Spread your protection over them, that those who love your name may rejoice in you.

Psalms 5:12 For surely, O LORD, you bless the righteous; you surround them with your favour as with a shield.

Psalms 6:1 [For the director of music. With stringed instruments. According to sheminith. A psalm of David.] O LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger or discipline me in your wrath.

Psalms 6:2 Be merciful to me, LORD, for I am faint; O LORD, heal me, for my bones are in agony.

Psalms 6:3 My soul is in anguish. How long, O LORD, how long?

Psalms 6:4 Turn, O LORD, and deliver me; save me because of your unfailing love.

Psalms 6:5 No-one remembers you when he is dead. Who praises you from his grave?

Psalms 6:6 I am worn out from groaning; all night long I flood my bed with weeping and drench my couch with tears.

Psalms 6:7 My eyes grow weak with sorrow; they fail because of all my foes.

Psalms 6:8 Away from me, all you who do evil, for the LORD has heard my weeping.

Psalms 6:9 The LORD has heard my cry for mercy; the LORD accepts my prayer.

Psalms 6:10 All my enemies will be ashamed and dismayed; they will turn back in sudden disgrace.

Psalms 7:1 [A shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning Cush, a Benjamite.] O LORD my God, I take refuge in you; save and deliver me from all who pursue me,

Psalms 7:2 or they will tear me like a lion and rip me to pieces with no-one to rescue me.

Psalms 7:3 O LORD my God, if I have done this and there is guilt on my hands—

Psalms 7:4 if I have done evil to him who is at peace with me or without cause have robbed my foe—

Psalms 7:5 then let my enemy pursue and overtake me; let him trample my life to the ground and make me sleep in the dust. Selah

Psalms 7:6 Arise, O LORD, in your anger; rise up against the rage of my enemies. Awake, my God; decree justice.

Psalms 7:7 Let the assembled peoples gather round you. Rule over them from on high;

Psalms 7:8 let the LORD judge the peoples. Judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, according to my integrity, O Most High.

Psalms 7:9 O righteous God, who searches minds and hearts, bring to an end the violence of the wicked and make the righteous secure.

Psalms 7:10 My shield is God Most High, who saves the upright in heart.

Psalms 7:11 God is a righteous judge, a God who expresses his wrath every day.

Psalms 7:12 If he does not relent, he will sharpen his sword; he will bend and string his bow.

Psalms 7:13 He has prepared his deadly weapons; he makes ready his flaming arrows.

Psalms 7:14 He who is pregnant with evil and conceives trouble gives birth to disillusionment.

Psalms 7:15 He who digs a hole and scoops it out falls into the pit he has made.

Psalms 7:16 The trouble he causes recoils on himself; his violence comes down on his own head.

Psalms 7:17 I will give thanks to the LORD because of his righteousness and will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

Psalms 8:1 [For the director of music. According to gittith. A psalm of David.] O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens.

Psalms 8:2 From the lips of children and infants you have ordained praise because of your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger.

Psalms 8:3 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,

Psalms 8:4 what is man that you are mindful of him, the son of man that you care for him?

Psalms 8:5 You made him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned him with glory and honour.

Psalms 8:6 You made him ruler over the works of your hands; you put everything under his feet:

Psalms 8:7 all flocks and herds, and the beasts of the field,

Psalms 8:8 the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, all that swim the paths of the seas.

Psalms 8:9 O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Psalms 9:1 [For the director of music. To [the tune of] “The Death of the Son”. A psalm of David.] I will praise you, O LORD, with all my heart; I will tell of all your wonders.

Psalms 9:2 I will be glad and rejoice in you; I will sing praise to your name, O Most High.

Psalms 9:3 My enemies turn back; they stumble and perish before you.

Psalms 9:4 For you have upheld my right and my cause; you have sat on your throne, judging righteously.

Psalms 9:5 You have rebuked the nations and destroyed the wicked; you have blotted out their name for ever and ever.

Psalms 9:6 Endless ruin has overtaken the enemy, you have uprooted their cities; even the memory of them has perished.

Psalms 9:7 The LORD reigns for ever; he has established his throne for judgment.

Psalms 9:8 He will judge the world in righteousness; he will govern the peoples with justice.

Psalms 9:9 The LORD is a refuge for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble.

Psalms 9:10 Those who know your name will trust in you, for you, LORD, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Psalms 9:11 Sing praises to the LORD, enthroned in Zion; proclaim among the nations what he has done.

Psalms 9:12 For he who avenges blood remembers; he does not ignore the cry of the afflicted.

Psalms 9:13 O LORD, see how my enemies persecute me! Have mercy and lift me up from the gates of death,

Psalms 9:14 that I may declare your praises in the gates of the Daughter of Zion and there rejoice in your salvation.

Psalms 9:15 The nations have fallen into the pit they have dug; their feet are caught in the net they have hidden.

Psalms 9:16 The LORD is known by his justice; the wicked are ensnared by the work of their hands. Higgaion. Selah

Psalms 9:17 The wicked return to the grave, all the nations that forget God.

Psalms 9:18 But the needy will not always be forgotten, nor the hope of the afflicted ever perish.

Psalms 9:19 Arise, O LORD, let not man triumph; let the nations be judged in your presence.

Psalms 9:20 Strike them with terror, O LORD; let the nations know they are but men. Selah

Psalms 10:1 Why, O LORD, do you stand far off? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?

Psalms 10:2 In his arrogance the wicked man hunts down the weak, who are caught in the schemes he devises.

Psalms 10:3 He boasts of the cravings of his heart; he blesses the greedy and reviles the LORD.

Psalms 10:4 In his pride the wicked does not seek him; in all his thoughts there is no room for God.

Psalms 10:5 His ways are always prosperous; he is haughty and your laws are far from him; he sneers at all his enemies.

Psalms 10:6 He says to himself, “Nothing will shake me; I’ll always be happy and never have trouble.”

Psalms 10:7 His mouth is full of curses and lies and threats; trouble and evil are under his tongue.

Psalms 10:8 He lies in wait near the villages; from ambush he murders the innocent, watching in secret for his victims.

Psalms 10:9 He lies in wait like a lion in cover; he lies in wait to catch the helpless; he catches the helpless and drags them off in his net.

Psalms 10:10 His victims are crushed, they collapse; they fall under his strength.

Psalms 10:11 He says to himself, “God has forgotten; he covers his face and never sees.”

Psalms 10:12 Arise, LORD! Lift up your hand, O God. Do not forget the helpless.

Psalms 10:13 Why does the wicked man revile God? Why does he say to himself, “He won’t call me to account”?

Psalms 10:14 But you, O God, do see trouble and grief; you consider it to take it in hand. The victim commits himself to you; you are the helper of the fatherless.

Psalms 10:15 Break the arm of the wicked and evil man; call him to account for his wickedness that would not be found out.

Psalms 10:16 The LORD is King for ever and ever; the nations will perish from his land.

Psalms 10:17 You hear, O LORD, the desire of the afflicted; you encourage them, and you listen to their cry,

Psalms 10:18 defending the fatherless and the oppressed, in order that man, who is of the earth, may terrify no more.

Psalms 11:1 [For the director of music. Of David.] In the LORD I take refuge. How then can you say to me: “Flee like a bird to your mountain.

Psalms 11:2 For look, the wicked bend their bows; they set their arrows against the strings to shoot from the shadows at the upright in heart.

Psalms 11:3 When the foundations are being destroyed, what can the righteous do?”

Psalms 11:4 The LORD is in his holy temple; the LORD is on his heavenly throne. He observes the sons of men; his eyes examine them.

Psalms 11:5 The LORD examines the righteous, but the wicked and those who love violence his soul hates.

Psalms 11:6 On the wicked he will rain fiery coals and burning sulphur; a scorching wind will be their lot.

Psalms 11:7 For the LORD is righteous, he loves justice; upright men will see his face.

Psalms 12:1 [For the director of music. According to sheminith. A psalm of David.] Help, LORD, for the godly are no more; the faithful have vanished from among men.

Psalms 12:2 Everyone lies to his neighbour; their flattering lips speak with deception.

Psalms 12:3 May the LORD cut off all flattering lips and every boastful tongue

Psalms 12:4 that says, “We will triumph with our tongues; we own our lips— who is our master?”

Psalms 12:5 “Because of the oppression of the weak and the groaning of the needy, I will now arise,” says the LORD. “I will protect them from those who malign them.”

Psalms 12:6 And the words of the LORD are flawless, like silver refined in a furnace of clay, purified seven times.

Psalms 12:7 O LORD, you will keep us safe and protect us from such people for ever.

Psalms 12:8 The wicked freely strut about when what is vile is honoured among men.

Psalms 13:1 [For the director of music. A psalm of David.] How long, O LORD? Will you forget me for ever? How long will you hide your face from me?

Psalms 13:2 How long must I wrestle with my thoughts and every day have sorrow in my heart? How long will my enemy triumph over me?

Psalms 13:3 Look on me and answer, O LORD my God. Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep in death;

Psalms 13:4 my enemy will say, “I have overcome him,” and my foes will rejoice when I fall.

Psalms 13:5 But I trust in your unfailing love; my heart rejoices in your salvation.

Psalms 13:6 I will sing to the LORD, for he has been good to me.

Psalms 14:1 [For the director of music. Of David.] The fool says in his heart, “There is no God.” They are corrupt, their deeds are vile; there is no-one who does good.

Psalms 14:2 The LORD looks down from heaven on the sons of men to see if there are any who understand, any who seek God.

Psalms 14:3 All have turned aside, they have together become corrupt; there is no-one who does good, not even one.

Psalms 14:4 Will evildoers never learn—those who devour my people as men eat bread and who do not call on the LORD?

Psalms 14:5 There they are, overwhelmed with dread, for God is present in the company of the righteous.

Psalms 14:6 You evildoers frustrate the plans of the poor, but the LORD is their refuge.

Psalms 14:7 Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion! When the LORD restores the fortunes of his people, let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad!

Psalms 15:1 [A psalm of David.] LORD, who may dwell in your sanctuary? Who may live on your holy hill?

Psalms 15:2 He whose walk is blameless and who does what is righteous, who speaks the truth from his heart

Psalms 15:3 and has no slander on his tongue, who does his neighbour no wrong and casts no slur on his fellow-man,

Psalms 15:4 who despises a vile man but honours those who fear the LORD, who keeps his oath even when it hurts,

Psalms 15:5 who lends his money without usury and does not accept a bribe against the innocent. He who does these things will never be shaken.

Psalms 16:1 [A miktam of David.] Keep me safe, O God, for in you I take refuge.

Psalms 16:2 I said to the LORD, “You are my Lord; apart from you I have no good thing.”

Psalms 16:3 As for the saints who are in the land, they are the glorious ones in whom is all my delight.

Psalms 16:4 The sorrows of those will increase who run after other gods. I will not pour out their libations of blood or take up their names on my lips.

Psalms 16:5 LORD, you have assigned me my portion and my cup; you have made my lot secure.

Psalms 16:6 The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places; surely I have a delightful inheritance.

Psalms 16:7 I will praise the LORD, who counsels me; even at night my heart instructs me.

Psalms 16:8 I have set the LORD always before me. Because he is at my right hand, I shall not be shaken.

Psalms 16:9 Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices; my body also will rest secure,

Psalms 16:10 because you will not abandon me to the grave, nor will you let your Holy One see decay.

Psalms 16:11 You have made known to me the path of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence, with eternal pleasures at your right hand.

Psalms 17:1 [A prayer of David.] Hear, O LORD, my righteous plea; listen to my cry. Give ear to my prayer—it does not rise from deceitful lips.

Psalms 17:2 May my vindication come from you; may your eyes see what is right.

Psalms 17:3 Though you probe my heart and examine me at night, though you test me, you will find nothing; I have resolved that my mouth will not sin.

Psalms 17:4 As for the deeds of men—by the word of your lips I have kept myself from the ways of the violent.

Psalms 17:5 My steps have held to your paths; my feet have not slipped.

Psalms 17:6 I call on you, O God, for you will answer me; give ear to me and hear my prayer.

Psalms 17:7 Show the wonder of your great love, you who save by your right hand those who take refuge in you from their foes.

Psalms 17:8 Keep me as the apple of your eye; hide me in the shadow of your wings

Psalms 17:9 from the wicked who assail me, from my mortal enemies who surround me.

Psalms 17:10 They close up their callous hearts, and their mouths speak with arrogance.

Psalms 17:11 They have tracked me down, they now surround me, with eyes alert, to throw me to the ground.

Psalms 17:12 They are like a lion hungry for prey, like a great lion crouching in cover.

Psalms 17:13 Rise up, O LORD, confront them, bring them down; rescue me from the wicked by your sword.

Psalms 17:14 O LORD, by your hand save me from such men, from men of this world whose reward is in this life. You still the hunger of those you cherish; their sons have plenty, and they store up wealth for their children.

Psalms 17:15 And I—in righteousness I shall see your face; when I awake, I shall be satisfied with seeing your likeness.

Psalms 18:1 [For the director of music. Of David the servant of the LORD. He sang to the LORD the words of this song when the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. He said:] I love you, O LORD, my strength.

Psalms 18:2 The LORD is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer; my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge. He is my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.

Psalms 18:3 I call to the LORD, who is worthy of praise, and I am saved from my enemies.

Psalms 18:4 The cords of death entangled me; the torrents of destruction overwhelmed me.

Psalms 18:5 The cords of the grave coiled around me; the snares of death confronted me.

Psalms 18:6 In my distress I called to the LORD; I cried to my God for help. From his temple he heard my voice; my cry came before him, into his ears.

Psalms 18:7 The earth trembled and quaked, and the foundations of the mountains shook; they trembled because he was angry.

Psalms 18:8 Smoke rose from his nostrils; consuming fire came from his mouth, burning coals blazed out of it.

Psalms 18:9 He parted the heavens and came down; dark clouds were under his feet.

Psalms 18:10 He mounted the cherubim and flew; he soared on the wings of the wind.

Psalms 18:11 He made darkness his covering, his canopy around him—the dark rain clouds of the sky.

Psalms 18:12 Out of the brightness of his presence clouds advanced, with hailstones and bolts of lightning.

Psalms 18:13 The LORD thundered from heaven; the voice of the Most High resounded.

Psalms 18:14 He shot his arrows and scattered [the enemies], great bolts of lightning and routed them.

Psalms 18:15 The valleys of the sea were exposed and the foundations of the earth laid bare at your rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of breath from your nostrils.

Psalms 18:16 He reached down from on high and took hold of me; he drew me out of deep waters.

Psalms 18:17 He rescued me from my powerful enemy, from my foes, who were too strong for me.

Psalms 18:18 They confronted me in the day of my disaster, but the LORD was my support.

Psalms 18:19 He brought me out into a spacious place; he rescued me because he delighted in me.

Psalms 18:20 The LORD has dealt with me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he has rewarded me.

Psalms 18:21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD; I have not done evil by turning from my God.

Psalms 18:22 All his laws are before me; I have not turned away from his decrees.

Psalms 18:23 I have been blameless before him and have kept myself from sin.

Psalms 18:24 The LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his sight.

Psalms 18:25 To the faithful you show yourself faithful, to the blameless you show yourself blameless,

Psalms 18:26 to the pure you show yourself pure, but to the crooked you show yourself shrewd.

Psalms 18:27 You save the humble but bring low those whose eyes are haughty.

Psalms 18:28 You, O LORD, keep my lamp burning; my God turns my darkness into light.

Psalms 18:29 With your help I can advance against a troop; with my God I can scale a wall.

Psalms 18:30 As for God, his way is perfect; the word of the LORD is flawless. He is a shield for all who take refuge in him.

Psalms 18:31 For who is God besides the LORD? And who is the Rock except our God?

Psalms 18:32 It is God who arms me with strength and makes my way perfect.

Psalms 18:33 He makes my feet like the feet of a deer; he enables me to stand on the heights.

Psalms 18:34 He trains my hands for battle; my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

Psalms 18:35 You give me your shield of victory, and your right hand sustains me; you stoop down to make me great.

Psalms 18:36 You broaden the path beneath me, so that my ankles do not turn over.

Psalms 18:37 I pursued my enemies and overtook them; I did not turn back till they were destroyed.

Psalms 18:38 I crushed them so that they could not rise; they fell beneath my feet.

Psalms 18:39 You armed me with strength for battle; you made my adversaries bow at my feet.

Psalms 18:40 You made my enemies turn their backs in flight, and I destroyed my foes.

Psalms 18:41 They cried for help, but there was no-one to save them—to the LORD, but he did not answer.

Psalms 18:42 I beat them as fine as dust borne on the wind; I poured them out like mud in the streets.

Psalms 18:43 You have delivered me from the attacks of the people; you have made me the head of nations; people I did not know are subject to me.

Psalms 18:44 As soon as they hear me, they obey me; foreigners cringe before me.

Psalms 18:45 They all lose heart; they come trembling from their strongholds.

Psalms 18:46 The LORD lives! Praise be to my Rock! Exalted be God my Saviour!

Psalms 18:47 He is the God who avenges me, who subdues nations under me,

Psalms 18:48 who saves me from my enemies. You exalted me above my foes; from violent men you rescued me.

Psalms 18:49 Therefore I will praise you among the nations, O LORD; I will sing praises to your name.

Psalms 18:50 He gives his king great victories; he shows unfailing kindness to his anointed, to David and his descendants for ever.

Psalms 19:1 [For the director of music. A psalm of David.] The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands.

Psalms 19:2 Day after day they pour forth speech; night after night they display knowledge.

Psalms 19:3 There is no speech or language where their voice is not heard.

Psalms 19:4 Their voice goes out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world. In the heavens he has pitched a tent for the sun,

Psalms 19:5 which is like a bridegroom coming forth from his pavilion, like a champion rejoicing to run his course.

Psalms 19:6 It rises at one end of the heavens and makes its circuit to the other; nothing is hidden from its heat.

Psalms 19:7 The law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul. The statutes of the LORD are trustworthy, making wise the simple.

Psalms 19:8 The precepts of the LORD are right, giving joy to the heart. The commands of the LORD are radiant, giving light to the eyes.

Psalms 19:9 The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring for ever. The ordinances of the LORD are sure and altogether righteous.

Psalms 19:10 They are more precious than gold, than much pure gold; they are sweeter than honey, than honey from the comb.

Psalms 19:11 By them is your servant warned; in keeping them there is great reward.

Psalms 19:12 Who can discern his errors? Forgive my hidden faults.

Psalms 19:13 Keep your servant also from wilful sins; may they not rule over me. Then will I be blameless, innocent of great transgression.

Psalms 19:14 May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing in your sight, O LORD, my Rock and my Redeemer.

Psalms 20:1 [For the director of music. A psalm of David.] May the LORD answer you when you are in distress; may the name of the God of Jacob protect you.

Psalms 20:2 May he send you help from the sanctuary and grant you support from Zion.

Psalms 20:3 May he remember all your sacrifices and accept your burnt offerings. Selah

Psalms 20:4 May he give you the desire of your heart and make all your plans succeed.

Psalms 20:5 We will shout for joy when you are victorious and will lift up our banners in the name of our God. May the LORD grant all your requests.

Psalms 20:6 Now I know that the LORD saves his anointed; he answers him from his holy heaven with the saving power of his right hand.

Psalms 20:7 Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the LORD our God.

Psalms 20:8 They are brought to their knees and fall, but we rise up and stand firm.

Psalms 20:9 O LORD, save the king! Answer us when we call!

Psalms 21:1 [For the director of music. A psalm of David.] O LORD, the king rejoices in your strength. How great is his joy in the victories you give!

Psalms 21:2 You have granted him the desire of his heart and have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah

Psalms 21:3 You welcomed him with rich blessings and placed a crown of pure gold on his head.

Psalms 21:4 He asked you for life, and you gave it to him—length of days, for ever and ever.

Psalms 21:5 Through the victories you gave, his glory is great; you have bestowed on him splendour and majesty.

Psalms 21:6 Surely you have granted him eternal blessings and made him glad with the joy of your presence.

Psalms 21:7 For the king trusts in the LORD; through the unfailing love of the Most High he will not be shaken.

Psalms 21:8 Your hand will lay hold on all your enemies; your right hand will seize your foes.

Psalms 21:9 At the time of your appearing you will make them like a fiery furnace. In his wrath the LORD will swallow them up, and his fire will consume them.

Psalms 21:10 You will destroy their descendants from the earth, their posterity from mankind.

Psalms 21:11 Though they plot evil against you and devise wicked schemes, they cannot succeed;

Psalms 21:12 for you will make them turn their backs when you aim at them with drawn bow.

Psalms 21:13 Be exalted, O LORD, in your strength; we will sing and praise your might.

Psalms 22:1 [For the director of music. To [the tune of] “The Doe of the Morning”. A psalm of David.] My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, so far from the words of my groaning?

Psalms 22:2 O my God, I cry out by day, but you do not answer, by night, and am not silent.

Psalms 22:3 Yet you are enthroned as the Holy One; you are the praise of Israel.

Psalms 22:4 In you our fathers put their trust; they trusted and you delivered them.

Psalms 22:5 They cried to you and were saved; in you they trusted and were not disappointed.

Psalms 22:6 But I am a worm and not a man, scorned by men and despised by the people.

Psalms 22:7 All who see me mock me; they hurl insults, shaking their heads:

Psalms 22:8 “He trusts in the LORD; let the LORD rescue him. Let him deliver him, since he delights in him.”

Psalms 22:9 Yet you brought me out of the womb; you made me trust in you even at my mother’s breast.

Psalms 22:10 From birth I was cast upon you; from my mother’s womb you have been my God.

Psalms 22:11 Do not be far from me, for trouble is near and there is no-one to help.

Psalms 22:12 Many bulls surround me; strong bulls of Bashan encircle me.

Psalms 22:13 Roaring lions tearing their prey open their mouths wide against me.

Psalms 22:14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint. My heart has turned to wax; it has melted away within me.

Psalms 22:15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; you lay me in the dust of death.

Psalms 22:16 Dogs have surrounded me; a band of evil men has encircled me, they have pierced my hands and my feet.

Psalms 22:17 I can count all my bones; people stare and gloat over me.

Psalms 22:18 They divide my garments among them and cast lots for my clothing.

Psalms 22:19 But you, O LORD, be not far off; O my Strength, come quickly to help me.

Psalms 22:20 Deliver my life from the sword, my precious life from the power of the dogs.

Psalms 22:21 Rescue me from the mouth of the lions; save me from the horns of the wild oxen.

Psalms 22:22 I will declare your name to my brothers; in the congregation I will praise you.

Psalms 22:23 You who fear the LORD, praise him! All you descendants of Jacob, honour him! Revere him, all you descendants of Israel!

Psalms 22:24 For he has not despised or disdained the suffering of the afflicted one; he has not hidden his face from him but has listened to his cry for help.

Psalms 22:25 From you comes the theme of my praise in the great assembly; before those who fear you will I fulfil my vows.

Psalms 22:26 The poor will eat and be satisfied; they who seek the LORD will praise him—may your hearts live for ever!

Psalms 22:27 All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the LORD, and all the families of the nations will bow down before him, Psalms 22:28 for dominion belongs to the LORD and he rules over the nations.

Psalms 22:29 All the rich of the earth will feast and worship; all who go down to the dust will kneel before him—those who cannot keep themselves alive.

Psalms 22:30 Posterity will serve him; future generations will be told about the Lord.

Psalms 22:31 They will proclaim his righteousness to a people yet unborn—for he has done it.

Psalms 23:1 [A psalm of David.] The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not be in want.

Psalms 23:2 He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters,

Psalms 23:3 he restores my soul. He guides me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Psalms 23:4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

Psalms 23:5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Psalms 23:6 Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Psalms 24:1 [Of David. A psalm.] The earth is the LORD's, and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it;

Psalms 24:2 for he founded it upon the seas and established it upon the waters.

Psalms 24:3 Who may ascend the hill of the LORD? Who may stand in his holy place?

Psalms 24:4 He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to an idol or swear by what is false.

Psalms 24:5 He will receive blessing from the LORD and vindication from God his Saviour.

Psalms 24:6 Such is the generation of those who seek him, who seek your face, O God of Jacob. Selah

Psalms 24:7 Lift up your heads, O you gates; be lifted up, you ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in.

Psalms 24:8 Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle.

Psalms 24:9 Lift up your heads, O you gates; lift them up, you ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in.

Psalms 24:10 Who is he, this King of glory? The LORD Almighty—he is the King of glory. Selah

Psalms 25:1 [Of David.] To you, O LORD, I lift up my soul;

Psalms 25:2 in you I trust, O my God. Do not let me be put to shame, nor let my enemies triumph over me.

Psalms 25:3 No-one whose hope is in you will ever be put to shame, but they will be put to shame who are treacherous without excuse.

Psalms 25:4 Show me your ways, O LORD, teach me your paths;

Psalms 25:5 guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my Saviour, and my hope is in you all day long.

Psalms 25:6 Remember, O LORD, your great mercy and love, for they are from of old.

Psalms 25:7 Remember not the sins of my youth and my rebellious ways; according to your love remember me, for you are good, O LORD.

Psalms 25:8 Good and upright is the LORD; therefore he instructs sinners in his ways.

Psalms 25:9 He guides the humble in what is right and teaches them his way.

Psalms 25:10 All the ways of the LORD are loving and faithful for those who keep the demands of his covenant.

Psalms 25:11 For the sake of your name, O LORD, forgive my iniquity, though it is great.

Psalms 25:12 Who, then, is the man that fears the LORD? He will instruct him in the way chosen for him.

Psalms 25:13 He will spend his days in prosperity, and his descendants will inherit the land.

Psalms 25:14 The LORD confides in those who fear him; he makes his covenant known to them.

Psalms 25:15 My eyes are ever on the LORD, for only he will release my feet from the snare.

Psalms 25:16 Turn to me and be gracious to me, for I am lonely and afflicted.

Psalms 25:17 The troubles of my heart have multiplied; free me from my anguish.

Psalms 25:18 Look upon my affliction and my distress and take away all my sins.

Psalms 25:19 See how my enemies have increased and how fiercely they hate me!

Psalms 25:20 Guard my life and rescue me; let me not be put to shame, for I take refuge in you.

Psalms 25:21 May integrity and uprightness protect me, because my hope is in you.

Psalms 25:22 Redeem Israel, O God, from all their troubles!

Psalms 26:1 [Of David.] Vindicate me, O LORD, for I have led a blameless life; I have trusted in the LORD without wavering.

Psalms 26:2 Test me, O LORD, and try me, examine my heart and my mind;

Psalms 26:3 for your love is ever before me, and I walk continually in your truth.

Psalms 26:4 I do not sit with deceitful men, nor do I consort with hypocrites;

Psalms 26:5 I abhor the assembly of evildoers and refuse to sit with the wicked.

Psalms 26:6 I wash my hands in innocence, and go about your altar, O LORD,

Psalms 26:7 proclaiming aloud your praise and telling of all your wonderful deeds.

Psalms 26:8 I love the house where you live, O LORD, the place where your glory dwells.

Psalms 26:9 Do not take away my soul along with sinners, my life with bloodthirsty men,

Psalms 26:10 in whose hands are wicked schemes, whose right hands are full of bribes.

Psalms 26:11 But I lead a blameless life; redeem me and be merciful to me.

Psalms 26:12 My feet stand on level ground; in the great assembly I will praise the LORD.

Psalms 27:1 [Of David.] The LORD is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life—of whom shall I be afraid?

Psalms 27:2 When evil men advance against me to devour my flesh, when my enemies and my foes attack me, they will stumble and fall.

Psalms 27:3 Though an army besiege me, my heart will not fear; though war break out against me, even then will I be confident.

Psalms 27:4 One thing I ask of the LORD, this is what I seek: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to seek him in his temple.

Psalms 27:5 For in the day of trouble he will keep me safe in his dwelling; he will hide me in the shelter of his tabernacle and set me high upon a rock.

Psalms 27:6 Then my head will be exalted above the enemies who surround me; at his tabernacle will I sacrifice with shouts of joy; I will sing and make music to the LORD.

Psalms 27:7 Hear my voice when I call, O LORD; be merciful to me and answer me.

Psalms 27:8 My heart says of you, “Seek his face!” Your face, LORD, I will seek.

Psalms 27:9 Do not hide your face from me, do not turn your servant away in anger; you have been my helper. Do not reject me or forsake me, O God my Saviour.

Psalms 27:10 Though my father and mother forsake me, the LORD will receive me.

Psalms 27:11 Teach me your way, O LORD; lead me in a straight path because of my oppressors.

Psalms 27:12 Do not hand me over to the desire of my foes, for false witnesses rise up against me, breathing out violence.

Psalms 27:13 I am still confident of this: I will see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

Psalms 27:14 Wait for the LORD; be strong and take heart and wait for the LORD.

Psalms 28:1 [Of David.] To you I call, O LORD my Rock; do not turn a deaf ear to me. For if you remain silent, I shall be like those who have gone down to the pit.

Psalms 28:2 Hear my cry for mercy as I call to you for help, as I lift up my hands towards your Most Holy Place.

Psalms 28:3 Do not drag me away with the wicked, with those who do evil, who speak cordially with their neighbours but harbour malice in their hearts.

Psalms 28:4 Repay them for their deeds and for their evil work; repay them for what their hands have done and bring back upon them what they deserve.

Psalms 28:5 Since they show no regard for the works of the LORD and what his hands have done, he will tear them down and never build them up again.

Psalms 28:6 Praise be to the LORD, for he has heard my cry for mercy.

Psalms 28:7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusts in him, and I am helped. My heart leaps for joy and I will give thanks to him in song.

Psalms 28:8 The LORD is the strength of his people, a fortress of salvation for his anointed one.

Psalms 28:9 Save your people and bless your inheritance; be their shepherd and carry them for ever.

Psalms 29:1 [A psalm of David.] Ascribe to the LORD, O mighty ones, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

Psalms 29:2 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due to his name; worship the LORD in the splendour of his holiness.

Psalms 29:3 The voice of the LORD is over the waters; the God of glory thunders, the LORD thunders over the mighty waters.

Psalms 29:4 The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is majestic.

Psalms 29:5 The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars; the LORD breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.

Psalms 29:6 He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, Sirion like a young wild ox.

Psalms 29:7 The voice of the LORD strikes with flashes of lightning.

Psalms 29:8 The voice of the LORD shakes the desert; the LORD shakes the Desert of Kadesh.

Psalms 29:9 The voice of the LORD twists the oaks and strips the forests bare. And in his temple all cry, “Glory!”

Psalms 29:10 The LORD sits enthroned over the flood; the LORD is enthroned as King for ever.

Psalms 29:11 The LORD gives strength to his people; the LORD blesses his people with peace.

Psalms 30:1 [A psalm. A song. For the dedication of the temple. Of David.] I will exalt you, O LORD, for you lifted me out of the depths and did not let my enemies gloat over me.

Psalms 30:2 O LORD my God, I called to you for help and you healed me.

Psalms 30:3 O LORD, you brought me up from the grave; you spared me from going down into the pit.

Psalms 30:4 Sing to the LORD, you saints of his; praise his holy name.

Psalms 30:5 For his anger lasts only a moment, but his favour lasts a lifetime; weeping may remain for a night, but rejoicing comes in the morning.

Psalms 30:6 When I felt secure, I said, “I shall never be shaken.”

Psalms 30:7 O LORD, when you favoured me, you made my mountain stand firm; but when you hid your face, I was dismayed.

Psalms 30:8 To you, O LORD, I called; to the Lord I cried for mercy:

Psalms 30:9 “What gain is there in my destruction, in my going down into the pit? Will the dust praise you? Will it proclaim your faithfulness?

Psalms 30:10 Hear, O LORD, and be merciful to me; O LORD, be my help.”

Psalms 30:11 You turned my wailing into dancing; you removed my sackcloth and clothed me with joy,

Psalms 30:12 that my heart may sing to you and not be silent. O LORD my God, I will give you thanks for ever.

Psalms 31:1 [For the director of music. A psalm of David.] In you, O LORD, I have taken refuge; let me never be put to shame; deliver me in your righteousness.

Psalms 31:2 Turn your ear to me, come quickly to my rescue; be my rock of refuge, a strong fortress to save me.

Psalms 31:3 Since you are my rock and my fortress, for the sake of your name lead and guide me.

Psalms 31:4 Free me from the trap that is set for me, for you are my refuge.

Psalms 31:5 Into your hands I commit my spirit; redeem me, O LORD, the God of truth.

Psalms 31:6 I hate those who cling to worthless idols; I trust in the LORD.

Psalms 31:7 I will be glad and rejoice in your love, for you saw my affliction and knew the anguish of my soul.

Psalms 31:8 You have not handed me over to the enemy but have set my feet in a spacious place.

Psalms 31:9 Be merciful to me, O LORD, for I am in distress; my eyes grow weak with sorrow, my soul and my body with grief.

Psalms 31:10 My life is consumed by anguish and my years by groaning; my strength fails because of my affliction, and my bones grow weak.

Psalms 31:11 Because of all my enemies, I am the utter contempt of my neighbours; I am a dread to my friends—those who see me on the street flee from me.

Psalms 31:12 I am forgotten by them as though I were dead; I have become like broken pottery.

Psalms 31:13 For I hear the slander of many; there is terror on every side; they conspire against me and plot to take my life.

Psalms 31:14 But I trust in you, O LORD; I say, “You are my God.”

Psalms 31:15 My times are in your hands; deliver me from my enemies and from those who pursue me.

Psalms 31:16 Let your face shine on your servant; save me in your unfailing love.

Psalms 31:17 Let me not be put to shame, O LORD, for I have cried out to you; but let the wicked be put to shame and lie silent in the grave.

Psalms 31:18 Let their lying lips be silenced, for with pride and contempt they speak arrogantly against the righteous.

Psalms 31:19 How great is your goodness, which you have stored up for those who fear you, which you bestow in the sight of men on those who take refuge in you.

Psalms 31:20 In the shelter of your presence you hide them from the intrigues of men; in your dwelling you keep them safe from accusing tongues.

Psalms 31:21 Praise be to the LORD, for he showed his wonderful love to me when I was in a besieged city.

Psalms 31:22 In my alarm I said, “I am cut off from your sight!” Yet you heard my cry for mercy when I called to you for help.

Psalms 31:23 Love the LORD, all his saints! The LORD preserves the faithful, but the proud he pays back in full.

Psalms 31:24 Be strong and take heart, all you who hope in the LORD.

Psalms 32:1 [Of David. A maskil.] Blessed is he whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered.

Psalms 32:2 Blessed is the man whose sin the LORD does not count against him and in whose spirit is no deceit.

Psalms 32:3 When I kept silent, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.

Psalms 32:4 For day and night your hand was heavy upon me; my strength was sapped as in the heat of summer. Selah

Psalms 32:5 Then I acknowledged my sin to you and did not cover up my iniquity. I said, “I will confess my transgressions to the LORD”—and you forgave the guilt of my sin. Selah

Psalms 32:6 Therefore let everyone who is godly pray to you while you may be found; surely when the mighty waters rise, they will not reach him.

Psalms 32:7 You are my hiding-place; you will protect me from trouble and surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah

Psalms 32:8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you and watch over you.

Psalms 32:9 Do not be like the horse or the mule, which have no understanding but must be controlled by bit and bridle or they will not come to you.

Psalms 32:10 Many are the woes of the wicked, but the LORD’s unfailing love surrounds the man who trusts in him.

Psalms 32:11 Rejoice in the LORD and be glad, you righteous; sing, all you who are upright in heart!

Psalms 33:1 Sing joyfully to the LORD, you righteous; it is fitting for the upright to praise him.

Psalms 33:2 Praise the LORD with the harp; make music to him on the ten-stringed lyre.

Psalms 33:3 Sing to him a new song; play skilfully, and shout for joy.

Psalms 33:4 For the word of the LORD is right and true; he is faithful in all he does.

Psalms 33:5 The LORD loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of his unfailing love.

Psalms 33:6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made, their starry host by the breath of his mouth.

Psalms 33:7 He gathers the waters of the sea into jars; he puts the deep into storehouses.

Psalms 33:8 Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all the people of the world revere him.

Psalms 33:9 For he spoke, and it came to be; he commanded, and it stood firm.

Psalms 33:10 The LORD foils the plans of the nations; he thwarts the purposes of the peoples.

Psalms 33:11 But the plans of the LORD stand firm for ever, the purposes of his heart through all generations.

Psalms 33:12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD, the people he chose for his inheritance.

Psalms 33:13 From heaven the LORD looks down and sees all mankind;

Psalms 33:14 from his dwelling-place he watches all who live on earth—

Psalms 33:15 he who forms the hearts of all, who considers everything they do.

Psalms 33:16 No king is saved by the size of his army; no warrior escapes by his great strength.

Psalms 33:17 A horse is a vain hope for deliverance; despite all its great strength it cannot save.

Psalms 33:18 But the eyes of the LORD are on those who fear him, on those whose hope is in his unfailing love, Psalms 33:19 to deliver them from death and keep them alive in famine.

Psalms 33:20 We wait in hope for the LORD; he is our help and our shield.

Psalms 33:21 In him our hearts rejoice, for we trust in his holy name.

Psalms 33:22 May your unfailing love rest upon us, O LORD, even as we put our hope in you.

Psalms 34:1 [Of David. When he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he left.] I will extol the LORD at all times; his praise will always be on my lips.

Psalms 34:2 My soul will boast in the LORD; let the afflicted hear and rejoice.

Psalms 34:3 Glorify the LORD with me: let us exalt his name together.

Psalms 34:4 I sought the LORD, and he answered me; he delivered me from all my fears.

Psalms 34:5 Those who look to him are radiant; their faces are never covered with shame.

Psalms 34:6 This poor man called, and the LORD heard him; he saved him out of all his troubles.

Psalms 34:7 The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him, and he delivers them.

Psalms 34:8 Taste and see that the LORD is good; blessed is the man who takes refuge in him.

Psalms 34:9 Fear the LORD, you his saints, for those who fear him lack nothing.

Psalms 34:10 The lions may grow weak and hungry, but those who seek the LORD lack no good thing.

Psalms 34:11 Come, my children, listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

Psalms 34:12 Whoever of you loves life and desires to see many good days,

Psalms 34:13 keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking lies.

Psalms 34:14 Turn from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it.

Psalms 34:15 The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous and his ears are attentive to their cry;

Psalms 34:16 the face of the LORD is against those who do evil, to cut off the memory of them from the earth.

Psalms 34:17 The righteous cry out, and the LORD hears them; he delivers them from all their troubles.

Psalms 34:18 The LORD is close to the broken-hearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.

Psalms 34:19 A righteous man may have many troubles, but the LORD delivers him from them all;

Psalms 34:20 he protects all his bones, not one of them will be broken.

Psalms 34:21 Evil will slay the wicked; the foes of the righteous will be condemned.

Psalms 34:22 The LORD redeems his servants; no-one will be condemned who takes refuge in him.

Psalms 35:1 [Of David.] Contend, O LORD, with those who contend with me; fight against those who fight against me.

Psalms 35:2 Take up shield and buckler; arise and come to my aid.

Psalms 35:3 Brandish spear and javelin against those who pursue me. Say to my soul, “I am your salvation.”

Psalms 35:4 May those who seek my life be disgraced and put to shame; may those who plot my ruin be turned back in dismay.

Psalms 35:5 May they be like chaff before the wind, with the angel of the LORD driving them away;

Psalms 35:6 may their path be dark and slippery, with the angel of the LORD pursuing them.

Psalms 35:7 Since they hid their net for me without cause and without cause dug a pit for me,

Psalms 35:8 may ruin overtake them by surprise—may the net they hid entangle them, may they fall into the pit, to their ruin.

Psalms 35:9 Then my soul will rejoice in the LORD and delight in his salvation.

Psalms 35:10 My whole being will exclaim, “Who is like you, O LORD? You rescue the poor from those too strong for them, the poor and needy from those who rob them.”

Psalms 35:11 Ruthless witnesses come forward; they question me on things I know nothing about.

Psalms 35:12 They repay me evil for good and leave my soul forlorn.

Psalms 35:13 Yet when they were ill, I put on sackcloth and humbled myself with fasting. When my prayers returned to me unanswered,

Psalms 35:14 I went about mourning as though for my friend or brother. I bowed my head in grief as though weeping for my mother.

Psalms 35:15 But when I stumbled, they gathered in glee; attackers gathered against me when I was unaware. They slandered me without ceasing.

Psalms 35:16 Like the ungodly they maliciously mocked; they gnashed their teeth at me.

Psalms 35:17 O Lord, how long will you look on? Rescue my life from their ravages, my precious life from these lions.

Psalms 35:18 I will give you thanks in the great assembly; among throngs of people I will praise you.

Psalms 35:19 Let not those gloat over me who are my enemies without cause; let not those who hate me without reason maliciously wink the eye.

Psalms 35:20 They do not speak peaceably, but devise false accusations against those who live quietly in the land.

Psalms 35:21 They gape at me and say, "Aha! Aha! With our own eyes we have seen it."

Psalms 35:22 O LORD, you have seen this; be not silent. Do not be far from me, O Lord.

Psalms 35:23 Awake, and rise to my defence! Contend for me, my God and Lord.

Psalms 35:24 Vindicate me in your righteousness, O LORD my God; do not let them gloat over me.

Psalms 35:25 Do not let them think, "Aha, just what we wanted!" or say, "We have swallowed him up."

Psalms 35:26 May all who gloat over my distress be put to shame and confusion; may all who exalt themselves over me be clothed with shame and disgrace.

Psalms 35:27 May those who delight in my vindication shout for joy and gladness; may they always say, "The LORD be exalted, who delights in the well-being of his servant."

Psalms 35:28 My tongue will speak of your righteousness and of your praises all day long.

Psalms 36:1 [For the director of music. Of David the servant of the LORD.] An oracle is within my heart concerning the sinfulness of the wicked: There is no fear of God before his eyes.

Psalms 36:2 For in his own eyes he flatters himself too much to detect or hate his sin.

Psalms 36:3 The words of his mouth are wicked and deceitful; he has ceased to be wise and to do good.

Psalms 36:4 Even on his bed he plots evil; he commits himself to a sinful course and does not reject what is wrong.

Psalms 36:5 Your love, O LORD, reaches to the heavens, your faithfulness to the skies.

Psalms 36:6 Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains, your justice like the great deep. O LORD, you preserve both man and beast.

Psalms 36:7 How priceless is your unfailing love! Both high and low among men find refuge in the shadow of your wings.

Psalms 36:8 They feast in the abundance of your house; you give them drink from your river of delights.

Psalms 36:9 For with you is the fountain of life; in your light we see light.

Psalms 36:10 Continue your love to those who know you, your righteousness to the upright in heart.

Psalms 36:11 May the foot of the proud not come against me, nor the hand of the wicked drive me away.

Psalms 36:12 See how the evildoers lie fallen—thrown down, not able to rise!

Psalms 37:1 [Of David.] Do not fret because of evil men or be envious of those who do wrong;

Psalms 37:2 for like the grass they will soon wither, like green plants they will soon die away.

Psalms 37:3 Trust in the LORD and do good; dwell in the land and enjoy safe pasture.

Psalms 37:4 Delight yourself in the LORD and he will give you the desires of your heart.

Psalms 37:5 Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him and he will do this:

Psalms 37:6 He will make your righteousness shine like the dawn, the justice of your cause like the noonday sun.

Psalms 37:7 Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for him; do not fret when men succeed in their ways, when they carry out their wicked schemes.

Psalms 37:8 Refrain from anger and turn from wrath; do not fret—it leads only to evil.

Psalms 37:9 For evil men will be cut off, but those who hope in the LORD will inherit the land.

Psalms 37:10 A little while, and the wicked will be no more; though you look for them, they will not be found.

Psalms 37:11 But the meek will inherit the land and enjoy great peace.

Psalms 37:12 The wicked plot against the righteous and gnash their teeth at them;

Psalms 37:13 but the Lord laughs at the wicked, for he knows their day is coming.

Psalms 37:14 The wicked draw the sword and bend the bow to bring down the poor and needy, to slay those whose ways are upright.

Psalms 37:15 But their swords will pierce their own hearts, and their bows will be broken.

Psalms 37:16 Better the little that the righteous have than the wealth of many wicked;

Psalms 37:17 for the power of the wicked will be broken, but the LORD upholds the righteous.

Psalms 37:18 The days of the blameless are known to the LORD, and their inheritance will endure for ever.

Psalms 37:19 In times of disaster they will not wither; in days of famine they will enjoy plenty.

Psalms 37:20 But the wicked will perish: The LORD’s enemies will be like the beauty of the fields, they will vanish—vanish like smoke.

Psalms 37:21 The wicked borrow and do not repay, but the righteous give generously;

Psalms 37:22 those the LORD blesses will inherit the land, but those he curses will be cut off.

Psalms 37:23 If the LORD delights in a man’s way, he makes his steps firm;

Psalms 37:24 though he stumble, he will not fall, for the LORD upholds him with his hand.

Psalms 37:25 I was young and now I am old, yet I have never seen the righteous forsaken or their children begging bread.

Psalms 37:26 They are always generous and lend freely; their children will be blessed.

Psalms 37:27 Turn from evil and do good; then you will dwell in the land for ever.

Psalms 37:28 For the LORD loves the just and will not forsake his faithful ones. They will be protected for ever, but the offspring of the wicked will be cut off;

Psalms 37:29 the righteous will inherit the land and dwell in it for ever.

Psalms 37:30 The mouth of the righteous man utters wisdom, and his tongue speaks what is just.

Psalms 37:31 The law of his God is in his heart; his feet do not slip.

Psalms 37:32 The wicked lie in wait for the righteous, seeking their very lives;

Psalms 37:33 but the LORD will not leave them in their power or let them be condemned when brought to trial.

Psalms 37:34 Wait for the LORD and keep his way. He will exalt you to inherit the land; when the wicked are cut off, you will see it.

Psalms 37:35 I have seen a wicked and ruthless man flourishing like a green tree in its native soil,

Psalms 37:36 but he soon passed away and was no more; though I looked for him, he could not be found.

Psalms 37:37 Consider the blameless, observe the upright; there is a future for the man of peace.

Psalms 37:38 But all sinners will be destroyed; the future of the wicked will be cut off.

Psalms 37:39 The salvation of the righteous comes from the LORD; he is their stronghold in time of trouble.

Psalms 37:40 The LORD helps them and delivers them; he delivers them from the wicked and saves them, because they take refuge in him.

Psalms 38:1 [A psalm of David. A petition.] O LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger or discipline me in your wrath.

Psalms 38:2 For your arrows have pierced me, and your hand has come down upon me.

Psalms 38:3 Because of your wrath there is no health in my body; my bones have no soundness because of my sin.

Psalms 38:4 My guilt has overwhelmed me like a burden too heavy to bear.

Psalms 38:5 My wounds fester and are loathsome because of my sinful folly.

Psalms 38:6 I am bowed down and brought very low; all day long I go about mourning.

Psalms 38:7 My back is filled with searing pain; there is no health in my body.

Psalms 38:8 I am feeble and utterly crushed; I groan in anguish of heart.

Psalms 38:9 All my longings lie open before you, O Lord: my sighing is not hidden from you.

Psalms 38:10 My heart pounds, my strength fails me; even the light has gone from my eyes.

Psalms 38:11 My friends and companions avoid me because of my wounds; my neighbours stay far away.

Psalms 38:12 Those who seek my life set their traps, those who would harm me talk of my ruin; all day long they plot deception.

Psalms 38:13 I am like a deaf man, who cannot hear, like a mute, who cannot open his mouth;

Psalms 38:14 I have become like a man who does not hear, whose mouth can offer no reply.

Psalms 38:15 I wait for you, O LORD; you will answer, O Lord my God.

Psalms 38:16 For I said, “Do not let them gloat or exalt themselves over me when my foot slips.”

Psalms 38:17 For I am about to fall, and my pain is ever with me.

Psalms 38:18 I confess my iniquity; I am troubled by my sin.

Psalms 38:19 Many are those who are my vigorous enemies; those who hate me without reason are numerous.

Psalms 38:20 Those who repay my good with evil slander me when I pursue what is good.

Psalms 38:21 O LORD, do not forsake me; be not far from me, O my God.

Psalms 38:22 Come quickly to help me, O Lord my Saviour.

Psalms 39:1 [For the director of music. For Jeduthun. A psalm of David.] I said, “I will watch my ways and keep my tongue from sin; I will put a muzzle on my mouth as long as the wicked are in my presence.”

Psalms 39:2 But when I was silent and still, not even saying anything good, my anguish increased.

Psalms 39:3 My heart grew hot within me, and as I meditated, the fire burned; then I spoke with my tongue:

Psalms 39:4 “Show me, O LORD, my life’s end and the number of my days; let me know how fleeting is my life.

Psalms 39:5 You have made my days a mere handbreadth; the span of my years is as nothing before you. Each man’s life is but a breath. Selah

Psalms 39:6 Man is a mere phantom as he goes to and fro: He bustles about, but only in vain; he heaps up wealth, not knowing who will get it.

Psalms 39:7 “But now, Lord, what do I look for? My hope is in you.

Psalms 39:8 Save me from all my transgressions; do not make me the scorn of fools.

Psalms 39:9 I was silent; I would not open my mouth, for you are the one who has done this.

Psalms 39:10 Remove your scourge from me; I am overcome by the blow of your hand.

Psalms 39:11 You rebuke and discipline men for their sin; you consume their wealth like a moth—each man is but a breath. Selah

Psalms 39:12 “Hear my prayer, O LORD, listen to my cry for help; be not deaf to my weeping. For I dwell with you as an alien, a stranger, as all my fathers were.

Psalms 39:13 Look away from me, that I may rejoice again before I depart and am no more.”

Psalms 40:1 [For the director of music. Of David. A psalm.] I waited patiently for the LORD; he turned to me and heard my cry.

Psalms 40:2 He lifted me out of the slimy pit, out of the mud and mire; he set my feet on a rock and gave me a firm place to stand.

Psalms 40:3 He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God. Many will see and fear and put their trust in the LORD.

Psalms 40:4 Blessed is the man who makes the LORD his trust, who does not look to the proud, to those who turn aside to false gods.

Psalms 40:5 Many, O LORD my God, are the wonders you have done. The things you planned for us no-one can recount to you; were I to speak and tell of them, they would be too many to declare.

Psalms 40:6 Sacrifice and offering you did not desire, but my ears you have pierced; burnt offerings and sin offerings you did not require.

Psalms 40:7 Then I said, “Here I am, I have come—it is written about me in the scroll.

Psalms 40:8 I desire to do your will, O my God; your law is within my heart.”

Psalms 40:9 I proclaim righteousness in the great assembly; I do not seal my lips, as you know, O LORD.

Psalms 40:10 I do not hide your righteousness in my heart; I speak of your faithfulness and salvation. I do not conceal your love and your truth from the great assembly.

Psalms 40:11 Do not withhold your mercy from me, O LORD; may your love and your truth always protect me.

Psalms 40:12 For troubles without number surround me; my sins have overtaken me, and I cannot see. They are more than the hairs of my head, and my heart fails within me.

Psalms 40:13 Be pleased, O LORD, to save me; O LORD, come quickly to help me.

Psalms 40:14 May all who seek to take my life be put to shame and confusion; may all who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace.

Psalms 40:15 May those who say to me, “Aha! Aha!” be appalled at their own shame.

Psalms 40:16 But may all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you; may those who love your salvation always say, “The LORD be exalted!”

Psalms 40:17 Yet I am poor and needy; may the Lord think of me. You are my help and my deliverer; O my God, do not delay.

Psalms 41:1 [For the director of music. A psalm of David.] Blessed is he who has regard for the weak; the LORD delivers him in times of trouble.

Psalms 41:2 The LORD will protect him and preserve his life; he will bless him in the land and not surrender him to the desire of his foes.

Psalms 41:3 The LORD will sustain him on his sick-bed and restore him from his bed of illness.

Psalms 41:4 I said, “O LORD, have mercy on me; heal me, for I have sinned against you.”

Psalms 41:5 My enemies say of me in malice, “When will he die and his name perish?”

Psalms 41:6 Whenever one comes to see me, he speaks falsely, while his heart gathers slander; then he goes out and spreads it abroad.

Psalms 41:7 All my enemies whisper together against me; they imagine the worst for me, saying,

Psalms 41:8 “A vile disease has beset him; he will never get up from the place where he lies.”

Psalms 41:9 Even my close friend, whom I trusted, he who shared my bread, has lifted up his heel against me.

Psalms 41:10 But you, O LORD, have mercy on me; raise me up, that I may repay them.

Psalms 41:11 I know that you are pleased with me, for my enemy does not triumph over me.

Psalms 41:12 In my integrity you uphold me and set me in your presence for ever.

Psalms 41:13 Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. Amen and Amen.

Psalms 42:1 [For the director of music. A maskil of the Sons of Korah.] As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul pants for you, O God.

Psalms 42:2 My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When can I go and meet with God?

Psalms 42:3 My tears have been my food day and night, while men say to me all day long, “Where is your God?”

Psalms 42:4 These things I remember as I pour out my soul: how I used to go with the multitude, leading the procession to the house of God, with shouts of joy and thanksgiving among the festive throng.

Psalms 42:5 Why are you downcast, O my soul? Why so disturbed within me? Put your hope in God, for I will yet praise him, my Saviour and Psalms 42:6 my God. My soul is downcast within me; therefore I will remember you from the land of the Jordan, the heights of Hermon—from Mount Mizar.

Psalms 42:7 Deep calls to deep in the roar of your waterfalls; all your waves and breakers have swept over me.

Psalms 42:8 By day the LORD directs his love, at night his song is with me—a prayer to the God of my life.

Psalms 42:9 I say to God my Rock, “Why have you forgotten me? Why must I go about mourning, oppressed by the enemy?”

Psalms 42:10 My bones suffer mortal agony as my foes taunt me, saying to me all day long, “Where is your God?”

Psalms 42:11 Why are you downcast, O my soul? Why so disturbed within me? Put your hope in God, for I will yet praise him, my Saviour and my God.

Psalms 43:1 Vindicate me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation; rescue me from deceitful and wicked men.

Psalms 43:2 You are God my stronghold. Why have you rejected me? Why must I go about mourning, oppressed by the enemy?

Psalms 43:3 Send forth your light and your truth, let them guide me; let them bring me to your holy mountain, to the place where you dwell.

Psalms 43:4 Then will I go to the altar of God, to God, my joy and my delight. I will praise you with the harp, O God, my God.

Psalms 43:5 Why are you downcast, O my soul? Why so disturbed within me? Put your hope in God, for I will yet praise him, my Saviour and my God.

Psalms 44:1 [For the director of music. Of the Sons of Korah. A maskil.] We have heard with our ears, O God; our fathers have told us what you did in their days, in days long ago.

Psalms 44:2 With your hand you drove out the nations and planted our fathers; you crushed the peoples and made our fathers flourish.

Psalms 44:3 It was not by their sword that they won the land, nor did their arm bring them victory; it was your right hand, your arm, and the light of your face, for you loved them.

Psalms 44:4 You are my King and my God, who decrees victories for Jacob.

Psalms 44:5 Through you we push back our enemies; through your name we trample our foes.

Psalms 44:6 I do not trust in my bow, my sword does not bring me victory;

Psalms 44:7 but you give us victory over our enemies, you put our adversaries to shame.

Psalms 44:8 In God we make our boast all day long, and we will praise your name for ever. Selah

Psalms 44:9 But now you have rejected and humbled us; you no longer go out with our armies.

Psalms 44:10 You made us retreat before the enemy, and our adversaries have plundered us.

Psalms 44:11 You gave us up to be devoured like sheep and have scattered us among the nations.

Psalms 44:12 You sold your people for a pittance, gaining nothing from their sale.

Psalms 44:13 You have made us a reproach to our neighbours, the scorn and derision of those around us.

Psalms 44:14 You have made us a byword among the nations; the peoples shake their heads at us.

Psalms 44:15 My disgrace is before me all day long, and my face is covered with shame

Psalms 44:16 at the taunts of those who reproach and revile me, because of the enemy, who is bent on revenge.

Psalms 44:17 All this happened to us, though we had not forgotten you or been false to your covenant.

Psalms 44:18 Our hearts had not turned back; our feet had not strayed from your path.

Psalms 44:19 But you crushed us and made us a haunt for jackals and covered us over with deep darkness.

Psalms 44:20 If we had forgotten the name of our God or spread out our hands to a foreign god,

Psalms 44:21 would not God have discovered it, since he knows the secrets of the heart?

Psalms 44:22 Yet for your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.

Psalms 44:23 Awake, O Lord! Why do you sleep? Rouse yourself! Do not reject us for ever.

Psalms 44:24 Why do you hide your face and forget our misery and oppression?

Psalms 44:25 We are brought down to the dust; our bodies cling to the ground.

Psalms 44:26 Rise up and help us; redeem us because of your unfailing love.

Psalms 45:1 [For the director of music. To [the tune of] “Lilies”. Of the Sons of Korah. A maskil. A wedding song.] My heart is stirred by a noble theme as I recite my verses for the king; my tongue is the pen of a skilful writer.

Psalms 45:2 You are the most excellent of men and your lips have been anointed with grace, since God has blessed you for ever.

Psalms 45:3 Gird your sword upon your side, O mighty one; clothe yourself with splendour and majesty.

Psalms 45:4 In your majesty ride forth victoriously on behalf of truth, humility and righteousness; let your right hand display awesome deeds.

Psalms 45:5 Let your sharp arrows pierce the hearts of the king’s enemies; let the nations fall beneath your feet.

Psalms 45:6 Your throne, O God, will last for ever and ever; a sceptre of justice will be the sceptre of your kingdom.

Psalms 45:7 You love righteousness and hate wickedness; therefore God, your God, has set you above your companions by anointing you with the oil of joy.

Psalms 45:8 All your robes are fragrant with myrrh and aloes and cassia; from palaces adorned with ivory the music of the strings makes you glad.

Psalms 45:9 Daughters of kings are among your honoured women; at your right hand is the royal bride in gold of Ophir.

Psalms 45:10 Listen, O daughter, consider and give ear: Forget your people and your father’s house.

Psalms 45:11 The king is enthralled by your beauty; honour him, for he is your lord.

Psalms 45:12 The Daughter of Tyre will come with a gift, men of wealth will seek your favour.

Psalms 45:13 All glorious is the princess within [her chamber]; her gown is interwoven with gold.

Psalms 45:14 In embroidered garments she is led to the king; her virgin companions follow her and are brought to you.

Psalms 45:15 They are led in with joy and gladness; they enter the palace of the king.

Psalms 45:16 Your sons will take the place of your fathers; you will make them princes throughout the land.

Psalms 45:17 I will perpetuate your memory through all generations; therefore the nations will praise you for ever and ever.

Psalms 46:1 [For the director of music. Of the Sons of Korah. According to alamoth. A song.] God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble.

Psalms 46:2 Therefore we will not fear, though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea, Psalms 46:3 though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging. Selah

Psalms 46:4 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy place where the Most High dwells.

Psalms 46:5 God is within her, she will not fall; God will help her at break of day.

Psalms 46:6 Nations are in uproar, kingdoms fall; he lifts his voice, the earth melts.

Psalms 46:7 The LORD Almighty is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress. Selah

Psalms 46:8 Come and see the works of the LORD, the desolations he has brought on the earth.

Psalms 46:9 He makes wars cease to the ends of the earth; he breaks the bow and shatters the spear, he burns the shields with fire.

Psalms 46:10 “Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.”

Psalms 46:11 The LORD Almighty is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress. Selah

Psalms 47:1 [For the director of music. Of the Sons of Korah. A psalm.] Clap your hands, all you nations; shout to God with cries of joy.

Psalms 47:2 How awesome is the LORD Most High, the great King over all the earth!

Psalms 47:3 He subdued nations under us, peoples under our feet.

Psalms 47:4 He chose our inheritance for us, the pride of Jacob, whom he loved. Selah

Psalms 47:5 God has ascended amid shouts of joy, the LORD amid the sounding of trumpets.

Psalms 47:6 Sing praises to God, sing praises; sing praises to our King, sing praises.

Psalms 47:7 For God is the King of all the earth; sing to him a psalm of praise.

Psalms 47:8 God reigns over the nations; God is seated on his holy throne.

Psalms 47:9 The nobles of the nations assemble as the people of the God of Abraham, for the kings of the earth belong to God; he is greatly exalted.

Psalms 48:1 [A song. A psalm of the Sons of Korah.] Great is the LORD, and most worthy of praise, in the city of our God, his holy mountain.

Psalms 48:2 It is beautiful in its loftiness, the joy of the whole earth. Like the utmost heights of Zaphon is Mount Zion, the city of the Great King.

Psalms 48:3 God is in her citadels; he has shown himself to be her fortress.

Psalms 48:4 When the kings joined forces, when they advanced together,

Psalms 48:5 they saw [her] and were astounded; they fled in terror.

Psalms 48:6 Trembling seized them there, pain like that of a woman in labour.

Psalms 48:7 You destroyed them like ships of Tarshish shattered by an east wind.

Psalms 48:8 As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD Almighty, in the city of our God: God makes her secure for ever. Selah

Psalms 48:9 Within your temple, O God, we meditate on your unfailing love.

Psalms 48:10 Like your name, O God, your praise reaches to the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with righteousness.

Psalms 48:11 Mount Zion rejoices, the villages of Judah are glad because of your judgments.

Psalms 48:12 Walk about Zion, go round her, count her towers,

Psalms 48:13 consider well her ramparts, view her citadels, that you may tell of them to the next generation.

Psalms 48:14 For this God is our God for ever and ever; he will be our guide even to the end.

Psalms 49:1 [For the director of music. Of the Sons of Korah. A psalm.] Hear this, all you peoples; listen, all who live in this world,

Psalms 49:2 both low and high, rich and poor alike:

Psalms 49:3 My mouth will speak words of wisdom; the utterance from my heart will give understanding.

Psalms 49:4 I will turn my ear to a proverb; with the harp I will expound my riddle:

Psalms 49:5 Why should I fear when evil days come, when wicked deceivers surround me—

Psalms 49:6 those who trust in their wealth and boast of their great riches?

Psalms 49:7 No man can redeem the life of another or give to God a ransom for him—

Psalms 49:8 the ransom for a life is costly, no payment is ever enough—

Psalms 49:9 that he should live on for ever and not see decay.

Psalms 49:10 For all can see that wise men die; the foolish and the senseless alike perish and leave their wealth to others.

Psalms 49:11 Their tombs will remain their houses for ever, their dwellings for endless generations, though they had named lands after themselves.

Psalms 49:12 But man, despite his riches, does not endure; he is like the beasts that perish.

Psalms 49:13 This is the fate of those who trust in themselves, and of their followers, who approve their sayings. Selah

Psalms 49:14 Like sheep they are destined for the grave, and death will feed on them. The upright will rule over them in the morning; their forms will decay in the grave, far from their princely mansions.

Psalms 49:15 But God will redeem my life from the grave; he will surely take me to himself. Selah

Psalms 49:16 Do not be overawed when a man grows rich, when the splendour of his house increases;

Psalms 49:17 for he will take nothing with him when he dies, his splendour will not descend with him.

Psalms 49:18 Though while he lived he counted himself blessed—and men praise you when you prosper—

Psalms 49:19 he will join the generation of his fathers, who will never see the light [of life].

Psalms 49:20 A man who has riches without understanding is like the beasts that perish.

Psalms 50:1 [A psalm of Asaph.] The Mighty One, God, the LORD, speaks and summons the earth from the rising of the sun to the place where it sets.

Psalms 50:2 From Zion, perfect in beauty, God shines forth.

Psalms 50:3 Our God comes and will not be silent; a fire devours before him, and around him a tempest rages.

Psalms 50:4 He summons the heavens above, and the earth, that he may judge his people:

Psalms 50:5 “Gather to me my consecrated ones, who made a covenant with me by sacrifice.”

Psalms 50:6 And the heavens proclaim his righteousness, for God himself is judge. Selah

Psalms 50:7 “Hear, O my people, and I will speak, O Israel, and I will testify against you: I am God, your God.

Psalms 50:8 I do not rebuke you for your sacrifices or your burnt offerings, which are ever before me.

Psalms 50:9 I have no need of a bull from your stall or of goats from your pens,

Psalms 50:10 for every animal of the forest is mine, and the cattle on a thousand hills.

Psalms 50:11 I know every bird in the mountains, and the creatures of the field are mine.

Psalms 50:12 If I were hungry I would not tell you, for the world is mine, and all that is in it.

Psalms 50:13 Do I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?

Psalms 50:14 Sacrifice thank-offerings to God, fulfil your vows to the Most High,

Psalms 50:15 and call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you will honour me."

Psalms 50:16 But to the wicked, God says: "What right have you to recite my laws or take my covenant on your lips?

Psalms 50:17 You hate my instruction and cast my words behind you.

Psalms 50:18 When you see a thief, you join with him; you throw in your lot with adulterers.

Psalms 50:19 You use your mouth for evil and harness your tongue to deceit.

Psalms 50:20 You speak continually against your brother and slander your own mother's son.

Psalms 50:21 These things you have done and I kept silent; you thought I was altogether like you. But I will rebuke you and accuse you to your face.

Psalms 50:22 "Consider this, you who forget God, or I will tear you to pieces, with none to rescue:

Psalms 50:23 He who sacrifices thank-offerings honours me, and he prepares the way so that I may show him the salvation of God."

Psalms 51:1 [For the director of music. A psalm of David. When the prophet Nathan came to him after David had committed adultery with Bathsheba.] Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.

Psalms 51:2 Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

Psalms 51:3 For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.

Psalms 51:4 Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you are proved right when you speak and justified when you judge.

Psalms 51:5 Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me.

Psalms 51:6 Surely you desire truth in the inner parts; you teach me wisdom in the inmost place.

Psalms 51:7 Cleanse me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Psalms 51:8 Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones you have crushed rejoice.

Psalms 51:9 Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity.

Psalms 51:10 Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me.

Psalms 51:11 Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me.

Psalms 51:12 Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me.

Psalms 51:13 Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will turn back to you.

Psalms 51:14 Save me from bloodguilt, O God, the God who saves me, and my tongue will sing of your righteousness.

Psalms 51:15 O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.

Psalms 51:16 You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would bring it; you do not take pleasure in burnt offerings.

Psalms 51:17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

Psalms 51:18 In your good pleasure make Zion prosper; build up the walls of Jerusalem.

Psalms 51:19 Then there will be righteous sacrifices, whole burnt offerings to delight you; then bulls will be offered on your altar.

Psalms 52:1 [For the director of music. A maskil of David. When Doeg the Edomite had gone to Saul and told him: “David has gone to the house of Ahimelech.”] Why do you boast of evil, you mighty man? Why do you boast all day long, you who are a disgrace in the eyes of God?

Psalms 52:2 Your tongue plots destruction; it is like a sharpened razor, you who practise deceit.

Psalms 52:3 You love evil rather than good, falsehood rather than speaking the truth. Selah

Psalms 52:4 You love every harmful word, O you deceitful tongue!

Psalms 52:5 Surely God will bring you down to everlasting ruin: He will snatch you up and tear you from your tent; he will uproot you from the land of the living. Selah

Psalms 52:6 The righteous will see and fear; they will laugh at him, saying,

Psalms 52:7 "Here now is the man who did not make God his stronghold but trusted in his great wealth and grew strong by destroying others!"

Psalms 52:8 But I am like an olive tree flourishing in the house of God; I trust in God's unfailing love for ever and ever.

Psalms 52:9 I will praise you for ever for what you have done; in your name I will hope, for your name is good. I will praise you in the presence of your saints.

Psalms 53:1 [For the director of music. According to mahalath. A maskil of David.] The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, and their ways are vile; there is no-one who does good.

Psalms 53:2 God looks down from heaven on the sons of men to see if there are any who understand, any who seek God.

Psalms 53:3 Everyone has turned away, they have together become corrupt; there is no-one who does good, not even one.

Psalms 53:4 Will the evildoers never learn—those who devour my people as men eat bread and who do not call on God?

Psalms 53:5 There they were, overwhelmed with dread, where there was nothing to dread. God scattered the bones of those who attacked you; you put them to shame, for God despised them.

Psalms 53:6 Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion! When God restores the fortunes of his people, let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad!

Psalms 54:1 [For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A maskil of David. When the Ziphites had gone to Saul and said, "Is not David hiding among us?"] Save me, O God, by your name; vindicate me by your might.

Psalms 54:2 Hear my prayer, O God; listen to the words of my mouth.

Psalms 54:3 Strangers are attacking me; ruthless men seek my life—men without regard for God. Selah

Psalms 54:4 Surely God is my help; the Lord is the one who sustains me.

Psalms 54:5 Let evil recoil on those who slander me; in your faithfulness destroy them.

Psalms 54:6 I will sacrifice a freewill offering to you; I will praise your name, O LORD, for it is good.

Psalms 54:7 For he has delivered me from all my troubles, and my eyes have looked in triumph on my foes.

Psalms 55:1 [For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A maskil of David.] Listen to my prayer, O God, do not ignore my plea;

Psalms 55:2 hear me and answer me. My thoughts trouble me and I am distraught

Psalms 55:3 at the voice of the enemy, at the stares of the wicked; for they bring down suffering upon me and revile me in their anger.

Psalms 55:4 My heart is in anguish within me; the terrors of death assail me.

Psalms 55:5 Fear and trembling have beset me; horror has overwhelmed me.

Psalms 55:6 I said, “Oh, that I had the wings of a dove! I would fly away and be at rest—

Psalms 55:7 I would flee far away and stay in the desert; Selah

Psalms 55:8 I would hurry to my place of shelter, far from the tempest and storm.”

Psalms 55:9 Confuse the wicked, O Lord, confound their speech, for I see violence and strife in the city.

Psalms 55:10 Day and night they prowl about on its walls; malice and abuse are within it.

Psalms 55:11 Destructive forces are at work in the city; threats and lies never leave its streets.

Psalms 55:12 If an enemy were insulting me, I could endure it; if a foe were raising himself against me, I could hide from him.

Psalms 55:13 But it is you, a man like myself, my companion, my close friend,

Psalms 55:14 with whom I once enjoyed sweet fellowship as we walked with the throng at the house of God.

Psalms 55:15 Let death take my enemies by surprise; let them go down alive to the grave, for evil finds lodging among them.

Psalms 55:16 But I call to God, and the LORD saves me.

Psalms 55:17 Evening, morning and noon I cry out in distress, and he hears my voice.

Psalms 55:18 He ransoms me unharmed from the battle waged against me, even though many oppose me.

Psalms 55:19 God, who is enthroned for ever, will hear them and afflict them— Selah men who never change their ways and have no fear of God.

Psalms 55:20 My companion attacks his friends; he violates his covenant.

Psalms 55:21 His speech is smooth as butter, yet war is in his heart; his words are more soothing than oil, yet they are drawn swords.

Psalms 55:22 Cast your cares on the LORD and he will sustain you; he will never let the righteous fall.

Psalms 55:23 But you, O God, will bring down the wicked into the pit of corruption; bloodthirsty and deceitful men will not live out half their days. But as for me, I trust in you.

Psalms 56:1 [For the director of music. To [the tune of] “A Dove on Distant Oaks”. Of David. A miktam. When the Philistines had seized him in Gath.] Be merciful to me, O God, for men hotly pursue me; all day long they press their attack.

Psalms 56:2 My slanderers pursue me all day long; many are attacking me in their pride.

Psalms 56:3 When I am afraid, I will trust in you.

Psalms 56:4 In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I will not be afraid. What can mortal man do to me?

Psalms 56:5 All day long they twist my words; they are always plotting to harm me.

Psalms 56:6 They conspire, they lurk, they watch my steps, eager to take my life.

Psalms 56:7 On no account let them escape; in your anger, O God, bring down the nations.

Psalms 56:8 Record my lament; list my tears on your scroll— are they not in your record?

Psalms 56:9 Then my enemies will turn back when I call for help. By this I will know that God is for me.

Psalms 56:10 In God, whose word I praise, in the LORD, whose word I praise—

Psalms 56:11 in God I trust; I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?

Psalms 56:12 I am under vows to you, O God; I will present my thank-offerings to you.

Psalms 56:13 For you have delivered me from death and my feet from stumbling, that I may walk before God in the light of life.

Psalms 57:1 [For the director of music. [To the tune of] “Do Not Destroy”. Of David. A miktam. When he had fled from Saul into the cave.] Have mercy on me, O God, have mercy on me, for in you my soul takes refuge. I will take refuge in the shadow of your wings until the disaster has passed.

Psalms 57:2 I cry out to God Most High, to God, who fulfils [his purpose] for me.

Psalms 57:3 He sends from heaven and saves me, rebuking those who hotly pursue me; Selah God sends his love and his faithfulness.

Psalms 57:4 I am in the midst of lions; I lie among ravenous beasts—men whose teeth are spears and arrows, whose tongues are sharp swords.

Psalms 57:5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens; let your glory be over all the earth.

Psalms 57:6 They spread a net for my feet—I was bowed down in distress. They dug a pit in my path—but they have fallen into it themselves. Selah

Psalms 57:7 My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast; I will sing and make music.

Psalms 57:8 Awake, my soul! Awake, harp and lyre! I will awaken the dawn.

Psalms 57:9 I will praise you, O Lord, among the nations; I will sing of you among the peoples.

Psalms 57:10 For great is your love, reaching to the heavens; your faithfulness reaches to the skies.

Psalms 57:11 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens; let your glory be over all the earth.

Psalms 58:1 [For the director of music. [To the tune of] “Do Not Destroy”. Of David. A miktam.] Do you rulers indeed speak justly? Do you judge uprightly among men?

Psalms 58:2 No, in your heart you devise injustice, and your hands mete out violence on the earth.

Psalms 58:3 Even from birth the wicked go astray; from the womb they are wayward and speak lies.

Psalms 58:4 Their venom is like the venom of a snake, like that of a cobra that has stopped its ears,

Psalms 58:5 that will not heed the tune of the charmer, however skilful the enchanter may be.

Psalms 58:6 Break the teeth in their mouths, O God; tear out, O LORD, the fangs of the lions!

Psalms 58:7 Let them vanish like water that flows away; when they draw the bow, let their arrows be blunted.

Psalms 58:8 Like a slug melting away as it moves along, like a stillborn child, may they not see the sun.

Psalms 58:9 Before your pots can feel [the heat of] the thorns—whether they be green or dry—the wicked will be swept away.

Psalms 58:10 The righteous will be glad when they are avenged, when they bathe their feet in the blood of the wicked.

Psalms 58:11 Then men will say, “Surely the righteous still are rewarded; surely there is a God who judges the earth.”

Psalms 59:1 [For the director of music. [To the tune of] “Do Not Destroy”. Of David. A miktam. When Saul had sent men to watch David’s house in order to kill him.] Deliver me from my enemies, O God; protect me from those who rise up against me.

Psalms 59:2 Deliver me from evildoers and save me from bloodthirsty men.

Psalms 59:3 See how they lie in wait for me! Fierce men conspire against me for no offence or sin of mine, O LORD.

Psalms 59:4 I have done no wrong, yet they are ready to attack me. Arise to help me; look on my plight!

Psalms 59:5 O LORD God Almighty, the God of Israel, rouse yourself to punish all the nations; show no mercy to wicked traitors. Selah

Psalms 59:6 They return at evening, snarling like dogs, and prowl about the city.

Psalms 59:7 See what they spew from their mouths—they spew out swords from their lips, and they say, “Who can hear us?”

Psalms 59:8 But you, O LORD, laugh at them; you scoff at all those nations.

Psalms 59:9 O my Strength, I watch for you; you, O God, are my fortress,

Psalms 59:10 my loving God. God will go before me and will let me gloat over those who slander me.

Psalms 59:11 But do not kill them, O Lord our shield, or my people will forget. In your might make them wander about, and bring them down.

Psalms 59:12 For the sins of their mouths, for the words of their lips, let them be caught in their pride. For the curses and lies they utter,

Psalms 59:13 consume them in wrath, consume them till they are no more. Then it will be known to the ends of the earth that God rules over Jacob. Selah

Psalms 59:14 They return at evening, snarling like dogs, and prowl about the city.

Psalms 59:15 They wander about for food and howl if not satisfied.

Psalms 59:16 But I will sing of your strength, in the morning I will sing of your love; for you are my fortress, my refuge in times of trouble.

Psalms 59:17 O my Strength, I sing praise to you; you, O God, are my fortress, my loving God.

Psalms 60:1 [For the director of music. To [the tune of] “The Lily of the Covenant”. A miktam of David. For teaching. When he fought Aram Naharaim and Aram Zobah, and when Joab returned and struck down twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.] You have rejected us, O God, and burst forth upon us; you have been angry—now restore us!

Psalms 60:2 You have shaken the land and torn it open; mend its fractures, for it is quaking.

Psalms 60:3 You have shown your people desperate times; you have given us wine that makes us stagger.

Psalms 60:4 But for those who fear you, you have raised a banner to be unfurled against the bow. Selah

Psalms 60:5 Save us and help us with your right hand, that those you love may be delivered.

Psalms 60:6 God has spoken from his sanctuary: “In triumph I will parcel out Shechem and measure off the Valley of Succoth.

Psalms 60:7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim is my helmet, Judah my sceptre.

Psalms 60:8 Moab is my washbasin, upon Edom I toss my sandal; over Philistia I shout in triumph.”

Psalms 60:9 Who will bring me to the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom?

Psalms 60:10 Is it not you, O God, you who have rejected us and no longer go out with our armies?

Psalms 60:11 Give us aid against the enemy, for the help of man is worthless.

Psalms 60:12 With God we shall gain the victory, and he will trample down our enemies.

Psalms 61:1 [For the director of music. With stringed instruments. Of David.] Hear my cry, O God; listen to my prayer.

Psalms 61:2 From the ends of the earth I call to you, I call as my heart grows faint; lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

Psalms 61:3 For you have been my refuge, a strong tower against the foe.

Psalms 61:4 I long to dwell in your tent for ever and take refuge in the shelter of your wings. Selah

Psalms 61:5 For you have heard my vows, O God; you have given me the heritage of those who fear your name.

Psalms 61:6 Increase the days of the king’s life, his years for many generations.

Psalms 61:7 May he be enthroned in God’s presence for ever; appoint your love and faithfulness to protect him.

Psalms 61:8 Then will I ever sing praise to your name and fulfil my vows day after day.

Psalms 62:1 [For the director of music. For Jeduthun. A psalm of David.] My soul finds rest in God alone; my salvation comes from him.

Psalms 62:2 He alone is my rock and my salvation; he is my fortress, I shall never be shaken.

Psalms 62:3 How long will you assault a man? Would all of you throw him down— this leaning wall, this tottering fence?

Psalms 62:4 They fully intend to topple him from his lofty place; they take delight in lies. With their mouths they bless, but in their hearts they curse. Selah

Psalms 62:5 Find rest, O my soul, in God alone; my hope comes from him.

Psalms 62:6 He alone is my rock and my salvation; he is my fortress, I shall not be shaken.

Psalms 62:7 My salvation and my honour depend on God; he is my mighty rock, my refuge.

Psalms 62:8 Trust in him at all times, O people; pour out your hearts to him, for God is our refuge. Selah

Psalms 62:9 Lowborn men are but a breath, the highborn are but a lie; if weighed on a balance, they are nothing; together they are only a breath.

Psalms 62:10 Do not trust in extortion or take pride in stolen goods; though your riches increase, do not set your heart on them.

Psalms 62:11 One thing God has spoken, two things have I heard: that you, O God, are strong,

Psalms 62:12 and that you, O Lord, are loving. Surely you will reward each person according to what he has done.

Psalms 63:1 [A psalm of David. When he was in the Desert of Judah.] O God, you are my God, earnestly I seek you; my soul thirsts for you, my body longs for you, in a dry and weary land where there is no water.

Psalms 63:2 I have seen you in the sanctuary and beheld your power and your glory.

Psalms 63:3 Because your love is better than life, my lips will glorify you.

Psalms 63:4 I will praise you as long as I live, and in your name I will lift up my hands.

Psalms 63:5 My soul will be satisfied as with the richest of foods; with singing lips my mouth will praise you.

Psalms 63:6 On my bed I remember you; I think of you through the watches of the night.

Psalms 63:7 Because you are my help, I sing in the shadow of your wings.

Psalms 63:8 My soul clings to you; your right hand upholds me.

Psalms 63:9 They who seek my life will be destroyed; they will go down to the depths of the earth.

Psalms 63:10 They will be given over to the sword and become food for jackals.

Psalms 63:11 But the king will rejoice in God; all who swear by God’s name will praise him, while the mouths of liars will be silenced.

Psalms 64:1 [For the director of music. A psalm of David.] Hear me, O God, as I voice my complaint; protect my life from the threat of the enemy.

Psalms 64:2 Hide me from the conspiracy of the wicked, from that noisy crowd of evildoers.

Psalms 64:3 They sharpen their tongues like swords and aim their words like deadly arrows.

Psalms 64:4 They shoot from ambush at the innocent man; they shoot at him suddenly, without fear.

Psalms 64:5 They encourage each other in evil plans, they talk about hiding their snares; they say, “Who will see them?”

Psalms 64:6 They plot injustice and say, “We have devised a perfect plan!” Surely the mind and heart of man are cunning.

Psalms 64:7 But God will shoot them with arrows; suddenly they will be struck down.

Psalms 64:8 He will turn their own tongues against them and bring them to ruin; all who see them will shake their heads in scorn.

Psalms 64:9 All mankind will fear; they will proclaim the works of God and ponder what he has done.

Psalms 64:10 Let the righteous rejoice in the LORD and take refuge in him; let all the upright in heart praise him!

Psalms 65:1 [For the director of music. A psalm of David. A song.] Praise awaits you, O God, in Zion; to you our vows will be fulfilled.

Psalms 65:2 O you who hear prayer, to you all men will come.

Psalms 65:3 When we were overwhelmed by sins, you forgave our transgressions.

Psalms 65:4 Blessed are those you choose and bring near to live in your courts! We are filled with the good things of your house, of your holy temple.

Psalms 65:5 You answer us with awesome deeds of righteousness, O God our Saviour, the hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest seas,

Psalms 65:6 who formed the mountains by your power, having armed yourself with strength, Psalms 65:7 who stilled the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, and the turmoil of the nations.

Psalms 65:8 Those living far away fear your wonders; where morning dawns and evening fades you call forth songs of joy.

Psalms 65:9 You care for the land and water it; you enrich it abundantly. The streams of God are filled with water to provide the people with corn, for so you have ordained it.

Psalms 65:10 You drench its furrows and level its ridges; you soften it with showers and bless its crops.

Psalms 65:11 You crown the year with your bounty, and your carts overflow with abundance.

Psalms 65:12 The grasslands of the desert overflow; the hills are clothed with gladness.

Psalms 65:13 The meadows are covered with flocks and the valleys are mantled with corn; they shout for joy and sing.

Psalms 66:1 [For the director of music. A song. A psalm.] Shout with joy to God, all the earth!

Psalms 66:2 Sing the glory of his name; make his praise glorious!

Psalms 66:3 Say to God, “How awesome are your deeds! So great is your power that your enemies cringe before you.

Psalms 66:4 All the earth bows down to you; they sing praise to you, they sing praise to your name.” Selah

Psalms 66:5 Come and see what God has done, how awesome his works on man’s behalf!

Psalms 66:6 He turned the sea into dry land, they passed through the waters on foot—come, let us rejoice in him.

Psalms 66:7 He rules for ever by his power, his eyes watch the nations—let not the rebellious rise up against him. Selah

Psalms 66:8 Praise our God, O peoples, let the sound of his praise be heard;

Psalms 66:9 he has preserved our lives and kept our feet from slipping.

Psalms 66:10 For you, O God, tested us; you refined us like silver.

Psalms 66:11 You brought us into prison and laid burdens on our backs.

Psalms 66:12 You let men ride over our heads; we went through fire and water, but you brought us to a place of abundance.

Psalms 66:13 I will come to your temple with burnt offerings and fulfil my vows to you—

Psalms 66:14 vows my lips promised and my mouth spoke when I was in trouble.

Psalms 66:15 I will sacrifice fat animals to you and an offering of rams; I will offer bulls and goats. Selah

Psalms 66:16 Come and listen, all you who fear God; let me tell you what he has done for me.

Psalms 66:17 I cried out to him with my mouth; his praise was on my tongue.

Psalms 66:18 If I had cherished sin in my heart, the Lord would not have listened;

Psalms 66:19 but God has surely listened and heard my voice in prayer.

Psalms 66:20 Praise be to God, who has not rejected my prayer or withheld his love from me!

Psalms 67:1 [For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A psalm. A song.] May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face shine upon us, Selah

Psalms 67:2 that your ways may be known on earth, your salvation among all nations.

Psalms 67:3 May the peoples praise you, O God; may all the peoples praise you.

Psalms 67:4 May the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you rule the peoples justly and guide the nations of the earth. Selah

Psalms 67:5 May the peoples praise you, O God; may all the peoples praise you.

Psalms 67:6 Then the land will yield its harvest, and God, our God, will bless us.

Psalms 67:7 God will bless us, and all the ends of the earth will fear him.

Psalms 68:1 [For the director of music. Of David. A psalm. A song.] May God arise, may his enemies be scattered; may his foes flee before him.

Psalms 68:2 As smoke is blown away by the wind, may you blow them away; as wax melts before the fire, may the wicked perish before God.

Psalms 68:3 But may the righteous be glad and rejoice before God; may they be happy and joyful.

Psalms 68:4 Sing to God, sing praise to his name, extol him who rides on the clouds— his name is the LORD—and rejoice before him.

Psalms 68:5 A father to the fatherless, a defender of widows, is God in his holy dwelling.

Psalms 68:6 God sets the lonely in families, he leads forth the prisoners with singing; but the rebellious live in a sun-scorched land.

Psalms 68:7 When you went out before your people, O God, when you marched through the wasteland, Selah

Psalms 68:8 the earth shook, the heavens poured down rain, before God, the One of Sinai, before God, the God of Israel.

Psalms 68:9 You gave abundant showers, O God; you refreshed your weary inheritance.

Psalms 68:10 Your people settled in it, and from your bounty, O God, you provided for the poor.

Psalms 68:11 The Lord announced the word, and great was the company of those who proclaimed it:

Psalms 68:12 “Kings and armies flee in haste; in the camps men divide the plunder.

Psalms 68:13 Even while you sleep among the campfires, the wings of [my] dove are sheathed with silver, its feathers with shining gold.”

Psalms 68:14 When the Almighty scattered the kings in the land, it was like snow fallen on Zalmon.

Psalms 68:15 The mountains of Bashan are majestic mountains; rugged are the mountains of Bashan.

Psalms 68:16 Why gaze in envy, O rugged mountains, at the mountain where God chooses to reign, where the LORD himself will dwell for ever?

Psalms 68:17 The chariots of God are tens of thousands and thousands of thousands; the Lord [has come] from Sinai into his sanctuary.

Psalms 68:18 When you ascended on high, you led captives in your train; you received gifts from men, even from the rebellious—that you, O LORD God, might dwell there.

Psalms 68:19 Praise be to the Lord, to God our Saviour, who daily bears our burdens. Selah

Psalms 68:20 Our God is a God who saves; from the Sovereign LORD comes escape from death.

Psalms 68:21 Surely God will crush the heads of his enemies, the hairy crowns of those who go on in their sins.

Psalms 68:22 The Lord says, “I will bring them from Bashan; I will bring them from the depths of the sea, Psalms 68:23 that you may plunge your feet in the blood of your foes, while the tongues of your dogs have their share.”

Psalms 68:24 Your procession has come into view, O God, the procession of my God and King into the sanctuary.

Psalms 68:25 In front are the singers, after them the musicians; with them are the maidens playing tambourines.

Psalms 68:26 Praise God in the great congregation; praise the LORD in the assembly of Israel.

Psalms 68:27 There is the little tribe of Benjamin, leading them, there the great throng of Judah’s princes, and there the princes of Zebulun and of Naphtali.

Psalms 68:28 Summon your power, O God; show us your strength, O God, as you have done before.

Psalms 68:29 Because of your temple at Jerusalem kings will bring you gifts.

Psalms 68:30 Rebuke the beast among the reeds, the herd of bulls among the calves of the nations. Humbled, may it bring bars of silver. Scatter the nations who delight in war.

Psalms 68:31 Envoys will come from Egypt; Cush will submit herself to God.

Psalms 68:32 Sing to God, O kingdoms of the earth, sing praise to the Lord, Selah

Psalms 68:33 to him who rides the ancient skies above, who thunders with mighty voice.

Psalms 68:34 Proclaim the power of God, whose majesty is over Israel, whose power is in the skies.

Psalms 68:35 You are awesome, O God, in your sanctuary; the God of Israel gives power and strength to his people. Praise be to God!

Psalms 69:1 [For the director of music. To [the tune of] “Lilies”. Of David.] Save me, O God, for the waters have come up to my neck.

Psalms 69:2 I sink in the miry depths, where there is no foothold. I have come into the deep waters; the floods engulf me.

Psalms 69:3 I am worn out calling for help; my throat is parched. My eyes fail, looking for my God.

Psalms 69:4 Those who hate me without reason outnumber the hairs of my head; many are my enemies without cause, those who seek to destroy me. I am forced to restore what I did not steal.

Psalms 69:5 You know my folly, O God; my guilt is not hidden from you.

Psalms 69:6 May those who hope in you not be disgraced because of me, O Lord, the LORD Almighty; may those who seek you not be put to shame because of me, O God of Israel.

Psalms 69:7 For I endure scorn for your sake, and shame covers my face.

Psalms 69:8 I am a stranger to my brothers, an alien to my own mother’s sons;

Psalms 69:9 for zeal for your house consumes me, and the insults of those who insult you fall on me.

Psalms 69:10 When I weep and fast, I must endure scorn;

Psalms 69:11 when I put on sackcloth, people make sport of me.

Psalms 69:12 Those who sit at the gate mock me, and I am the song of the drunkards.

Psalms 69:13 But I pray to you, O LORD, in the time of your favour; in your great love, O God, answer me with your sure salvation.

Psalms 69:14 Rescue me from the mire, do not let me sink; deliver me from those who hate me, from the deep waters.

Psalms 69:15 Do not let the floodwaters engulf me or the depths swallow me up or the pit close its mouth over me.

Psalms 69:16 Answer me, O LORD, out of the goodness of your love; in your great mercy turn to me.

Psalms 69:17 Do not hide your face from your servant; answer me quickly, for I am in trouble.

Psalms 69:18 Come near and rescue me; redeem me because of my foes.

Psalms 69:19 You know how I am scorned, disgraced and shamed; all my enemies are before you.

Psalms 69:20 Scorn has broken my heart and has left me helpless; I looked for sympathy, but there was none, for comforters, but I found none.

Psalms 69:21 They put gall in my food and gave me vinegar for my thirst.

Psalms 69:22 May the table set before them become a snare; may it become retribution and a trap.

Psalms 69:23 May their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see, and their backs be bent for ever.

Psalms 69:24 Pour out your wrath on them; let your fierce anger overtake them.

Psalms 69:25 May their place be deserted; let there be no-one to dwell in their tents.

Psalms 69:26 For they persecute those you wound and talk about the pain of those you hurt.

Psalms 69:27 Charge them with crime upon crime; do not let them share in your salvation.

Psalms 69:28 May they be blotted out of the book of life and not be listed with the righteous.

Psalms 69:29 I am in pain and distress; may your salvation, O God, protect me.

Psalms 69:30 I will praise God’s name in song and glorify him with thanksgiving.

Psalms 69:31 This will please the LORD more than an ox, more than a bull with its horns and hoofs.

Psalms 69:32 The poor will see and be glad—you who seek God, may your hearts live!

Psalms 69:33 The LORD hears the needy and does not despise his captive people.

Psalms 69:34 Let heaven and earth praise him, the seas and all that move in them,

Psalms 69:35 for God will save Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah. Then people will settle there and possess it;

Psalms 69:36 the children of his servants will inherit it, and those who love his name will dwell there.

Psalms 70:1 [For the director of music. Of David. A petition.] Hasten, O God, to save me; O LORD, come quickly to help me.

Psalms 70:2 May those who seek my life be put to shame and confusion; may all who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace.

Psalms 70:3 May those who say to me, “Aha! Aha!” turn back because of their shame.

Psalms 70:4 But may all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you; may those who love your salvation always say, “Let God be exalted!”

Psalms 70:5 Yet I am poor and needy; come quickly to me, O God. You are my help and my deliverer; O LORD, do not delay.

Psalms 71:1 In you, O LORD, I have taken refuge; let me never be put to shame.

Psalms 71:2 Rescue me and deliver me in your righteousness; turn your ear to me and save me.

Psalms 71:3 Be my rock of refuge, to which I can always go; give the command to save me, for you are my rock and my fortress.

Psalms 71:4 Deliver me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the grasp of evil and cruel men.

Psalms 71:5 For you have been my hope, O Sovereign LORD, my confidence since my youth.

Psalms 71:6 From my birth I have relied on you; you brought me forth from my mother’s womb. I will ever praise you.

Psalms 71:7 I have become like a portent to many, but you are my strong refuge.

Psalms 71:8 My mouth is filled with your praise, declaring your splendour all day long.

Psalms 71:9 Do not cast me away when I am old; do not forsake me when my strength is gone.

Psalms 71:10 For my enemies speak against me; those who wait to kill me conspire together.

Psalms 71:11 They say, “God has forsaken him; pursue him and seize him, for no-one will rescue him.”

Psalms 71:12 Be not far from me, O God; come quickly, O my God, to help me.

Psalms 71:13 May my accusers perish in shame; may those who want to harm me be covered with scorn and disgrace.

Psalms 71:14 But as for me, I shall always have hope; I will praise you more and more.

Psalms 71:15 My mouth will tell of your righteousness, of your salvation all day long, though I know not its measure.

Psalms 71:16 I will come and proclaim your mighty acts, O Sovereign LORD; I will proclaim your righteousness, yours alone.

Psalms 71:17 Since my youth, O God, you have taught me, and to this day I declare your marvellous deeds.

Psalms 71:18 Even when I am old and grey, do not forsake me, O God, till I declare your power to the next generation, your might to all who are to come.

Psalms 71:19 Your righteousness reaches to the skies, O God, you who have done great things. Who, O God, is like you?

Psalms 71:20 Though you have made me see troubles, many and bitter, you will restore my life again; from the depths of the earth you will again bring me up.

Psalms 71:21 You will increase my honour and comfort me once again.

Psalms 71:22 I will praise you with the harp for your faithfulness, O my God; I will sing praise to you with the lyre, O Holy One of Israel.

Psalms 71:23 My lips will shout for joy when I sing praise to you—I, whom you have redeemed.

Psalms 71:24 My tongue will tell of your righteous acts all day long, for those who wanted to harm me have been put to shame and confusion.

Psalms 72:1 [Of Solomon.] Endow the king with your justice, O God, the royal son with your righteousness.

Psalms 72:2 He will judge your people in righteousness, your afflicted ones with justice.

Psalms 72:3 The mountains will bring prosperity to the people, the hills the fruit of righteousness.

Psalms 72:4 He will defend the afflicted among the people and save the children of the needy; he will crush the oppressor.

Psalms 72:5 He will endure as long as the sun, as long as the moon, through all generations.

Psalms 72:6 He will be like rain falling on a mown field, like showers watering the earth.

Psalms 72:7 In his days the righteous will flourish; prosperity will abound till the moon is no more.

Psalms 72:8 He will rule from sea to sea and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Psalms 72:9 The desert tribes will bow before him and his enemies will lick the dust.

Psalms 72:10 The kings of Tarshish and of distant shores will bring tribute to him; the kings of Sheba and Seba will present him gifts.

Psalms 72:11 All kings will bow down to him and all nations will serve him.

Psalms 72:12 For he will deliver the needy who cry out, the afflicted who have no-one to help.

Psalms 72:13 He will take pity on the weak and the needy and save the needy from death.

Psalms 72:14 He will rescue them from oppression and violence, for precious is their blood in his sight.

Psalms 72:15 Long may he live! May gold from Sheba be given to him. May people ever pray for him and bless him all day long.

Psalms 72:16 Let corn abound throughout the land; on the tops of the hills may it sway. Let its fruit flourish like Lebanon; let it thrive like the grass of the field.

Psalms 72:17 May his name endure for ever; may it continue as long as the sun. All nations will be blessed through him, and they will call him blessed.

Psalms 72:18 Praise be to the LORD God, the God of Israel, who alone does marvellous deeds.

Psalms 72:19 Praise be to his glorious name for ever; may the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen and Amen.

Psalms 72:20 This concludes the prayers of David son of Jesse.

Psalms 73:1 [A psalm of Asaph.] Surely God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart.

Psalms 73:2 But as for me, my feet had almost slipped; I had nearly lost my foothold.

Psalms 73:3 For I envied the arrogant when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

Psalms 73:4 They have no struggles; their bodies are healthy and strong.

Psalms 73:5 They are free from the burdens common to man; they are not plagued by human ills.

Psalms 73:6 Therefore pride is their necklace; they clothe themselves with violence.

Psalms 73:7 From their callous hearts comes iniquity; the evil conceits of their minds know no limits.

Psalms 73:8 They scoff, and speak with malice; in their arrogance they threaten oppression.

Psalms 73:9 Their mouths lay claim to heaven, and their tongues take possession of the earth.

Psalms 73:10 Therefore their people turn to them and drink up waters in abundance.

Psalms 73:11 They say, “How can God know? Does the Most High have knowledge?”

Psalms 73:12 This is what the wicked are like—always carefree, they increase in wealth.

Psalms 73:13 Surely in vain have I kept my heart pure; in vain have I washed my hands in innocence.

Psalms 73:14 All day long I have been plagued; I have been punished every morning.

Psalms 73:15 If I had said, “I will speak thus,” I would have betrayed your children.

Psalms 73:16 When I tried to understand all this, it was oppressive to me

Psalms 73:17 till I entered the sanctuary of God; then I understood their final destiny.

Psalms 73:18 Surely you place them on slippery ground; you cast them down to ruin.

Psalms 73:19 How suddenly are they destroyed, completely swept away by terrors!

Psalms 73:20 As a dream when one awakes, so when you arise, O Lord, you will despise them as fantasies.

Psalms 73:21 When my heart was grieved and my spirit embittered,

Psalms 73:22 I was senseless and ignorant; I was a brute beast before you.

Psalms 73:23 Yet I am always with you; you hold me by my right hand.

Psalms 73:24 You guide me with your counsel, and afterwards you will take me into glory.

Psalms 73:25 Whom have I in heaven but you? And earth has nothing I desire besides you.

Psalms 73:26 My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion for ever.

Psalms 73:27 Those who are far from you will perish; you destroy all who are unfaithful to you.

Psalms 73:28 But as for me, it is good to be near God. I have made the Sovereign LORD my refuge; I will tell of all your deeds.

Psalms 74:1 [A maskil of Asaph.] Why have you rejected us for ever, O God? Why does your anger smoulder against the sheep of your pasture?

Psalms 74:2 Remember the people you purchased of old, the tribe of your inheritance, whom you redeemed—Mount Zion, where you dwelt.

Psalms 74:3 Turn your steps towards these everlasting ruins, all this destruction the enemy has brought on the sanctuary.

Psalms 74:4 Your foes roared in the place where you met with us; they set up their standards as signs.

Psalms 74:5 They behaved like men wielding axes to cut through a thicket of trees.

Psalms 74:6 They smashed all the carved panelling with their axes and hatchets.

Psalms 74:7 They burned your sanctuary to the ground; they defiled the dwelling-place of your Name.

Psalms 74:8 They said in their hearts, “We will crush them completely!” They burned every place where God was worshipped in the land.

Psalms 74:9 We are given no miraculous signs; no prophets are left, and none of us knows how long this will be.

Psalms 74:10 How long will the enemy mock you, O God? Will the foe revile your name for ever?

Psalms 74:11 Why do you hold back your hand, your right hand? Take it from the folds of your garment and destroy them!

Psalms 74:12 But you, O God, are my king from of old; you bring salvation upon the earth.

Psalms 74:13 It was you who split open the sea by your power; you broke the heads of the monster in the waters.

Psalms 74:14 It was you who crushed the heads of Leviathan and gave him as food to the creatures of the desert.

Psalms 74:15 It was you who opened up springs and streams; you dried up the ever-flowing rivers.

Psalms 74:16 The day is yours, and yours also the night; you established the sun and moon.

Psalms 74:17 It was you who set all the boundaries of the earth; you made both summer and winter.

Psalms 74:18 Remember how the enemy has mocked you, O LORD, how foolish people have reviled your name.

Psalms 74:19 Do not hand over the life of your dove to wild beasts; do not forget the lives of your afflicted people for ever.

Psalms 74:20 Have regard for your covenant, because haunts of violence fill the dark places of the land.

Psalms 74:21 Do not let the oppressed retreat in disgrace; may the poor and needy praise your name.

Psalms 74:22 Rise up, O God, and defend your cause; remember how fools mock you all day long.

Psalms 74:23 Do not ignore the clamour of your adversaries, the uproar of your enemies, which rises continually.

Psalms 75:1 [For the director of music. [To the tune of] “Do Not Destroy”. A psalm of Asaph. A song.] We give thanks to you, O God, we give thanks, for your Name is near; men tell of your wonderful deeds.

Psalms 75:2 You say, “I choose the appointed time; it is I who judge uprightly.

Psalms 75:3 When the earth and all its people quake, it is I who hold its pillars firm. Selah

Psalms 75:4 To the arrogant I say,`Boast no more,’ and to the wicked,`Do not lift up your horns.

Psalms 75:5 Do not lift your horns against heaven; do not speak with outstretched neck.’“

Psalms 75:6 No-one from the east or the west or from the desert can exalt a man.

Psalms 75:7 But it is God who judges: He brings one down, he exalts another.

Psalms 75:8 In the hand of the LORD is a cup full of foaming wine mixed with spices; he pours it out, and all the wicked of the earth drink it down to its very dregs.

Psalms 75:9 As for me, I will declare this for ever; I will sing praise to the God of Jacob.

Psalms 75:10 I will cut off the horns of all the wicked, but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

Psalms 76:1 [For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A psalm of Asaph. A song.] In Judah God is known; his name is great in Israel.

Psalms 76:2 His tent is in Salem, his dwelling-place in Zion.

Psalms 76:3 There he broke the flashing arrows, the shields and the swords, the weapons of war. Selah

Psalms 76:4 You are resplendent with light, more majestic than mountains rich with game.

Psalms 76:5 Valiant men lie plundered, they sleep their last sleep; not one of the warriors can lift his hands.

Psalms 76:6 At your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both horse and chariot lie still.

Psalms 76:7 You alone are to be feared. Who can stand before you when you are angry?

Psalms 76:8 From heaven you pronounced judgment, and the land feared and was quiet—

Psalms 76:9 when you, O God, rose up to judge, to save all the afflicted of the land. Selah

Psalms 76:10 Surely your wrath against men brings you praise, and the survivors of your wrath are restrained.

Psalms 76:11 Make vows to the LORD your God and fulfil them; let all the neighbouring lands bring gifts to the One to be feared.

Psalms 76:12 He breaks the spirit of rulers; he is feared by the kings of the earth.

Psalms 77:1 [For the director of music. For Jeduthun. Of Asaph. A psalm.] I cried out to God for help; I cried out to God to hear me.

Psalms 77:2 When I was in distress, I sought the Lord; at night I stretched out untiring hands and my soul refused to be comforted.

Psalms 77:3 I remembered you, O God, and I groaned; I mused, and my spirit grew faint. Selah

Psalms 77:4 You kept my eyes from closing; I was too troubled to speak.

Psalms 77:5 I thought about the former days, the years of long ago;

Psalms 77:6 I remembered my songs in the night. My heart mused and my spirit enquired:

Psalms 77:7 “Will the Lord reject for ever? Will he never show his favour again?

Psalms 77:8 Has his unfailing love vanished for ever? Has his promise failed for all time?

Psalms 77:9 Has God forgotten to be merciful? Has he in anger withheld his compassion?” Selah

Psalms 77:10 Then I thought, “To this I will appeal: the years of the right hand of the Most High.”

Psalms 77:11 I will remember the deeds of the LORD; yes, I will remember your miracles of long ago.

Psalms 77:12 I will meditate on all your works and consider all your mighty deeds.

Psalms 77:13 Your ways, O God, are holy. What god is so great as our God?

Psalms 77:14 You are the God who performs miracles; you display your power among the peoples.

Psalms 77:15 With your mighty arm you redeemed your people, the descendants of Jacob and Joseph. Selah

Psalms 77:16 The waters saw you, O God, the waters saw you and writhed; the very depths were convulsed.

Psalms 77:17 The clouds poured down water, the skies resounded with thunder; your arrows flashed back and forth.

Psalms 77:18 Your thunder was heard in the whirlwind, your lightning lit up the world; the earth trembled and quaked.

Psalms 77:19 Your path led through the sea, your way through the mighty waters, though your footprints were not seen.

Psalms 77:20 You led your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalms 78:1 [A maskil of Asaph.] O my people, hear my teaching; listen to the words of my mouth.

Psalms 78:2 I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter hidden things, things from of old—

Psalms 78:3 what we have heard and known, what our fathers have told us.

Psalms 78:4 We will not hide them from their children; we will tell the next generation the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD, his power, and the wonders he has done.

Psalms 78:5 He decreed statutes for Jacob and established the law in Israel, which he commanded our forefathers to teach their children,

Psalms 78:6 so that the next generation would know them, even the children yet to be born, and they in turn would tell their children.

Psalms 78:7 Then they would put their trust in God and would not forget his deeds but would keep his commands.

Psalms 78:8 They would not be like their forefathers—a stubborn and rebellious generation, whose hearts were not loyal to God, whose spirits were not faithful to him.

Psalms 78:9 The men of Ephraim, though armed with bows, turned back on the day of battle;

Psalms 78:10 they did not keep God’s covenant and refused to live by his law.

Psalms 78:11 They forgot what he had done, the wonders he had shown them.

Psalms 78:12 He did miracles in the sight of their fathers in the land of Egypt, in the region of Zoan.

Psalms 78:13 He divided the sea and led them through; he made the water stand firm like a wall.

Psalms 78:14 He guided them with the cloud by day and with light from the fire all night.

Psalms 78:15 He split the rocks in the desert and gave them water as abundant as the seas;

Psalms 78:16 he brought streams out of a rocky crag and made water flow down like rivers.

Psalms 78:17 But they continued to sin against him, rebelling in the desert against the Most High.

Psalms 78:18 They wilfully put God to the test by demanding the food they craved.

Psalms 78:19 They spoke against God, saying, “Can God spread a table in the desert?

Psalms 78:20 When he struck the rock, water gushed out, and streams flowed abundantly. But can he also give us food? Can he supply meat for his people?”

Psalms 78:21 When the LORD heard them, he was very angry; his fire broke out against Jacob, and his wrath rose against Israel,

Psalms 78:22 for they did not believe in God or trust in his deliverance.

Psalms 78:23 Yet he gave a command to the skies above and opened the doors of the heavens;

Psalms 78:24 he rained down manna for the people to eat, he gave them the grain of heaven.

Psalms 78:25 Men ate the bread of angels; he sent them all the food they could eat.

Psalms 78:26 He let loose the east wind from the heavens and led forth the south wind by his power.

Psalms 78:27 He rained meat down on them like dust, flying birds like sand on the seashore.

Psalms 78:28 He made them come down inside their camp, all around their tents.

Psalms 78:29 They ate till they had more than enough, for he had given them what they craved.

Psalms 78:30 But before they turned from the food they craved, even while it was still in their mouths, Psalms 78:31 God’s anger rose against them; he put to death the sturdiest among them, cutting down the young men of Israel.

Psalms 78:32 In spite of all this, they kept on sinning; in spite of his wonders, they did not believe.

Psalms 78:33 So he ended their days in futility and their years in terror.

Psalms 78:34 Whenever God slew them, they would seek him; they eagerly turned to him again.

Psalms 78:35 They remembered that God was their Rock, that God Most High was their Redeemer.

Psalms 78:36 But then they would flatter him with their mouths, lying to him with their tongues;

Psalms 78:37 their hearts were not loyal to him, they were not faithful to his covenant.

Psalms 78:38 Yet he was merciful; he forgave their iniquities and did not destroy them. Time after time he restrained his anger and did not stir up his full wrath.

Psalms 78:39 He remembered that they were but flesh, a passing breeze that does not return.

Psalms 78:40 How often they rebelled against him in the desert and grieved him in the wasteland!

Psalms 78:41 Again and again they put God to the test; they vexed the Holy One of Israel.

Psalms 78:42 They did not remember his power—the day he redeemed them from the oppressor,

Psalms 78:43 the day he displayed his miraculous signs in Egypt, his wonders in the region of Zoan.

Psalms 78:44 He turned their rivers to blood; they could not drink from their streams.

Psalms 78:45 He sent swarms of flies that devoured them, and frogs that devastated them.

Psalms 78:46 He gave their crops to the grasshopper, their produce to the locust.

Psalms 78:47 He destroyed their vines with hail and their sycamore-figs with sleet.

Psalms 78:48 He gave over their cattle to the hail, their livestock to bolts of lightning.

Psalms 78:49 He unleashed against them his hot anger, his wrath, indignation and hostility—a band of destroying angels.

Psalms 78:50 He prepared a path for his anger; he did not spare them from death but gave them over to the plague.

Psalms 78:51 He struck down all the firstborn of Egypt, the firstfruits of manhood in the tents of Ham.

Psalms 78:52 But he brought his people out like a flock; he led them like sheep through the desert.

Psalms 78:53 He guided them safely, so they were unafraid; but the sea engulfed their enemies.

Psalms 78:54 Thus he brought them to the border of his holy land, to the hill country his right hand had taken.

Psalms 78:55 He drove out nations before them and allotted their lands to them as an inheritance; he settled the tribes of Israel in their homes.

Psalms 78:56 But they put God to the test and rebelled against the Most High; they did not keep his statutes.

Psalms 78:57 Like their fathers they were disloyal and faithless, as unreliable as a faulty bow.

Psalms 78:58 They angered him with their high places; they aroused his jealousy with their idols.

Psalms 78:59 When God heard them, he was very angry; he rejected Israel completely.

Psalms 78:60 He abandoned the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent he had set up among men.

Psalms 78:61 He sent [the ark of] his might into captivity, his splendour into the hands of the enemy.

Psalms 78:62 He gave his people over to the sword; he was very angry with his inheritance.

Psalms 78:63 Fire consumed their young men, and their maidens had no wedding songs;

Psalms 78:64 their priests were put to the sword, and their widows could not weep.

Psalms 78:65 Then the Lord awoke as from sleep, as a man wakes from the stupor of wine.

Psalms 78:66 He beat back his enemies; he put them to everlasting shame.

Psalms 78:67 Then he rejected the tents of Joseph, he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim;

Psalms 78:68 but he chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion, which he loved.

Psalms 78:69 He built his sanctuary like the heights, like the earth that he established for ever.

Psalms 78:70 He chose David his servant and took him from the sheep pens;

Psalms 78:71 from tending the sheep he brought him to be the shepherd of his people Jacob, of Israel his inheritance.

Psalms 78:72 And David shepherded them with integrity of heart; with skilful hands he led them.

Psalms 79:1 [A psalm of Asaph.] O God, the nations have invaded your inheritance; they have defiled your holy temple, they have reduced Jerusalem to rubble.

Psalms 79:2 They have given the dead bodies of your servants as food to the birds of the air, the flesh of your saints to the beasts of the earth.

Psalms 79:3 They have poured out blood like water all around Jerusalem, and there is no-one to bury the dead.

Psalms 79:4 We are objects of reproach to our neighbours, of scorn and derision to those around us.

Psalms 79:5 How long, O LORD? Will you be angry for ever? How long will your jealousy burn like fire?

Psalms 79:6 Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not acknowledge you, on the kingdoms that do not call on your name;

Psalms 79:7 for they have devoured Jacob and destroyed his homeland.

Psalms 79:8 Do not hold against us the sins of the fathers; may your mercy come quickly to meet us, for we are in desperate need.

Psalms 79:9 Help us, O God our Saviour, for the glory of your name; deliver us and forgive our sins for your name's sake.

Psalms 79:10 Why should the nations say, “Where is their God?” Before our eyes, make known among the nations that you avenge the outpoured blood of your servants.

Psalms 79:11 May the groans of the prisoners come before you; by the strength of your arm preserve those condemned to die.

Psalms 79:12 Pay back into the laps of our neighbours seven times the reproach they have hurled at you, O Lord.

Psalms 79:13 Then we your people, the sheep of your pasture, will praise you for ever; from generation to generation we will recount your praise.

Psalms 80:1 [For the director of music. To [the tune of] “The Lilies of the Covenant”. Of Asaph. A psalm.] Hear us, O Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph like a flock; you who sit enthroned between the cherubim, shine forth Psalms 80:2 before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh. Awaken your might; come and save us.

Psalms 80:3 Restore us, O God; make your face shine upon us, that we may be saved.

Psalms 80:4 O LORD God Almighty, how long will your anger smoulder against the prayers of your people?

Psalms 80:5 You have fed them with the bread of tears; you have made them drink tears by the bowlful.

Psalms 80:6 You have made us a source of contention to our neighbours, and our enemies mock us.

Psalms 80:7 Restore us, O God Almighty; make your face shine upon us, that we may be saved.

Psalms 80:8 You brought a vine out of Egypt; you drove out the nations and planted it.

Psalms 80:9 You cleared the ground for it, and it took root and filled the land.

Psalms 80:10 The mountains were covered with its shade, the mighty cedars with its branches.

Psalms 80:11 It sent out its boughs to the Sea, its shoots as far as the River.

Psalms 80:12 Why have you broken down its walls so that all who pass by pick its grapes?

Psalms 80:13 Boars from the forest ravage it and the creatures of the field feed on it.

Psalms 80:14 Return to us, O God Almighty! Look down from heaven and see! Watch over this vine,

Psalms 80:15 the root your right hand has planted, the son you have raised up for yourself.

Psalms 80:16 Your vine is cut down, it is burned with fire; at your rebuke your people perish.

Psalms 80:17 Let your hand rest on the man at your right hand, the son of man you have raised up for yourself.

Psalms 80:18 Then we will not turn away from you; revive us, and we will call on your name.

Psalms 80:19 Restore us, O LORD God Almighty; make your face shine upon us, that we may be saved.

Psalms 81:1 [For the director of music. According to gittith. Of Asaph.] Sing for joy to God our strength; shout aloud to the God of Jacob!

Psalms 81:2 Begin the music, strike the tambourine, play the melodious harp and lyre.

Psalms 81:3 Sound the ram’s horn at the New Moon, and when the moon is full, on the day of our Feast;

Psalms 81:4 this is a decree for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.

Psalms 81:5 He established it as a statute for Joseph when he went out against Egypt, where we heard a language we did not understand.

Psalms 81:6 He says, “I removed the burden from their shoulders; their hands were set free from the basket.

Psalms 81:7 In your distress you called and I rescued you, I answered you out of a thundercloud; I tested you at the waters of Meribah. Selah Psalms 81:8 “Hear, O my people, and I will warn you—if you would but listen to me, O Israel!

Psalms 81:9 You shall have no foreign god among you; you shall not bow down to an alien god.

Psalms 81:10 I am the LORD your God, who brought you up out of Egypt. Open wide your mouth and I will fill it.

Psalms 81:11 “But my people would not listen to me; Israel would not submit to me.

Psalms 81:12 So I gave them over to their stubborn hearts to follow their own devices.

Psalms 81:13 “If my people would but listen to me, if Israel would follow my ways,

Psalms 81:14 how quickly would I subdue their enemies and turn my hand against their foes!

Psalms 81:15 Those who hate the LORD would cringe before him, and their punishment would last for ever.

Psalms 81:16 But you would be fed with the finest of wheat; with honey from the rock I would satisfy you.”

Psalms 82:1 [A psalm of Asaph.] God presides in the great assembly; he gives judgment among the “gods”:

Psalms 82:2 “How long will you defend the unjust and show partiality to the wicked? Selah

Psalms 82:3 Defend the cause of the weak and fatherless; maintain the rights of the poor and oppressed.

Psalms 82:4 Rescue the weak and needy; deliver them from the hand of the wicked.

Psalms 82:5 “They know nothing, they understand nothing. They walk about in darkness; all the foundations of the earth are shaken.

Psalms 82:6 “I said,`You are “gods”; you are all sons of the Most High.’

Psalms 82:7 But you will die like mere men; you will fall like every other ruler.”

Psalms 82:8 Rise up, O God, judge the earth, for all the nations are your inheritance.

Psalms 83:1 [A song. A psalm of Asaph.] O God, do not keep silent; be not quiet, O God, be not still.

Psalms 83:2 See how your enemies are astir, how your foes rear their heads.

Psalms 83:3 With cunning they conspire against your people; they plot against those you cherish.

Psalms 83:4 “Come,” they say, “let us destroy them as a nation, that the name of Israel be remembered no more.”

Psalms 83:5 With one mind they plot together; they form an alliance against you—

Psalms 83:6 the tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, of Moab and the Hagrites,

Psalms 83:7 Gebal, Ammon and Amalek, Philistia, with the people of Tyre.

Psalms 83:8 Even Assyria has joined them to lend strength to the descendants of Lot. Selah

Psalms 83:9 Do to them as you did to Midian, as you did to Sisera and Jabin at the river Kishon,

Psalms 83:10 who perished at Endor and became like refuse on the ground.

Psalms 83:11 Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb, all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna,

Psalms 83:12 who said, “Let us take possession of the pasture-lands of God.”

Psalms 83:13 Make them like tumble-weed, O my God, like chaff before the wind.

Psalms 83:14 As fire consumes the forest or a flame sets the mountains ablaze,

Psalms 83:15 so pursue them with your tempest and terrify them with your storm.

Psalms 83:16 Cover their faces with shame so that men will seek your name, O LORD.

Psalms 83:17 May they ever be ashamed and dismayed; may they perish in disgrace.

Psalms 83:18 Let them know that you, whose name is the LORD—that you alone are the Most High over all the earth.

Psalms 84:1 [For the director of music. According to gittith. Of the Sons of Korah. A psalm.] How lovely is your dwelling-place, O LORD Almighty!

Psalms 84:2 My soul yearns, even faints, for the courts of the LORD; my heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

Psalms 84:3 Even the sparrow has found a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may have her young—a place near your altar, O LORD Almighty, my King and my God.

Psalms 84:4 Blessed are those who dwell in your house; they are ever praising you. Selah

Psalms 84:5 Blessed are those whose strength is in you, who have set their hearts on pilgrimage.

Psalms 84:6 As they pass through the Valley of Baca, they make it a place of springs; the autumn rains also cover it with pools.

Psalms 84:7 They go from strength to strength, till each appears before God in Zion.

Psalms 84:8 Hear my prayer, O LORD God Almighty; listen to me, O God of Jacob. Selah

Psalms 84:9 Look upon our shield, O God; look with favour on your anointed one.

Psalms 84:10 Better is one day in your courts than a thousand elsewhere; I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of the wicked.

Psalms 84:11 For the LORD God is a sun and shield; the LORD bestows favour and honour; no good thing does he withhold from those whose walk is blameless.

Psalms 84:12 O LORD Almighty, blessed is the man who trusts in you.

Psalms 85:1 [For the director of music. Of the Sons of Korah. A psalm.] You showed favour to your land, O LORD; you restored the fortunes of Jacob.

Psalms 85:2 You forgave the iniquity of your people and covered all their sins. Selah

Psalms 85:3 You set aside all your wrath and turned from your fierce anger.

Psalms 85:4 Restore us again, O God our Saviour, and put away your displeasure towards us.

Psalms 85:5 Will you be angry with us for ever? Will you prolong your anger through all generations?

Psalms 85:6 Will you not revive us again, that your people may rejoice in you?

Psalms 85:7 Show us your unfailing love, O LORD, and grant us your salvation.

Psalms 85:8 I will listen to what God the LORD will say; he promises peace to his people, his saints—but let them not return to folly.

Psalms 85:9 Surely his salvation is near those who fear him, that his glory may dwell in our land.

Psalms 85:10 Love and faithfulness meet together; righteousness and peace kiss each other.

Psalms 85:11 Faithfulness springs forth from the earth, and righteousness looks down from heaven.

Psalms 85:12 The LORD will indeed give what is good, and our land will yield its harvest.

Psalms 85:13 Righteousness goes before him and prepares the way for his steps.

Psalms 86:1 [A prayer of David.] Hear, O LORD, and answer me, for I am poor and needy.

Psalms 86:2 Guard my life, for I am devoted to you. You are my God; save your servant who trusts in you.

Psalms 86:3 Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I call to you all day long.

Psalms 86:4 Bring joy to your servant, for to you, O Lord, I lift up my soul.

Psalms 86:5 You are forgiving and good, O Lord, abounding in love to all who call to you.

Psalms 86:6 Hear my prayer, O LORD; listen to my cry for mercy.

Psalms 86:7 In the day of my trouble I will call to you, for you will answer me.

Psalms 86:8 Among the gods there is none like you, O Lord; no deeds can compare with yours.

Psalms 86:9 All the nations you have made will come and worship before you, O Lord; they will bring glory to your name.

Psalms 86:10 For you are great and do marvellous deeds; you alone are God.

Psalms 86:11 Teach me your way, O LORD, and I will walk in your truth; give me an undivided heart, that I may fear your name.

Psalms 86:12 I will praise you, O Lord my God, with all my heart; I will glorify your name for ever.

Psalms 86:13 For great is your love towards me; you have delivered me from the depths of the grave.

Psalms 86:14 The arrogant are attacking me, O God; a band of ruthless men seeks my life—men without regard for you.

Psalms 86:15 But you, O Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness.

Psalms 86:16 Turn to me and have mercy on me; grant your strength to your servant and save the son of your maidservant.

Psalms 86:17 Give me a sign of your goodness, that my enemies may see it and be put to shame, for you, O LORD, have helped me and comforted me.

Psalms 87:1 [Of the Sons of Korah. A psalm. A song.] He has set his foundation on the holy mountain;

Psalms 87:2 the LORD loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

Psalms 87:3 Glorious things are said of you, O city of God: Selah

Psalms 87:4 “I will record Rahab and Babylon among those who acknowledge me—Philistia too, and Tyre, along with Cush— and will say,`This one was born in Zion.”“

Psalms 87:5 Indeed, of Zion it will be said, “This one and that one were born in her, and the Most High himself will establish her.”

Psalms 87:6 The LORD will write in the register of the peoples: “This one was born in Zion.” Selah

Psalms 87:7 As they make music they will sing, “All my fountains are in you.”

Psalms 88:1 [A song. A psalm of the Sons of Korah. For the director of music. According to mahalath leannoth. A maskil of Heman the Ezrahite.] O LORD, the God who saves me, day and night I cry out before you.

Psalms 88:2 May my prayer come before you; turn your ear to my cry.

Psalms 88:3 For my soul is full of trouble and my life draws near the grave.

Psalms 88:4 I am counted among those who go down to the pit; I am like a man without strength.

Psalms 88:5 I am set apart with the dead, like the slain who lie in the grave, whom you remember no more, who are cut off from your care.

Psalms 88:6 You have put me in the lowest pit, in the darkest depths.

Psalms 88:7 Your wrath lies heavily upon me; you have overwhelmed me with all your waves. Selah

Psalms 88:8 You have taken from me my closest friends and have made me repulsive to them. I am confined and cannot escape;

Psalms 88:9 my eyes are dim with grief. I call to you, O LORD, every day; I spread out my hands to you.

Psalms 88:10 Do you show your wonders to the dead? Do those who are dead rise up and praise you? Selah

Psalms 88:11 Is your love declared in the grave, your faithfulness in Destruction?

Psalms 88:12 Are your wonders known in the place of darkness, or your righteous deeds in the land of oblivion?

Psalms 88:13 But I cry to you for help, O LORD; in the morning my prayer comes before you.

Psalms 88:14 Why, O LORD, do you reject me and hide your face from me?

Psalms 88:15 From my youth I have been afflicted and close to death; I have suffered your terrors and am in despair.

Psalms 88:16 Your wrath has swept over me; your terrors have destroyed me.

Psalms 88:17 All day long they surround me like a flood; they have completely engulfed me.

Psalms 88:18 You have taken my companions and loved ones from me; the darkness is my closest friend.

Psalms 89:1 [A maskil of Ethan the Ezrahite.] I will sing of the LORD's great love for ever; with my mouth I will make your faithfulness known through all generations.

Psalms 89:2 I will declare that your love stands firm for ever, that you established your faithfulness in heaven itself.

Psalms 89:3 You said, "I have made a covenant with my chosen one, I have sworn to David my servant,

Psalms 89:4 `I will establish your line for ever and make your throne firm through all generations.'" Selah

Psalms 89:5 The heavens praise your wonders, O LORD, your faithfulness too, in the assembly of the holy ones.

Psalms 89:6 For who in the skies above can compare with the LORD? Who is like the LORD among the heavenly beings?

Psalms 89:7 In the council of the holy ones God is greatly feared; he is more awesome than all who surround him.

Psalms 89:8 O LORD God Almighty, who is like you? You are mighty, O LORD, and your faithfulness surrounds you.

Psalms 89:9 You rule over the surging sea; when its waves mount up, you still them.

Psalms 89:10 You crushed Rahab like one of the slain; with your strong arm you scattered your enemies.

Psalms 89:11 The heavens are yours, and yours also the earth; you founded the world and all that is in it.

Psalms 89:12 You created the north and the south; Tabor and Hermon sing for joy at your name.

Psalms 89:13 Your arm is endued with power; your hand is strong, your right hand exalted.

Psalms 89:14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne; love and faithfulness go before you.

Psalms 89:15 Blessed are those who have learned to acclaim you, who walk in the light of your presence, O LORD.

Psalms 89:16 They rejoice in your name all day long; they exult in your righteousness.

Psalms 89:17 For you are their glory and strength, and by your favour you exalt our horn.

Psalms 89:18 Indeed, our shield belongs to the LORD, our king to the Holy One of Israel.

Psalms 89:19 Once you spoke in a vision, to your faithful people you said: “I have bestowed strength on a warrior; I have exalted a young man from among the people.

Psalms 89:20 I have found David my servant; with my sacred oil I have anointed him.

Psalms 89:21 My hand will sustain him; surely my arm will strengthen him.

Psalms 89:22 No enemy will subject him to tribute; no wicked man will oppress him.

Psalms 89:23 I will crush his foes before him and strike down his adversaries.

Psalms 89:24 My faithful love will be with him, and through my name his horn will be exalted.

Psalms 89:25 I will set his hand over the sea, his right hand over the rivers.

Psalms 89:26 He will call out to me,`You are my Father, my God, the Rock my Saviour.’

Psalms 89:27 I will also appoint him my firstborn, the most exalted of the kings of the earth.

Psalms 89:28 I will maintain my love to him for ever, and my covenant with him will never fail.

Psalms 89:29 I will establish his line for ever, his throne as long as the heavens endure.

Psalms 89:30 “If his sons forsake my law and do not follow my statutes,

Psalms 89:31 if they violate my decrees and fail to keep my commands,

Psalms 89:32 I will punish their sin with the rod, their iniquity with flogging;

Psalms 89:33 but I will not take my love from him, nor will I ever betray my faithfulness.

Psalms 89:34 I will not violate my covenant or alter what my lips have uttered.

Psalms 89:35 Once for all, I have sworn by my holiness—and I will not lie to David—

Psalms 89:36 that his line will continue for ever and his throne endure before me like the sun;

Psalms 89:37 it will be established for ever like the moon, the faithful witness in the sky.” Selah

Psalms 89:38 But you have rejected, you have spurned, you have been very angry with your anointed one.

Psalms 89:39 You have renounced the covenant with your servant and have defiled his crown in the dust.

Psalms 89:40 You have broken through all his walls and reduced his strongholds to ruins.

Psalms 89:41 All who pass by have plundered him; he has become the scorn of his neighbours.

Psalms 89:42 You have exalted the right hand of his foes; you have made all his enemies rejoice.

Psalms 89:43 You have turned back the edge of his sword and have not supported him in battle.

Psalms 89:44 You have put an end to his splendour and cast his throne to the ground.

Psalms 89:45 You have cut short the days of his youth; you have covered him with a mantle of shame. Selah

Psalms 89:46 How long, O LORD? Will you hide yourself for ever? How long will your wrath burn like fire?

Psalms 89:47 Remember how fleeting is my life. For what futility you have created all men!

Psalms 89:48 What man can live and not see death, or save himself from the power of the grave? Selah

Psalms 89:49 O Lord, where is your former great love, which in your faithfulness you swore to David?

Psalms 89:50 Remember, Lord, how your servant has been mocked, how I bear in my heart the taunts of all the nations,

Psalms 89:51 the taunts with which your enemies have mocked, O LORD, with which they have mocked every step of your anointed one.

Psalms 89:52 Praise be to the LORD for ever! Amen and Amen.

Psalms 90:1 [A prayer of Moses the man of God.] Lord, you have been our dwelling-place throughout all generations.

Psalms 90:2 Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

Psalms 90:3 You turn men back to dust, saying, “Return to dust, O sons of men.”

Psalms 90:4 For a thousand years in your sight are like a day that has just gone by, or like a watch in the night.

Psalms 90:5 You sweep men away in the sleep of death; they are like the new grass of the morning—

Psalms 90:6 though in the morning it springs up new, by evening it is dry and withered.

Psalms 90:7 We are consumed by your anger and terrified by your indignation.

Psalms 90:8 You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your presence.

Psalms 90:9 All our days pass away under your wrath; we finish our years with a moan.

Psalms 90:10 The length of our days is seventy years—or eighty, if we have the strength; yet their span is but trouble and sorrow, for they quickly pass, and we fly away.

Psalms 90:11 Who knows the power of your anger? For your wrath is as great as the fear that is due to you.

Psalms 90:12 Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

Psalms 90:13 Relent, O LORD! How long will it be? Have compassion on your servants.

Psalms 90:14 Satisfy us in the morning with your unfailing love, that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days.

Psalms 90:15 Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us, for as many years as we have seen trouble.

Psalms 90:16 May your deeds be shown to your servants, your splendour to their children.

Psalms 90:17 May the favour of the Lord our God rest upon us; establish the work of our hands for us—yes, establish the work of our hands.

Psalms 91:1 He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.

Psalms 91:2 I will say of the LORD, “He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.”

Psalms 91:3 Surely he will save you from the fowler’s snare and from the deadly pestilence.

Psalms 91:4 He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart.

Psalms 91:5 You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day, Psalms 91:6 nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday.

Psalms 91:7 A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.

Psalms 91:8 You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked.

Psalms 91:9 If you make the Most High your dwelling—even the LORD, who is my refuge—

Psalms 91:10 then no harm will befall you, no disaster will come near your tent.

Psalms 91:11 For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways;

Psalms 91:12 they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.

Psalms 91:13 You will tread upon the lion and the cobra; you will trample the great lion and the serpent.

Psalms 91:14 "Because he loves me," says the LORD, "I will rescue him; I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name.

Psalms 91:15 He will call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honour him.

Psalms 91:16 With long life will I satisfy him and show him my salvation."

Psalms 92:1 [A psalm. A song. For the Sabbath day.] It is good to praise the LORD and make music to your name, O Most High,

Psalms 92:2 to proclaim your love in the morning and your faithfulness at night,

Psalms 92:3 to the music of the ten-stringed lyre and the melody of the harp.

Psalms 92:4 For you make me glad by your deeds, O LORD; I sing for joy at the work of your hands.

Psalms 92:5 How great are your works, O LORD, how profound your thoughts!

Psalms 92:6 The senseless man does not know, fools do not understand,

Psalms 92:7 that though the wicked spring up like grass and all evildoers flourish, they will be for ever destroyed.

Psalms 92:8 But you, O LORD, are exalted for ever.

Psalms 92:9 For surely your enemies, O LORD, surely your enemies will perish; all evildoers will be scattered.

Psalms 92:10 You have exalted my horn like that of a wild ox; fine oils have been poured upon me.

Psalms 92:11 My eyes have seen the defeat of my adversaries; my ears have heard the rout of my wicked foes.

Psalms 92:12 The righteous will flourish like a palm tree, they will grow like a cedar of Lebanon;

Psalms 92:13 planted in the house of the LORD, they will flourish in the courts of our God.

Psalms 92:14 They will still bear fruit in old age, they will stay fresh and green,

Psalms 92:15 proclaiming, “The LORD is upright; he is my Rock, and there is no wickedness in him.”

Psalms 93:1 The LORD reigns, he is robed in majesty; the LORD is robed in majesty and is armed with strength. The world is firmly established; it cannot be moved.

Psalms 93:2 Your throne was established long ago; you are from all eternity.

Psalms 93:3 The seas have lifted up, O LORD, the seas have lifted up their voice; the seas have lifted up their pounding waves.

Psalms 93:4 Mightier than the thunder of the great waters, mightier than the breakers of the sea—the LORD on high is mighty.

Psalms 93:5 Your statutes stand firm; holiness adorns your house for endless days, O LORD.

Psalms 94:1 O LORD, the God who avenges, O God who avenges, shine forth.

Psalms 94:2 Rise up, O Judge of the earth; pay back to the proud what they deserve.

Psalms 94:3 How long will the wicked, O LORD, how long will the wicked be jubilant?

Psalms 94:4 They pour out arrogant words; all the evildoers are full of boasting.

Psalms 94:5 They crush your people, O LORD; they oppress your inheritance.

Psalms 94:6 They slay the widow and the alien; they murder the fatherless.

Psalms 94:7 They say, “The LORD does not see; the God of Jacob pays no heed.”

Psalms 94:8 Take heed, you senseless ones among the people; you fools, when will you become wise?

Psalms 94:9 Does he who implanted the ear not hear? Does he who formed the eye not see?

Psalms 94:10 Does he who disciplines nations not punish? Does he who teaches man lack knowledge?

Psalms 94:11 The LORD knows the thoughts of man; he knows that they are futile.

Psalms 94:12 Blessed is the man you discipline, O LORD, the man you teach from your law;

Psalms 94:13 you grant him relief from days of trouble, till a pit is dug for the wicked.

Psalms 94:14 For the LORD will not reject his people; he will never forsake his inheritance.

Psalms 94:15 Judgment will again be founded on righteousness, and all the upright in heart will follow it.

Psalms 94:16 Who will rise up for me against the wicked? Who will take a stand for me against evildoers?

Psalms 94:17 Unless the LORD had given me help, I would soon have dwelt in the silence of death.

Psalms 94:18 When I said, “My foot is slipping,” your love, O LORD, supported me.

Psalms 94:19 When anxiety was great within me, your consolation brought joy to my soul.

Psalms 94:20 Can a corrupt throne be allied with you—one that brings on misery by its decrees?

Psalms 94:21 They band together against the righteous and condemn the innocent to death.

Psalms 94:22 But the LORD has become my fortress, and my God the rock in whom I take refuge.

Psalms 94:23 He will repay them for their sins and destroy them for their wickedness; the LORD our God will destroy them.

Psalms 95:1 Come, let us sing for joy to the LORD; let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation.

Psalms 95:2 Let us come before him with thanksgiving and extol him with music and song.

Psalms 95:3 For the LORD is the great God, the great King above all gods.

Psalms 95:4 In his hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain peaks belong to him.

Psalms 95:5 The sea is his, for he made it, and his hands formed the dry land.

Psalms 95:6 Come, let us bow down in worship, let us kneel before the LORD our Maker;

Psalms 95:7 for he is our God and we are the people of his pasture, the flock under his care. Today, if you hear his voice, Psalms 95:8 do not harden your hearts as you did at Meribah, as you did that day at Massah in the desert,

Psalms 95:9 where your fathers tested and tried me, though they had seen what I did.

Psalms 95:10 For forty years I was angry with that generation; I said, “They are a people whose hearts go astray, and they have not known my ways.”

Psalms 95:11 So I declared on oath in my anger, “They shall never enter my rest.”

Psalms 96:1 Sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all the earth.

Psalms 96:2 Sing to the LORD, praise his name; proclaim his salvation day after day.

Psalms 96:3 Declare his glory among the nations, his marvellous deeds among all peoples.

Psalms 96:4 For great is the LORD and most worthy of praise; he is to be feared above all gods.

Psalms 96:5 For all the gods of the nations are idols, but the LORD made the heavens.

Psalms 96:6 Splendour and majesty are before him; strength and glory are in his sanctuary.

Psalms 96:7 Ascribe to the LORD, O families of nations, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

Psalms 96:8 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due to his name; bring an offering and come into his courts.

Psalms 96:9 Worship the LORD in the splendour of his holiness; tremble before him, all the earth.

Psalms 96:10 Say among the nations, “The LORD reigns.” The world is firmly established, it cannot be moved; he will judge the peoples with equity.

Psalms 96:11 Let the heavens rejoice, let the earth be glad; let the sea resound, and all that is in it;

Psalms 96:12 let the fields be jubilant, and everything in them. Then all the trees of the forest will sing for joy;

Psalms 96:13 they will sing before the LORD, for he comes, he comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world in righteousness and the peoples in his truth.

Psalms 97:1 The LORD reigns, let the earth be glad; let the distant shores rejoice.

Psalms 97:2 Clouds and thick darkness surround him; righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.

Psalms 97:3 Fire goes before him and consumes his foes on every side.

Psalms 97:4 His lightning lights up the world; the earth sees and trembles.

Psalms 97:5 The mountains melt like wax before the LORD, before the Lord of all the earth.

Psalms 97:6 The heavens proclaim his righteousness, and all the peoples see his glory.

Psalms 97:7 All who worship images are put to shame, those who boast in idols— worship him, all you gods!

Psalms 97:8 Zion hears and rejoices and the villages of Judah are glad because of your judgments, O LORD.

Psalms 97:9 For you, O LORD, are the Most High over all the earth; you are exalted far above all gods.

Psalms 97:10 Let those who love the LORD hate evil, for he guards the lives of his faithful ones and delivers them from the hand of the wicked.

Psalms 97:11 Light is shed upon the righteous and joy on the upright in heart.

Psalms 97:12 Rejoice in the LORD, you who are righteous, and praise his holy name.

Psalms 98:1 [A psalm.] Sing to the LORD a new song, for he has done marvellous things; his right hand and his holy arm have worked salvation for him.

Psalms 98:2 The LORD has made his salvation known and revealed his righteousness to the nations.

Psalms 98:3 He has remembered his love and his faithfulness to the house of Israel; all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Psalms 98:4 Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth, burst into jubilant song with music;

Psalms 98:5 make music to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and the sound of singing,

Psalms 98:6 with trumpets and the blast of the ram’s horn—shout for joy before the LORD, the King.

Psalms 98:7 Let the sea resound, and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it.

Psalms 98:8 Let the rivers clap their hands, let the mountains sing together for joy;

Psalms 98:9 let them sing before the LORD, for he comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world in righteousness and the peoples with equity.

Psalms 99:1 The LORD reigns, let the nations tremble; he sits enthroned between the cherubim, let the earth shake.

Psalms 99:2 Great is the LORD in Zion; he is exalted over all the nations.

Psalms 99:3 Let them praise your great and awesome name—he is holy.

Psalms 99:4 The King is mighty, he loves justice—you have established equity; in Jacob you have done what is just and right.

Psalms 99:5 Exalt the LORD our God and worship at his footstool; he is holy.

Psalms 99:6 Moses and Aaron were among his priests, Samuel was among those who called on his name; they called on the LORD and he answered them.

Psalms 99:7 He spoke to them from the pillar of cloud; they kept his statutes and the decrees he gave them.

Psalms 99:8 O LORD our God, you answered them; you were to Israel a forgiving God, though you punished their misdeeds.

Psalms 99:9 Exalt the LORD our God and worship at his holy mountain, for the LORD our God is holy.

Psalms 100:1 [A psalm. For giving thanks.] Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth.

Psalms 100:2 Worship the LORD with gladness; come before him with joyful songs.

Psalms 100:3 Know that the LORD is God. It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, the sheep of his pasture.

Psalms 100:4 Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name.

Psalms 100:5 For the LORD is good and his love endures for ever; his faithfulness continues through all generations.

Psalms 101:1 [Of David. A psalm.] I will sing of your love and justice; to you, O LORD, I will sing praise.

Psalms 101:2 I will be careful to lead a blameless life—when will you come to me? I will walk in my house with blameless heart.

Psalms 101:3 I will set before my eyes no vile thing. The deeds of faithless men I hate; they shall not cling to me.

Psalms 101:4 Men of perverse heart shall be far from me; I will have nothing to do with evil.

Psalms 101:5 Whoever slanders his neighbour in secret, him will I put to silence; whoever has haughty eyes and a proud heart, him will I not endure.

Psalms 101:6 My eyes will be on the faithful in the land, that they may dwell with me; he whose walk is blameless will minister to me.

Psalms 101:7 No-one who practises deceit will dwell in my house; no-one who speaks falsely will stand in my presence.

Psalms 101:8 Every morning I will put to silence all the wicked in the land; I will cut off every evildoer from the city of the LORD.

Psalms 102:1 [A prayer of an afflicted man. When he is faint and pours out his lament before the LORD.] Hear my prayer, O LORD; let my cry for help come to you.

Psalms 102:2 Do not hide your face from me when I am in distress. Turn your ear to me; when I call, answer me quickly.

Psalms 102:3 For my days vanish like smoke; my bones burn like glowing embers.

Psalms 102:4 My heart is blighted and withered like grass; I forget to eat my food.

Psalms 102:5 Because of my loud groaning I am reduced to skin and bones.

Psalms 102:6 I am like a desert owl, like an owl among the ruins.

Psalms 102:7 I lie awake; I have become like a bird alone on a roof.

Psalms 102:8 All day long my enemies taunt me; those who rail against me use my name as a curse.

Psalms 102:9 For I eat ashes as my food and mingle my drink with tears

Psalms 102:10 because of your great wrath, for you have taken me up and thrown me aside.

Psalms 102:11 My days are like the evening shadow; I wither away like grass.

Psalms 102:12 But you, O LORD, sit enthroned for ever; your renown endures through all generations.

Psalms 102:13 You will arise and have compassion on Zion, for it is time to show favour to her; the appointed time has come.

Psalms 102:14 For her stones are dear to your servants; her very dust moves them to pity.

Psalms 102:15 The nations will fear the name of the LORD, all the kings of the earth will revere your glory.

Psalms 102:16 For the LORD will rebuild Zion and appear in his glory.

Psalms 102:17 He will respond to the prayer of the destitute; he will not despise their plea.

Psalms 102:18 Let this be written for a future generation, that a people not yet created may praise the LORD:

Psalms 102:19 “The LORD looked down from his sanctuary on high, from heaven he viewed the earth,

Psalms 102:20 to hear the groans of the prisoners and release those condemned to death.”

Psalms 102:21 So the name of the LORD will be declared in Zion and his praise in Jerusalem

Psalms 102:22 when the peoples and the kingdoms assemble to worship the LORD.

Psalms 102:23 In the course of my life he broke my strength; he cut short my days.

Psalms 102:24 So I said: “Do not take me away, O my God, in the midst of my days; your years go on through all generations.

Psalms 102:25 In the beginning you laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands.

Psalms 102:26 They will perish, but you remain; they will all wear out like a garment. Like clothing you will change them and they will be discarded.

Psalms 102:27 But you remain the same, and your years will never end.

Psalms 102:28 The children of your servants will live in your presence; their descendants will be established before you.”

Psalms 103:1 [Of David.] Praise the LORD, O my soul; all my inmost being, praise his holy name.

Psalms 103:2 Praise the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits—

Psalms 103:3 who forgives all your sins and heals all your diseases,

Psalms 103:4 who redeems your life from the pit and crowns you with love and compassion,

Psalms 103:5 who satisfies your desires with good things so that your youth is renewed like the eagle’s.

Psalms 103:6 The LORD works righteousness and justice for all the oppressed.

Psalms 103:7 He made known his ways to Moses, his deeds to the people of Israel:

Psalms 103:8 The LORD is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love.

Psalms 103:9 He will not always accuse, nor will he harbour his anger for ever;

Psalms 103:10 he does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities.

Psalms 103:11 For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his love for those who fear him;

Psalms 103:12 as far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us.

Psalms 103:13 As a father has compassion on his children, so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him;

Psalms 103:14 for he knows how we are formed, he remembers that we are dust.

Psalms 103:15 As for man, his days are like grass, he flourishes like a flower of the field;

Psalms 103:16 the wind blows over it and it is gone, and its place remembers it no more.

Psalms 103:17 But from everlasting to everlasting the LORD's love is with those who fear him, and his righteousness with their children's children—

Psalms 103:18 with those who keep his covenant and remember to obey his precepts.

Psalms 103:19 The LORD has established his throne in heaven, and his kingdom rules over all.

Psalms 103:20 Praise the LORD, you his angels, you mighty ones who do his bidding, who obey his word.

Psalms 103:21 Praise the LORD, all his heavenly hosts, you his servants who do his will.

Psalms 103:22 Praise the LORD, all his works everywhere in his dominion. Praise the LORD, O my soul.

Psalms 104:1 Praise the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, you are very great; you are clothed with splendour and majesty.

Psalms 104:2 He wraps himself in light as with a garment; he stretches out the heavens like a tent

Psalms 104:3 and lays the beams of his upper chambers on their waters. He makes the clouds his chariot and rides on the wings of the wind.

Psalms 104:4 He makes winds his messengers, flames of fire his servants.

Psalms 104:5 He set the earth on its foundations; it can never be moved.

Psalms 104:6 You covered it with the deep as with a garment; the waters stood above the mountains.

Psalms 104:7 But at your rebuke the waters fled, at the sound of your thunder they took to flight;

Psalms 104:8 they flowed over the mountains, they went down into the valleys, to the place you assigned for them.

Psalms 104:9 You set a boundary they cannot cross; never again will they cover the earth.

Psalms 104:10 He makes springs pour water into the ravines; it flows between the mountains.

Psalms 104:11 They give water to all the beasts of the field; the wild donkeys quench their thirst.

Psalms 104:12 The birds of the air nest by the waters; they sing among the branches.

Psalms 104:13 He waters the mountains from his upper chambers; the earth is satisfied by the fruit of his work.

Psalms 104:14 He makes grass grow for the cattle, and plants for man to cultivate— bringing forth food from the earth:

Psalms 104:15 wine that gladdens the heart of man, oil to make his face shine, and bread that sustains his heart.

Psalms 104:16 The trees of the LORD are well watered, the cedars of Lebanon that he planted.

Psalms 104:17 There the birds make their nests; the stork has its home in the pine trees.

Psalms 104:18 The high mountains belong to the wild goats; the crags are a refuge for the conies.

Psalms 104:19 The moon marks off the seasons, and the sun knows when to go down.

Psalms 104:20 You bring darkness, it becomes night, and all the beasts of the forest prowl.

Psalms 104:21 The lions roar for their prey and seek their food from God.

Psalms 104:22 The sun rises, and they steal away; they return and lie down in their dens.

Psalms 104:23 Then man goes out to his work, to his labour until evening.

Psalms 104:24 How many are your works, O LORD! In wisdom you made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

Psalms 104:25 There is the sea, vast and spacious, teeming with creatures beyond number—living things both large and small.

Psalms 104:26 There the ships go to and fro, and the leviathan, which you formed to frolic there.

Psalms 104:27 These all look to you to give them their food at the proper time.

Psalms 104:28 When you give it to them, they gather it up; when you open your hand, they are satisfied with good things.

Psalms 104:29 When you hide your face, they are terrified; when you take away their breath, they die and return to the dust.

Psalms 104:30 When you send your Spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the earth.

Psalms 104:31 May the glory of the LORD endure for ever; may the LORD rejoice in his works—

Psalms 104:32 he who looks at the earth, and it trembles, who touches the mountains, and they smoke.

Psalms 104:33 I will sing to the LORD all my life; I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.

Psalms 104:34 May my meditation be pleasing to him, as I rejoice in the LORD.

Psalms 104:35 But may sinners vanish from the earth and the wicked be no more. Praise the LORD, O my soul. Praise the LORD.

Psalms 105:1 Give thanks to the LORD, call on his name; make known among the nations what he has done.

Psalms 105:2 Sing to him, sing praise to him; tell of all his wonderful acts.

Psalms 105:3 Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.

Psalms 105:4 Look to the LORD and his strength; seek his face always.

Psalms 105:5 Remember the wonders he has done, his miracles, and the judgments he pronounced,

Psalms 105:6 O descendants of Abraham his servant, O sons of Jacob, his chosen ones.

Psalms 105:7 He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

Psalms 105:8 He remembers his covenant for ever, the word he commanded, for a thousand generations,

Psalms 105:9 the covenant he made with Abraham, the oath he swore to Isaac.

Psalms 105:10 He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree, to Israel as an everlasting covenant:

Psalms 105:11 “To you I will give the land of Canaan as the portion you will inherit.”

Psalms 105:12 When they were but few in number, few indeed, and strangers in it, Psalms 105:13 they wandered from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another.

Psalms 105:14 He allowed no-one to oppress them; for their sake he rebuked kings:

Psalms 105:15 “Do not touch my anointed ones; do my prophets no harm.”

Psalms 105:16 He called down famine on the land and destroyed all their supplies of food;

Psalms 105:17 and he sent a man before them—Joseph, sold as a slave.

Psalms 105:18 They bruised his feet with shackles, his neck was put in irons,

Psalms 105:19 till what he foretold came to pass, till the word of the LORD proved him true.

Psalms 105:20 The king sent and released him, the ruler of peoples set him free.

Psalms 105:21 He made him master of his household, ruler over all he possessed,

Psalms 105:22 to instruct his princes as he pleased and teach his elders wisdom.

Psalms 105:23 Then Israel entered Egypt; Jacob lived as an alien in the land of Ham.

Psalms 105:24 The LORD made his people very fruitful; he made them too numerous for their foes,

Psalms 105:25 whose hearts he turned to hate his people, to conspire against his servants.

Psalms 105:26 He sent Moses his servant, and Aaron, whom he had chosen.

Psalms 105:27 They performed his miraculous signs among them, his wonders in the land of Ham.

Psalms 105:28 He sent darkness and made the land dark—for had they not rebelled against his words?

Psalms 105:29 He turned their waters into blood, causing their fish to die.

Psalms 105:30 Their land teemed with frogs, which went up into the bedrooms of their rulers.

Psalms 105:31 He spoke, and there came swarms of flies, and gnats throughout their country.

Psalms 105:32 He turned their rain into hail, with lightning throughout their land;

Psalms 105:33 he struck down their vines and fig-trees and shattered the trees of their country.

Psalms 105:34 He spoke, and the locusts came, grasshoppers without number;

Psalms 105:35 they ate up every green thing in their land, ate up the produce of their soil.

Psalms 105:36 Then he struck down all the firstborn in their land, the firstfruits of all their manhood.

Psalms 105:37 He brought out Israel, laden with silver and gold, and from among their tribes no-one faltered.

Psalms 105:38 Egypt was glad when they left, because dread of Israel had fallen on them.

Psalms 105:39 He spread out a cloud as a covering, and a fire to give light at night.

Psalms 105:40 They asked, and he brought them quail and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

Psalms 105:41 He opened the rock, and water gushed out; like a river it flowed in the desert.

Psalms 105:42 For he remembered his holy promise given to his servant Abraham.

Psalms 105:43 He brought out his people with rejoicing, his chosen ones with shouts of joy;

Psalms 105:44 he gave them the lands of the nations, and they fell heir to what others had toiled for—

Psalms 105:45 that they might keep his precepts and observe his laws. Praise the LORD.

Psalms 106:1 Praise the LORD. Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his love endures for ever.

Psalms 106:2 Who can proclaim the mighty acts of the LORD or fully declare his praise?

Psalms 106:3 Blessed are they who maintain justice, who constantly do what is right.

Psalms 106:4 Remember me, O LORD, when you show favour to your people, come to my aid when you save them,

Psalms 106:5 that I may enjoy the prosperity of your chosen ones, that I may share in the joy of your nation and join your inheritance in giving praise.

Psalms 106:6 We have sinned, even as our fathers did; we have done wrong and acted wickedly.

Psalms 106:7 When our fathers were in Egypt, they gave no thought to your miracles; they did not remember your many kindnesses, and they rebelled by the sea, the Red Sea.

Psalms 106:8 Yet he saved them for his name's sake, to make his mighty power known.

Psalms 106:9 He rebuked the Red Sea, and it dried up; he led them through the depths as through a desert.

Psalms 106:10 He saved them from the hand of the foe; from the hand of the enemy he redeemed them.

Psalms 106:11 The waters covered their adversaries; not one of them survived.

Psalms 106:12 Then they believed his promises and sang his praise.

Psalms 106:13 But they soon forgot what he had done and did not wait for his counsel.

Psalms 106:14 In the desert they gave in to their craving; in the wasteland they put God to the test.

Psalms 106:15 So he gave them what they asked for, but sent a wasting disease upon them.

Psalms 106:16 In the camp they grew envious of Moses and of Aaron, who was consecrated to the LORD.

Psalms 106:17 The earth opened up and swallowed Dathan; it buried the company of Abiram.

Psalms 106:18 Fire blazed among their followers; a flame consumed the wicked.

Psalms 106:19 At Horeb they made a calf and worshipped an idol cast from metal.

Psalms 106:20 They exchanged their Glory for an image of a bull, which eats grass.

Psalms 106:21 They forgot the God who saved them, who had done great things in Egypt,

Psalms 106:22 miracles in the land of Ham and awesome deeds by the Red Sea.

Psalms 106:23 So he said he would destroy them—had not Moses, his chosen one, stood in the breach before him to keep his wrath from destroying them.

Psalms 106:24 Then they despised the pleasant land; they did not believe his promise.

Psalms 106:25 They grumbled in their tents and did not obey the LORD.

Psalms 106:26 So he swore to them with uplifted hand that he would make them fall in the desert, Psalms 106:27 make their descendants fall among the nations and scatter them throughout the lands.

Psalms 106:28 They yoked themselves to the Baal of Peor and ate sacrifices offered to lifeless gods;

Psalms 106:29 they provoked the LORD to anger by their wicked deeds, and a plague broke out among them.

Psalms 106:30 But Phinehas stood up and intervened, and the plague was checked.

Psalms 106:31 This was credited to him as righteousness for endless generations to come.

Psalms 106:32 By the waters of Meribah they angered the LORD, and trouble came to Moses because of them;

Psalms 106:33 for they rebelled against the Spirit of God, and rash words came from Moses' lips.

Psalms 106:34 They did not destroy the peoples as the LORD had commanded them,

Psalms 106:35 but they mingled with the nations and adopted their customs.

Psalms 106:36 They worshipped their idols, which became a snare to them.

Psalms 106:37 They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.

Psalms 106:38 They shed innocent blood, the blood of their sons and daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan, and the land was desecrated by their blood.

Psalms 106:39 They defiled themselves by what they did; by their deeds they prostituted themselves.

Psalms 106:40 Therefore the LORD was angry with his people and abhorred his inheritance.

Psalms 106:41 He handed them over to the nations, and their foes ruled over them.

Psalms 106:42 Their enemies oppressed them and subjected them to their power.

Psalms 106:43 Many times he delivered them, but they were bent on rebellion and they wasted away in their sin.

Psalms 106:44 But he took note of their distress when he heard their cry;

Psalms 106:45 for their sake he remembered his covenant and out of his great love he relented.

Psalms 106:46 He caused them to be pitied by all who held them captive.

Psalms 106:47 Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from the nations, that we may give thanks to your holy name and glory in your praise.

Psalms 106:48 Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. Let all the people say, “Amen!” Praise the LORD.

Psalms 107:1 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his love endures for ever.

Psalms 107:2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say this—those he redeemed from the hand of the foe,

Psalms 107:3 those he gathered from the lands, from east and west, from north and south.

Psalms 107:4 Some wandered in desert wastelands, finding no way to a city where they could settle.

Psalms 107:5 They were hungry and thirsty, and their lives ebbed away.

Psalms 107:6 Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress.

Psalms 107:7 He led them by a straight way to a city where they could settle.

Psalms 107:8 Let them give thanks to the LORD for his unfailing love and his wonderful deeds for men,

Psalms 107:9 for he satisfies the thirsty and fills the hungry with good things.

Psalms 107:10 Some sat in darkness and the deepest gloom, prisoners suffering in iron chains,

Psalms 107:11 for they had rebelled against the words of God and despised the counsel of the Most High.

Psalms 107:12 So he subjected them to bitter labour; they stumbled, and there was no-one to help.

Psalms 107:13 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them from their distress.

Psalms 107:14 He brought them out of darkness and the deepest gloom and broke away their chains.

Psalms 107:15 Let them give thanks to the LORD for his unfailing love and his wonderful deeds for men,

Psalms 107:16 for he breaks down gates of bronze and cuts through bars of iron.

Psalms 107:17 Some became fools through their rebellious ways and suffered affliction because of their iniquities.

Psalms 107:18 They loathed all food and drew near the gates of death.

Psalms 107:19 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them from their distress.

Psalms 107:20 He sent forth his word and healed them; he rescued them from the grave.

Psalms 107:21 Let them give thanks to the LORD for his unfailing love and his wonderful deeds for men.

Psalms 107:22 Let them sacrifice thank-offerings and tell of his works with songs of joy.

Psalms 107:23 Others went out on the sea in ships; they were merchants on the mighty waters.

Psalms 107:24 They saw the works of the LORD, his wonderful deeds in the deep.

Psalms 107:25 For he spoke and stirred up a tempest that lifted high the waves.

Psalms 107:26 They mounted up to the heavens and went down to the depths; in their peril their courage melted away.

Psalms 107:27 They reeled and staggered like drunken men; they were at their wits' end.

Psalms 107:28 Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble, and he brought them out of their distress.

Psalms 107:29 He stilled the storm to a whisper; the waves of the sea were hushed.

Psalms 107:30 They were glad when it grew calm, and he guided them to their desired haven.

Psalms 107:31 Let them give thanks to the LORD for his unfailing love and his wonderful deeds for men.

Psalms 107:32 Let them exalt him in the assembly of the people and praise him in the council of the elders.

Psalms 107:33 He turned rivers into a desert, flowing springs into thirsty ground,

Psalms 107:34 and fruitful land into a salt waste, because of the wickedness of those who lived there.

Psalms 107:35 He turned the desert into pools of water and the parched ground into flowing springs;

Psalms 107:36 there he brought the hungry to live, and they founded a city where they could settle.

Psalms 107:37 They sowed fields and planted vineyards that yielded a fruitful harvest;

Psalms 107:38 he blessed them, and their numbers greatly increased, and he did not let their herds diminish.

Psalms 107:39 Then their numbers decreased, and they were humbled by oppression, calamity and sorrow;

Psalms 107:40 he who pours contempt on nobles made them wander in a trackless waste.

Psalms 107:41 But he lifted the needy out of their affliction and increased their families like flocks.

Psalms 107:42 The upright see and rejoice, but all the wicked shut their mouths.

Psalms 107:43 Whoever is wise, let him heed these things and consider the great love of the LORD.

Psalms 108:1 [A song. A psalm of David.] My heart is steadfast, O God; I will sing and make music with all my soul.

Psalms 108:2 Awake, harp and lyre! I will awaken the dawn.

Psalms 108:3 I will praise you, O LORD, among the nations; I will sing of you among the peoples.

Psalms 108:4 For great is your love, higher than the heavens; your faithfulness reaches to the skies.

Psalms 108:5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens, and let your glory be over all the earth.

Psalms 108:6 Save us and help us with your right hand, that those you love may be delivered.

Psalms 108:7 God has spoken from his sanctuary: “In triumph I will parcel out Shechem and measure off the Valley of Succoth.

Psalms 108:8 Gilead is mine, Manasseh is mine; Ephraim is my helmet, Judah my sceptre.

Psalms 108:9 Moab is my washbasin, upon Edom I toss my sandal; over Philistia I shout in triumph.”

Psalms 108:10 Who will bring me to the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom?

Psalms 108:11 Is it not you, O God, you who have rejected us and no longer go out with our armies?

Psalms 108:12 Give us aid against the enemy, for the help of man is worthless.

Psalms 108:13 With God we shall gain the victory, and he will trample down our enemies.

Psalms 109:1 [For the director of music. Of David. A psalm.] O God, whom I praise, do not remain silent,

Psalms 109:2 for wicked and deceitful men have opened their mouths against me; they have spoken against me with lying tongues.

Psalms 109:3 With words of hatred they surround me; they attack me without cause.

Psalms 109:4 In return for my friendship they accuse me, but I am a man of prayer.

Psalms 109:5 They repay me evil for good, and hatred for my friendship.

Psalms 109:6 Appoint an evil man to oppose him; let an accuser stand at his right hand.

Psalms 109:7 When he is tried, let him be found guilty, and may his prayers condemn him.

Psalms 109:8 May his days be few; may another take his place of leadership.

Psalms 109:9 May his children be fatherless and his wife a widow.

Psalms 109:10 May his children be wandering beggars; may they be driven from their ruined homes.

Psalms 109:11 May a creditor seize all he has; may strangers plunder the fruits of his labour.

Psalms 109:12 May no-one extend kindness to him or take pity on his fatherless children.

Psalms 109:13 May his descendants be cut off, their names blotted out from the next generation.

Psalms 109:14 May the iniquity of his fathers be remembered before the LORD; may the sin of his mother never be blotted out.

Psalms 109:15 May their sins always remain before the LORD, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.

Psalms 109:16 For he never thought of doing a kindness, but hounded to death the poor and the needy and the broken-hearted.

Psalms 109:17 He loved to pronounce a curse—may it come on him; he found no pleasure in blessing—may it be far from him.

Psalms 109:18 He wore cursing as his garment; it entered into his body like water, into his bones like oil.

Psalms 109:19 May it be like a cloak wrapped about him, like a belt tied for ever round him.

Psalms 109:20 May this be the LORD's payment to my accusers, to those who speak evil of me.

Psalms 109:21 But you, O Sovereign LORD, deal well with me for your name's sake; out of the goodness of your love, deliver me.

Psalms 109:22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

Psalms 109:23 I fade away like an evening shadow; I am shaken off like a locust.

Psalms 109:24 My knees give way from fasting; my body is thin and gaunt.

Psalms 109:25 I am an object of scorn to my accusers; when they see me, they shake their heads.

Psalms 120:7 I am a man of peace; but when I speak, they are for war.

Psalms 121:1 [A song of ascents.] I lift up my eyes to the hills—where does my help come from?

Psalms 121:2 My help comes from the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth.

Psalms 121:3 He will not let your foot slip—he who watches over you will not slumber;

Psalms 121:4 indeed, he who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

Psalms 121:5 The LORD watches over you—the LORD is your shade at your right hand;

Psalms 121:6 the sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night.

Psalms 121:7 The LORD will keep you from all harm—he will watch over your life;

Psalms 121:8 the LORD will watch over your coming and going both now and for evermore.

Psalms 122:1 [A song of ascents. Of David.] I rejoiced with those who said to me, “Let us go to the house of the LORD.”

Psalms 122:2 Our feet are standing in your gates, O Jerusalem.

Psalms 122:3 Jerusalem is built like a city that is closely compacted together.

Psalms 122:4 That is where the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD, to praise the name of the LORD according to the statute given to Israel.

Psalms 122:5 There the thrones for judgment stand, the thrones of the house of David.

Psalms 122:6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: “May those who love you be secure.

Psalms 122:7 May there be peace within your walls and security within your citadels.”

Psalms 122:8 For the sake of my brothers and friends, I will say, “Peace be within you.”

Psalms 122:9 For the sake of the house of the LORD our God, I will seek your prosperity.

Psalms 123:1 [A song of ascents.] I lift up my eyes to you, to you whose throne is in heaven.

Psalms 123:2 As the eyes of slaves look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid look to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to the LORD our God, till he shows us his mercy.

Psalms 123:3 Have mercy on us, O LORD, have mercy on us, for we have endured much contempt.

Psalms 123:4 We have endured much ridicule from the proud, much contempt from the arrogant.

Psalms 124:1 [A song of ascents. Of David.] If the LORD had not been on our side— let Israel say—

Psalms 124:2 if the LORD had not been on our side when men attacked us,

Psalms 124:3 when their anger flared against us, they would have swallowed us alive;

Psalms 124:4 the flood would have engulfed us, the torrent would have swept over us,

Psalms 124:5 the raging waters would have swept us away.

Psalms 124:6 Praise be to the LORD, who has not let us be torn by their teeth.

Psalms 124:7 We have escaped like a bird out of the fowler’s snare; the snare has been broken, and we have escaped.

Psalms 124:8 Our help is in the name of the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth.

Psalms 125:1 [A song of ascents.] Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion, which cannot be shaken but endures for ever.

Psalms 125:2 As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds his people both now and for evermore.

Psalms 125:3 The sceptre of the wicked will not remain over the land allotted to the righteous, for then the righteous might use their hands to do evil.

Psalms 125:4 Do good, O LORD, to those who are good, to those who are upright in heart.

Psalms 125:5 But those who turn to crooked ways the LORD will banish with the evildoers. Peace be upon Israel.

Psalms 126:1 [A song of ascents.] When the LORD brought back the captives to Zion, we were like men who dreamed.

Psalms 126:2 Our mouths were filled with laughter, our tongues with songs of joy. Then it was said among the nations, “The LORD has done great things for them.”

Psalms 126:3 The LORD has done great things for us, and we are filled with joy.

Psalms 126:4 Restore our fortunes, O LORD, like streams in the Negev.

Psalms 126:5 Those who sow in tears will reap with songs of joy.

Psalms 126:6 He who goes out weeping, carrying seed to sow, will return with songs of joy, carrying sheaves with him.

Psalms 127:1 [A song of ascents. Of Solomon.] Unless the LORD builds the house, its builders labour in vain. Unless the LORD watches over the city, the watchmen stand guard in vain.

Psalms 127:2 In vain you rise early and stay up late, toiling for food to eat— for he grants sleep to those he loves.

Psalms 127:3 Sons are a heritage from the LORD, children a reward from him.

Psalms 127:4 Like arrows in the hands of a warrior are sons born in one’s youth.

Psalms 127:5 Blessed is the man whose quiver is full of them. They will not be put to shame when they contend with their enemies in the gate.

Psalms 128:1 [A song of ascents.] Blessed are all who fear the LORD, who walk in his ways.

Psalms 128:2 You will eat the fruit of your labour; blessings and prosperity will be yours.

Psalms 128:3 Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within your house; your sons will be like olive shoots round your table.

Psalms 128:4 Thus is the man blessed who fears the LORD.

Psalms 128:5 May the LORD bless you from Zion all the days of your life; may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem, Psalms 128:6 and may you live to see your children’s children. Peace be upon Israel.

Psalms 129:1 [A song of ascents.] They have greatly oppressed me from my youth— let Israel say—

Psalms 129:2 they have greatly oppressed me from my youth, but they have not gained the victory over me.

Psalms 129:3 Ploughmen have ploughed my back and made their furrows long.

Psalms 129:4 But the LORD is righteous; he has cut me free from the cords of the wicked.

Psalms 129:5 May all who hate Zion be turned back in shame.

Psalms 129:6 May they be like grass on the roof, which withers before it can grow;

Psalms 129:7 with it the reaper cannot fill his hands, nor the one who gathers fill his arms.

Psalms 129:8 May those who pass by not say, “The blessing of the LORD be upon you; we bless you in the name of the LORD.”

Psalms 130:1 [A song of ascents.] Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD;

Psalms 130:2 O Lord, hear my voice. Let your ears be attentive to my cry for mercy.

Psalms 130:3 If you, O LORD, kept a record of sins, O Lord, who could stand?

Psalms 130:4 But with you there is forgiveness; therefore you are feared.

Psalms 130:5 I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, and in his word I put my hope.

Psalms 130:6 My soul waits for the Lord more than watchmen wait for the morning, more than watchmen wait for the morning.

Psalms 130:7 O Israel, put your hope in the LORD, for with the LORD is unfailing love and with him is full redemption.

Psalms 130:8 He himself will redeem Israel from all their sins.

Psalms 131:1 [A song of ascents. Of David.] My heart is not proud, O LORD, my eyes are not haughty; I do not concern myself with great matters or things too wonderful for me.

Psalms 131:2 But I have stilled and quietened my soul; like a weaned child with its mother, like a weaned child is my soul within me.

Psalms 131:3 O Israel, put your hope in the LORD both now and for evermore.

Psalms 132:1 [A song of ascents.] O LORD, remember David and all the hardships he endured.

Psalms 132:2 He swore an oath to the LORD and made a vow to the Mighty One of Jacob:

Psalms 132:3 “I will not enter my house or go to my bed—

Psalms 132:4 I will allow no sleep to my eyes, no slumber to my eyelids,

Psalms 132:5 till I find a place for the LORD, a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob.”

Psalms 132:6 We heard it in Ephrathah, we came upon it in the fields of Jaar:

Psalms 132:7 “Let us go to his dwelling-place; let us worship at his footstool—

Psalms 132:8 arise, O LORD, and come to your resting place, you and the ark of your might.

Psalms 132:9 May your priests be clothed with righteousness; may your saints sing for joy.”

Psalms 132:10 For the sake of David your servant, do not reject your anointed one.

Psalms 132:11 The LORD swore an oath to David, a sure oath that he will not revoke: “One of your own descendants I will place on your throne—

Psalms 132:12 if your sons keep my covenant and the statutes I teach them, then their sons shall sit on your throne for ever and ever.”

Psalms 132:13 For the LORD has chosen Zion, he has desired it for his dwelling:

Psalms 132:14 “This is my resting place for ever and ever; here I will sit enthroned, for I have desired it—

Psalms 132:15 I will bless her with abundant provisions; her poor will I satisfy with food.

Psalms 132:16 I will clothe her priests with salvation, and her saints shall ever sing for joy.

Psalms 132:17 “Here I will make a horn grow for David and set up a lamp for my anointed one.

Psalms 132:18 I will clothe his enemies with shame, but the crown on his head shall be resplendent.”

Psalms 133:1 [A song of ascents. Of David.] How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity!

Psalms 133:2 It is like precious oil poured on the head, running down on the beard, running down on Aaron’s beard, down upon the collar of his robes.

Psalms 133:3 It is as if the dew of Hermon were falling on Mount Zion. For there the LORD bestows his blessing, even life for evermore.

Psalms 134:1 [A song of ascents.] Praise the LORD, all you servants of the LORD who minister by night in the house of the LORD.

Psalms 134:2 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary and praise the LORD.

Psalms 134:3 May the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth, bless you from Zion.

Psalms 135:1 Praise the LORD. Praise the name of the LORD; praise him, you servants of the LORD, Psalms 135:2 you who minister in the house of the LORD, in the courts of the house of our God.

Psalms 135:3 Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good; sing praise to his name, for that is pleasant.

Psalms 135:4 For the LORD has chosen Jacob to be his own, Israel to be his treasured possession.

Psalms 135:5 I know that the LORD is great, that our Lord is greater than all gods.

Psalms 135:6 The LORD does whatever pleases him, in the heavens and on the earth, in the seas and all their depths.

Psalms 135:7 He makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth; he sends lightning with the rain and brings out the wind from his storehouses.

Psalms 135:8 He struck down the firstborn of Egypt, the firstborn of men and animals.

Psalms 135:9 He sent his signs and wonders into your midst, O Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants.

Psalms 135:10 He struck down many nations and killed mighty kings—

Psalms 135:11 Sihon king of the Amorites, Og king of Bashan and all the kings of Canaan—

Psalms 135:12 and he gave their land as an inheritance, an inheritance to his people Israel.

Psalms 135:13 Your name, O LORD, endures for ever, your renown, O LORD, through all generations.

Psalms 135:14 For the LORD will vindicate his people and have compassion on his servants.

Psalms 135:15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold, made by the hands of men.

Psalms 135:16 They have mouths, but cannot speak, eyes, but they cannot see;

Psalms 135:17 they have ears, but cannot hear, nor is there breath in their mouths.

Psalms 135:18 Those who make them will be like them, and so will all who trust in them.

Psalms 135:19 O house of Israel, praise the LORD; O house of Aaron, praise the LORD;

Psalms 135:20 O house of Levi, praise the LORD; you who fear him, praise the LORD.

Psalms 135:21 Praise be to the LORD from Zion, to him who dwells in Jerusalem. Praise the LORD.

Psalms 136:1 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good. His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:2 Give thanks to the God of gods. His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:3 Give thanks to the Lord of lords: His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:4 to him who alone does great wonders, His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:5 who by his understanding made the heavens, His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:6 who spread out the earth upon the waters, His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:7 who made the great lights—His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:8 the sun to govern the day, His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:9 the moon and stars to govern the night; His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:10 to him who struck down the firstborn of Egypt His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:11 and brought Israel out from among them His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:12 with a mighty hand and outstretched arm; His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:13 to him who divided the Red Sea asunder His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:14 and brought Israel through the midst of it, His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:15 but swept Pharaoh and his army into the Red Sea; His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:16 to him who led his people through the desert, His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:17 who struck down great kings, His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:18 and killed mighty kings—His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:19 Sihon king of the Amorites His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:20 and Og king of Bashan—His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:21 and gave their land as an inheritance, His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:22 an inheritance to his servant Israel; His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:23 to the One who remembered us in our low estate His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:24 and freed us from our enemies, His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:25 and who gives food to every creature. His love endures for ever.

Psalms 136:26 Give thanks to the God of heaven. His love endures for ever.

Psalms 137:1 By the rivers of Babylon we sat and wept when we remembered Zion.

Psalms 137:2 There on the poplars we hung our harps,

Psalms 137:3 for there our captors asked us for songs, our tormentors demanded songs of joy; they said, “Sing us one of the songs of Zion!”

Psalms 137:4 How can we sing the songs of the LORD while in a foreign land?

Psalms 137:5 If I forget you, O Jerusalem, may my right hand forget [its skill].

Psalms 137:6 May my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth if I do not remember you, if I do not consider Jerusalem my highest joy.

Psalms 137:7 Remember, O LORD, what the Edomites did on the day Jerusalem fell. “Tear it down,” they cried, “tear it down to its foundations!”

Psalms 137:8 O Daughter of Babylon, doomed to destruction, happy is he who repays you for what you have done to us—

Psalms 137:9 he who seizes your infants and dashes them against the rocks.

Psalms 138:1 [Of David.] I will praise you, O LORD, with all my heart; before the “gods” I will sing your praise.

Psalms 138:2 I will bow down towards your holy temple and will praise your name for your love and your faithfulness, for you have exalted above all things your name and your word.

Psalms 138:3 When I called, you answered me; you made me bold and stout-hearted.

Psalms 138:4 May all the kings of the earth praise you, O LORD, when they hear the words of your mouth.

Psalms 138:5 May they sing of the ways of the LORD, for the glory of the LORD is great.

Psalms 138:6 Though the LORD is on high, he looks upon the lowly, but the proud he knows from afar.

Psalms 138:7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you preserve my life; you stretch out your hand against the anger of my foes, with your right hand you save me.

Psalms 138:8 The LORD will fulfil [his purpose] for me; your love, O LORD, endures for ever—do not abandon the works of your hands.

Psalms 139:1 [For the director of music. Of David. A psalm.] O LORD, you have searched me and you know me.

Psalms 139:2 You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar.

Psalms 139:3 You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways.

Psalms 139:4 Before a word is on my tongue you know it completely, O LORD.

Psalms 139:5 You hem me in—behind and before; you have laid your hand upon me.

Psalms 139:6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain.

Psalms 139:7 Where can I go from your Spirit? Where can I flee from your presence?

Psalms 139:8 If I go up to the heavens, you are there; if I make my bed in the depths, you are there.

Psalms 139:9 If I rise on the wings of the dawn, if I settle on the far side of the sea,

Psalms 139:10 even there your hand will guide me, your right hand will hold me fast.

Psalms 139:11 If I say, “Surely the darkness will hide me and the light become night around me,”

Psalms 139:12 even the darkness will not be dark to you; the night will shine like the day, for darkness is as light to you.

Psalms 139:13 For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother’s womb.

Psalms 139:14 I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well.

Psalms 139:15 My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place. When I was woven together in the depths of the earth, Psalms 139:16 your eyes saw my unformed body. All the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.

Psalms 139:17 How precious to me are your thoughts, O God! How vast is the sum of them!

Psalms 139:18 Were I to count them, they would outnumber the grains of sand. When I awake, I am still with you.

Psalms 139:19 If only you would slay the wicked, O God! Away from me, you bloodthirsty men!

Psalms 139:20 They speak of you with evil intent; your adversaries misuse your name.

Psalms 139:21 Do I not hate those who hate you, O LORD, and abhor those who rise up against you?

Psalms 139:22 I have nothing but hatred for them; I count them my enemies.

Psalms 139:23 Search me, O God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts.

Psalms 139:24 See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Psalms 140:1 [For the director of music. A psalm of David.] Rescue me, O LORD, from evil men; protect me from men of violence, Psalms 140:2 who devise evil plans in their hearts and stir up war every day.

Psalms 140:3 They make their tongues as sharp as a serpent’s; the poison of vipers is on their lips. Selah

Psalms 140:4 Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked; protect me from men of violence who plan to trip my feet.

Psalms 140:5 Proud men have hidden a snare for me; they have spread out the cords of their net and have set traps for me along my path. Selah

Psalms 140:6 O LORD, I say to you, “You are my God.” Hear, O LORD, my cry for mercy.

Psalms 140:7 O Sovereign LORD, my strong deliverer, who shields my head in the day of battle—

Psalms 140:8 do not grant the wicked their desires, O LORD; do not let their plans succeed, or they will become proud. Selah

Psalms 140:9 Let the heads of those who surround me be covered with the trouble their lips have caused.

Psalms 140:10 Let burning coals fall upon them; may they be thrown into the fire, into miry pits, never to rise.

Psalms 140:11 Let slanderers not be established in the land; may disaster hunt down men of violence.

Psalms 140:12 I know that the LORD secures justice for the poor and upholds the cause of the needy.

Psalms 140:13 Surely the righteous will praise your name and the upright will live before you.

Psalms 141:1 [A psalm of David.] O LORD, I call to you; come quickly to me. Hear my voice when I call to you.

Psalms 141:2 May my prayer be set before you like incense; may the lifting up of my hands be like the evening sacrifice.

Psalms 141:3 Set a guard over my mouth, O LORD; keep watch over the door of my lips.

Psalms 141:4 Let not my heart be drawn to what is evil, to take part in wicked deeds with men who are evildoers; let me not eat of their delicacies.

Psalms 141:5 Let a righteous man strike me—it is a kindness; let him rebuke me—it is oil on my head. My head will not refuse it. Yet my prayer is ever against the deeds of evildoers;

Psalms 141:6 their rulers will be thrown down from the cliffs, and the wicked will learn that my words were well spoken.

Psalms 141:7 [They will say,] “As one ploughs and breaks up the earth, so our bones have been scattered at the mouth of the grave.”

Psalms 141:8 But my eyes are fixed on you, O Sovereign LORD; in you I take refuge— do not give me over to death.

Psalms 141:9 Keep me from the snares they have laid for me, from the traps set by evildoers.

Psalms 141:10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I pass by in safety.

Psalms 142:1 [A maskil of David. When he was in the cave. A prayer.] I cry aloud to the LORD; I lift up my voice to the LORD for mercy.

Psalms 142:2 I pour out my complaint before him; before him I tell my trouble.

Psalms 142:3 When my spirit grows faint within me, it is you who know my way. In the path where I walk men have hidden a snare for me.

Psalms 142:4 Look to my right and see; no-one is concerned for me. I have no refuge; no-one cares for my life.

Psalms 142:5 I cry to you, O LORD; I say, “You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living.”

Psalms 142:6 Listen to my cry, for I am in desperate need; rescue me from those who pursue me, for they are too strong for me.

Psalms 142:7 Set me free from my prison, that I may praise your name. Then the righteous will gather about me because of your goodness to me.

Psalms 143:1 [A psalm of David.] O LORD, hear my prayer, listen to my cry for mercy; in your faithfulness and righteousness come to my relief.

Psalms 143:2 Do not bring your servant into judgment, for no-one living is righteous before you.

Psalms 143:3 The enemy pursues me, he crushes me to the ground; he makes me dwell in darkness like those long dead.

Psalms 143:4 So my spirit grows faint within me; my heart within me is dismayed.

Psalms 143:5 I remember the days of long ago; I meditate on all your works and consider what your hands have done.

Psalms 143:6 I spread out my hands to you; my soul thirsts for you like a parched land. Selah

Psalms 143:7 Answer me quickly, O LORD; my spirit fails. Do not hide your face from me or I will be like those who go down to the pit.

Psalms 143:8 Let the morning bring me word of your unfailing love, for I have put my trust in you. Show me the way I should go, for to you I lift up my soul.

Psalms 143:9 Rescue me from my enemies, O LORD, for I hide myself in you.

Psalms 143:10 Teach me to do your will, for you are my God; may your good Spirit lead me on level ground.

Psalms 143:11 For your name’s sake, O LORD, preserve my life; in your righteousness, bring me out of trouble.

Psalms 143:12 In your unfailing love, silence my enemies; destroy all my foes, for I am your servant.

Psalms 144:1 [Of David.] Praise be to the LORD my Rock, who trains my hands for war, my fingers for battle.

Psalms 144:2 He is my loving God and my fortress, my stronghold and my deliverer, my shield, in whom I take refuge, who subdues peoples under me.

Psalms 144:3 O LORD, what is man that you care for him, the son of man that you think of him?

Psalms 144:4 Man is like a breath; his days are like a fleeting shadow.

Psalms 144:5 Part your heavens, O LORD, and come down; touch the mountains, so that they smoke.

Psalms 144:6 Send forth lightning and scatter [the enemies]; shoot your arrows and rout them.

Psalms 144:7 Reach down your hand from on high; deliver me and rescue me from the mighty waters, from the hands of foreigners

Psalms 144:8 whose mouths are full of lies, whose right hands are deceitful.

Psalms 144:9 I will sing a new song to you, O God; on the ten-stringed lyre I will make music to you,

Psalms 144:10 to the One who gives victory to kings, who delivers his servant David from the deadly sword.

Psalms 144:11 Deliver me and rescue me from the hands of foreigners whose mouths are full of lies, whose right hands are deceitful.

Psalms 144:12 Then our sons in their youth will be like well-nurtured plants, and our daughters will be like pillars carved to adorn a palace.

Psalms 144:13 Our barns will be filled with every kind of provision. Our sheep will increase by thousands, by tens of thousands in our fields;

Psalms 144:14 our oxen will draw heavy loads. There will be no breaching of walls, no going into captivity, no cry of distress in our streets.

Psalms 144:15 Blessed are the people of whom this is true; blessed are the people whose God is the LORD.

Psalms 145:1 [A psalm of praise. Of David.] I will exalt you, my God the King; I will praise your name for ever and ever.

Psalms 145:2 Every day I will praise you and extol your name for ever and ever.

Psalms 145:3 Great is the LORD and most worthy of praise; his greatness no-one can fathom.

Psalms 145:4 One generation will commend your works to another; they will tell of your mighty acts.

Psalms 145:5 They will speak of the glorious splendour of your majesty, and I will meditate on your wonderful works.

Psalms 145:6 They will tell of the power of your awesome works, and I will proclaim your great deeds.

Psalms 145:7 They will celebrate your abundant goodness and joyfully sing of your righteousness.

Psalms 145:8 The LORD is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and rich in love.

Psalms 145:9 The LORD is good to all; he has compassion on all he has made.

Psalms 145:10 All you have made will praise you, O LORD; your saints will extol you.

Psalms 145:11 They will tell of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might, Psalms 145:12 so that all men may know of your mighty acts and the glorious splendour of your kingdom.

Psalms 145:13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures through all generations. The LORD is faithful to all his promises and loving towards all he has made.

Psalms 145:14 The LORD upholds all those who fall and lifts up all who are bowed down.

Psalms 145:15 The eyes of all look to you, and you give them their food at the proper time.

Psalms 145:16 You open your hand and satisfy the desires of every living thing.

Psalms 145:17 The LORD is righteous in all his ways and loving towards all he has made.

Psalms 145:18 The LORD is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth.

Psalms 145:19 He fulfils the desires of those who fear him; he hears their cry and saves them.

Psalms 145:20 The LORD watches over all who love him, but all the wicked he will destroy.

Psalms 145:21 My mouth will speak in praise of the LORD. Let every creature praise his holy name for ever and ever.

Psalms 146:1 Praise the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul.

Psalms 146:2 I will praise the LORD all my life; I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.

Psalms 146:3 Do not put your trust in princes, in mortal men, who cannot save.

Psalms 146:4 When their spirit departs, they return to the ground; on that very day their plans come to nothing.

Psalms 146:5 Blessed is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the LORD his God,

Psalms 146:6 the Maker of heaven and earth, the sea, and everything in them— the LORD, who remains faithful for ever.

Psalms 146:7 He upholds the cause of the oppressed and gives food to the hungry. The LORD sets prisoners free, Psalms 146:8 the LORD gives sight to the blind, the LORD lifts up those who are bowed down, the LORD loves the righteous.

Psalms 146:9 The LORD watches over the alien and sustains the fatherless and the widow, but he frustrates the ways of the wicked.

Psalms 146:10 The LORD reigns for ever, your God, O Zion, for all generations. Praise the LORD.

Psalms 147:1 Praise the LORD. How good it is to sing praises to our God, how pleasant and fitting to praise him!

Psalms 147:2 The LORD builds up Jerusalem; he gathers the exiles of Israel.

Psalms 147:3 He heals the broken-hearted and binds up their wounds.

Psalms 147:4 He determines the number of the stars and calls them each by name.

Psalms 147:5 Great is our Lord and mighty in power; his understanding has no limit.

Psalms 147:6 The LORD sustains the humble but casts the wicked to the ground.

Psalms 147:7 Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving; make music to our God on the harp.

Psalms 147:8 He covers the sky with clouds; he supplies the earth with rain and makes grass grow on the hills.

Psalms 147:9 He provides food for the cattle and for the young ravens when they call.

Psalms 147:10 His pleasure is not in the strength of the horse, nor his delight in the legs of a man;

Psalms 147:11 the LORD delights in those who fear him, who put their hope in his unfailing love.

Psalms 147:12 Extol the LORD, O Jerusalem; praise your God, O Zion,

Psalms 147:13 for he strengthens the bars of your gates and blesses your people within you.

Psalms 147:14 He grants peace to your borders and satisfies you with the finest of wheat.

Psalms 147:15 He sends his command to the earth; his word runs swiftly.

Psalms 147:16 He spreads the snow like wool and scatters the frost like ashes.

Psalms 147:17 He hurls down hail like pebbles. Who can withstand his icy blast?

Psalms 147:18 He sends his word and melts them; he stirs up his breezes, and the waters flow.

Psalms 147:19 He has revealed his word to Jacob, his laws and decrees to Israel.

Psalms 147:20 He has done this for no other nation; they do not know his laws. Praise the LORD.

Psalms 148:1 Praise the LORD. Praise the LORD from the heavens, praise him in the heights above.

Psalms 148:2 Praise him, all his angels, praise him, all his heavenly hosts.

Psalms 148:3 Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars.

Psalms 148:4 Praise him, you highest heavens and you waters above the skies.

Psalms 148:5 Let them praise the name of the LORD, for he commanded and they were created.

Psalms 148:6 He set them in place for ever and ever; he gave a decree that will never pass away.

Psalms 148:7 Praise the LORD from the earth, you great sea creatures and all ocean depths,

Psalms 148:8 lightning and hail, snow and clouds, stormy winds that do his bidding,

Psalms 148:9 you mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars,

Psalms 148:10 wild animals and all cattle, small creatures and flying birds,

Psalms 148:11 kings of the earth and all nations, you princes and all rulers on earth,

Psalms 148:12 young men and maidens, old men and children.

Psalms 148:13 Let them praise the name of the LORD, for his name alone is exalted; his splendour is above the earth and the heavens.

Psalms 148:14 He has raised up for his people a horn, the praise of all his saints, of Israel, the people close to his heart. Praise the LORD.

Psalms 149:1 Praise the LORD. Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise in the assembly of the saints.

Psalms 149:2 Let Israel rejoice in their Maker; let the people of Zion be glad in their King.

Psalms 149:3 Let them praise his name with dancing and make music to him with tambourine and harp.

Psalms 149:4 For the LORD takes delight in his people; he crowns the humble with salvation.

Psalms 149:5 Let the saints rejoice in this honour and sing for joy on their beds.

Psalms 149:6 May the praise of God be in their mouths and a double-edged sword in their hands,

Psalms 149:7 to inflict vengeance on the nations and punishment on the peoples, Psalms 149:8 to bind their kings with fetters, their nobles with shackles of iron,

Psalms 149:9 to carry out the sentence written against them. This is the glory of all his saints. Praise the LORD.

Psalms 150:1 Praise the LORD. Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in his mighty heavens.

Psalms 150:2 Praise him for his acts of power; praise him for his surpassing greatness.

Psalms 150:3 Praise him with the sounding of the trumpet, praise him with the harp and lyre,

Psalms 150:4 praise him with tambourine and dancing, praise him with the strings and flute,

Psalms 150:5 praise him with the clash of cymbals, praise him with resounding cymbals.

Psalms 150:6 Let everything that has breath praise the LORD. Praise the LORD.

Proverbs

1:1 The proverbs of Solomon son of David, king of Israel:

Proverbs 1:2 for attaining wisdom and discipline; for understanding words of insight;

Proverbs 1:3 for acquiring a disciplined and prudent life, doing what is right and just and fair;

Proverbs 1:4 for giving prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the young—

Proverbs 1:5 let the wise listen and add to their learning, and let the discerning get guidance—

Proverbs 1:6 for understanding proverbs and parables, the sayings and riddles of the wise.

Proverbs 1:7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and discipline.

Proverbs 1:8 Listen, my son, to your father's instruction and do not forsake your mother's teaching.

Proverbs 1:9 They will be a garland to grace your head and a chain to adorn your neck.

Proverbs 1:10 My son, if sinners entice you, do not give in to them.

Proverbs 1:11 If they say, "Come along with us; let's lie in wait for someone's blood, let's waylay some harmless soul;

Proverbs 1:12 let's swallow them alive, like the grave, and whole, like those who go down to the pit;

Proverbs 1:13 we will get all sorts of valuable things and fill our houses with plunder;

Proverbs 1:14 throw in your lot with us, and we will share a common purse"—

Proverbs 1:15 my son, do not go along with them, do not set foot on their paths;

Proverbs 1:16 for their feet rush into sin, they are swift to shed blood.

Proverbs 1:17 How useless to spread a net in full view of all the birds!

Proverbs 1:18 These men lie in wait for their own blood; they waylay only themselves!

Proverbs 1:19 Such is the end of all who go after ill-gotten gain; it takes away the lives of those who get it.

Proverbs 1:20 Wisdom calls aloud in the street, she raises her voice in the public squares;

Proverbs 1:21 at the head of the noisy streets she cries out, in the gateways of the city she makes her speech:

Proverbs 1:22 "How long will you simple ones love your simple ways? How long will mockers delight in mockery and fools hate knowledge?

Proverbs 1:23 If you had responded to my rebuke, I would have poured out my heart to you and made my thoughts known to you.

Proverbs 1:24 But since you rejected me when I called and no-one gave heed when I stretched out my hand,

Proverbs 1:25 since you ignored all my advice and would not accept my rebuke,

Proverbs 1:26 I in turn will laugh at your disaster; I will mock when calamity overtakes you—

Proverbs 1:27 when calamity overtakes you like a storm, when disaster sweeps over you like a whirlwind, when distress and trouble overwhelm you.

Proverbs 1:28 "Then they will call to me but I will not answer; they will look for me but will not find me.

Proverbs 1:29 Since they hated knowledge and did not choose to fear the LORD,

Proverbs 1:30 since they would not accept my advice and spurned my rebuke,

Proverbs 1:31 they will eat the fruit of their ways and be filled with the fruit of their schemes.

Proverbs 1:32 For the waywardness of the simple will kill them, and the complacency of fools will destroy them;

Proverbs 1:33 but whoever listens to me will live in safety and be at ease, without fear of harm.”

Proverbs 2:1 My son, if you accept my words and store up my commands within you,

Proverbs 2:2 turning your ear to wisdom and applying your heart to understanding,

Proverbs 2:3 and if you call out for insight and cry aloud for understanding,

Proverbs 2:4 and if you look for it as for silver and search for it as for hidden treasure,

Proverbs 2:5 then you will understand the fear of the LORD and find the knowledge of God.

Proverbs 2:6 For the LORD gives wisdom, and from his mouth come knowledge and understanding.

Proverbs 2:7 He holds victory in store for the upright, he is a shield to those whose walk is blameless,

Proverbs 2:8 for he guards the course of the just and protects the way of his faithful ones.

Proverbs 2:9 Then you will understand what is right and just and fair—every good path.

Proverbs 2:10 For wisdom will enter your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.

Proverbs 2:11 Discretion will protect you, and understanding will guard you.

Proverbs 2:12 Wisdom will save you from the ways of wicked men, from men whose words are perverse,

Proverbs 2:13 who leave the straight paths to walk in dark ways,

Proverbs 2:14 who delight in doing wrong and rejoice in the perverseness of evil,

Proverbs 2:15 whose paths are crooked and who are devious in their ways.

Proverbs 2:16 It will save you also from the adulteress, from the wayward wife with her seductive words,

Proverbs 2:17 who has left the partner of her youth and ignored the covenant she made before God.

Proverbs 2:18 For her house leads down to death and her paths to the spirits of the dead.

Proverbs 2:19 None who go to her return or attain the paths of life.

Proverbs 2:20 Thus you will walk in the ways of good men and keep to the paths of the righteous.

Proverbs 2:21 For the upright will live in the land, and the blameless will remain in it;

Proverbs 2:22 but the wicked will be cut off from the land, and the unfaithful will be torn from it.

Proverbs 3:1 My son, do not forget my teaching, but keep my commands in your heart,

Proverbs 3:2 for they will prolong your life many years and bring you prosperity.

Proverbs 3:3 Let love and faithfulness never leave you; bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart.

Proverbs 3:4 Then you will win favour and a good name in the sight of God and man.

Proverbs 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding;

Proverbs 3:6 in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight.

Proverbs 3:7 Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD and shun evil.

Proverbs 3:8 This will bring health to your body and nourishment to your bones.

Proverbs 3:9 Honour the LORD with your wealth, with the firstfruits of all your crops;

Proverbs 3:10 then your barns will be filled to overflowing, and your vats will brim over with new wine.

Proverbs 3:11 My son, do not despise the LORD’s discipline and do not resent his rebuke,

Proverbs 3:12 because the LORD disciplines those he loves, as a father the son he delights in.

Proverbs 3:13 Blessed is the man who finds wisdom, the man who gains understanding,

Proverbs 3:14 for she is more profitable than silver and yields better returns than gold.

Proverbs 3:15 She is more precious than rubies; nothing you desire can compare with her.

Proverbs 3:16 Long life is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honour.

Proverbs 3:17 Her ways are pleasant ways, and all her paths are peace.

Proverbs 3:18 She is a tree of life to those who embrace her; those who lay hold of her will be blessed.

Proverbs 3:19 By wisdom the LORD laid the earth's foundations, by understanding he set the heavens in place;

Proverbs 3:20 by his knowledge the deeps were divided, and the clouds let drop the dew.

Proverbs 3:21 My son, preserve sound judgment and discernment, do not let them out of your sight;

Proverbs 3:22 they will be life for you, an ornament to grace your neck.

Proverbs 3:23 Then you will go on your way in safety, and your foot will not stumble;

Proverbs 3:24 when you lie down, you will not be afraid; when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.

Proverbs 3:25 Have no fear of sudden disaster or of the ruin that overtakes the wicked,

Proverbs 3:26 for the LORD will be your confidence and will keep your foot from being snared.

Proverbs 3:27 Do not withhold good from those who deserve it, when it is in your power to act.

Proverbs 3:28 Do not say to your neighbour, "Come back later; I'll give it tomorrow"—when you now have it with you.

Proverbs 3:29 Do not plot harm against your neighbour, who lives trustfully near you.

Proverbs 3:30 Do not accuse a man for no reason—when he has done you no harm.

Proverbs 3:31 Do not envy a violent man or choose any of his ways,

Proverbs 3:32 for the LORD detests a perverse man but takes the upright into his confidence.

Proverbs 3:33 The LORD's curse is on the house of the wicked, but he blesses the home of the righteous.

Proverbs 3:34 He mocks proud mockers but gives grace to the humble.

Proverbs 3:35 The wise inherit honour, but fools he holds up to shame.

Proverbs 4:1 Listen, my sons, to a father's instruction; pay attention and gain understanding.

Proverbs 4:2 I give you sound learning, so do not forsake my teaching.

Proverbs 4:3 When I was a boy in my father's house, still tender, and an only child of my mother,

Proverbs 4:4 he taught me and said, "Lay hold of my words with all your heart; keep my commands and you will live.

Proverbs 4:5 Get wisdom, get understanding; do not forget my words or swerve from them.

Proverbs 4:6 Do not forsake wisdom, and she will protect you; love her, and she will watch over you.

Proverbs 4:7 Wisdom is supreme; therefore get wisdom. Though it cost all you have, get understanding.

Proverbs 4:8 Esteem her, and she will exalt you; embrace her, and she will honour you.

Proverbs 4:9 She will set a garland of grace on your head and present you with a crown of splendour."

Proverbs 4:10 Listen, my son, accept what I say, and the years of your life will be many.

Proverbs 4:11 I guide you in the way of wisdom and lead you along straight paths.

Proverbs 4:12 When you walk, your steps will not be hampered; when you run, you will not stumble.

Proverbs 4:13 Hold on to instruction, do not let it go; guard it well, for it is your life.

Proverbs 4:14 Do not set foot on the path of the wicked or walk in the way of evil men.

Proverbs 4:15 Avoid it, do not travel on it; turn from it and go on your way.

Proverbs 4:16 For they cannot sleep till they do evil; they are robbed of slumber till they make someone fall.

Proverbs 4:17 They eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.

Proverbs 4:18 The path of the righteous is like the first gleam of dawn, shining ever brighter till the full light of day.

Proverbs 4:19 But the way of the wicked is like deep darkness; they do not know what makes them stumble.

Proverbs 4:20 My son, pay attention to what I say; listen closely to my words.

Proverbs 4:21 Do not let them out of your sight, keep them within your heart;

Proverbs 4:22 for they are life to those who find them and health to a man's whole body.

Proverbs 4:23 Above all else, guard your heart, for it is the wellspring of life.

Proverbs 4:24 Put away perversity from your mouth; keep corrupt talk far from your lips.

Proverbs 4:25 Let your eyes look straight ahead, fix your gaze directly before you.

Proverbs 4:26 Make level paths for your feet and take only ways that are firm.

Proverbs 4:27 Do not swerve to the right or the left; keep your foot from evil.

Proverbs 5:1 My son, pay attention to my wisdom, listen well to my words of insight,

Proverbs 5:2 that you may maintain discretion and your lips may preserve knowledge.

Proverbs 5:3 For the lips of an adulteress drip honey, and her speech is smoother than oil;

Proverbs 5:4 but in the end she is bitter as gall, sharp as a double-edged sword.

Proverbs 5:5 Her feet go down to death; her steps lead straight to the grave.

Proverbs 5:6 She gives no thought to the way of life; her paths are crooked, but she knows it not.

Proverbs 5:7 Now then, my sons, listen to me; do not turn aside from what I say.

Proverbs 5:8 Keep to a path far from her, do not go near the door of her house,

Proverbs 5:9 lest you give your best strength to others and your years to one who is cruel,

Proverbs 5:10 lest strangers feast on your wealth and your toil enrich another man’s house.

Proverbs 5:11 At the end of your life you will groan, when your flesh and body are spent.

Proverbs 5:12 You will say, “How I hated discipline! How my heart spurned correction!

Proverbs 5:13 I would not obey my teachers or listen to my instructors.

Proverbs 5:14 I have come to the brink of utter ruin in the midst of the whole assembly.”

Proverbs 5:15 Drink water from your own cistern, running water from your own well.

Proverbs 5:16 Should your springs overflow in the streets, your streams of water in the public squares?

Proverbs 5:17 Let them be yours alone, never to be shared with strangers.

Proverbs 5:18 May your fountain be blessed, and may you rejoice in the wife of your youth.

Proverbs 5:19 A loving doe, a graceful deer—may her breasts satisfy you always, may you ever be captivated by her love.

Proverbs 5:20 Why be captivated, my son, by an adulteress? Why embrace the bosom of another man’s wife?

Proverbs 5:21 For a man’s ways are in full view of the LORD, and he examines all his paths.

Proverbs 5:22 The evil deeds of a wicked man ensnare him; the cords of his sin hold him fast.

Proverbs 5:23 He will die for lack of discipline, led astray by his own great folly.

Proverbs 6:1 My son, if you have put up security for your neighbour, if you have struck hands in pledge for another,

Proverbs 6:2 if you have been trapped by what you said, ensnared by the words of your mouth,

Proverbs 6:3 then do this, my son, to free yourself, since you have fallen into your neighbour’s hands: Go and humble yourself; press your plea with your neighbour!

Proverbs 6:4 Allow no sleep to your eyes, no slumber to your eyelids.

Proverbs 6:5 Free yourself, like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter, like a bird from the snare of the fowler.

Proverbs 6:6 Go to the ant, you sluggard; consider its ways and be wise!

Proverbs 6:7 It has no commander, no overseer or ruler,

Proverbs 6:8 yet it stores its provisions in summer and gathers its food at harvest.

Proverbs 6:9 How long will you lie there, you sluggard? When will you get up from your sleep?

Proverbs 6:10 A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest—

Proverbs 6:11 and poverty will come on you like a bandit and scarcity like an armed man.

Proverbs 6:12 A scoundrel and villain, who goes about with a corrupt mouth,

Proverbs 6:13 who winks with his eye, signals with his feet and motions with his fingers,

Proverbs 6:14 who plots evil with deceit in his heart—he always stirs up dissension.

Proverbs 6:15 Therefore disaster will overtake him in an instant; he will suddenly be destroyed—without remedy.

Proverbs 6:16 There are six things the LORD hates, seven that are detestable to him:

Proverbs 6:17 haughty eyes, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood,

Proverbs 6:18 a heart that devises wicked schemes, feet that are quick to rush into evil,

Proverbs 6:19 a false witness who pours out lies and a man who stirs up dissension among brothers.

Proverbs 6:20 My son, keep your father's commands and do not forsake your mother's teaching.

Proverbs 6:21 Bind them upon your heart for ever; fasten them around your neck.

Proverbs 6:22 When you walk, they will guide you; when you sleep, they will watch over you; when you awake, they will speak to you.

Proverbs 6:23 For these commands are a lamp, this teaching is a light, and the corrections of discipline are the way to life,

Proverbs 6:24 keeping you from the immoral woman, from the smooth tongue of the wayward wife.

Proverbs 6:25 Do not lust in your heart after her beauty or let her captivate you with her eyes,

Proverbs 6:26 for the prostitute reduces you to a loaf of bread, and the adulteress preys upon your very life.

Proverbs 6:27 Can a man scoop fire into his lap without his clothes being burned?

Proverbs 6:28 Can a man walk on hot coals without his feet being scorched?

Proverbs 6:29 So is he who sleeps with another man's wife; no-one who touches her will go unpunished.

Proverbs 6:30 Men do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy his hunger when he is starving.

Proverbs 6:31 Yet if he is caught, he must pay sevenfold, though it costs him all the wealth of his house.

Proverbs 6:32 But a man who commits adultery lacks judgment; whoever does so destroys himself.

Proverbs 6:33 Blows and disgrace are his lot, and his shame will never be wiped away;

Proverbs 6:34 for jealousy arouses a husband's fury, and he will show no mercy when he takes revenge.

Proverbs 6:35 He will not accept any compensation; he will refuse the bribe, however great it is.

Proverbs 7:1 My son, keep my words and store up my commands within you.

Proverbs 7:2 Keep my commands and you will live; guard my teachings as the apple of your eye.

Proverbs 7:3 Bind them on your fingers; write them on the tablet of your heart.

Proverbs 7:4 Say to wisdom, “You are my sister,” and call understanding your kinsman;

Proverbs 7:5 they will keep you from the adulteress, from the wayward wife with her seductive words.

Proverbs 7:6 At the window of my house I looked out through the lattice.

Proverbs 7:7 I saw among the simple, I noticed among the young men, a youth who lacked judgment.

Proverbs 7:8 He was going down the street near her corner, walking along in the direction of her house

Proverbs 7:9 at twilight, as the day was fading, as the dark of night set in.

Proverbs 7:10 Then out came a woman to meet him, dressed like a prostitute and with crafty intent.

Proverbs 7:11 (She is loud and defiant, her feet never stay at home; Proverbs 7:12 now in the street, now in the squares, at every corner she lurks.)

Proverbs 7:13 She took hold of him and kissed him and with a brazen face she said:

Proverbs 7:14 “I have fellowship offerings at home; today I fulfilled my vows.

Proverbs 7:15 So I came out to meet you; I looked for you and have found you!

Proverbs 7:16 I have covered my bed with coloured linens from Egypt.

Proverbs 7:17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes and cinnamon.

Proverbs 7:18 Come, let’s drink deep of love till morning; let’s enjoy ourselves with love!

Proverbs 7:19 My husband is not at home; he has gone on a long journey.

Proverbs 7:20 He took his purse filled with money and will not be home till full moon.”

Proverbs 7:21 With persuasive words she led him astray; she seduced him with her smooth talk.

Proverbs 7:22 All at once he followed her like an ox going to the slaughter, like a deer stepping into a noose

Proverbs 7:23 till an arrow pierces his liver, like a bird darting into a snare, little knowing it will cost him his life.

Proverbs 7:24 Now then, my sons, listen to me; pay attention to what I say.

Proverbs 7:25 Do not let your heart turn to her ways or stray into her paths.

Proverbs 7:26 Many are the victims she has brought down; her slain are a mighty throng.

Proverbs 7:27 Her house is a highway to the grave, leading down to the chambers of death.

Proverbs 8:1 Does not wisdom call out? Does not understanding raise her voice?

Proverbs 8:2 On the heights along the way, where the paths meet, she takes her stand;

Proverbs 8:3 beside the gates leading into the city, at the entrances, she cries aloud:

Proverbs 8:4 “To you, O men, I call out; I raise my voice to all mankind.

Proverbs 8:5 You who are simple, gain prudence; you who are foolish, gain understanding.

Proverbs 8:6 Listen, for I have worthy things to say; I open my lips to speak what is right.

Proverbs 8:7 My mouth speaks what is true, for my lips detest wickedness.

Proverbs 8:8 All the words of my mouth are just; none of them is crooked or perverse.

Proverbs 8:9 To the discerning all of them are right; they are faultless to those who have knowledge.

Proverbs 8:10 Choose my instruction instead of silver, knowledge rather than choice gold,

Proverbs 8:11 for wisdom is more precious than rubies, and nothing you desire can compare with her.

Proverbs 8:12 “I, wisdom, dwell together with prudence; I possess knowledge and discretion.

Proverbs 8:13 To fear the LORD is to hate evil; I hate pride and arrogance, evil behaviour and perverse speech.

Proverbs 8:14 Counsel and sound judgment are mine; I have understanding and power.

Proverbs 8:15 By me kings reign and rulers make laws that are just;

Proverbs 8:16 by me princes govern, and all nobles who rule on earth.

Proverbs 8:17 I love those who love me, and those who seek me find me.

Proverbs 8:18 With me are riches and honour, enduring wealth and prosperity.

Proverbs 8:19 My fruit is better than fine gold; what I yield surpasses choice silver.

Proverbs 8:20 I walk in the way of righteousness, along the paths of justice,

Proverbs 8:21 bestowing wealth on those who love me and making their treasuries full.

Proverbs 8:22 “The LORD brought me forth as the first of his works, before his deeds of old;

Proverbs 8:23 I was appointed from eternity, from the beginning, before the world began.

Proverbs 8:24 When there were no oceans, I was given birth, when there were no springs abounding with water;

Proverbs 8:25 before the mountains were settled in place, before the hills, I was given birth,

Proverbs 8:26 before he made the earth or its fields or any of the dust of the world.

Proverbs 8:27 I was there when he set the heavens in place, when he marked out the horizon on the face of the deep,

Proverbs 8:28 when he established the clouds above and fixed securely the fountains of the deep,

Proverbs 8:29 when he gave the sea its boundary so that the waters would not overstep his command, and when he marked out the foundations of the earth.

Proverbs 8:30 Then I was the craftsman at his side. I was filled with delight day after day, rejoicing always in his presence,

Proverbs 8:31 rejoicing in his whole world and delighting in mankind.

Proverbs 8:32 “Now then, my sons, listen to me; blessed are those who keep my ways.

Proverbs 8:33 Listen to my instruction and be wise; do not ignore it.

Proverbs 8:34 Blessed is the man who listens to me, watching daily at my doors, waiting at my doorway.

Proverbs 8:35 For whoever finds me finds life and receives favour from the LORD.

Proverbs 8:36 But whoever fails to find me harms himself; all who hate me love death.”

Proverbs 9:1 Wisdom has built her house; she has hewn out its seven pillars.

Proverbs 9:2 She has prepared her meat and mixed her wine; she has also set her table.

Proverbs 9:3 She has sent out her maids, and she calls from the highest point of the city.

Proverbs 9:4 “Let all who are simple come in here!” she says to those who lack judgment.

Proverbs 9:5 “Come, eat my food and drink the wine I have mixed.

Proverbs 9:6 Leave your simple ways and you will live; walk in the way of understanding.

Proverbs 9:7 “Whoever corrects a mocker invites insult; whoever rebukes a wicked man incurs abuse.

Proverbs 9:8 Do not rebuke a mocker or he will hate you; rebuke a wise man and he will love you.

Proverbs 9:9 Instruct a wise man and he will be wiser still; teach a righteous man and he will add to his learning.

Proverbs 9:10 “The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.

Proverbs 9:11 For through me your days will be many, and years will be added to your life.

Proverbs 9:12 If you are wise, your wisdom will reward you; if you are a mocker, you alone will suffer.”

Proverbs 9:13 The woman Folly is loud; she is undisciplined and without knowledge.

Proverbs 9:14 She sits at the door of her house, on a seat at the highest point of the city,

Proverbs 9:15 calling out to those who pass by, who go straight on their way.

Proverbs 9:16 “Let all who are simple come in here!” she says to those who lack judgment.

Proverbs 9:17 “Stolen water is sweet; food eaten in secret is delicious!”

Proverbs 9:18 But little do they know that the dead are there, that her guests are in the depths of the grave.

Proverbs 10:1 The proverbs of Solomon: A wise son brings joy to his father, but a foolish son grief to his mother.

Proverbs 10:2 Ill-gotten treasures are of no value, but righteousness delivers from death.

Proverbs 10:3 The LORD does not let the righteous go hungry but he thwarts the craving of the wicked.

Proverbs 10:4 Lazy hands make a man poor, but diligent hands bring wealth.

Proverbs 10:5 He who gathers crops in summer is a wise son, but he who sleeps during harvest is a disgraceful son.

Proverbs 10:6 Blessings crown the head of the righteous, but violence overwhelms the mouth of the wicked.

Proverbs 10:7 The memory of the righteous will be a blessing, but the name of the wicked will rot.

Proverbs 10:8 The wise in heart accept commands, but a chattering fool comes to ruin.

Proverbs 10:9 The man of integrity walks securely, but he who takes crooked paths will be found out.

Proverbs 10:10 He who winks maliciously causes grief, and a chattering fool comes to ruin.

Proverbs 10:11 The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life, but violence overwhelms the mouth of the wicked.

Proverbs 10:12 Hatred stirs up dissension, but love covers over all wrongs.

Proverbs 10:13 Wisdom is found on the lips of the discerning, but a rod is for the back of him who lacks judgment.

Proverbs 10:14 Wise men store up knowledge, but the mouth of a fool invites ruin.

Proverbs 10:15 The wealth of the rich is their fortified city, but poverty is the ruin of the poor.

Proverbs 10:16 The wages of the righteous bring them life, but the income of the wicked brings them punishment.

Proverbs 10:17 He who heeds discipline shows the way to life, but whoever ignores correction leads others astray.

Proverbs 10:18 He who conceals his hatred has lying lips, and whoever spreads slander is a fool.

Proverbs 10:19 When words are many, sin is not absent, but he who holds his tongue is wise.

Proverbs 10:20 The tongue of the righteous is choice silver, but the heart of the wicked is of little value.

Proverbs 10:21 The lips of the righteous nourish many, but fools die for lack of judgment.

Proverbs 10:22 The blessing of the LORD brings wealth, and he adds no trouble to it.

Proverbs 10:23 A fool finds pleasure in evil conduct, but a man of understanding delights in wisdom.

Proverbs 10:24 What the wicked dreads will overtake him; what the righteous desire will be granted.

Proverbs 20:27 The lamp of the LORD searches the spirit of a man; it searches out his inmost being.

Proverbs 20:28 Love and faithfulness keep a king safe; through love his throne is made secure.

Proverbs 20:29 The glory of young men is their strength, grey hair the splendour of the old.

Proverbs 20:30 Blows and wounds cleanse away evil, and beatings purge the inmost being.

Proverbs 21:1 The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD; he directs it like a watercourse wherever he pleases.

Proverbs 21:2 All a man's ways seem right to him, but the LORD weighs the heart.

Proverbs 21:3 To do what is right and just is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

Proverbs 21:4 Haughty eyes and a proud heart, the lamp of the wicked, are sin!

Proverbs 21:5 The plans of the diligent lead to profit as surely as haste leads to poverty.

Proverbs 21:6 A fortune made by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapour and a deadly snare.

Proverbs 21:7 The violence of the wicked will drag them away, for they refuse to do what is right.

Proverbs 21:8 The way of the guilty is devious, but the conduct of the innocent is upright.

Proverbs 21:9 Better to live on a corner of the roof than share a house with a quarrelsome wife.

Proverbs 21:10 The wicked man craves evil; his neighbour gets no mercy from him.

Proverbs 21:11 When a mocker is punished, the simple gain wisdom; when a wise man is instructed, he gets knowledge.

Proverbs 21:12 The Righteous One takes note of the house of the wicked and brings the wicked to ruin.

Proverbs 21:13 If a man shuts his ears to the cry of the poor, he too will cry out and not be answered.

Proverbs 21:14 A gift given in secret soothes anger, and a bribe concealed in the cloak pacifies great wrath.

Proverbs 21:15 When justice is done, it brings joy to the righteous but terror to evildoers.

Proverbs 21:16 A man who strays from the path of understanding comes to rest in the company of the dead.

Proverbs 21:17 He who loves pleasure will become poor; whoever loves wine and oil will never be rich.

Proverbs 21:18 The wicked become a ransom for the righteous, and the unfaithful for the upright.

Proverbs 21:19 Better to live in a desert than with a quarrelsome and ill-tempered wife.

Proverbs 21:20 In the house of the wise are stores of choice food and oil, but a foolish man devours all he has.

Proverbs 21:21 He who pursues righteousness and love finds life, prosperity and honour.

Proverbs 21:22 A wise man attacks the city of the mighty and pulls down the stronghold in which they trust.

Proverbs 21:23 He who guards his mouth and his tongue keeps himself from calamity.

Proverbs 21:24 The proud and arrogant man—”Mocker” is his name; he behaves with overweening pride.

Proverbs 21:25 The sluggard’s craving will be the death of him, because his hands refuse to work.

Proverbs 21:26 All day long he craves for more, but the righteous give without sparing.

Proverbs 21:27 The sacrifice of the wicked is detestable—how much more so when brought with evil intent!

Proverbs 21:28 A false witness will perish, and whoever listens to him will be destroyed for ever.

Proverbs 21:29 A wicked man puts up a bold front, but an upright man gives thought to his ways.

Proverbs 21:30 There is no wisdom, no insight, no plan that can succeed against the LORD.

Proverbs 21:31 The horse is made ready for the day of battle, but victory rests with the LORD.

Proverbs 22:1 A good name is more desirable than great riches; to be esteemed is better than silver or gold.

Proverbs 22:2 Rich and poor have this in common: The LORD is the Maker of them all.

Proverbs 22:3 A prudent man sees danger and takes refuge, but the simple keep going and suffer for it.

Proverbs 22:4 Humility and the fear of the LORD bring wealth and honour and life.

Proverbs 22:5 In the paths of the wicked lie thorns and snares, but he who guards his soul stays far from them.

Proverbs 22:6 Train a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it.

Proverbs 22:7 The rich rule over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.

Proverbs 22:8 He who sows wickedness reaps trouble, and the rod of his fury will be destroyed.

Proverbs 22:9 A generous man will himself be blessed, for he shares his food with the poor.

Proverbs 22:10 Drive out the mocker, and out goes strife; quarrels and insults are ended.

Proverbs 22:11 He who loves a pure heart and whose speech is gracious will have the king for his friend.

Proverbs 22:12 The eyes of the LORD keep watch over knowledge, but he frustrates the words of the unfaithful.

Proverbs 22:13 The sluggard says, “There is a lion outside!” or, “I will be murdered in the streets!”

Proverbs 22:14 The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit; he who is under the LORD’s wrath will fall into it.

Proverbs 22:15 Folly is bound up in the heart of a child, but the rod of discipline will drive it far from him.

Proverbs 22:16 He who oppresses the poor to increase his wealth and he who gives gifts to the rich—both come to poverty.

Proverbs 22:17 Pay attention and listen to the sayings of the wise; apply your heart to what I teach,

Proverbs 22:18 for it is pleasing when you keep them in your heart and have all of them ready on your lips.

Proverbs 22:19 So that your trust may be in the LORD, I teach you today, even you.

Proverbs 22:20 Have I not written thirty sayings for you, sayings of counsel and knowledge,

Proverbs 22:21 teaching you true and reliable words, so that you can give sound answers to him who sent you?

Proverbs 22:22 Do not exploit the poor because they are poor and do not crush the needy in court,

Proverbs 22:23 for the LORD will take up their case and will plunder those who plunder them.

Proverbs 22:24 Do not make friends with a hot-tempered man, do not associate with one easily angered,

Proverbs 22:25 or you may learn his ways and get yourself ensnared.

Proverbs 22:26 Do not be a man who strikes hands in pledge or puts up security for debts;

Proverbs 22:27 if you lack the means to pay, your very bed will be snatched from under you.

Proverbs 22:28 Do not move an ancient boundary stone set up by your forefathers.

Proverbs 22:29 Do you see a man skilled in his work? He will serve before kings; he will not serve before obscure men.

Proverbs 23:1 When you sit to dine with a ruler, note well what is before you,

Proverbs 23:2 and put a knife to your throat if you are given to gluttony.

Proverbs 23:3 Do not crave his delicacies, for that food is deceptive.

Proverbs 23:4 Do not wear yourself out to get rich; have the wisdom to show restraint.

Proverbs 23:5 Cast but a glance at riches, and they are gone, for they will surely sprout wings and fly off to the sky like an eagle.

Proverbs 23:6 Do not eat the food of a stingy man, do not crave his delicacies;

Proverbs 23:7 for he is the kind of man who is always thinking about the cost. “Eat and drink,” he says to you, but his heart is not with you.

Proverbs 23:8 You will vomit up the little you have eaten and will have wasted your compliments.

Proverbs 23:9 Do not speak to a fool, for he will scorn the wisdom of your words.

Proverbs 23:10 Do not move an ancient boundary stone or encroach on the fields of the fatherless,

Proverbs 23:11 for their Defender is strong; he will take up their case against you.

Proverbs 23:12 Apply your heart to instruction and your ears to words of knowledge.

Proverbs 23:13 Do not withhold discipline from a child; if you punish him with the rod, he will not die.

Proverbs 23:14 Punish him with the rod and save his soul from death.

Proverbs 23:15 My son, if your heart is wise, then my heart will be glad;

Proverbs 23:16 my inmost being will rejoice when your lips speak what is right.

Proverbs 23:17 Do not let your heart envy sinners, but always be zealous for the fear of the LORD.

Proverbs 23:18 There is surely a future hope for you, and your hope will not be cut off.

Proverbs 23:19 Listen, my son, and be wise, and keep your heart on the right path.

Proverbs 23:20 Do not join those who drink too much wine or gorge themselves on meat,

Proverbs 23:21 for drunkards and gluttons become poor, and drowsiness clothes them in rags.

Proverbs 23:22 Listen to your father, who gave you life, and do not despise your mother when she is old.

Proverbs 23:23 Buy the truth and do not sell it; get wisdom, discipline and understanding.

Proverbs 23:24 The father of a righteous man has great joy; he who has a wise son delights in him.

Proverbs 23:25 May your father and mother be glad; may she who gave you birth rejoice!

Proverbs 23:26 My son, give me your heart and let your eyes keep to my ways,

Proverbs 23:27 for a prostitute is a deep pit and a wayward wife is a narrow well.

Proverbs 23:28 Like a bandit she lies in wait, and multiplies the unfaithful among men.

Proverbs 23:29 Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has strife? Who has complaints? Who has needless bruises? Who has bloodshot eyes?

Proverbs 23:30 Those who linger over wine, who go to sample bowls of mixed wine.

Proverbs 23:31 Do not gaze at wine when it is red, when it sparkles in the cup, when it goes down smoothly!

Proverbs 23:32 In the end it bites like a snake and poisons like a viper.

Proverbs 23:33 Your eyes will see strange sights and your mind imagine confusing things.

Proverbs 23:34 You will be like one sleeping on the high seas, lying on top of the rigging.

Proverbs 23:35 “They hit me,” you will say, “but I’m not hurt! They beat me, but I don’t feel it! When will I wake up so I can find another drink?”

Proverbs 24:1 Do not envy wicked men, do not desire their company;

Proverbs 24:2 for their hearts plot violence, and their lips talk about making trouble.

Proverbs 24:3 By wisdom a house is built, and through understanding it is established;

Proverbs 24:4 through knowledge its rooms are filled with rare and beautiful treasures.

Proverbs 24:5 A wise man has great power, and a man of knowledge increases strength;

Proverbs 24:6 for waging war you need guidance, and for victory many advisers.

Proverbs 24:7 Wisdom is too high for a fool; in the assembly at the gate he has nothing to say.

Proverbs 24:8 He who plots evil will be known as a schemer.

Proverbs 24:9 The schemes of folly are sin, and men detest a mocker.

Proverbs 24:10 If you falter in times of trouble, how small is your strength!

Proverbs 24:11 Rescue those being led away to death; hold back those staggering towards slaughter.

Proverbs 24:12 If you say, “But we knew nothing about this,” does not he who weighs the heart perceive it? Does not he who guards your life know it? Will he not repay each person according to what he has done?

Proverbs 24:13 Eat honey, my son, for it is good; honey from the comb is sweet to your taste.

Proverbs 24:14 Know also that wisdom is sweet to your soul; if you find it, there is a future hope for you, and your hope will not be cut off.

Proverbs 24:15 Do not lie in wait like an outlaw against a righteous man’s house, do not raid his dwelling-place;

Proverbs 24:16 for though a righteous man falls seven times, he rises again, but the wicked are brought down by calamity.

Proverbs 24:17 Do not gloat when your enemy falls; when he stumbles, do not let your heart rejoice,

Proverbs 24:18 or the LORD will see and disapprove and turn his wrath away from him.

Proverbs 24:19 Do not fret because of evil men or be envious of the wicked,

Proverbs 24:20 for the evil man has no future hope, and the lamp of the wicked will be snuffed out.

Proverbs 24:21 Fear the LORD and the king, my son, and do not join with the rebellious,

Proverbs 24:22 for those two will send sudden destruction upon them, and who knows what calamities they can bring?

Proverbs 24:23 These also are sayings of the wise: To show partiality in judging is not good:

Proverbs 24:24 Whoever says to the guilty, “You are innocent”—peoples will curse him and nations denounce him.

Proverbs 24:25 But it will go well with those who convict the guilty, and rich blessing will come upon them.

Proverbs 24:26 An honest answer is like a kiss on the lips.

Proverbs 24:27 Finish your outdoor work and get your fields ready; after that, build your house.

Proverbs 24:28 Do not testify against your neighbour without cause, or use your lips to deceive.

Proverbs 24:29 Do not say, “I’ll do to him as he has done to me; I’ll pay that man back for what he did.”

Proverbs 24:30 I went past the field of the sluggard, past the vineyard of the man who lacks judgment;

Proverbs 24:31 thorns had come up everywhere, the ground was covered with weeds, and the stone wall was in ruins.

Proverbs 24:32 I applied my heart to what I observed and learned a lesson from what I saw:

Proverbs 24:33 A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest—

Proverbs 24:34 and poverty will come on you like a bandit and scarcity like an armed man.

Proverbs 25:1 These are more proverbs of Solomon, copied by the men of Hezekiah king of Judah:

Proverbs 25:2 It is the glory of God to conceal a matter; to search out a matter is the glory of kings.

Proverbs 25:3 As the heavens are high and the earth is deep, so the hearts of kings are unsearchable.

Proverbs 25:4 Remove the dross from the silver, and out comes material for the silversmith;

Proverbs 25:5 remove the wicked from the king’s presence, and his throne will be established through righteousness.

Proverbs 25:6 Do not exalt yourself in the king’s presence, and do not claim a place among great men;

Proverbs 25:7 it is better for him to say to you, “Come up here,” than for him to humiliate you before a nobleman. What you have seen with your eyes

Proverbs 25:8 do not bring hastily to court, for what will you do in the end if your neighbour puts you to shame?

Proverbs 25:9 If you argue your case with a neighbour, do not betray another man’s confidence,

Proverbs 25:10 or he who hears it may shame you and you will never lose your bad reputation.

Proverbs 25:11 A word aptly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver.

Proverbs 25:12 Like an ear-ring of gold or an ornament of fine gold is a wise man’s rebuke to a listening ear.

Proverbs 25:13 Like the coolness of snow at harvest time is a trustworthy messenger to those who send him; he refreshes the spirit of his masters.

Proverbs 25:14 Like clouds and wind without rain is a man who boasts of gifts he does not give.

Proverbs 25:15 Through patience a ruler can be persuaded, and a gentle tongue can break a bone.

Proverbs 25:16 If you find honey, eat just enough—too much of it, and you will vomit.

Proverbs 25:17 Seldom set foot in your neighbour’s house—too much of you, and he will hate you.

Proverbs 25:18 Like a club or a sword or a sharp arrow is the man who gives false testimony against his neighbour.

Proverbs 25:19 Like a bad tooth or a lame foot is reliance on the unfaithful in times of trouble.

Proverbs 25:20 Like one who takes away a garment on a cold day, or like vinegar poured on soda, is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.

Proverbs 25:21 If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat; if he is thirsty, give him water to drink.

Proverbs 25:22 In doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head, and the LORD will reward you.

Proverbs 25:23 As a north wind brings rain, so a sly tongue brings angry looks.

Proverbs 25:24 Better to live on a corner of the roof than share a house with a quarrelsome wife.

Proverbs 25:25 Like cold water to a weary soul is good news from a distant land.

Proverbs 25:26 Like a muddied spring or a polluted well is a righteous man who gives way to the wicked.

Proverbs 25:27 It is not good to eat too much honey, nor is it honourable to seek one's own honour.

Proverbs 25:28 Like a city whose walls are broken down is a man who lacks self-control.

Proverbs 26:1 Like snow in summer or rain in harvest, honour is not fitting for a fool.

Proverbs 26:2 Like a fluttering sparrow or a darting swallow, an undeserved curse does not come to rest.

Proverbs 26:3 A whip for the horse, a halter for the donkey, and a rod for the backs of fools!

Proverbs 26:4 Do not answer a fool according to his folly, or you will be like him yourself.

Proverbs 26:5 Answer a fool according to his folly, or he will be wise in his own eyes.

Proverbs 26:6 Like cutting off one's feet or drinking violence is the sending of a message by the hand of a fool.

Proverbs 26:7 Like a lame man's legs that hang limp is a proverb in the mouth of a fool.

Proverbs 26:8 Like tying a stone in a sling is the giving of honour to a fool.

Proverbs 26:9 Like a thornbush in a drunkard's hand is a proverb in the mouth of a fool.

Proverbs 26:10 Like an archer who wounds at random is he who hires a fool or any passer-by.

Proverbs 26:11 As a dog returns to its vomit, so a fool repeats his folly.

Proverbs 26:12 Do you see a man wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

Proverbs 26:13 The sluggard says, "There is a lion in the road, a fierce lion roaming the streets!"

Proverbs 26:14 As a door turns on its hinges, so a sluggard turns on his bed.

Proverbs 26:15 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish; he is too lazy to bring it back to his mouth.

Proverbs 26:16 The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who answer discreetly.

Proverbs 26:17 Like one who seizes a dog by the ears is a passer-by who meddles in a quarrel not his own.

Proverbs 26:18 Like a madman shooting firebrands or deadly arrows

Proverbs 26:19 is a man who deceives his neighbour and says, “I was only joking!”

Proverbs 26:20 Without wood a fire goes out; without gossip a quarrel dies down.

Proverbs 26:21 As charcoal to embers and as wood to fire, so is a quarrelsome man for kindling strife.

Proverbs 26:22 The words of a gossip are like choice morsels; they go down to a man’s inmost parts.

Proverbs 26:23 Like a coating of glaze over earthenware are fervent lips with an evil heart.

Proverbs 26:24 A malicious man disguises himself with his lips, but in his heart he harbours deceit.

Proverbs 26:25 Though his speech is charming, do not believe him, for seven abominations fill his heart.

Proverbs 26:26 His malice may be concealed by deception, but his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.

Proverbs 26:27 If a man digs a pit, he will fall into it; if a man rolls a stone, it will roll back on him.

Proverbs 26:28 A lying tongue hates those it hurts, and a flattering mouth works ruin.

Proverbs 27:1 Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring forth.

Proverbs 27:2 Let another praise you, and not your own mouth; someone else, and not your own lips.

Proverbs 27:3 Stone is heavy and sand a burden, but provocation by a fool is heavier than both.

Proverbs 27:4 Anger is cruel and fury overwhelming, but who can stand before jealousy?

Proverbs 27:5 Better is open rebuke than hidden love.

Proverbs 27:6 Wounds from a friend can be trusted, but an enemy multiplies kisses.

Proverbs 27:7 He who is full loathes honey, but to the hungry even what is bitter tastes sweet.

Proverbs 27:8 Like a bird that strays from its nest is a man who strays from his home.

Proverbs 27:9 Perfume and incense bring joy to the heart, and the pleasantness of one’s friend springs from his earnest counsel.

Proverbs 27:10 Do not forsake your friend and the friend of your father, and do not go to your brother’s house when disaster strikes you—better a neighbour nearby than a brother far away.

Proverbs 27:11 Be wise, my son, and bring joy to my heart; then I can answer anyone who treats me with contempt.

Proverbs 27:12 The prudent see danger and take refuge, but the simple keep going and suffer for it.

Proverbs 27:13 Take the garment of one who puts up security for a stranger; hold it in pledge if he does it for a wayward woman.

Proverbs 27:14 If a man loudly blesses his neighbour early in the morning, it will be taken as a curse.

Proverbs 27:15 A quarrelsome wife is like a constant dripping on a rainy day;

Proverbs 27:16 restraining her is like restraining the wind or grasping oil with the hand.

Proverbs 27:17 As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another.

Proverbs 27:18 He who tends a fig-tree will eat its fruit, and he who looks after his master will be honoured.

Proverbs 27:19 As water reflects a face, so a man's heart reflects the man.

Proverbs 27:20 Death and Destruction are never satisfied, and neither are the eyes of man.

Proverbs 27:21 The crucible for silver and the furnace for gold, but man is tested by the praise he receives.

Proverbs 27:22 Though you grind a fool in a mortar, grinding him like grain with a pestle, you will not remove his folly from him.

Proverbs 27:23 Be sure you know the condition of your flocks, give careful attention to your herds;

Proverbs 27:24 for riches do not endure for ever, and a crown is not secure for all generations.

Proverbs 27:25 When the hay is removed and new growth appears and the grass from the hills is gathered in,

Proverbs 27:26 the lambs will provide you with clothing, and the goats with the price of a field.

Proverbs 27:27 You will have plenty of goats' milk to feed you and your family and to nourish your servant girls.

Proverbs 28:1 The wicked man flees though no-one pursues, but the righteous are as bold as a lion.

Proverbs 28:2 When a country is rebellious, it has many rulers, but a man of understanding and knowledge maintains order.

Proverbs 28:3 A ruler who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain that leaves no crops.

Proverbs 28:4 Those who forsake the law praise the wicked, but those who keep the law resist them.

Proverbs 28:5 Evil men do not understand justice, but those who seek the LORD understand it fully.

Proverbs 28:6 Better a poor man whose walk is blameless than a rich man whose ways are perverse.

Proverbs 28:7 He who keeps the law is a discerning son, but a companion of gluttons disgraces his father.

Proverbs 28:8 He who increases his wealth by exorbitant interest amasses it for another, who will be kind to the poor.

Proverbs 28:9 If anyone turns a deaf ear to the law, even his prayers are detestable.

Proverbs 28:10 He who leads the upright along an evil path will fall into his own trap, but the blameless will receive a good inheritance.

Proverbs 28:11 A rich man may be wise in his own eyes, but a poor man who has discernment sees through him.

Proverbs 28:12 When the righteous triumph, there is great elation; but when the wicked rise to power, men go into hiding.

Proverbs 28:13 He who conceals his sins does not prosper, but whoever confesses and renounces them finds mercy.

Proverbs 28:14 Blessed is the man who always fears the LORD, but he who hardens his heart falls into trouble.

Proverbs 28:15 Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked man ruling over a helpless people.

Proverbs 28:16 A tyrannical ruler lacks judgment, but he who hates ill-gotten gain will enjoy a long life.

Proverbs 28:17 A man tormented by the guilt of murder will be a fugitive till death; let no-one support him.

Proverbs 28:18 He whose walk is blameless is kept safe, but he whose ways are perverse will suddenly fall.

Proverbs 28:19 He who works his land will have abundant food, but the one who chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty.

Proverbs 28:20 A faithful man will be richly blessed, but one eager to get rich will not go unpunished.

Proverbs 28:21 To show partiality is not good—yet a man will do wrong for a piece of bread.

Proverbs 28:22 A stingy man is eager to get rich and is unaware that poverty awaits him.

Proverbs 28:23 He who rebukes a man will in the end gain more favour than he who has a flattering tongue.

Proverbs 28:24 He who robs his father or mother and says, “It’s not wrong”—he is partner to him who destroys.

Proverbs 28:25 A greedy man stirs up dissension, but he who trusts in the LORD will prosper.

Proverbs 28:26 He who trusts in himself is a fool, but he who walks in wisdom is kept safe.

Proverbs 28:27 He who gives to the poor will lack nothing, but he who closes his eyes to them receives many curses.

Proverbs 28:28 When the wicked rise to power, people go into hiding; but when the wicked perish, the righteous thrive.

Proverbs 29:1 A man who remains stiff-necked after many rebukes will suddenly be destroyed—without remedy.

Proverbs 29:2 When the righteous thrive, the people rejoice; when the wicked rule, the people groan.

Proverbs 29:3 A man who loves wisdom brings joy to his father, but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth.

Proverbs 29:4 By justice a king gives a country stability, but one who is greedy for bribes tears it down.

Proverbs 29:5 Whoever flatters his neighbour is spreading a net for his feet.

Proverbs 29:6 An evil man is snared by his own sin, but a righteous one can sing and be glad.

Proverbs 29:7 The righteous care about justice for the poor, but the wicked have no such concern.

Proverbs 29:8 Mockers stir up a city, but wise men turn away anger.

Proverbs 29:9 If a wise man goes to court with a fool, the fool rages and scoffs, and there is no peace.

Proverbs 29:10 Bloodthirsty men hate a man of integrity and seek to kill the upright.

Proverbs 29:11 A fool gives full vent to his anger, but a wise man keeps himself under control.

Proverbs 29:12 If a ruler listens to lies, all his officials become wicked.

Proverbs 29:13 The poor man and the oppressor have this in common: The LORD gives sight to the eyes of both.

Proverbs 29:14 If a king judges the poor with fairness, his throne will always be secure.

Proverbs 29:15 The rod of correction imparts wisdom, but a child left to himself disgraces his mother.

Proverbs 29:16 When the wicked thrive, so does sin, but the righteous will see their downfall.

Proverbs 29:17 Discipline your son, and he will give you peace; he will bring delight to your soul.

Proverbs 29:18 Where there is no revelation, the people cast off restraint; but blessed is he who keeps the law.

Proverbs 29:19 A servant cannot be corrected by mere words; though he understands, he will not respond.

Proverbs 29:20 Do you see a man who speaks in haste? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

Proverbs 29:21 If a man pampers his servant from youth, he will bring grief in the end.

Proverbs 29:22 An angry man stirs up dissension, and a hot-tempered one commits many sins.

Proverbs 29:23 A man’s pride brings him low, but a man of lowly spirit gains honour.

Proverbs 29:24 The accomplice of a thief is his own enemy; he is put under oath and dare not testify.

Proverbs 29:25 Fear of man will prove to be a snare, but whoever trusts in the LORD is kept safe.

Proverbs 29:26 Many seek an audience with a ruler, but it is from the LORD that man gets justice.

Proverbs 29:27 The righteous detest the dishonest; the wicked detest the upright.

Proverbs 30:1 The sayings of Agur son of Jakeh—an oracle: This man declared to Ithiel, to Ithiel and to Ucal:

Proverbs 30:2 “I am the most ignorant of men; I do not have a man’s understanding.

Proverbs 30:3 I have not learned wisdom, nor have I knowledge of the Holy One.

Proverbs 30:4 Who has gone up to heaven and come down? Who has gathered up the wind in the hollow of his hands? Who has wrapped up the waters in his cloak? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and the name of his son? Tell me if you know!

Proverbs 30:5 “Every word of God is flawless; he is a shield to those who take refuge in him.

Proverbs 30:6 Do not add to his words, or he will rebuke you and prove you a liar.

Proverbs 30:7 “Two things I ask of you, O LORD; do not refuse me before I die:

Proverbs 30:8 Keep falsehood and lies far from me; give me neither poverty nor riches, but give me only my daily bread.

Proverbs 30:9 Otherwise, I may have too much and disown you and say,`Who is the LORD?’ Or I may become poor and steal, and so dishonour the name of my God.

Proverbs 30:10 “Do not slander a servant to his master, or he will curse you, and you will pay for it.

Proverbs 30:11 “There are those who curse their fathers and do not bless their mothers;

Proverbs 30:12 those who are pure in their own eyes and yet are not cleansed of their filth;

Proverbs 30:13 those whose eyes are ever so haughty, whose glances are so disdainful;

Proverbs 30:14 those whose teeth are swords and whose jaws are set with knives to devour the poor from the earth, the needy from among mankind.

Proverbs 30:15 “The leech has two daughters.`Give! Give!’ they cry. “There are three things that are never satisfied, four that never say,`Enough!’:

Proverbs 30:16 the grave, the barren womb, land, which is never satisfied with water, and fire, which never says,`Enough!’

Proverbs 30:17 “The eye that mocks a father, that scorns obedience to a mother, will be pecked out by the ravens of the valley, will be eaten by the vultures.

Proverbs 30:18 “There are three things that are too amazing for me, four that I do not understand:

Proverbs 30:19 the way of an eagle in the sky, the way of a snake on a rock, the way of a ship on the high seas, and the way of a man with a maiden.

Proverbs 30:20 “This is the way of an adulteress: She eats and wipes her mouth and says,`I’ve done nothing wrong.’

Proverbs 30:21 “Under three things the earth trembles, under four it cannot bear up:

Proverbs 30:22 a servant who becomes king, a fool who is full of food,

Proverbs 30:23 an unloved woman who is married, and a maidservant who displaces her mistress.

Proverbs 30:24 “Four things on earth are small, yet they are extremely wise:

Proverbs 30:25 Ants are creatures of little strength, yet they store up their food in the summer;

Proverbs 30:26 conies are creatures of little power, yet they make their home in the crags;

Proverbs 30:27 locusts have no king, yet they advance together in ranks;

Proverbs 30:28 a lizard can be caught with the hand, yet it is found in kings’ palaces.

Proverbs 30:29 “There are three things that are stately in their stride, four that move with stately bearing:

Proverbs 30:30 a lion, mighty among beasts, who retreats before nothing;

Proverbs 30:31 a strutting cock, a he-goat, and a king with his army around him.

Proverbs 30:32 “If you have played the fool and exalted yourself, or if you have planned evil, clap your hand over your mouth!

Proverbs 30:33 For as churning the milk produces butter, and as twisting the nose produces blood, so stirring up anger produces strife.”

Proverbs 31:1 The sayings of King Lemuel—an oracle his mother taught him:

Proverbs 31:2 “O my son, O son of my womb, O son of my vows,

Proverbs 31:3 do not spend your strength on women, your vigour on those who ruin kings.

Proverbs 31:4 “It is not for kings, O Lemuel—not for kings to drink wine, not for rulers to crave beer,

Proverbs 31:5 lest they drink and forget what the law decrees, and deprive all the oppressed of their rights.

Proverbs 31:6 Give beer to those who are perishing, wine to those who are in anguish;

Proverbs 31:7 let them drink and forget their poverty and remember their misery no more.

Proverbs 31:8 “Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves, for the rights of all who are destitute.

Proverbs 31:9 Speak up and judge fairly; defend the rights of the poor and needy.”

Proverbs 31:10 A wife of noble character who can find? She is worth far more than rubies.

Proverbs 31:11 Her husband has full confidence in her and lacks nothing of value.

Proverbs 31:12 She brings him good, not harm, all the days of her life.

Proverbs 31:13 She selects wool and flax and works with eager hands.

Proverbs 31:14 She is like the merchant ships, bringing her food from afar.

Proverbs 31:15 She gets up while it is still dark; she provides food for her family and portions for her servant girls.

Proverbs 31:16 She considers a field and buys it; out of her earnings she plants a vineyard.

Proverbs 31:17 She sets about her work vigorously; her arms are strong for her tasks.

Proverbs 31:18 She sees that her trading is profitable, and her lamp does not go out at night.

Proverbs 31:19 In her hand she holds the distaff and grasps the spindle with her fingers.

Proverbs 31:20 She opens her arms to the poor and extends her hands to the needy.

Proverbs 31:21 When it snows, she has no fear for her household; for all of them are clothed in scarlet.

Proverbs 31:22 She makes coverings for her bed; she is clothed in fine linen and purple.

Proverbs 31:23 Her husband is respected at the city gate, where he takes his seat among the elders of the land.

Proverbs 31:24 She makes linen garments and sells them, and supplies the merchants with sashes.

Proverbs 31:25 She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come.

Proverbs 31:26 She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue.

Proverbs 31:27 She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.

Proverbs 31:28 Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her:

Proverbs 31:29 “Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all.”

Proverbs 31:30 Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.

Proverbs 31:31 Give her the reward she has earned, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.

Ecclesiastes

1:1 The words of the Teacher, son of David, king of Jerusalem:

Ecclesiastes 1:2 “Meaningless! Meaningless!” says the Teacher. “Utterly meaningless! Everything is meaningless.”

Ecclesiastes 1:3 What does man gain from all his labour at which he toils under the sun?

Ecclesiastes 1:4 Generations come and generations go, but the earth remains for ever.

Ecclesiastes 1:5 The sun rises and the sun sets, and hurries back to where it rises.

Ecclesiastes 1:6 The wind blows to the south and turns to the north; round and round it goes, ever returning on its course.

Ecclesiastes 1:7 All streams flow into the sea, yet the sea is never full. To the place the streams come from, there they return again.

Ecclesiastes 1:8 All things are wearisome, more than one can say. The eye never has enough of seeing, nor the ear its fill of hearing.

Ecclesiastes 1:9 What has been will be again, what has been done will be done again; there is nothing new under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 1:10 Is there anything of which one can say, “Look! This is something new”? It was here already, long ago; it was here before our time.

Ecclesiastes 1:11 There is no remembrance of men of old, and even those who are yet to come will not be remembered by those who follow.

Ecclesiastes 1:12 I, the Teacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

Ecclesiastes 1:13 I devoted myself to study and to explore by wisdom all that is done under heaven. What a heavy burden God has laid on men!

Ecclesiastes 1:14 I have seen all the things that are done under the sun; all of them are meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

Ecclesiastes 1:15 What is twisted cannot be straightened; what is lacking cannot be counted.

Ecclesiastes 1:16 I thought to myself, “Look, I have grown and increased in wisdom more than anyone who has ruled over Jerusalem before me; I have experienced much of wisdom and knowledge.”

Ecclesiastes 1:17 Then I applied myself to the understanding of wisdom, and also of madness and folly, but I learned that this, too, is a chasing after the wind.

Ecclesiastes 1:18 For with much wisdom comes much sorrow; the more knowledge, the more grief.

Ecclesiastes 2:1 I thought in my heart, “Come now, I will test you with pleasure to find out what is good.” But that also proved to be meaningless.

Ecclesiastes 2:2 “Laughter,” I said, “is foolish. And what does pleasure accomplish?”

Ecclesiastes 2:3 I tried cheering myself with wine, and embracing folly—my mind still guiding me with wisdom. I wanted to see what was worth while for men to do under heaven during the few days of their lives.

Ecclesiastes 2:4 I undertook great projects: I built houses for myself and planted vineyards.

Ecclesiastes 2:5 I made gardens and parks and planted all kinds of fruit trees in them.

Ecclesiastes 2:6 I made reservoirs to water groves of flourishing trees.

Ecclesiastes 2:7 I bought male and female slaves and had other slaves who were born in my house. I also owned more herds and flocks than anyone in Jerusalem before me.

Ecclesiastes 2:8 I amassed silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and provinces. I acquired men and women singers, and a harem as well—the delights of the heart of man.

Ecclesiastes 2:9 I became greater by far than anyone in Jerusalem before me. In all this my wisdom stayed with me.

Ecclesiastes 2:10 I denied myself nothing my eyes desired; I refused my heart no pleasure. My heart took delight in all my work, and this was the reward for all my labour.

Ecclesiastes 2:11 Yet when I surveyed all that my hands had done and what I had toiled to achieve, everything was meaningless, a chasing after the wind; nothing was gained under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 2:12 Then I turned my thoughts to consider wisdom, and also madness and folly. What more can the king's successor do than what has already been done?

Ecclesiastes 2:13 I saw that wisdom is better than folly, just as light is better than darkness.

Ecclesiastes 2:14 The wise man has eyes in his head, while the fool walks in the darkness; but I came to realise that the same fate overtakes them both.

Ecclesiastes 2:15 Then I thought in my heart, "The fate of the fool will overtake me also. What then do I gain by being wise?" I said in my heart, "This too is meaningless."

Ecclesiastes 2:16 For the wise man, like the fool, will not be long remembered; in days to come both will be forgotten. Like the fool, the wise man too must die!

Ecclesiastes 2:17 So I hated life, because the work that is done under the sun was grievous to me. All of it is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

Ecclesiastes 2:18 I hated all the things I had toiled for under the sun, because I must leave them to the one who comes after me.

Ecclesiastes 2:19 And who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have control over all the work into which I have poured my effort and skill under the sun. This too is meaningless.

Ecclesiastes 2:20 So my heart began to despair over all my toilsome labour under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 2:21 For a man may do his work with wisdom, knowledge and skill, and then he must leave all he owns to someone who has not worked for it. This too is meaningless and a great misfortune.

Ecclesiastes 2:22 What does a man get for all the toil and anxious striving with which he labours under the sun?

Ecclesiastes 2:23 All his days his work is pain and grief; even at night his mind does not rest. This too is meaningless.

Ecclesiastes 2:24 A man can do nothing better than to eat and drink and find satisfaction in his work. This too, I see, is from the hand of God,

Ecclesiastes 2:25 for without him, who can eat or find enjoyment?

Ecclesiastes 2:26 To the man who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge and happiness, but to the sinner he gives the task of gathering and storing up wealth to hand it over to the one who pleases God. This too is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

Ecclesiastes 3:1 There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven:

Ecclesiastes 3:2 a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot,

Ecclesiastes 3:3 a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build,

Ecclesiastes 3:4 a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance,

Ecclesiastes 3:5 a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain,

Ecclesiastes 3:6 a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away,

Ecclesiastes 3:7 a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak,

Ecclesiastes 3:8 a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:9 What does the worker gain from his toil?

Ecclesiastes 3:10 I have seen the burden God has laid on men.

Ecclesiastes 3:11 He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the hearts of men; yet they cannot fathom what God has done from beginning to end.

Ecclesiastes 3:12 I know that there is nothing better for men than to be happy and do good while they live.

Ecclesiastes 3:13 That everyone may eat and drink, and find satisfaction in all his toil—this is the gift of God.

Ecclesiastes 3:14 I know that everything God does will endure for ever; nothing can be added to it and nothing taken from it. God does it so that men will revere him.

Ecclesiastes 3:15 Whatever is has already been, and what will be has been before; and God will call the past to account.

Ecclesiastes 3:16 And I saw something else under the sun: In the place of judgment—wickedness was there, in the place of justice—wickedness was there.

Ecclesiastes 3:17 I thought in my heart, “God will bring to judgment both the righteous and the wicked, for there will be a time for every activity, a time for every deed.”

Ecclesiastes 3:18 I also thought, “As for men, God tests them so that they may see that they are like the animals.

Ecclesiastes 3:19 Man’s fate is like that of the animals; the same fate awaits them both: As one dies, so dies the other. All have the same breath; man has no advantage over the animal. Everything is meaningless.

Ecclesiastes 3:20 All go to the same place; all come from dust, and to dust all return.

Ecclesiastes 3:21 Who knows if the spirit of man rises upward and if the spirit of the animal goes down into the earth?”

Ecclesiastes 3:22 So I saw that there is nothing better for a man than to enjoy his work, because that is his lot. For who can bring him to see what will happen after him?

Ecclesiastes 4:1 Again I looked and saw all the oppression that was taking place under the sun: I saw the tears of the oppressed—and they have no comforter; power was on the side of their oppressors—and they have no comforter.

Ecclesiastes 4:2 And I declared that the dead, who had already died, are happier than the living, who are still alive.

Ecclesiastes 4:3 But better than both is he who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil that is done under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 4:4 And I saw that all labour and all achievement spring from man’s envy of his neighbour. This too is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

Ecclesiastes 4:5 The fool folds his hands and ruins himself.

Ecclesiastes 4:6 Better one handful with tranquillity than two handfuls with toil and chasing after the wind.

Ecclesiastes 4:7 Again I saw something meaningless under the sun:

Ecclesiastes 4:8 There was a man all alone; he had neither son nor brother. There was no end to his toil, yet his eyes were not content with his wealth. “For whom am I toiling,” he asked, “and why am I depriving myself of enjoyment?” This too is meaningless—a miserable business!

Ecclesiastes 4:9 Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their work:

Ecclesiastes 4:10 If one falls down, his friend can help him up. But pity the man who falls and has no-one to help him up!

Ecclesiastes 4:11 Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm. But how can one keep warm alone?

Ecclesiastes 4:12 Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves. A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

Ecclesiastes 4:13 Better a poor but wise youth than an old but foolish king who no longer knows how to take warning.

Ecclesiastes 4:14 The youth may have come from prison to the kingship, or he may have been born in poverty within his kingdom.

Ecclesiastes 4:15 I saw that all who lived and walked under the sun followed the youth, the king’s successor.

Ecclesiastes 4:16 There was no end to all the people who were before them. But those who came later were not pleased with the successor. This too is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

Ecclesiastes 5:1 Guard your steps when you go to the house of God. Go near to listen rather than to offer the sacrifice of fools, who do not know that they do wrong.

Ecclesiastes 5:2 Do not be quick with your mouth, do not be hasty in your heart to utter anything before God. God is in heaven and you are on earth, so let your words be few.

Ecclesiastes 5:3 As a dream comes when there are many cares, so the speech of a fool when there are many words.

Ecclesiastes 5:4 When you make a vow to God, do not delay in fulfilling it. He has no pleasure in fools; fulfil your vow.

Ecclesiastes 5:5 It is better not to vow than to make a vow and not fulfil it.

Ecclesiastes 5:6 Do not let your mouth lead you into sin. And do not protest to the [temple] messenger, “My vow was a mistake.” Why should God be angry at what you say and destroy the work of your hands?

Ecclesiastes 5:7 Much dreaming and many words are meaningless. Therefore stand in awe of God.

Ecclesiastes 5:8 If you see the poor oppressed in a district, and justice and rights denied, do not be surprised at such things; for one official is eyed by a higher one, and over them both are others higher still.

Ecclesiastes 5:9 The increase from the land is taken by all; the king himself profits from the fields.

Ecclesiastes 5:10 Whoever loves money never has money enough; whoever loves wealth is never satisfied with his income. This too is meaningless.

Ecclesiastes 5:11 As goods increase, so do those who consume them. And what benefit are they to the owner except to feast his eyes on them?

Ecclesiastes 5:12 The sleep of a labourer is sweet, whether he eats little or much, but the abundance of a rich man permits him no sleep.

Ecclesiastes 5:13 I have seen a grievous evil under the sun: wealth hoarded to the harm of its owner,

Ecclesiastes 5:14 or wealth lost through some misfortune, so that when he has a son there is nothing left for him.

Ecclesiastes 5:15 Naked a man comes from his mother's womb, and as he comes, so he departs. He takes nothing from his labour that he can carry in his hand.

Ecclesiastes 5:16 This too is a grievous evil: As a man comes, so he departs, and what does he gain, since he toils for the wind?

Ecclesiastes 5:17 All his days he eats in darkness, with great frustration, affliction and anger.

Ecclesiastes 5:18 Then I realised that it is good and proper for a man to eat and drink, and to find satisfaction in his toilsome labour under the sun during the few days of life God has given him— for this is his lot.

Ecclesiastes 5:19 Moreover, when God gives any man wealth and possessions, and enables him to enjoy them, to accept his lot and be happy in his work—this is a gift of God.

Ecclesiastes 5:20 He seldom reflects on the days of his life, because God keeps him occupied with gladness of heart.

Ecclesiastes 6:1 I have seen another evil under the sun, and it weighs heavily on men:

Ecclesiastes 6:2 God gives a man wealth, possessions and honour, so that he lacks nothing his heart desires, but God does not enable him to enjoy them, and a stranger enjoys them instead. This is meaningless, a grievous evil.

Ecclesiastes 6:3 A man may have a hundred children and live many years; yet no matter how long he lives, if he cannot enjoy his prosperity and does not receive proper burial, I say that a stillborn child is better off than he.

Ecclesiastes 6:4 It comes without meaning, it departs in darkness, and in darkness its name is shrouded.

Ecclesiastes 6:5 Though it never saw the sun or knew anything, it has more rest than does that man—

Ecclesiastes 6:6 even if he lives a thousand years twice over but fails to enjoy his prosperity. Do not all go to the same place?

Ecclesiastes 6:7 All man’s efforts are for his mouth, yet his appetite is never satisfied.

Ecclesiastes 6:8 What advantage has a wise man over a fool? What does a poor man gain by knowing how to conduct himself before others?

Ecclesiastes 6:9 Better what the eye sees than the roving of the appetite. This too is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

Ecclesiastes 6:10 Whatever exists has already been named, and what man is has been known; no man can contend with one who is stronger than he.

Ecclesiastes 6:11 The more the words, the less the meaning, and how does that profit anyone?

Ecclesiastes 6:12 For who knows what is good for a man in life, during the few and meaningless days he passes through like a shadow? Who can tell him what will happen under the sun after he is gone?

Ecclesiastes 7:1 A good name is better than fine perfume, and the day of death better than the day of birth.

Ecclesiastes 7:2 It is better to go to a house of mourning than to go to a house of feasting, for death is the destiny of every man; the living should take this to heart.

Ecclesiastes 7:3 Sorrow is better than laughter, because a sad face is good for the heart.

Ecclesiastes 7:4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in the house of pleasure.

Ecclesiastes 7:5 It is better to heed a wise man’s rebuke than to listen to the song of fools.

Ecclesiastes 7:6 Like the crackling of thorns under the pot, so is the laughter of fools. This too is meaningless.

Ecclesiastes 7:7 Extortion turns a wise man into a fool, and a bribe corrupts the heart.

Ecclesiastes 7:8 The end of a matter is better than its beginning, and patience is better than pride.

Ecclesiastes 7:9 Do not be quickly provoked in your spirit, for anger resides in the lap of fools.

Ecclesiastes 7:10 Do not say, “Why were the old days better than these?” For it is not wise to ask such questions.

Ecclesiastes 7:11 Wisdom, like an inheritance, is a good thing and benefits those who see the sun.

Ecclesiastes 7:12 Wisdom is a shelter as money is a shelter, but the advantage of knowledge is this: that wisdom preserves the life of its possessor.

Ecclesiastes 7:13 Consider what God has done: Who can straighten what he has made crooked?

Ecclesiastes 7:14 When times are good, be happy; but when times are bad, consider: God has made the one as well as the other. Therefore, a man cannot discover anything about his future.

Ecclesiastes 7:15 In this meaningless life of mine I have seen both of these: a righteous man perishing in his righteousness, and a wicked man living long in his wickedness.

Ecclesiastes 7:16 Do not be over-righteous, neither be overwise—why destroy yourself?

Ecclesiastes 7:17 Do not be overwicked, and do not be a fool—why die before your time?

Ecclesiastes 7:18 It is good to grasp the one and not let go of the other. The man who fears God will avoid all [extremes].

Ecclesiastes 7:19 Wisdom makes one wise man more powerful than ten rulers in a city.

Ecclesiastes 7:20 There is not a righteous man on earth who does what is right and never sins.

Ecclesiastes 7:21 Do not pay attention to every word people say, or you may hear your servant cursing you—

Ecclesiastes 7:22 for you know in your heart that many times you yourself have cursed others.

Ecclesiastes 7:23 All this I tested by wisdom and I said, “I am determined to be wise”—but this was beyond me.

Ecclesiastes 7:24 Whatever wisdom may be, it is far off and most profound— who can discover it?

Ecclesiastes 7:25 So I turned my mind to understand, to investigate and to search out wisdom and the scheme of things and to understand the stupidity of wickedness and the madness of folly.

Ecclesiastes 7:26 I find more bitter than death the woman who is a snare, whose heart is a trap and whose hands are chains. The man who pleases God will escape her, but the sinner she will ensnare.

Ecclesiastes 7:27 “Look,” says the Teacher, “this is what I have discovered: “Adding one thing to another to discover the scheme of things—

Ecclesiastes 7:28 while I was still searching but not finding—I found one [upright] man among a thousand, but not one [upright] woman among them all.

Ecclesiastes 7:29 This only have I found: God made mankind upright, but men have gone in search of many schemes.”

Ecclesiastes 8:1 Who is like the wise man? Who knows the explanation of things? Wisdom brightens a man’s face and changes its hard appearance.

Ecclesiastes 8:2 Obey the king’s command, I say, because you took an oath before God.

Ecclesiastes 8:3 Do not be in a hurry to leave the king’s presence. Do not stand up for a bad cause, for he will do whatever he pleases.

Ecclesiastes 8:4 Since a king’s word is supreme, who can say to him, “What are you doing?”

Ecclesiastes 8:5 Whoever obeys his command will come to no harm, and the wise heart will know the proper time and procedure.

Ecclesiastes 8:6 For there is a proper time and procedure for every matter, though a man’s misery weighs heavily upon him.

Ecclesiastes 8:7 Since no man knows the future, who can tell him what is to come?

Ecclesiastes 8:8 No man has power over the wind to contain it; so no-one has power over the day of his death. As no-one is discharged in time of war, so wickedness will not release those who practise it.

Ecclesiastes 8:9 All this I saw, as I applied my mind to everything done under the sun. There is a time when a man lords it over others to his own hurt.

Ecclesiastes 8:10 Then too, I saw the wicked buried—those who used to come and go from the holy place and receive praise in the city where they did this. This too is meaningless.

Ecclesiastes 8:11 When the sentence for a crime is not quickly carried out, the hearts of the people are filled with schemes to do wrong.

Ecclesiastes 8:12 Although a wicked man commits a hundred crimes and still lives a long time, I know that it will go better with God-fearing men, who are reverent before God.

Ecclesiastes 8:13 Yet because the wicked do not fear God, it will not go well with them, and their days will not lengthen like a shadow.

Ecclesiastes 8:14 There is something else meaningless that occurs on earth: righteous men who get what the wicked deserve, and wicked men who get what the righteous deserve. This too, I say, is meaningless.

Ecclesiastes 8:15 So I commend the enjoyment of life, because nothing is better for a man under the sun than to eat and drink and be glad. Then joy will accompany him in his work all the days of the life God has given him under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 8:16 When I applied my mind to know wisdom and to observe man’s labour on earth—his eyes not seeing sleep day or night—

Ecclesiastes 8:17 then I saw all that God has done. No-one can comprehend what goes on under the sun. Despite all his efforts to search it out, man cannot discover its meaning. Even if a wise man claims he knows, he cannot really comprehend it.

Ecclesiastes 9:1 So I reflected on all this and concluded that the righteous and the wise and what they do are in God’s hands, but no man knows whether love or hate awaits him.

Ecclesiastes 9:2 All share a common destiny—the righteous and the wicked, the good and the bad, the clean and the unclean, those who offer sacrifices and those who do not. As it is with the good man, so with the sinner; as it is with those who take oaths, so with those who are afraid to take them.

Ecclesiastes 9:3 This is the evil in everything that happens under the sun: The same destiny overtakes all. The hearts of men, moreover, are full of evil and there is madness in their hearts while they live, and afterwards they join the dead.

Ecclesiastes 9:4 Anyone who is among the living has hope— even a live dog is better off than a dead lion!

Ecclesiastes 9:5 For the living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing; they have no further reward, and even the memory of them is forgotten.

Ecclesiastes 9:6 Their love, their hate and their jealousy have long since vanished; never again will they have a part in anything that happens under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 9:7 Go, eat your food with gladness, and drink your wine with a joyful heart, for it is now that God favours what you do.

Ecclesiastes 9:8 Always be clothed in white, and always anoint your head with oil.

Ecclesiastes 9:9 Enjoy life with your wife, whom you love, all the days of this meaningless life that God has given you under the sun— all your meaningless days. For this is your lot in life and in your toilsome labour under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 9:10 Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might, for in the grave, where you are going, there is neither working nor planning nor knowledge nor wisdom.

Ecclesiastes 9:11 I have seen something else under the sun: The race is not to the swift or the battle to the strong, nor does food come to the wise or wealth to the brilliant or favour to the learned; but time and chance happen to them all.

Ecclesiastes 9:12 Moreover, no man knows when his hour will come: As fish are caught in a cruel net, or birds are taken in a snare, so men are trapped by evil times that fall unexpectedly upon them.

Ecclesiastes 9:13 I also saw under the sun this example of wisdom that greatly impressed me:

Ecclesiastes 9:14 There was once a small city with only a few people in it. And a powerful king came against it, surrounded it and built huge siegeworks against it.

Ecclesiastes 9:15 Now there lived in that city a man poor but wise, and he saved the city by his wisdom. But nobody remembered that poor man.

Ecclesiastes 9:16 So I said, “Wisdom is better than strength.” But the poor man’s wisdom is despised, and his words are no longer heeded.

Ecclesiastes 9:17 The quiet words of the wise are more to be heeded than the shouts of a ruler of fools.

Ecclesiastes 9:18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner destroys much good.

Ecclesiastes 10:1 As dead flies give perfume a bad smell, so a little folly outweighs wisdom and honour.

Ecclesiastes 10:2 The heart of the wise inclines to the right, but the heart of the fool to the left.

Ecclesiastes 10:3 Even as he walks along the road, the fool lacks sense and shows everyone how stupid he is.

Ecclesiastes 10:4 If a ruler’s anger rises against you, do not leave your post; calmness can lay great errors to rest.

Ecclesiastes 10:5 There is an evil I have seen under the sun, the sort of error that arises from a ruler:

Ecclesiastes 10:6 Fools are put in many high positions, while the rich occupy the low ones.

Ecclesiastes 10:7 I have seen slaves on horseback, while princes go on foot like slaves.

Ecclesiastes 10:8 Whoever digs a pit may fall into it; whoever breaks through a wall may be bitten by a snake.

Ecclesiastes 10:9 Whoever quarries stones may be injured by them; whoever splits logs may be endangered by them.

Ecclesiastes 10:10 If the axe is dull and its edge unsharpened, more strength is needed but skill will bring success.

Ecclesiastes 10:11 If a snake bites before it is charmed, there is no profit for the charmer.

Ecclesiastes 10:12 Words from a wise man’s mouth are gracious, but a fool is consumed by his own lips.

Ecclesiastes 10:13 At the beginning his words are folly; at the end they are wicked madness—

Ecclesiastes 10:14 and the fool multiplies words. No-one knows what is coming— who can tell him what will happen after him?

Ecclesiastes 10:15 A fool’s work wearies him; he does not know the way to town.

Ecclesiastes 10:16 Woe to you, O land whose king was a servant and whose princes feast in the morning.

Ecclesiastes 10:17 Blessed are you, O land whose king is of noble birth and whose princes eat at a proper time—for strength and not for drunkenness.

Ecclesiastes 10:18 If a man is lazy, the rafters sag; if his hands are idle, the house leaks.

Ecclesiastes 10:19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes life merry, but money is the answer for everything.

Ecclesiastes 10:20 Do not revile the king even in your thoughts, or curse the rich in your bedroom, because a bird of the air may carry your words, and a bird on the wing may report what you say.

Ecclesiastes 11:1 Cast your bread upon the waters, for after many days you will find it again.

Ecclesiastes 11:2 Give portions to seven, yes to eight, for you do not know what disaster may come upon the land.

Ecclesiastes 11:3 If clouds are full of water, they pour rain upon the earth. Whether a tree falls to the south or to the north, in the place where it falls, there will it lie.

Ecclesiastes 11:4 Whoever watches the wind will not plant; whoever looks at the clouds will not reap.

Ecclesiastes 11:5 As you do not know the path of the wind, or how the body is formed in a mother's womb, so you cannot understand the work of God, the Maker of all things.

Ecclesiastes 11:6 Sow your seed in the morning, and at evening let not your hands be idle, for you do not know which will succeed, whether this or that, or whether both will do equally well.

Ecclesiastes 11:7 Light is sweet, and it pleases the eyes to see the sun.

Ecclesiastes 11:8 However many years a man may live, let him enjoy them all. But let him remember the days of darkness, for they will be many. Everything to come is meaningless.

Ecclesiastes 11:9 Be happy, young man, while you are young, and let your heart give you joy in the days of your youth. Follow the ways of your heart and whatever your eyes see, but know that for all these things God will bring you to judgment.

Ecclesiastes 11:10 So then, banish anxiety from your heart and cast off the troubles of your body, for youth and vigour are meaningless.

Ecclesiastes 12:1 Remember your Creator in the days of your youth, before the days of trouble come and the years approach when you will say, "I find no pleasure in them"—

Ecclesiastes 12:2 before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars grow dark, and the clouds return after the rain;

Ecclesiastes 12:3 when the keepers of the house tremble, and the strong men stoop, when the grinders cease because they are few, and those looking through the windows grow dim;

Ecclesiastes 12:4 when the doors to the street are closed and the sound of grinding fades; when men rise up at the sound of birds, but all their songs grow faint;

Ecclesiastes 12:5 when men are afraid of heights and of dangers in the streets; when the almond tree blossoms and the grasshopper drags himself along and desire no longer is stirred. Then man goes to his eternal home and mourners go about the streets.

Ecclesiastes 12:6 Remember him—before the silver cord is severed, or the golden bowl is broken; before the pitcher is shattered at the spring, or the wheel broken at the well,

Ecclesiastes 12:7 and the dust returns to the ground it came from, and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

Ecclesiastes 12:8 “Meaningless! Meaningless!” says the Teacher. “Everything is meaningless!”

Ecclesiastes 12:9 Not only was the Teacher wise, but also he imparted knowledge to the people. He pondered and searched out and set in order many proverbs.

Ecclesiastes 12:10 The Teacher searched to find just the right words, and what he wrote was upright and true.

Ecclesiastes 12:11 The words of the wise are like goads, their collected sayings like firmly embedded nails—given by one Shepherd.

Ecclesiastes 12:12 Be warned, my son, of anything in addition to them. Of making many books there is no end, and much study wearies the body.

Ecclesiastes 12:13 Now all has been heard; here is the conclusion of the matter: Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole [duty] of man.

Ecclesiastes 12:14 For God will bring every deed into judgment, including every hidden thing, whether it is good or evil.

Song of Solomon

1:1 Solomon’s Song of Songs.

Song of Solomon 1:2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth—for your love is more delightful than wine.

Song of Solomon 1:3 Pleasing is the fragrance of your perfumes; your name is like perfume poured out. No wonder the maidens love you!

Song of Solomon 1:4 Take me away with you—let us hurry! Let the king bring me into his chambers. We rejoice and delight in you; we will praise your love more than wine. How right they are to adore you!

Song of Solomon 1:5 Dark am I, yet lovely, O daughters of Jerusalem, dark like the tents of Kedar, like the tent curtains of Solomon.

Song of Solomon 1:6 Do not stare at me because I am dark, because I am darkened by the sun. My mother's sons were angry with me and made me take care of the vineyards; my own vineyard I have neglected.

Song of Solomon 1:7 Tell me, you whom I love, where you graze your flock and where you rest your sheep at midday. Why should I be like a veiled woman beside the flocks of your friends?

Song of Solomon 1:8 If you do not know, most beautiful of women, follow the tracks of the sheep and graze your young goats by the tents of the shepherds.

Song of Solomon 1:9 I liken you, my darling, to a mare harnessed to one of the chariots of Pharaoh.

Song of Solomon 1:10 Your cheeks are beautiful with ear-rings, your neck with strings of jewels.

Song of Solomon 1:11 We will make you ear-rings of gold, studded with silver.

Song of Solomon 1:12 While the king was at his table, my perfume spread its fragrance.

Song of Solomon 1:13 My lover is to me a sachet of myrrh resting between my breasts.

Song of Solomon 1:14 My lover is to me a cluster of henna blossoms from the vineyards of En Gedi.

Song of Solomon 1:15 How beautiful you are, my darling! Oh, how beautiful! Your eyes are doves.

Song of Solomon 1:16 How handsome you are, my lover! Oh, how charming! And our bed is verdant.

Song of Solomon 1:17 The beams of our house are cedars; our rafters are firs.

Song of Solomon 2:1 I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.

Song of Solomon 2:2 Like a lily among thorns is my darling among the maidens.

Song of Solomon 2:3 Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest is my lover among the young men. I delight to sit in his shade, and his fruit is sweet to my taste.

Song of Solomon 2:4 He has taken me to the banquet hall, and his banner over me is love.

Song of Solomon 2:5 Strengthen me with raisins, refresh me with apples, for I am faint with love.

Song of Solomon 2:6 His left arm is under my head, and his right arm embraces me.

Song of Solomon 2:7 Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you by the gazelles and by the does of the field: Do not arouse or awaken love until it so desires.

Song of Solomon 2:8 Listen! My lover! Look! Here he comes, leaping across the mountains, bounding over the hills.

Song of Solomon 2:9 My lover is like a gazelle or a young stag. Look! There he stands behind our wall, gazing through the windows, peering through the lattice.

Song of Solomon 2:10 My lover spoke and said to me, “Arise, my darling, my beautiful one, and come with me.

Song of Solomon 2:11 See! The winter is past; the rains are over and gone.

Song of Solomon 2:12 Flowers appear on the earth; the season of singing has come, the cooing of doves is heard in our land.

Song of Solomon 2:13 The fig-tree forms its early fruit; the blossoming vines spread their fragrance. Arise, come, my darling; my beautiful one, come with me.”

Song of Solomon 2:14 My dove in the clefts of the rock, in the hiding-places on the mountainside, show me your face, let me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely.

Song of Solomon 2:15 Catch for us the foxes, the little foxes that ruin the vineyards, our vineyards that are in bloom.

Song of Solomon 2:16 My lover is mine and I am his; he browses among the lilies.

Song of Solomon 2:17 Until the day breaks and the shadows flee, turn, my lover, and be like a gazelle or like a young stag on the rugged hills.

Song of Solomon 3:1 All night long on my bed I looked for the one my heart loves; I looked for him but did not find him.

Song of Solomon 3:2 I will get up now and go about the city, through its streets and squares; I will search for the one my heart loves. So I looked for him but did not find him.

Song of Solomon 3:3 The watchmen found me as they made their rounds in the city. “Have you seen the one my heart loves?”

Song of Solomon 3:4 Scarcely had I passed them when I found the one my heart loves. I held him and would not let him go till I had brought him to my mother’s house, to the room of the one who conceived me.

Song of Solomon 3:5 Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you by the gazelles and by the does of the field: Do not arouse or awaken love until it so desires.

Song of Solomon 3:6 Who is this coming up from the desert like a column of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and incense made from all the spices of the merchant?

Song of Solomon 3:7 Look! It is Solomon’s carriage, escorted by sixty warriors, the noblest of Israel,

Song of Solomon 3:8 all of them wearing the sword, all experienced in battle, each with his sword at his side, prepared for the terrors of the night.

Song of Solomon 3:9 King Solomon made for himself the carriage; he made it of wood from Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 3:10 Its posts he made of silver, its base of gold. Its seat was upholstered with purple, its interior lovingly inlaid by the daughters of Jerusalem.

Song of Solomon 3:11 Come out, you daughters of Zion, and look at King Solomon wearing the crown, the crown with which his mother crowned him on the day of his wedding, the day his heart rejoiced.

Song of Solomon 4:1 How beautiful you are, my darling! Oh, how beautiful! Your eyes behind your veil are doves. Your hair is like a flock of goats descending from Mount Gilead.

Song of Solomon 4:2 Your teeth are like a flock of sheep just shorn, coming up from the washing. Each has its twin; not one of them is alone.

Song of Solomon 4:3 Your lips are like a scarlet ribbon; your mouth is lovely. Your temples behind your veil are like the halves of a pomegranate.

Song of Solomon 4:4 Your neck is like the tower of David, built with elegance; on it hang a thousand shields, all of them shields of warriors.

Song of Solomon 4:5 Your two breasts are like two fawns, like twin fawns of a gazelle that browse among the lilies.

Song of Solomon 4:6 Until the day breaks and the shadows flee, I will go to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of incense.

Song of Solomon 4:7 All beautiful you are, my darling; there is no flaw in you.

Song of Solomon 4:8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, come with me from Lebanon. Descend from the crest of Amana, from the top of Senir, the summit of Hermon, from the lions’ dens and the mountain haunts of the leopards.

Song of Solomon 4:9 You have stolen my heart, my sister, my bride; you have stolen my heart with one glance of your eyes, with one jewel of your necklace.

Song of Solomon 4:10 How delightful is your love, my sister, my bride! How much more pleasing is your love than wine, and the fragrance of your perfume than any spice!

Song of Solomon 4:11 Your lips drop sweetness as the honeycomb, my bride; milk and honey are under your tongue. The fragrance of your garments is like that of Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 4:12 You are a garden locked up, my sister, my bride; you are a spring enclosed, a sealed fountain.

Song of Solomon 4:13 Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates with choice fruits, with henna and nard,

Song of Solomon 4:14 nard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with every kind of incense tree, with myrrh and aloes and all the finest spices.

Song of Solomon 4:15 You are a garden fountain, a well of flowing water streaming down from Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 4:16 Awake, north wind, and come, south wind! Blow on my garden, that its fragrance may spread abroad. Let my lover come into his garden and taste its choice fruits.

Song of Solomon 5:1 I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride; I have gathered my myrrh with my spice. I have eaten my honeycomb and my honey; I have drunk my wine and my milk. Eat, O friends, and drink; drink your fill, O lovers.

Song of Solomon 5:2 I slept but my heart was awake. Listen! My lover is knocking: “Open to me, my sister, my darling, my dove, my flawless one. My head is drenched with dew, my hair with the dampness of the night.”

Song of Solomon 5:3 I have taken off my robe—must I put it on again? I have washed my feet—must I soil them again?

Song of Solomon 5:4 My lover thrust his hand through the latch-opening; my heart began to pound for him.

Song of Solomon 5:5 I arose to open for my lover, and my hands dripped with myrrh, my fingers with flowing myrrh, on the handles of the lock.

Song of Solomon 5:6 I opened for my lover, but my lover had left; he was gone. My heart sank at his departure. I looked for him but did not find him. I called him but he did not answer.

Song of Solomon 5:7 The watchmen found me as they made their rounds in the city. They beat me, they bruised me; they took away my cloak, those watchmen of the walls!

Song of Solomon 5:8 O daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you—if you find my lover, what will you tell him? Tell him I am faint with love.

Song of Solomon 5:9 How is your beloved better than others, most beautiful of women? How is your beloved better than others, that you charge us so?

Song of Solomon 5:10 My lover is radiant and ruddy, outstanding among ten thousand.

Song of Solomon 5:11 His head is purest gold; his hair is wavy and black as a raven.

Song of Solomon 5:12 His eyes are like doves by the water streams, washed in milk, mounted like jewels.

Song of Solomon 5:13 His cheeks are like beds of spice yielding perfume. His lips are like lilies dripping with myrrh.

Song of Solomon 5:14 His arms are rods of gold set with chrysolite. His body is like polished ivory decorated with sapphires.

Song of Solomon 5:15 His legs are pillars of marble set on bases of pure gold. His appearance is like Lebanon, choice as its cedars.

Song of Solomon 5:16 His mouth is sweetness itself; he is altogether lovely. This is my lover, this my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

Song of Solomon 6:1 Where has your lover gone, most beautiful of women? Which way did your lover turn, that we may look for him with you?

Song of Solomon 6:2 My lover has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices, to browse in the gardens and to gather lilies.

Song of Solomon 6:3 I am my lover’s and my lover is mine; he browses among the lilies.

Song of Solomon 6:4 You are beautiful, my darling, as Tirzah, lovely as Jerusalem, majestic as troops with banners.

Song of Solomon 6:5 Turn your eyes from me; they overwhelm me. Your hair is like a flock of goats descending from Gilead.

Song of Solomon 6:6 Your teeth are like a flock of sheep coming up from the washing. Each has its twin, not one of them is alone.

Song of Solomon 6:7 Your temples behind your veil are like the halves of a pomegranate.

Song of Solomon 6:8 Sixty queens there may be, and eighty concubines, and virgins beyond number;

Song of Solomon 6:9 but my dove, my perfect one, is unique, the only daughter of her mother, the favourite of the one who bore her. The maidens saw her and called her blessed; the queens and concubines praised her.

Song of Solomon 6:10 Who is this that appears like the dawn, fair as the moon, bright as the sun, majestic as the stars in procession?

Song of Solomon 6:11 I went down to the grove of nut trees to look at the new growth in the valley, to see if the vines had budded or the pomegranates were in bloom.

Song of Solomon 6:12 Before I realised it, my desire set me among the royal chariots of my people.

Song of Solomon 6:13 Come back, come back, O Shulammite; come back, come back, that we may gaze on you! Why would you gaze on the Shulammite as on the dance of Mahanaim?

Song of Solomon 7:1 How beautiful your sandalled feet, O prince’s daughter! Your graceful legs are like jewels, the work of a craftsman’s hands.

Song of Solomon 7:2 Your navel is a rounded goblet that never lacks blended wine. Your waist is a mound of wheat encircled by lilies.

Song of Solomon 7:3 Your breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

Song of Solomon 7:4 Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are the pools of Heshbon by the gate of Bath Rabbim. Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon looking towards Damascus.

Song of Solomon 7:5 Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel. Your hair is like royal tapestry; the king is held captive by its tresses.

Song of Solomon 7:6 How beautiful you are and how pleasing, O love, with your delights!

Song of Solomon 7:7 Your stature is like that of the palm, and your breasts like clusters of fruit.

Song of Solomon 7:8 I said, “I will climb the palm tree; I will take hold of its fruit.” May your breasts be like the clusters of the vine, the fragrance of your breath like apples,

Song of Solomon 7:9 and your mouth like the best wine. May the wine go straight to my lover, flowing gently over lips and teeth.

Song of Solomon 7:10 I belong to my lover, and his desire is for me.

Song of Solomon 7:11 Come, my lover, let us go to the countryside, let us spend the night in the villages.

Song of Solomon 7:12 Let us go early to the vineyards to see if the vines have budded, if their blossoms have opened, and if the pomegranates are in bloom—there I will give you my love.

Song of Solomon 7:13 The mandrakes send out their fragrance, and at our door is every delicacy, both new and old, that I have stored up for you, my lover.

Song of Solomon 8:1 If only you were to me like a brother, who was nursed at my mother’s breasts! Then, if I found you outside, I would kiss you, and no-one would despise me.

Song of Solomon 8:2 I would lead you and bring you to my mother’s house—she who has taught me. I would give you spiced wine to drink, the nectar of my pomegranates.

Song of Solomon 8:3 His left arm is under my head and his right arm embraces me.

Song of Solomon 8:4 Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you: Do not arouse or awaken love until it so desires.

Song of Solomon 8:5 Who is this coming up from the desert leaning on her lover? Under the apple tree I roused you; there your mother conceived you, there she who was in labour gave you birth.

Song of Solomon 8:6 Place me like a seal over your heart, like a seal on your arm; for love is as strong as death, its jealousy unyielding as the grave. It burns like blazing fire, like a mighty flame.

Song of Solomon 8:7 Many waters cannot quench love; rivers cannot wash it away. If one were to give all the wealth of his house for love, it would be utterly scorned.

Song of Solomon 8:8 We have a young sister, and her breasts are not yet grown. What shall we do for our sister for the day she is spoken for?

Song of Solomon 8:9 If she is a wall, we will build towers of silver on her. If she is a door, we will enclose her with panels of cedar.

Song of Solomon 8:10 I am a wall, and my breasts are like towers. Thus I have become in his eyes like one bringing contentment.

Song of Solomon 8:11 Solomon had a vineyard in Baal Hamon; he let out his vineyard to tenants. Each was to bring for its fruit a thousand shekels of silver.

Song of Solomon 8:12 But my own vineyard is mine to give; the thousand shekels are for you, O Solomon, and two hundred are for those who tend its fruit.

Song of Solomon 8:13 You who dwell in the gardens with friends in attendance, let me hear your voice!

Song of Solomon 8:14 Come away, my lover, and be like a gazelle or like a young stag on the spice-laden mountains.

Isaiah

1:1 The vision concerning Judah and Jerusalem that Isaiah son of Amoz saw during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

Isaiah 1:2 Hear, O heavens! Listen, O earth! For the LORD has spoken: “I reared children and brought them up, but they have rebelled against me.

Isaiah 1:3 The ox knows his master, the donkey his owner’s manger, but Israel does not know, my people do not understand.”

Isaiah 1:4 Ah, sinful nation, a people loaded with guilt, a brood of evildoers, children given to corruption! They have forsaken the LORD; they have spurned the Holy One of Israel and turned their backs on him.

Isaiah 1:5 Why should you be beaten any more? Why do you persist in rebellion? Your whole head is injured, your whole heart afflicted.

Isaiah 1:6 From the sole of your foot to the top of your head there is no soundness—only wounds and bruises and open sores, not cleansed or bandaged or soothed with oil.

Isaiah 1:7 Your country is desolate, your cities burned with fire; your fields are being stripped by foreigners right before you, laid waste as when overthrown by strangers.

Isaiah 1:8 The Daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard, like a hut in a field of melons, like a city under siege.

Isaiah 1:9 Unless the LORD Almighty had left us some survivors, we would have become like Sodom, we would have been like Gomorrah.

Isaiah 1:10 Hear the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom; listen to the law of our God, you people of Gomorrah!

Isaiah 1:11 “The multitude of your sacrifices—what are they to me?” says the LORD. “I have more than enough of burnt offerings, of rams and the fat of fattened animals; I have no pleasure in the blood of bulls and lambs and goats.

Isaiah 1:12 When you come to appear before me, who has asked this of you, this trampling of my courts?

Isaiah 1:13 Stop bringing meaningless offerings! Your incense is detestable to me. New Moons, Sabbaths and convocations—I cannot bear your evil assemblies.

Isaiah 1:14 Your New Moon festivals and your appointed feasts my soul hates. They have become a burden to me; I am weary of bearing them.

Isaiah 1:15 When you spread out your hands in prayer, I will hide my eyes from you; even if you offer many prayers, I will not listen. Your hands are full of blood;

Isaiah 1:16 wash and make yourselves clean. Take your evil deeds out of my sight! Stop doing wrong,

Isaiah 1:17 learn to do right! Seek justice, encourage the oppressed. Defend the cause of the fatherless, plead the case of the widow.

Isaiah 1:18 “Come now, let us reason together,” says the LORD. “Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red as crimson, they shall be like wool.

Isaiah 1:19 If you are willing and obedient, you will eat the best from the land;

Isaiah 1:20 but if you resist and rebel, you will be devoured by the sword.” For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Isaiah 1:21 See how the faithful city has become a harlot! She once was full of justice; righteousness used to dwell in her—but now murderers!

Isaiah 1:22 Your silver has become dross, your choice wine is diluted with water.

Isaiah 1:23 Your rulers are rebels, companions of thieves; they all love bribes and chase after gifts. They do not defend the cause of the fatherless; the widow’s case does not come before them.

Isaiah 1:24 Therefore the Lord, the LORD Almighty, the Mighty One of Israel, declares: “Ah, I will get relief from my foes and avenge myself on my enemies.

Isaiah 1:25 I will turn my hand against you; I will thoroughly purge away your dross and remove all your impurities.

Isaiah 1:26 I will restore your judges as in days of old, your counsellors as at the beginning. Afterwards you will be called the City of Righteousness, the Faithful City.”

Isaiah 1:27 Zion will be redeemed with justice, her penitent ones with righteousness.

Isaiah 1:28 But rebels and sinners will both be broken, and those who forsake the LORD will perish.

Isaiah 1:29 “You will be ashamed because of the sacred oaks in which you have delighted; you will be disgraced because of the gardens that you have chosen.

Isaiah 1:30 You will be like an oak with fading leaves, like a garden without water.

Isaiah 1:31 The mighty man will become tinder and his work a spark; both will burn together, with no-one to quench the fire.”

Isaiah 2:1 This is what Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem:

Isaiah 2:2 In the last days the mountain of the LORD’s temple will be established as chief among the mountains; it will be raised above the hills, and all nations will stream to it.

Isaiah 2:3 Many peoples will come and say, “Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob. He will teach us his ways, so that we may walk in his paths.” The law will go out from Zion, the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

Isaiah 2:4 He will judge between the nations and will settle disputes for many peoples. They will beat their swords into ploughshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not take up sword against nation, nor will they train for war any more.

Isaiah 2:5 Come, O house of Jacob, let us walk in the light of the LORD.

Isaiah 2:6 You have abandoned your people, the house of Jacob. They are full of superstitions from the East; they practise divination like the Philistines and clasp hands with pagans.

Isaiah 2:7 Their land is full of silver and gold; there is no end to their treasures. Their land is full of horses; there is no end to the chariots.

Isaiah 2:8 Their land is full of idols; they bow down to the work of their hands, to what their fingers have made.

Isaiah 2:9 So man will be brought low and mankind humbled—do not forgive them.

Isaiah 2:10 Go into the rocks, hide in the ground from dread of the LORD and the splendour of his majesty!

Isaiah 2:11 The eyes of the arrogant man will be humbled and the pride of men brought low; the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.

Isaiah 2:12 The LORD Almighty has a day in store for all the proud and lofty, for all that is exalted (and they will be humbled),

Isaiah 2:13 for all the cedars of Lebanon, tall and lofty, and all the oaks of Bashan,

Isaiah 2:14 for all the towering mountains and all the high hills,

Isaiah 2:15 for every lofty tower and every fortified wall,

Isaiah 2:16 for every trading ship and every stately vessel.

Isaiah 2:17 The arrogance of man will be brought low and the pride of men humbled; the LORD alone will be exalted in that day,

Isaiah 2:18 and the idols will totally disappear.

Isaiah 2:19 Men will flee to caves in the rocks and to holes in the ground from the dread of the LORD and the splendour of his majesty, when he rises to shake the earth.

Isaiah 2:20 In that day men will throw away to the rodents and bats their idols of silver and idols of gold, which they made to worship.

Isaiah 2:21 They will flee to caverns in the rocks and to the overhanging crags from dread of the LORD and the splendour of his majesty, when he rises to shake the earth.

Isaiah 2:22 Stop trusting in man, who has but a breath in his nostrils. Of what account is he?

Isaiah 3:1 See now, the Lord, the LORD Almighty, is about to take from Jerusalem and Judah both supply and support: all supplies of food and all supplies of water,

Isaiah 3:2 the hero and warrior, the judge and prophet, the soothsayer and elder,

Isaiah 3:3 the captain of fifty and man of rank, the counsellor, skilled craftsman and clever enchanter.

Isaiah 3:4 I will make boys their officials; mere children will govern them.

Isaiah 3:5 People will oppress each other—man against man, neighbour against neighbour. The young will rise up against the old, the base against the honourable.

Isaiah 3:6 A man will seize one of his brothers at his father's home, and say, "You have a cloak, you be our leader; take charge of this heap of ruins!"

Isaiah 3:7 But in that day he will cry out, "I have no remedy. I have no food or clothing in my house; do not make me the leader of the people."

Isaiah 3:8 Jerusalem staggers, Judah is falling; their words and deeds are against the LORD, defying his glorious presence.

Isaiah 3:9 The look on their faces testifies against them; they parade their sin like Sodom; they do not hide it. Woe to them! They have brought disaster upon themselves.

Isaiah 3:10 Tell the righteous it will be well with them, for they will enjoy the fruit of their deeds.

Isaiah 3:11 Woe to the wicked! Disaster is upon them! They will be paid back for what their hands have done.

Isaiah 3:12 Youths oppress my people, women rule over them. O my people, your guides lead you astray; they turn you from the path.

Isaiah 3:13 The LORD takes his place in court; he rises to judge the people.

Isaiah 3:14 The LORD enters into judgment against the elders and leaders of his people: "It is you who have ruined my vineyard; the plunder from the poor is in your houses.

Isaiah 3:15 What do you mean by crushing my people and grinding the faces of the poor?" declares the Lord, the LORD Almighty.

Isaiah 3:16 The LORD says, "The women of Zion are haughty, walking along with outstretched necks, flirting with their eyes, tripping along with mincing steps, with ornaments jingling on their ankles.

Isaiah 3:17 Therefore the Lord will bring sores on the heads of the women of Zion; the LORD will make their scalps bald."

Isaiah 3:18 In that day the Lord will snatch away their finery: the bangles and headbands and crescent necklaces,

Isaiah 3:19 the ear-rings and bracelets and veils,

Isaiah 3:20 the head-dresses and ankle chains and sashes, the perfume bottles and charms,

Isaiah 3:21 the signet rings and nose rings,

Isaiah 3:22 the fine robes and the capes and cloaks, the purses

Isaiah 3:23 and mirrors, and the linen garments and tiaras and shawls.

Isaiah 3:24 Instead of fragrance there will be a stench; instead of a sash, a rope; instead of well-dressed hair, baldness; instead of fine clothing, sackcloth; instead of beauty, branding.

Isaiah 3:25 Your men will fall by the sword, your warriors in battle.

Isaiah 3:26 The gates of Zion will lament and mourn; destitute, she will sit on the ground.

Isaiah 4:1 In that day seven women will take hold of one man and say, “We will eat our own food and provide our own clothes; only let us be called by your name. Take away our disgrace!”

Isaiah 4:2 In that day the Branch of the LORD will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the pride and glory of the survivors in Israel.

Isaiah 4:3 Those who are left in Zion, who remain in Jerusalem, will be called holy, all who are recorded among the living in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 4:4 The Lord will wash away the filth of the women of Zion; he will cleanse the bloodstains from Jerusalem by a spirit of judgment and a spirit of fire.

Isaiah 4:5 Then the LORD will create over all of Mount Zion and over those who assemble there a cloud of smoke by day and a glow of flaming fire by night; over all the glory will be a canopy.

Isaiah 4:6 It will be a shelter and shade from the heat of the day, and a refuge and hiding-place from the storm and rain.

Isaiah 5:1 I will sing for the one I love a song about his vineyard: My loved one had a vineyard on a fertile hillside.

Isaiah 5:2 He dug it up and cleared it of stones and planted it with the choicest vines. He built a watchtower in it and cut out a winepress as well. Then he looked for a crop of good grapes, but it yielded only bad fruit.

Isaiah 5:3 “Now you dwellers in Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard.

Isaiah 5:4 What more could have been done for my vineyard than I have done for it? When I looked for good grapes, why did it yield only bad?

Isaiah 5:5 Now I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard: I will take away its hedge, and it will be destroyed; I will break down its wall, and it will be trampled.

Isaiah 5:6 I will make it a wasteland, neither pruned nor cultivated, and briers and thorns will grow there. I will command the clouds not to rain on it.”

Isaiah 5:7 The vineyard of the LORD Almighty is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah are the garden of his delight. And he looked for justice, but saw bloodshed; for righteousness, but heard cries of distress.

Isaiah 5:8 Woe to you who add house to house and join field to field till no space is left and you live alone in the land.

Isaiah 5:9 The LORD Almighty has declared in my hearing: “Surely the great houses will become desolate, the fine mansions left without occupants.

Isaiah 5:10 A ten-acre vineyard will produce only a bath of wine, a homer of seed only an ephah of grain.”

Isaiah 5:11 Woe to those who rise early in the morning to run after their drinks, who stay up late at night till they are inflamed with wine.

Isaiah 5:12 They have harps and lyres at their banquets, tambourines and flutes and wine, but they have no regard for the deeds of the LORD, no respect for the work of his hands.

Isaiah 5:13 Therefore my people will go into exile for lack of understanding; their men of rank will die of hunger and their masses will be parched with thirst.

Isaiah 5:14 Therefore the grave enlarges its appetite and opens its mouth without limit; into it will descend their nobles and masses with all their brawlers and revellers.

Isaiah 5:15 So man will be brought low and mankind humbled, the eyes of the arrogant humbled.

Isaiah 5:16 But the LORD Almighty will be exalted by his justice, and the holy God will show himself holy by his righteousness.

Isaiah 5:17 Then sheep will graze as in their own pasture; lambs will feed among the ruins of the rich.

Isaiah 5:18 Woe to those who draw sin along with cords of deceit, and wickedness as with cart ropes,

Isaiah 5:19 to those who say, “Let God hurry, let him hasten his work so that we may see it. Let it approach, let the plan of the Holy One of Israel come, so that we may know it.”

Isaiah 5:20 Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter.

Isaiah 5:21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes and clever in their own sight.

Isaiah 5:22 Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine and champions at mixing drinks,

Isaiah 5:23 who acquit the guilty for a bribe, but deny justice to the innocent.

Isaiah 5:24 Therefore, as tongues of fire lick up straw and as dry grass sinks down in the flames, so their roots will decay and their flowers blow away like dust; for they have rejected the law of the LORD Almighty and spurned the word of the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 5:25 Therefore the LORD's anger burns against his people; his hand is raised and he strikes them down. The mountains shake, and the dead bodies are like refuse in the streets. Yet for all this, his anger is not turned away, his hand is still upraised.

Isaiah 5:26 He lifts up a banner for the distant nations, he whistles for those at the ends of the earth. Here they come, swiftly and speedily!

Isaiah 5:27 Not one of them grows tired or stumbles, not one slumbers or sleeps; not a belt is loosened at the waist, not a sandal thong is broken.

Isaiah 5:28 Their arrows are sharp, all their bows are strung; their horses' hoofs seem like flint, their chariot wheels like a whirlwind.

Isaiah 5:29 Their roar is like that of the lion, they roar like young lions; they growl as they seize their prey and carry it off with no-one to rescue.

Isaiah 5:30 In that day they will roar over it like the roaring of the sea. And if one looks at the land, he will see darkness and distress; even the light will be darkened by the clouds.

Isaiah 6:1 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a throne, high and exalted, and the train of his robe filled the temple.

Isaiah 6:2 Above him were seraphs, each with six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they were flying.

Isaiah 6:3 And they were calling to one another: "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory."

Isaiah 6:4 At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook and the temple was filled with smoke.

Isaiah 6:5 "Woe to me!" I cried. "I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, the LORD Almighty."

Isaiah 6:6 Then one of the seraphs flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar.

Isaiah 6:7 With it he touched my mouth and said, "See, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for."

Isaiah 6:8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I. Send me!"

Isaiah 6:9 He said, "Go and tell this people: "`Be ever hearing, but never understanding; be ever seeing, but never perceiving.'

Isaiah 6:10 Make the heart of this people calloused; make their ears dull and close their eyes. Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts, and turn and be healed."

Isaiah 6:11 Then I said, “For how long, O Lord?” And he answered: “Until the cities lie ruined and without inhabitant, until the houses are left deserted and the fields ruined and ravaged, Isaiah 6:12 until the LORD has sent everyone far away and the land is utterly forsaken.

Isaiah 6:13 And though a tenth remains in the land, it will again be laid waste. But as the terebinth and oak leave stumps when they are cut down, so the holy seed will be the stump in the land.”

Isaiah 7:1 When Ahaz son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, was king of Judah, King Rezin of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel marched up to fight against Jerusalem, but they could not overpower it.

Isaiah 7:2 Now the house of David was told, “Aram has allied itself with Ephraim”; so the hearts of Ahaz and his people were shaken, as the trees of the forest are shaken by the wind.

Isaiah 7:3 Then the LORD said to Isaiah, “Go out, you and your son Shear-Jashub, to meet Ahaz at the end of the aqueduct of the Upper Pool, on the road to the Washerman’s Field.

Isaiah 7:4 Say to him,`Be careful, keep calm and don’t be afraid. Do not lose heart because of these two smouldering stubs of firewood—because of the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram and of the son of Remaliah.

Isaiah 7:5 Aram, Ephraim and Remaliah’s son have plotted your ruin, saying,

Isaiah 7:6 “Let us invade Judah; let us tear it apart and divide it among ourselves, and make the son of Tabeel king over it.”

Isaiah 7:7 Yet this is what the Sovereign LORD says: “`It will not take place, it will not happen,

Isaiah 7:8 for the head of Aram is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is only Rezin. Within sixty-five years Ephraim will be too shattered to be a people.

Isaiah 7:9 The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is only Remaliah’s son. If you do not stand firm in your faith, you will not stand at all.’“

Isaiah 7:10 Again the LORD spoke to Ahaz,

Isaiah 7:11 “Ask the LORD your God for a sign, whether in the deepest depths or in the highest heights.”

Isaiah 7:12 But Ahaz said, “I will not ask; I will not put the LORD to the test.”

Isaiah 7:13 Then Isaiah said, “Hear now, you house of David! Is it not enough to try the patience of men? Will you try the patience of my God also?

Isaiah 7:14 Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign: The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and will call him Immanuel.

Isaiah 7:15 He will eat curds and honey when he knows enough to reject the wrong and choose the right.

Isaiah 7:16 But before the boy knows enough to reject the wrong and choose the right, the land of the two kings you dread will be laid waste.

Isaiah 7:17 The LORD will bring on you and on your people and on the house of your father a time unlike any since Ephraim broke away from Judah—he will bring the king of Assyria.”

Isaiah 7:18 In that day the LORD will whistle for flies from the distant streams of Egypt and for bees from the land of Assyria.

Isaiah 7:19 They will all come and settle in the steep ravines and in the crevices in the rocks, on all the thornbushes and at all the water holes.

Isaiah 7:20 In that day the Lord will use a razor hired from beyond the River— the king of Assyria—to shave your head and the hair of your legs, and to take off your beards also.

Isaiah 7:21 In that day, a man will keep alive a young cow and two goats.

Isaiah 7:22 And because of the abundance of the milk they give, he will have curds to eat. All who remain in the land will eat curds and honey.

Isaiah 7:23 In that day, in every place where there were a thousand vines worth a thousand silver shekels, there will be only briers and thorns.

Isaiah 7:24 Men will go there with bow and arrow, for the land will be covered with briers and thorns.

Isaiah 7:25 As for all the hills once cultivated by the hoe, you will no longer go there for fear of the briers and thorns; they will become places where cattle are turned loose and where sheep run.

Isaiah 8:1 The LORD said to me, “Take a large scroll and write on it with an ordinary pen: Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz.

Isaiah 8:2 And I will call in Uriah the priest and Zechariah son of Jeberekiah as reliable witnesses for me.”

Isaiah 8:3 Then I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and gave birth to a son. And the LORD said to me, “Name him Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz.

Isaiah 8:4 Before the boy knows how to say`My father’ or`My mother’, the wealth of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be carried off by the king of Assyria.”

Isaiah 8:5 The LORD spoke to me again:

Isaiah 8:6 “Because this people has rejected the gently flowing waters of Shiloah and rejoices over Rezin and the son of Remaliah,

Isaiah 8:7 therefore the Lord is about to bring against them the mighty floodwaters of the River— the king of Assyria with all his pomp. It will overflow all its channels, run over all its banks

Isaiah 8:8 and sweep on into Judah, swirling over it, passing through it and reaching up to the neck. Its outspread wings will cover the breadth of your land, O Immanuel!”

Isaiah 8:9 Raise the war cry, you nations, and be shattered! Listen, all you distant lands. Prepare for battle, and be shattered! Prepare for battle, and be shattered!

Isaiah 8:10 Devise your strategy, but it will be thwarted; propose your plan, but it will not stand, for God is with us.

Isaiah 8:11 The LORD spoke to me with his strong hand upon me, warning me not to follow the way of this people. He said:

Isaiah 8:12 “Do not call conspiracy everything that these people call conspiracy; do not fear what they fear, and do not dread it.

Isaiah 8:13 The LORD Almighty is the one you are to regard as holy, he is the one you are to fear, he is the one you are to dread,

Isaiah 8:14 and he will be a sanctuary; but for both houses of Israel he will be a stone that causes men to stumble and a rock that makes them fall. And for the people of Jerusalem he will be a trap and a snare.

Isaiah 8:15 Many of them will stumble; they will fall and be broken, they will be snared and captured.”

Isaiah 8:16 Bind up the testimony and seal up the law among my disciples.

Isaiah 8:17 I will wait for the LORD, who is hiding his face from the house of Jacob. I will put my trust in him.

Isaiah 8:18 Here am I, and the children the LORD has given me. We are signs and symbols in Israel from the LORD Almighty, who dwells on Mount Zion.

Isaiah 8:19 When men tell you to consult mediums and spiritists, who whisper and mutter, should not a people enquire of their God? Why consult the dead on behalf of the living?

Isaiah 8:20 To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, they have no light of dawn.

Isaiah 8:21 Distressed and hungry, they will roam through the land; when they are famished, they will become enraged and, looking upward, will curse their king and their God.

Isaiah 8:22 Then they will look towards the earth and see only distress and darkness and fearful gloom, and they will be thrust into utter darkness.

Isaiah 9:1 Nevertheless, there will be no more gloom for those who were in distress. In the past he humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the future he will honour Galilee of the Gentiles, by the way of the sea, along the Jordan—

Isaiah 9:2 The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has dawned.

Isaiah 9:3 You have enlarged the nation and increased their joy; they rejoice before you as people rejoice at the harvest, as men rejoice when dividing the plunder.

Isaiah 9:4 For as in the day of Midian’s defeat, you have shattered the yoke that burdens them, the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor.

Isaiah 9:5 Every warrior’s boot used in battle and every garment rolled in blood will be destined for burning, will be fuel for the fire.

Isaiah 9:6 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Isaiah 9:7 Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David’s throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and for ever. The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

Isaiah 9:8 The Lord has sent a message against Jacob; it will fall on Israel.

Isaiah 9:9 All the people will know it—Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria—who say with pride and arrogance of heart,

Isaiah 9:10 “The bricks have fallen down, but we will rebuild with dressed stone; the fig-trees have been felled, but we will replace them with cedars.”

Isaiah 9:11 But the LORD has strengthened Rezin’s foes against them and has spurred their enemies on.

Isaiah 9:12 Arameans from the east and Philistines from the west have devoured Israel with open mouth. Yet for all this, his anger is not turned away, his hand is still upraised.

Isaiah 9:13 But the people have not returned to him who struck them, nor have they sought the LORD Almighty.

Isaiah 9:14 So the LORD will cut off from Israel both head and tail, both palm branch and reed in a single day;

Isaiah 9:15 the elders and prominent men are the head, the prophets who teach lies are the tail.

Isaiah 9:16 Those who guide this people mislead them, and those who are guided are led astray.

Isaiah 9:17 Therefore the Lord will take no pleasure in the young men, nor will he pity the fatherless and widows, for everyone is ungodly and wicked, every mouth speaks vileness. Yet for all this, his anger is not turned away, his hand is still upraised.

Isaiah 9:18 Surely wickedness burns like a fire; it consumes briers and thorns, it sets the forest thickets ablaze, so that it rolls upward in a column of smoke.

Isaiah 9:19 By the wrath of the LORD Almighty the land will be scorched and the people will be fuel for the fire; no-one will spare his brother.

Isaiah 9:20 On the right they will devour, but still be hungry; on the left they will eat, but not be satisfied. Each will feed on the flesh of his own offspring:

Isaiah 9:21 Manasseh will feed on Ephraim, and Ephraim on Manasseh; together they will turn against Judah. Yet for all this, his anger is not turned away, his hand is still upraised.

Isaiah 10:1 Woe to those who make unjust laws, to those who issue oppressive decrees,

Isaiah 10:2 to deprive the poor of their rights and withhold justice from the oppressed of my people, making widows their prey and robbing the fatherless.

Isaiah 10:3 What will you do on the day of reckoning, when disaster comes from afar? To whom will you run for help? Where will you leave your riches?

Isaiah 10:4 Nothing will remain but to cringe among the captives or fall among the slain. Yet for all this, his anger is not turned away, his hand is still upraised.

Isaiah 10:5 “Woe to the Assyrian, the rod of my anger, in whose hand is the club of my wrath!

Isaiah 10:6 I send him against a godless nation, I dispatch him against a people who anger me, to seize loot and snatch plunder, and to trample them down like mud in the streets.

Isaiah 10:7 But this is not what he intends, this is not what he has in mind; his purpose is to destroy, to put an end to many nations.

Isaiah 10:8 `Are not my commanders all kings?’ he says.

Isaiah 10:9 `Has not Calno fared like Carchemish? Is not Hamath like Arpad, and Samaria like Damascus?

Isaiah 10:10 As my hand seized the kingdoms of the idols, kingdoms whose images excelled those of Jerusalem and Samaria—

Isaiah 10:11 shall I not deal with Jerusalem and her images as I dealt with Samaria and her idols?’“

Isaiah 10:12 When the Lord has finished all his work against Mount Zion and Jerusalem, he will say, “I will punish the king of Assyria for the wilful pride of his heart and the haughty look in his eyes.

Isaiah 10:13 For he says: “`By the strength of my hand I have done this, and by my wisdom, because I have understanding. I removed the boundaries of nations, I plundered their treasures; like a mighty one I subdued their kings.

Isaiah 10:14 As one reaches into a nest, so my hand reached for the wealth of the nations; as men gather abandoned eggs, so I gathered all the countries; not one flapped a wing, or opened its mouth to chirp.’“

Isaiah 10:15 Does the axe raise itself above him who swings it, or the saw boast against him who uses it? As if a rod were to wield him who lifts it up, or a club brandish him who is not wood!

Isaiah 10:16 Therefore, the Lord, the LORD Almighty, will send a wasting disease upon his sturdy warriors; under his pomp a fire will be kindled like a blazing flame.

Isaiah 10:17 The Light of Israel will become a fire, their Holy One a flame; in a single day it will burn and consume his thorns and his briers.

Isaiah 10:18 The splendour of his forests and fertile fields it will completely destroy, as when a sick man wastes away.

Isaiah 10:19 And the remaining trees of his forests will be so few that a child could write them down.

Isaiah 10:20 In that day the remnant of Israel, the survivors of the house of Jacob, will no longer rely on him who struck them down but will truly rely on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 10:21 A remnant will return, a remnant of Jacob will return to the Mighty God.

Isaiah 10:22 Though your people, O Israel, be like the sand by the sea, only a remnant will return. Destruction has been decreed, overwhelming and righteous.

Isaiah 10:23 The Lord, the LORD Almighty, will carry out the destruction decreed upon the whole land.

Isaiah 10:24 Therefore, this is what the Lord, the LORD Almighty, says: “O my people who live in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrians, who beat you with a rod and lift up a club against you, as Egypt did.

Isaiah 10:25 Very soon my anger against you will end and my wrath will be directed to their destruction.”

Isaiah 10:26 The LORD Almighty will lash them with a whip, as when he struck down Midian at the rock of Oreb; and he will raise his staff over the waters, as he did in Egypt.

Isaiah 10:27 In that day their burden will be lifted from your shoulders, their yoke from your neck; the yoke will be broken because you have grown so fat.

Isaiah 10:28 They enter Aiath; they pass through Migron; they store supplies at Michmash.

Isaiah 10:29 They go over the pass, and say, “We will camp overnight at Geba.” Ramah trembles; Gibeah of Saul flees.

Isaiah 10:30 Cry out, O Daughter of Gallim! Listen, O Laishah! Poor Anathoth!

Isaiah 10:31 Madmenah is in flight; the people of Gebim take cover.

Isaiah 10:32 This day they will halt at Nob; they will shake their fist at the mount of the Daughter of Zion, at the hill of Jerusalem.

Isaiah 10:33 See, the Lord, the LORD Almighty, will lop off the boughs with great power. The lofty trees will be felled, the tall ones will be brought low.

Isaiah 10:34 He will cut down the forest thickets with an axe; Lebanon will fall before the Mighty One.

Isaiah 11:1 A shoot will come up from the stump of Jesse; from his roots a Branch will bear fruit.

Isaiah 11:2 The Spirit of the LORD will rest on him—the Spirit of wisdom and of understanding, the Spirit of counsel and of power, the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD—

Isaiah 11:3 and he will delight in the fear of the LORD. He will not judge by what he sees with his eyes, or decide by what he hears with his ears;

Isaiah 11:4 but with righteousness he will judge the needy, with justice he will give decisions for the poor of the earth. He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth; with the breath of his lips he will slay the wicked.

Isaiah 11:5 Righteousness will be his belt and faithfulness the sash round his waist.

Isaiah 11:6 The wolf will live with the lamb, the leopard will lie down with the goat, the calf and the lion and the yearling together; and a little child will lead them.

Isaiah 11:7 The cow will feed with the bear, their young will lie down together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox.

Isaiah 11:8 The infant will play near the hole of the cobra, and the young child put his hand into the viper’s nest.

Isaiah 11:9 They will neither harm nor destroy on all my holy mountain, for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.

Isaiah 11:10 In that day the Root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples; the nations will rally to him, and his place of rest will be glorious.

Isaiah 11:11 In that day the Lord will reach out his hand a second time to reclaim the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, from Lower Egypt, from Upper Egypt, from Cush, from Elam, from Babylonia, from Hamath and from the islands of the sea.

Isaiah 11:12 He will raise a banner for the nations and gather the exiles of Israel; he will assemble the scattered people of Judah from the four quarters of the earth.

Isaiah 11:13 Ephraim's jealousy will vanish, and Judah's enemies will be cut off; Ephraim will not be jealous of Judah, nor Judah hostile towards Ephraim.

Isaiah 11:14 They will swoop down on the slopes of Philistia to the west; together they will plunder the people to the east. They will lay hands on Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites will be subject to them.

Isaiah 11:15 The LORD will dry up the gulf of the Egyptian sea; with a scorching wind he will sweep his hand over the Euphrates River. He will break it up into seven streams so that men can cross over in sandals.

Isaiah 11:16 There will be a highway for the remnant of his people that is left from Assyria, as there was for Israel when they came up from Egypt.

Isaiah 12:1 In that day you will say: "I will praise you, O LORD. Although you were angry with me, your anger has turned away and you have comforted me.

Isaiah 12:2 Surely God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid. The LORD, the LORD, is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation."

Isaiah 12:3 With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.

Isaiah 12:4 In that day you will say: "Give thanks to the LORD, call on his name; make known among the nations what he has done, and proclaim that his name is exalted.

Isaiah 12:5 Sing to the LORD, for he has done glorious things; let this be known to all the world.

Isaiah 12:6 Shout aloud and sing for joy, people of Zion, for great is the Holy One of Israel among you."

Isaiah 13:1 An oracle concerning Babylon that Isaiah son of Amoz saw:

Isaiah 13:2 Raise a banner on a bare hilltop, shout to them; beckon to them to enter the gates of the nobles.

Isaiah 13:3 I have commanded my holy ones; I have summoned my warriors to carry out my wrath—those who rejoice in my triumph.

Isaiah 13:4 Listen, a noise on the mountains, like that of a great multitude! Listen, an uproar among the kingdoms, like nations massing together! The LORD Almighty is mustering an army for war.

Isaiah 13:5 They come from faraway lands, from the ends of the heavens— the LORD and the weapons of his wrath—to destroy the whole country.

Isaiah 13:6 Wail, for the day of the LORD is near; it will come like destruction from the Almighty.

Isaiah 13:7 Because of this, all hands will go limp, every man’s heart will melt.

Isaiah 13:8 Terror will seize them, pain and anguish will grip them; they will writhe like a woman in labour. They will look aghast at each other, their faces aflame.

Isaiah 13:9 See, the day of the LORD is coming—a cruel day, with wrath and fierce anger—to make the land desolate and destroy the sinners within it.

Isaiah 13:10 The stars of heaven and their constellations will not show their light. The rising sun will be darkened and the moon will not give its light.

Isaiah 13:11 I will punish the world for its evil, the wicked for their sins. I will put an end to the arrogance of the haughty and will humble the pride of the ruthless.

Isaiah 13:12 I will make man scarcer than pure gold, more rare than the gold of Ophir.

Isaiah 13:13 Therefore I will make the heavens tremble; and the earth will shake from its place at the wrath of the LORD Almighty, in the day of his burning anger.

Isaiah 13:14 Like a hunted gazelle, like sheep without a shepherd, each will return to his own people, each will flee to his native land.

Isaiah 13:15 Whoever is captured will be thrust through; all who are caught will fall by the sword.

Isaiah 13:16 Their infants will be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses will be looted and their wives ravished.

Isaiah 13:17 See, I will stir up against them the Medes, who do not care for silver and have no delight in gold.

Isaiah 13:18 Their bows will strike down the young men; they will have no mercy on infants nor will they look with compassion on children.

Isaiah 13:19 Babylon, the jewel of kingdoms, the glory of the Babylonians’ pride, will be overthrown by God like Sodom and Gomorrah.

Isaiah 13:20 She will never be inhabited or lived in through all generations; no Arab will pitch his tent there, no shepherd will rest his flocks there.

Isaiah 13:21 But desert creatures will lie there, jackals will fill her houses; there the owls will dwell, and there the wild goats will leap about.

Isaiah 13:22 Hyenas will howl in her strongholds, jackals in her luxurious palaces. Her time is at hand, and her days will not be prolonged.

Isaiah 14:1 The LORD will have compassion on Jacob; once again he will choose Israel and will settle them in their own land. Aliens will join them and unite with the house of Jacob.

Isaiah 14:2 Nations will take them and bring them to their own place. And the house of Israel will possess the nations as menservants and maidservants in the LORD's land. They will make captives of their captors and rule over their oppressors.

Isaiah 14:3 On the day the LORD gives you relief from suffering and turmoil and cruel bondage,

Isaiah 14:4 you will take up this taunt against the king of Babylon: How the oppressor has come to an end! How his fury has ended!

Isaiah 14:5 The LORD has broken the rod of the wicked, the sceptre of the rulers,

Isaiah 14:6 which in anger struck down peoples with unceasing blows, and in fury subdued nations with relentless aggression.

Isaiah 14:7 All the lands are at rest and at peace; they break into singing.

Isaiah 14:8 Even the pine trees and the cedars of Lebanon exult over you and say, "Now that you have been laid low, no woodsman comes to cut us down."

Isaiah 14:9 The grave below is all astir to meet you at your coming; it rouses the spirits of the departed to greet you—all those who were leaders in the world; it makes them rise from their thrones—all those who were kings over the nations.

Isaiah 14:10 They will all respond, they will say to you, "You also have become weak, as we are; you have become like us."

Isaiah 14:11 All your pomp has been brought down to the grave, along with the noise of your harps; maggots are spread out beneath you and worms cover you.

Isaiah 14:12 How you have fallen from heaven, O morning star, son of the dawn! You have been cast down to the earth, you who once laid low the nations!

Isaiah 14:13 You said in your heart, “I will ascend to heaven; I will raise my throne above the stars of God; I will sit enthroned on the mount of assembly, on the utmost heights of the sacred mountain.

Isaiah 14:14 I will ascend above the tops of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.”

Isaiah 14:15 But you are brought down to the grave, to the depths of the pit.

Isaiah 14:16 Those who see you stare at you, they ponder your fate: “Is this the man who shook the earth and made kingdoms tremble,

Isaiah 14:17 the man who made the world a desert, who overthrew its cities and would not let his captives go home?”

Isaiah 14:18 All the kings of the nations lie in state, each in his own tomb.

Isaiah 14:19 But you are cast out of your tomb like a rejected branch; you are covered with the slain, with those pierced by the sword, those who descend to the stones of the pit. Like a corpse trampled underfoot,

Isaiah 14:20 you will not join them in burial, for you have destroyed your land and killed your people. The offspring of the wicked will never be mentioned again.

Isaiah 14:21 Prepare a place to slaughter his sons for the sins of their forefathers; they are not to rise to inherit the land and cover the earth with their cities.

Isaiah 14:22 “I will rise up against them,” declares the LORD Almighty. “I will cut off from Babylon her name and survivors, her offspring and descendants,” declares the LORD.

Isaiah 14:23 “I will turn her into a place for owls and into swampland; I will sweep her with the broom of destruction,” declares the LORD Almighty.

Isaiah 14:24 The LORD Almighty has sworn, “Surely, as I have planned, so it will be, and as I have purposed, so it will stand.

Isaiah 14:25 I will crush the Assyrian in my land; on my mountains I will trample him down. His yoke will be taken from my people, and his burden removed from their shoulders.”

Isaiah 14:26 This is the plan determined for the whole world; this is the hand stretched out over all nations.

Isaiah 14:27 For the LORD Almighty has purposed, and who can thwart him? His hand is stretched out, and who can turn it back?

Isaiah 14:28 This oracle came in the year King Ahaz died:

Isaiah 14:29 Do not rejoice, all you Philistines, that the rod that struck you is broken; from the root of that snake will spring up a viper, its fruit will be a darting, venomous serpent.

Isaiah 14:30 The poorest of the poor will find pasture, and the needy will lie down in safety. But your root I will destroy by famine; it will slay your survivors.

Isaiah 14:31 Wail, O gate! Howl, O city! Melt away, all you Philistines! A cloud of smoke comes from the north, and there is not a straggler in its ranks.

Isaiah 14:32 What answer shall be given to the envoys of that nation? “The LORD has established Zion, and in her his afflicted people will find refuge.”

Isaiah 15:1 An oracle concerning Moab: Ar in Moab is ruined, destroyed in a night! Kir in Moab is ruined, destroyed in a night!

Isaiah 15:2 Dibon goes up to its temple, to its high places to weep; Moab wails over Nebo and Medeba. Every head is shaved and every beard cut off.

Isaiah 15:3 In the streets they wear sackcloth; on the roofs and in the public squares they all wail, prostrate with weeping.

Isaiah 15:4 Heshbon and Elealeh cry out, their voices are heard all the way to Jahaz. Therefore the armed men of Moab cry out, and their hearts are faint.

Isaiah 15:5 My heart cries out over Moab; her fugitives flee as far as Zoar, as far as Eglath Shelishiyah. They go up the way to Luhith, weeping as they go; on the road to Horonaim they lament their destruction.

Isaiah 15:6 The waters of Nimrim are dried up and the grass is withered; the vegetation is gone and nothing green is left.

Isaiah 15:7 So the wealth they have acquired and stored up they carry away over the Ravine of the Poplars.

Isaiah 15:8 Their outcry echoes along the border of Moab; their wailing reaches as far as Eglaim, their lamentation as far as Beer Elim.

Isaiah 15:9 Dimon’s waters are full of blood, but I will bring still more upon Dimon— a lion upon the fugitives of Moab and upon those who remain in the land.

Isaiah 16:1 Send lambs as tribute to the ruler of the land, from Sela, across the desert, to the mount of the Daughter of Zion.

Isaiah 16:2 Like fluttering birds pushed from the nest, so are the women of Moab at the fords of the Arnon.

Isaiah 16:3 “Give us counsel, render a decision. Make your shadow like night—at high noon. Hide the fugitives, do not betray the refugees.

Isaiah 16:4 Let the Moabite fugitives stay with you; be their shelter from the destroyer.” The oppressor will come to an end, and destruction will cease; the aggressor will vanish from the land.

Isaiah 16:5 In love a throne will be established; in faithfulness a man will sit on it—one from the house of David— one who in judging seeks justice and speeds the cause of righteousness.

Isaiah 16:6 We have heard of Moab's pride—her overweening pride and conceit, her pride and her insolence—but her boasts are empty.

Isaiah 16:7 Therefore the Moabites wail, they wail together for Moab. Lament and grieve for the men of Kir Hareseth.

Isaiah 16:8 The fields of Heshbon wither, the vines of Sibmah also. The rulers of the nations have trampled down the choicest vines, which once reached Jazer and spread towards the desert. Their shoots spread out and went as far as the sea.

Isaiah 16:9 So I weep, as Jazer weeps, for the vines of Sibmah. O Heshbon, O Elealeh, I drench you with tears! The shouts of joy over your ripened fruit and over your harvests have been stilled.

Isaiah 16:10 Joy and gladness are taken away from the orchards; no-one sings or shouts in the vineyards; no-one treads out wine at the presses, for I have put an end to the shouting.

Isaiah 16:11 My heart laments for Moab like a harp, my inmost being for Kir Hareseth.

Isaiah 16:12 When Moab appears at her high place, she only wears herself out; when she goes to her shrine to pray, it is to no avail.

Isaiah 16:13 This is the word the LORD has already spoken concerning Moab.

Isaiah 16:14 But now the LORD says: "Within three years, as a servant bound by contract would count them, Moab's splendour and all her many people will be despised, and her survivors will be very few and feeble."

Isaiah 17:1 An oracle concerning Damascus: "See, Damascus will no longer be a city but will become a heap of ruins.

Isaiah 17:2 The cities of Aroer will be deserted and left to flocks, which will lie down, with no-one to make them afraid.

Isaiah 17:3 The fortified city will disappear from Ephraim, and royal power from Damascus; the remnant of Aram will be like the glory of the Israelites," declares the LORD Almighty.

Isaiah 17:4 "In that day the glory of Jacob will fade; the fat of his body will waste away.

Isaiah 17:5 It will be as when a reaper gathers the standing corn and harvests the corn with his arm—as when a man gleans ears of corn in the Valley of Rephaim.

Isaiah 17:6 Yet some gleanings will remain, as when an olive tree is beaten, leaving two or three olives on the topmost branches, four or five on the fruitful boughs," declares the LORD, the God of Israel.

Isaiah 17:7 In that day men will look to their Maker and turn their eyes to the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 17:8 They will not look to the altars, the work of their hands, and they will have no regard for the Asherah poles and the incense altars their fingers have made.

Isaiah 17:9 In that day their strong cities, which they left because of the Israelites, will be like places abandoned to thickets and undergrowth. And all will be desolation.

Isaiah 17:10 You have forgotten God your Saviour; you have not remembered the Rock, your fortress. Therefore, though you set out the finest plants and plant imported vines,

Isaiah 17:11 though on the day you set them out, you make them grow, and on the morning when you plant them, you bring them to bud, yet the harvest will be as nothing in the day of disease and incurable pain.

Isaiah 17:12 Oh, the raging of many nations—they rage like the raging sea! Oh, the uproar of the peoples—they roar like the roaring of great waters!

Isaiah 17:13 Although the peoples roar like the roar of surging waters, when he rebukes them they flee far away, driven before the wind like chaff on the hills, like tumble-weed before a gale.

Isaiah 17:14 In the evening, sudden terror! Before the morning, they are gone! This is the portion of those who loot us, the lot of those who plunder us.

Isaiah 18:1 Woe to the land of whirring wings along the rivers of Cush,

Isaiah 18:2 which sends envoys by sea in papyrus boats over the water. Go, swift messengers, to a people tall and smooth-skinned, to a people feared far and wide, an aggressive nation of strange speech, whose land is divided by rivers.

Isaiah 18:3 All you people of the world, you who live on the earth, when a banner is raised on the mountains, you will see it, and when a trumpet sounds, you will hear it.

Isaiah 18:4 This is what the LORD says to me: “I will remain quiet and will look on from my dwelling-place, like shimmering heat in the sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.”

Isaiah 18:5 For, before the harvest, when the blossom is gone and the flower becomes a ripening grape, he will cut off the shoots with pruning knives, and cut down and take away the spreading branches.

Isaiah 18:6 They will all be left to the mountain birds of prey and to the wild animals; the birds will feed on them all summer, the wild animals all winter.

Isaiah 18:7 At that time gifts will be brought to the LORD Almighty from a people tall and smooth-skinned, from a people feared far and wide, an aggressive nation of strange speech, whose land is divided by rivers—the gifts will be brought to Mount Zion, the place of the Name of the LORD Almighty.

Isaiah 19:1 An oracle concerning Egypt: See, the LORD rides on a swift cloud and is coming to Egypt. The idols of Egypt tremble before him, and the hearts of the Egyptians melt within them.

Isaiah 19:2 "I will stir up Egyptian against Egyptian—brother will fight against brother, neighbour against neighbour, city against city, kingdom against kingdom.

Isaiah 19:3 The Egyptians will lose heart, and I will bring their plans to nothing; they will consult the idols and the spirits of the dead, the mediums and the spiritists.

Isaiah 19:4 I will hand the Egyptians over to the power of a cruel master, and a fierce king will rule over them," declares the Lord, the LORD Almighty.

Isaiah 19:5 The waters of the river will dry up, and the river bed will be parched and dry.

Isaiah 19:6 The canals will stink; the streams of Egypt will dwindle and dry up. The reeds and rushes will wither,

Isaiah 19:7 also the plants along the Nile, at the mouth of the river. Every sown field along the Nile will become parched, will blow away and be no more.

Isaiah 19:8 The fishermen will groan and lament, all who cast hooks into the Nile; those who throw nets on the water will pine away.

Isaiah 19:9 Those who work with combed flax will despair, the weavers of fine linen will lose hope.

Isaiah 19:10 The workers in cloth will be dejected, and all the wage earners will be sick at heart.

Isaiah 19:11 The officials of Zoan are nothing but fools; the wise counsellors of Pharaoh give senseless advice. How can you say to Pharaoh, "I am one of the wise men, a disciple of the ancient kings"?

Isaiah 19:12 Where are your wise men now? Let them show you and make known what the LORD Almighty has planned against Egypt.

Isaiah 19:13 The officials of Zoan have become fools, the leaders of Memphis are deceived; the cornerstones of her peoples have led Egypt astray.

Isaiah 19:14 The LORD has poured into them a spirit of dizziness; they make Egypt stagger in all that she does, as a drunkard staggers around in his vomit.

Isaiah 19:15 There is nothing Egypt can do—head or tail, palm branch or reed.

Isaiah 19:16 In that day the Egyptians will be like women. They will shudder with fear at the uplifted hand that the LORD Almighty raises against them.

Isaiah 19:17 And the land of Judah will bring terror to the Egyptians; everyone to whom Judah is mentioned will be terrified, because of what the LORD Almighty is planning against them.

Isaiah 19:18 In that day five cities in Egypt will speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the LORD Almighty. One of them will be called the City of Destruction.

Isaiah 19:19 In that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the heart of Egypt, and a monument to the LORD at its border.

Isaiah 19:20 It will be a sign and witness to the LORD Almighty in the land of Egypt. When they cry out to the LORD because of their oppressors, he will send them a saviour and defender, and he will rescue them.

Isaiah 19:21 So the LORD will make himself known to the Egyptians, and in that day they will acknowledge the LORD. They will worship with sacrifices and grain offerings; they will make vows to the LORD and keep them.

Isaiah 19:22 The LORD will strike Egypt with a plague; he will strike them and heal them. They will turn to the LORD, and he will respond to their pleas and heal them.

Isaiah 19:23 In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. The Assyrians will go to Egypt and the Egyptians to Assyria. The Egyptians and Assyrians will worship together.

Isaiah 19:24 In that day Israel will be the third, along with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing on the earth.

Isaiah 19:25 The LORD Almighty will bless them, saying, “Blessed be Egypt my people, Assyria my handiwork, and Israel my inheritance.”

Isaiah 20:1 In the year that the supreme commander, sent by Sargon king of Assyria, came to Ashdod and attacked and captured it—

Isaiah 20:2 at that time the LORD spoke through Isaiah son of Amoz. He said to him, “Take off the sackcloth from your body and the sandals from your feet.” And he did so, going around stripped and barefoot.

Isaiah 20:3 Then the LORD said, “Just as my servant Isaiah has gone stripped and barefoot for three years, as a sign and portent against Egypt and Cush,

Isaiah 20:4 so the king of Assyria will lead away stripped and barefoot the Egyptian captives and Cushite exiles, young and old, with buttocks bared—to Egypt’s shame.

Isaiah 20:5 Those who trusted in Cush and boasted in Egypt will be afraid and put to shame.

Isaiah 20:6 In that day the people who live on this coast will say,`See what has happened to those we relied on, those we fled to for help and deliverance from the king of Assyria! How then can we escape?'“

Isaiah 21:1 An oracle concerning the Desert by the Sea: Like whirlwinds sweeping through the southland, an invader comes from the desert, from a land of terror.

Isaiah 21:2 A dire vision has been shown to me: The traitor betrays, the looter takes loot. Elam, attack! Media, lay siege! I will bring to an end all the groaning she caused.

Isaiah 21:3 At this my body is racked with pain, pangs seize me, like those of a woman in labour; I am staggered by what I hear, I am bewildered by what I see.

Isaiah 21:4 My heart falters, fear makes me tremble; the twilight I longed for has become a horror to me.

Isaiah 21:5 They set the tables, they spread the rugs, they eat, they drink! Get up, you officers, oil the shields!

Isaiah 21:6 This is what the Lord says to me: “Go, post a lookout and have him report what he sees.

Isaiah 21:7 When he sees chariots with teams of horses, riders on donkeys or riders on camels, let him be alert, fully alert.”

Isaiah 21:8 And the lookout shouted, “Day after day, my lord, I stand on the watchtower; every night I stay at my post.

Isaiah 21:9 Look, here comes a man in a chariot with a team of horses. And he gives back the answer:`Babylon has fallen, has fallen! All the images of its gods lie shattered on the ground!'“

Isaiah 21:10 O my people, crushed on the threshing-floor, I tell you what I have heard from the LORD Almighty, from the God of Israel.

Isaiah 21:11 An oracle concerning Dumah: Someone calls to me from Seir, “Watchman, what is left of the night? Watchman, what is left of the night?”

Isaiah 21:12 The watchman replies, “Morning is coming, but also the night. If you would ask, then ask; and come back yet again.”

Isaiah 21:13 An oracle concerning Arabia: You caravans of Dedanites, who camp in the thickets of Arabia,

Isaiah 21:14 bring water for the thirsty; you who live in Tema, bring food for the fugitives.

Isaiah 21:15 They flee from the sword, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow and from the heat of battle.

Isaiah 21:16 This is what the Lord says to me: “Within one year, as a servant bound by contract would count it, all the pomp of Kedar will come to an end.

Isaiah 21:17 The survivors of the bowmen, the warriors of Kedar, will be few.” The LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken.

Isaiah 22:1 An oracle concerning the Valley of Vision: What troubles you now, that you have all gone up on the roofs,

Isaiah 22:2 O town full of commotion, O city of tumult and revelry? Your slain were not killed by the sword, nor did they die in battle.

Isaiah 22:3 All your leaders have fled together; they have been captured without using the bow. All you who were caught were taken prisoner together, having fled while the enemy was still far away.

Isaiah 22:4 Therefore I said, “Turn away from me; let me weep bitterly. Do not try to console me over the destruction of my people.”

Isaiah 22:5 The Lord, the LORD Almighty, has a day of tumult and trampling and terror in the Valley of Vision, a day of battering down walls and of crying out to the mountains.

Isaiah 22:6 Elam takes up the quiver, with her charioteers and horses; Kir uncovers the shield.

Isaiah 22:7 Your choicest valleys are full of chariots, and horsemen are posted at the city gates;

Isaiah 22:8 the defences of Judah are stripped away. And you looked in that day to the weapons in the Palace of the Forest;

Isaiah 22:9 you saw that the City of David had many breaches in its defences; you stored up water in the Lower Pool.

Isaiah 22:10 You counted the buildings in Jerusalem and tore down houses to strengthen the wall.

Isaiah 22:11 You built a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the Old Pool, but you did not look to the One who made it, or have regard for the One who planned it long ago.

Isaiah 22:12 The Lord, the LORD Almighty, called you on that day to weep and to wail, to tear out your hair and put on sackcloth.

Isaiah 22:13 But see, there is joy and revelry, slaughtering of cattle and killing of sheep, eating of meat and drinking of wine! “Let us eat and drink,” you say, “for tomorrow we die!”

Isaiah 22:14 The LORD Almighty has revealed this in my hearing: “Till your dying day this sin will not be atoned for,” says the Lord, the LORD Almighty.

Isaiah 22:15 This is what the Lord, the LORD Almighty, says: “Go, say to this steward, to Shebna, who is in charge of the palace:

Isaiah 22:16 What are you doing here and who gave you permission to cut out a grave for yourself here, hewing your grave on the height and chiselling your resting place in the rock?

Isaiah 22:17 “Beware, the LORD is about to take firm hold of you and hurl you away, O you mighty man.

Isaiah 22:18 He will roll you up tightly like a ball and throw you into a large country. There you will die and there your splendid chariots will remain—you disgrace to your master’s house!

Isaiah 22:19 I will depose you from your office, and you will be ousted from your position.

Isaiah 22:20 “In that day I will summon my servant, Eliakim son of Hilkiah.

Isaiah 22:21 I will clothe him with your robe and fasten your sash around him and hand your authority over to him. He will be a father to those who live in Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.

Isaiah 22:22 I will place on his shoulder the key to the house of David; what he opens no-one can shut, and what he shuts no-one can open.

Isaiah 22:23 I will drive him like a peg into a firm place; he will be a seat of honour for the house of his father.

Isaiah 22:24 All the glory of his family will hang on him: its offspring and offshoots—all its lesser vessels, from the bowls to all the jars.

Isaiah 22:25 “In that day,” declares the LORD Almighty, “the peg driven into the firm place will give way; it will be sheared off and will fall, and the load hanging on it will be cut down.” The LORD has spoken.

Isaiah 23:1 An oracle concerning Tyre: Wail, O ships of Tarshish! For Tyre is destroyed and left without house or harbour. From the land of Cyprus word has come to them.

Isaiah 23:2 Be silent, you people of the island and you merchants of Sidon, whom the seafarers have enriched.

Isaiah 23:3 On the great waters came the grain of the Shihor; the harvest of the Nile was the revenue of Tyre, and she became the market-place of the nations.

Isaiah 23:4 Be ashamed, O Sidon, and you, O fortress of the sea, for the sea has spoken: “I have neither been in labour nor given birth; I have neither reared sons nor brought up daughters.”

Isaiah 23:5 When word comes to Egypt, they will be in anguish at the report from Tyre.

Isaiah 23:6 Cross over to Tarshish; wail, you people of the island.

Isaiah 23:7 Is this your city of revelry, the old, old city, whose feet have taken her to settle in far-off lands?

Isaiah 23:8 Who planned this against Tyre, the bestower of crowns, whose merchants are princes, whose traders are renowned in the earth?

Isaiah 23:9 The LORD Almighty planned it, to bring low the pride of all glory and to humble all who are renowned on the earth.

Isaiah 23:10 Till your land as along the Nile, O Daughter of Tarshish, for you no longer have a harbour.

Isaiah 23:11 The LORD has stretched out his hand over the sea and made its kingdoms tremble. He has given an order concerning Phoenicia that her fortresses be destroyed.

Isaiah 23:12 He said, “No more of your revelling, O Virgin Daughter of Sidon, now crushed! “Up, cross over to Cyprus; even there you will find no rest.”

Isaiah 23:13 Look at the land of the Babylonians, this people that is now of no account! The Assyrians have made it a place for desert creatures; they raised up their siege towers, they stripped its fortresses bare and turned it into a ruin.

Isaiah 23:14 Wail, you ships of Tarshish; your fortress is destroyed!

Isaiah 23:15 At that time Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, the span of a king’s life. But at the end of these seventy years, it will happen to Tyre as in the song of the prostitute:

Isaiah 23:16 “Take up a harp, walk through the city, O prostitute forgotten; play the harp well, sing many a song, so that you will be remembered.”

Isaiah 23:17 At the end of seventy years, the LORD will deal with Tyre. She will return to her hire as a prostitute and will ply her trade with all the kingdoms on the face of the earth.

Isaiah 23:18 Yet her profit and her earnings will be set apart for the LORD; they will not be stored up or hoarded. Her profits will go to those who live before the LORD, for abundant food and fine clothes.

Isaiah 24:1 See, the LORD is going to lay waste the earth and devastate it; he will ruin its face and scatter its inhabitants—

Isaiah 24:2 it will be the same for priest as for people, for master as for servant, for mistress as for maid, for seller as for buyer, for borrower as for lender, for debtor as for creditor.

Isaiah 24:3 The earth will be completely laid waste and totally plundered. The LORD has spoken this word.

Isaiah 24:4 The earth dries up and withers, the world languishes and withers, the exalted of the earth languish.

Isaiah 24:5 The earth is defiled by its people; they have disobeyed the laws, violated the statutes and broken the everlasting covenant.

Isaiah 24:6 Therefore a curse consumes the earth; its people must bear their guilt. Therefore earth's inhabitants are burned up, and very few are left.

Isaiah 24:7 The new wine dries up and the vine withers; all the merrymakers groan.

Isaiah 24:8 The gaiety of the tambourines is stilled, the noise of the revellers has stopped, the joyful harp is silent.

Isaiah 24:9 No longer do they drink wine with a song; the beer is bitter to its drinkers.

Isaiah 24:10 The ruined city lies desolate; the entrance to every house is barred.

Isaiah 24:11 In the streets they cry out for wine; all joy turns to gloom, all gaiety is banished from the earth.

Isaiah 24:12 The city is left in ruins, its gate is battered to pieces.

Isaiah 24:13 So will it be on the earth and among the nations, as when an olive tree is beaten, or as when gleanings are left after the grape harvest.

Isaiah 24:14 They raise their voices, they shout for joy; from the west they acclaim the LORD's majesty.

Isaiah 24:15 Therefore in the east give glory to the LORD; exalt the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, in the islands of the sea.

Isaiah 24:16 From the ends of the earth we hear singing: "Glory to the Righteous One." But I said, "I waste away, I waste away! Woe to me! The treacherous betray! With treachery the treacherous betray!"

Isaiah 24:17 Terror and pit and snare await you, O people of the earth.

Isaiah 24:18 Whoever flees at the sound of terror will fall into a pit; whoever climbs out of the pit will be caught in a snare. The floodgates of the heavens are opened, the foundations of the earth shake.

Isaiah 24:19 The earth is broken up, the earth is split asunder, the earth is thoroughly shaken.

Isaiah 24:20 The earth reels like a drunkard, it sways like a hut in the wind; so heavy upon it is the guilt of its rebellion that it falls—never to rise again.

Isaiah 24:21 In that day the LORD will punish the powers in the heavens above and the kings on the earth below.

Isaiah 24:22 They will be herded together like prisoners bound in a dungeon; they will be shut up in prison and be punished after many days.

Isaiah 24:23 The moon will be abashed, the sun ashamed; for the LORD Almighty will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before its elders, gloriously.

Isaiah 25:1 O LORD, you are my God; I will exalt you and praise your name, for in perfect faithfulness you have done marvellous things, things planned long ago.

Isaiah 25:2 You have made the city a heap of rubble, the fortified town a ruin, the foreigners' stronghold a city no more; it will never be rebuilt.

Isaiah 25:3 Therefore strong peoples will honour you; cities of ruthless nations will revere you.

Isaiah 25:4 You have been a refuge for the poor, a refuge for the needy in his distress, a shelter from the storm and a shade from the heat. For the breath of the ruthless is like a storm driving against a wall

Isaiah 25:5 and like the heat of the desert. You silence the uproar of foreigners; as heat is reduced by the shadow of a cloud, so the song of the ruthless is stilled.

Isaiah 25:6 On this mountain the LORD Almighty will prepare a feast of rich food for all peoples, a banquet of aged wine—the best of meats and the finest of wines.

Isaiah 25:7 On this mountain he will destroy the shroud that enfolds all peoples, the sheet that covers all nations;

Isaiah 25:8 he will swallow up death for ever. The Sovereign LORD will wipe away the tears from all faces; he will remove the disgrace of his people from all the earth. The LORD has spoken.

Isaiah 25:9 In that day they will say, "Surely this is our God; we trusted in him, and he saved us. This is the LORD, we trusted in him; let us rejoice and be glad in his salvation."

Isaiah 25:10 The hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain; but Moab will be trampled under him as straw is trampled down in the manure.

Isaiah 25:11 They will spread out their hands in it, as a swimmer spreads out his hands to swim. God will bring down their pride despite the cleverness of their hands.

Isaiah 25:12 He will bring down your high fortified walls and lay them low; he will bring them down to the ground, to the very dust.

Isaiah 26:1 In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah: We have a strong city; God makes salvation its walls and ramparts.

Isaiah 26:2 Open the gates that the righteous nation may enter, the nation that keeps faith.

Isaiah 26:3 You will keep in perfect peace him whose mind is steadfast, because he trusts in you.

Isaiah 26:4 Trust in the LORD for ever, for the LORD, the LORD, is the Rock eternal.

Isaiah 26:5 He humbles those who dwell on high, he lays the lofty city low; he levels it to the ground and casts it down to the dust.

Isaiah 26:6 Feet trample it down—the feet of the oppressed, the footsteps of the poor.

Isaiah 26:7 The path of the righteous is level; O upright One, you make the way of the righteous smooth.

Isaiah 26:8 Yes, LORD, walking in the way of your laws, we wait for you; your name and renown are the desire of our hearts.

Isaiah 26:9 My soul yearns for you in the night; in the morning my spirit longs for you. When your judgments come upon the earth, the people of the world learn righteousness.

Isaiah 26:10 Though grace is shown to the wicked, they do not learn righteousness; even in a land of uprightness they go on doing evil and regard not the majesty of the LORD.

Isaiah 26:11 O LORD, your hand is lifted high, but they do not see it. Let them see your zeal for your people and be put to shame; let the fire reserved for your enemies consume them.

Isaiah 26:12 LORD, you establish peace for us; all that we have accomplished you have done for us.

Isaiah 26:13 O LORD, our God, other lords besides you have ruled over us, but your name alone do we honour.

Isaiah 26:14 They are now dead, they live no more; those departed spirits do not rise. You punished them and brought them to ruin; you wiped out all memory of them.

Isaiah 26:15 You have enlarged the nation, O LORD; you have enlarged the nation. You have gained glory for yourself; you have extended all the borders of the land.

Isaiah 26:16 LORD, they came to you in their distress; when you disciplined them, they could barely whisper a prayer.

Isaiah 26:17 As a woman with child and about to give birth writhes and cries out in her pain, so were we in your presence, O LORD.

Isaiah 26:18 We were with child, we writhed in pain, but we gave birth to wind. We have not brought salvation to the earth; we have not given birth to people of the world.

Isaiah 26:19 But your dead will live; their bodies will rise. You who dwell in the dust, wake up and shout for joy. Your dew is like the dew of the morning; the earth will give birth to her dead.

Isaiah 26:20 Go, my people, enter your rooms and shut the doors behind you; hide yourselves for a little while until his wrath has passed by.

Isaiah 26:21 See, the LORD is coming out of his dwelling to punish the people of the earth for their sins. The earth will disclose the blood shed upon her; she will conceal her slain no longer.

Isaiah 27:1 In that day, the LORD will punish with his sword, his fierce, great and powerful sword, Leviathan the gliding serpent, Leviathan the coiling serpent; he will slay the monster of the sea.

Isaiah 27:2 In that day—"Sing about a fruitful vineyard:

Isaiah 27:3 I, the LORD, watch over it; I water it continually. I guard it day and night so that no-one may harm it.

Isaiah 27:4 I am not angry. If only there were briers and thorns confronting me! I would march against them in battle; I would set them all on fire.

Isaiah 27:5 Or else let them come to me for refuge; let them make peace with me, yes, let them make peace with me."

Isaiah 27:6 In days to come Jacob will take root, Israel will bud and blossom and fill all the world with fruit.

Isaiah 27:7 Has [the LORD] struck her as he struck down those who struck her? Has she been killed as those were killed who killed her?

Isaiah 27:8 By warfare and exile you contend with her—with his fierce blast he drives her out, as on a day the east wind blows.

Isaiah 27:9 By this, then, will Jacob's guilt be atoned for, and this will be the full fruitage of the removal of his sin: When he makes all the altar stones to be like chalk stones crushed to pieces, no Asherah poles or incense altars will be left standing.

Isaiah 27:10 The fortified city stands desolate, an abandoned settlement, forsaken like the desert; there the calves graze, there they lie down; they strip its branches bare.

Isaiah 27:11 When its twigs are dry, they are broken off and women come and make fires with them. For this is a people without understanding; so their Maker has no compassion on them, and their Creator shows them no favour.

Isaiah 27:12 In that day the LORD will thresh from the flowing Euphrates to the Wadi of Egypt, and you, O Israelites, will be gathered up one by one.

Isaiah 27:13 And in that day a great trumpet will sound. Those who were perishing in Assyria and those who were exiled in Egypt will come and worship the LORD on the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 28:1 Woe to that wreath, the pride of Ephraim's drunkards, to the fading flower, his glorious beauty, set on the head of a fertile valley—to that city, the pride of those laid low by wine!

Isaiah 28:2 See, the Lord has one who is powerful and strong. Like a hailstorm and a destructive wind, like a driving rain and a flooding downpour, he will throw it forcefully to the ground.

Isaiah 28:3 That wreath, the pride of Ephraim's drunkards, will be trampled underfoot.

Isaiah 28:4 That fading flower, his glorious beauty, set on the head of a fertile valley, will be like a fig ripe before harvest—as soon as someone sees it and takes it in his hand, he swallows it.

Isaiah 28:5 In that day the LORD Almighty will be a glorious crown, a beautiful wreath for the remnant of his people.

Isaiah 28:6 He will be a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment, a source of strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

Isaiah 28:7 And these also stagger from wine and reel from beer: Priests and prophets stagger from beer and are befuddled with wine; they reel from beer, they stagger when seeing visions, they stumble when rendering decisions.

Isaiah 28:8 All the tables are covered with vomit and there is not a spot without filth.

Isaiah 28:9 "Who is it he is trying to teach? To whom is he explaining his message? To children weaned from their milk, to those just taken from the breast?

Isaiah 28:10 For it is: Do and do, do and do, rule on rule, rule on rule; a little here, a little there."

Isaiah 28:11 Very well then, with foreign lips and strange tongues God will speak to this people,

Isaiah 28:12 to whom he said, "This is the resting-place, let the weary rest"; and, "This is the place of repose"—but they would not listen.

Isaiah 28:13 So then, the word of the LORD to them will become: Do and do, do and do, rule on rule, rule on rule; a little here, a little there—so that they will go and fall backwards, be injured and snared and captured.

Isaiah 28:14 Therefore hear the word of the LORD, you scoffers who rule this people in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 28:15 You boast, "We have entered into a covenant with death, with the grave we have made an agreement. When an overwhelming scourge sweeps by, it cannot touch us, for we have made a lie our refuge and falsehood our hiding-place."

Isaiah 28:16 So this is what the Sovereign LORD says: "See, I lay a stone in Zion, a tested stone, a precious cornerstone for a sure foundation; the one who trusts will never be dismayed.

Isaiah 28:17 I will make justice the measuring line and righteousness the plumb-line; hail will sweep away your refuge, the lie, and water will overflow your hiding-place.

Isaiah 28:18 Your covenant with death will be annulled; your agreement with the grave will not stand. When the overwhelming scourge sweeps by, you will be beaten down by it.

Isaiah 28:19 As often as it comes it will carry you away; morning after morning, by day and by night, it will sweep through.” The understanding of this message will bring sheer terror.

Isaiah 28:20 The bed is too short to stretch out on, the blanket too narrow to wrap around you.

Isaiah 28:21 The LORD will rise up as he did at Mount Perazim, he will rouse himself as in the Valley of Gibeon—to do his work, his strange work, and perform his task, his alien task.

Isaiah 28:22 Now stop your mocking, or your chains will become heavier; the Lord, the LORD Almighty, has told me of the destruction decreed against the whole land.

Isaiah 28:23 Listen and hear my voice; pay attention and hear what I say.

Isaiah 28:24 When a farmer ploughs for planting, does he plough continually? Does he keep on breaking up and harrowing the soil?

Isaiah 28:25 When he has levelled the surface, does he not sow caraway and scatter cummin? Does he not plant wheat in its place, barley in its plot, and spelt in its field?

Isaiah 28:26 His God instructs him and teaches him the right way.

Isaiah 28:27 Caraway is not threshed with a sledge, nor is a cartwheel rolled over cummin; caraway is beaten out with a rod, and cummin with a stick.

Isaiah 28:28 Grain must be ground to make bread; so one does not go on threshing it for ever. Though he drives the wheels of his threshing-cart over it, his horses do not grind it.

Isaiah 28:29 All this also comes from the LORD Almighty, wonderful in counsel and magnificent in wisdom.

Isaiah 29:1 Woe to you, Ariel, Ariel, the city where David settled! Add year to year and let your cycle of festivals go on.

Isaiah 29:2 Yet I will besiege Ariel; she will mourn and lament, she will be to me like an altar hearth.

Isaiah 29:3 I will encamp against you all around; I will encircle you with towers and set up my siege works against you.

Isaiah 29:4 Brought low, you will speak from the ground; your speech will mumble out of the dust. Your voice will come ghostlike from the earth; out of the dust your speech will whisper.

Isaiah 29:5 But your many enemies will become like fine dust, the ruthless hordes like blown chaff. Suddenly, in an instant,

Isaiah 29:6 the LORD Almighty will come with thunder and earthquake and great noise, with windstorm and tempest and flames of a devouring fire.

Isaiah 29:7 Then the hordes of all the nations that fight against Ariel, that attack her and her fortress and besiege her, will be as it is with a dream, with a vision in the night—

Isaiah 29:8 as when a hungry man dreams that he is eating, but he awakens, and his hunger remains; as when a thirsty man dreams that he is drinking, but he awakens faint, with his thirst unquenched. So will it be with the hordes of all the nations that fight against Mount Zion.

Isaiah 29:9 Be stunned and amazed, blind yourselves and be sightless; be drunk, but not from wine, stagger, but not from beer.

Isaiah 29:10 The LORD has brought over you a deep sleep: He has sealed your eyes (the prophets); he has covered your heads (the seers).

Isaiah 29:11 For you this whole vision is nothing but words sealed in a scroll. And if you give the scroll to someone who can read, and say to him, “Read this, please,” he will answer, “I can’t; it is sealed.”

Isaiah 29:12 Or if you give the scroll to someone who cannot read, and say, “Read this, please,” he will answer, “I don’t know how to read.”

Isaiah 29:13 The Lord says: “These people come near to me with their mouth and honour me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. Their worship of me is made up only of rules taught by men.

Isaiah 29:14 Therefore once more I will astound these people with wonder upon wonder; the wisdom of the wise will perish, the intelligence of the intelligent will vanish.”

Isaiah 29:15 Woe to those who go to great depths to hide their plans from the LORD, who do their work in darkness and think, “Who sees us? Who will know?”

Isaiah 29:16 You turn things upside down, as if the potter were thought to be like the clay! Shall what is formed say to him who formed it, “He did not make me”? Can the pot say of the potter, “He knows nothing”?

Isaiah 29:17 In a very short time, will not Lebanon be turned into a fertile field and the fertile field seem like a forest?

Isaiah 29:18 In that day the deaf will hear the words of the scroll, and out of gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind will see.

Isaiah 29:19 Once more the humble will rejoice in the LORD; the needy will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 29:20 The ruthless will vanish, the mockers will disappear, and all who have an eye for evil will be cut down—

Isaiah 29:21 those who with a word make a man out to be guilty, who ensnare the defender in court and with false testimony deprive the innocent of justice.

Isaiah 29:22 Therefore this is what the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, says to the house of Jacob: “No longer will Jacob be ashamed; no longer will their faces grow pale.

Isaiah 29:23 When they see among them their children, the work of my hands, they will keep my name holy; they will acknowledge the holiness of the Holy One of Jacob, and will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

Isaiah 29:24 Those who are wayward in spirit will gain understanding; those who complain will accept instruction.”

Isaiah 30:1 “Woe to the obstinate children,” declares the LORD, “to those who carry out plans that are not mine, forming an alliance, but not by my Spirit, heaping sin upon sin;

Isaiah 30:2 who go down to Egypt without consulting me; who look for help to Pharaoh’s protection, to Egypt’s shade for refuge.

Isaiah 30:3 But Pharaoh’s protection will be to your shame, Egypt’s shade will bring you disgrace.

Isaiah 30:4 Though they have officials in Zoan and their envoys have arrived in Hanes,

Isaiah 30:5 everyone will be put to shame because of a people useless to them, who bring neither help nor advantage, but only shame and disgrace.”

Isaiah 30:6 An oracle concerning the animals of the Negev: Through a land of hardship and distress, of lions and lionesses, of adders and darting snakes, the envoys carry their riches on donkeys’ backs, their treasures on the humps of camels, to that unprofitable nation,

Isaiah 30:7 to Egypt, whose help is utterly useless. Therefore I call her Rahab the Do-Nothing.

Isaiah 30:8 Go now, write it on a tablet for them, inscribe it on a scroll, that for the days to come it may be an everlasting witness.

Isaiah 30:9 These are rebellious people, deceitful children, children unwilling to listen to the LORD’s instruction.

Isaiah 30:10 They say to the seers, “See no more visions!” and to the prophets, “Give us no more visions of what is right! Tell us pleasant things, prophesy illusions.

Isaiah 30:11 Leave this way, get off this path, and stop confronting us with the Holy One of Israel!”

Isaiah 30:12 Therefore, this is what the Holy One of Israel says: “Because you have rejected this message, relied on oppression and depended on deceit, Isaiah 30:13 this sin will become for you like a high wall, cracked and bulging, that collapses suddenly, in an instant.

Isaiah 30:14 It will break in pieces like pottery, shattered so mercilessly that among its pieces not a fragment will be found for taking coals from a hearth or scooping water out of a cistern.”

Isaiah 30:15 This is what the Sovereign LORD, the Holy One of Israel, says: “In repentance and rest is your salvation, in quietness and trust is your strength, but you would have none of it.

Isaiah 30:16 You said,`No, we will flee on horses.’ Therefore you will flee! You said,`We will ride off on swift horses.’ Therefore your pursuers will be swift!

Isaiah 30:17 A thousand will flee at the threat of one; at the threat of five you will all flee away, till you are left like a flagstaff on a mountaintop, like a banner on a hill.”

Isaiah 30:18 Yet the LORD longs to be gracious to you; he rises to show you compassion. For the LORD is a God of justice. Blessed are all who wait for him!

Isaiah 30:19 O people of Zion, who live in Jerusalem, you will weep no more. How gracious he will be when you cry for help! As soon as he hears, he will answer you.

Isaiah 30:20 Although the Lord gives you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, your teachers will be hidden no more; with your own eyes you will see them.

Isaiah 30:21 Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, “This is the way; walk in it.”

Isaiah 30:22 Then you will defile your idols overlaid with silver and your images covered with gold; you will throw them away like a menstrual cloth and say to them, “Away with you!”

Isaiah 30:23 He will also send you rain for the seed you sow in the ground, and the food that comes from the land will be rich and plentiful. In that day your cattle will graze in broad meadows.

Isaiah 30:24 The oxen and donkeys that work the soil will eat fodder and mash, spread out with fork and shovel.

Isaiah 30:25 In the day of great slaughter, when the towers fall, streams of water will flow on every high mountain and every lofty hill.

Isaiah 30:26 The moon will shine like the sun, and the sunlight will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven full days, when the LORD binds up the bruises of his people and heals the wounds he inflicted.

Isaiah 30:27 See, the Name of the LORD comes from afar, with burning anger and dense clouds of smoke; his lips are full of wrath, and his tongue is a consuming fire.

Isaiah 30:28 His breath is like a rushing torrent, rising up to the neck. He shakes the nations in the sieve of destruction; he places in the jaws of the peoples a bit that leads them astray.

Isaiah 30:29 And you will sing as on the night you celebrate a holy festival; your hearts will rejoice as when people go up with flutes to the mountain of the LORD, to the Rock of Israel.

Isaiah 30:30 The LORD will cause men to hear his majestic voice and will make them see his arm coming down with raging anger and consuming fire, with cloudburst, thunderstorm and hail.

Isaiah 30:31 The voice of the LORD will shatter Assyria; with his sceptre he will strike them down.

Isaiah 30:32 Every stroke the LORD lays on them with his punishing rod will be to the music of tambourines and harps, as he fights them in battle with the blows of his arm.

Isaiah 30:33 Topheth has long been prepared; it has been made ready for the king. Its fire pit has been made deep and wide, with an abundance of fire and wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of burning sulphur, sets it ablaze.

Isaiah 31:1 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help, who rely on horses, who trust in the multitude of their chariots and in the great strength of their horsemen, but do not look to the Holy One of Israel, or seek help from the LORD.

Isaiah 31:2 Yet he too is wise and can bring disaster; he does not take back his words. He will rise up against the house of the wicked, against those who help evildoers.

Isaiah 31:3 But the Egyptians are men and not God; their horses are flesh and not spirit. When the LORD stretches out his hand, he who helps will stumble, he who is helped will fall; both will perish together.

Isaiah 31:4 This is what the LORD says to me: “As a lion growls, a great lion over his prey—and though a whole band of shepherds is called together against him, he is not frightened by their shouts or disturbed by their clamour—so the LORD Almighty will come down to do battle on Mount Zion and on its heights.

Isaiah 31:5 Like birds hovering overhead, the LORD Almighty will shield Jerusalem; he will shield it and deliver it, he will`pass over’ it and will rescue it.”

Isaiah 31:6 Return to him you have so greatly revolted against, O Israelites.

Isaiah 31:7 For in that day every one of you will reject the idols of silver and gold your sinful hands have made.

Isaiah 31:8 “Assyria will fall by a sword that is not of man; a sword, not of mortals, will devour them. They will flee before the sword and their young men will be put to forced labour.

Isaiah 31:9 Their stronghold will fall because of terror; at sight of the battle standard their commanders will panic," declares the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

Isaiah 32:1 See, a king will reign in righteousness and rulers will rule with justice.

Isaiah 32:2 Each man will be like a shelter from the wind and a refuge from the storm, like streams of water in the desert and the shadow of a great rock in a thirsty land.

Isaiah 32:3 Then the eyes of those who see will no longer be closed, and the ears of those who hear will listen.

Isaiah 32:4 The mind of the rash will know and understand, and the stammering tongue will be fluent and clear.

Isaiah 32:5 No longer will the fool be called noble nor the scoundrel be highly respected.

Isaiah 32:6 For the fool speaks folly, his mind is busy with evil: He practises ungodliness and spreads error concerning the LORD; the hungry he leaves empty and from the thirsty he withholds water.

Isaiah 32:7 The scoundrel's methods are wicked, he makes up evil schemes to destroy the poor with lies, even when the plea of the needy is just.

Isaiah 32:8 But the noble man makes noble plans, and by noble deeds he stands.

Isaiah 32:9 You women who are so complacent, rise up and listen to me; you daughters who feel secure, hear what I have to say!

Isaiah 32:10 In little more than a year you who feel secure will tremble; the grape harvest will fail, and the harvest of fruit will not come.

Isaiah 32:11 Tremble, you complacent women; shudder, you daughters who feel secure! Strip off your clothes, put sackcloth round your waists.

Isaiah 32:12 Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vines

Isaiah 32:13 and for the land of my people, a land overgrown with thorns and briers—yes, mourn for all houses of merriment and for this city of revelry.

Isaiah 32:14 The fortress will be abandoned, the noisy city deserted; citadel and watchtower will become a wasteland for ever, the delight of donkeys, a pasture for flocks,

Isaiah 32:15 till the Spirit is poured upon us from on high, and the desert becomes a fertile field, and the fertile field seems like a forest.

Isaiah 32:16 Justice will dwell in the desert and righteousness live in the fertile field.

Isaiah 32:17 The fruit of righteousness will be peace; the effect of righteousness will be quietness and confidence for ever.

Isaiah 32:18 My people will live in peaceful dwelling-places, in secure homes, in undisturbed places of rest.

Isaiah 32:19 Though hail flattens the forest and the city is levelled completely,

Isaiah 32:20 how blessed you will be, sowing your seed by every stream, and letting your cattle and donkeys range free.

Isaiah 33:1 Woe to you, O destroyer, you who have not been destroyed! Woe to you, O traitor, you who have not been betrayed! When you stop destroying, you will be destroyed; when you stop betraying, you will be betrayed.

Isaiah 33:2 O LORD, be gracious to us; we long for you. Be our strength every morning, our salvation in time of distress.

Isaiah 33:3 At the thunder of your voice, the peoples flee; when you rise up, the nations scatter.

Isaiah 33:4 Your plunder, O nations, is harvested as by young locusts; like a swarm of locusts men pounce on it.

Isaiah 33:5 The LORD is exalted, for he dwells on high; he will fill Zion with justice and righteousness.

Isaiah 33:6 He will be the sure foundation for your times, a rich store of salvation and wisdom and knowledge; the fear of the LORD is the key to this treasure.

Isaiah 33:7 Look, their brave men cry aloud in the streets; the envoys of peace weep bitterly.

Isaiah 33:8 The highways are deserted, no travellers are on the roads. The treaty is broken, its witnesses are despised, no-one is respected.

Isaiah 33:9 The land mourns and wastes away, Lebanon is ashamed and withers; Sharon is like the Arabah, and Bashan and Carmel drop their leaves.

Isaiah 33:10 “Now will I arise,” says the LORD. “Now will I be exalted; now will I be lifted up.

Isaiah 33:11 You conceive chaff, you give birth to straw; your breath is a fire that consumes you.

Isaiah 33:12 The peoples will be burned as if to lime; like cut thornbushes they will be set ablaze.”

Isaiah 33:13 You who are far away, hear what I have done; you who are near, acknowledge my power!

Isaiah 33:14 The sinners in Zion are terrified; trembling grips the godless: “Who of us can dwell with the consuming fire? Who of us can dwell with everlasting burning?”

Isaiah 33:15 He who walks righteously and speaks what is right, who rejects gain from extortion and keeps his hand from accepting bribes, who stops his ears against plots of murder and shuts his eyes against contemplating evil—

Isaiah 33:16 this is the man who will dwell on the heights, whose refuge will be the mountain fortress. His bread will be supplied, and water will not fail him.

Isaiah 33:17 Your eyes will see the king in his beauty and view a land that stretches afar.

Isaiah 33:18 In your thoughts you will ponder the former terror: “Where is that chief officer? Where is the one who took the revenue? Where is the officer in charge of the towers?”

Isaiah 33:19 You will see those arrogant people no more, those people of an obscure speech, with their strange, incomprehensible tongue.

Isaiah 33:20 Look upon Zion, the city of our festivals; your eyes will see Jerusalem, a peaceful abode, a tent that will not be moved; its stakes will never be pulled up, nor any of its ropes broken.

Isaiah 33:21 There the LORD will be our Mighty One. It will be like a place of broad rivers and streams. No galley with oars will ride them, no mighty ship will sail them.

Isaiah 33:22 For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver, the LORD is our king; it is he who will save us.

Isaiah 33:23 Your rigging hangs loose: The mast is not held secure, the sail is not spread. Then an abundance of spoils will be divided and even the lame will carry off plunder.

Isaiah 33:24 No-one living in Zion will say, “I am ill”; and the sins of those who dwell there will be forgiven.

Isaiah 34:1 Come near, you nations, and listen; pay attention, you peoples! Let the earth hear, and all that is in it, the world, and all that comes out of it!

Isaiah 34:2 The LORD is angry with all nations; his wrath is upon all their armies. He will totally destroy them, he will give them over to slaughter.

Isaiah 34:3 Their slain will be thrown out, their dead bodies will send up a stench; the mountains will be soaked with their blood.

Isaiah 34:4 All the stars of the heavens will be dissolved and the sky rolled up like a scroll; all the starry host will fall like withered leaves from the vine, like shrivelled figs from the fig-tree.

Isaiah 34:5 My sword has drunk its fill in the heavens; see, it descends in judgment on Edom, the people I have totally destroyed.

Isaiah 34:6 The sword of the LORD is bathed in blood, it is covered with fat—the blood of lambs and goats, fat from the kidneys of rams. For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah and a great slaughter in Edom.

Isaiah 34:7 And the wild oxen will fall with them, the bull calves and the great bulls. Their land will be drenched with blood, and the dust will be soaked with fat.

Isaiah 34:8 For the LORD has a day of vengeance, a year of retribution, to uphold Zion's cause.

Isaiah 34:9 Edom's streams will be turned into pitch, her dust into burning sulphur; her land will become blazing pitch!

Isaiah 34:10 It will not be quenched night and day; its smoke will rise for ever. From generation to generation it will lie desolate; no-one will ever pass through it again.

Isaiah 34:11 The desert owl and screech owl will possess it; the great owl and the raven will nest there. God will stretch out over Edom the measuring line of chaos and the plumb-line of desolation.

Isaiah 34:12 Her nobles will have nothing there to be called a kingdom, all her princes will vanish away.

Isaiah 34:13 Thorns will overrun her citadels, nettles and brambles her strongholds. She will become a haunt for jackals, a home for owls.

Isaiah 34:14 Desert creatures will meet with hyenas, and wild goats will bleat to each other; there the night creatures will also repose and find for themselves places of rest.

Isaiah 34:15 The owl will nest there and lay eggs, she will hatch them, and care for her young under the shadow of her wings; there also the falcons will gather, each with its mate.

Isaiah 34:16 Look in the scroll of the LORD and read: None of these will be missing, not one will lack her mate. For it is his mouth that has given the order, and his Spirit will gather them together.

Isaiah 34:17 He allots their portions; his hand distributes them by measure. They will possess it for ever and dwell there from generation to generation.

Isaiah 35:1 The desert and the parched land will be glad; the wilderness will rejoice and blossom. Like the crocus,

Isaiah 35:2 it will burst into bloom; it will rejoice greatly and shout for joy. The glory of Lebanon will be given to it, the splendour of Carmel and Sharon; they will see the glory of the LORD, the splendour of our God.

Isaiah 35:3 Strengthen the feeble hands, steady the knees that give way;

Isaiah 35:4 say to those with fearful hearts, “Be strong, do not fear; your God will come, he will come with vengeance; with divine retribution he will come to save you.”

Isaiah 35:5 Then will the eyes of the blind be opened and the ears of the deaf unstopped.

Isaiah 35:6 Then will the lame leap like a deer, and the mute tongue shout for joy. Water will gush forth in the wilderness and streams in the desert.

Isaiah 35:7 The burning sand will become a pool, the thirsty ground bubbling springs. In the haunts where jackals once lay, grass and reeds and papyrus will grow.

Isaiah 35:8 And a highway will be there; it will be called the Way of Holiness. The unclean will not journey on it; it will be for those who walk in that Way; wicked fools will not go about on it.

Isaiah 35:9 No lion will be there, nor will any ferocious beast get up on it; they will not be found there. But only the redeemed will walk there,

Isaiah 35:10 and the ransomed of the LORD will return. They will enter Zion with singing; everlasting joy will crown their heads. Gladness and joy will overtake them, and sorrow and sighing will flee away.

Isaiah 36:1 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah’s reign, Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.

Isaiah 36:2 Then the king of Assyria sent his field commander with a large army from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. When the commander stopped at the aqueduct of the Upper Pool, on the road to the Washerman’s Field,

Isaiah 36:3 Eliakim son of Hilkiah the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went out to him.

Isaiah 36:4 The field commander said to them, “Tell Hezekiah, “`This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: On what are you basing this confidence of yours?

Isaiah 36:5 You say you have strategy and military strength—but you speak only empty words. On whom are you depending, that you rebel against me?

Isaiah 36:6 Look now, you are depending on Egypt, that splintered reed of a staff, which pierces a man’s hand and wounds him if he leans on it! Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who depend on him.

Isaiah 36:7 And if you say to me, “We are depending on the LORD our God”—isn’t he the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah removed, saying to Judah and Jerusalem, “You must worship before this altar”?

Isaiah 36:8 “`Come now, make a bargain with my master, the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses—if you can put riders on them!

Isaiah 36:9 How then can you repulse one officer of the least of my master’s officials, even though you are depending on Egypt for chariots and horsemen?

Isaiah 36:10 Furthermore, have I come to attack and destroy this land without the LORD? The LORD himself told me to march against this country and destroy it.’“

Isaiah 36:11 Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah said to the field commander, “Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it. Don’t speak to us in Hebrew in the hearing of the people on the wall.”

Isaiah 36:12 But the commander replied, “Was it only to your master and you that my master sent me to say these things, and not to the men sitting on the wall—who, like you, will have to eat their own filth and drink their own urine?”

Isaiah 36:13 Then the commander stood and called out in Hebrew, “Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria!

Isaiah 36:14 This is what the king says: Do not let Hezekiah deceive you. He cannot deliver you!

Isaiah 36:15 Do not let Hezekiah persuade you to trust in the LORD when he says,`The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.’

Isaiah 36:16 “Do not listen to Hezekiah. This is what the king of Assyria says: Make peace with me and come out to me. Then every one of you will eat from his own vine and fig-tree and drink water from his own cistern,

Isaiah 36:17 until I come and take you to a land like your own—a land of corn and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

Isaiah 36:18 “Do not let Hezekiah mislead you when he says,`The LORD will deliver us.’ Has the god of any nation ever delivered his land from the hand of the king of Assyria?

Isaiah 36:19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they rescued Samaria from my hand?

Isaiah 36:20 Who of all the gods of these countries has been able to save his land from me? How then can the LORD deliver Jerusalem from my hand?”

Isaiah 36:21 But the people remained silent and said nothing in reply, because the king had commanded, “Do not answer him.”

Isaiah 36:22 Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went to

Hezekiah, with their clothes torn, and told him what the field commander had said.

Isaiah 37:1 When King Hezekiah heard this, he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and went into the temple of the LORD.

Isaiah 37:2 He sent Eliakim the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary, and the leading priests, all wearing sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

Isaiah 37:3 They told him, “This is what Hezekiah says: This day is a day of distress and rebuke and disgrace, as when children come to the point of birth and there is no strength to deliver them.

Isaiah 37:4 It may be that the LORD your God will hear the words of the field commander, whom his master, the king of Assyria, has sent to ridicule the living God, and that he will rebuke him for the words the LORD your God has heard. Therefore pray for the remnant that still survives.”

Isaiah 37:5 When King Hezekiah’s officials came to Isaiah,

Isaiah 37:6 Isaiah said to them, “Tell your master,`This is what the LORD says: Do not be afraid of what you have heard—those words with which the underlings of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

Isaiah 37:7 Listen! I am going to put a spirit in him so that when he hears a certain report, he will return to his own country, and there I will have him cut down with the sword.’“

Isaiah 37:8 When the field commander heard that the king of Assyria had left Lachish, he withdrew and found the king fighting against Libnah.

Isaiah 37:9 Now Sennacherib received a report that Tirhakah, the Cushite king [of Egypt], was marching out to fight against him. When he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah with this word:

Isaiah 37:10 “Say to Hezekiah king of Judah: Do not let the god you depend on deceive you when he says,`Jerusalem will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.’

Isaiah 37:11 Surely you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the countries, destroying them completely. And will you be delivered?

Isaiah 37:12 Did the gods of the nations that were destroyed by my forefathers deliver them—the gods of Gozan, Haran, Rezeph and the people of Eden who were in Tel Assar?

Isaiah 37:13 Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, or of Hena or Ivvah?”

Isaiah 37:14 Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the temple of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD.

Isaiah 37:15 And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD:

Isaiah 37:16 “O LORD Almighty, God of Israel, enthroned between the cherubim, you alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.

Isaiah 37:17 Give ear, O LORD, and hear; open your eyes, O LORD, and see; listen to all the words Sennacherib has sent to insult the living God.

Isaiah 37:18 “It is true, O LORD, that the Assyrian kings have laid waste all these peoples and their lands.

Isaiah 37:19 They have thrown their gods into the fire and destroyed them, for they were not gods but only wood and stone, fashioned by human hands.

Isaiah 37:20 Now, O LORD our God, deliver us from his hand, so that all kingdoms on earth may know that you alone, O LORD, are God.”

Isaiah 37:21 Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah: “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, Isaiah 37:22 this is the word the LORD has spoken against him: “The Virgin Daughter of Zion despises and mocks you. The Daughter of Jerusalem tosses her head as you flee.

Isaiah 37:23 Who is it you have insulted and blasphemed? Against whom have you raised your voice and lifted your eyes in pride? Against the Holy One of Israel!

Isaiah 37:24 By your messengers you have heaped insults on the Lord. And you have said,`With my many chariots I have ascended the heights of the mountains, the utmost heights of Lebanon. I have cut down its tallest cedars, the choicest of its pines. I have reached its remotest heights, the finest of its forests.

Isaiah 37:25 I have dug wells in foreign lands and drunk the water there. With the soles of my feet I have dried up all the streams of Egypt.’

Isaiah 37:26 “Have you not heard? Long ago I ordained it. In days of old I planned it; now I have brought it to pass, that you have turned fortified cities into piles of stone.

Isaiah 37:27 Their people, drained of power, are dismayed and put to shame. They are like plants in the field, like tender green shoots, like grass sprouting on the roof, scorched before it grows up.

Isaiah 37:28 “But I know where you stay and when you come and go and how you rage against me.

Isaiah 37:29 Because you rage against me and because your insolence has reached my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth, and I will make you return by the way you came.

Isaiah 37:30 “This will be the sign for you, O Hezekiah: “This year you will eat what grows by itself, and the second year what springs from that. But in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

Isaiah 37:31 Once more a remnant of the house of Judah will take root below and bear fruit above.

Isaiah 37:32 For out of Jerusalem will come a remnant, and out of Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

Isaiah 37:33 “Therefore this is what the LORD says concerning the king of Assyria: “He will not enter this city or shoot an arrow here. He will not come before it with shield or build a siege ramp against it.

Isaiah 37:34 By the way that he came he will return; he will not enter this city,” declares the LORD.

Isaiah 37:35 “I will defend this city and save it, for my sake and for the sake of David my servant!”

Isaiah 37:36 Then the angel of the LORD went out and put to death a hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the Assyrian camp. When the people got up the next morning—there were all the dead bodies!

Isaiah 37:37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria broke camp and withdrew. He returned to Nineveh and stayed there.

Isaiah 37:38 One day, while he was worshipping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer cut him down with the sword, and they escaped to the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon his son succeeded him as king.

Isaiah 38:1 In those days Hezekiah became ill and was at the point of death. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to him and said, “This is what the LORD says: Put your house in order, because you are going to die; you will not recover.”

Isaiah 38:2 Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD,

Isaiah 38:3 “Remember, O LORD, how I have walked before you faithfully and with wholehearted devotion and have done what is good in your eyes.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

Isaiah 38:4 Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah:

Isaiah 38:5 “Go and tell Hezekiah,`This is what the LORD, the God of your father David, says: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears; I will add fifteen years to your life.

Isaiah 38:6 And I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city.

Isaiah 38:7 “`This is the LORD’s sign to you that the LORD will do what he has promised:

Isaiah 38:8 I will make the shadow cast by the sun go back the ten steps it has gone down on the stairway of Ahaz.'" So the sunlight went back the ten steps it had gone down.

Isaiah 38:9 A writing of Hezekiah king of Judah after his illness and recovery:

Isaiah 38:10 I said, "In the prime of my life must I go through the gates of death and be robbed of the rest of my years?"

Isaiah 38:11 I said, "I will not again see the LORD, the LORD, in the land of the living; no longer will I look on mankind, or be with those who now dwell in this world.

Isaiah 38:12 Like a shepherd's tent my house has been pulled down and taken from me. Like a weaver I have rolled up my life, and he has cut me off from the loom; day and night you made an end of me.

Isaiah 38:13 I waited patiently till dawn, but like a lion he broke all my bones; day and night you made an end of me.

Isaiah 38:14 I cried like a swift or thrush, I moaned like a mourning dove. My eyes grew weak as I looked to the heavens. I am troubled; O Lord, come to my aid!"

Isaiah 38:15 But what can I say? He has spoken to me, and he himself has done this. I will walk humbly all my years because of this anguish of my soul.

Isaiah 38:16 Lord, by such things men live; and my spirit finds life in them too. You restored me to health and let me live.

Isaiah 38:17 Surely it was for my benefit that I suffered such anguish. In your love you kept me from the pit of destruction; you have put all my sins behind your back.

Isaiah 38:18 For the grave cannot praise you, death cannot sing your praise; those who go down to the pit cannot hope for your faithfulness.

Isaiah 38:19 The living, the living—they praise you, as I am doing today; fathers tell their children about your faithfulness.

Isaiah 38:20 The LORD will save me, and we will sing with stringed instruments all the days of our lives in the temple of the LORD.

Isaiah 38:21 Isaiah had said, "Prepare a poultice of figs and apply it to the boil, and he will recover."

Isaiah 38:22 Hezekiah had asked, "What will be the sign that I will go up to the temple of the LORD?"

Isaiah 39:1 At that time Merodach-Baladan son of Baladan king of Babylon sent Hezekiah letters and a gift, because he had heard of his illness and recovery.

Isaiah 39:2 Hezekiah received the envoys gladly and showed them what was in his storehouses—the silver, the gold, the spices, the fine oil, his entire armoury and everything found among his treasures. There was nothing in his palace or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.

Isaiah 39:3 Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah and asked, “What did those men say, and where did they come from?” “From a distant land,” Hezekiah replied. “They came to me from Babylon.”

Isaiah 39:4 The prophet asked, “What did they see in your palace?” “They saw everything in my palace,” Hezekiah said. “There is nothing among my treasures that I did not show them.”

Isaiah 39:5 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD Almighty:

Isaiah 39:6 The time will surely come when everything in your palace, and all that your fathers have stored up until this day, will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the LORD.

Isaiah 39:7 And some of your descendants, your own flesh and blood who will be born to you, will be taken away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.”

Isaiah 39:8 “The word of the LORD you have spoken is good,” Hezekiah replied. For he thought, “There will be peace and security in my lifetime.”

Isaiah 40:1 Comfort, comfort my people, says your God.

Isaiah 40:2 Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and proclaim to her that her hard service has been completed, that her sin has been paid for, that she has received from the LORD’s hand double for all her sins.

Isaiah 40:3 A voice of one calling: “In the desert prepare the way for the LORD; make straight in the wilderness a highway for our God.

Isaiah 40:4 Every valley shall be raised up, every mountain and hill made low; the rough ground shall become level, the rugged places a plain.

Isaiah 40:5 And the glory of the LORD will be revealed, and all mankind together will see it. For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.”

Isaiah 40:6 A voice says, “Cry out.” And I said, “What shall I cry?” “All men are like grass, and all their glory is like the flowers of the field.

Isaiah 40:7 The grass withers and the flowers fall, because the breath of the LORD blows on them. Surely the people are grass.

Isaiah 40:8 The grass withers and the flowers fall, but the word of our God stands for ever.”

Isaiah 40:9 You who bring good tidings to Zion, go up on a high mountain. You who bring good tidings to Jerusalem, lift up your voice with a shout, lift it up, do not be afraid; say to the towns of Judah, “Here is your God!”

Isaiah 40:10 See, the Sovereign LORD comes with power, and his arm rules for him. See, his reward is with him, and his recompense accompanies him.

Isaiah 40:11 He tends his flock like a shepherd: He gathers the lambs in his arms and carries them close to his heart; he gently leads those that have young.

Isaiah 40:12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, or with the breadth of his hand marked off the heavens? Who has held the dust of the earth in a basket, or weighed the mountains on the scales and the hills in a balance?

Isaiah 40:13 Who has understood the mind of the LORD, or instructed him as his counsellor?

Isaiah 40:14 Whom did the LORD consult to enlighten him, and who taught him the right way? Who was it that taught him knowledge or showed him the path of understanding?

Isaiah 40:15 Surely the nations are like a drop in a bucket; they are regarded as dust on the scales; he weighs the islands as though they were fine dust.

Isaiah 40:16 Lebanon is not sufficient for altar fires, nor its animals enough for burnt offerings.

Isaiah 40:17 Before him all the nations are as nothing; they are regarded by him as worthless and less than nothing.

Isaiah 40:18 To whom, then, will you compare God? What image will you compare him to?

Isaiah 40:19 As for an idol, a craftsman casts it, and a goldsmith overlays it with gold and fashions silver chains for it.

Isaiah 40:20 A man too poor to present such an offering selects wood that will not rot. He looks for a skilled craftsman to set up an idol that will not topple.

Isaiah 40:21 Do you not know? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood since the earth was founded?

Isaiah 40:22 He sits enthroned above the circle of the earth, and its people are like grasshoppers. He stretches out the heavens like a canopy, and spreads them out like a tent to live in.

Isaiah 40:23 He brings princes to naught and reduces the rulers of this world to nothing.

Isaiah 40:24 No sooner are they planted, no sooner are they sown, no sooner do they take root in the ground, than he blows on them and they wither, and a whirlwind sweeps them away like chaff.

Isaiah 40:25 “To whom will you compare me? Or who is my equal?” says the Holy One.

Isaiah 40:26 Lift your eyes and look to the heavens: Who created all these? He who brings out the starry host one by one, and calls them each by name. Because of his great power and mighty strength, not one of them is missing.

Isaiah 40:27 Why do you say, O Jacob, and complain, O Israel, “My way is hidden from the LORD; my cause is disregarded by my God”?

Isaiah 40:28 Do you not know? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no-one can fathom.

Isaiah 40:29 He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak.

Isaiah 40:30 Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall;

Isaiah 40:31 but those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.

Isaiah 41:1 “Be silent before me, you islands! Let the nations renew their strength! Let them come forward and speak; let us meet together at the place of judgment.

Isaiah 41:2 “Who has stirred up one from the east, calling him in righteousness to his service? He hands nations over to him and subdues kings before him. He turns them to dust with his sword, to wind-blown chaff with his bow.

Isaiah 41:3 He pursues them and moves on unscathed, by a path his feet have not travelled before.

Isaiah 41:4 Who has done this and carried it through, calling forth the generations from the beginning? I, the LORD—with the first of them and with the last—I am he.”

Isaiah 41:5 The islands have seen it and fear; the ends of the earth tremble. They approach and come forward;

Isaiah 41:6 each helps the other and says to his brother, “Be strong!”

Isaiah 41:7 The craftsman encourages the goldsmith, and he who smooths with the hammer spurs on him who strikes the anvil. He says of the welding, “It is good.” He nails down the idol so that it will not topple.

Isaiah 41:8 “But you, O Israel, my servant, Jacob, whom I have chosen, you descendants of Abraham my friend,

Isaiah 41:9 I took you from the ends of the earth, from its farthest corners I called you. I said,`You are my servant’; I have chosen you and have not rejected you.

Isaiah 41:10 So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

Isaiah 41:11 “All who rage against you will surely be ashamed and disgraced; those who oppose you will be as nothing and perish.

Isaiah 41:12 Though you search for your enemies, you will not find them. Those who wage war against you will be as nothing at all.

Isaiah 41:13 For I am the LORD, your God, who takes hold of your right hand and says to you, Do not fear; I will help you.

Isaiah 41:14 Do not be afraid, O worm Jacob, O little Israel, for I myself will help you,” declares the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 41:15 “See, I will make you into a threshing-sledge, new and sharp, with many teeth. You will thresh the mountains and crush them, and reduce the hills to chaff.

Isaiah 41:16 You will winnow them, the wind will pick them up, and a gale will blow them away. But you will rejoice in the LORD and glory in the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 41:17 “The poor and needy search for water, but there is none; their tongues are parched with thirst. But I the LORD will answer them; I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.

Isaiah 41:18 I will make rivers flow on barren heights, and springs within the valleys. I will turn the desert into pools of water, and the parched ground into springs.

Isaiah 41:19 I will put in the desert the cedar and the acacia, the myrtle and the olive. I will set pines in the wasteland, the fir and the cypress together,

Isaiah 41:20 so that people may see and know, may consider and understand, that the hand of the LORD has done this, that the Holy One of Israel has created it.

Isaiah 41:21 “Present your case,” says the LORD. “Set forth your arguments,” says Jacob’s King.

Isaiah 41:22 “Bring in [your idols] to tell us what is going to happen. Tell us what the former things were, so that we may consider them and know their final outcome. Or declare to us the things to come,

Isaiah 41:23 tell us what the future holds, so that we may know you are gods. Do something, whether good or bad, so that we will be dismayed and filled with fear.

Isaiah 41:24 But you are less than nothing and your works are utterly worthless; he who chooses you is detestable.

Isaiah 41:25 “I have stirred up one from the north, and he comes—one from the rising sun who calls on my name. He treads on rulers as if they were mortar, as if he were a potter treading the clay.

Isaiah 41:26 Who told of this from the beginning, so that we could know, or beforehand, so that we could say,`He was right'? No-one told of this, no-one foretold it, no-one heard any words from you.

Isaiah 41:27 I was the first to tell Zion,`Look, here they are!' I gave to Jerusalem a messenger of good tidings.

Isaiah 41:28 I look but there is no-one—no-one among them to give counsel, no-one to give answer when I ask them.

Isaiah 41:29 See, they are all false! Their deeds amount to nothing; their images are but wind and confusion.

Isaiah 42:1 "Here is my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen one in whom I delight; I will put my Spirit on him and he will bring justice to the nations.

Isaiah 42:2 He will not shout or cry out, or raise his voice in the streets.

Isaiah 42:3 A bruised reed he will not break, and a smouldering wick he will not snuff out. In faithfulness he will bring forth justice;

Isaiah 42:4 he will not falter or be discouraged till he establishes justice on earth. In his law the islands will put their hope."

Isaiah 42:5 This is what God the LORD says—he who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and all that comes out of it, who gives breath to its people, and life to those who walk on it:

Isaiah 42:6 "I, the LORD, have called you in righteousness; I will take hold of your hand. I will keep you and will make you to be a covenant for the people and a light for the Gentiles,

Isaiah 42:7 to open eyes that are blind, to free captives from prison and to release from the dungeon those who sit in darkness.

Isaiah 42:8 "I am the LORD; that is my name! I will not give my glory to another or my praise to idols.

Isaiah 42:9 See, the former things have taken place, and new things I declare; before they spring into being I announce them to you."

Isaiah 42:10 Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise from the ends of the earth, you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it, you islands, and all who live in them.

Isaiah 42:11 Let the desert and its towns raise their voices; let the settlements where Kedar lives rejoice. Let the people of Sela sing for joy; let them shout from the mountaintops.

Isaiah 42:12 Let them give glory to the LORD and proclaim his praise in the islands.

Isaiah 42:13 The LORD will march out like a mighty man, like a warrior he will stir up his zeal; with a shout he will raise the battle cry and will triumph over his enemies.

Isaiah 42:14 “For a long time I have kept silent, I have been quiet and held myself back. But now, like a woman in childbirth, I cry out, I gasp and pant.

Isaiah 42:15 I will lay waste the mountains and hills and dry up all their vegetation; I will turn rivers into islands and dry up the pools.

Isaiah 42:16 I will lead the blind by ways they have not known, along unfamiliar paths I will guide them; I will turn the darkness into light before them and make the rough places smooth. These are the things I will do; I will not forsake them.

Isaiah 42:17 But those who trust in idols, who say to images,`You are our gods,’ will be turned back in utter shame.

Isaiah 42:18 “Hear, you deaf; look, you blind, and see!

Isaiah 42:19 Who is blind but my servant, and deaf like the messenger I send? Who is blind like the one committed to me, blind like the servant of the LORD?

Isaiah 42:20 You have seen many things, but have paid no attention; your ears are open, but you hear nothing.”

Isaiah 42:21 It pleased the LORD for the sake of his righteousness to make his law great and glorious.

Isaiah 42:22 But this is a people plundered and looted, all of them trapped in pits or hidden away in prisons. They have become plunder, with no-one to rescue them; they have been made loot, with no-one to say, “Send them back.”

Isaiah 42:23 Which of you will listen to this or pay close attention in time to come?

Isaiah 42:24 Who handed Jacob over to become loot, and Israel to the plunderers? Was it not the LORD, against whom we have sinned? For they would not follow his ways; they did not obey his law.

Isaiah 42:25 So he poured out on them his burning anger, the violence of war. It enveloped them in flames, yet they did not understand; it consumed them, but they did not take it to heart.

Isaiah 43:1 But now, this is what the LORD says—he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: “Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have summoned you by name; you are mine.

Isaiah 43:2 When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not set you ablaze.

Isaiah 43:3 For I am the LORD, your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Saviour; I give Egypt for your ransom, Cush and Seba in your stead.

Isaiah 43:4 Since you are precious and honoured in my sight, and because I love you, I will give men in exchange for you, and people in exchange for your life.

Isaiah 43:5 Do not be afraid, for I am with you; I will bring your children from the east and gather you from the west.

Isaiah 43:6 I will say to the north,`Give them up!' and to the south,`Do not hold them back.' Bring my sons from afar and my daughters from the ends of the earth—

Isaiah 43:7 everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made."

Isaiah 43:8 Lead out those who have eyes but are blind, who have ears but are deaf.

Isaiah 43:9 All the nations gather together and the peoples assemble. Which of them foretold this and proclaimed to us the former things? Let them bring in their witnesses to prove they were right, so that others may hear and say, "It is true."

Isaiah 43:10 "You are my witnesses," declares the LORD, "and my servant whom I have chosen, so that you may know and believe me and understand that I am he. Before me no god was formed, nor will there be one after me.

Isaiah 43:11 I, even I, am the LORD, and apart from me there is no saviour.

Isaiah 43:12 I have revealed and saved and proclaimed—I, and not some foreign god among you. You are my witnesses," declares the LORD, "that I am God.

Isaiah 43:13 Yes, and from ancient days I am he. No-one can deliver out of my hand. When I act, who can reverse it?"

Isaiah 43:14 This is what the LORD says—your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: "For your sake I will send to Babylon and bring down as fugitives all the Babylonians, in the ships in which they took pride.

Isaiah 43:15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, Israel's Creator, your King."

Isaiah 43:16 This is what the LORD says—he who made a way through the sea, a path through the mighty waters,

Isaiah 43:17 who drew out the chariots and horses, the army and reinforcements together, and they lay there, never to rise again, extinguished, snuffed out like a wick:

Isaiah 43:18 "Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past.

Isaiah 43:19 See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the desert and streams in the wasteland.

Isaiah 43:20 The wild animals honour me, the jackals and the owls, because I provide water in the desert and streams in the wasteland, to give drink to my people, my chosen,

Isaiah 43:21 the people I formed for myself that they may proclaim my praise.

Isaiah 43:22 “Yet you have not called upon me, O Jacob, you have not wearied yourselves for me, O Israel.

Isaiah 43:23 You have not brought me sheep for burnt offerings, nor honoured me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with grain offerings nor wearied you with demands for incense.

Isaiah 43:24 You have not bought any fragrant calamus for me, or lavished on me the fat of your sacrifices. But you have burdened me with your sins and wearied me with your offences.

Isaiah 43:25 “I, even I, am he who blots out your transgressions, for my own sake, and remembers your sins no more.

Isaiah 43:26 Review the past for me, let us argue the matter together; state the case for your innocence.

Isaiah 43:27 Your first father sinned; your spokesmen rebelled against me.

Isaiah 43:28 So I will disgrace the dignitaries of your temple, and I will consign Jacob to destruction and Israel to scorn.

Isaiah 44:1 “But now listen, O Jacob, my servant, Israel, whom I have chosen.

Isaiah 44:2 This is what the LORD says—he who made you, who formed you in the womb, and who will help you: Do not be afraid, O Jacob, my servant, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.

Isaiah 44:3 For I will pour water on the thirsty land, and streams on the dry ground; I will pour out my Spirit on your offspring, and my blessing on your descendants.

Isaiah 44:4 They will spring up like grass in a meadow, like poplar trees by flowing streams.

Isaiah 44:5 One will say,`I belong to the LORD’; another will call himself by the name of Jacob; still another will write on his hand,`The LORD’s’, and will take the name Israel.

Isaiah 44:6 “This is what the LORD says—Israel’s King and Redeemer, the LORD Almighty: I am the first and I am the last; apart from me there is no God.

Isaiah 44:7 Who then is like me? Let him proclaim it. Let him declare and lay out before me what has happened since I established my ancient people, and what is yet to come—yes, let him foretell what will come.

Isaiah 44:8 Do not tremble, do not be afraid. Did I not proclaim this and foretell it long ago? You are my witnesses. Is there any God besides me? No, there is no other Rock; I know not one.”

Isaiah 44:9 All who make idols are nothing, and the things they treasure are worthless. Those who would speak up for them are blind; they are ignorant, to their own shame.

Isaiah 44:10 Who shapes a god and casts an idol, which can profit him nothing?

Isaiah 44:11 He and his kind will be put to shame; craftsmen are nothing but men. Let them all come together and take their stand; they will be brought down to terror and infamy.

Isaiah 44:12 The blacksmith takes a tool and works with it in the coals; he shapes an idol with hammers, he forges it with the might of his arm. He gets hungry and loses his strength; he drinks no water and grows faint.

Isaiah 44:13 The carpenter measures with a line and makes an outline with a marker; he roughs it out with chisels and marks it with compasses. He shapes it in the form of man, of man in all his glory, that it may dwell in a shrine.

Isaiah 44:14 He cut down cedars, or perhaps took a cypress or oak. He let it grow among the trees of the forest, or planted a pine, and the rain made it grow.

Isaiah 44:15 It is man’s fuel for burning; some of it he takes and warms himself, he kindles a fire and bakes bread. But he also fashions a god and worships it; he makes an idol and bows down to it.

Isaiah 44:16 Half of the wood he burns in the fire; over it he prepares his meal, he roasts his meat and eats his fill. He also warms himself and says, “Ah! I am warm; I see the fire.”

Isaiah 44:17 From the rest he makes a god, his idol; he bows down to it and worships. He prays to it and says, “Save me; you are my god.”

Isaiah 44:18 They know nothing, they understand nothing; their eyes are plastered over so that they cannot see, and their minds closed so that they cannot understand.

Isaiah 44:19 No-one stops to think, no-one has the knowledge or understanding to say, “Half of it I used for fuel; I even baked bread over its coals, I roasted meat and I ate. Shall I make a detestable thing from what is left? Shall I bow down to a block of wood?”

Isaiah 44:20 He feeds on ashes, a deluded heart misleads him; he cannot save himself, or say, “Is not this thing in my right hand a lie?”

Isaiah 44:21 “Remember these things, O Jacob, for you are my servant, O Israel. I have made you, you are my servant; O Israel, I will not forget you.

Isaiah 44:22 I have swept away your offences like a cloud, your sins like the morning mist. Return to me, for I have redeemed you.”

Isaiah 44:23 Sing for joy, O heavens, for the LORD has done this; shout aloud, O earth beneath. Burst into song, you mountains, you forests and all your trees, for the LORD has redeemed Jacob, he displays his glory in Israel.

Isaiah 44:24 “This is what the LORD says—your Redeemer, who formed you in the womb: I am the LORD, who has made all things, who alone stretched out the heavens, who spread out the earth by myself,

Isaiah 44:25 who foils the signs of false prophets and makes fools of diviners, who overthrows the learning of the wise and turns it into nonsense,

Isaiah 44:26 who carries out the words of his servants and fulfils the predictions of his messengers, who says of Jerusalem,`It shall be inhabited,’ of the towns of Judah,`They shall be built,’ and of their ruins,`I will restore them,’

Isaiah 44:27 who says to the watery deep,`Be dry, and I will dry up your streams,’

Isaiah 44:28 who says of Cyrus,`He is my shepherd and will accomplish all that I please; he will say of Jerusalem, “Let it be rebuilt,” and of the temple, “Let its foundations be laid.”‘

Isaiah 45:1 “This is what the LORD says to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I take hold of to subdue nations before him and to strip kings of their armour, to open doors before him so that gates will not be shut:

Isaiah 45:2 I will go before you and will level the mountains; I will break down gates of bronze and cut through bars of iron.

Isaiah 45:3 I will give you the treasures of darkness, riches stored in secret places, so that you may know that I am the LORD, the God of Israel, who summons you by name.

Isaiah 45:4 For the sake of Jacob my servant, of Israel my chosen, I summon you by name and bestow on you a title of honour, though you do not acknowledge me.

Isaiah 45:5 I am the LORD, and there is no other; apart from me there is no God. I will strengthen you, though you have not acknowledged me,

Isaiah 45:6 so that from the rising of the sun to the place of its setting men may know there is none besides me. I am the LORD, and there is no other.

Isaiah 45:7 I form the light and create darkness, I bring prosperity and create disaster; I, the LORD, do all these things.

Isaiah 45:8 “You heavens above, rain down righteousness; let the clouds shower it down. Let the earth open wide, let salvation spring up, let righteousness grow with it; I, the LORD, have created it.

Isaiah 45:9 “Woe to him who quarrels with his Maker, to him who is but a potsherd among the potsherds on the ground. Does the clay say to the potter,`What are you making?’ Does your work say,`He has no hands’?

Isaiah 45:10 Woe to him who says to his father,`What have you begotten?’ or to his mother,`What have you brought to birth?’

Isaiah 45:11 “This is what the LORD says—the Holy One of Israel, and its Maker: Concerning things to come, do you question me about my children, or give me orders about the work of my hands?

Isaiah 45:12 It is I who made the earth and created mankind upon it. My own hands stretched out the heavens; I marshalled their starry hosts.

Isaiah 45:13 I will raise up Cyrus in my righteousness: I will make all his ways straight. He will rebuild my city and set my exiles free, but not for a price or reward, says the LORD Almighty.”

Isaiah 45:14 This is what the LORD says: “The products of Egypt and the merchandise of Cush, and those tall Sabeans—they will come over to you and will be yours; they will trudge behind you, coming over to you in chains. They will bow down before you and plead with you, saying,`Surely God is with you, and there is no other; there is no other god.’“

Isaiah 45:15 Truly you are a God who hides himself, O God and Saviour of Israel.

Isaiah 45:16 All the makers of idols will be put to shame and disgraced; they will go off into disgrace together.

Isaiah 45:17 But Israel will be saved by the LORD with an everlasting salvation; you will never be put to shame or disgraced, to ages everlasting.

Isaiah 45:18 For this is what the LORD says—he who created the heavens, he is God; he who fashioned and made the earth, he founded it; he did not create it to be empty, but formed it to be inhabited—he says: “I am the LORD, and there is no other.

Isaiah 45:19 I have not spoken in secret, from somewhere in a land of darkness; I have not said to Jacob’s descendants,`Seek me in vain.’ I, the LORD, speak the truth; I declare what is right.

Isaiah 45:20 “Gather together and come; assemble, you fugitives from the nations. Ignorant are those who carry about idols of wood, who pray to gods that cannot save.

Isaiah 45:21 Declare what is to be, present it—let them take counsel together. Who foretold this long ago, who declared it from the distant past? Was it not I, the LORD? And there is no God apart from me, a righteous God and a Saviour; there is none but me.

Isaiah 45:22 “Turn to me and be saved, all you ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is no other.

Isaiah 45:23 By myself I have sworn, my mouth has uttered in all integrity a word that will not be revoked: Before me every knee will bow; by me every tongue will swear.

Isaiah 45:24 They will say of me,`In the LORD alone are righteousness and strength.'“ All who have raged against him will come to him and be put to shame.

Isaiah 45:25 But in the LORD all the descendants of Israel will be found righteous and will exult.

Isaiah 46:1 Bel bows down, Nebo stoops low; their idols are borne by beasts of burden. The images that are carried about are burdensome, a burden for the weary.

Isaiah 46:2 They stoop and bow down together; unable to rescue the burden, they themselves go off into captivity.

Isaiah 46:3 “Listen to me, O house of Jacob, all you who remain of the house of Israel, you whom I have upheld since you were conceived, and have carried since your birth.

Isaiah 46:4 Even to your old age and grey hairs I am he, I am he who will sustain you. I have made you and I will carry you; I will sustain you and I will rescue you.

Isaiah 46:5 “To whom will you compare me or count me equal? To whom will you liken me that we may be compared?

Isaiah 46:6 Some pour out gold from their bags and weigh out silver on the scales; they hire a goldsmith to make it into a god, and they bow down and worship it.

Isaiah 46:7 They lift it to their shoulders and carry it; they set it up in its place, and there it stands. From that spot it cannot move. Though one cries out to it, it does not answer; it cannot save him from his troubles.

Isaiah 46:8 “Remember this, fix it in mind, take it to heart, you rebels.

Isaiah 46:9 Remember the former things, those of long ago; I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like me.

Isaiah 46:10 I make known the end from the beginning, from ancient times, what is still to come. I say: My purpose will stand, and I will do all that I please.

Isaiah 46:11 From the east I summon a bird of prey; from a far-off land, a man to fulfil my purpose. What I have said, that will I bring about; what I have planned, that will I do.

Isaiah 46:12 Listen to me, you stubborn-hearted, you who are far from righteousness.

Isaiah 46:13 I am bringing my righteousness near, it is not far away; and my salvation will not be delayed. I will grant salvation to Zion, my splendour to Israel.

Isaiah 47:1 “Go down, sit in the dust, Virgin Daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground without a throne, Daughter of the Babylonians. No more will you be called tender or delicate.

Isaiah 47:2 Take millstones and grind flour; take off your veil. Lift up your skirts, bare your legs, and wade through the streams.

Isaiah 47:3 Your nakedness will be exposed and your shame uncovered. I will take vengeance; I will spare no-one.”

Isaiah 47:4 Our Redeemer—the LORD Almighty is his name—is the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 47:5 “Sit in silence, go into darkness, Daughter of the Babylonians; no more will you be called queen of kingdoms.

Isaiah 47:6 I was angry with my people and desecrated my inheritance; I gave them into your hand, and you showed them no mercy. Even on the aged you laid a very heavy yoke.

Isaiah 47:7 You said,`I will continue for ever—the eternal queen!’ But you did not consider these things or reflect on what might happen.

Isaiah 47:8 “Now then, listen, you wanton creature, lounging in your security and saying to yourself,`I am, and there is none besides me. I will never be a widow or suffer the loss of children.’

Isaiah 47:9 Both of these will overtake you in a moment, on a single day: loss of children and widowhood. They will come upon you in full measure, in spite of your many sorceries and all your potent spells.

Isaiah 47:10 You have trusted in your wickedness and have said,`No-one sees me.’ Your wisdom and knowledge mislead you when you say to yourself,`I am, and there is none besides me.’

Isaiah 47:11 Disaster will come upon you, and you will not know how to conjure it away. A calamity will fall upon you that you cannot ward off with a ransom; a catastrophe you cannot foresee will suddenly come upon you.

Isaiah 47:12 “Keep on, then, with your magic spells and with your many sorceries, which you have laboured at since childhood. Perhaps you will succeed, perhaps you will cause terror.

Isaiah 47:13 All the counsel you have received has only worn you out! Let your astrologers come forward, those stargazers who make predictions month by month, let them save you from what is coming upon you.

Isaiah 47:14 Surely they are like stubble; the fire will burn them up. They cannot even save themselves from the power of the flame. Here are no coals to warm anyone; here is no fire to sit by.

Isaiah 47:15 That is all they can do for you—these you have laboured with and trafficked with since childhood. Each of them goes on in his error; there is not one that can save you.

Isaiah 48:1 “Listen to this, O house of Jacob, you who are called by the name of Israel and come from the line of Judah, you who take oaths in the name of the LORD and invoke the God of Israel— but not in truth or righteousness—

Isaiah 48:2 you who call yourselves citizens of the holy city and rely on the God of Israel—the LORD Almighty is his name:

Isaiah 48:3 I foretold the former things long ago, my mouth announced them and I made them known; then suddenly I acted, and they came to pass.

Isaiah 48:4 For I knew how stubborn you were; the sinews of your neck were iron, your forehead was bronze.

Isaiah 48:5 Therefore I told you these things long ago; before they happened I announced them to you so that you could not say,`My idols did them; my wooden image and metal god ordained them.’

Isaiah 48:6 You have heard these things; look at them all. Will you not admit them? “From now on I will tell you of new things, of hidden things unknown to you.

Isaiah 48:7 They are created now, and not long ago; you have not heard of them before today. So you cannot say,`Yes, I knew of them.’

Isaiah 48:8 You have neither heard nor understood; from of old your ear has not been open. Well do I know how treacherous you are; you were called a rebel from birth.

Isaiah 48:9 For my own name’s sake I delay my wrath; for the sake of my praise I hold it back from you, so as not to cut you off.

Isaiah 48:10 See, I have refined you, though not as silver; I have tested you in the furnace of affliction.

Isaiah 48:11 For my own sake, for my own sake, I do this. How can I let myself be defamed? I will not yield my glory to another.

Isaiah 48:12 “Listen to me, O Jacob, Israel, whom I have called: I am he; I am the first and I am the last.

Isaiah 48:13 My own hand laid the foundations of the earth, and my right hand spread out the heavens; when I summon them, they all stand up together.

Isaiah 48:14 “Come together, all of you, and listen: Which of [the idols] has foretold these things? The LORD’s chosen ally will carry out his purpose against Babylon; his arm will be against the Babylonians.

Isaiah 48:15 I, even I, have spoken; yes, I have called him. I will bring him, and he will succeed in his mission.

Isaiah 48:16 “Come near me and listen to this: “From the first announcement I have not spoken in secret; at the time it happens, I am there.” And now the Sovereign LORD has sent me, with his Spirit.

Isaiah 48:17 This is what the LORD says—your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: “I am the LORD your God, who teaches you what is best for you, who directs you in the way you should go.

Isaiah 48:18 If only you had paid attention to my commands, your peace would have been like a river, your righteousness like the waves of the sea.

Isaiah 48:19 Your descendants would have been like the sand, your children like its numberless grains; their name would never be cut off nor destroyed from before me.”

Isaiah 48:20 Leave Babylon, flee from the Babylonians! Announce this with shouts of joy and proclaim it. Send it out to the ends of the earth; say, “The LORD has redeemed his servant Jacob.”

Isaiah 48:21 They did not thirst when he led them through the deserts; he made water flow for them from the rock; he split the rock and water gushed out.

Isaiah 48:22 “There is no peace,” says the LORD, “for the wicked.”

Isaiah 49:1 Listen to me, you islands; hear this, you distant nations: Before I was born the LORD called me; from my birth he has made mention of my name.

Isaiah 49:2 He made my mouth like a sharpened sword, in the shadow of his hand he hid me; he made me into a polished arrow and concealed me in his quiver.

Isaiah 49:3 He said to me, “You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will display my splendour.”

Isaiah 49:4 But I said, “I have laboured to no purpose; I have spent my strength in vain and for nothing. Yet what is due to me is in the LORD’s hand, and my reward is with my God.”

Isaiah 49:5 And now the LORD says—he who formed me in the womb to be his servant to bring Jacob back to him and gather Israel to himself, for I am honoured in the eyes of the LORD and my God has been my strength—

Isaiah 49:6 he says: “It is too small a thing for you to be my servant to restore the tribes of Jacob and bring back those of Israel I have kept. I will also make you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring my salvation to the ends of the earth.”

Isaiah 49:7 This is what the LORD says—the Redeemer and Holy One of Israel—to him who was despised and abhorred by the nation, to the servant of rulers: “Kings will see you and rise up, princes will see and bow down, because of the LORD, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.”

Isaiah 49:8 This is what the LORD says: “In the time of my favour I will answer you, and in the day of salvation I will help you; I will keep you and will make you to be a covenant for the people, to restore the land and to reassign its desolate inheritances, Isaiah 49:9 to say to the captives,`Come out,’ and to those in darkness,`Be free!’ “They will feed beside the roads and find pasture on every barren hill.

Isaiah 49:10 They will neither hunger nor thirst, nor will the desert heat or the sun beat upon them. He who has compassion on them will guide them and lead them beside springs of water.

Isaiah 49:11 I will turn all my mountains into roads, and my highways will be raised up.

Isaiah 49:12 See, they will come from afar—some from the north, some from the west, some from the region of Aswan.”

Isaiah 49:13 Shout for joy, O heavens; rejoice, O earth; burst into song, O mountains! For the LORD comforts his people and will have compassion on his afflicted ones.

Isaiah 49:14 But Zion said, “The LORD has forsaken me, the Lord has forgotten me.”

Isaiah 49:15 “Can a mother forget the baby at her breast and have no compassion on the child she has borne? Though she may forget, I will not forget you!

Isaiah 49:16 See, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands; your walls are ever before me.

Isaiah 49:17 Your sons hasten back, and those who laid you waste depart from you.

Isaiah 49:18 Lift up your eyes and look around; all your sons gather and come to you. As surely as I live,” declares the LORD, “you will wear them all as ornaments; you will put them on, like a bride.

Isaiah 49:19 “Though you were ruined and made desolate and your land laid waste, now you will be too small for your people, and those who devoured you will be far away.

Isaiah 49:20 The children born during your bereavement will yet say in your hearing,`This place is too small for us; give us more space to live in.’

Isaiah 49:21 Then you will say in your heart,`Who bore me these? I was bereaved and barren; I was exiled and rejected. Who brought these up? I was left all alone, but these—where have they come from?’“ Isaiah 49:22 This is what the Sovereign LORD says: “See, I will beckon to the Gentiles, I will lift up my banner to the peoples; they will bring your sons in their arms and carry your daughters on their shoulders.

Isaiah 49:23 Kings will be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers. They will bow down before you with their faces to the ground; they will lick the dust at your feet. Then you will know that I am the LORD; those who hope in me will not be disappointed.”

Isaiah 49:24 Can plunder be taken from warriors, or captives rescued from the fierce?

Isaiah 49:25 But this is what the LORD says: “Yes, captives will be taken from warriors, and plunder retrieved from the fierce; I will contend with those who contend with you, and your children I will save.

Isaiah 49:26 I will make your oppressors eat their own flesh; they will be drunk on their own blood, as with wine. Then all mankind will know that I, the LORD, am your Saviour, your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.”

Isaiah 50:1 This is what the LORD says: “Where is your mother’s certificate of divorce with which I sent her away? Or to which of my creditors did I sell you? Because of your sins you were sold; because of your transgressions your mother was sent away.

Isaiah 50:2 When I came, why was there no-one? When I called, why was there no-one to answer? Was my arm too short to ransom you? Do I lack the strength to rescue you? By a mere rebuke I dry up the sea, I turn rivers into a desert; their fish rot for lack of water and die of thirst.

Isaiah 50:3 I clothe the sky with darkness and make sackcloth its covering.”

Isaiah 50:4 The Sovereign LORD has given me an instructed tongue, to know the word that sustains the weary. He wakens me morning by morning, wakens my ear to listen like one being taught.

Isaiah 50:5 The Sovereign LORD has opened my ears, and I have not been rebellious; I have not drawn back.

Isaiah 50:6 I offered my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who pulled out my beard; I did not hide my face from mocking and spitting.

Isaiah 50:7 Because the Sovereign LORD helps me, I will not be disgraced. Therefore have I set my face like flint, and I know I will not be put to shame.

Isaiah 50:8 He who vindicates me is near. Who then will bring charges against me? Let us face each other! Who is my accuser? Let him confront me!

Isaiah 50:9 It is the Sovereign LORD who helps me. Who is he who will condemn me? They will all wear out like a garment; the moths will eat them up.

Isaiah 50:10 Who among you fears the LORD and obeys the word of his servant? Let him who walks in the dark, who has no light, trust in the name of the LORD and rely on his God.

Isaiah 50:11 But now, all you who light fires and provide yourselves with flaming torches, go, walk in the light of your fires and of the torches you have set ablaze. This is what you shall receive from my hand: You will lie down in torment.

Isaiah 51:1 “Listen to me, you who pursue righteousness and who seek the LORD: Look to the rock from which you were cut and to the quarry from which you were hewn;

Isaiah 51:2 look to Abraham, your father, and to Sarah, who gave you birth. When I called him he was but one, and I blessed him and made him many.

Isaiah 51:3 The LORD will surely comfort Zion and will look with compassion on all her ruins; he will make her deserts like Eden, her wastelands like the garden of the LORD. Joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the sound of singing.

Isaiah 51:4 “Listen to me, my people; hear me, my nation: The law will go out from me; my justice will become a light to the nations.

Isaiah 51:5 My righteousness draws near speedily, my salvation is on the way, and my arm will bring justice to the nations. The islands will look to me and wait in hope for my arm.

Isaiah 51:6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, look at the earth beneath; the heavens will vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment and its inhabitants die like flies. But my salvation will last for ever, my righteousness will never fail.

Isaiah 51:7 “Hear me, you who know what is right, you people who have my law in your hearts: Do not fear the reproach of men or be terrified by their insults.

Isaiah 51:8 For the moth will eat them up like a garment; the worm will devour them like wool. But my righteousness will last for ever, my salvation through all generations.”

Isaiah 51:9 Awake, awake! Clothe yourself with strength, O arm of the LORD; awake, as in days gone by, as in generations of old. Was it not you who cut Rahab to pieces, who pierced that monster through?

Isaiah 51:10 Was it not you who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep, who made a road in the depths of the sea so that the redeemed might cross over?

Isaiah 51:11 The ransomed of the LORD will return. They will enter Zion with singing; everlasting joy will crown their heads. Gladness and joy will overtake them, and sorrow and sighing will flee away.

Isaiah 51:12 “I, even I, am he who comforts you. Who are you that you fear mortal men, the sons of men, who are but grass, Isaiah 51:13 that you forget the LORD your Maker, who stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth, that you live in constant terror every day because of the wrath of the oppressor, who is bent on destruction? For where is the wrath of the oppressor?

Isaiah 51:14 The cowering prisoners will soon be set free; they will not die in their dungeon, nor will they lack bread.

Isaiah 51:15 For I am the LORD your God, who churns up the sea so that its waves roar—the LORD Almighty is his name.

Isaiah 51:16 I have put my words in your mouth and covered you with the shadow of my hand—I who set the heavens in place, who laid the foundations of the earth, and who say to Zion,`You are my people.'"

Isaiah 51:17 Awake, awake! Rise up, O Jerusalem, you who have drunk from the hand of the LORD the cup of his wrath, you who have drained to its dregs the goblet that makes men stagger.

Isaiah 51:18 Of all the sons she bore there was none to guide her; of all the sons she brought up there was none to take her by the hand.

Isaiah 51:19 These double calamities have come upon you—who can comfort you?—ruin and destruction, famine and sword—who can console you?

Isaiah 51:20 Your sons have fainted; they lie at the head of every street, like antelope caught in a net. They are filled with the wrath of the LORD and the rebuke of your God.

Isaiah 51:21 Therefore hear this, you afflicted one, made drunk, but not with wine.

Isaiah 51:22 This is what your Sovereign LORD says, your God, who defends his people: "See, I have taken out of your hand the cup that made you stagger; from that cup, the goblet of my wrath, you will never drink again.

Isaiah 51:23 I will put it into the hands of your tormentors, who said to you,`Fall prostrate that we may walk over you.' And you made your back like the ground, like a street to be walked over."

Isaiah 52:1 Awake, awake, O Zion, clothe yourself with strength. Put on your garments of splendour, O Jerusalem, the holy city. The uncircumcised and defiled will not enter you again.

Isaiah 52:2 Shake off your dust; rise up, sit enthroned, O Jerusalem. Free yourself from the chains on your neck, O captive Daughter of Zion.

Isaiah 52:3 For this is what the LORD says: "You were sold for nothing, and without money you will be redeemed."

Isaiah 52:4 For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: "At first my people went down to Egypt to live; lately, Assyria has oppressed them.

Isaiah 52:5 "And now what do I have here?" declares the LORD. "For my people have been taken away for nothing, and those who rule them mock,” declares the LORD. “And all day long my name is constantly blasphemed.

Isaiah 52:6 Therefore my people will know my name; therefore in that day they will know that it is I who foretold it. Yes, it is I.”

Isaiah 52:7 How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news, who proclaim peace, who bring good tidings, who proclaim salvation, who say to Zion, “Your God reigns!”

Isaiah 52:8 Listen! Your watchmen lift up their voices; together they shout for joy. When the LORD returns to Zion, they will see it with their own eyes.

Isaiah 52:9 Burst into songs of joy together, you ruins of Jerusalem, for the LORD has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem.

Isaiah 52:10 The LORD will lay bare his holy arm in the sight of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.

Isaiah 52:11 Depart, depart, go out from there! Touch no unclean thing! Come out from it and be pure, you who carry the vessels of the LORD.

Isaiah 52:12 But you will not leave in haste or go in flight; for the LORD will go before you, the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

Isaiah 52:13 See, my servant will act wisely; he will be raised and lifted up and highly exalted.

Isaiah 52:14 Just as there were many who were appalled at him—his appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any man and his form marred beyond human likeness—

Isaiah 52:15 so will he sprinkle many nations, and kings will shut their mouths because of him. For what they were not told, they will see, and what they have not heard, they will understand.

Isaiah 53:1 Who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?

Isaiah 53:2 He grew up before him like a tender shoot, and like a root out of dry ground. He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him.

Isaiah 53:3 He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows, and familiar with suffering. Like one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

Isaiah 53:4 Surely he took up our infirmities and carried our sorrows, yet we considered him stricken by God, smitten by him, and afflicted.

Isaiah 53:5 But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him, and by his wounds we are healed.

Isaiah 53:6 We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

Isaiah 53:7 He was oppressed and afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; he was led like a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth.

Isaiah 53:8 By oppression and judgment he was taken away. And who can speak of his descendants? For he was cut off from the land of the living; for the transgression of my people he was stricken.

Isaiah 53:9 He was assigned a grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death, though he had done no violence, nor was any deceit in his mouth.

Isaiah 53:10 Yet it was the LORD's will to crush him and cause him to suffer, and though the LORD makes his life a guilt offering, he will see his offspring and prolong his days, and the will of the LORD will prosper in his hand.

Isaiah 53:11 After the suffering of his soul, he will see the light [of life] and be satisfied; by his knowledge my righteous servant will justify many, and he will bear their iniquities.

Isaiah 53:12 Therefore I will give him a portion among the great, and he will divide the spoils with the strong, because he poured out his life unto death, and was numbered with the transgressors. For he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Isaiah 54:1 "Sing, O barren woman, you who never bore a child; burst into song, shout for joy, you who were never in labour; because more are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband," says the LORD.

Isaiah 54:2 "Enlarge the place of your tent, stretch your tent curtains wide, do not hold back; lengthen your cords, strengthen your stakes.

Isaiah 54:3 For you will spread out to the right and to the left; your descendants will dispossess nations and settle in their desolate cities.

Isaiah 54:4 "Do not be afraid; you will not suffer shame. Do not fear disgrace; you will not be humiliated. You will forget the shame of your youth and remember no more the reproach of your widowhood.

Isaiah 54:5 For your Maker is your husband—the LORD Almighty is his name—the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer; he is called the God of all the earth.

Isaiah 54:6 The LORD will call you back as if you were a wife deserted and distressed in spirit—a wife who married young, only to be rejected," says your God.

Isaiah 54:7 "For a brief moment I abandoned you, but with deep compassion I will bring you back.

Isaiah 54:8 In a surge of anger I hid my face from you for a moment, but with everlasting kindness I will have compassion on you," says the LORD your Redeemer.

Isaiah 54:9 "To me this is like the days of Noah, when I swore that the waters of Noah would never again cover the earth. So now I have sworn not to be angry with you, never to rebuke you again.

Isaiah 54:10 Though the mountains be shaken and the hills be removed, yet my unfailing love for you will not be shaken nor my covenant of peace be removed," says the LORD, who has compassion on you.

Isaiah 54:11 "O afflicted city, lashed by storms and not comforted, I will build you with stones of turquoise, your foundations with sapphires.

Isaiah 54:12 I will make your battlements of rubies, your gates of sparkling jewels, and all your walls of precious stones.

Isaiah 54:13 All your sons will be taught by the LORD, and great will be your children's peace.

Isaiah 54:14 In righteousness you will be established: Tyranny will be far from you; you will have nothing to fear. Terror will be far removed; it will not come near you.

Isaiah 54:15 If anyone does attack you, it will not be my doing; whoever attacks you will surrender to you.

Isaiah 54:16 "See, it is I who created the blacksmith who fans the coals into flame and forges a weapon fit for its work. And it is I who have created the destroyer to work havoc;

Isaiah 54:17 no weapon forged against you will prevail, and you will refute every tongue that accuses you. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and this is their vindication from me," declares the LORD.

Isaiah 55:1 "Come, all you who are thirsty, come to the waters; and you who have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost.

Isaiah 55:2 Why spend money on what is not bread, and your labour on what does not satisfy? Listen, listen to me, and eat what is good, and your soul will delight in the richest of fare.

Isaiah 55:3 Give ear and come to me; hear me, that your soul may live. I will make an everlasting covenant with you, my faithful love promised to David.

Isaiah 55:4 See, I have made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander of the peoples.

Isaiah 55:5 Surely you will summon nations you know not, and nations that do not know you will hasten to you, because of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has endowed you with splendour."

Isaiah 55:6 Seek the LORD while he may be found; call on him while he is near.

Isaiah 55:7 Let the wicked forsake his way and the evil man his thoughts. Let him turn to the LORD, and he will have mercy on him, and to our God, for he will freely pardon.

Isaiah 55:8 “For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways,” declares the LORD.

Isaiah 55:9 “As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

Isaiah 55:10 As the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return to it without watering the earth and making it bud and flourish, so that it yields seed for the sower and bread for the eater,

Isaiah 55:11 so is my word that goes out from my mouth: It will not return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it.

Isaiah 55:12 You will go out in joy and be led forth in peace; the mountains and hills will burst into song before you, and all the trees of the field will clap their hands.

Isaiah 55:13 Instead of the thornbush will grow the pine tree, and instead of briers the myrtle will grow. This will be for the LORD’s renown, for an everlasting sign, which will not be destroyed.”

Isaiah 56:1 This is what the LORD says: “Maintain justice and do what is right, for my salvation is close at hand and my righteousness will soon be revealed.

Isaiah 56:2 Blessed is the man who does this, the man who holds it fast, who keeps the Sabbath without desecrating it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil.”

Isaiah 56:3 Let no foreigner who has bound himself to the LORD say, “The LORD will surely exclude me from his people.” And let not any eunuch complain, “I am only a dry tree.”

Isaiah 56:4 For this is what the LORD says: “To the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths, who choose what pleases me and hold fast to my covenant—

Isaiah 56:5 to them I will give within my temple and its walls a memorial and a name better than sons and daughters; I will give them an everlasting name that will not be cut off.

Isaiah 56:6 And foreigners who bind themselves to the LORD to serve him, to love the name of the LORD, and to worship him, all who keep the Sabbath without desecrating it and who hold fast to my covenant—

Isaiah 56:7 these I will bring to my holy mountain and give them joy in my house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house will be called a house of prayer for all nations."

Isaiah 56:8 The Sovereign LORD declares—he who gathers the exiles of Israel: "I will gather still others to them besides those already gathered."

Isaiah 56:9 Come, all you beasts of the field, come and devour, all you beasts of the forest!

Isaiah 56:10 Israel's watchmen are blind, they all lack knowledge; they are all mute dogs, they cannot bark; they lie around and dream, they love to sleep.

Isaiah 56:11 They are dogs with mighty appetites; they never have enough. They are shepherds who lack understanding; they all turn to their own way, each seeks his own gain.

Isaiah 56:12 "Come," each one cries, "let me get wine! Let us drink our fill of beer! And tomorrow will be like today, or even far better."

Isaiah 57:1 The righteous perish, and no-one ponders it in his heart; devout men are taken away, and no-one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from evil.

Isaiah 57:2 Those who walk uprightly enter into peace; they find rest as they lie in death.

Isaiah 57:3 "But you—come here, you sons of a sorceress, you offspring of adulterers and prostitutes!

Isaiah 57:4 Whom are you mocking? At whom do you sneer and stick out your tongue? Are you not a brood of rebels, the offspring of liars?

Isaiah 57:5 You burn with lust among the oaks and under every spreading tree; you sacrifice your children in the ravines and under the overhanging crags.

Isaiah 57:6 [The idols] among the smooth stones of the ravines are your portion; they, they are your lot. Yes, to them you have poured out drink offerings and offered grain offerings. In the light of these things, should I relent?

Isaiah 57:7 You have made your bed on a high and lofty hill; there you went up to offer your sacrifices.

Isaiah 57:8 Behind your doors and your doorposts you have put your pagan symbols. Forsaking me, you uncovered your bed, you climbed into it and opened it wide; you made a pact with those whose beds you love, and you looked on their nakedness.

Isaiah 57:9 You went to Molech with olive oil and increased your perfumes. You sent your ambassadors far away; you descended to the grave itself!

Isaiah 57:10 You were wearied by all your ways, but you would not say,`It is hopeless.' You found renewal of your strength, and so you did not faint.

Isaiah 57:11 "Whom have you so dreaded and feared that you have been false to me, and have neither remembered me nor pondered this in your hearts? Is it not because I have long been silent that you do not fear me?

Isaiah 57:12 I will expose your righteousness and your works, and they will not benefit you.

Isaiah 57:13 When you cry out for help, let your collection [of idols] save you! The wind will carry all of them off, a mere breath will blow them away. But the man who makes me his refuge will inherit the land and possess my holy mountain."

Isaiah 57:14 And it will be said: "Build up, build up, prepare the road! Remove the obstacles out of the way of my people."

Isaiah 57:15 For this is what the high and lofty One says—he who lives for ever, whose name is holy: "I live in a high and holy place, but also with him who is contrite and lowly in spirit, to revive the spirit of the lowly and to revive the heart of the contrite.

Isaiah 57:16 I will not accuse for ever, nor will I always be angry, for then the spirit of man would grow faint before me—the breath of man that I have created.

Isaiah 57:17 I was enraged by his sinful greed; I punished him, and hid my face in anger, yet he kept on in his wilful ways.

Isaiah 57:18 I have seen his ways, but I will heal him; I will guide him and restore comfort to him,

Isaiah 57:19 creating praise on the lips of the mourners in Israel. Peace, peace, to those far and near," says the LORD. "And I will heal them."

Isaiah 57:20 But the wicked are like the tossing sea, which cannot rest, whose waves cast up mire and mud.

Isaiah 57:21 "There is no peace," says my God, "for the wicked."

Isaiah 58:1 "Shout it aloud, do not hold back. Raise your voice like a trumpet. Declare to my people their rebellion and to the house of Jacob their sins.

Isaiah 58:2 For day after day they seek me out; they seem eager to know my ways, as if they were a nation that does what is right and has not forsaken the commands of its God. They ask me for just decisions and seem eager for God to come near them.

Isaiah 58:3 `Why have we fasted,' they say,`and you have not seen it? Why have we humbled ourselves, and you have not noticed?' "Yet on the day of your fasting, you do as you please and exploit all your workers.

Isaiah 58:4 Your fasting ends in quarrelling and strife, and in striking each other with wicked fists. You cannot fast as you do today and expect your voice to be heard on high.

Isaiah 58:5 Is this the kind of fast I have chosen, only a day for a man to humble himself? Is it only for bowing one’s head like a reed and for lying on sackcloth and ashes? Is that what you call a fast, a day acceptable to the LORD?

Isaiah 58:6 “Is not this the kind of fasting I have chosen: to loose the chains of injustice and untie the cords of the yoke, to set the oppressed free and break every yoke?

Isaiah 58:7 Is it not to share your food with the hungry and to provide the poor wanderer with shelter—when you see the naked, to clothe him, and not to turn away from your own flesh and blood?

Isaiah 58:8 Then your light will break forth like the dawn, and your healing will quickly appear; then your righteousness will go before you, and the glory of the LORD will be your rear guard.

Isaiah 58:9 Then you will call, and the LORD will answer; you will cry for help, and he will say: Here am I. “If you do away with the yoke of oppression, with the pointing finger and malicious talk,

Isaiah 58:10 and if you spend yourselves on behalf of the hungry and satisfy the needs of the oppressed, then your light will rise in the darkness, and your night will become like the noonday.

Isaiah 58:11 The LORD will guide you always; he will satisfy your needs in a sun-scorched land and will strengthen your frame. You will be like a well-watered garden, like a spring whose waters never fail.

Isaiah 58:12 Your people will rebuild the ancient ruins and will raise up the age-old foundations; you will be called Repairer of Broken Walls, Restorer of Streets with Dwellings.

Isaiah 58:13 “If you keep your feet from breaking the Sabbath and from doing as you please on my holy day, if you call the Sabbath a delight and the LORD’s holy day honourable, and if you honour it by not going your own way and not doing as you please or speaking idle words, Isaiah 58:14 then you will find your joy in the LORD, and I will cause you to ride on the heights of the land and to feast on the inheritance of your father Jacob.” The mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Isaiah 59:1 Surely the arm of the LORD is not too short to save, nor his ear too dull to hear.

Isaiah 59:2 But your iniquities have separated you from your God; your sins have hidden his face from you, so that he will not hear.

Isaiah 59:3 For your hands are stained with blood, your fingers with guilt. Your lips have spoken lies, and your tongue mutters wicked things.

Isaiah 59:4 No-one calls for justice; no-one pleads his case with integrity. They rely on empty arguments and speak lies; they conceive trouble and give birth to evil.

Isaiah 59:5 They hatch the eggs of vipers and spin a spider’s web. Whoever eats their eggs will die, and when one is broken, an adder is hatched.

Isaiah 59:6 Their cobwebs are useless for clothing; they cannot cover themselves with what they make. Their deeds are evil deeds, and acts of violence are in their hands.

Isaiah 59:7 Their feet rush into sin; they are swift to shed innocent blood. Their thoughts are evil thoughts; ruin and destruction mark their ways.

Isaiah 59:8 The way of peace they do not know; there is no justice in their paths. They have turned them into crooked roads; no-one who walks in them will know peace.

Isaiah 59:9 So justice is far from us, and righteousness does not reach us. We look for light, but all is darkness; for brightness, but we walk in deep shadows.

Isaiah 59:10 Like the blind we grope along the wall, feeling our way like men without eyes. At midday we stumble as if it were twilight; among the strong, we are like the dead.

Isaiah 59:11 We all growl like bears; we moan mournfully like doves. We look for justice, but find none; for deliverance, but it is far away.

Isaiah 59:12 For our offences are many in your sight, and our sins testify against us. Our offences are ever with us, and we acknowledge our iniquities:

Isaiah 59:13 rebellion and treachery against the LORD, turning our backs on our God, fomenting oppression and revolt, uttering lies our hearts have conceived.

Isaiah 59:14 So justice is driven back, and righteousness stands at a distance; truth has stumbled in the streets, honesty cannot enter.

Isaiah 59:15 Truth is nowhere to be found, and whoever shuns evil becomes a prey. The LORD looked and was displeased that there was no justice.

Isaiah 59:16 He saw that there was no-one, he was appalled that there was no-one to intervene; so his own arm worked salvation for him, and his own righteousness sustained him.

Isaiah 59:17 He put on righteousness as his breastplate, and the helmet of salvation on his head; he put on the garments of vengeance and wrapped himself in zeal as in a cloak.

Isaiah 59:18 According to what they have done, so will he repay wrath to his enemies and retribution to his foes; he will repay the islands their due.

Isaiah 59:19 From the west, men will fear the name of the LORD, and from the rising of the sun, they will revere his glory. For he will come like a pent-up flood that the breath of the LORD drives along.

Isaiah 59:20 “The Redeemer will come to Zion, to those in Jacob who repent of their sins,” declares the LORD.

Isaiah 59:21 “As for me, this is my covenant with them,” says the LORD. “My Spirit, who is on you, and my words that I have put in your mouth will not depart from your mouth, or from the mouths of your children, or from the mouths of their descendants from this time on and for ever,” says the LORD.

Isaiah 60:1 “Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD rises upon you.

Isaiah 60:2 See, darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples, but the LORD rises upon you and his glory appears over you.

Isaiah 60:3 Nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn.

Isaiah 60:4 “Lift up your eyes and look about you: All assemble and come to you; your sons come from afar, and your daughters are carried on the arm.

Isaiah 60:5 Then you will look and be radiant, your heart will throb and swell with joy; the wealth on the seas will be brought to you, to you the riches of the nations will come.

Isaiah 60:6 Herds of camels will cover your land, young camels of Midian and Ephah. And all from Sheba will come, bearing gold and incense and proclaiming the praise of the LORD.

Isaiah 60:7 All Kedar’s flocks will be gathered to you, the rams of Nebaioth will serve you; they will be accepted as offerings on my altar, and I will adorn my glorious temple.

Isaiah 60:8 “Who are these that fly along like clouds, like doves to their nests?

Isaiah 60:9 Surely the islands look to me; in the lead are the ships of Tarshish, bringing your sons from afar, with their silver and gold, to the honour of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has endowed you with splendour.

Isaiah 60:10 “Foreigners will rebuild your walls, and their kings will serve you. Though in anger I struck you, in favour I will show you compassion.

Isaiah 60:11 Your gates will always stand open, they will never be shut, day or night, so that men may bring you the wealth of the nations—their kings led in triumphal procession.

Isaiah 60:12 For the nation or kingdom that will not serve you will perish; it will be utterly ruined.

Isaiah 60:13 “The glory of Lebanon will come to you, the pine, the fir and the cypress together, to adorn the place of my sanctuary; and I will glorify the place of my feet.

Isaiah 60:14 The sons of your oppressors will come bowing before you; all who despise you will bow down at your feet and will call you the City of the LORD, Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 60:15 “Although you have been forsaken and hated, with no-one travelling through, I will make you the everlasting pride and the joy of all generations.

Isaiah 60:16 You will drink the milk of nations and be nursed at royal breasts. Then you will know that I, the LORD, am your Saviour, your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

Isaiah 60:17 Instead of bronze I will bring you gold, and silver in place of iron. Instead of wood I will bring you bronze, and iron in place of stones. I will make peace your governor and righteousness your ruler.

Isaiah 60:18 No longer will violence be heard in your land, nor ruin or destruction within your borders, but you will call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.

Isaiah 60:19 The sun will no more be your light by day, nor will the brightness of the moon shine on you, for the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory.

Isaiah 60:20 Your sun will never set again, and your moon will wane no more; the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your days of sorrow will end.

Isaiah 60:21 Then will all your people be righteous and they will possess the land for ever. They are the shoot I have planted, the work of my hands, for the display of my splendour.

Isaiah 60:22 The least of you will become a thousand, the smallest a mighty nation. I am the LORD; in its time I will do this swiftly.”

Isaiah 61:1 The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is on me, because the LORD has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners,

Isaiah 61:2 to proclaim the year of the LORD’s favour and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all who mourn,

Isaiah 61:3 and provide for those who grieve in Zion—to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair. They will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the LORD for the display of his splendour.

Isaiah 61:4 They will rebuild the ancient ruins and restore the places long devastated; they will renew the ruined cities that have been devastated for generations.

Isaiah 61:5 Aliens will shepherd your flocks; foreigners will work your fields and vineyards.

Isaiah 61:6 And you will be called priests of the LORD, you will be named ministers of our God. You will feed on the wealth of nations, and in their riches you will boast.

Isaiah 61:7 Instead of their shame my people will receive a double portion, and instead of disgrace they will rejoice in their inheritance; and so they will inherit a double portion in their land, and everlasting joy will be theirs.

Isaiah 61:8 “For I, the LORD, love justice; I hate robbery and iniquity. In my faithfulness I will reward them and make an everlasting covenant with them.

Isaiah 61:9 Their descendants will be known among the nations and their offspring among the peoples. All who see them will acknowledge that they are a people the LORD has blessed.”

Isaiah 61:10 I delight greatly in the LORD; my soul rejoices in my God. For he has clothed me with garments of salvation and arrayed me in a robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom adorns his head like a priest, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

Isaiah 61:11 For as the soil makes the young plant come up and a garden causes seeds to grow, so the Sovereign LORD will make righteousness and praise spring up before all nations.

Isaiah 62:1 For Zion’s sake I will not keep silent, for Jerusalem’s sake I will not remain quiet, till her righteousness shines out like the dawn, her salvation like a blazing torch.

Isaiah 62:2 The nations will see your righteousness, and all kings your glory; you will be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will bestow.

Isaiah 62:3 You will be a crown of splendour in the LORD’s hand, a royal diadem in the hand of your God.

Isaiah 62:4 No longer will they call you Deserted, or name your land Desolate. But you will be called Hephzibah, and your land Beulah; for the LORD will take delight in you, and your land will be married.

Isaiah 62:5 As a young man marries a maiden, so will your sons marry you; as a bridegroom rejoices over his bride, so will your God rejoice over you.

Isaiah 62:6 I have posted watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem; they will never be silent day or night. You who call on the LORD, give yourselves no rest, Isaiah 62:7 and give him no rest till he establishes Jerusalem and makes her the praise of the earth.

Isaiah 62:8 The LORD has sworn by his right hand and by his mighty arm: “Never again will I give your grain as food for your enemies, and never again will foreigners drink the new wine for which you have toiled;

Isaiah 62:9 but those who harvest it will eat it and praise the LORD, and those who gather the grapes will drink it in the courts of my sanctuary.”

Isaiah 62:10 Pass through, pass through the gates! Prepare the way for the people. Build up, build up the highway! Remove the stones. Raise a banner for the nations.

Isaiah 62:11 The LORD has made proclamation to the ends of the earth: “Say to the Daughter of Zion,`See, your Saviour comes! See, his reward is with him, and his recompense accompanies him.’“

Isaiah 62:12 They will be called the Holy People, the Redeemed of the LORD; and you will be called Sought After, the City No Longer Deserted.

Isaiah 63:1 Who is this coming from Edom, from Bozrah, with his garments stained crimson? Who is this, robed in splendour, striding forward in the greatness of his strength? “It is I, speaking in righteousness, mighty to save.”

Isaiah 63:2 Why are your garments red, like those of one treading the winepress?

Isaiah 63:3 “I have trodden the winepress alone; from the nations no-one was with me. I trampled them in my anger and trod them down in my wrath; their blood spattered my garments, and I stained all my clothing.

Isaiah 63:4 For the day of vengeance was in my heart, and the year of my redemption has come.

Isaiah 63:5 I looked, but there was no-one to help, I was appalled that no-one gave support; so my own arm worked salvation for me, and my own wrath sustained me.

Isaiah 63:6 I trampled the nations in my anger; in my wrath I made them drunk and poured their blood on the ground.”

Isaiah 63:7 I will tell of the kindnesses of the LORD, the deeds for which he is to be praised, according to all the LORD has done for us—yes, the many good things he has done for the house of Israel, according to his compassion and many kindnesses.

Isaiah 63:8 He said, “Surely they are my people, sons who will not be false to me”; and so he became their Saviour.

Isaiah 63:9 In all their distress he too was distressed, and the angel of his presence saved them. In his love and mercy he redeemed them; he lifted them up and carried them all the days of old.

Isaiah 63:10 Yet they rebelled and grieved his Holy Spirit. So he turned and became their enemy and he himself fought against them.

Isaiah 63:11 Then his people recalled the days of old, the days of Moses and his people—where is he who brought them through the sea, with the shepherd of his flock? Where is he who set his Holy Spirit among them,

Isaiah 63:12 who sent his glorious arm of power to be at Moses' right hand, who divided the waters before them, to gain for himself everlasting renown,

Isaiah 63:13 who led them through the depths? Like a horse in open country, they did not stumble;

Isaiah 63:14 like cattle that go down to the plain, they were given rest by the Spirit of the LORD. This is how you guided your people to make for yourself a glorious name.

Isaiah 63:15 Look down from heaven and see from your lofty throne, holy and glorious. Where are your zeal and your might? Your tenderness and compassion are withheld from us.

Isaiah 63:16 But you are our Father, though Abraham does not know us or Israel acknowledge us; you, O LORD, are our Father, our Redeemer from of old is your name.

Isaiah 63:17 Why, O LORD, do you make us wander from your ways and harden our hearts so we do not revere you? Return for the sake of your servants, the tribes that are your inheritance.

Isaiah 63:18 For a little while your people possessed your holy place, but now our enemies have trampled down your sanctuary.

Isaiah 63:19 We are yours from of old; but you have not ruled over them, they have not been called by your name.

Isaiah 64:1 Oh, that you would rend the heavens and come down, that the mountains would tremble before you!

Isaiah 64:2 As when fire sets twigs ablaze and causes water to boil, come down to make your name known to your enemies and cause the nations to quake before you!

Isaiah 64:3 For when you did awesome things that we did not expect, you came down, and the mountains trembled before you.

Isaiah 64:4 Since ancient times no-one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you, who acts on behalf of those who wait for him.

Isaiah 64:5 You come to the help of those who gladly do right, who remember your ways. But when we continued to sin against them, you were angry. How then can we be saved?

Isaiah 64:6 All of us have become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous acts are like filthy rags; we all shrivel up like a leaf, and like the wind our sins sweep us away.

Isaiah 64:7 No-one calls on your name or strives to lay hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us and made us waste away because of our sins.

Isaiah 64:8 Yet, O LORD, you are our Father. We are the clay, you are the potter; we are all the work of your hand.

Isaiah 64:9 Do not be angry beyond measure, O LORD; do not remember our sins for ever. Oh, look upon us we pray, for we are all your people.

Isaiah 64:10 Your sacred cities have become a desert; even Zion is a desert, Jerusalem a desolation.

Isaiah 64:11 Our holy and glorious temple, where our fathers praised you, has been burned with fire, and all that we treasured lies in ruins.

Isaiah 64:12 After all this, O LORD, will you hold yourself back? Will you keep silent and punish us beyond measure?

Isaiah 65:1 “I revealed myself to those who did not ask for me; I was found by those who did not seek me. To a nation that did not call on my name, I said,`Here am I, here am I.’

Isaiah 65:2 All day long I have held out my hands to an obstinate people, who walk in ways not good, pursuing their own imaginations—

Isaiah 65:3 a people who continually provoke me to my very face, offering sacrifices in gardens and burning incense on altars of brick;

Isaiah 65:4 who sit among the graves and spend their nights keeping secret vigil; who eat the flesh of pigs, and whose pots hold broth of unclean meat;

Isaiah 65:5 who say,`Keep away; don’t come near me, for I am too sacred for you!’ Such people are smoke in my nostrils, a fire that keeps burning all day.

Isaiah 65:6 “See, it stands written before me; I will not keep silent but will pay back in full; I will pay it back into their laps—

Isaiah 65:7 both your sins and the sins of your fathers,” says the LORD. “Because they burned sacrifices on the mountains and defied me on the hills, I will measure into their laps the full payment for their former deeds.”

Isaiah 65:8 This is what the LORD says: “As when juice is still found in a cluster of grapes and men say,`Don’t destroy it, there is yet some good in it,’ so will I do on behalf of my servants; I will not destroy them all.

Isaiah 65:9 I will bring forth descendants from Jacob, and from Judah those who will possess my mountains; my chosen people will inherit them, and there will my servants live.

Isaiah 65:10 Sharon will become a pasture for flocks, and the Valley of Achor a resting place for herds, for my people who seek me.

Isaiah 65:11 “But as for you who forsake the LORD and forget my holy mountain, who spread a table for Fortune and fill bowls of mixed wine for Destiny, Isaiah 65:12 I will destine you for the sword, and you will all bend down for the slaughter; for I called but you did not answer, I spoke but you did not listen. You did evil in my sight and chose what displeases me.”

Isaiah 65:13 Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: “My servants will eat, but you will go hungry; my servants will drink, but you will go thirsty; my servants will rejoice, but you will be put to shame.

Isaiah 65:14 My servants will sing out of the joy of their hearts, but you will cry out from anguish of heart and wail in brokenness of spirit.

Isaiah 65:15 You will leave your name to my chosen ones as a curse; the Sovereign LORD will put you to death, but to his servants he will give another name.

Isaiah 65:16 Whoever invokes a blessing in the land will do so by the God of truth; he who takes an oath in the land will swear by the God of truth. For the past troubles will be forgotten and hidden from my eyes.

Isaiah 65:17 “Behold, I will create new heavens and a new earth. The former things will not be remembered, nor will they come to mind.

Isaiah 65:18 But be glad and rejoice for ever in what I will create, for I will create Jerusalem to be a delight and its people a joy.

Isaiah 65:19 I will rejoice over Jerusalem and take delight in my people; the sound of weeping and of crying will be heard in it no more.

Isaiah 65:20 “Never again will there be in it an infant who lives but a few days, or an old man who does not live out his years; he who dies at a hundred will be thought a mere youth; he who fails to reach a hundred will be considered accursed.

Isaiah 65:21 They will build houses and dwell in them; they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

Isaiah 65:22 No longer will they build houses and others live in them, or plant and others eat. For as the days of a tree, so will be the days of my people; my chosen ones will long enjoy the works of their hands.

Isaiah 65:23 They will not toil in vain or bear children doomed to misfortune; for they will be a people blessed by the LORD, they and their descendants with them.

Isaiah 65:24 Before they call I will answer; while they are still speaking I will hear.

Isaiah 65:25 The wolf and the lamb will feed together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox, but dust will be the serpent's food. They will neither harm nor destroy on all my holy mountain," says the LORD.

Isaiah 66:1 This is what the LORD says: "Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool. Where is the house you will build for me? Where will my resting place be?

Isaiah 66:2 Has not my hand made all these things, and so they came into being?" declares the LORD. "This is the one I esteem: he who is humble and contrite in spirit, and trembles at my word.

Isaiah 66:3 But whoever sacrifices a bull is like one who kills a man, and whoever offers a lamb, like one who breaks a dog's neck; whoever makes a grain offering is like one who presents pig's blood, and whoever burns memorial incense, like one who worships an idol. They have chosen their own ways, and their souls delight in their abominations;

Isaiah 66:4 so I also will choose harsh treatment for them and will bring upon them what they dread. For when I called, no-one answered, when I spoke, no-one listened. They did evil in my sight and chose what displeases me."

Isaiah 66:5 Hear the word of the LORD, you who tremble at his word; "Your brothers who hate you, and exclude you because of my name, have said,`Let the LORD be glorified, that we may see your joy!' Yet they will be put to shame.

Isaiah 66:6 Hear that uproar from the city, hear that noise from the temple! It is the sound of the LORD repaying his enemies all they deserve.

Isaiah 66:7 "Before she goes into labour, she gives birth; before the pains come upon her, she delivers a son.

Isaiah 66:8 Who has ever heard of such a thing? Who has ever seen such things? Can a country be born in a day or a nation be brought forth in a moment? Yet no sooner is Zion in labour than she gives birth to her children.

Isaiah 66:9 Do I bring to the moment of birth and not give delivery?" says the LORD. "Do I close up the womb when I bring to delivery?" says your God.

Isaiah 66:10 "Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her, all you who love her; rejoice greatly with her, all you who mourn over her.

Isaiah 66:11 For you will nurse and be satisfied at her comforting breasts; you will drink deeply and delight in her overflowing abundance."

Isaiah 66:12 For this is what the LORD says: "I will extend peace to her like a river, and the wealth of nations like a flooding stream; you will nurse and be carried on her arm and dandled on her knees.

Isaiah 66:13 As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you; and you will be comforted over Jerusalem."

Isaiah 66:14 When you see this, your heart will rejoice and you will flourish like grass; the hand of the LORD will be made known to his servants, but his fury will be shown to his foes.

Isaiah 66:15 See, the LORD is coming with fire, and his chariots are like a whirlwind; he will bring down his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

Isaiah 66:16 For with fire and with his sword the LORD will execute judgment upon all men, and many will be those slain by the LORD.

Isaiah 66:17 “Those who consecrate and purify themselves to go into the gardens, following the one in the midst of those who eat the flesh of pigs and rats and other abominable things—they will meet their end together,” declares the LORD.

Isaiah 66:18 “And I, because of their actions and their imaginations, am about to come and gather all nations and tongues, and they will come and see my glory.

Isaiah 66:19 “I will set a sign among them, and I will send some of those who survive to the nations—to Tarshish, to the Libyans and Lydians (famous as archers), to Tubal and Greece, and to the distant islands that have not heard of my fame or seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory among the nations.

Isaiah 66:20 And they will bring all your brothers, from all the nations, to my holy mountain in Jerusalem as an offering to the LORD—on horses, in chariots and wagons, and on mules and camels,” says the LORD. “They will bring them, as the Israelites bring their grain offerings, to the temple of the LORD in ceremonially clean vessels.

Isaiah 66:21 And I will select some of them also to be priests and Levites,” says the LORD.

Isaiah 66:22 “As the new heavens and the new earth that I make will endure before me,” declares the LORD, “so will your name and descendants endure.

Isaiah 66:23 From one New Moon to another and from one Sabbath to another, all mankind will come and bow down before me,” says the LORD.

Isaiah 66:24 “And they will go out and look upon the dead bodies of those who rebelled against me; their worm will not die, nor will their fire be quenched, and they will be loathsome to all mankind.”

Jeremiah

1:1 The words of Jeremiah son of Hilkiah, one of the priests at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin.

Jeremiah 1:2 The word of the LORD came to him in the thirteenth year of the reign of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah, Jeremiah 1:3 and through the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, down to the fifth month of the eleventh year of Zedekiah son of Josiah king of Judah, when the people of Jerusalem went into exile.

Jeremiah 1:4 The word of the LORD came to me, saying,

Jeremiah 1:5 “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I set you apart; I appointed you as a prophet to the nations.”

Jeremiah 1:6 “Ah, Sovereign LORD,” I said, “I do not know how to speak; I am only a child.”

Jeremiah 1:7 But the LORD said to me, “Do not say,`I am only a child.’ You must go to everyone I send you to and say whatever I command you.

Jeremiah 1:8 Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you and will rescue you,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 1:9 Then the LORD reached out his hand and touched my mouth and said to me, “Now, I have put my words in your mouth.

Jeremiah 1:10 See, today I appoint you over nations and kingdoms to uproot and tear down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and to plant.”

Jeremiah 1:11 The word of the LORD came to me: “What do you see, Jeremiah?” “I see the branch of an almond tree,” I replied.

Jeremiah 1:12 The LORD said to me, “You have seen correctly, for I am watching to see that my word is fulfilled.”

Jeremiah 1:13 The word of the LORD came to me again: “What do you see?” “I see a boiling pot, tilting away from the north,” I answered.

Jeremiah 1:14 The LORD said to me, “From the north disaster will be poured out on all who live in the land.

Jeremiah 1:15 I am about to summon all the peoples of the northern kingdoms,” declares the LORD. “Their kings will come and set up their thrones in the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem; they will come against all her surrounding walls and against all the towns of Judah.

Jeremiah 1:16 I will pronounce my judgments on my people because of their wickedness in forsaking me, in burning incense to other gods and in worshipping what their hands have made.

Jeremiah 1:17 “Get yourself ready! Stand up and say to them whatever I command you. Do not be terrified by them, or I will terrify you before them.

Jeremiah 1:18 Today I have made you a fortified city, an iron pillar and a bronze wall to stand against the whole land—against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests and the people of the land.

Jeremiah 1:19 They will fight against you but will not overcome you, for I am with you and will rescue you,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 2:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Jeremiah 2:2 “Go and proclaim in the hearing of Jerusalem: “`I remember the devotion of your youth, how as a bride you loved me and followed me through the desert, through a land not sown.

Jeremiah 2:3 Israel was holy to the LORD, the firstfruits of his harvest; all who devoured her were held guilty, and disaster overtook them,’“ declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 2:4 Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, all you clans of the house of Israel.

Jeremiah 2:5 This is what the LORD says: “What fault did your fathers find in me, that they strayed so far from me? They followed worthless idols and became worthless themselves.

Jeremiah 2:6 They did not ask,`Where is the LORD, who brought us up out of Egypt and led us through the barren wilderness, through a land of deserts and rifts, a land of drought and darkness, a land where no-one travels and no-one lives?’

Jeremiah 2:7 I brought you into a fertile land to eat its fruit and rich produce. But you came and defiled my land and made my inheritance detestable.

Jeremiah 2:8 The priests did not ask,`Where is the LORD?’ Those who deal with the law did not know me; the leaders rebelled against me. The prophets prophesied by Baal, following worthless idols.

Jeremiah 2:9 “Therefore I bring charges against you again,” declares the LORD. “And I will bring charges against your children’s children.

Jeremiah 2:10 Cross over to the coasts of Kittim and look, send to Kedar and observe closely; see if there has ever been anything like this:

Jeremiah 2:11 Has a nation ever changed its gods? (Yet they are not gods at all.) But my people have exchanged their Glory for worthless idols.

Jeremiah 2:12 Be appalled at this, O heavens, and shudder with great horror,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 2:13 “My people have committed two sins: They have forsaken me, the spring of living water, and have dug their own cisterns, broken cisterns that cannot hold water.

Jeremiah 2:14 Is Israel a servant, a slave by birth? Why then has he become plunder?

Jeremiah 2:15 Lions have roared; they have growled at him. They have laid waste his land; his towns are burned and deserted.

Jeremiah 2:16 Also, the men of Memphis and Tahpanhes have shaved the crown of your head.

Jeremiah 2:17 Have you not brought this on yourselves by forsaking the LORD your God when he led you in the way?

Jeremiah 2:18 Now why go to Egypt to drink water from the Shihor? And why go to Assyria to drink water from the River?

Jeremiah 2:19 Your wickedness will punish you; your backsliding will rebuke you. Consider then and realise how evil and bitter it is for you when you forsake the LORD your God and have no awe of me," declares the Lord, the LORD Almighty.

Jeremiah 2:20 "Long ago you broke off your yoke and tore off your bonds; you said,`I will not serve you!' Indeed, on every high hill and under every spreading tree you lay down as a prostitute.

Jeremiah 2:21 I had planted you like a choice vine of sound and reliable stock. How then did you turn against me into a corrupt, wild vine?

Jeremiah 2:22 Although you wash yourself with soda and use an abundance of soap, the stain of your guilt is still before me," declares the Sovereign LORD.

Jeremiah 2:23 "How can you say,`I am not defiled; I have not run after the Baals'? See how you behaved in the valley; consider what you have done. You are a swift she-camel running here and there,

Jeremiah 2:24 a wild donkey accustomed to the desert, sniffing the wind in her craving—in her heat who can restrain her? Any males that pursue her need not tire themselves; at mating time they will find her.

Jeremiah 2:25 Do not run until your feet are bare and your throat is dry. But you said,`It's no use! I love foreign gods, and I must go after them.'

Jeremiah 2:26 "As a thief is disgraced when he is caught, so the house of Israel is disgraced—they, their kings and their officials, their priests and their prophets.

Jeremiah 2:27 They say to wood,`You are my father,' and to stone,`You gave me birth.' They have turned their backs to me and not their faces; yet when they are in trouble, they say,`Come and save us!'

Jeremiah 2:28 Where then are the gods you made for yourselves? Let them come if they can save you when you are in trouble! For you have as many gods as you have towns, O Judah.

Jeremiah 2:29 "Why do you bring charges against me? You have all rebelled against me," declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 2:30 "In vain I punished your people; they did not respond to correction. Your sword has devoured your prophets like a ravening lion.

Jeremiah 2:31 "You of this generation, consider the word of the LORD: "Have I been a desert to Israel or a land of great darkness? Why do my people say,`We are free to roam; we will come to you no more'?

Jeremiah 2:32 Does a maiden forget her jewellery, a bride her wedding ornaments? Yet my people have forgotten me, days without number.

Jeremiah 2:33 How skilled you are at pursuing love! Even the worst of women can learn from your ways.

Jeremiah 2:34 On your clothes men find the lifeblood of the innocent poor, though you did not catch them breaking in. Yet in spite of all this

Jeremiah 2:35 you say,`I am innocent; he is not angry with me.' But I will pass judgment on you because you say,`I have not sinned.'

Jeremiah 2:36 Why do you go about so much, changing your ways? You will be disappointed by Egypt as you were by Assyria.

Jeremiah 2:37 You will also leave that place with your hands on your head, for the LORD has rejected those you trust; you will not be helped by them.

Jeremiah 3:1 "If a man divorces his wife and she leaves him and marries another man, should he return to her again? Would not the land be completely defiled? But you have lived as a prostitute with many lovers—would you now return to me?" declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 3:2 "Look up to the barren heights and see. Is there any place where you have not been ravished? By the roadside you sat waiting for lovers, sat like a nomad in the desert. You have defiled the land with your prostitution and wickedness.

Jeremiah 3:3 Therefore the showers have been withheld, and no spring rains have fallen. Yet you have the brazen look of a prostitute; you refuse to blush with shame.

Jeremiah 3:4 Have you not just called to me:`My Father, my friend from my youth,

Jeremiah 3:5 will you always be angry? Will your wrath continue for ever?' This is how you talk, but you do all the evil you can."

Jeremiah 3:6 During the reign of King Josiah, the LORD said to me, "Have you seen what faithless Israel has done? She has gone up on every high hill and under every spreading tree and has committed adultery there.

Jeremiah 3:7 I thought that after she had done all this she would return to me but she did not, and her unfaithful sister Judah saw it.

Jeremiah 3:8 I gave faithless Israel her certificate of divorce and sent her away because of all her adulteries. Yet I saw that her unfaithful sister Judah had no fear; she also went out and committed adultery.

Jeremiah 3:9 Because Israel's immorality mattered so little to her, she defiled the land and committed adultery with stone and wood.

Jeremiah 3:10 In spite of all this, her unfaithful sister Judah did not return to me with all her heart, but only in pretence," declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 3:11 The LORD said to me, “Faithless Israel is more righteous than unfaithful Judah.

Jeremiah 3:12 Go, proclaim this message towards the north: “`Return, faithless Israel,’ declares the LORD,`I will frown on you no longer, for I am merciful,’ declares the LORD,`I will not be angry for ever.

Jeremiah 3:13 Only acknowledge your guilt—you have rebelled against the LORD your God, you have scattered your favours to foreign gods under every spreading tree, and have not obeyed me,’“ declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 3:14 “Return, faithless people,” declares the LORD, “for I am your husband. I will choose you—one from a town and two from a clan—and bring you to Zion.

Jeremiah 3:15 Then I will give you shepherds after my own heart, who will lead you with knowledge and understanding.

Jeremiah 3:16 In those days, when your numbers have increased greatly in the land,” declares the LORD, “men will no longer say,`The ark of the covenant of the LORD.’ It will never enter their minds or be remembered; it will not be missed, nor will another one be made.

Jeremiah 3:17 At that time they will call Jerusalem The Throne of the LORD, and all nations will gather in Jerusalem to honour the name of the LORD. No longer will they follow the stubbornness of their evil hearts.

Jeremiah 3:18 In those days the house of Judah will join the house of Israel, and together they will come from a northern land to the land I gave your forefathers as an inheritance.

Jeremiah 3:19 “I myself said, “`How gladly would I treat you like sons and give you a desirable land, the most beautiful inheritance of any nation.’ I thought you would call me`Father’ and not turn away from following me.

Jeremiah 3:20 But like a woman unfaithful to her husband, so you have been unfaithful to me, O house of Israel,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 3:21 A cry is heard on the barren heights, the weeping and pleading of the people of Israel, because they have perverted their ways and have forgotten the LORD their God.

Jeremiah 3:22 “Return, faithless people; I will cure you of backsliding.” “Yes, we will come to you, for you are the LORD our God.

Jeremiah 3:23 Surely the [idolatrous] commotion on the hills and mountains is a deception; surely in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

Jeremiah 3:24 From our youth shameful gods have consumed the fruits of our fathers’ labour—their flocks and herds, their sons and daughters.

Jeremiah 3:25 Let us lie down in our shame, and let our disgrace cover us. We have sinned against the LORD our God, both we and our fathers; from our youth till this day we have not obeyed the LORD our God."

Jeremiah 4:1 "If you will return, O Israel, return to me," declares the LORD. "If you put your detestable idols out of my sight and no longer go astray, Jeremiah 4:2 and if in a truthful, just and righteous way you swear,`As surely as the LORD lives,' then the nations will be blessed by him and in him they will glory."

Jeremiah 4:3 This is what the LORD says to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem: "Break up your unploughed ground and do not sow among thorns.

Jeremiah 4:4 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, circumcise your hearts, you men of Judah and people of Jerusalem, or my wrath will break out and burn like fire because of the evil you have done— burn with no-one to quench it.

Jeremiah 4:5 "Announce in Judah and proclaim in Jerusalem and say:`Sound the trumpet throughout the land!' Cry aloud and say:`Gather together! Let us flee to the fortified cities!'

Jeremiah 4:6 Raise the signal to go to Zion! Flee for safety without delay! For I am bringing disaster from the north, even terrible destruction."

Jeremiah 4:7 A lion has come out of his lair; a destroyer of nations has set out. He has left his place to lay waste your land. Your towns will lie in ruins without inhabitant.

Jeremiah 4:8 So put on sackcloth, lament and wail, for the fierce anger of the LORD has not turned away from us.

Jeremiah 4:9 "In that day," declares the LORD, "the king and the officials will lose heart, the priests will be horrified, and the prophets will be appalled."

Jeremiah 4:10 Then I said, "Ah, Sovereign LORD, how completely you have deceived this people and Jerusalem by saying,`You will have peace,' when the sword is at our throats."

Jeremiah 4:11 At that time this people and Jerusalem will be told, "A scorching wind from the barren heights in the desert blows towards my people, but not to winnow or cleanse;

Jeremiah 4:12 a wind too strong for that comes from me. Now I pronounce my judgments against them."

Jeremiah 4:13 Look! He advances like the clouds, his chariots come like a whirlwind, his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us! We are ruined!

Jeremiah 4:14 O Jerusalem, wash the evil from your heart and be saved. How long will you harbour wicked thoughts?

Jeremiah 4:15 A voice is announcing from Dan, proclaiming disaster from the hills of Ephraim.

Jeremiah 4:16 “Tell this to the nations, proclaim it to Jerusalem:`A besieging army is coming from a distant land, raising a war cry against the cities of Judah.

Jeremiah 4:17 They surround her like men guarding a field, because she has rebelled against me,’“ declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 4:18 “Your own conduct and actions have brought this upon you. This is your punishment. How bitter it is! How it pierces to the heart!”

Jeremiah 4:19 Oh, my anguish, my anguish! I writhe in pain. Oh, the agony of my heart! My heart pounds within me, I cannot keep silent. For I have heard the sound of the trumpet; I have heard the battle cry.

Jeremiah 4:20 Disaster follows disaster; the whole land lies in ruins. In an instant my tents are destroyed, my shelter in a moment.

Jeremiah 4:21 How long must I see the battle standard and hear the sound of the trumpet?

Jeremiah 4:22 “My people are fools; they do not know me. They are senseless children; they have no understanding. They are skilled in doing evil; they know not how to do good.”

Jeremiah 4:23 I looked at the earth, and it was formless and empty; and at the heavens, and their light was gone.

Jeremiah 4:24 I looked at the mountains, and they were quaking; all the hills were swaying.

Jeremiah 4:25 I looked, and there were no people; every bird in the sky had flown away.

Jeremiah 4:26 I looked, and the fruitful land was a desert; all its towns lay in ruins before the LORD, before his fierce anger.

Jeremiah 4:27 This is what the LORD says: “The whole land will be ruined, though I will not destroy it completely.

Jeremiah 4:28 Therefore the earth will mourn and the heavens above grow dark, because I have spoken and will not relent, I have decided and will not turn back.”

Jeremiah 4:29 At the sound of horsemen and archers every town takes to flight. Some go into the thickets; some climb up among the rocks. All the towns are deserted; no-one lives in them.

Jeremiah 4:30 What are you doing, O devastated one? Why dress yourself in scarlet and put on jewels of gold? Why shade your eyes with paint? You adorn yourself in vain. Your lovers despise you; they seek your life.

Jeremiah 4:31 I hear a cry as of a woman in labour, a groan as of one bearing her first child—the cry of the Daughter of Zion gasping for breath, stretching out her hands and saying, “Alas! I am fainting; my life is given over to murderers.”

Jeremiah 5:1 “Go up and down the streets of Jerusalem, look around and consider, search through her squares. If you can find but one person who deals honestly and seeks the truth, I will forgive this city.

Jeremiah 5:2 Although they say,`As surely as the LORD lives,’ still they are swearing falsely.”

Jeremiah 5:3 O LORD, do not your eyes look for truth? You struck them, but they felt no pain; you crushed them but they refused correction. They made their faces harder than stone and refused to repent.

Jeremiah 5:4 I thought, “These are only the poor; they are foolish, for they do not know the way of the LORD, the requirements of their God.

Jeremiah 5:5 So I will go to the leaders and speak to them; surely they know the way of the LORD, the requirements of their God.” But with one accord they too had broken off the yoke and torn off the bonds.

Jeremiah 5:6 Therefore a lion from the forest will attack them, a wolf from the desert will ravage them, a leopard will lie in wait near their towns to tear to pieces any who venture out, for their rebellion is great and their backslidings many.

Jeremiah 5:7 “Why should I forgive you? Your children have forsaken me and sworn by gods that are not gods. I supplied all their needs, yet they committed adultery and thronged to the houses of prostitutes.

Jeremiah 5:8 They are well-fed, lusty stallions, each neighing for another man’s wife.

Jeremiah 5:9 Should I not punish them for this?” declares the LORD. “Should I not avenge myself on such a nation as this?

Jeremiah 5:10 “Go through her vineyards and ravage them, but do not destroy them completely. Strip off her branches, for these people do not belong to the LORD.

Jeremiah 5:11 The house of Israel and the house of Judah have been utterly unfaithful to me,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 5:12 They have lied about the LORD; they said, “He will do nothing! No harm will come to us; we will never see sword or famine.

Jeremiah 5:13 The prophets are but wind and the word is not in them; so let what they say be done to them.”

Jeremiah 5:14 Therefore this is what the LORD God Almighty says: “Because the people have spoken these words, I will make my words in your mouth a fire and these people the wood it consumes.

Jeremiah 5:15 O house of Israel,” declares the LORD, “I am bringing a distant nation against you—an ancient and enduring nation, a people whose language you do not know, whose speech you do not understand.

Jeremiah 5:16 Their quivers are like an open grave; all of them are mighty warriors.

Jeremiah 5:17 They will devour your harvests and food, devour your sons and daughters; they will devour your flocks and herds, devour your vines and fig-trees. With the sword they will destroy the fortified cities in which you trust.

Jeremiah 5:18 “Yet even in those days,” declares the LORD, “I will not destroy you completely.

Jeremiah 5:19 And when the people ask,`Why has the LORD our God done all this to us?’ you will tell them,`As you have forsaken me and served foreign gods in your own land, so now you will serve foreigners in a land not your own.’

Jeremiah 5:20 “Announce this to the house of Jacob and proclaim it in Judah:

Jeremiah 5:21 Hear this, you foolish and senseless people, who have eyes but do not see, who have ears but do not hear:

Jeremiah 5:22 Should you not fear me?” declares the LORD. “Should you not tremble in my presence? I made the sand a boundary for the sea, an everlasting barrier it cannot cross. The waves may roll, but they cannot prevail; they may roar, but they cannot cross it.

Jeremiah 5:23 But these people have stubborn and rebellious hearts; they have turned aside and gone away.

Jeremiah 5:24 They do not say to themselves,`Let us fear the LORD our God, who gives autumn and spring rains in season, who assures us of the regular weeks of harvest.’

Jeremiah 5:25 Your wrongdoings have kept these away; your sins have deprived you of good.

Jeremiah 5:26 “Among my people are wicked men who lie in wait like men who snare birds and like those who set traps to catch men.

Jeremiah 5:27 Like cages full of birds, their houses are full of deceit; they have become rich and powerful

Jeremiah 5:28 and have grown fat and sleek. Their evil deeds have no limit; they do not plead the case of the fatherless to win it, they do not defend the rights of the poor.

Jeremiah 5:29 Should I not punish them for this?” declares the LORD. “Should I not avenge myself on such a nation as this?

Jeremiah 5:30 “A horrible and shocking thing has happened in the land:

Jeremiah 5:31 The prophets prophesy lies, the priests rule by their own authority, and my people love it this way. But what will you do in the end?

Jeremiah 6:1 “Flee for safety, people of Benjamin! Flee from Jerusalem! Sound the trumpet in Tekoa! Raise the signal over Beth Hakkerem! For disaster looms out of the north, even terrible destruction.

Jeremiah 6:2 I will destroy the Daughter of Zion, so beautiful and delicate.

Jeremiah 6:3 Shepherds with their flocks will come against her; they will pitch their tents round her, each tending his own portion.”

Jeremiah 6:4 “Prepare for battle against her! Arise, let us attack at noon! But, alas, the daylight is fading, and the shadows of evening grow long.

Jeremiah 6:5 So arise, let us attack at night and destroy her fortresses!”

Jeremiah 6:6 This is what the LORD Almighty says: “Cut down the trees and build siege ramps against Jerusalem. This city must be punished; it is filled with oppression.

Jeremiah 6:7 As a well pours out its water, so she pours out her wickedness. Violence and destruction resound in her; her sickness and wounds are ever before me.

Jeremiah 6:8 Take warning, O Jerusalem, or I will turn away from you and make your land desolate so that no-one can live in it.”

Jeremiah 6:9 This is what the LORD Almighty says: “Let them glean the remnant of Israel as thoroughly as a vine; pass your hand over the branches again, like one gathering grapes.”

Jeremiah 6:10 To whom can I speak and give warning? Who will listen to me? Their ears are closed so that they cannot hear. The word of the LORD is offensive to them; they find no pleasure in it.

Jeremiah 6:11 But I am full of the wrath of the LORD, and I cannot hold it in. “Pour it out on the children in the street and on the young men gathered together; both husband and wife will be caught in it, and the old, those weighed down with years.

Jeremiah 6:12 Their houses will be turned over to others, together with their fields and their wives, when I stretch out my hand against those who live in the land,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 6:13 “From the least to the greatest, all are greedy for gain; prophets and priests alike, all practise deceit.

Jeremiah 6:14 They dress the wound of my people as though it were not serious.`Peace, peace,’ they say, when there is no peace.

Jeremiah 6:15 Are they ashamed of their loathsome conduct? No, they have no shame at all; they do not even know how to blush. So they will fall among the fallen; they will be brought down when I punish them," says the LORD.

Jeremiah 6:16 This is what the LORD says: "Stand at the crossroads and look; ask for the ancient paths, ask where the good way is, and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls. But you said,`We will not walk in it.'

Jeremiah 6:17 I appointed watchmen over you and said,`Listen to the sound of the trumpet!' But you said,`We will not listen.'

Jeremiah 6:18 Therefore hear, O nations; observe, O witnesses, what will happen to them.

Jeremiah 6:19 Hear, O earth: I am bringing disaster on this people, the fruit of their schemes, because they have not listened to my words and have rejected my law.

Jeremiah 6:20 What do I care about incense from Sheba or sweet calamus from a distant land? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable; your sacrifices do not please me."

Jeremiah 6:21 Therefore this is what the LORD says: "I will put obstacles before this people. Fathers and sons alike will stumble over them; neighbours and friends will perish."

Jeremiah 6:22 This is what the LORD says: "Look, an army is coming from the land of the north; a great nation is being stirred up from the ends of the earth.

Jeremiah 6:23 They are armed with bow and spear; they are cruel and show no mercy. They sound like the roaring sea as they ride on their horses; they come like men in battle formation to attack you, O Daughter of Zion."

Jeremiah 6:24 We have heard reports about them, and our hands hang limp. Anguish has gripped us, pain like that of a woman in labour.

Jeremiah 6:25 Do not go out to the fields or walk on the roads, for the enemy has a sword, and there is terror on every side.

Jeremiah 6:26 O my people, put on sackcloth and roll in ashes; mourn with bitter wailing as for an only son, for suddenly the destroyer will come upon us.

Jeremiah 6:27 "I have made you a tester of metals and my people the ore, that you may observe and test their ways.

Jeremiah 6:28 They are all hardened rebels, going about to slander. They are bronze and iron; they all act corruptly.

Jeremiah 6:29 The bellows blow fiercely to burn away the lead with fire, but the refining goes on in vain; the wicked are not purged out.

Jeremiah 6:30 They are called rejected silver, because the LORD has rejected them."

Jeremiah 7:1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 7:2 “Stand at the gate of the LORD’s house and there proclaim this message: “`Hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who come through these gates to worship the LORD.

Jeremiah 7:3 This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Reform your ways and your actions, and I will let you live in this place.

Jeremiah 7:4 Do not trust in deceptive words and say, “This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD!”

Jeremiah 7:5 If you really change your ways and your actions and deal with each other justly,

Jeremiah 7:6 if you do not oppress the alien, the fatherless or the widow and do not shed innocent blood in this place, and if you do not follow other gods to your own harm,

Jeremiah 7:7 then I will let you live in this place, in the land I gave to your forefathers for ever and ever.

Jeremiah 7:8 But look, you are trusting in deceptive words that are worthless.

Jeremiah 7:9 “`Will you steal and murder, commit adultery and perjury, burn incense to Baal and follow other gods you have not known,

Jeremiah 7:10 and then come and stand before me in this house, which bears my Name, and say, “We are safe”—safe to do all these detestable things?

Jeremiah 7:11 Has this house, which bears my Name, become a den of robbers to you? But I have been watching! declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 7:12 “`Go now to the place in Shiloh where I first made a dwelling for my Name, and see what I did to it because of the wickedness of my people Israel.

Jeremiah 7:13 While you were doing all these things, declares the LORD, I spoke to you again and again, but you did not listen; I called you, but you did not answer.

Jeremiah 7:14 Therefore, what I did to Shiloh I will now do to the house that bears my Name, the temple you trust in, the place I gave to you and your fathers.

Jeremiah 7:15 I will thrust you from my presence, just as I did all your brothers, the people of Ephraim.’

Jeremiah 7:16 “So do not pray for this people nor offer any plea or petition for them; do not plead with me, for I will not listen to you.

Jeremiah 7:17 Do you not see what they are doing in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

Jeremiah 7:18 The children gather wood, the fathers light the fire, and the women knead the dough and make cakes of bread for the Queen of Heaven. They pour out drink offerings to other gods to provoke me to anger.

Jeremiah 7:19 But am I the one they are provoking? declares the LORD. Are they not rather harming themselves, to their own shame?

Jeremiah 7:20 "`Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: My anger and my wrath will be poured out on this place, on man and beast, on the trees of the field and on the fruit of the ground, and it will burn and not be quenched.

Jeremiah 7:21 "`This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Go ahead, add your burnt offerings to your other sacrifices and eat the meat yourselves!

Jeremiah 7:22 For when I brought your forefathers out of Egypt and spoke to them, I did not just give them commands about burnt offerings and sacrifices,

Jeremiah 7:23 but I gave them this command: Obey me, and I will be your God and you will be my people. Walk in all the ways I command you, that it may go well with you.

Jeremiah 7:24 But they did not listen or pay attention; instead, they followed the stubborn inclinations of their evil hearts. They went backward and not forward.

Jeremiah 7:25 From the time your forefathers left Egypt until now, day after day, again and again I sent you my servants the prophets.

Jeremiah 7:26 But they did not listen to me or pay attention. They were stiff-necked and did more evil than their forefathers.'

Jeremiah 7:27 "When you tell them all this, they will not listen to you; when you call to them, they will not answer.

Jeremiah 7:28 Therefore say to them,`This is the nation that has not obeyed the LORD its God or responded to correction. Truth has perished; it has vanished from their lips.

Jeremiah 7:29 Cut off your hair and throw it away; take up a lament on the barren heights, for the LORD has rejected and abandoned this generation that is under his wrath.

Jeremiah 7:30 "`The people of Judah have done evil in my eyes, declares the LORD. They have set up their detestable idols in the house that bears my Name and have defiled it.

Jeremiah 7:31 They have built the high places of Topheth in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to burn their sons and daughters in the fire—something I did not command, nor did it enter my mind.

Jeremiah 7:32 So beware, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when people will no longer call it Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter, for they will bury the dead in Topheth until there is no more room.

Jeremiah 7:33 Then the carcasses of this people will become food for the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, and there will be no-one to frighten them away.

Jeremiah 7:34 I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and gladness and to the voices of bride and bridegroom in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, for the land will become desolate.

Jeremiah 8:1 "`At that time, declares the LORD, the bones of the kings and officials of Judah, the bones of the priests and prophets, and the bones of the people of Jerusalem will be removed from their graves.

Jeremiah 8:2 They will be exposed to the sun and the moon and all the stars of the heavens, which they have loved and served and which they have followed and consulted and worshipped. They will not be gathered up or buried, but will be like refuse lying on the ground.

Jeremiah 8:3 Wherever I banish them, all the survivors of this evil nation will prefer death to life, declares the LORD Almighty.'

Jeremiah 8:4 "Say to them,`This is what the LORD says: "`When men fall down, do they not get up? When a man turns away, does he not return?

Jeremiah 8:5 Why then have these people turned away? Why does Jerusalem always turn away? They cling to deceit; they refuse to return.

Jeremiah 8:6 I have listened attentively, but they do not say what is right. No-one repents of his wickedness, saying, "What have I done?" Each pursues his own course like a horse charging into battle.

Jeremiah 8:7 Even the stork in the sky knows her appointed seasons, and the dove, the swift and the thrush observe the time of their migration. But my people do not know the requirements of the LORD.

Jeremiah 8:8 "`How can you say, "We are wise, for we have the law of the LORD," when actually the lying pen of the scribes has handled it falsely?

Jeremiah 8:9 The wise will be put to shame; they will be dismayed and trapped. Since they have rejected the word of the LORD, what kind of wisdom do they have?

Jeremiah 8:10 Therefore I will give their wives to other men and their fields to new owners. From the least to the greatest, all are greedy for gain; prophets and priests alike, all practise deceit.

Jeremiah 8:11 They dress the wound of my people as though it were not serious. "Peace, peace," they say, when there is no peace.

Jeremiah 8:12 Are they ashamed of their loathsome conduct? No, they have no shame at all; they do not even know how to blush. So they will fall among the fallen; they will be brought down when they are punished, says the LORD.

Jeremiah 8:13 “`I will take away their harvest, declares the LORD. There will be no grapes on the vine. There will be no figs on the tree, and their leaves will wither. What I have given them will be taken from them.’“

Jeremiah 8:14 “Why are we sitting here? Gather together! Let us flee to the fortified cities and perish there! For the LORD our God has doomed us to perish and given us poisoned water to drink, because we have sinned against him.

Jeremiah 8:15 We hoped for peace but no good has come, for a time of healing but there was only terror.

Jeremiah 8:16 The snorting of the enemy’s horses is heard from Dan; at the neighing of their stallions the whole land trembles. They have come to devour the land and everything in it, the city and all who live there.”

Jeremiah 8:17 “See, I will send venomous snakes among you, vipers that cannot be charmed, and they will bite you,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 8:18 O my Comforter in sorrow, my heart is faint within me.

Jeremiah 8:19 Listen to the cry of my people from a land far away: “Is the LORD not in Zion? Is her King no longer there?” “Why have they provoked me to anger with their images, with their worthless foreign idols?”

Jeremiah 8:20 “The harvest is past, the summer has ended, and we are not saved.”

Jeremiah 8:21 Since my people are crushed, I am crushed; I mourn, and horror grips me.

Jeremiah 8:22 Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then is there no healing for the wound of my people?

Jeremiah 9:1 Oh, that my head were a spring of water and my eyes a fountain of tears! I would weep day and night for the slain of my people.

Jeremiah 9:2 Oh, that I had in the desert a lodging place for travellers, so that I might leave my people and go away from them; for they are all adulterers, a crowd of unfaithful people.

Jeremiah 9:3 “They make ready their tongue like a bow, to shoot lies; it is not by truth that they triumph in the land. They go from one sin to another; they do not acknowledge me,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 9:4 “Beware of your friends; do not trust your brothers. For every brother is a deceiver, and every friend a slanderer.

Jeremiah 9:5 Friend deceives friend, and no-one speaks the truth. They have taught their tongues to lie; they weary themselves with sinning.

Jeremiah 9:6 You live in the midst of deception; in their deceit they refuse to acknowledge me,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 9:7 Therefore this is what the LORD Almighty says: “See, I will refine and test them, for what else can I do because of the sin of my people?

Jeremiah 9:8 Their tongue is a deadly arrow; it speaks with deceit. With his mouth each speaks cordially to his neighbour, but in his heart he sets a trap for him.

Jeremiah 9:9 Should I not punish them for this?” declares the LORD. “Should I not avenge myself on such a nation as this?”

Jeremiah 9:10 I will weep and wail for the mountains and take up a lament concerning the desert pastures. They are desolate and untravelled, and the lowing of cattle is not heard. The birds of the air have fled and the animals are gone.

Jeremiah 9:11 “I will make Jerusalem a heap of ruins, a haunt of jackals; and I will lay waste the towns of Judah so that no-one can live there.”

Jeremiah 9:12 What man is wise enough to understand this? Who has been instructed by the LORD and can explain it? Why has the land been ruined and laid waste like a desert that no-one can cross?

Jeremiah 9:13 The LORD said, “It is because they have forsaken my law, which I set before them; they have not obeyed me or followed my law.

Jeremiah 9:14 Instead, they have followed the stubbornness of their hearts; they have followed the Baals, as their fathers taught them.”

Jeremiah 9:15 Therefore, this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “See, I will make this people eat bitter food and drink poisoned water.

Jeremiah 9:16 I will scatter them among nations that neither they nor their fathers have known, and I will pursue them with the sword until I have destroyed them.”

Jeremiah 9:17 This is what the LORD Almighty says: “Consider now! Call for the wailing women to come; send for the most skilful of them.

Jeremiah 9:18 Let them come quickly and wail over us till our eyes overflow with tears and water streams from our eyelids.

Jeremiah 9:19 The sound of wailing is heard from Zion:`How ruined we are! How great is our shame! We must leave our land because our houses are in ruins.’“

Jeremiah 9:20 Now, O women, hear the word of the LORD; open your ears to the words of his mouth. Teach your daughters how to wail; teach one another a lament.

Jeremiah 9:21 Death has climbed in through our windows and has entered our fortresses; it has cut off the children from the streets and the young men from the public squares.

Jeremiah 9:22 Say, “This is what the LORD declares: “`The dead bodies of men will lie like refuse on the open field, like cut corn behind the reaper, with no-one to gather them.’“

Jeremiah 9:23 This is what the LORD says: “Let not the wise man boast of his wisdom or the strong man boast of his strength or the rich man boast of his riches, Jeremiah 9:24 but let him who boasts boast about this: that he understands and knows me, that I am the LORD, who exercises kindness, justice and righteousness on earth, for in these I delight,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 9:25 “The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will punish all who are circumcised only in the flesh—

Jeremiah 9:26 Egypt, Judah, Edom, Ammon, Moab and all who live in the desert in distant places. For all these nations are really uncircumcised, and even the whole house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart.”

Jeremiah 10:1 Hear what the LORD says to you, O house of Israel.

Jeremiah 10:2 This is what the LORD says: “Do not learn the ways of the nations or be terrified by signs in the sky, though the nations are terrified by them.

Jeremiah 10:3 For the customs of the peoples are worthless; they cut a tree out of the forest, and a craftsman shapes it with his chisel.

Jeremiah 10:4 They adorn it with silver and gold; they fasten it with hammer and nails so that it will not totter.

Jeremiah 10:5 Like a scarecrow in a melon patch, their idols cannot speak; they must be carried because they cannot walk. Do not fear them; they can do no harm nor can they do any good.”

Jeremiah 10:6 No-one is like you, O LORD; you are great, and your name is mighty in power.

Jeremiah 10:7 Who should not revere you, O King of the nations? This is your due. Among all the wise men of the nations and in all their kingdoms, there is no-one like you.

Jeremiah 10:8 They are all senseless and foolish; they are taught by worthless wooden idols.

Jeremiah 10:9 Hammered silver is brought from Tarshish and gold from Uphaz. What the craftsman and goldsmith have made is then dressed in blue and purple—all made by skilled workers.

Jeremiah 10:10 But the LORD is the true God; he is the living God, the eternal King. When he is angry, the earth trembles; the nations cannot endure his wrath.

Jeremiah 10:11 “Tell them this:`These gods, who did not make the heavens and the earth, will perish from the earth and from under the heavens.’“

Jeremiah 10:12 But God made the earth by his power; he founded the world by his wisdom and stretched out the heavens by his understanding.

Jeremiah 10:13 When he thunders, the waters in the heavens roar; he makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth. He sends lightning with the rain and brings out the wind from his storehouses.

Jeremiah 10:14 Everyone is senseless and without knowledge; every goldsmith is shamed by his idols. His images are a fraud; they have no breath in them.

Jeremiah 10:15 They are worthless, the objects of mockery; when their judgment comes, they will perish.

Jeremiah 10:16 He who is the Portion of Jacob is not like these, for he is the Maker of all things, including Israel, the tribe of his inheritance—the LORD Almighty is his name.

Jeremiah 10:17 Gather up your belongings to leave the land, you who live under siege.

Jeremiah 10:18 For this is what the LORD says: “At this time I will hurl out those who live in this land; I will bring distress on them so that they may be captured.”

Jeremiah 10:19 Woe to me because of my injury! My wound is incurable! Yet I said to myself, “This is my sickness, and I must endure it.”

Jeremiah 10:20 My tent is destroyed; all its ropes are snapped. My sons are gone from me and are no more; no-one is left now to pitch my tent or to set up my shelter.

Jeremiah 10:21 The shepherds are senseless and do not enquire of the LORD; so they do not prosper and all their flock is scattered.

Jeremiah 10:22 Listen! The report is coming—a great commotion from the land of the north! It will make the towns of Judah desolate, a haunt of jackals.

Jeremiah 10:23 I know, O LORD, that a man’s life is not his own; it is not for man to direct his steps.

Jeremiah 10:24 Correct me, LORD, but only with justice—not in your anger, lest you reduce me to nothing.

Jeremiah 10:25 Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not acknowledge you, on the peoples who do not call on your name. For they have devoured Jacob; they have devoured him completely and destroyed his homeland.

Jeremiah 11:1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 11:2 “Listen to the terms of this covenant and tell them to the people of Judah and to those who live in Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 11:3 Tell them that this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:`Cursed is the man who does not obey the terms of this covenant—

Jeremiah 11:4 the terms I commanded your forefathers when I brought them out of Egypt, out of the iron-smelting furnace.’ I said,`Obey me and do everything I command you, and you will be my people, and I will be your God.

Jeremiah 11:5 Then I will fulfil the oath I swore to your forefathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey’—the land you possess today.” I answered, “Amen, LORD.”

Jeremiah 11:6 The LORD said to me, “Proclaim all these words in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem:`Listen to the terms of this covenant and follow them.

Jeremiah 11:7 From the time I brought your forefathers up from Egypt until today, I warned them again and again, saying, “Obey me.”

Jeremiah 11:8 But they did not listen or pay attention; instead, they followed the stubbornness of their evil hearts. So I brought on them all the curses of the covenant I had commanded them to follow but that they did not keep.’“ Jeremiah 11:9 Then the LORD said to me, “There is a conspiracy among the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 11:10 They have returned to the sins of their forefathers, who refused to listen to my words. They have followed other gods to serve them. Both the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken the covenant I made with their forefathers.

Jeremiah 11:11 Therefore this is what the LORD says:`I will bring on them a disaster they cannot escape. Although they cry out to me, I will not listen to them.

Jeremiah 11:12 The towns of Judah and the people of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods to whom they burn incense, but they will not help them at all when disaster strikes.

Jeremiah 11:13 You have as many gods as you have towns, O Judah; and the altars you have set up to burn incense to that shameful god Baal are as many as the streets of Jerusalem.’

Jeremiah 11:14 “Do not pray for this people nor offer any plea or petition for them, because I will not listen when they call to me in the time of their distress.

Jeremiah 11:15 “What is my beloved doing in my temple as she works out her evil schemes with many? Can consecrated meat avert [your punishment]? When you engage in your wickedness, then you rejoice.”

Jeremiah 11:16 The LORD called you a thriving olive tree with fruit beautiful in form. But with the roar of a mighty storm he will set it on fire, and its branches will be broken.

Jeremiah 11:17 The LORD Almighty, who planted you, has decreed disaster for you, because the house of Israel and the house of Judah have done evil and provoked me to anger by burning incense to Baal.

Jeremiah 11:18 Because the LORD revealed their plot to me, I knew it, for at that time he showed me what they were doing.

Jeremiah 11:19 I had been like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter; I did not realise that they had plotted against me, saying, “Let us destroy the tree and its fruit; let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name be remembered no more.”

Jeremiah 11:20 But, O LORD Almighty, you who judge righteously and test the heart and mind, let me see your vengeance upon them, for to you I have committed my cause.

Jeremiah 11:21 “Therefore this is what the LORD says about the men of Anathoth who are seeking your life and saying,`Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD or you will die by our hands’—

Jeremiah 11:22 therefore this is what the LORD Almighty says:`I will punish them. Their young men will die by the sword, their sons and daughters by famine.

Jeremiah 11:23 Not even a remnant will be left to them, because I will bring disaster on the men of Anathoth in the year of their punishment.’“

Jeremiah 12:1 You are always righteous, O LORD, when I bring a case before you. Yet I would speak with you about your justice: Why does the way of the wicked prosper? Why do all the faithless live at ease?

Jeremiah 12:2 You have planted them, and they have taken root; they grow and bear fruit. You are always on their lips but far from their hearts.

Jeremiah 12:3 Yet you know me, O LORD; you see me and test my thoughts about you. Drag them off like sheep to be butchered! Set them apart for the day of slaughter!

Jeremiah 12:4 How long will the land lie parched and the grass in every field be withered? Because those who live in it are wicked, the animals and birds have perished. Moreover, the people are saying, “He will not see what happens to us.”

Jeremiah 12:5 “If you have raced with men on foot and they have worn you out, how can you compete with horses? If you stumble in safe country, how will you manage in the thickets by the Jordan?

Jeremiah 12:6 Your brothers, your own family—even they have betrayed you; they have raised a loud cry against you. Do not trust them, though they speak well of you.

Jeremiah 12:7 “I will forsake my house, abandon my inheritance; I will give the one I love into the hands of her enemies.

Jeremiah 12:8 My inheritance has become to me like a lion in the forest. She roars at me; therefore I hate her.

Jeremiah 12:9 Has not my inheritance become to me like a speckled bird of prey that other birds of prey surround and attack? Go and gather all the wild beasts; bring them to devour.

Jeremiah 12:10 Many shepherds will ruin my vineyard and trample down my field; they will turn my pleasant field into a desolate wasteland.

Jeremiah 12:11 It will be made a wasteland, parched and desolate before me; the whole land will be laid waste because there is no-one who cares.

Jeremiah 12:12 Over all the barren heights in the desert destroyers will swarm, for the sword of the LORD will devour from one end of the land to the other; no-one will be safe.

Jeremiah 12:13 They will sow wheat but reap thorns; they will wear themselves out but gain nothing. So bear the shame of your harvest because of the LORD’s fierce anger.”

Jeremiah 12:14 This is what the LORD says: “As for all my wicked neighbours who seize the inheritance I gave to my people Israel, I will uproot them from their lands and I will uproot the house of Judah from among them.

Jeremiah 12:15 But after I uproot them, I will again have compassion and will bring each of them back to his own inheritance and his own country.

Jeremiah 12:16 And if they learn well the ways of my people and swear by my name, saying,`As surely as the LORD lives’—even as they once taught my people to swear by Baal—then they will be established among my people.

Jeremiah 12:17 But if any nation does not listen, I will completely uproot and destroy it,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 13:1 This is what the LORD said to me: “Go and buy a linen belt and put it round your waist, but do not let it touch water.”

Jeremiah 13:2 So I bought a belt, as the LORD directed, and put it round my waist.

Jeremiah 13:3 Then the word of the LORD came to me a second time:

Jeremiah 13:4 “Take the belt you bought and are wearing round your waist, and go now to Perath and hide it there in a crevice in the rocks.”

Jeremiah 13:5 So I went and hid it at Perath, as the LORD told me.

Jeremiah 13:6 Many days later the LORD said to me, “Go now to Perath and get the belt I told you to hide there.”

Jeremiah 13:7 So I went to Perath and dug up the belt and took it from the place where I had hidden it, but now it was ruined and completely useless.

Jeremiah 13:8 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Jeremiah 13:9 “This is what the LORD says:`In the same way I will ruin the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 13:10 These wicked people, who refuse to listen to my words, who follow the stubbornness of their hearts and go after other gods to serve and worship them, will be like this belt—completely useless!

Jeremiah 13:11 For as a belt is bound round a man’s waist, so I bound the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to me,’ declares the LORD,`to be my people for my renown and praise and honour. But they have not listened.’

Jeremiah 13:12 “Say to them:`This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Every wineskin should be filled with wine.’ And if they say to you,`Don’t we know that every wineskin should be filled with wine?’

Jeremiah 13:13 then tell them,`This is what the LORD says: I am going to fill with drunkenness all who live in this land, including the kings who sit on David’s throne, the priests, the prophets and all those living in Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 13:14 I will smash them one against the other, fathers and sons alike, declares the LORD. I will allow no pity or mercy or compassion to keep me from destroying them.’“

Jeremiah 13:15 Hear and pay attention, do not be arrogant, for the LORD has spoken.

Jeremiah 13:16 Give glory to the LORD your God before he brings the darkness, before your feet stumble on the darkening hills. You hope for light, but he will turn it to thick darkness and change it to deep gloom.

Jeremiah 13:17 But if you do not listen, I will weep in secret because of your pride; my eyes will weep bitterly, overflowing with tears, because the LORD’s flock will be taken captive.

Jeremiah 13:18 Say to the king and to the queen mother, “Come down from your thrones, for your glorious crowns will fall from your heads.”

Jeremiah 13:19 The cities in the Negev will be shut up, and there will be no-one to open them. All Judah will be carried into exile, carried completely away.

Jeremiah 13:20 Lift up your eyes and see those who are coming from the north. Where is the flock that was entrusted to you, the sheep of which you boasted?

Jeremiah 13:21 What will you say when [the LORD] sets over you those you cultivated as your special allies? Will not pain grip you like that of a woman in labour?

Jeremiah 13:22 And if you ask yourself, “Why has this happened to me?”— it is because of your many sins that your skirts have been torn off and your body ill-treated.

Jeremiah 13:23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin or the leopard its spots? Neither can you do good who are accustomed to doing evil.

Jeremiah 13:24 “I will scatter you like chaff driven by the desert wind.

Jeremiah 13:25 This is your lot, the portion I have decreed for you,” declares the LORD, “because you have forgotten me and trusted in false gods.

Jeremiah 13:26 I will pull up your skirts over your face that your shame may be seen—

Jeremiah 13:27 your adulteries and lustful neighings, your shameless prostitution! I have seen your detestable acts on the hills and in the fields. Woe to you, O Jerusalem! How long will you be unclean?”

Jeremiah 14:1 This is the word of the LORD to Jeremiah concerning the drought:

Jeremiah 14:2 “Judah mourns, her cities languish; they wail for the land, and a cry goes up from Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 14:3 The nobles send their servants for water; they go to the cisterns but find no water. They return with their jars unfilled; dismayed and despairing, they cover their heads.

Jeremiah 14:4 The ground is cracked because there is no rain in the land; the farmers are dismayed and cover their heads.

Jeremiah 14:5 Even the doe in the field deserts her newborn fawn because there is no grass.

Jeremiah 14:6 Wild donkeys stand on the barren heights and pant like jackals; their eyesight fails for lack of pasture.”

Jeremiah 14:7 Although our sins testify against us, O LORD, do something for the sake of your name. For our backsliding is great; we have sinned against you.

Jeremiah 14:8 O Hope of Israel, its Saviour in times of distress, why are you like a stranger in the land, like a traveller who stays only a night?

Jeremiah 14:9 Why are you like a man taken by surprise, like a warrior powerless to save? You are among us, O LORD, and we bear your name; do not forsake us!

Jeremiah 14:10 This is what the LORD says about this people: “They greatly love to wander; they do not restrain their feet. So the LORD does not accept them; he will now remember their wickedness and punish them for their sins.”

Jeremiah 14:11 Then the LORD said to me, “Do not pray for the well-being of this people.

Jeremiah 14:12 Although they fast, I will not listen to their cry; though they offer burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them. Instead, I will destroy them with the sword, famine and plague.”

Jeremiah 14:13 But I said, “Ah, Sovereign LORD, the prophets keep telling them,`You will not see the sword or suffer famine. Indeed, I will give you lasting peace in this place.’“

Jeremiah 14:14 Then the LORD said to me, “The prophets are prophesying lies in my name. I have not sent them or appointed them or spoken to them. They are prophesying to you false visions, divinations, idolatries and the delusions of their own minds.

Jeremiah 14:15 Therefore, this is what the LORD says about the prophets who are prophesying in my name: I did not send them, yet they are saying,`No sword or famine will touch this land.’ Those same prophets will perish by sword and famine.

Jeremiah 14:16 And the people they are prophesying to will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and sword. There will be no-one to bury them or their wives, their sons or their daughters. I will pour out on them the calamity they deserve.

Jeremiah 14:17 “Speak this word to them: “`Let my eyes overflow with tears night and day without ceasing; for my virgin daughter— my people—has suffered a grievous wound, a crushing blow.

Jeremiah 14:18 If I go into the country, I see those slain by the sword; if I go into the city, I see the ravages of famine. Both prophet and priest have gone to a land they know not.’“

Jeremiah 14:19 Have you rejected Judah completely? Do you despise Zion? Why have you afflicted us so that we cannot be healed? We hoped for peace but no good has come, for a time of healing but there is only terror.

Jeremiah 14:20 O LORD, we acknowledge our wickedness and the guilt of our fathers; we have indeed sinned against you.

Jeremiah 14:21 For the sake of your name do not despise us; do not dishonour your glorious throne. Remember your covenant with us and do not break it.

Jeremiah 14:22 Do any of the worthless idols of the nations bring rain? Do the skies themselves send down showers? No, it is you, O LORD our God. Therefore our hope is in you, for you are the one who does all this.

Jeremiah 15:1 Then the LORD said to me: “Even if Moses and Samuel were to stand before me, my heart would not go out to this people. Send them away from my presence! Let them go!

Jeremiah 15:2 And if they ask you,`Where shall we go?’ tell them,`This is what the LORD says: “`Those destined for death, to death; those for the sword, to the sword; those for starvation, to starvation; those for captivity, to captivity.’

Jeremiah 15:3 “I will send four kinds of destroyers against them,” declares the LORD, “the sword to kill and the dogs to drag away and the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy.

Jeremiah 15:4 I will make them abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the earth because of what Manasseh son of Hezekiah king of Judah did in Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 15:5 “Who will have pity on you, O Jerusalem? Who will mourn for you? Who will stop to ask how you are?

Jeremiah 15:6 You have rejected me,” declares the LORD. “You keep on backsliding. So I will lay hands on you and destroy you; I can no longer show compassion.

Jeremiah 15:7 I will winnow them with a winnowing fork at the city gates of the land. I will bring bereavement and destruction on my people, for they have not changed their ways.

Jeremiah 15:8 I will make their widows more numerous than the sand of the sea. At midday I will bring a destroyer against the mothers of their young men; suddenly I will bring down on them anguish and terror.

Jeremiah 15:9 The mother of seven will grow faint and breathe her last. Her sun will set while it is still day; she will be disgraced and humiliated. I will put the survivors to the sword before their enemies,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 15:10 Alas, my mother, that you gave me birth, a man with whom the whole land strives and contends! I have neither lent nor borrowed, yet everyone curses me.

Jeremiah 15:11 The LORD said, “Surely I will deliver you for a good purpose; surely I will make your enemies plead with you in times of disaster and times of distress.

Jeremiah 15:12 “Can a man break iron—iron from the north—or bronze?

Jeremiah 15:13 Your wealth and your treasures I will give as plunder, without charge, because of all your sins throughout your country.

Jeremiah 15:14 I will enslave you to your enemies in a land you do not know, for my anger will kindle a fire that will burn against you.”

Jeremiah 15:15 You understand, O LORD; remember me and care for me. Avenge me on my persecutors. You are long-suffering—do not take me away; think of how I suffer reproach for your sake.

Jeremiah 15:16 When your words came, I ate them; they were my joy and my heart’s delight, for I bear your name, O LORD God Almighty.

Jeremiah 15:17 I never sat in the company of revellers, never made merry with them; I sat alone because your hand was on me and you had filled me with indignation.

Jeremiah 15:18 Why is my pain unending and my wound grievous and incurable? Will you be to me like a deceptive brook, like a spring that fails?

Jeremiah 15:19 Therefore this is what the LORD says: “If you repent, I will restore you that you may serve me; if you utter worthy, not worthless, words, you will be my spokesman. Let this people turn to you, but you must not turn to them.

Jeremiah 15:20 I will make you a wall to this people, a fortified wall of bronze; they will fight against you but will not overcome you, for I am with you to rescue and save you,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 15:21 “I will save you from the hands of the wicked and redeem you from the grasp of the cruel.”

Jeremiah 16:1 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Jeremiah 16:2 “You must not marry and have sons or daughters in this place.”

Jeremiah 16:3 For this is what the LORD says about the sons and daughters born in this land and about the women who are their mothers and the men who are their fathers:

Jeremiah 16:4 “They will die of deadly diseases. They will not be mourned or buried but will be like refuse lying on the ground. They will perish by sword and famine, and their dead bodies will become food for the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth.”

Jeremiah 16:5 For this is what the LORD says: “Do not enter a house where there is a funeral meal; do not go to mourn or show sympathy, because I have withdrawn my blessing, my love and my pity from this people,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 16:6 “Both high and low will die in this land. They will not be buried or mourned, and no-one will cut himself or shave his head for them.

Jeremiah 16:7 No-one will offer food to comfort those who mourn for the dead—not even for a father or a mother—nor will anyone give them a drink to console them.

Jeremiah 16:8 “And do not enter a house where there is feasting and sit down to eat and drink.

Jeremiah 16:9 For this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Before your eyes and in your days I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and gladness and to the voices of bride and bridegroom in this place.

Jeremiah 16:10 “When you tell these people all this and they ask you,`Why has the LORD decreed such a great disaster against us? What wrong have we done? What sin have we committed against the LORD our God?’

Jeremiah 16:11 then say to them,`It is because your fathers forsook me,’ declares the LORD,`and followed other gods and served and worshipped them. They forsook me and did not keep my law.

Jeremiah 16:12 But you have behaved more wickedly than your fathers. See how each of you is following the stubbornness of his evil heart instead of obeying me.

Jeremiah 16:13 So I will throw you out of this land into a land neither you nor your fathers have known, and there you will serve other gods day and night, for I will show you no favour.’

Jeremiah 16:14 “However, the days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when men will no longer say,`As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of Egypt,’

Jeremiah 16:15 but they will say,`As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of the land of the north and out of all the countries where he had banished them.’ For I will restore them to the land I gave to their forefathers.

Jeremiah 16:16 “But now I will send for many fishermen,” declares the LORD, “and they will catch them. After that I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them down on every mountain and hill and from the crevices of the rocks.

Jeremiah 16:17 My eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from me, nor is their sin concealed from my eyes.

Jeremiah 16:18 I will repay them double for their wickedness and their sin, because they have defiled my land with the lifeless forms of their vile images and have filled my inheritance with their detestable idols.”

Jeremiah 16:19 O LORD, my strength and my fortress, my refuge in time of distress, to you the nations will come from the ends of the earth and say, “Our fathers possessed nothing but false gods, worthless idols that did them no good.

Jeremiah 16:20 Do men make their own gods? Yes, but they are not gods!”

Jeremiah 16:21 “Therefore I will teach them—this time I will teach them my power and might. Then they will know that my name is the LORD.

Jeremiah 17:1 “Judah’s sin is engraved with an iron tool, inscribed with a flint point, on the tablets of their hearts and on the horns of their altars.

Jeremiah 17:2 Even their children remember their altars and Asherah poles beside the spreading trees and on the high hills.

Jeremiah 17:3 My mountain in the land and your wealth and all your treasures I will give away as plunder, together with your high places, because of sin throughout your country.

Jeremiah 17:4 Through your own fault you will lose the inheritance I gave you. I will enslave you to your enemies in a land you do not know, for you have kindled my anger, and it will burn for ever.”

Jeremiah 17:5 This is what the LORD says: “Cursed is the one who trusts in man, who depends on flesh for his strength and whose heart turns away from the LORD.

Jeremiah 17:6 He will be like a bush in the wastelands; he will not see prosperity when it comes. He will dwell in the parched places of the desert, in a salt land where no-one lives.

Jeremiah 17:7 “But blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, whose confidence is in him.

Jeremiah 17:8 He will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit.”

Jeremiah 17:9 The heart is deceitful above all things and beyond cure. Who can understand it?

Jeremiah 17:10 “I the LORD search the heart and examine the mind, to reward a man according to his conduct, according to what his deeds deserve.”

Jeremiah 17:11 Like a partridge that hatches eggs it did not lay is the man who gains riches by unjust means. When his life is half gone, they will desert him, and in the end he will prove to be a fool.

Jeremiah 17:12 A glorious throne, exalted from the beginning, is the place of our sanctuary.

Jeremiah 17:13 O LORD, the hope of Israel, all who forsake you will be put to shame. Those who turn away from you will be written in the dust because they have forsaken the LORD, the spring of living water.

Jeremiah 17:14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me and I shall be saved, for you are the one I praise.

Jeremiah 17:15 They keep saying to me, “Where is the word of the LORD? Let it now be fulfilled!”

Jeremiah 17:16 I have not run away from being your shepherd; you know I have not desired the day of despair. What passes my lips is open before you.

Jeremiah 17:17 Do not be a terror to me; you are my refuge in the day of disaster.

Jeremiah 17:18 Let my persecutors be put to shame, but keep me from shame; let them be terrified, but keep me from terror. Bring on them the day of disaster; destroy them with double destruction.

Jeremiah 17:19 This is what the LORD said to me: “Go and stand at the gate of the people, through which the kings of Judah go in and out; stand also at all the other gates of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 17:20 Say to them,`Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah and all people of Judah and everyone living in Jerusalem who come through these gates.

Jeremiah 17:21 This is what the LORD says: Be careful not to carry a load on the Sabbath day or bring it through the gates of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 17:22 Do not bring a load out of your houses or do any work on the Sabbath, but keep the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your forefathers.

Jeremiah 17:23 Yet they did not listen or pay attention; they were stiff-necked and would not listen or respond to discipline.

Jeremiah 17:24 But if you are careful to obey me, declares the LORD, and bring no load through the gates of this city on the Sabbath, but keep the Sabbath day holy by not doing any work on it,

Jeremiah 17:25 then kings who sit on David’s throne will come through the gates of this city with their officials. They and their officials will come riding in chariots and on horses, accompanied by the men of Judah and those living in Jerusalem, and this city will be inhabited for ever.

Jeremiah 17:26 People will come from the towns of Judah and the villages around Jerusalem, from the territory of Benjamin and the western foothills, from the hill country and the Negev, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings, incense and thank-offerings to the house of the LORD.

Jeremiah 17:27 But if you do not obey me to keep the Sabbath day holy by not carrying any load as you come through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle an unquenchable fire in the gates of Jerusalem that will consume her fortresses.’“

Jeremiah 18:1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 18:2 “Go down to the potter’s house, and there I will give you my message.”

Jeremiah 18:3 So I went down to the potter’s house, and I saw him working at the wheel.

Jeremiah 18:4 But the pot he was shaping from the clay was marred in his hands; so the potter formed it into another pot, shaping it as seemed best to him.

Jeremiah 18:5 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Jeremiah 18:6 “O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter does?” declares the LORD. “Like clay in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel.

Jeremiah 18:7 If at any time I announce that a nation or kingdom is to be uprooted, torn down and destroyed,

Jeremiah 18:8 and if that nation I warned repents of its evil, then I will relent and not inflict on it the disaster I had planned.

Jeremiah 18:9 And if at another time I announce that a nation or kingdom is to be built up and planted,

Jeremiah 18:10 and if it does evil in my sight and does not obey me, then I will reconsider the good I had intended to do for it.

Jeremiah 18:11 “Now therefore say to the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem,`This is what the LORD says: Look! I am preparing a disaster for you and devising a plan against you. So turn from your evil ways, each one of you, and reform your ways and your actions.’

Jeremiah 18:12 But they will reply,`It’s no use. We will continue with our own plans; each of us will follow the stubbornness of his evil heart.’“

Jeremiah 18:13 Therefore this is what the LORD says: “Enquire among the nations: Who has ever heard anything like this? A most horrible thing has been done by Virgin Israel.

Jeremiah 18:14 Does the snow of Lebanon ever vanish from its rocky slopes? Do its cool waters from distant sources ever cease to flow?

Jeremiah 18:15 Yet my people have forgotten me; they burn incense to worthless idols, which made them stumble in their ways and in the ancient paths. They made them walk in bypaths and on roads not built up.

Jeremiah 18:16 Their land will be laid waste, an object of lasting scorn; all who pass by will be appalled and will shake their heads.

Jeremiah 18:17 Like a wind from the east, I will scatter them before their enemies; I will show them my back and not my face in the day of their disaster.”

Jeremiah 18:18 They said, “Come, let’s make plans against Jeremiah; for the teaching of the law by the priest will not be lost, nor will counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophets. So come, let’s attack him with our tongues and pay no attention to anything he says.”

Jeremiah 18:19 Listen to me, O LORD; hear what my accusers are saying!

Jeremiah 18:20 Should good be repaid with evil? Yet they have dug a pit for me. Remember that I stood before you and spoke on their behalf to turn your wrath away from them.

Jeremiah 18:21 So give their children over to famine; hand them over to the power of the sword. Let their wives be made childless and widows; let their men be put to death, their young men slain by the sword in battle.

Jeremiah 18:22 Let a cry be heard from their houses when you suddenly bring invaders against them, for they have dug a pit to capture me and have hidden snares for my feet.

Jeremiah 18:23 But you know, O LORD, all their plots to kill me. Do not forgive their crimes or blot out their sins from your sight. Let them be overthrown before you; deal with them in the time of your anger.

Jeremiah 19:1 This is what the LORD says: “Go and buy a clay jar from a potter. Take along some of the elders of the people and of the priests

Jeremiah 19:2 and go out to the Valley of Ben Hinnom, near the entrance of the Potsherd Gate. There proclaim the words I tell you,

Jeremiah 19:3 and say,`Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah and people of Jerusalem. This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Listen! I am going to bring a disaster on this place that will make the ears of everyone who hears of it tingle.

Jeremiah 19:4 For they have forsaken me and made this a place of foreign gods; they have burned sacrifices in it to gods that neither they nor their fathers nor the kings of Judah ever knew, and they have filled this place with the blood of the innocent.

Jeremiah 19:5 They have built the high places of Baal to burn their sons in the fire as offerings to Baal—something I did not command or mention, nor did it enter my mind.

Jeremiah 19:6 So beware, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when people will no longer call this place Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter.

Jeremiah 19:7 “`In this place I will ruin the plans of Judah and Jerusalem. I will make them fall by the sword before their enemies, at the hands of those who seek their lives, and I will give their carcasses as food to the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth.

Jeremiah 19:8 I will devastate this city and make it an object of scorn; all who pass by will be appalled and will scoff because of all its wounds.

Jeremiah 19:9 I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and daughters, and they will eat one another's flesh during the stress of the siege imposed on them by the enemies who seek their lives.'

Jeremiah 19:10 "Then break the jar while those who go with you are watching,

Jeremiah 19:11 and say to them,`This is what the LORD Almighty says: I will smash this nation and this city just as this potter's jar is smashed and cannot be repaired. They will bury the dead in Topheth until there is no more room.

Jeremiah 19:12 This is what I will do to this place and to those who live here, declares the LORD. I will make this city like Topheth.

Jeremiah 19:13 The houses in Jerusalem and those of the kings of Judah will be defiled like this place, Topheth—all the houses where they burned incense on the roofs to all the starry hosts and poured out drink offerings to other gods.'"

Jeremiah 19:14 Jeremiah then returned from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy, and stood in the court of the LORD's temple and said to all the people,

Jeremiah 19:15 "This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says:`Listen! I am going to bring on this city and the villages around it every disaster I pronounced against them, because they were stiff-necked and would not listen to my words.'"

Jeremiah 20:1 When the priest Pashhur son of Immer, the chief officer in the temple of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things,

Jeremiah 20:2 he had Jeremiah the prophet beaten and put in the stocks at the Upper Gate of Benjamin at the LORD's temple.

Jeremiah 20:3 The next day, when Pashhur released him from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD's name for you is not Pashhur, but Magor-Missabib.

Jeremiah 20:4 For this is what the LORD says:`I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends; with your own eyes you will see them fall by the sword of their enemies. I will hand all Judah over to the king of Babylon, who will carry them away to Babylon or put them to the sword.

Jeremiah 20:5 I will hand over to their enemies all the wealth of this city—all its products, all its valuables and all the treasures of the kings of Judah. They will take it away as plunder and carry it off to Babylon.

Jeremiah 20:6 And you, Pashhur, and all who live in your house will go into exile to Babylon. There you will die and be buried, you and all your friends to whom you have prophesied lies.'"

Jeremiah 20:7 O LORD, you deceived me, and I was deceived; you overpowered me and prevailed. I am ridiculed all day long; everyone mocks me.

Jeremiah 20:8 Whenever I speak, I cry out proclaiming violence and destruction. So the word of the LORD has brought me insult and reproach all day long.

Jeremiah 20:9 But if I say, "I will not mention him or speak any more in his name," his word is in my heart like a fire, a fire shut up in my bones. I am weary of holding it in; indeed, I cannot.

Jeremiah 20:10 I hear many whispering, "Terror on every side! Report him! Let's report him!" All my friends are waiting for me to slip, saying, "Perhaps he will be deceived; then we will prevail over him and take our revenge on him."

Jeremiah 20:11 But the LORD is with me like a mighty warrior; so my persecutors will stumble and not prevail. They will fail and be thoroughly disgraced; their dishonour will never be forgotten.

Jeremiah 20:12 O LORD Almighty, you who examine the righteous and probe the heart and mind, let me see your vengeance upon them, for to you I have committed my cause.

Jeremiah 20:13 Sing to the LORD! Give praise to the LORD! He rescues the life of the needy from the hands of the wicked.

Jeremiah 20:14 Cursed be the day I was born! May the day my mother bore me not be blessed!

Jeremiah 20:15 Cursed be the man who brought my father the news, who made him very glad, saying, "A child is born to you—a son!"

Jeremiah 20:16 May that man be like the towns the LORD overthrew without pity. May he hear wailing in the morning, a battle cry at noon.

Jeremiah 20:17 For he did not kill me in the womb, with my mother as my grave, her womb enlarged for ever.

Jeremiah 20:18 Why did I ever come out of the womb to see trouble and sorrow and to end my days in shame?

Jeremiah 21:1 The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur son of Malkijah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah. They said:

Jeremiah 21:2 "Enquire now of the LORD for us because Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon is attacking us. Perhaps the LORD will perform wonders for us as in times past so that he will withdraw from us."

Jeremiah 21:3 But Jeremiah answered them, "Tell Zedekiah, Jeremiah 21:4 `This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I am about to turn against you the weapons of war that are in your hands, which you are using to fight the king of Babylon and the Babylonians who are outside the wall besieging you. And I will gather them inside this city.

Jeremiah 21:5 I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and a mighty arm in anger and fury and great wrath.

Jeremiah 21:6 I will strike down those who live in this city—both men and animals—and they will die of a terrible plague.

Jeremiah 21:7 After that, declares the LORD, I will hand over Zedekiah king of Judah, his officials and the people in this city who survive the plague, sword and famine, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and to their enemies who seek their lives. He will put them to the sword; he will show them no mercy or pity or compassion.'

Jeremiah 21:8 "Furthermore, tell the people,`This is what the LORD says: See, I am setting before you the way of life and the way of death.

Jeremiah 21:9 Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine or plague. But whoever goes out and surrenders to the Babylonians who are besieging you will live; he will escape with his life.

Jeremiah 21:10 I have determined to do this city harm and not good, declares the LORD. It will be given into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will destroy it with fire.'

Jeremiah 21:11 "Moreover, say to the royal house of Judah,`Hear the word of the LORD;

Jeremiah 21:12 O house of David, this is what the LORD says: "`Administer justice every morning; rescue from the hand of his oppressor the one who has been robbed, or my wrath will break out and burn like fire because of the evil you have done—burn with no-one to quench it.

Jeremiah 21:13 I am against you, [Jerusalem,] you who live above this valley on the rocky plateau, declares the LORD—you who say, "Who can come against us? Who can enter our refuge?"

Jeremiah 21:14 I will punish you as your deeds deserve, declares the LORD. I will kindle a fire in your forests that will consume everything around you.'"

Jeremiah 22:1 This is what the LORD says: "Go down to the palace of the king of Judah and proclaim this message there:

Jeremiah 22:2 `Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, you who sit on David's throne—you, your officials and your people who come through these gates.

Jeremiah 22:3 This is what the LORD says: Do what is just and right. Rescue from the hand of his oppressor the one who has been robbed. Do no wrong or violence to the alien, the fatherless or the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place.

Jeremiah 22:4 For if you are careful to carry out these commands, then kings who sit on David’s throne will come through the gates of this palace, riding in chariots and on horses, accompanied by their officials and their people.

Jeremiah 22:5 But if you do not obey these commands, declares the LORD, I swear by myself that this palace will become a ruin.’“

Jeremiah 22:6 For this is what the LORD says about the palace of the king of Judah: “Though you are like Gilead to me, like the summit of Lebanon, I will surely make you like a desert, like towns not inhabited.

Jeremiah 22:7 I will send destroyers against you, each man with his weapons, and they will cut up your fine cedar beams and throw them into the fire.

Jeremiah 22:8 “People from many nations will pass by this city and will ask one another,`Why has the LORD done such a thing to this great city?’

Jeremiah 22:9 And the answer will be:`Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God and have worshipped and served other gods.’“

Jeremiah 22:10 Do not weep for the dead [king] or mourn his loss; rather, weep bitterly for him who is exiled, because he will never return nor see his native land again.

Jeremiah 22:11 For this is what the LORD says about Shallum son of Josiah, who succeeded his father as king of Judah but has gone from this place: “He will never return.

Jeremiah 22:12 He will die in the place where they have led him captive; he will not see this land again.”

Jeremiah 22:13 “Woe to him who builds his palace by unrighteousness, his upper rooms by injustice, making his countrymen work for nothing, not paying them for their labour.

Jeremiah 22:14 He says,`I will build myself a great palace with spacious upper rooms.’ So he makes large windows in it, panels it with cedar and decorates it in red.

Jeremiah 22:15 `Does it make you a king to have more and more cedar? Did not your father have food and drink? He did what was right and just, so all went well with him.

Jeremiah 22:16 He defended the cause of the poor and needy, and so all went well. Is that not what it means to know me?” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 22:17 “But your eyes and your heart are set only on dishonest gain, on shedding innocent blood and on oppression and extortion.”

Jeremiah 22:18 Therefore this is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah: “They will not mourn for him:`Alas, my brother! Alas, my sister!’ They will not mourn for him:`Alas, my master! Alas, his splendour!’

Jeremiah 22:19 He will have the burial of a donkey—dragged away and thrown outside the gates of Jerusalem.”

Jeremiah 22:20 “Go up to Lebanon and cry out, let your voice be heard in Bashan, cry out from Abarim, for all your allies are crushed.

Jeremiah 22:21 I warned you when you felt secure, but you said,`I will not listen!’ This has been your way from your youth; you have not obeyed me.

Jeremiah 22:22 The wind will drive all your shepherds away, and your allies will go into exile. Then you will be ashamed and disgraced because of all your wickedness.

Jeremiah 22:23 You who live in`Lebanon’, who are nestled in cedar buildings, how you will groan when pangs come upon you, pain like that of a woman in labour!

Jeremiah 22:24 “As surely as I live,” declares the LORD, “even if you, Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, were a signet ring on my right hand, I would still pull you off.

Jeremiah 22:25 I will hand you over to those who seek your life, those you fear—to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and to the Babylonians.

Jeremiah 22:26 I will hurl you and the mother who gave you birth into another country, where neither of you was born, and there you both will die.

Jeremiah 22:27 You will never come back to the land you long to return to.”

Jeremiah 22:28 Is this man Jehoiachin a despised, broken pot, an object no-one wants? Why will he and his children be hurled out, cast into a land they do not know?

Jeremiah 22:29 O land, land, land, hear the word of the LORD!

Jeremiah 22:30 This is what the LORD says: “Record this man as if childless, a man who will not prosper in his lifetime, for none of his offspring will prosper, none will sit on the throne of David or rule any more in Judah.”

Jeremiah 23:1 “Woe to the shepherds who are destroying and scattering the sheep of my pasture!” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:2 Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to the shepherds who tend my people: “Because you have scattered my flock and driven them away and have not bestowed care on them, I will bestow punishment on you for the evil you have done,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:3 “I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them and will bring them back to their pasture, where they will be fruitful and increase in number.

Jeremiah 23:4 I will place shepherds over them who will tend them, and they will no longer be afraid or terrified, nor will any be missing,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:5 “The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will raise up to David a righteous Branch, a King who will reign wisely and do what is just and right in the land.

Jeremiah 23:6 In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. This is the name by which he will be called: The LORD Our Righteousness.

Jeremiah 23:7 “So then, the days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when people will no longer say,`As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of Egypt,’ Jeremiah 23:8 but they will say,`As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the descendants of Israel up out of the land of the north and out of all the countries where he had banished them.’ Then they will live in their own land.”

Jeremiah 23:9 Concerning the prophets: My heart is broken within me; all my bones tremble. I am like a drunken man, like a man overcome by wine, because of the LORD and his holy words.

Jeremiah 23:10 The land is full of adulterers; because of the curse the land lies parched and the pastures in the desert are withered. The [prophets] follow an evil course and use their power unjustly.

Jeremiah 23:11 “Both prophet and priest are godless; even in my temple I find their wickedness,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:12 “Therefore their path will become slippery; they will be banished to darkness and there they will fall. I will bring disaster on them in the year they are punished,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:13 “Among the prophets of Samaria I saw this repulsive thing: They prophesied by Baal and led my people Israel astray.

Jeremiah 23:14 And among the prophets of Jerusalem I have seen something horrible: They commit adultery and live a lie. They strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that no-one turns from his wickedness. They are all like Sodom to me; the people of Jerusalem are like Gomorrah.”

Jeremiah 23:15 Therefore, this is what the LORD Almighty says concerning the prophets: “I will make them eat bitter food and drink poisoned water, because from the prophets of Jerusalem ungodliness has spread throughout the land.”

Jeremiah 23:16 This is what the LORD Almighty says: “Do not listen to what the prophets are prophesying to you; they fill you with false hopes. They speak visions from their own minds, not from the mouth of the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:17 They keep saying to those who despise me,`The LORD says: You will have peace.’ And to all who follow the stubbornness of their hearts they say,`No harm will come to you.’

Jeremiah 23:18 But which of them has stood in the council of the LORD to see or to hear his word? Who has listened and heard his word?

Jeremiah 23:19 See, the storm of the LORD will burst out in wrath, a whirlwind swirling down on the heads of the wicked.

Jeremiah 23:20 The anger of the LORD will not turn back until he fully accomplishes the purposes of his heart. In days to come you will understand it clearly.

Jeremiah 23:21 I did not send these prophets, yet they have run with their message; I did not speak to them, yet they have prophesied.

Jeremiah 23:22 But if they had stood in my council, they would have proclaimed my words to my people and would have turned them from their evil ways and from their evil deeds.

Jeremiah 23:23 “Am I only a God nearby,” declares the LORD, “and not a God far away?

Jeremiah 23:24 Can anyone hide in secret places so that I cannot see him?” declares the LORD. “Do not I fill heaven and earth?” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:25 “I have heard what the prophets say who prophesy lies in my name. They say,`I had a dream! I had a dream!’

Jeremiah 23:26 How long will this continue in the hearts of these lying prophets, who prophesy the delusions of their own minds?

Jeremiah 23:27 They think the dreams they tell one another will make my people forget my name, just as their fathers forgot my name through Baal worship.

Jeremiah 23:28 Let the prophet who has a dream tell his dream, but let the one who has my word speak it faithfully. For what has straw to do with grain?” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:29 “Is not my word like fire,” declares the LORD, “and like a hammer that breaks a rock in pieces?

Jeremiah 23:30 “Therefore,” declares the LORD, “I am against the prophets who steal from one another words supposedly from me.

Jeremiah 23:31 Yes,” declares the LORD, “I am against the prophets who wag their own tongues and yet declare,`The LORD declares.’

Jeremiah 23:32 Indeed, I am against those who prophesy false dreams,” declares the LORD. “They tell them and lead my people astray with their reckless lies, yet I did not send or appoint them. They do not benefit these people in the least,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 23:33 “When these people, or a prophet or a priest, ask you,`What is the oracle of the LORD?’ say to them,`What oracle? I will forsake you, declares the LORD.’

Jeremiah 23:34 If a prophet or a priest or anyone else claims,`This is the oracle of the LORD,’ I will punish that man and his household.

Jeremiah 23:35 This is what each of you keeps on saying to his friend or relative:`What is the LORD’s answer?’ or`What has the LORD spoken?’

Jeremiah 23:36 But you must not mention`the oracle of the LORD’ again, because every man’s own word becomes his oracle and so you distort the words of the living God, the LORD Almighty, our God.

Jeremiah 23:37 This is what you keep saying to a prophet:`What is the LORD’s answer to you?’ or`What has the LORD spoken?’

Jeremiah 23:38 Although you claim,`This is the oracle of the LORD,’ this is what the LORD says: You used the words,`This is the oracle of the LORD,’ even though I told you that you must not claim,`This is the oracle of the LORD.’

Jeremiah 23:39 Therefore, I will surely forget you and cast you out of my presence along with the city I gave to you and your fathers.

Jeremiah 23:40 I will bring upon you everlasting disgrace—everlasting shame that will not be forgotten.”

Jeremiah 24:1 After Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim king of Judah and the officials, the craftsmen and the artisans of Judah were carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the LORD showed me two baskets of figs placed in front of the temple of the LORD.

Jeremiah 24:2 One basket had very good figs, like those that ripen early; the other basket had very poor figs, so bad that they could not be eaten.

Jeremiah 24:3 Then the LORD asked me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?” “Figs,” I answered. “The good ones are very good, but the poor ones are so bad that they cannot be eaten.”

Jeremiah 24:4 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Jeremiah 24:5 “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:`Like these good figs, I regard as good the exiles from Judah, whom I sent away from this place to the land of the Babylonians.

Jeremiah 24:6 My eyes will watch over them for their good, and I will bring them back to this land. I will build them up and not tear them down; I will plant them and not uproot them.

Jeremiah 24:7 I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the LORD. They will be my people, and I will be their God, for they will return to me with all their heart.

Jeremiah 24:8 "`But like the poor figs, which are so bad that they cannot be eaten,' says the LORD,`so will I deal with Zedekiah king of Judah, his officials and the survivors from Jerusalem, whether they remain in this land or live in Egypt.

Jeremiah 24:9 I will make them abhorrent and an offence to all the kingdoms of the earth, a reproach and a byword, an object of ridicule and cursing, wherever I banish them.

Jeremiah 24:10 I will send the sword, famine and plague against them until they are destroyed from the land I gave to them and their fathers.'"

Jeremiah 25:1 The word came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, which was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

Jeremiah 25:2 So Jeremiah the prophet said to all the people of Judah and to all those living in Jerusalem:

Jeremiah 25:3 For twenty-three years—from the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah until this very day—the word of the LORD has come to me and I have spoken to you again and again, but you have not listened.

Jeremiah 25:4 And though the LORD has sent all his servants the prophets to you again and again, you have not listened or paid any attention.

Jeremiah 25:5 They said, "Turn now, each of you, from your evil ways and your evil practices, and you can stay in the land the LORD gave to you and your fathers for ever and ever.

Jeremiah 25:6 Do not follow other gods to serve and worship them; do not provoke me to anger with what your hands have made. Then I will not harm you."

Jeremiah 25:7 "But you did not listen to me," declares the LORD, "and you have provoked me with what your hands have made, and you have brought harm to yourselves."

Jeremiah 25:8 Therefore the LORD Almighty says this: "Because you have not listened to my words,

Jeremiah 25:9 I will summon all the peoples of the north and my servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon," declares the LORD, "and I will bring them against this land and its inhabitants and against all the surrounding nations. I will completely destroy them and make them an object of horror and scorn, and an everlasting ruin.

Jeremiah 25:10 I will banish from them the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of bride and bridegroom, the sound of millstones and the light of the lamp.

Jeremiah 25:11 This whole country will become a desolate wasteland, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon for seventy years.

Jeremiah 25:12 “But when the seventy years are fulfilled, I will punish the king of Babylon and his nation, the land of the Babylonians, for their guilt,” declares the LORD, “and will make it desolate for ever.

Jeremiah 25:13 I will bring upon that land all the things I have spoken against it, all that are written in this book and prophesied by Jeremiah against all the nations.

Jeremiah 25:14 They themselves will be enslaved by many nations and great kings; I will repay them according to their deeds and the work of their hands.”

Jeremiah 25:15 This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: “Take from my hand this cup filled with the wine of my wrath and make all the nations to whom I send you drink it.

Jeremiah 25:16 When they drink it, they will stagger and go mad because of the sword I will send among them.”

Jeremiah 25:17 So I took the cup from the LORD’s hand and made all the nations to whom he sent me drink it:

Jeremiah 25:18 Jerusalem and the towns of Judah, its kings and officials, to make them a ruin and an object of horror and scorn and cursing, as they are today;

Jeremiah 25:19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, his attendants, his officials and all his people,

Jeremiah 25:20 and all the foreign people there; all the kings of Uz; all the kings of the Philistines (those of Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the people left at Ashdod);

Jeremiah 25:21 Edom, Moab and Ammon;

Jeremiah 25:22 all the kings of Tyre and Sidon; the kings of the coastlands across the sea;

Jeremiah 25:23 Dedan, Tema, Buz and all who are in distant places;

Jeremiah 25:24 all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the foreign people who live in the desert;

Jeremiah 25:25 all the kings of Zimri, Elam and Media;

Jeremiah 25:26 and all the kings of the north, near and far, one after the other—all the kingdoms on the face of the earth. And after all of them, the king of Sheshach will drink it too.

Jeremiah 25:27 “Then tell them,`This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Drink, get drunk and vomit, and fall to rise no more because of the sword I will send among you.’

Jeremiah 25:28 But if they refuse to take the cup from your hand and drink, tell them,`This is what the LORD Almighty says: You must drink it!

Jeremiah 25:29 See, I am beginning to bring disaster on the city that bears my Name, and will you indeed go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, for I am calling down a sword upon all who live on the earth, declares the LORD Almighty.'

Jeremiah 25:30 "Now prophesy all these words against them and say to them: "`The LORD will roar from on high; he will thunder from his holy dwelling and roar mightily against his land. He will shout like those who tread the grapes, shout against all who live on the earth.

Jeremiah 25:31 The tumult will resound to the ends of the earth, for the LORD will bring charges against the nations; he will bring judgment on all mankind and put the wicked to the sword,'" declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 25:32 This is what the LORD Almighty says: "Look! Disaster is spreading from nation to nation; a mighty storm is rising from the ends of the earth."

Jeremiah 25:33 At that time those slain by the LORD will be everywhere— from one end of the earth to the other. They will not be mourned or gathered up or buried, but will be like refuse lying on the ground.

Jeremiah 25:34 Weep and wail, you shepherds; roll in the dust, you leaders of the flock. For your time to be slaughtered has come; you will fall and be shattered like fine pottery.

Jeremiah 25:35 The shepherds will have nowhere to flee, the leaders of the flock no place to escape.

Jeremiah 25:36 Hear the cry of the shepherds, the wailing of the leaders of the flock, for the LORD is destroying their pasture.

Jeremiah 25:37 The peaceful meadows will be laid waste because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

Jeremiah 25:38 Like a lion he will leave his lair, and their land will become desolate because of the sword of the oppressor and because of the LORD's fierce anger.

Jeremiah 26:1 Early in the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came from the LORD:

Jeremiah 26:2 "This is what the LORD says: Stand in the courtyard of the LORD's house and speak to all the people of the towns of Judah who come to worship in the house of the LORD. Tell them everything I command you; do not omit a word.

Jeremiah 26:3 Perhaps they will listen and each will turn from his evil way. Then I will relent and not bring on them the disaster I was planning because of the evil they have done.

Jeremiah 26:4 Say to them,`This is what the LORD says: If you do not listen to me and follow my law, which I have set before you,

Jeremiah 26:5 and if you do not listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I have sent to you again and again (though you have not listened),

Jeremiah 26:6 then I will make this house like Shiloh and this city an object of cursing among all the nations of the earth.'"

Jeremiah 26:7 The priests, the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speak these words in the house of the LORD.

Jeremiah 26:8 But as soon as Jeremiah finished telling all the people everything the LORD had commanded him to say, the priests, the prophets and all the people seized him and said, "You must die!

Jeremiah 26:9 Why do you prophesy in the LORD's name that this house will be like Shiloh and this city will be desolate and deserted?" And all the people crowded around Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

Jeremiah 26:10 When the officials of Judah heard about these things, they went up from the royal palace to the house of the LORD and took their places at the entrance of the New Gate of the LORD's house.

Jeremiah 26:11 Then the priests and the prophets said to the officials and all the people, "This man should be sentenced to death because he has prophesied against this city. You have heard it with your own ears!"

Jeremiah 26:12 Then Jeremiah said to all the officials and all the people: "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and this city all the things you have heard.

Jeremiah 26:13 Now reform your ways and your actions and obey the LORD your God. Then the LORD will relent and not bring the disaster he has pronounced against you.

Jeremiah 26:14 As for me, I am in your hands; do with me whatever you think is good and right.

Jeremiah 26:15 Be assured, however, that if you put me to death, you will bring the guilt of innocent blood on yourselves and on this city and on those who live in it, for in truth the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your hearing."

Jeremiah 26:16 Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, "This man should not be sentenced to death! He has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."

Jeremiah 26:17 Some of the elders of the land stepped forward and said to the entire assembly of people,

Jeremiah 26:18 "Micah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. He told all the people of Judah,`This is what the LORD Almighty says: "`Zion will be ploughed like a field, Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble, the temple hill a mound overgrown with thickets.’

Jeremiah 26:19 “Did Hezekiah king of Judah or anyone else in Judah put him to death? Did not Hezekiah fear the LORD and seek his favour? And did not the LORD relent, so that he did not bring the disaster he pronounced against them? We are about to bring a terrible disaster on ourselves!”

Jeremiah 26:20 (Now Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath Jearim was another man who prophesied in the name of the LORD; he prophesied the same things against this city and this land as Jeremiah did.

Jeremiah 26:21 When King Jehoiakim and all his officers and officials heard his words, the king sought to put him to death. But Uriah heard of it and fled in fear to Egypt.

Jeremiah 26:22 King Jehoiakim, however, sent Elnathan son of Acbor to Egypt, along with some other men.

Jeremiah 26:23 They brought Uriah out of Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim, who had him struck down with a sword and his body thrown into the burial place of the common people.)

Jeremiah 26:24 Furthermore, Ahikam son of Shaphan supported Jeremiah, and so he was not handed over to the people to be put to death.

Jeremiah 27:1 Early in the reign of Zedekiah son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 27:2 This is what the LORD said to me: “Make a yoke out of straps and crossbars and put it on your neck.

Jeremiah 27:3 Then send word to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre and Sidon through the envoys who have come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah.

Jeremiah 27:4 Give them a message for their masters and say,`This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “Tell this to your masters:

Jeremiah 27:5 With my great power and outstretched arm I made the earth and its people and the animals that are on it, and I give it to anyone I please.

Jeremiah 27:6 Now I will hand all your countries over to my servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; I will make even the wild animals subject to him.

Jeremiah 27:7 All nations will serve him and his son and his grandson until the time for his land comes; then many nations and great kings will subjugate him.

Jeremiah 27:8 “`”If, however, any nation or kingdom will not serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon or bow its neck under his yoke, I will punish that nation with the sword, famine and plague, declares the LORD, until I destroy it by his hand.

Jeremiah 27:9 So do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your interpreters of dreams, your mediums or your sorcerers who tell you,`You will not serve the king of Babylon.'

Jeremiah 27:10 They prophesy lies to you that will only serve to remove you far from your lands; I will banish you and you will perish.

Jeremiah 27:11 But if any nation will bow its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will let that nation remain in its own land to till it and to live there, declares the LORD."“

Jeremiah 27:12 I gave the same message to Zedekiah king of Judah. I said, "Bow your neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon; serve him and his people, and you will live.

Jeremiah 27:13 Why will you and your people die by the sword, famine and plague with which the LORD has threatened any nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

Jeremiah 27:14 Do not listen to the words of the prophets who say to you,`You will not serve the king of Babylon,' for they are prophesying lies to you.

Jeremiah 27:15 `I have not sent them,' declares the LORD.`They are prophesying lies in my name. Therefore, I will banish you and you will perish, both you and the prophets who prophesy to you.'“

Jeremiah 27:16 Then I said to the priests and all these people, "This is what the LORD says: Do not listen to the prophets who say,`Very soon now the articles from the LORD's house will be brought back from Babylon.' They are prophesying lies to you.

Jeremiah 27:17 Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon, and you will live. Why should this city become a ruin?

Jeremiah 27:18 If they are prophets and have the word of the LORD, let them plead with the LORD Almighty that the furnishings remaining in the house of the LORD and in the palace of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem not be taken to Babylon.

Jeremiah 27:19 For this is what the LORD Almighty says about the pillars, the Sea, the movable stands and the other furnishings that are left in this city,

Jeremiah 27:20 which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take away when he carried Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim king of Judah into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem—

Jeremiah 27:21 yes, this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says about the things that are left in the house of the LORD and in the palace of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem:

Jeremiah 27:22 `They will be taken to Babylon and there they will remain until the day I come for them,' declares the LORD.`Then I will bring them back and restore them to this place.'"

Jeremiah 28:1 In the fifth month of that same year, the fourth year, early in the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, the prophet Hananiah son of Azzur, who was from Gibeon, said to me in the house of the LORD in the presence of the priests and all the people:

Jeremiah 28:2 "This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says:`I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

Jeremiah 28:3 Within two years I will bring back to this place all the articles of the LORD's house that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon removed from here and took to Babylon.

Jeremiah 28:4 I will also bring back to this place Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim king of Judah and all the other exiles from Judah who went to Babylon,' declares the LORD,`for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'"

Jeremiah 28:5 Then the prophet Jeremiah replied to the prophet Hananiah before the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD.

Jeremiah 28:6 He said, "Amen! May the LORD do so! May the LORD fulfil the words you have prophesied by bringing the articles of the LORD's house and all the exiles back to this place from Babylon.

Jeremiah 28:7 Nevertheless, listen to what I have to say in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people:

Jeremiah 28:8 From early times the prophets who preceded you and me have prophesied war, disaster and plague against many countries and great kingdoms.

Jeremiah 28:9 But the prophet who prophesies peace will be recognised as one truly sent by the LORD only if his prediction comes true."

Jeremiah 28:10 Then the prophet Hananiah took the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah and broke it,

Jeremiah 28:11 and he said before all the people, "This is what the LORD says:`In the same way will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon off the neck of all the nations within two years.'" At this, the prophet Jeremiah went on his way.

Jeremiah 28:12 Shortly after the prophet Hananiah had broken the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 28:13 "Go and tell Hananiah,`This is what the LORD says: You have broken a wooden yoke, but in its place you will get a yoke of iron.

Jeremiah 28:14 This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I will put an iron yoke on the necks of all these nations to make them serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they will serve him. I will even give him control over the wild animals.’“ Jeremiah 28:15 Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, “Listen, Hananiah! The LORD has not sent you, yet you have persuaded this nation to trust in lies.

Jeremiah 28:16 Therefore, this is what the LORD says:`I am about to remove you from the face of the earth. This very year you are going to die, because you have preached rebellion against the LORD.’“

Jeremiah 28:17 In the seventh month of that same year, Hananiah the prophet died.

Jeremiah 29:1 This is the text of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the surviving elders among the exiles and to the priests, the prophets and all the other people Nebuchadnezzar had carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.

Jeremiah 29:2 (This was after King Jehoiachin and the queen mother, the court officials and the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen and the artisans had gone into exile from Jerusalem.)

Jeremiah 29:3 He entrusted the letter to Elasah son of Shaphan and to Gemariah son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to King Nebuchadnezzar in Babylon. It said:

Jeremiah 29:4 This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says to all those I carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon:

Jeremiah 29:5 “Build houses and settle down; plant gardens and eat what they produce.

Jeremiah 29:6 Marry and have sons and daughters; find wives for your sons and give your daughters in marriage, so that they too may have sons and daughters. Increase in number there; do not decrease.

Jeremiah 29:7 Also, seek the peace and prosperity of the city to which I have carried you into exile. Pray to the LORD for it, because if it prospers, you too will prosper.”

Jeremiah 29:8 Yes, this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “Do not let the prophets and diviners among you deceive you. Do not listen to the dreams you encourage them to have.

Jeremiah 29:9 They are prophesying lies to you in my name. I have not sent them,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 29:10 This is what the LORD says: “When seventy years are completed for Babylon, I will come to you and fulfil my gracious promise to bring you back to this place.

Jeremiah 29:11 For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the LORD, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

Jeremiah 29:12 Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you.

Jeremiah 29:13 You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.

Jeremiah 29:14 I will be found by you,” declares the LORD, “and will bring you back from captivity. I will gather you from all the nations and places where I have banished you,” declares the LORD, “and will bring you back to the place from which I carried you into exile.”

Jeremiah 29:15 You may say, “The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon,”

Jeremiah 29:16 but this is what the LORD says about the king who sits on David’s throne and all the people who remain in this city, your countrymen who did not go with you into exile—

Jeremiah 29:17 yes, this is what the LORD Almighty says: “I will send the sword, famine and plague against them and I will make them like poor figs that are so bad they cannot be eaten.

Jeremiah 29:18 I will pursue them with the sword, famine and plague and will make them abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the earth and an object of cursing and horror, of scorn and reproach, among all the nations where I drive them.

Jeremiah 29:19 For they have not listened to my words,” declares the LORD, “words that I sent to them again and again by my servants the prophets. And you exiles have not listened either,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 29:20 Therefore, hear the word of the LORD, all you exiles whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon.

Jeremiah 29:21 This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says about Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying lies to you in my name: “I will hand them over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will put them to death before your very eyes.

Jeremiah 29:22 Because of them, all the exiles from Judah who are in Babylon will use this curse:`The LORD treat you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon burned in the fire.’

Jeremiah 29:23 For they have done outrageous things in Israel; they have committed adultery with their neighbours’ wives and in my name have spoken lies, which I did not tell them to do. I know it and am a witness to it,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 29:24 Tell Shemaiah the Nehelamite,

Jeremiah 29:25 “This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: You sent letters in your own name to all the people in Jerusalem, to Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the other priests. You said to Zephaniah, Jeremiah 29:26 `The LORD has appointed you priest in place of Jehoiada to be in charge of the house of the LORD; you should put any madman who acts like a prophet into the stocks and neck-irons.

Jeremiah 29:27 So why have you not reprimanded Jeremiah from Anathoth, who poses as a prophet among you?

Jeremiah 29:28 He has sent this message to us in Babylon: It will be a long time. Therefore build houses and settle down; plant gardens and eat what they produce.’“

Jeremiah 29:29 Zephaniah the priest, however, read the letter to Jeremiah the prophet.

Jeremiah 29:30 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 29:31 “Send this message to all the exiles:`This is what the LORD says about Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, even though I did not send him, and has led you to believe a lie, Jeremiah 29:32 this is what the LORD says: I will surely punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his descendants. He will have no-one left among this people, nor will he see the good things I will do for my people, declares the LORD, because he has preached rebellion against me.’“

Jeremiah 30:1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 30:2 “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:`Write in a book all the words I have spoken to you.

Jeremiah 30:3 The days are coming,’ declares the LORD,`when I will bring my people Israel and Judah back from captivity and restore them to the land I gave to their forefathers to possess,’ says the LORD.”

Jeremiah 30:4 These are the words the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah:

Jeremiah 30:5 “This is what the LORD says: “`Cries of fear are heard— terror, not peace.

Jeremiah 30:6 Ask and see: Can a man bear children? Then why do I see every strong man with his hands on his stomach like a woman in labour, every face turned deathly pale?

Jeremiah 30:7 How awful that day will be! None will be like it. It will be a time of trouble for Jacob, but he will be saved out of it.

Jeremiah 30:8 “`In that day,’ declares the LORD Almighty,`I will break the yoke off their necks and will tear off their bonds; no longer will foreigners enslave them.

Jeremiah 30:9 Instead, they will serve the LORD their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.

Jeremiah 30:10 “`So do not fear, O Jacob my servant; do not be dismayed, O Israel,’ declares the LORD.`I will surely save you out of a distant place, your descendants from the land of their exile. Jacob will again have peace and security, and no-one will make him afraid.

Jeremiah 30:11 I am with you and will save you,’ declares the LORD.`Though I completely destroy all the nations among which I scatter you, I will not completely destroy you. I will discipline you but only with justice; I will not let you go entirely unpunished.’

Jeremiah 30:12 “This is what the LORD says: “`Your wound is incurable, your injury beyond healing.

Jeremiah 30:13 There is no-one to plead your cause, no remedy for your sore, no healing for you.

Jeremiah 30:14 All your allies have forgotten you; they care nothing for you. I have struck you as an enemy would and punished you as would the cruel, because your guilt is so great and your sins so many.

Jeremiah 30:15 Why do you cry out over your wound, your pain that has no cure? Because of your great guilt and many sins I have done these things to you.

Jeremiah 30:16 “`But all who devour you will be devoured; all your enemies will go into exile. Those who plunder you will be plundered; all who make spoil of you I will despoil.

Jeremiah 30:17 But I will restore you to health and heal your wounds,’ declares the LORD,`because you are called an outcast, Zion for whom no-one cares.’

Jeremiah 30:18 “This is what the LORD says: “`I will restore the fortunes of Jacob’s tents and have compassion on his dwellings; the city will be rebuilt on her ruins, and the palace will stand in its proper place.

Jeremiah 30:19 From them will come songs of thanksgiving and the sound of rejoicing. I will add to their numbers, and they will not be decreased; I will bring them honour, and they will not be disdained.

Jeremiah 30:20 Their children will be as in days of old, and their community will be established before me; I will punish all who oppress them.

Jeremiah 30:21 Their leader will be one of their own; their ruler will arise from among them. I will bring him near and he will come close to me, for who is he who will devote himself to be close to me?’ declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 30:22 “`So you will be my people, and I will be your God.’“

Jeremiah 30:23 See, the storm of the LORD will burst out in wrath, a driving wind swirling down on the heads of the wicked.

Jeremiah 30:24 The fierce anger of the LORD will not turn back until he fully accomplishes the purposes of his heart. In days to come you will understand this.

Jeremiah 31:1 “At that time,” declares the LORD, “I will be the God of all the clans of Israel, and they will be my people.”

Jeremiah 31:2 This is what the LORD says: “The people who survive the sword will find favour in the desert; I will come to give rest to Israel.”

Jeremiah 31:3 The LORD appeared to us in the past, saying: “I have loved you with an everlasting love; I have drawn you with loving-kindness.

Jeremiah 31:4 I will build you up again and you will be rebuilt, O Virgin Israel. Again you will take up your tambourines and go out to dance with the joyful.

Jeremiah 31:5 Again you will plant vineyards on the hills of Samaria; the farmers will plant them and enjoy their fruit.

Jeremiah 31:6 There will be a day when watchmen cry out on the hills of Ephraim,`Come, let us go up to Zion, to the LORD our God.’“

Jeremiah 31:7 This is what the LORD says: “Sing with joy for Jacob; shout for the foremost of the nations. Make your praises heard, and say,`O LORD, save your people, the remnant of Israel.’

Jeremiah 31:8 See, I will bring them from the land of the north and gather them from the ends of the earth. Among them will be the blind and the lame, expectant mothers and women in labour; a great throng will return.

Jeremiah 31:9 They will come with weeping; they will pray as I bring them back. I will lead them beside streams of water on a level path where they will not stumble, because I am Israel’s father, and Ephraim is my firstborn son.

Jeremiah 31:10 “Hear the word of the LORD, O nations; proclaim it in distant coastlands:`He who scattered Israel will gather them and will watch over his flock like a shepherd.’

Jeremiah 31:11 For the LORD will ransom Jacob and redeem them from the hand of those stronger than they.

Jeremiah 31:12 They will come and shout for joy on the heights of Zion; they will rejoice in the bounty of the LORD—the grain, the new wine and the oil, the young of the flocks and herds. They will be like a well-watered garden, and they will sorrow no more.

Jeremiah 31:13 Then maidens will dance and be glad, young men and old as well. I will turn their mourning into gladness; I will give them comfort and joy instead of sorrow.

Jeremiah 31:14 I will satisfy the priests with abundance, and my people will be filled with my bounty,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 31:15 This is what the LORD says: “A voice is heard in Ramah, mourning and great weeping, Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because her children are no more.”

Jeremiah 31:16 This is what the LORD says: “Restrain your voice from weeping and your eyes from tears, for your work will be rewarded,” declares the LORD. “They will return from the land of the enemy.

Jeremiah 31:17 So there is hope for your future,” declares the LORD. “Your children will return to their own land.

Jeremiah 31:18 “I have surely heard Ephraim’s moaning:`You disciplined me like an unruly calf, and I have been disciplined. Restore me, and I will return, because you are the LORD my God.

Jeremiah 31:19 After I strayed, I repented; after I came to understand, I beat my breast. I was ashamed and humiliated because I bore the disgrace of my youth.’

Jeremiah 31:20 Is not Ephraim my dear son, the child in whom I delight? Though I often speak against him, I still remember him. Therefore my heart yearns for him; I have great compassion for him,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 31:21 “Set up road signs; put up guideposts. Take note of the highway, the road that you take. Return, O Virgin Israel, return to your towns.

Jeremiah 31:22 How long will you wander, O unfaithful daughter? The LORD will create a new thing on earth—a woman will surround a man.”

Jeremiah 31:23 This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “When I bring them back from captivity, the people in the land of Judah and in its towns will once again use these words:`The LORD bless you, O righteous dwelling, O sacred mountain.’

Jeremiah 31:24 People will live together in Judah and all its towns—farmers and those who move about with their flocks.

Jeremiah 31:25 I will refresh the weary and satisfy the faint.”

Jeremiah 31:26 At this I awoke and looked around. My sleep had been pleasant to me.

Jeremiah 31:27 “The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will plant the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the offspring of men and of animals.

Jeremiah 31:28 Just as I watched over them to uproot and tear down, and to overthrow, destroy and bring disaster, so I will watch over them to build and to plant,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 31:29 “In those days people will no longer say,`The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge.’

Jeremiah 31:30 Instead, everyone will die for his own sin; whoever eats sour grapes—his own teeth will be set on edge.

Jeremiah 31:31 “The time is coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.

Jeremiah 31:32 It will not be like the covenant I made with their forefathers when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt, because they broke my covenant, though I was a husband to them,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 31:33 “This is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after that time,” declares the LORD. “I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people.

Jeremiah 31:34 No longer will a man teach his neighbour, or a man his brother, saying,`Know the LORD,’ because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest,” declares the LORD. “For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more.”

Jeremiah 31:35 This is what the LORD says, he who appoints the sun to shine by day, who decrees the moon and stars to shine by night, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar—the LORD Almighty is his name:

Jeremiah 31:36 “Only if these decrees vanish from my sight,” declares the LORD, “will the descendants of Israel ever cease to be a nation before me.”

Jeremiah 31:37 This is what the LORD says: “Only if the heavens above can be measured and the foundations of the earth below be searched out will I reject all the descendants of Israel because of all they have done,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 31:38 “The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when this city will be rebuilt for me from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate.

Jeremiah 31:39 The measuring line will stretch from there straight to the hill of Gareb and then turn to Goah.

Jeremiah 31:40 The whole valley where dead bodies and ashes are thrown, and all the terraces out to the Kidron Valley on the east as far as the corner of the Horse Gate, will be holy to the LORD. The city will never again be uprooted or demolished.”

Jeremiah 32:1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.

Jeremiah 32:2 The army of the king of Babylon was then besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was confined in the courtyard of the guard in the royal palace of Judah.

Jeremiah 32:3 Now Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him there, saying, “Why do you prophesy as you do? You say,`This is what the LORD says: I am about to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will capture it.

Jeremiah 32:4 Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape out of the hands of the Babylonians but will certainly be handed over to the king of Babylon, and will speak with him face to face and see him with his own eyes.

Jeremiah 32:5 He will take Zedekiah to Babylon, where he will remain until I deal with him, declares the LORD. If you fight against the Babylonians, you will not succeed.'"

Jeremiah 32:6 Jeremiah said, "The word of the LORD came to me:

Jeremiah 32:7 Hanamel son of Shallum your uncle is going to come to you and say,`Buy my field at Anathoth, because as nearest relative it is your right and duty to buy it.'

Jeremiah 32:8 "Then, just as the LORD had said, my cousin Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the guard and said,`Buy my field at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin. Since it is your right to redeem it and possess it, buy it for yourself.' "I knew that this was the word of the LORD;

Jeremiah 32:9 so I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel and weighed out for him seventeen shekels of silver.

Jeremiah 32:10 I signed and sealed the deed, had it witnessed, and weighed out the silver on the scales.

Jeremiah 32:11 I took the deed of purchase—the sealed copy containing the terms and conditions, as well as the unsealed copy—

Jeremiah 32:12 and I gave this deed to Baruch son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my cousin Hanamel and of the witnesses who had signed the deed and of all the Jews sitting in the courtyard of the guard.

Jeremiah 32:13 "In their presence I gave Baruch these instructions:

Jeremiah 32:14 `This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Take these documents, both the sealed and unsealed copies of the deed of purchase, and put them in a clay jar so that they will last a long time.

Jeremiah 32:15 For this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Houses, fields and vineyards will again be bought in this land.'

Jeremiah 32:16 "After I had given the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD:

Jeremiah 32:17 "Ah, Sovereign LORD, you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and outstretched arm. Nothing is too hard for you.

Jeremiah 32:18 You show love to thousands but bring the punishment for the fathers' sins into the laps of their children after them. O great and powerful God, whose name is the LORD Almighty,

Jeremiah 32:19 great are your purposes and mighty are your deeds. Your eyes are open to all the ways of men; you reward everyone according to his conduct and as his deeds deserve.

Jeremiah 32:20 You performed miraculous signs and wonders in Egypt and have continued them to this day, both in Israel and among all mankind, and have gained the renown that is still yours.

Jeremiah 32:21 You brought your people Israel out of Egypt with signs and wonders, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with great terror.

Jeremiah 32:22 You gave them this land you had sworn to give to their forefathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Jeremiah 32:23 They came in and took possession of it, but they did not obey you or follow your law; they did not do what you commanded them to do. So you brought all this disaster upon them.

Jeremiah 32:24 "See how the siege ramps are built up to take the city. Because of the sword, famine and plague, the city will be handed over to the Babylonians who are attacking it. What you said has happened, as you now see.

Jeremiah 32:25 And though the city will be handed over to the Babylonians, you, O Sovereign LORD, say to me,`Buy the field with silver and have the transaction witnessed.'"

Jeremiah 32:26 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 32:27 "I am the LORD, the God of all mankind. Is anything too hard for me?

Jeremiah 32:28 Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I am about to hand this city over to the Babylonians and to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who will capture it.

Jeremiah 32:29 The Babylonians who are attacking this city will come in and set it on fire; they will burn it down, along with the houses where the people provoked me to anger by burning incense on the roofs to Baal and by pouring out drink offerings to other gods.

Jeremiah 32:30 "The people of Israel and Judah have done nothing but evil in my sight from their youth; indeed, the people of Israel have done nothing but provoke me with what their hands have made, declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 32:31 From the day it was built until now, this city has so aroused my anger and wrath that I must remove it from my sight.

Jeremiah 32:32 The people of Israel and Judah have provoked me by all the evil they have done—they, their kings and officials, their priests and prophets, the men of Judah and the people of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 32:33 They turned their backs to me and not their faces; though I taught them again and again, they would not listen or respond to discipline.

Jeremiah 32:34 They set up their abominable idols in the house that bears my Name and defiled it.

Jeremiah 32:35 They built high places for Baal in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to sacrifice their sons and daughters to Molech, though I never commanded, nor did it enter my mind, that they should do such a detestable thing and so make Judah sin.

Jeremiah 32:36 “You are saying about this city,`By the sword, famine and plague it will be handed over to the king of Babylon’; but this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:

Jeremiah 32:37 I will surely gather them from all the lands where I banish them in my furious anger and great wrath; I will bring them back to this place and let them live in safety.

Jeremiah 32:38 They will be my people, and I will be their God.

Jeremiah 32:39 I will give them singleness of heart and action, so that they will always fear me for their own good and the good of their children after them.

Jeremiah 32:40 I will make an everlasting covenant with them: I will never stop doing good to them, and I will inspire them to fear me, so that they will never turn away from me.

Jeremiah 32:41 I will rejoice in doing them good and will assuredly plant them in this land with all my heart and soul.

Jeremiah 32:42 “This is what the LORD says: As I have brought all this great calamity on this people, so I will give them all the prosperity I have promised them.

Jeremiah 32:43 Once more fields will be bought in this land of which you say,`It is a desolate waste, without men or animals, for it has been handed over to the Babylonians.’

Jeremiah 32:44 Fields will be bought for silver, and deeds will be signed, sealed and witnessed in the territory of Benjamin, in the villages around Jerusalem, in the towns of Judah and in the towns of the hill country, of the western foothills and of the Negev, because I will restore their fortunes, declares the LORD.”

Jeremiah 33:1 While Jeremiah was still confined in the courtyard of the guard, the word of the LORD came to him a second time:

Jeremiah 33:2 “This is what the LORD says, he who made the earth, the LORD who formed it and established it—the LORD is his name:

Jeremiah 33:3 `Call to me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know.’

Jeremiah 33:4 For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says about the houses in this city and the royal palaces of Judah that have been torn down to be used against the siege ramps and the sword

Jeremiah 33:5 in the fight with the Babylonians:`They will be filled with the dead bodies of the men I will slay in my anger and wrath. I will hide my face from this city because of all its wickedness.

Jeremiah 33:6 "`Nevertheless, I will bring health and healing to it; I will heal my people and will let them enjoy abundant peace and security.

Jeremiah 33:7 I will bring Judah and Israel back from captivity and will rebuild them as they were before.

Jeremiah 33:8 I will cleanse them from all the sin they have committed against me and will forgive all their sins of rebellion against me.

Jeremiah 33:9 Then this city will bring me renown, joy, praise and honour before all nations on earth that hear of all the good things I do for it; and they will be in awe and will tremble at the abundant prosperity and peace I provide for it.'

Jeremiah 33:10 "This is what the LORD says:`You say about this place, "It is a desolate waste, without men or animals." Yet in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem that are deserted, inhabited by neither men nor animals, there will be heard once more

Jeremiah 33:11 the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of bride and bridegroom, and the voices of those who bring thank-offerings to the house of the LORD, saying, "Give thanks to the LORD Almighty, for the LORD is good; his love endures for ever." For I will restore the fortunes of the land as they were before,' says the LORD.

Jeremiah 33:12 "This is what the LORD Almighty says:`In this place, desolate and without men or animals—in all its towns there will again be pastures for shepherds to rest their flocks.

Jeremiah 33:13 In the towns of the hill country, of the western foothills and of the Negev, in the territory of Benjamin, in the villages around Jerusalem and in the towns of Judah, flocks will again pass under the hand of the one who counts them,' says the LORD.

Jeremiah 33:14 "`The days are coming,' declares the LORD,`when I will fulfil the gracious promise I made to the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.

Jeremiah 33:15 "`In those days and at that time I will make a righteous Branch sprout from David's line; he will do what is just and right in the land.

Jeremiah 33:16 In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. This is the name by which it will be called: The LORD Our Righteousness.'

Jeremiah 33:17 For this is what the LORD says:`David will never fail to have a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel,

Jeremiah 33:18 nor will the priests, who are Levites, ever fail to have a man to stand before me continually to offer burnt offerings, to burn grain offerings and to present sacrifices.'"

Jeremiah 33:19 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 33:20 "This is what the LORD says:`If you can break my covenant with the day and my covenant with the night, so that day and night no longer come at their appointed time,

Jeremiah 33:21 then my covenant with David my servant—and my covenant with the Levites who are priests ministering before me—can be broken and David will no longer have a descendant to reign on his throne.

Jeremiah 33:22 I will make the descendants of David my servant and the Levites who minister before me as countless as the stars of the sky and as measureless as the sand on the seashore.'"

Jeremiah 33:23 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 33:24 "Have you not noticed that these people are saying,`The LORD has rejected the two kingdoms he chose'? So they despise my people and no longer regard them as a nation.

Jeremiah 33:25 This is what the LORD says:`If I have not established my covenant with day and night and the fixed laws of heaven and earth,

Jeremiah 33:26 then I will reject the descendants of Jacob and David my servant and will not choose one of his sons to rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes and have compassion on them.'"

Jeremiah 34:1 While Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army and all the kingdoms and peoples in the empire he ruled were fighting against Jerusalem and all its surrounding towns, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 34:2 "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Go to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him,`This is what the LORD says: I am about to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down.

Jeremiah 34:3 You will not escape from his grasp but will surely be captured and handed over to him. You will see the king of Babylon with your own eyes, and he will speak with you face to face. And you will go to Babylon.

Jeremiah 34:4 "`Yet hear the promise of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah. This is what the LORD says concerning you: You will not die by the sword;

Jeremiah 34:5 you will die peacefully. As people made a funeral fire in honour of your fathers, the former kings who preceded you, so they will make a fire in your honour and lament, “Alas, O master!” I myself make this promise, declares the LORD.’“

Jeremiah 34:6 Then Jeremiah the prophet told all this to Zedekiah king of Judah, in Jerusalem,

Jeremiah 34:7 while the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and the other cities of Judah that were still holding out—Lachish and Azekah. These were the only fortified cities left in Judah.

Jeremiah 34:8 The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem to proclaim freedom for the slaves.

Jeremiah 34:9 Everyone was to free his Hebrew slaves, both male and female; no-one was to hold a fellow Jew in bondage.

Jeremiah 34:10 So all the officials and people who entered into this covenant agreed that they would free their male and female slaves and no longer hold them in bondage. They agreed, and set them free.

Jeremiah 34:11 But afterwards they changed their minds and took back the slaves they had freed and enslaved them again.

Jeremiah 34:12 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 34:13 “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I made a covenant with your forefathers when I brought them out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery. I said,

Jeremiah 34:14 `Every seventh year each of you must free any fellow Hebrew who has sold himself to you. After he has served you for six years, you must let him go free.’ Your fathers, however, did not listen to me or pay attention to me.

Jeremiah 34:15 Recently you repented and did what is right in my sight: Each of you proclaimed freedom to his countrymen. You even made a covenant before me in the house that bears my Name.

Jeremiah 34:16 But now you have turned round and profaned my name; each of you has taken back the male and female slaves you had set free to go where they wished. You have forced them to become your slaves again.

Jeremiah 34:17 “Therefore, this is what the LORD says: You have not obeyed me; you have not proclaimed freedom for your fellow countrymen. So I now proclaim`freedom’ for you, declares the LORD—`freedom’ to fall by the sword, plague and famine. I will make you abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the earth.

Jeremiah 34:18 The men who have violated my covenant and have not fulfilled the terms of the covenant they made before me, I will treat like the calf they cut in two and then walked between its pieces.

Jeremiah 34:19 The leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the court officials, the priests and all the people of the land who walked between the pieces of the calf,

Jeremiah 34:20 I will hand over to their enemies who seek their lives. Their dead bodies will become food for the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth.

Jeremiah 34:21 “I will hand Zedekiah king of Judah and his officials over to their enemies who seek their lives, to the army of the king of Babylon, which has withdrawn from you.

Jeremiah 34:22 I am going to give the order, declares the LORD, and I will bring them back to this city. They will fight against it, take it and burn it down. And I will lay waste the towns of Judah so that no-one can live there.”

Jeremiah 35:1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD during the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah:

Jeremiah 35:2 “Go to the Recabite family and invite them to come to one of the side rooms of the house of the LORD and give them wine to drink.”

Jeremiah 35:3 So I went to get Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers and all his sons—the whole family of the Recabites.

Jeremiah 35:4 I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the room of the sons of Hanan son of Igdaliah the man of God. It was next to the room of the officials, which was over that of Maaseiah son of Shallum the door-keeper.

Jeremiah 35:5 Then I set bowls full of wine and some cups before the men of the Recabite family and said to them, “Drink some wine.”

Jeremiah 35:6 But they replied, “We do not drink wine, because our forefather Jonadab son of Recab gave us this command:`Neither you nor your descendants must ever drink wine.

Jeremiah 35:7 Also you must never build houses, sow seed or plant vineyards; you must never have any of these things, but must always live in tents. Then you will live a long time in the land where you are nomads.’

Jeremiah 35:8 We have obeyed everything our forefather Jonadab son of Recab commanded us. Neither we nor our wives nor our sons and daughters have ever drunk wine

Jeremiah 35:9 or built houses to live in or had vineyards, fields or crops.

Jeremiah 35:10 We have lived in tents and have fully obeyed everything our forefather Jonadab commanded us.

Jeremiah 35:11 But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon invaded this land, we said,`Come, we must go to Jerusalem to escape the Babylonian and Aramean armies.' So we have remained in Jerusalem."

Jeremiah 35:12 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying:

Jeremiah 35:13 "This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Go and tell the men of Judah and the people of Jerusalem,`Will you not learn a lesson and obey my words?' declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 35:14 `Jonadab son of Recab ordered his sons not to drink wine and this command has been kept. To this day they do not drink wine, because they obey their forefather's command. But I have spoken to you again and again, yet you have not obeyed me.

Jeremiah 35:15 Again and again I sent all my servants the prophets to you. They said, "Each of you must turn from your wicked ways and reform your actions; do not follow other gods to serve them. Then you shall live in the land I have given to you and your fathers." But you have not paid attention or listened to me.

Jeremiah 35:16 The descendants of Jonadab son of Recab have carried out the command their forefather gave them, but these people have not obeyed me.'

Jeremiah 35:17 "Therefore, this is what the LORD God Almighty, the God of Israel, says:`Listen! I am going to bring on Judah and on everyone living in Jerusalem every disaster I pronounced against them. I spoke to them, but they did not listen; I called to them, but they did not answer.'"

Jeremiah 35:18 Then Jeremiah said to the family of the Recabites, "This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says:`You have obeyed the command of your forefather Jonadab and have followed all his instructions and have done everything he ordered.'

Jeremiah 35:19 Therefore, this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says:`Jonadab son of Recab shall never fail to have a man to serve me.'"

Jeremiah 36:1 In the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Jeremiah 36:2 "Take a scroll and write on it all the words I have spoken to you concerning Israel, Judah and all the other nations from the time I began speaking to you in the reign of Josiah till now.

Jeremiah 36:3 Perhaps when the people of Judah hear about every disaster I plan to inflict on them, each of them will turn from his wicked way; then I will forgive their wickedness and their sin."

Jeremiah 36:4 So Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and while Jeremiah dictated all the words the LORD had spoken to him, Baruch wrote them on the scroll.

Jeremiah 36:5 Then Jeremiah told Baruch, “I am restricted; I cannot go to the LORD’s temple.

Jeremiah 36:6 So you go to the house of the LORD on a day of fasting and read to the people from the scroll the words of the LORD that you wrote as I dictated. Read them to all the people of Judah who come in from their towns.

Jeremiah 36:7 Perhaps they will bring their petition before the LORD, and each will turn from his wicked ways, for the anger and wrath pronounced against this people by the LORD are great.”

Jeremiah 36:8 Baruch son of Neriah did everything Jeremiah the prophet told him to do; at the LORD’s temple he read the words of the LORD from the scroll.

Jeremiah 36:9 In the ninth month of the fifth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, a time of fasting before the LORD was proclaimed for all the people in Jerusalem and those who had come from the towns of Judah.

Jeremiah 36:10 From the room of Gemariah son of Shaphan the secretary, which was in the upper courtyard at the entrance of the New Gate of the temple, Baruch read to all the people at the LORD’s temple the words of Jeremiah from the scroll.

Jeremiah 36:11 When Micaiah son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll,

Jeremiah 36:12 he went down to the secretary’s room in the royal palace, where all the officials were sitting: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Acbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials.

Jeremiah 36:13 After Micaiah told them everything he had heard Baruch read to the people from the scroll,

Jeremiah 36:14 all the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to say to Baruch, “Bring the scroll from which you have read to the people and come.” So Baruch son of Neriah went to them with the scroll in his hand.

Jeremiah 36:15 They said to him, “Sit down, please, and read it to us.” So Baruch read it to them.

Jeremiah 36:16 When they heard all these words, they looked at each other in fear and said to Baruch, “We must report all these words to the king.”

Jeremiah 36:17 Then they asked Baruch, “Tell us, how did you come to write all this? Did Jeremiah dictate it?”

Jeremiah 36:18 “Yes,” Baruch replied, “he dictated all these words to me, and I wrote them in ink on the scroll.”

Jeremiah 36:19 Then the officials said to Baruch, “You and Jeremiah, go and hide. Don’t let anyone know where you are.”

Jeremiah 36:20 After they put the scroll in the room of Elishama the secretary, they went to the king in the courtyard and reported everything to him.

Jeremiah 36:21 The king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and Jehudi brought it from the room of Elishama the secretary and read it to the king and all the officials standing beside him.

Jeremiah 36:22 It was the ninth month and the king was sitting in the winter apartment, with a fire burning in the brazier in front of him.

Jeremiah 36:23 Whenever Jehudi had read three or four columns of the scroll, the king cut them off with a scribe's knife and threw them into the brazier, until the entire scroll was burned in the fire.

Jeremiah 36:24 The king and all his attendants who heard all these words showed no fear, nor did they tear their clothes.

Jeremiah 36:25 Even though Elnathan, Delaiah and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them.

Jeremiah 36:26 Instead, the king commanded Jerahmeel, a son of the king, Seraiah son of Azriel and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet. But the LORD had hidden them.

Jeremiah 36:27 After the king burned the scroll containing the words that Baruch had written at Jeremiah's dictation, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 36:28 "Take another scroll and write on it all the words that were on the first scroll, which Jehoiakim king of Judah burned up.

Jeremiah 36:29 Also tell Jehoiakim king of Judah,`This is what the LORD says: You burned that scroll and said, "Why did you write on it that the king of Babylon would certainly come and destroy this land and cut off both men and animals from it?"

Jeremiah 36:30 Therefore, this is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have no-one to sit on the throne of David; his body will be thrown out and exposed to the heat by day and the frost by night.

Jeremiah 36:31 I will punish him and his children and his attendants for their wickedness; I will bring on them and those living in Jerusalem and the people of Judah every disaster I pronounced against them, because they have not listened.'"

Jeremiah 36:32 So Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to the scribe Baruch son of Neriah, and as Jeremiah dictated, Baruch wrote on it all the words of the scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. And many similar words were added to them.

Jeremiah 37:1 Zedekiah son of Josiah was made king of Judah by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; he reigned in place of Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim.

Jeremiah 37:2 Neither he nor his attendants nor the people of the land paid any attention to the words the LORD had spoken through Jeremiah the prophet.

Jeremiah 37:3 King Zedekiah, however, sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah with the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah to Jeremiah the prophet with this message: “Please pray to the LORD our God for us.”

Jeremiah 37:4 Now Jeremiah was free to come and go among the people, for he had not yet been put in prison.

Jeremiah 37:5 Pharaoh’s army had marched out of Egypt, and when the Babylonians who were besieging Jerusalem heard the report about them, they withdrew from Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 37:6 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet:

Jeremiah 37:7 “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Tell the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of me,`Pharaoh’s army, which has marched out to support you, will go back to its own land, to Egypt.

Jeremiah 37:8 Then the Babylonians will return and attack this city; they will capture it and burn it down.’

Jeremiah 37:9 “This is what the LORD says: Do not deceive yourselves, thinking,`The Babylonians will surely leave us.’ They will not!

Jeremiah 37:10 Even if you were to defeat the entire Babylonian army that is attacking you and only wounded men were left in their tents, they would come out and burn this city down.”

Jeremiah 37:11 After the Babylonian army had withdrawn from Jerusalem because of Pharaoh’s army,

Jeremiah 37:12 Jeremiah started to leave the city to go to the territory of Benjamin to get his share of the property among the people there.

Jeremiah 37:13 But when he reached the Benjamin Gate, the captain of the guard, whose name was Irijah son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah, arrested him and said, “You are deserting to the Babylonians!”

Jeremiah 37:14 “That’s not true!” Jeremiah said. “I am not deserting to the Babylonians.” But Irijah would not listen to him; instead, he arrested Jeremiah and brought him to the officials.

Jeremiah 37:15 They were angry with Jeremiah and had him beaten and imprisoned in the house of Jonathan the secretary, which they had made into a prison.

Jeremiah 37:16 Jeremiah was put into a vaulted cell in a dungeon, where he remained a long time.

Jeremiah 37:17 Then King Zedekiah sent for him and had him brought to the palace, where he asked him privately, “Is there any word from the LORD?” “Yes,” Jeremiah replied, “you will be handed over to the king of Babylon.”

Jeremiah 37:18 Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, “What crime have I committed against you or your officials or this people, that you have put me in prison?

Jeremiah 37:19 Where are your prophets who prophesied to you,`The king of Babylon will not attack you or this land’?

Jeremiah 37:20 But now, my lord the king, please listen. Let me bring my petition before you: Do not send me back to the house of Jonathan the secretary, or I shall die there.”

Jeremiah 37:21 King Zedekiah then gave orders for Jeremiah to be placed in the courtyard of the guard and given bread from the street of the bakers each day until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

Jeremiah 38:1 Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehucal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah heard what Jeremiah was telling all the people when he said,

Jeremiah 38:2 “This is what the LORD says:`Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine or plague, but whoever goes over to the Babylonians will live. He will escape with his life; he will live.’

Jeremiah 38:3 And this is what the LORD says:`This city will certainly be handed over to the army of the king of Babylon, who will capture it.’“

Jeremiah 38:4 Then the officials said to the king, “This man should be put to death. He is discouraging the soldiers who are left in this city, as well as all the people, by the things he is saying to them. This man is not seeking the good of these people but their ruin.”

Jeremiah 38:5 “He is in your hands,” King Zedekiah answered. “The king can do nothing to oppose you.”

Jeremiah 38:6 So they took Jeremiah and put him into the cistern of Malkijah, the king’s son, which was in the courtyard of the guard. They lowered Jeremiah by ropes into the cistern; it had no water in it, only mud, and Jeremiah sank down into the mud.

Jeremiah 38:7 But Ebed-Melech, a Cushite, an official in the royal palace, heard that they had put Jeremiah into the cistern. While the king was sitting in the Benjamin Gate,

Jeremiah 38:8 Ebed-Melech went out of the palace and said to him,

Jeremiah 38:9 “My lord the king, these men have acted wickedly in all they have done to Jeremiah the prophet. They have thrown him into a cistern, where he will starve to death when there is no longer any bread in the city.”

Jeremiah 38:10 Then the king commanded Ebed-Melech the Cushite, “Take thirty men from here with you and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the cistern before he dies.”

Jeremiah 38:11 So Ebed-Melech took the men with him and went to a room under the treasury in the palace. He took some old rags and worn-out clothes from there and let them down with ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern.

Jeremiah 38:12 Ebed-Melech the Cushite said to Jeremiah, “Put these old rags and worn-out clothes under your arms to pad the ropes.” Jeremiah did so,

Jeremiah 38:13 and they pulled him up with the ropes and lifted him out of the cistern. And Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

Jeremiah 38:14 Then King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah the prophet and had him brought to the third entrance to the temple of the LORD. “I am going to ask you something,” the king said to Jeremiah. “Do not hide anything from me.”

Jeremiah 38:15 Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “If I give you an answer, will you not kill me? Even if I did give you counsel, you would not listen to me.”

Jeremiah 38:16 But King Zedekiah swore this oath secretly to Jeremiah: “As surely as the LORD lives, who has given us breath, I will neither kill you nor hand you over to those who are seeking your life.”

Jeremiah 38:17 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “This is what the LORD God Almighty, the God of Israel, says:`If you surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, your life will be spared and this city will not be burned down; you and your family will live.

Jeremiah 38:18 But if you will not surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, this city will be handed over to the Babylonians and they will burn it down; you yourself will not escape from their hands.’“

Jeremiah 38:19 King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “I am afraid of the Jews who have gone over to the Babylonians, for the Babylonians may hand me over to them and they will ill-treat me.”

Jeremiah 38:20 “They will not hand you over,” Jeremiah replied. “Obey the LORD by doing what I tell you. Then it will go well with you, and your life will be spared.

Jeremiah 38:21 But if you refuse to surrender, this is what the LORD has revealed to me:

Jeremiah 38:22 All the women left in the palace of the king of Judah will be brought out to the officials of the king of Babylon. Those women will say to you: “`They misled you and overcame you— those trusted friends of yours. Your feet are sunk in the mud; your friends have deserted you.’

Jeremiah 38:23 “All your wives and children will be brought out to the Babylonians. You yourself will not escape from their hands but will be captured by the king of Babylon; and this city will be burned down.”

Jeremiah 38:24 Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “Do not let anyone know about this conversation, or you may die.

Jeremiah 38:25 If the officials hear that I talked with you, and they come to you and say,`Tell us what you said to the king and what the king said to you; do not hide it from us or we will kill you,’

Jeremiah 38:26 then tell them,`I was pleading with the king not to send me back to Jonathan’s house to die there.’“

Jeremiah 38:27 All the officials did come to Jeremiah and question him, and he told them everything the king had ordered him to say. So they said no more to him, for no-one had heard his conversation with the king.

Jeremiah 38:28 And Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard until the day Jerusalem was captured. This is how Jerusalem was taken:

Jeremiah 39:1 In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army and laid siege to it.

Jeremiah 39:2 And on the ninth day of the fourth month of Zedekiah’s eleventh year, the city wall was broken through.

Jeremiah 39:3 Then all the officials of the king of Babylon came and took seats in the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezer of Samgar, Nebo-Sarsekim a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer a high official and all the other officials of the king of Babylon.

Jeremiah 39:4 When Zedekiah king of Judah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled; they left the city at night by way of the king’s garden, through the gate between the two walls, and headed towards the Arabah.

Jeremiah 39:5 But the Babylonian army pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. They captured him and took him to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced sentence on him.

Jeremiah 39:6 There at Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes and also killed all the nobles of Judah.

Jeremiah 39:7 Then he put out Zedekiah’s eyes and bound him with bronze shackles to take him to Babylon.

Jeremiah 39:8 The Babylonians set fire to the royal palace and the houses of the people and broke down the walls of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 39:9 Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard carried into exile to Babylon the people who remained in the city, along with those who had gone over to him, and the rest of the people.

Jeremiah 39:10 But Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard left behind in the land of Judah some of the poor people, who owned nothing; and at that time he gave them vineyards and fields.

Jeremiah 39:11 Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had given these orders about Jeremiah through Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard:

Jeremiah 39:12 "Take him and look after him; don't harm him but do for him whatever he asks."

Jeremiah 39:13 So Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard, Nebushazban a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer a high official and all the other officers of the king of Babylon

Jeremiah 39:14 sent and had Jeremiah taken out of the courtyard of the guard. They handed him over to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to take him back to his home. So he remained among his own people.

Jeremiah 39:15 While Jeremiah had been confined in the courtyard of the guard, the word of the LORD came to him:

Jeremiah 39:16 "Go and tell Ebed-Melech the Cushite,`This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I am about to fulfil my words against this city through disaster, not prosperity. At that time they will be fulfilled before your eyes.

Jeremiah 39:17 But I will rescue you on that day, declares the LORD; you will not be handed over to those you fear.

Jeremiah 39:18 I will save you; you will not fall by the sword but will escape with your life, because you trust in me, declares the LORD.'"

Jeremiah 40:1 The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had released him at Ramah. He had found Jeremiah bound in chains among all the captives from Jerusalem and Judah who were being carried into exile to Babylon.

Jeremiah 40:2 When the commander of the guard found Jeremiah, he said to him, "The LORD your God decreed this disaster for this place.

Jeremiah 40:3 And now the LORD has brought it about; he has done just as he said he would. All this happened because you people sinned against the LORD and did not obey him.

Jeremiah 40:4 But today I am freeing you from the chains on your wrists. Come with me to Babylon, if you like, and I will look after you; but if you do not want to, then don't come. Look, the whole country lies before you; go wherever you please."

Jeremiah 40:5 However, before Jeremiah turned to go, Nebuzaradan added, "Go back to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the towns of Judah, and live with him among the people, or go anywhere else you please." Then the commander gave him provisions and a present and let him go.

Jeremiah 40:6 So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah and stayed with him among the people who were left behind in the land.

Jeremiah 40:7 When all the army officers and their men who were still in the open country heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam as governor over the land and had put him in charge of the men, women and children who were the poorest in the land and who had not been carried into exile to Babylon,

Jeremiah 40:8 they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, and their men.

Jeremiah 40:9 Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, took an oath to reassure them and their men. “Do not be afraid to serve the Babylonians,” he said. “Settle down in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you.

Jeremiah 40:10 I myself will stay in Mizpah to represent you before the Babylonians who come to us, but you are to harvest the wine, summer fruit and oil, and put them in your storage jars, and live in the towns you have taken over.”

Jeremiah 40:11 When all the Jews in Moab, Ammon, Edom and all the other countries heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, as governor over them,

Jeremiah 40:12 they all came back to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, from all the countries where they had been scattered. And they harvested an abundance of wine and summer fruit.

Jeremiah 40:13 Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers still in the open country came to Gedaliah at Mizpah

Jeremiah 40:14 and said to him, “Don’t you know that Baalis king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to take your life?” But Gedaliah son of Ahikam did not believe them.

Jeremiah 40:15 Then Johanan son of Kareah said privately to Gedaliah in Mizpah, “Let me go and kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and no-one will know it. Why should he take your life and cause all the Jews who are gathered around you to be scattered and the remnant of Judah to perish?”

Jeremiah 40:16 But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, “Don’t do such a thing! What you are saying about Ishmael is not true.”

Jeremiah 41:1 In the seventh month Ishmael son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, who was of royal blood and had been one of the king’s officers, came with ten men to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. While they were eating together there,

Jeremiah 41:2 Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the ten men who were with him got up and struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, killing the one whom the king of Babylon had appointed as governor over the land.

Jeremiah 41:3 Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, as well as the Babylonian soldiers who were there.

Jeremiah 41:4 The day after Gedaliah's assassination, before anyone knew about it,

Jeremiah 41:5 eighty men who had shaved off their beards, torn their clothes and cut themselves came from Shechem, Shiloh and Samaria, bringing grain offerings and incense with them to the house of the LORD.

Jeremiah 41:6 Ishmael son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went. When he met them, he said, "Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam."

Jeremiah 41:7 When they went into the city, Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the men who were with him slaughtered them and threw them into a cistern.

Jeremiah 41:8 But ten of them said to Ishmael, "Don't kill us! We have wheat and barley, oil and honey, hidden in a field." So he let them alone and did not kill them with the others.

Jeremiah 41:9 Now the cistern where he threw all the bodies of the men he had killed along with Gedaliah was the one King Asa had made as part of his defence against Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled it with the dead.

Jeremiah 41:10 Ishmael made captives of all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah—the king's daughters along with all the others who were left there, over whom Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael son of Nethaniah took them captive and set out to cross over to the Ammonites.

Jeremiah 41:11 When Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with him heard about all the crimes Ishmael son of Nethaniah had committed,

Jeremiah 41:12 they took all their men and went to fight Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They caught up with him near the great pool in Gibeon.

Jeremiah 41:13 When all the people Ishmael had with him saw Johanan son of Kareah and the army officers who were with him, they were glad.

Jeremiah 41:14 All the people Ishmael had taken captive at Mizpah turned and went over to Johanan son of Kareah.

Jeremiah 41:15 But Ishmael son of Nethaniah and eight of his men escaped from Johanan and fled to the Ammonites.

Jeremiah 41:16 Then Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with him led away all the survivors from Mizpah whom he had recovered from Ishmael son of Nethaniah after he had assassinated Gedaliah son of Ahikam: the soldiers, women, children and court officials he had brought from Gibeon.

Jeremiah 41:17 And they went on, stopping at Geruth Kimham near Bethlehem on their way to Egypt

Jeremiah 41:18 to escape the Babylonians. They were afraid of them because Ishmael son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed as governor over the land.

Jeremiah 42:1 Then all the army officers, including Johanan son of Kareah and Jezaniah son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest approached

Jeremiah 42:2 Jeremiah the prophet and said to him, “Please hear our petition and pray to the LORD your God for this entire remnant. For as you now see, though we were once many, now only a few are left.

Jeremiah 42:3 Pray that the LORD your God will tell us where we should go and what we should do.”

Jeremiah 42:4 “I have heard you,” replied Jeremiah the prophet. “I will certainly pray to the LORD your God as you have requested; I will tell you everything the LORD says and will keep nothing back from you.”

Jeremiah 42:5 Then they said to Jeremiah, “May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not act in accordance with everything the LORD your God sends you to tell us.

Jeremiah 42:6 Whether it is favourable or unfavourable, we will obey the LORD our God, to whom we are sending you, so that it will go well with us, for we will obey the LORD our God.”

Jeremiah 42:7 Ten days later the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah.

Jeremiah 42:8 So he called together Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with him and all the people from the least to the greatest.

Jeremiah 42:9 He said to them, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your petition, says:

Jeremiah 42:10 `If you stay in this land, I will build you up and not tear you down; I will plant you and not uproot you, for I am grieved over the disaster I have inflicted on you.

Jeremiah 42:11 Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, whom you now fear. Do not be afraid of him, declares the LORD, for I am with you and will save you and deliver you from his hands.

Jeremiah 42:12 I will show you compassion so that he will have compassion on you and restore you to your land.'

Jeremiah 42:13 "However, if you say,`We will not stay in this land,' and so disobey the LORD your God,

Jeremiah 42:14 and if you say,`No, we will go and live in Egypt, where we will not see war or hear the trumpet or be hungry for bread,'

Jeremiah 42:15 then hear the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah. This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says:`If you are determined to go to Egypt and you do go to settle there,

Jeremiah 42:16 then the sword you fear will overtake you there, and the famine you dread will follow you into Egypt, and there you will die.

Jeremiah 42:17 Indeed, all who are determined to go to Egypt to settle there will die by the sword, famine and plague; not one of them will survive or escape the disaster I will bring on them.'

Jeremiah 42:18 This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says:`As my anger and wrath have been poured out on those who lived in Jerusalem, so will my wrath be poured out on you when you go to Egypt. You will be an object of cursing and horror, of condemnation and reproach; you will never see this place again.'

Jeremiah 42:19 "O remnant of Judah, the LORD has told you,`Do not go to Egypt.' Be sure of this: I warn you today

Jeremiah 42:20 that you made a fatal mistake when you sent me to the LORD your God and said,`Pray to the LORD our God for us; tell us everything he says and we will do it.'

Jeremiah 42:21 I have told you today, but you still have not obeyed the LORD your God in all he sent me to tell you.

Jeremiah 42:22 So now, be sure of this: You will die by the sword, famine and plague in the place where you want to go to settle."

Jeremiah 43:1 When Jeremiah finished telling the people all the words of the LORD their God—everything the LORD had sent him to tell them—

Jeremiah 43:2 Azariah son of Hoshaiah and Johanan son of Kareah and all the arrogant men said to Jeremiah, "You are lying! The LORD our God has not sent you to say,`You must not go to Egypt to settle there.'

Jeremiah 43:3 But Baruch son of Neriah is inciting you against us to hand us over to the Babylonians, so that they may kill us or carry us into exile to Babylon."

Jeremiah 43:4 So Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers and all the people disobeyed the LORD's command to stay in the land of Judah.

Jeremiah 43:5 Instead, Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers led away all the remnant of Judah who had come back to live in the land of Judah from all the nations where they had been scattered.

Jeremiah 43:6 They also led away all the men, women and children and the king's daughters whom Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had left with Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah.

Jeremiah 43:7 So they entered Egypt in disobedience to the LORD and went as far as Tahpanhes.

Jeremiah 43:8 In Tahpanhes the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 43:9 "While the Jews are watching, take some large stones with you and bury them in clay in the brick pavement at the entrance to Pharaoh's palace in Tahpanhes.

Jeremiah 43:10 Then say to them,`This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I will send for my servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and I will set his throne over these stones I have buried here; he will spread his royal canopy above them.

Jeremiah 43:11 He will come and attack Egypt, bringing death to those destined for death, captivity to those destined for captivity, and the sword to those destined for the sword.

Jeremiah 43:12 He will set fire to the temples of the gods of Egypt; he will burn their temples and take their gods captive. As a shepherd wraps his garment round him, so will he wrap Egypt round himself and depart from there unscathed.

Jeremiah 43:13 There in the temple of the sun in Egypt he will demolish the sacred pillars and will burn down the temples of the gods of Egypt.'"

Jeremiah 44:1 This word came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews living in Lower Egypt—in Migdol, Tahpanhes and Memphis— and in Upper Egypt:

Jeremiah 44:2 "This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: You saw the great disaster I brought on Jerusalem and on all the towns of Judah. Today they lie deserted and in ruins

Jeremiah 44:3 because of the evil they have done. They provoked me to anger by burning incense and by worshipping other gods that neither they nor you nor your fathers ever knew.

Jeremiah 44:4 Again and again I sent my servants the prophets, who said,`Do not do this detestable thing that I hate!'

Jeremiah 44:5 But they did not listen or pay attention; they did not turn from their wickedness or stop burning incense to other gods.

Jeremiah 44:6 Therefore, my fierce anger was poured out; it raged against the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem and made them the desolate ruins they are today.

Jeremiah 44:7 “Now this is what the LORD God Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Why bring such great disaster on yourselves by cutting off from Judah the men and women, the children and infants, and so leave yourselves without a remnant?

Jeremiah 44:8 Why provoke me to anger with what your hands have made, burning incense to other gods in Egypt, where you have come to live? You will destroy yourselves and make yourselves an object of cursing and reproach among all the nations on earth.

Jeremiah 44:9 Have you forgotten the wickedness committed by your fathers and by the kings and queens of Judah and the wickedness committed by you and your wives in the land of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem?

Jeremiah 44:10 To this day they have not humbled themselves or shown reverence, nor have they followed my law and the decrees I set before you and your fathers.

Jeremiah 44:11 “Therefore, this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I am determined to bring disaster on you and to destroy all Judah.

Jeremiah 44:12 I will take away the remnant of Judah who were determined to go to Egypt to settle there. They will all perish in Egypt; they will fall by the sword or die from famine. From the least to the greatest, they will die by sword or famine. They will become an object of cursing and horror, of condemnation and reproach.

Jeremiah 44:13 I will punish those who live in Egypt with the sword, famine and plague, as I punished Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 44:14 None of the remnant of Judah who have gone to live in Egypt will escape or survive to return to the land of Judah, to which they long to return and live; none will return except a few fugitives.”

Jeremiah 44:15 Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, along with all the women who were present—a large assembly—and all the people living in Lower and Upper Egypt, said to Jeremiah,

Jeremiah 44:16 “We will not listen to the message you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD!

Jeremiah 44:17 We will certainly do everything we said we would: We will burn incense to the Queen of Heaven and will pour out drink offerings to her just as we and our fathers, our kings and our officials did in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. At that time we had plenty of food and were well off and suffered no harm.

Jeremiah 44:18 But ever since we stopped burning incense to the Queen of Heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have had nothing and have been perishing by sword and famine.”

Jeremiah 44:19 The women added, “When we burned incense to the Queen of Heaven and poured out drink offerings to her, did not our husbands know that we were making cakes like her image and pouring out drink offerings to her?”

Jeremiah 44:20 Then Jeremiah said to all the people, both men and women, who were answering him,

Jeremiah 44:21 “Did not the LORD remember and think about the incense burned in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem by you and your fathers, your kings and your officials and the people of the land?

Jeremiah 44:22 When the LORD could no longer endure your wicked actions and the detestable things you did, your land became an object of cursing and a desolate waste without inhabitants, as it is today.

Jeremiah 44:23 Because you have burned incense and have sinned against the LORD and have not obeyed him or followed his law or his decrees or his stipulations, this disaster has come upon you, as you now see.”

Jeremiah 44:24 Then Jeremiah said to all the people, including the women, “Hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah in Egypt.

Jeremiah 44:25 This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: You and your wives have shown by your actions what you promised when you said,`We will certainly carry out the vows we made to burn incense and pour out drink offerings to the Queen of Heaven.’ “Go ahead then, do what you promised! Keep your vows!

Jeremiah 44:26 But hear the word of the LORD, all Jews living in Egypt:`I swear by my great name,’ says the LORD,`that no-one from Judah living anywhere in Egypt shall ever again invoke my name or swear, “As surely as the Sovereign LORD lives.”

Jeremiah 44:27 For I am watching over them for harm, not for good; the Jews in Egypt will perish by sword and famine until they are all destroyed.

Jeremiah 44:28 Those who escape the sword and return to the land of Judah from Egypt will be very few. Then the whole remnant of Judah who came to live in Egypt will know whose word will stand— mine or theirs.

Jeremiah 44:29 “`This will be the sign to you that I will punish you in this place,’ declares the LORD,`so that you will know that my threats of harm against you will surely stand.’

Jeremiah 44:30 This is what the LORD says:`I am going to hand Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt over to his enemies who seek his life, just as I handed Zedekiah king of Judah over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the enemy who was seeking his life.'"

Jeremiah 45:1 This is what Jeremiah the prophet told Baruch son of Neriah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, after Baruch had written on a scroll the words Jeremiah was then dictating:

Jeremiah 45:2 "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch:

Jeremiah 45:3 You said,`Woe to me! The LORD has added sorrow to my pain; I am worn out with groaning and find no rest.'"

Jeremiah 45:4 [The LORD said,] "Say this to him:`This is what the LORD says: I will overthrow what I have built and uproot what I have planted, throughout the land.

Jeremiah 45:5 Should you then seek great things for yourself? Seek them not. For I will bring disaster on all people, declares the LORD, but wherever you go I will let you escape with your life.'"

Jeremiah 46:1 This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations:

Jeremiah 46:2 Concerning Egypt: This is the message against the army of Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt, which was defeated at Carchemish on the Euphrates River by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah:

Jeremiah 46:3 "Prepare your shields, both large and small, and march out for battle!

Jeremiah 46:4 Harness the horses, mount the steeds! Take your positions with helmets on! Polish your spears, put on your armour!

Jeremiah 46:5 What do I see? They are terrified, they are retreating, their warriors are defeated. They flee in haste without looking back, and there is terror on every side," declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 46:6 "The swift cannot flee nor the strong escape. In the north by the River Euphrates they stumble and fall.

Jeremiah 46:7 "Who is this that rises like the Nile, like rivers of surging waters?

Jeremiah 46:8 Egypt rises like the Nile, like rivers of surging waters. She says,`I will rise and cover the earth; I will destroy cities and their people.'

Jeremiah 46:9 Charge, O horses! Drive furiously, O charioteers! March on, O warriors—men of Cush and Put who carry shields, men of Lydia who draw the bow.

Jeremiah 46:10 But that day belongs to the Lord, the LORD Almighty—a day of vengeance, for vengeance on his foes. The sword will devour till it is satisfied, till it has quenched its thirst with blood. For the Lord, the LORD Almighty, will offer sacrifice in the land of the north by the River Euphrates.

Jeremiah 46:11 “Go up to Gilead and get balm, O Virgin Daughter of Egypt. But you multiply remedies in vain; there is no healing for you.

Jeremiah 46:12 The nations will hear of your shame; your cries will fill the earth. One warrior will stumble over another; both will fall down together.”

Jeremiah 46:13 This is the message the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about the coming of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to attack Egypt:

Jeremiah 46:14 “Announce this in Egypt, and proclaim it in Migdol; proclaim it also in Memphis and Tahpanhes:`Take your positions and get ready, for the sword devours those around you.’

Jeremiah 46:15 Why will your warriors be laid low? They cannot stand, for the LORD will push them down.

Jeremiah 46:16 They will stumble repeatedly; they will fall over each other. They will say,`Get up, let us go back to our own people and our native lands, away from the sword of the oppressor.’

Jeremiah 46:17 There they will exclaim,`Pharaoh king of Egypt is only a loud noise; he has missed his opportunity.’

Jeremiah 46:18 “As surely as I live,” declares the King, whose name is the LORD Almighty, “one will come who is like Tabor among the mountains, like Carmel by the sea.

Jeremiah 46:19 Pack your belongings for exile, you who live in Egypt, for Memphis will be laid waste and lie in ruins without inhabitant.

Jeremiah 46:20 “Egypt is a beautiful heifer, but a gadfly is coming against her from the north.

Jeremiah 46:21 The mercenaries in her ranks are like fattened calves. They too will turn and flee together, they will not stand their ground, for the day of disaster is coming upon them, the time for them to be punished.

Jeremiah 46:22 Egypt will hiss like a fleeing serpent as the enemy advances in force; they will come against her with axes, like men who cut down trees.

Jeremiah 46:23 They will chop down her forest,” declares the LORD, “dense though it be. They are more numerous than locusts, they cannot be counted.

Jeremiah 46:24 The Daughter of Egypt will be put to shame, handed over to the people of the north.”

Jeremiah 46:25 The LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “I am about to bring punishment on Amon god of Thebes, on Pharaoh, on Egypt and her gods and her kings, and on those who rely on Pharaoh.

Jeremiah 46:26 I will hand them over to those who seek their lives, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and his officers. Later, however, Egypt will be inhabited as in times past," declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 46:27 "Do not fear, O Jacob my servant; do not be dismayed, O Israel. I will surely save you out of a distant place, and your descendants from the land of their exile. Jacob will again have peace and security, and no-one will make him afraid.

Jeremiah 46:28 Do not fear, O Jacob my servant, for I am with you," declares the LORD. "Though I completely destroy all the nations among which I scatter you, I will not completely destroy you. I will discipline you but only with justice; I will not let you go entirely unpunished."

Jeremiah 47:1 This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines before Pharaoh attacked Gaza:

Jeremiah 47:2 This is what the LORD says: "See how the waters are rising in the north; they will become an overflowing torrent. They will overflow the land and everything in it, the towns and those who live in them. The people will cry out; all who dwell in the land will wail

Jeremiah 47:3 at the sound of the hoofs of galloping steeds, at the noise of enemy chariots and the rumble of their wheels. Fathers will not turn to help their children; their hands will hang limp.

Jeremiah 47:4 For the day has come to destroy all the Philistines and to cut off all survivors who could help Tyre and Sidon. The LORD is about to destroy the Philistines, the remnant from the coasts of Caphtor.

Jeremiah 47:5 Gaza will shave her head in mourning; Ashkelon will be silenced. O remnant on the plain, how long will you cut yourselves?

Jeremiah 47:6 "`Ah, sword of the LORD,' [you cry,]`how long till you rest? Return to your scabbard; cease and be still.'

Jeremiah 47:7 But how can it rest when the LORD has commanded it, when he has ordered it to attack Ashkelon and the coast?"

Jeremiah 48:1 Concerning Moab: This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: "Woe to Nebo, for it will be ruined. Kiriathaim will be disgraced and captured; the stronghold will be disgraced and shattered.

Jeremiah 48:2 Moab will be praised no more; in Heshbon men will plot her downfall:`Come, let us put an end to that nation.' You too, O Madmen, will be silenced; the sword will pursue you.

Jeremiah 48:3 Listen to the cries from Horonaim, cries of great havoc and destruction.

Jeremiah 48:4 Moab will be broken; her little ones will cry out.

Jeremiah 48:5 They go up the way to Luhith, weeping bitterly as they go; on the road down to Horonaim anguished cries over the destruction are heard.

Jeremiah 48:6 Flee! Run for your lives; become like a bush in the desert.

Jeremiah 48:7 Since you trust in your deeds and riches, you too will be taken captive, and Chemosh will go into exile, together with his priests and officials.

Jeremiah 48:8 The destroyer will come against every town, and not a town will escape. The valley will be ruined and the plateau destroyed, because the LORD has spoken.

Jeremiah 48:9 Put salt on Moab, for she will be laid waste; her towns will become desolate, with no-one to live in them.

Jeremiah 48:10 “A curse on him who is lax in doing the LORD’s work! A curse on him who keeps his sword from bloodshed!

Jeremiah 48:11 “Moab has been at rest from youth, like wine left on its dregs, not poured from one jar to another—she has not gone into exile. So she tastes as she did, and her aroma is unchanged.

Jeremiah 48:12 But days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will send men who pour from jars, and they will pour her out; they will empty her jars and smash her jugs.

Jeremiah 48:13 Then Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed when they trusted in Bethel.

Jeremiah 48:14 “How can you say,`We are warriors, men valiant in battle’?

Jeremiah 48:15 Moab will be destroyed and her towns invaded; her finest young men will go down in the slaughter,” declares the King, whose name is the LORD Almighty.

Jeremiah 48:16 “The fall of Moab is at hand; her calamity will come quickly.

Jeremiah 48:17 Mourn for her, all who live around her, all who know her fame; say,`How broken is the mighty sceptre, how broken the glorious staff!’

Jeremiah 48:18 “Come down from your glory and sit on the parched ground, O inhabitants of the Daughter of Dibon, for he who destroys Moab will come up against you and ruin your fortified cities.

Jeremiah 48:19 Stand by the road and watch, you who live in Aroer. Ask the man fleeing and the woman escaping, ask them,`What has happened?’

Jeremiah 48:20 Moab is disgraced, for she is shattered. Wail and cry out! Announce by the Arnon that Moab is destroyed.

Jeremiah 48:21 Judgment has come to the plateau—to Holon, Jahzah and Mephaath,

Jeremiah 48:22 to Dibon, Nebo and Beth Diblathaim,

Jeremiah 48:23 to Kiriathaim, Beth Gamul and Beth Meon, Jeremiah 48:24 to Kerioth and Bozrah—to all the towns of Moab, far and near.

Jeremiah 48:25 Moab's horn is cut off; her arm is broken," declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 48:26 "Make her drunk, for she has defied the LORD. Let Moab wallow in her vomit; let her be an object of ridicule.

Jeremiah 48:27 Was not Israel the object of your ridicule? Was she caught among thieves, that you shake your head in scorn whenever you speak of her?

Jeremiah 48:28 Abandon your towns and dwell among the rocks, you who live in Moab. Be like a dove that makes its nest at the mouth of a cave.

Jeremiah 48:29 "We have heard of Moab's pride—her overweening pride and conceit, her pride and arrogance and the haughtiness of her heart.

Jeremiah 48:30 I know her insolence but it is futile," declares the LORD, "and her boasts accomplish nothing.

Jeremiah 48:31 Therefore I wail over Moab, for all Moab I cry out, I moan for the men of Kir Hareseth.

Jeremiah 48:32 I weep for you, as Jazer weeps, O vines of Sibmah. Your branches spread as far as the sea; they reached as far as the sea of Jazer. The destroyer has fallen on your ripened fruit and grapes.

Jeremiah 48:33 Joy and gladness are gone from the orchards and fields of Moab. I have stopped the flow of wine from the presses; no-one treads them with shouts of joy. Although there are shouts, they are not shouts of joy.

Jeremiah 48:34 "The sound of their cry rises from Heshbon to Elealeh and Jahaz, from Zoar as far as Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah, for even the waters of Nimrim are dried up.

Jeremiah 48:35 In Moab I will put an end to those who make offerings on the high places and burn incense to their gods," declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 48:36 "So my heart laments for Moab like a flute; it laments like a flute for the men of Kir Hareseth. The wealth they acquired is gone.

Jeremiah 48:37 Every head is shaved and every beard cut off; every hand is slashed and every waist is covered with sackcloth.

Jeremiah 48:38 On all the roofs in Moab and in the public squares there is nothing but mourning, for I have broken Moab like a jar that no-one wants," declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 48:39 “How shattered she is! How they wail! How Moab turns her back in shame! Moab has become an object of ridicule, an object of horror to all those around her.”

Jeremiah 48:40 This is what the LORD says: “Look! An eagle is swooping down, spreading its wings over Moab.

Jeremiah 48:41 Kerioth will be captured and the strongholds taken. In that day the hearts of Moab’s warriors will be like the heart of a woman in labour.

Jeremiah 48:42 Moab will be destroyed as a nation because she defied the LORD.

Jeremiah 48:43 Terror and pit and snare await you, O people of Moab,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 48:44 “Whoever flees from the terror will fall into a pit, whoever climbs out of the pit will be caught in a snare; for I will bring upon Moab the year of her punishment,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 48:45 “In the shadow of Heshbon the fugitives stand helpless, for a fire has gone out from Heshbon, a blaze from the midst of Sihon; it burns the foreheads of Moab, the skulls of the noisy boasters.

Jeremiah 48:46 Woe to you, O Moab! The people of Chemosh are destroyed; your sons are taken into exile and your daughters into captivity.

Jeremiah 48:47 “Yet I will restore the fortunes of Moab in days to come,” declares the LORD. Here ends the judgment on Moab.

Jeremiah 49:1 Concerning the Ammonites: This is what the LORD says: “Has Israel no sons? Has she no heirs? Why then has Molech taken possession of Gad? Why do his people live in its towns?

Jeremiah 49:2 But the days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will sound the battle cry against Rabbah of the Ammonites; it will become a mound of ruins, and its surrounding villages will be set on fire. Then Israel will drive out those who drove her out,” says the LORD.

Jeremiah 49:3 “Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is destroyed! Cry out, O inhabitants of Rabbah! Put on sackcloth and mourn; rush here and there inside the walls, for Molech will go into exile, together with his priests and officials.

Jeremiah 49:4 Why do you boast of your valleys, boast of your valleys so fruitful? O unfaithful daughter, you trust in your riches and say,`Who will attack me?’

Jeremiah 49:5 I will bring terror on you from all those around you,” declares the Lord, the LORD Almighty. “Every one of you will be driven away, and no-one will gather the fugitives.

Jeremiah 49:6 “Yet afterwards, I will restore the fortunes of the Ammonites,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 49:7 Concerning Edom: This is what the LORD Almighty says: “Is there no longer wisdom in Teman? Has counsel perished from the prudent? Has their wisdom decayed?

Jeremiah 49:8 Turn and flee, hide in deep caves, you who live in Dedan, for I will bring disaster on Esau at the time I punish him.

Jeremiah 49:9 If grape-pickers came to you, would they not leave a few grapes? If thieves came during the night, would they not steal only as much as they wanted?

Jeremiah 49:10 But I will strip Esau bare; I will uncover his hiding-places, so that he cannot conceal himself. His children, relatives and neighbours will perish, and he will be no more.

Jeremiah 49:11 Leave your orphans; I will protect their lives. Your widows too can trust in me.”

Jeremiah 49:12 This is what the LORD says: “If those who do not deserve to drink the cup must drink it, why should you go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, but must drink it.

Jeremiah 49:13 I swear by myself,” declares the LORD, “that Bozrah will become a ruin and an object of horror, of reproach and of cursing; and all its towns will be in ruins for ever.”

Jeremiah 49:14 I have heard a message from the LORD: An envoy was sent to the nations to say, “Assemble yourselves to attack it! Rise up for battle!”

Jeremiah 49:15 “Now I will make you small among the nations, despised among men.

Jeremiah 49:16 The terror you inspire and the pride of your heart have deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rocks, who occupy the heights of the hill. Though you build your nest as high as the eagle’s, from there I will bring you down,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 49:17 “Edom will become an object of horror; all who pass by will be appalled and will scoff because of all its wounds.

Jeremiah 49:18 As Sodom and Gomorrah were overthrown, along with their neighbouring towns,” says the LORD, “so no-one will live there; no man will dwell in it.

Jeremiah 49:19 “Like a lion coming up from Jordan’s thickets to a rich pasture-land, I will chase Edom from its land in an instant. Who is the chosen one I will appoint for this? Who is like me and who can challenge me? And what shepherd can stand against me?”

Jeremiah 49:20 Therefore, hear what the LORD has planned against Edom, what he has purposed against those who live in Teman: The young of the flock will be dragged away; he will completely destroy their pasture because of them.

Jeremiah 49:21 At the sound of their fall the earth will tremble; their cry will resound to the Red Sea.

Jeremiah 49:22 Look! An eagle will soar and swoop down, spreading its wings over Bozrah. In that day the hearts of Edom's warriors will be like the heart of a woman in labour.

Jeremiah 49:23 Concerning Damascus: "Hamath and Arpad are dismayed, for they have heard bad news. They are disheartened, troubled like the restless sea.

Jeremiah 49:24 Damascus has become feeble, she has turned to flee and panic has gripped her; anguish and pain have seized her, pain like that of a woman in labour.

Jeremiah 49:25 Why has the city of renown not been abandoned, the town in which I delight?

Jeremiah 49:26 Surely, her young men will fall in the streets; all her soldiers will be silenced in that day," declares the LORD Almighty.

Jeremiah 49:27 "I will set fire to the walls of Damascus; it will consume the fortresses of Ben-Hadad."

Jeremiah 49:28 Concerning Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked: This is what the LORD says: "Arise, and attack Kedar and destroy the people of the East.

Jeremiah 49:29 Their tents and their flocks will be taken; their shelters will be carried off with all their goods and camels. Men will shout to them,`Terror on every side!'

Jeremiah 49:30 "Flee quickly away! Stay in deep caves, you who live in Hazor," declares the LORD. "Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has plotted against you; he has devised a plan against you.

Jeremiah 49:31 "Arise and attack a nation at ease, which lives in confidence," declares the LORD, "a nation that has neither gates nor bars; its people live alone.

Jeremiah 49:32 Their camels will become plunder, and their large herds will be booty. I will scatter to the winds those who are in distant places and will bring disaster on them from every side," declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 49:33 "Hazor will become a haunt of jackals, a desolate place for ever. No-one will live there; no man will dwell in it."

Jeremiah 49:34 This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, early in the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah:

Jeremiah 49:35 This is what the LORD Almighty says: "See, I will break the bow of Elam, the mainstay of their might.

Jeremiah 49:36 I will bring against Elam the four winds from the four quarters of the heavens; I will scatter them to the four winds, and there will not be a nation where Elam's exiles do not go.

Jeremiah 49:37 I will shatter Elam before their foes, before those who seek their lives; I will bring disaster upon them, even my fierce anger," declares the LORD. "I will pursue them with the sword until I have made an end of them.

Jeremiah 49:38 I will set my throne in Elam and destroy her king and officials," declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 49:39 "Yet I will restore the fortunes of Elam in days to come," declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 50:1 This is the word the LORD spoke through Jeremiah the prophet concerning Babylon and the land of the Babylonians:

Jeremiah 50:2 "Announce and proclaim among the nations, lift up a banner and proclaim it; keep nothing back, but say,`Babylon will be captured; Bel will be put to shame, Marduk filled with terror. Her images will be put to shame and her idols filled with terror.'

Jeremiah 50:3 A nation from the north will attack her and lay waste her land. No-one will live in it; both men and animals will flee away.

Jeremiah 50:4 "In those days, at that time," declares the LORD, "the people of Israel and the people of Judah together will go in tears to seek the LORD their God.

Jeremiah 50:5 They will ask the way to Zion and turn their faces towards it. They will come and bind themselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten.

Jeremiah 50:6 "My people have been lost sheep; their shepherds have led them astray and caused them to roam on the mountains. They wandered over mountain and hill and forgot their own resting place.

Jeremiah 50:7 Whoever found them devoured them; their enemies said,`We are not guilty, for they sinned against the LORD, their true pasture, the LORD, the hope of their fathers.'

Jeremiah 50:8 "Flee out of Babylon; leave the land of the Babylonians, and be like the goats that lead the flock.

Jeremiah 50:9 For I will stir up and bring against Babylon an alliance of great nations from the land of the north. They will take up their positions against her, and from the north she will be captured. Their arrows will be like skilled warriors who do not return empty-handed.

Jeremiah 50:10 So Babylonia will be plundered; all who plunder her will have their fill," declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 50:11 "Because you rejoice and are glad, you who pillage my inheritance, because you frolic like a heifer threshing corn and neigh like stallions,

Jeremiah 50:12 your mother will be greatly ashamed; she who gave you birth will be disgraced. She will be the least of the nations— a wilderness, a dry land, a desert.

Jeremiah 50:13 Because of the LORD’s anger she will not be inhabited but will be completely desolate. All who pass Babylon will be horrified and scoff because of all her wounds.

Jeremiah 50:14 “Take up your positions round Babylon, all you who draw the bow. Shoot at her! Spare no arrows, for she has sinned against the LORD.

Jeremiah 50:15 Shout against her on every side! She surrenders, her towers fall, her walls are torn down. Since this is the vengeance of the LORD, take vengeance on her; do to her as she has done to others.

Jeremiah 50:16 Cut off from Babylon the sower, and the reaper with his sickle at harvest. Because of the sword of the oppressor let everyone return to his own people, let everyone flee to his own land.

Jeremiah 50:17 “Israel is a scattered flock that lions have chased away. The first to devour him was the king of Assyria; the last to crush his bones was Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.”

Jeremiah 50:18 Therefore this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “I will punish the king of Babylon and his land as I punished the king of Assyria.

Jeremiah 50:19 But I will bring Israel back to his own pasture and he will graze on Carmel and Bashan; his appetite will be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and Gilead.

Jeremiah 50:20 In those days, at that time,” declares the LORD, “search will be made for Israel’s guilt, but there will be none, and for the sins of Judah, but none will be found, for I will forgive the remnant I spare.

Jeremiah 50:21 “Attack the land of Merathaim and those who live in Pekod. Pursue, kill and completely destroy them,” declares the LORD. “Do everything I have commanded you.

Jeremiah 50:22 The noise of battle is in the land, the noise of great destruction!

Jeremiah 50:23 How broken and shattered is the hammer of the whole earth! How desolate is Babylon among the nations!

Jeremiah 50:24 I set a trap for you, O Babylon, and you were caught before you knew it; you were found and captured because you opposed the LORD.

Jeremiah 50:25 The LORD has opened his arsenal and brought out the weapons of his wrath, for the Sovereign LORD Almighty has work to do in the land of the Babylonians.

Jeremiah 50:26 Come against her from afar. Break open her granaries; pile her up like heaps of grain. Completely destroy her and leave her no remnant.

Jeremiah 50:27 Kill all her young bulls; let them go down to the slaughter! Woe to them! For their day has come, the time for them to be punished.

Jeremiah 50:28 Listen to the fugitives and refugees from Babylon declaring in Zion how the LORD our God has taken vengeance, vengeance for his temple.

Jeremiah 50:29 “Summon archers against Babylon, all those who draw the bow. Encamp all round her; let no-one escape. Repay her for her deeds; do to her as she has done. For she defied the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

Jeremiah 50:30 Therefore, her young men will fall in the streets; all her soldiers will be silenced in that day,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 50:31 “See, I am against you, O arrogant one,” declares the Lord, the LORD Almighty, “for your day has come, the time for you to be punished.

Jeremiah 50:32 The arrogant one will stumble and fall and no-one will help her up; I will kindle a fire in her towns that will consume all who are around her.”

Jeremiah 50:33 This is what the LORD Almighty says: “The people of Israel are oppressed, and the people of Judah as well. All their captors hold them fast, refusing to let them go.

Jeremiah 50:34 Yet their Redeemer is strong; the LORD Almighty is his name. He will vigorously defend their cause so that he may bring rest to their land, but unrest to those who live in Babylon.

Jeremiah 50:35 “A sword against the Babylonians!” declares the LORD— “against those who live in Babylon and against her officials and wise men!

Jeremiah 50:36 A sword against her false prophets! They will become fools. A sword against her warriors! They will be filled with terror.

Jeremiah 50:37 A sword against her horses and chariots and all the foreigners in her ranks! They will become women. A sword against her treasures! They will be plundered.

Jeremiah 50:38 A drought on her waters! They will dry up. For it is a land of idols, idols that will go mad with terror.

Jeremiah 50:39 “So desert creatures and hyenas will live there, and there the owl will dwell. It will never again be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation.

Jeremiah 50:40 As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah along with their neighbouring towns,” declares the LORD, “so no-one will live there; no man will dwell in it.

Jeremiah 50:41 “Look! An army is coming from the north; a great nation and many kings are being stirred up from the ends of the earth.

Jeremiah 50:42 They are armed with bows and spears; they are cruel and without mercy. They sound like the roaring sea as they ride on their horses; they come like men in battle formation to attack you, O Daughter of Babylon.

Jeremiah 50:43 The king of Babylon has heard reports about them, and his hands hang limp. Anguish has gripped him, pain like that of a woman in labour.

Jeremiah 50:44 Like a lion coming up from Jordan's thickets to a rich pasture-land, I will chase Babylon from its land in an instant. Who is the chosen one I will appoint for this? Who is like me and who can challenge me? And what shepherd can stand against me?"

Jeremiah 50:45 Therefore, hear what the LORD has planned against Babylon, what he has purposed against the land of the Babylonians: The young of the flock will be dragged away; he will completely destroy their pasture because of them.

Jeremiah 50:46 At the sound of Babylon's capture the earth will tremble; its cry will resound among the nations.

Jeremiah 51:1 This is what the LORD says: "See, I will stir up the spirit of a destroyer against Babylon and the people of Leb Kamai.

Jeremiah 51:2 I will send foreigners to Babylon to winnow her and to devastate her land; they will oppose her on every side in the day of her disaster.

Jeremiah 51:3 Let not the archer string his bow, nor let him put on his armour. Do not spare her young men; completely destroy her army.

Jeremiah 51:4 They will fall down slain in Babylon, fatally wounded in her streets.

Jeremiah 51:5 For Israel and Judah have not been forsaken by their God, the LORD Almighty, though their land is full of guilt before the Holy One of Israel.

Jeremiah 51:6 "Flee from Babylon! Run for your lives! Do not be destroyed because of her sins. It is time for the LORD's vengeance; he will pay her what she deserves.

Jeremiah 51:7 Babylon was a gold cup in the LORD's hand; she made the whole earth drunk. The nations drank her wine; therefore they have now gone mad.

Jeremiah 51:8 Babylon will suddenly fall and be broken. Wail over her! Get balm for her pain; perhaps she can be healed.

Jeremiah 51:9 "`We would have healed Babylon, but she cannot be healed; let us leave her and each go to his own land, for her judgment reaches to the skies, it rises as high as the clouds.'

Jeremiah 51:10 "`The LORD has vindicated us; come, let us tell in Zion what the LORD our God has done.'

Jeremiah 51:11 “Sharpen the arrows, take up the shields! The LORD has stirred up the kings of the Medes, because his purpose is to destroy Babylon. The LORD will take vengeance, vengeance for his temple.

Jeremiah 51:12 Lift up a banner against the walls of Babylon! Reinforce the guard, station the watchmen, prepare an ambush! The LORD will carry out his purpose, his decree against the people of Babylon.

Jeremiah 51:13 You who live by many waters and are rich in treasures, your end has come, the time for you to be cut off.

Jeremiah 51:14 The LORD Almighty has sworn by himself: I will surely fill you with men, as with a swarm of locusts, and they will shout in triumph over you.

Jeremiah 51:15 “He made the earth by his power; he founded the world by his wisdom and stretched out the heavens by his understanding.

Jeremiah 51:16 When he thunders, the waters in the heavens roar; he makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth. He sends lightning with the rain and brings out the wind from his storehouses.

Jeremiah 51:17 “Every man is senseless and without knowledge; every goldsmith is shamed by his idols. His images are a fraud; they have no breath in them.

Jeremiah 51:18 They are worthless, the objects of mockery; when their judgment comes, they will perish.

Jeremiah 51:19 He who is the Portion of Jacob is not like these, for he is the Maker of all things, including the tribe of his inheritance—the LORD Almighty is his name.

Jeremiah 51:20 “You are my war club, my weapon for battle—with you I shatter nations, with you I destroy kingdoms,

Jeremiah 51:21 with you I shatter horse and rider, with you I shatter chariot and driver,

Jeremiah 51:22 with you I shatter man and woman, with you I shatter old man and youth, with you I shatter young man and maiden,

Jeremiah 51:23 with you I shatter shepherd and flock, with you I shatter farmer and oxen, with you I shatter governors and officials.

Jeremiah 51:24 “Before your eyes I will repay Babylon and all who live in Babylonia for all the wrong they have done in Zion,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 51:25 “I am against you, O destroying mountain, you who destroy the whole earth,” declares the LORD. “I will stretch out my hand against you, roll you off the cliffs, and make you a burnt-out mountain.

Jeremiah 51:26 No rock will be taken from you for a cornerstone, nor any stone for a foundation, for you will be desolate for ever,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 51:27 “Lift up a banner in the land! Blow the trumpet among the nations! Prepare the nations for battle against her; summon against her these kingdoms: Ararat, Minni and Ashkenaz. Appoint a commander against her; send up horses like a swarm of locusts.

Jeremiah 51:28 Prepare the nations for battle against her—the kings of the Medes, their governors and all their officials, and all the countries they rule.

Jeremiah 51:29 The land trembles and writhes, for the LORD’s purposes against Babylon stand—to lay waste the land of Babylon so that no-one will live there.

Jeremiah 51:30 Babylon’s warriors have stopped fighting; they remain in their strongholds. Their strength is exhausted; they have become like women. Her dwellings are set on fire; the bars of her gates are broken.

Jeremiah 51:31 One courier follows another and messenger follows messenger to announce to the king of Babylon that his entire city is captured,

Jeremiah 51:32 the river crossings seized, the marshes set on fire, and the soldiers terrified.”

Jeremiah 51:33 This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “The Daughter of Babylon is like a threshing-floor at the time it is trampled; the time to harvest her will soon come.”

Jeremiah 51:34 “Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has devoured us, he has thrown us into confusion, he has made us an empty jar. Like a serpent he has swallowed us and filled his stomach with our delicacies, and then has spewed us out.

Jeremiah 51:35 May the violence done to our flesh be upon Babylon,” say the inhabitants of Zion. “May our blood be on those who live in Babylonia,” says Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 51:36 Therefore, this is what the LORD says: “See, I will defend your cause and avenge you; I will dry up her sea and make her springs dry.

Jeremiah 51:37 Babylon will be a heap of ruins, a haunt of jackals, an object of horror and scorn, a place where no-one lives.

Jeremiah 51:38 Her people all roar like young lions, they growl like lion cubs.

Jeremiah 51:39 But while they are aroused, I will set out a feast for them and make them drunk, so that they shout with laughter— then sleep for ever and not awake,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 51:40 “I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams and goats.

Jeremiah 51:41 “How Sheshach will be captured, the boast of the whole earth seized! What a horror Babylon will be among the nations!

Jeremiah 51:42 The sea will rise over Babylon; its roaring waves will cover her.

Jeremiah 51:43 Her towns will be desolate, a dry and desert land, a land where no-one lives, through which no man travels.

Jeremiah 51:44 I will punish Bel in Babylon and make him spew out what he has swallowed. The nations will no longer stream to him. And the wall of Babylon will fall.

Jeremiah 51:45 “Come out of her, my people! Run for your lives! Run from the fierce anger of the LORD.

Jeremiah 51:46 Do not lose heart or be afraid when rumours are heard in the land; one rumour comes this year, another the next, rumours of violence in the land and of ruler against ruler.

Jeremiah 51:47 For the time will surely come when I will punish the idols of Babylon; her whole land will be disgraced and her slain will all lie fallen within her.

Jeremiah 51:48 Then heaven and earth and all that is in them will shout for joy over Babylon, for out of the north destroyers will attack her,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 51:49 “Babylon must fall because of Israel’s slain, just as the slain in all the earth have fallen because of Babylon.

Jeremiah 51:50 You who have escaped the sword, leave and do not linger! Remember the LORD in a distant land, and think on Jerusalem.”

Jeremiah 51:51 “We are disgraced, for we have been insulted and shame covers our faces, because foreigners have entered the holy places of the LORD’s house.”

Jeremiah 51:52 “But days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will punish her idols, and throughout her land the wounded will groan.

Jeremiah 51:53 Even if Babylon reaches the sky and fortifies her lofty stronghold, I will send destroyers against her,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah 51:54 “The sound of a cry comes from Babylon, the sound of great destruction from the land of the Babylonians.

Jeremiah 51:55 The LORD will destroy Babylon; he will silence her noisy din. Waves [of enemies] will rage like great waters; the roar of their voices will resound.

Jeremiah 51:56 A destroyer will come against Babylon; her warriors will be captured, and their bows will be broken. For the LORD is a God of retribution; he will repay in full.

Jeremiah 51:57 I will make her officials and wise men drunk, her governors, officers and warriors as well; they will sleep for ever and not awake," declares the King, whose name is the LORD Almighty.

Jeremiah 51:58 This is what the LORD Almighty says: "Babylon's thick wall will be levelled and her high gates set on fire; the peoples exhaust themselves for nothing, the nations' labour is only fuel for the flames."

Jeremiah 51:59 This is the message Jeremiah gave to the staff officer Seraiah son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went to Babylon with Zedekiah king of Judah in the fourth year of his reign.

Jeremiah 51:60 Jeremiah had written on a scroll about all the disasters that would come upon Babylon—all that had been recorded concerning Babylon.

Jeremiah 51:61 He said to Seraiah, "When you get to Babylon, see that you read all these words aloud.

Jeremiah 51:62 Then say,`O LORD, you have said you will destroy this place, so that neither man nor animal will live in it; it will be desolate for ever.'

Jeremiah 51:63 When you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the Euphrates.

Jeremiah 51:64 Then say,`So will Babylon sink to rise no more because of the disaster I will bring upon her. And her people will fall.'" The words of Jeremiah end here.

Jeremiah 52:1 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah.

Jeremiah 52:2 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done.

Jeremiah 52:3 It was because of the LORD's anger that all this happened to Jerusalem and Judah, and in the end he thrust them from his presence. Now Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

Jeremiah 52:4 So in the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. They camped outside the city and built siege works all around it.

Jeremiah 52:5 The city was kept under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

Jeremiah 52:6 By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine in the city had become so severe that there was no food for the people to eat.

Jeremiah 52:7 Then the city wall was broken through, and the whole army fled. They left the city at night through the gate between the two walls near the king's garden, though the Babylonians were surrounding the city. They fled towards the Arabah,

Jeremiah 52:8 but the Babylonian army pursued King Zedekiah and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his soldiers were separated from him and scattered,

Jeremiah 52:9 and he was captured. He was taken to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced sentence on him.

Jeremiah 52:10 There at Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes; he also killed all the officials of Judah.

Jeremiah 52:11 Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him with bronze shackles and took him to Babylon, where he put him in prison till the day of his death.

Jeremiah 52:12 On the tenth day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard, who served the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 52:13 He set fire to the temple of the LORD, the royal palace and all the houses of Jerusalem. Every important building he burned down.

Jeremiah 52:14 The whole Babylonian army under the commander of the imperial guard broke down all the walls around Jerusalem.

Jeremiah 52:15 Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard carried into exile some of the poorest people and those who remained in the city, along with the rest of the craftsmen and those who had gone over to the king of Babylon.

Jeremiah 52:16 But Nebuzaradan left behind the rest of the poorest people of the land to work the vineyards and fields.

Jeremiah 52:17 The Babylonians broke up the bronze pillars, the movable stands and the bronze Sea that were at the temple of the LORD and they carried all the bronze to Babylon.

Jeremiah 52:18 They also took away the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, dishes and all the bronze articles used in the temple service.

Jeremiah 52:19 The commander of the imperial guard took away the basins, censers, sprinkling bowls, pots, lampstands, dishes and bowls used for drink offerings—all that were made of pure gold or silver.

Jeremiah 52:20 The bronze from the two pillars, the Sea and the twelve bronze bulls under it, and the movable stands, which King Solomon had made for the temple of the LORD, was more than could be weighed.

Jeremiah 52:21 Each of the pillars was eighteen cubits high and twelve cubits in circumference; each was four fingers thick, and hollow.

Jeremiah 52:22 The bronze capital on the top of the one pillar was five cubits high and was decorated with a network and pomegranates of bronze all around. The other pillar, with its pomegranates, was similar.

Jeremiah 52:23 There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; the total number of pomegranates above the surrounding network was a hundred.

Jeremiah 52:24 The commander of the guard took as prisoners Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest next in rank and the three doorkeepers.

Jeremiah 52:25 Of those still in the city, he took the officer in charge of the fighting men, and seven royal advisers. He also took the secretary who was chief officer in charge of conscripting the people of the land and sixty of his men who were found in the city.

Jeremiah 52:26 Nebuzaradan the commander took them all and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

Jeremiah 52:27 There at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, the king had them executed. So Judah went into captivity, away from her land.

Jeremiah 52:28 This is the number of the people Nebuchadnezzar carried into exile: in the seventh year, 3,023 Jews;

Jeremiah 52:29 in Nebuchadnezzar’s eighteenth year, 832 people from Jerusalem;

Jeremiah 52:30 in his twenty-third year, 745 Jews taken into exile by Nebuzaradan the commander of the imperial guard. There were 4,600 people in all.

Jeremiah 52:31 In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the year Evil-Merodach became king of Babylon, he released Jehoiachin king of Judah and freed him from prison on the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month.

Jeremiah 52:32 He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat of honour higher than those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.

Jeremiah 52:33 So Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes and for the rest of his life ate regularly at the king’s table.

Jeremiah 52:34 Day by day the king of Babylon gave Jehoiachin a regular allowance as long as he lived, till the day of his death.

Lamentations

1:1 How deserted lies the city, once so full of people! How like a widow is she, who once was great among the nations! She who was queen among the provinces has now become a slave.

Lamentations 1:2 Bitterly she weeps at night, tears are upon her cheeks. Among all her lovers there is none to comfort her. All her friends have betrayed her; they have become her enemies.

Lamentations 1:3 After affliction and harsh labour, Judah has gone into exile. She dwells among the nations; she finds no resting place. All who pursue her have overtaken her in the midst of her distress.

Lamentations 1:4 The roads to Zion mourn, for no-one comes to her appointed feasts. All her gateways are desolate, her priests groan, her maidens grieve, and she is in bitter anguish.

Lamentations 1:5 Her foes have become her masters; her enemies are at ease. The LORD has brought her grief because of her many sins. Her children have gone into exile, captive before the foe.

Lamentations 1:6 All the splendour has departed from the Daughter of Zion. Her princes are like deer that find no pasture; in weakness they have fled before the pursuer.

Lamentations 1:7 In the days of her affliction and wandering Jerusalem remembers all the treasures that were hers in days of old. When her people fell into enemy hands, there was no-one to help her. Her enemies looked at her and laughed at her destruction.

Lamentations 1:8 Jerusalem has sinned greatly and so has become unclean. All who honoured her despise her, for they have seen her nakedness; she herself groans and turns away.

Lamentations 1:9 Her filthiness clung to her skirts; she did not consider her future. Her fall was astounding; there was none to comfort her. “Look, O LORD, on my affliction, for the enemy has triumphed.”

Lamentations 1:10 The enemy laid hands on all her treasures; she saw pagan nations enter her sanctuary—those you had forbidden to enter your assembly.

Lamentations 1:11 All her people groan as they search for bread; they barter their treasures for food to keep themselves alive. “Look, O LORD, and consider, for I am despised.”

Lamentations 1:12 “Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? Look around and see. Is any suffering like my suffering that was inflicted on me, that the LORD brought on me in the day of his fierce anger?

Lamentations 1:13 “From on high he sent fire, sent it down into my bones. He spread a net for my feet and turned me back. He made me desolate, faint all the day long.

Lamentations 1:14 “My sins have been bound into a yoke; by his hands they were woven together. They have come upon my neck and the Lord has sapped my strength. He has handed me over to those I cannot withstand.

Lamentations 1:15 “The Lord has rejected all the warriors in my midst; he has summoned an army against me to crush my young men. In his winepress the Lord has trampled the Virgin Daughter of Judah.

Lamentations 1:16 “This is why I weep and my eyes overflow with tears. No-one is near to comfort me, no-one to restore my spirit. My children are destitute because the enemy has prevailed.”

Lamentations 1:17 Zion stretches out her hands, but there is no-one to comfort her. The LORD has decreed for Jacob that his neighbours become his foes; Jerusalem has become an unclean thing among them.

Lamentations 1:18 “The LORD is righteous, yet I rebelled against his command. Listen, all you peoples; look upon my suffering. My young men and maidens have gone into exile.

Lamentations 1:19 “I called to my allies but they betrayed me. My priests and my elders perished in the city while they searched for food to keep themselves alive.

Lamentations 1:20 “See, O LORD, how distressed I am! I am in torment within, and in my heart I am disturbed, for I have been most rebellious. Outside, the sword bereaves; inside, there is only death.

Lamentations 1:21 “People have heard my groaning, but there is no-one to comfort me. All my enemies have heard of my distress; they rejoice at what you have done. May you bring the day you have announced so that they may become like me.

Lamentations 1:22 “Let all their wickedness come before you; deal with them as you have dealt with me because of all my sins. My groans are many and my heart is faint.”

Lamentations 2:1 How the Lord has covered the Daughter of Zion with the cloud of his anger! He has hurled down the splendour of Israel from heaven to earth; he has not remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.

Lamentations 2:2 Without pity the Lord has swallowed up all the dwellings of Jacob; in his wrath he has torn down the strongholds of the Daughter of Judah. He has brought her kingdom and its princes down to the ground in dishonour.

Lamentations 2:3 In fierce anger he has cut off every horn of Israel. He has withdrawn his right hand at the approach of the enemy. He has burned in Jacob like a flaming fire that consumes everything around it.

Lamentations 2:4 Like an enemy he has strung his bow; his right hand is ready. Like a foe he has slain all who were pleasing to the eye; he has poured out his wrath like fire on the tent of the Daughter of Zion.

Lamentations 2:5 The Lord is like an enemy; he has swallowed up Israel. He has swallowed up all her palaces and destroyed her strongholds. He has multiplied mourning and lamentation for the Daughter of Judah.

Lamentations 2:6 He has laid waste his dwelling like a garden; he has destroyed his place of meeting. The LORD has made Zion forget her appointed feasts and her Sabbaths; in his fierce anger he has spurned both king and priest.

Lamentations 2:7 The Lord has rejected his altar and abandoned his sanctuary. He has handed over to the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have raised a shout in the house of the LORD as on the day of an appointed feast.

Lamentations 2:8 The LORD determined to tear down the wall around the Daughter of Zion. He stretched out a measuring line and did not withhold his hand from destroying. He made ramparts and walls lament; together they wasted away.

Lamentations 2:9 Her gates have sunk into the ground; their bars he has broken and destroyed. Her king and her princes are exiled among the nations, the law is no more, and her prophets no longer find visions from the LORD.

Lamentations 2:10 The elders of the Daughter of Zion sit on the ground in silence; they have sprinkled dust on their heads and put on sackcloth. The young women of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.

Lamentations 2:11 My eyes fail from weeping, I am in torment within, my heart is poured out on the ground because my people are destroyed, because children and infants faint in the streets of the city.

Lamentations 2:12 They say to their mothers, “Where is bread and wine?” as they faint like wounded men in the streets of the city, as their lives ebb away in their mothers’ arms.

Lamentations 2:13 What can I say for you? With what can I compare you, O Daughter of Jerusalem? To what can I liken you, that I may comfort you, O Virgin Daughter of Zion? Your wound is as deep as the sea. Who can heal you?

Lamentations 2:14 The visions of your prophets were false and worthless; they did not expose your sin to ward off your captivity. The oracles they gave you were false and misleading.

Lamentations 2:15 All who pass your way clap their hands at you; they scoff and shake their heads at the Daughter of Jerusalem: “Is this the city that was called the perfection of beauty, the joy of the whole earth?”

Lamentations 2:16 All your enemies open their mouths wide against you; they scoff and gnash their teeth and say, “We have swallowed her up. This is the day we have waited for; we have lived to see it.”

Lamentations 2:17 The LORD has done what he planned; he has fulfilled his word, which he decreed long ago. He has overthrown you without pity, he has let the enemy gloat over you, he has exalted the horn of your foes.

Lamentations 2:18 The hearts of the people cry out to the Lord. O wall of the Daughter of Zion, let your tears flow like a river day and night; give yourself no relief, your eyes no rest.

Lamentations 2:19 Arise, cry out in the night, as the watches of the night begin; pour out your heart like water in the presence of the Lord. Lift up your hands to him for the lives of your children, who faint from hunger at the head of every street.

Lamentations 2:20 “Look, O LORD, and consider: Whom have you ever treated like this? Should women eat their offspring, the children they have cared for? Should priest and prophet be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord?

Lamentations 2:21 “Young and old lie together in the dust of the streets; my young men and maidens have fallen by the sword. You have slain them in the day of your anger; you have slaughtered them without pity.

Lamentations 2:22 “As you summon to a feast day, so you summoned against me terrors on every side. In the day of the LORD’s anger no-one escaped or survived; those I cared for and reared, my enemy has destroyed.”

Lamentations 3:1 I am the man who has seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

Lamentations 3:2 He has driven me away and made me walk in darkness rather than light;

Lamentations 3:3 indeed, he has turned his hand against me again and again, all day long.

Lamentations 3:4 He has made my skin and my flesh grow old and has broken my bones.

Lamentations 3:5 He has besieged me and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.

Lamentations 3:6 He has made me dwell in darkness like those long dead.

Lamentations 3:7 He has walled me in so that I cannot escape; he has weighed me down with chains.

Lamentations 3:8 Even when I call out or cry for help, he shuts out my prayer.

Lamentations 3:9 He has barred my way with blocks of stone; he has made my paths crooked.

Lamentations 3:10 Like a bear lying in wait, like a lion in hiding,

Lamentations 3:11 he dragged me from the path and mangled me and left me without help.

Lamentations 3:12 He drew his bow and made me the target for his arrows.

Lamentations 3:13 He pierced my heart with arrows from his quiver.

Lamentations 3:14 I became the laughing-stock of all my people; they mock me in song all day long.

Lamentations 3:15 He has filled me with bitter herbs and sated me with gall.

Lamentations 3:16 He has broken my teeth with gravel; he has trampled me in the dust.

Lamentations 3:17 I have been deprived of peace; I have forgotten what prosperity is.

Lamentations 3:18 So I say, “My splendour is gone and all that I had hoped from the LORD.”

Lamentations 3:19 I remember my affliction and my wandering, the bitterness and the gall.

Lamentations 3:20 I well remember them, and my soul is downcast within me.

Lamentations 3:21 Yet this I call to mind and therefore I have hope:

Lamentations 3:22 Because of the LORD’s great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail.

Lamentations 3:23 They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.

Lamentations 3:24 I say to myself, “The LORD is my portion; therefore I will wait for him.”

Lamentations 3:25 The LORD is good to those whose hope is in him, to the one who seeks him;

Lamentations 3:26 it is good to wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.

Lamentations 3:27 It is good for a man to bear the yoke while he is young.

Lamentations 3:28 Let him sit alone in silence, for the LORD has laid it on him.

Lamentations 3:29 Let him bury his face in the dust—there may yet be hope.

Lamentations 3:30 Let him offer his cheek to one who would strike him, and let him be filled with disgrace.

Lamentations 3:31 For men are not cast off by the Lord for ever.

Lamentations 3:32 Though he brings grief, he will show compassion, so great is his unfailing love.

Lamentations 3:33 For he does not willingly bring affliction or grief to the children of men.

Lamentations 3:34 To crush underfoot all prisoners in the land,

Lamentations 3:35 to deny a man his rights before the Most High,

Lamentations 3:36 to deprive a man of justice—would not the Lord see such things?

Lamentations 3:37 Who can speak and have it happen if the Lord has not decreed it?

Lamentations 3:38 Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that both calamities and good things come?

Lamentations 3:39 Why should any living man complain when punished for his sins?

Lamentations 3:40 Let us examine our ways and test them, and let us return to the LORD.

Lamentations 3:41 Let us lift up our hearts and our hands to God in heaven, and say:

Lamentations 3:42 “We have sinned and rebelled and you have not forgiven.

Lamentations 3:43 “You have covered yourself with anger and pursued us; you have slain without pity.

Lamentations 3:44 You have covered yourself with a cloud so that no prayer can get through.

Lamentations 3:45 You have made us scum and refuse among the nations.

Lamentations 3:46 “All our enemies have opened their mouths wide against us.

Lamentations 3:47 We have suffered terror and pitfalls, ruin and destruction.”

Lamentations 3:48 Streams of tears flow from my eyes because my people are destroyed.

Lamentations 3:49 My eyes will flow unceasingly, without relief,

Lamentations 3:50 until the LORD looks down from heaven and sees.

Lamentations 3:51 What I see brings grief to my soul because of all the women of my city.

Lamentations 3:52 Those who were my enemies without cause hunted me like a bird.

Lamentations 3:53 They tried to end my life in a pit and threw stones at me;

Lamentations 3:54 the waters closed over my head, and I thought I was about to be cut off.

Lamentations 3:55 I called on your name, O LORD, from the depths of the pit.

Lamentations 3:56 You heard my plea: “Do not close your ears to my cry for relief.”

Lamentations 3:57 You came near when I called you, and you said, “Do not fear.”

Lamentations 3:58 O Lord, you took up my case; you redeemed my life.

Lamentations 3:59 You have seen, O LORD, the wrong done to me. Uphold my cause!

Lamentations 3:60 You have seen the depth of their vengeance, all their plots against me.

Lamentations 3:61 O LORD, you have heard their insults, all their plots against me—

Lamentations 3:62 what my enemies whisper and mutter against me all day long.

Lamentations 3:63 Look at them! Sitting or standing, they mock me in their songs.

Lamentations 3:64 Pay them back what they deserve, O LORD, for what their hands have done.

Lamentations 3:65 Put a veil over their hearts, and may your curse be on them!

Lamentations 3:66 Pursue them in anger and destroy them from under the heavens of the LORD.

Lamentations 4:1 How the gold has lost its lustre, the fine gold become dull! The sacred gems are scattered at the head of every street.

Lamentations 4:2 How the precious sons of Zion, once worth their weight in gold, are now considered as pots of clay, the work of a potter’s hands!

Lamentations 4:3 Even jackals offer their breasts to nurse their young, but my people have become heartless like ostriches in the desert.

Lamentations 4:4 Because of thirst the infant’s tongue sticks to the roof of its mouth; the children beg for bread, but no-one gives it to them.

Lamentations 4:5 Those who once ate delicacies are destitute in the streets. Those nurtured in purple now lie on ash heaps.

Lamentations 4:6 The punishment of my people is greater than that of Sodom, which was overthrown in a moment without a hand turned to help her.

Lamentations 4:7 Their princes were brighter than snow and whiter than milk, their bodies more ruddy than rubies, their appearance like sapphires.

Lamentations 4:8 But now they are blacker than soot; they are not recognised in the streets. Their skin has shrivelled on their bones; it has become as dry as a stick.

Lamentations 4:9 Those killed by the sword are better off than those who die of famine; racked with hunger, they waste away for lack of food from the field.

Lamentations 4:10 With their own hands compassionate women have cooked their own children, who became their food when my people were destroyed.

Lamentations 4:11 The LORD has given full vent to his wrath; he has poured out his fierce anger. He kindled a fire in Zion that consumed her foundations.

Lamentations 4:12 The kings of the earth did not believe, nor did any of the world’s people, that enemies and foes could enter the gates of Jerusalem.

Lamentations 4:13 But it happened because of the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, who shed within her the blood of the righteous.

Lamentations 4:14 Now they grope through the streets like men who are blind. They are so defiled with blood that no-one dares to touch their garments.

Lamentations 4:15 “Go away! You are unclean!” men cry to them. “Away! Away! Don’t touch us!” When they flee and wander about, people among the nations say, “They can stay here no longer.”

Lamentations 4:16 The LORD himself has scattered them; he no longer watches over them. The priests are shown no honour, the elders no favour.

Lamentations 4:17 Moreover, our eyes failed, looking in vain for help; from our towers we watched for a nation that could not save us.

Lamentations 4:18 Men stalked us at every step, so we could not walk in our streets. Our end was near, our days were numbered, for our end had come.

Lamentations 4:19 Our pursuers were swifter than eagles in the sky; they chased us over the mountains and lay in wait for us in the desert.

Lamentations 4:20 The LORD’s anointed, our very life breath, was caught in their traps. We thought that under his shadow we would live among the nations.

Lamentations 4:21 Rejoice and be glad, O Daughter of Edom, you who live in the land of Uz. But to you also the cup will be passed; you will be drunk and stripped naked.

Lamentations 4:22 O Daughter of Zion, your punishment will end; he will not prolong your exile. But, O Daughter of Edom, he will punish your sin and expose your wickedness.

Lamentations 5:1 Remember, O LORD, what has happened to us; look, and see our disgrace.

Lamentations 5:2 Our inheritance has been turned over to aliens, our homes to foreigners.

Lamentations 5:3 We have become orphans and fatherless, our mothers like widows.

Lamentations 5:4 We must buy the water we drink; our wood can be had only at a price.

Lamentations 5:5 Those who pursue us are at our heels; we are weary and find no rest.

Lamentations 5:6 We submitted to Egypt and Assyria to get enough bread.

Lamentations 5:7 Our fathers sinned and are no more, and we bear their punishment.

Lamentations 5:8 Slaves rule over us, and there is none to free us from their hands.

Lamentations 5:9 We get our bread at the risk of our lives because of the sword in the desert.

Lamentations 5:10 Our skin is hot as an oven, feverish from hunger.

Lamentations 5:11 Women have been ravished in Zion, and virgins in the towns of Judah.

Lamentations 5:12 Princes have been hung up by their hands; elders are shown no respect.

Lamentations 5:13 Young men toil at the millstones; boys stagger under loads of wood.

Lamentations 5:14 The elders are gone from the city gate; the young men have stopped their music.

Lamentations 5:15 Joy is gone from our hearts; our dancing has turned to mourning.

Lamentations 5:16 The crown has fallen from our head. Woe to us, for we have sinned!

Lamentations 5:17 Because of this our hearts are faint; because of these things our eyes grow dim

Lamentations 5:18 for Mount Zion, which lies desolate, with jackals prowling over it.

Lamentations 5:19 You, O LORD, reign for ever; your throne endures from generation to generation.

Lamentations 5:20 Why do you always forget us? Why do you forsake us so long?

Lamentations 5:21 Restore us to yourself, O LORD, that we may return; renew our days as of old

Lamentations 5:22 unless you have utterly rejected us and are angry with us beyond measure.

Ezekiel

1:1 In the thirtieth year, in the fourth month on the fifth day, while I was among the exiles by the Kebar River, the heavens were opened and I saw visions of God.

Ezekiel 1:2 On the fifth of the month—it was the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiachin—

Ezekiel 1:3 the word of the LORD came to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, by the Kebar River in the land of the Babylonians. There the hand of the LORD was upon him.

Ezekiel 1:4 I looked, and I saw a windstorm coming out of the north— an immense cloud with flashing lightning and surrounded by brilliant light. The centre of the fire looked like glowing metal,

Ezekiel 1:5 and in the fire was what looked like four living creatures. In appearance their form was that of a man,

Ezekiel 1:6 but each of them had four faces and four wings.

Ezekiel 1:7 Their legs were straight; their feet were like those of a calf and gleamed like burnished bronze.

Ezekiel 1:8 Under their wings on their four sides they had the hands of a man. All four of them had faces and wings,

Ezekiel 1:9 and their wings touched one another. Each one went straight ahead; they did not turn as they moved.

Ezekiel 1:10 Their faces looked like this: Each of the four had the face of a man, and on the right side each had the face of a lion, and on the left the face of an ox; each also had the face of an eagle.

Ezekiel 1:11 Such were their faces. Their wings were spread out upwards; each had two wings, one touching the wing of another creature on either side, and two wings covering its body.

Ezekiel 1:12 Each one went straight ahead. Wherever the spirit would go, they would go, without turning as they went.

Ezekiel 1:13 The appearance of the living creatures was like burning coals of fire or like torches. Fire moved back and forth among the creatures; it was bright, and lightning flashed out of it.

Ezekiel 1:14 The creatures sped back and forth like flashes of lightning.

Ezekiel 1:15 As I looked at the living creatures, I saw a wheel on the ground beside each creature with its four faces.

Ezekiel 1:16 This was the appearance and structure of the wheels: They sparkled like chrysolite, and all four looked alike. Each appeared to be made like a wheel intersecting a wheel.

Ezekiel 1:17 As they moved, they would go in any one of the four directions the creatures faced; the wheels did not turn about as the creatures went.

Ezekiel 1:18 Their rims were high and awesome, and all four rims were full of eyes all around.

Ezekiel 1:19 When the living creatures moved, the wheels beside them moved; and when the living creatures rose from the ground, the wheels also rose.

Ezekiel 1:20 Wherever the spirit would go, they would go, and the wheels would rise along with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

Ezekiel 1:21 When the creatures moved, they also moved; when the creatures stood still, they also stood still; and when the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels rose along with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

Ezekiel 1:22 Spread out above the heads of the living creatures was what looked like an expanse, sparkling like ice, and awesome.

Ezekiel 1:23 Under the expanse their wings were stretched out one towards the other, and each had two wings covering its body.

Ezekiel 1:24 When the creatures moved, I heard the sound of their wings, like the roar of rushing waters, like the voice of the Almighty, like the tumult of an army. When they stood still, they lowered their wings.

Ezekiel 1:25 Then there came a voice from above the expanse over their heads as they stood with lowered wings.

Ezekiel 1:26 Above the expanse over their heads was what looked like a throne of sapphire, and high above on the throne was a figure like that of a man.

Ezekiel 1:27 I saw that from what appeared to be his waist up he looked like glowing metal, as if full of fire, and that from there down he looked like fire; and brilliant light surrounded him.

Ezekiel 1:28 Like the appearance of a rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day, so was the radiance around him. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. When I saw it, I fell face down, and I heard the voice of one speaking.

Ezekiel 2:1 He said to me, “Son of man, stand up on your feet and I will speak to you.”

Ezekiel 2:2 As he spoke, the Spirit came into me and raised me to my feet, and I heard him speaking to me.

Ezekiel 2:3 He said: “Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, to a rebellious nation that has rebelled against me; they and their fathers have been in revolt against me to this very day.

Ezekiel 2:4 The people to whom I am sending you are obstinate and stubborn. Say to them,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says.’

Ezekiel 2:5 And whether they listen or fail to listen—for they are a rebellious house—they will know that a prophet has been among them.

Ezekiel 2:6 And you, son of man, do not be afraid of them or their words. Do not be afraid, though briers and thorns are all around you and you live among scorpions. Do not be afraid of what they say or terrified by them, though they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 2:7 You must speak my words to them, whether they listen or fail to listen, for they are rebellious.

Ezekiel 2:8 But you, son of man, listen to what I say to you. Do not rebel like that rebellious house; open your mouth and eat what I give you.”

Ezekiel 2:9 Then I looked, and I saw a hand stretched out to me. In it was a scroll,

Ezekiel 2:10 which he unrolled before me. On both sides of it were written words of lament and mourning and woe.

Ezekiel 3:1 And he said to me, “Son of man, eat what is before you, eat this scroll; then go and speak to the house of Israel.”

Ezekiel 3:2 So I opened my mouth, and he gave me the scroll to eat.

Ezekiel 3:3 Then he said to me, “Son of man, eat this scroll I am giving you and fill your stomach with it.” So I ate it, and it tasted as sweet as honey in my mouth.

Ezekiel 3:4 He then said to me: “Son of man, go now to the house of Israel and speak my words to them.

Ezekiel 3:5 You are not being sent to a people of obscure speech and difficult language, but to the house of Israel—

Ezekiel 3:6 not to many peoples of obscure speech and difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely if I had sent you to them, they would have listened to you.

Ezekiel 3:7 But the house of Israel is not willing to listen to you because they are not willing to listen to me, for the whole house of Israel is hardened and obstinate.

Ezekiel 3:8 But I will make you as unyielding and hardened as they are.

Ezekiel 3:9 I will make your forehead like the hardest stone, harder than flint. Do not be afraid of them or terrified by them, though they are a rebellious house.”

Ezekiel 3:10 And he said to me, “Son of man, listen carefully and take to heart all the words I speak to you.

Ezekiel 3:11 Go now to your countrymen in exile and speak to them. Say to them,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says,’ whether they listen or fail to listen.”

Ezekiel 3:12 Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me a loud rumbling sound—May the glory of the LORD be praised in his dwelling-place!—

Ezekiel 3:13 the sound of the wings of the living creatures brushing against each other and the sound of the wheels beside them, a loud rumbling sound.

Ezekiel 3:14 The Spirit then lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness and in the anger of my spirit, with the strong hand of the LORD upon me.

Ezekiel 3:15 I came to the exiles who lived at Tel Abib near the Kebar River. And there, where they were living, I sat among them for seven days—overwhelmed.

Ezekiel 3:16 At the end of seven days the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 3:17 “Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from me.

Ezekiel 3:18 When I say to a wicked man,`You will surely die,’ and you do not warn him or speak out to dissuade him from his evil ways in order to save his life, that wicked man will die for his sin, and I will hold you accountable for his blood.

Ezekiel 3:19 But if you do warn the wicked man and he does not turn from his wickedness or from his evil ways, he will die for his sin; but you will have saved yourself.

Ezekiel 3:20 “Again, when a righteous man turns from his righteousness and does evil, and I put a stumbling-block before him, he will die. Since you did not warn him, he will die for his sin. The righteous things he did will not be remembered, and I will hold you accountable for his blood.

Ezekiel 3:21 But if you do warn the righteous man not to sin and he does not sin, he will surely live because he took warning, and you will have saved yourself.”

Ezekiel 3:22 The hand of the LORD was upon me there, and he said to me, “Get up and go out to the plain, and there I will speak to you.”

Ezekiel 3:23 So I got up and went out to the plain. And the glory of the LORD was standing there, like the glory I had seen by the Kebar River, and I fell face down.

Ezekiel 3:24 Then the Spirit came into me and raised me to my feet. He spoke to me and said: “Go, shut yourself inside your house.

Ezekiel 3:25 And you, son of man, they will tie with ropes; you will be bound so that you cannot go out among the people.

Ezekiel 3:26 I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth so that you will be silent and unable to rebuke them, though they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 3:27 But when I speak to you, I will open your mouth and you shall say to them,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says.’ Whoever will listen let him listen, and whoever will refuse let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 4:1 “Now, son of man, take a clay tablet, put it in front of you and draw the city of Jerusalem on it.

Ezekiel 4:2 Then lay siege to it: Erect siege works against it, build a ramp up to it, set up camps against it and put battering-rams around it.

Ezekiel 4:3 Then take an iron pan, place it as an iron wall between you and the city and turn your face towards it. It will be under siege, and you shall besiege it. This will be a sign to the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 4:4 “Then lie on your left side and put the sin of the house of Israel upon yourself. You are to bear their sin for the number of days you lie on your side.

Ezekiel 4:5 I have assigned you the same number of days as the years of their sin. So for 390 days you will bear the sin of the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 4:6 “After you have finished this, lie down again, this time on your right side, and bear the sin of the house of Judah. I have assigned you 40 days, a day for each year.

Ezekiel 4:7 Turn your face towards the siege of Jerusalem and with bared arm prophesy against her.

Ezekiel 4:8 I will tie you up with ropes so that you cannot turn from one side to the other until you have finished the days of your siege.

Ezekiel 4:9 “Take wheat and barley, beans and lentils, millet and spelt; put them in a storage jar and use them to make bread for yourself. You are to eat it during the 390 days you lie on your side.

Ezekiel 4:10 Weigh out twenty shekels of food to eat each day and eat it at set times.

Ezekiel 4:11 Also measure out a sixth of a hin of water and drink it at set times.

Ezekiel 4:12 Eat the food as you would a barley cake; bake it in the sight of the people, using human excrement for fuel.”

Ezekiel 4:13 The LORD said, “In this way the people of Israel will eat defiled food among the nations where I will drive them.”

Ezekiel 4:14 Then I said, “Not so, Sovereign LORD! I have never defiled myself. From my youth until now I have never eaten anything found dead or torn by wild animals. No unclean meat has ever entered my mouth.”

Ezekiel 4:15 “Very well,” he said, “I will let you bake your bread over cow manure instead of human excrement.”

Ezekiel 4:16 He then said to me: “Son of man, I will cut off the supply of food in Jerusalem. The people will eat rationed food in anxiety and drink rationed water in despair, Ezekiel 4:17 for food and water will be scarce. They will be appalled at the sight of each other and will waste away because of their sin.

Ezekiel 5:1 “Now, son of man, take a sharp sword and use it as a barber’s razor to shave your head and your beard. Then take a set of scales and divide up the hair.

Ezekiel 5:2 When the days of your siege come to an end, burn a third of the hair with fire inside the city. Take a third and strike it with the sword all around the city. And scatter a third to the wind. For I will pursue them with drawn sword.

Ezekiel 5:3 But take a few strands of hair and tuck them away in the folds of your garment.

Ezekiel 5:4 Again, take a few of these and throw them into the fire and burn them up. A fire will spread from there to the whole house of Israel.

Ezekiel 5:5 “This is what the Sovereign LORD says: This is Jerusalem, which I have set in the centre of the nations, with countries all around her.

Ezekiel 5:6 Yet in her wickedness she has rebelled against my laws and decrees more than the nations and countries around her. She has rejected my laws and has not followed my decrees.

Ezekiel 5:7 “Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: You have been more unruly than the nations around you and have not followed my decrees or kept my laws. You have not even conformed to the standards of the nations around you.

Ezekiel 5:8 “Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself am against you, Jerusalem, and I will inflict punishment on you in the sight of the nations.

Ezekiel 5:9 Because of all your detestable idols, I will do to you what I have never done before and will never do again.

Ezekiel 5:10 Therefore in your midst fathers will eat their children, and children will eat their fathers. I will inflict punishment on you and will scatter all your survivors to the winds.

Ezekiel 5:11 Therefore as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your vile images and detestable practices, I myself will withdraw my favour; I will not look on you with pity or spare you.

Ezekiel 5:12 A third of your people will die of the plague or perish by famine inside you; a third will fall by the sword outside your walls; and a third I will scatter to the winds and pursue with drawn sword.

Ezekiel 5:13 “Then my anger will cease and my wrath against them will subside, and I will be avenged. And when I have spent my wrath upon them, they will know that I the LORD have spoken in my zeal.

Ezekiel 5:14 “I will make you a ruin and a reproach among the nations around you, in the sight of all who pass by.

Ezekiel 5:15 You will be a reproach and a taunt, a warning and an object of horror to the nations around you when I inflict punishment on you in anger and in wrath and with stinging rebuke. I the LORD have spoken.

Ezekiel 5:16 When I shoot at you with my deadly and destructive arrows of famine, I will shoot to destroy you. I will bring more and more famine upon you and cut off your supply of food.

Ezekiel 5:17 I will send famine and wild beasts against you, and they will leave you childless. Plague and bloodshed will sweep through you, and I will bring the sword against you. I the LORD have spoken.”

Ezekiel 6:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 6:2 “Son of man, set your face against the mountains of Israel; prophesy against them

Ezekiel 6:3 and say:`O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Sovereign LORD. This is what the Sovereign LORD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: I am about to bring a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places.

Ezekiel 6:4 Your altars will be demolished and your incense altars will be smashed; and I will slay your people in front of your idols.

Ezekiel 6:5 I will lay the dead bodies of the Israelites in front of their idols, and I will scatter your bones around your altars.

Ezekiel 6:6 Wherever you live, the towns will be laid waste and the high places demolished, so that your altars will be laid waste and devastated, your idols smashed and ruined, your incense altars broken down, and what you have made wiped out.

Ezekiel 6:7 Your people will fall slain among you, and you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 6:8 “`But I will spare some, for some of you will escape the sword when you are scattered among the lands and nations.

Ezekiel 6:9 Then in the nations where they have been carried captive, those who escape will remember me—how I have been grieved by their adulterous hearts, which have turned away from me, and by their eyes, which have lusted after their idols. They will loathe themselves for the evil they have done and for all their detestable practices.

Ezekiel 6:10 And they will know that I am the LORD; I did not threaten in vain to bring this calamity on them.

Ezekiel 6:11 “`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Strike your hands together and stamp your feet and cry out “Alas!” because of all the wicked and detestable practices of the house of Israel, for they will fall by the sword, famine and plague.

Ezekiel 6:12 He that is far away will die of the plague, and he that is near will fall by the sword, and he that survives and is spared will die of famine. So will I spend my wrath upon them.

Ezekiel 6:13 And they will know that I am the LORD, when their people lie slain among their idols around their altars, on every high hill and on all the mountaintops, under every spreading tree and every leafy oak—places where they offered fragrant incense to all their idols.

Ezekiel 6:14 And I will stretch out my hand against them and make the land a desolate waste from the desert to Diblah— wherever they live. Then they will know that I am the LORD.'"

Ezekiel 7:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 7:2 "Son of man, this is what the Sovereign LORD says to the land of Israel: The end! The end has come upon the four corners of the land.

Ezekiel 7:3 The end is now upon you and I will unleash my anger against you. I will judge you according to your conduct and repay you for all your detestable practices.

Ezekiel 7:4 I will not look on you with pity or spare you; I will surely repay you for your conduct and the detestable practices among you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 7:5 "This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Disaster! An unheard-of disaster is coming.

Ezekiel 7:6 The end has come! The end has come! It has roused itself against you. It has come!

Ezekiel 7:7 Doom has come upon you—you who dwell in the land. The time has come, the day is near; there is panic, not joy, upon the mountains.

Ezekiel 7:8 I am about to pour out my wrath on you and spend my anger against you; I will judge you according to your conduct and repay you for all your detestable practices.

Ezekiel 7:9 I will not look on you with pity or spare you; I will repay you in accordance with your conduct and the detestable practices among you. Then you will know that it is I the LORD who strikes the blow.

Ezekiel 7:10 "The day is here! It has come! Doom has burst forth, the rod has budded, arrogance has blossomed!

Ezekiel 7:11 Violence has grown into a rod to punish wickedness; none of the people will be left, none of that crowd—no wealth, nothing of value.

Ezekiel 7:12 The time has come, the day has arrived. Let not the buyer rejoice nor the seller grieve, for wrath is upon the whole crowd.

Ezekiel 7:13 The seller will not recover the land he has sold as long as both of them live, for the vision concerning the whole crowd will not be reversed. Because of their sins, not one of them will preserve his life.

Ezekiel 7:14 Though they blow the trumpet and get everything ready, no-one will go into battle, for my wrath is upon the whole crowd.

Ezekiel 7:15 “Outside is the sword, inside are plague and famine; those in the country will die by the sword, and those in the city will be devoured by famine and plague.

Ezekiel 7:16 All who survive and escape will be in the mountains, moaning like doves of the valleys, each because of his sins.

Ezekiel 7:17 Every hand will go limp, and every knee will become as weak as water.

Ezekiel 7:18 They will put on sackcloth and be clothed with terror. Their faces will be covered with shame and their heads will be shaved.

Ezekiel 7:19 They will throw their silver into the streets, and their gold will be an unclean thing. Their silver and gold will not be able to save them in the day of the LORD’s wrath. They will not satisfy their hunger or fill their stomachs with it, for it has made them stumble into sin.

Ezekiel 7:20 They were proud of their beautiful jewellery and used it to make their detestable idols and vile images. Therefore I will turn these into an unclean thing for them.

Ezekiel 7:21 I will hand it all over as plunder to foreigners and as loot to the wicked of the earth, and they will defile it.

Ezekiel 7:22 I will turn my face away from them, and they will desecrate my treasured place; robbers will enter it and desecrate it.

Ezekiel 7:23 “Prepare chains, because the land is full of bloodshed and the city is full of violence.

Ezekiel 7:24 I will bring the most wicked of the nations to take possession of their houses; I will put an end to the pride of the mighty, and their sanctuaries will be desecrated.

Ezekiel 7:25 When terror comes, they will seek peace, but there will be none.

Ezekiel 7:26 Calamity upon calamity will come, and rumour upon rumour. They will try to get a vision from the prophet; the teaching of the law by the priest will be lost, as will the counsel of the elders.

Ezekiel 7:27 The king will mourn, the prince will be clothed with despair, and the hands of the people of the land will tremble. I will deal with them according to their conduct, and by their own standards I will judge them. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 8:1 In the sixth year, in the sixth month on the fifth day, while I was sitting in my house and the elders of Judah were sitting before me, the hand of the Sovereign LORD came upon me there.

Ezekiel 8:2 I looked, and I saw a figure like that of a man. From what appeared to be his waist down he was like fire, and from there up his appearance was as bright as glowing metal.

Ezekiel 8:3 He stretched out what looked like a hand and took me by the hair of my head. The Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and in visions of God he took me to Jerusalem, to the entrance to the north gate of the inner court, where the idol that provokes to jealousy stood.

Ezekiel 8:4 And there before me was the glory of the God of Israel, as in the vision I had seen in the plain.

Ezekiel 8:5 Then he said to me, “Son of man, look towards the north.” So I looked, and in the entrance north of the gate of the altar I saw this idol of jealousy.

Ezekiel 8:6 And he said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing—the utterly detestable things the house of Israel is doing here, things that will drive me far from my sanctuary? But you will see things that are even more detestable.”

Ezekiel 8:7 Then he brought me to the entrance to the court. I looked, and I saw a hole in the wall.

Ezekiel 8:8 He said to me, “Son of man, now dig into the wall.” So I dug into the wall and saw a doorway there.

Ezekiel 8:9 And he said to me, “Go in and see the wicked and detestable things they are doing here.”

Ezekiel 8:10 So I went in and looked, and I saw portrayed all over the walls all kinds of crawling things and detestable animals and all the idols of the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 8:11 In front of them stood seventy elders of the house of Israel, and Jaazaniah son of Shaphan was standing among them. Each had a censer in his hand, and a fragrant cloud of incense was rising.

Ezekiel 8:12 He said to me, “Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the darkness, each at the shrine of his own idol? They say,`The LORD does not see us; the LORD has forsaken the land.’“

Ezekiel 8:13 Again, he said, “You will see them doing things that are even more detestable.”

Ezekiel 8:14 Then he brought me to the entrance to the north gate of the house of the LORD, and I saw women sitting there, mourning for Tammuz.

Ezekiel 8:15 He said to me, “Do you see this, son of man? You will see things that are even more detestable than this.”

Ezekiel 8:16 He then brought me into the inner court of the house of the LORD, and there at the entrance to the temple, between the portico and the altar, were about twenty-five men. With their backs towards the temple of the LORD and their faces towards the east, they were bowing down to the sun in the east.

Ezekiel 8:17 He said to me, “Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a trivial matter for the house of Judah to do the detestable things they are doing here? Must they also fill the land with violence and continually provoke me to anger? Look at them putting the branch to their nose!

Ezekiel 8:18 Therefore I will deal with them in anger; I will not look on them with pity or spare them. Although they shout in my ears, I will not listen to them.”

Ezekiel 9:1 Then I heard him call out in a loud voice, “Bring the guards of the city here, each with a weapon in his hand.”

Ezekiel 9:2 And I saw six men coming from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with a deadly weapon in his hand. With them was a man clothed in linen who had a writing kit at his side. They came in and stood beside the bronze altar.

Ezekiel 9:3 Now the glory of the God of Israel went up from above the cherubim, where it had been, and moved to the threshold of the temple. Then the LORD called to the man clothed in linen who had the writing kit at his side

Ezekiel 9:4 and said to him, “Go throughout the city of Jerusalem and put a mark on the foreheads of those who grieve and lament over all the detestable things that are done in it.”

Ezekiel 9:5 As I listened, he said to the others, “Follow him through the city and kill, without showing pity or compassion.

Ezekiel 9:6 Slaughter old men, young men and maidens, women and children, but do not touch anyone who has the mark. Begin at my sanctuary.” So they began with the elders who were in front of the temple.

Ezekiel 9:7 Then he said to them, “Defile the temple and fill the courts with the slain. Go!” So they went out and began killing throughout the city.

Ezekiel 9:8 While they were killing and I was left alone, I fell face down, crying out, “Ah, Sovereign LORD! Are you going to destroy the entire remnant of Israel in this outpouring of your wrath on Jerusalem?”

Ezekiel 9:9 He answered me, “The sin of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great; the land is full of bloodshed and the city is full of injustice. They say,`The LORD has forsaken the land; the LORD does not see.’

Ezekiel 9:10 So I will not look on them with pity or spare them, but I will bring down on their own heads what they have done.”

Ezekiel 9:11 Then the man in linen with the writing kit at his side brought back word, saying, “I have done as you commanded.”

Ezekiel 10:1 I looked, and I saw the likeness of a throne of sapphire above the expanse that was over the heads of the cherubim.

Ezekiel 10:2 The LORD said to the man clothed in linen, “Go in among the wheels beneath the cherubim. Fill your hands with burning coals from among the cherubim and scatter them over the city.” And as I watched, he went in.

Ezekiel 10:3 Now the cherubim were standing on the south side of the temple when the man went in, and a cloud filled the inner court.

Ezekiel 10:4 Then the glory of the LORD rose from above the cherubim and moved to the threshold of the temple. The cloud filled the temple, and the court was full of the radiance of the glory of the LORD.

Ezekiel 10:5 The sound of the wings of the cherubim could be heard as far away as the outer court, like the voice of God Almighty when he speaks.

Ezekiel 10:6 When the LORD commanded the man in linen, “Take fire from among the wheels, from among the cherubim,” the man went in and stood beside a wheel.

Ezekiel 10:7 Then one of the cherubim reached out his hand to the fire that was among them. He took up some of it and put it into the hands of the man in linen, who took it and went out.

Ezekiel 10:8 (Under the wings of the cherubim could be seen what looked like the hands of a man.)

Ezekiel 10:9 I looked, and I saw beside the cherubim four wheels, one beside each of the cherubim; the wheels sparkled like chrysolite.

Ezekiel 10:10 As for their appearance, the four of them looked alike; each was like a wheel intersecting a wheel.

Ezekiel 10:11 As they moved, they would go in any one of the four directions the cherubim faced; the wheels did not turn about as the cherubim went. The cherubim went in whatever direction the head faced, without turning as they went.

Ezekiel 10:12 Their entire bodies, including their backs, their hands and their wings, were completely full of eyes, as were their four wheels.

Ezekiel 10:13 I heard the wheels being called “the whirling wheels”.

Ezekiel 10:14 Each of the cherubim had four faces: One face was that of a cherub, the second the face of a man, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

Ezekiel 10:15 Then the cherubim rose upwards. These were the living creatures I had seen by the Kebar River.

Ezekiel 10:16 When the cherubim moved, the wheels beside them moved; and when the cherubim spread their wings to rise from the ground, the wheels did not leave their side.

Ezekiel 10:17 When the cherubim stood still, they also stood still; and when the cherubim rose, they rose with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in them.

Ezekiel 10:18 Then the glory of the LORD departed from over the threshold of the temple and stopped above the cherubim.

Ezekiel 10:19 While I watched, the cherubim spread their wings and rose from the ground, and as they went, the wheels went with them. They stopped at the entrance to the east gate of the LORD's house, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

Ezekiel 10:20 These were the living creatures I had seen beneath the God of Israel by the Kebar River, and I realised that they were cherubim.

Ezekiel 10:21 Each had four faces and four wings, and under their wings was what looked like the hands of a man.

Ezekiel 10:22 Their faces had the same appearance as those I had seen by the Kebar River. Each one went straight ahead.

Ezekiel 11:1 Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the gate of the house of the LORD that faces east. There at the entrance to the gate were twenty-five men, and I saw among them Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people.

Ezekiel 11:2 The LORD said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who are plotting evil and giving wicked advice in this city.

Ezekiel 11:3 They say,`Will it not soon be time to build houses? This city is a cooking pot, and we are the meat.'

Ezekiel 11:4 Therefore prophesy against them; prophesy, son of man."

Ezekiel 11:5 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon me, and he told me to say: "This is what the LORD says: That is what you are saying, O house of Israel, but I know what is going through your mind.

Ezekiel 11:6 You have killed many people in this city and filled its streets with the dead.

Ezekiel 11:7 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: The bodies you have thrown there are the meat and this city is the pot, but I will drive you out of it.

Ezekiel 11:8 You fear the sword, and the sword is what I will bring against you, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 11:9 I will drive you out of the city and hand you over to foreigners and inflict punishment on you.

Ezekiel 11:10 You will fall by the sword, and I will execute judgment on you at the borders of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 11:11 This city will not be a pot for you, nor will you be the meat in it; I will execute judgment on you at the borders of Israel.

Ezekiel 11:12 And you will know that I am the LORD, for you have not followed my decrees or kept my laws but have conformed to the standards of the nations around you.”

Ezekiel 11:13 Now as I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. Then I fell face down and cried out in a loud voice, “Ah, Sovereign LORD! Will you completely destroy the remnant of Israel?”

Ezekiel 11:14 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 11:15 “Son of man, your brothers—your brothers who are your blood-relatives and the whole house of Israel—are those of whom the people of Jerusalem have said,`They are far away from the LORD; this land was given to us as our possession.’

Ezekiel 11:16 “Therefore say:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Although I sent them far away among the nations and scattered them among the countries, yet for a little while I have been a sanctuary for them in the countries where they have gone.’

Ezekiel 11:17 “Therefore say:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will gather you from the nations and bring you back from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you back the land of Israel again.’

Ezekiel 11:18 “They will return to it and remove all its vile images and detestable idols.

Ezekiel 11:19 I will give them an undivided heart and put a new spirit in them; I will remove from them their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh.

Ezekiel 11:20 Then they will follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws. They will be my people, and I will be their God.

Ezekiel 11:21 But as for those whose hearts are devoted to their vile images and detestable idols, I will bring down on their own heads what they have done, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel 11:22 Then the cherubim, with the wheels beside them, spread their wings, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

Ezekiel 11:23 The glory of the LORD went up from within the city and stopped above the mountain east of it.

Ezekiel 11:24 The Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the exiles in Babylonia in the vision given by the Spirit of God. Then the vision I had seen went up from me, Ezekiel 11:25 and I told the exiles everything the LORD had shown me.

Ezekiel 12:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 12:2 “Son of man, you are living among a rebellious people. They have eyes to see but do not see and ears to hear but do not hear, for they are a rebellious people.

Ezekiel 12:3 “Therefore, son of man, pack your belongings for exile and in the daytime, as they watch, set out and go from where you are to another place. Perhaps they will understand, though they are a rebellious house.

Ezekiel 12:4 During the daytime, while they watch, bring out your belongings packed for exile. Then in the evening, while they are watching, go out like those who go into exile.

Ezekiel 12:5 While they watch, dig through the wall and take your belongings out through it.

Ezekiel 12:6 Put them on your shoulder as they are watching and carry them out at dusk. Cover your face so that you cannot see the land, for I have made you a sign to the house of Israel.”

Ezekiel 12:7 So I did as I was commanded. During the day I brought out my things packed for exile. Then in the evening I dug through the wall with my hands. I took my belongings out at dusk, carrying them on my shoulders while they watched.

Ezekiel 12:8 In the morning the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 12:9 “Son of man, did not that rebellious house of Israel ask you,`What are you doing?’

Ezekiel 12:10 “Say to them,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: This oracle concerns the prince in Jerusalem and the whole house of Israel who are there.’

Ezekiel 12:11 Say to them,`I am a sign to you.’ “As I have done, so it will be done to them. They will go into exile as captives.

Ezekiel 12:12 “The prince among them will put his things on his shoulder at dusk and leave, and a hole will be dug in the wall for him to go through. He will cover his face so that he cannot see the land.

Ezekiel 12:13 I will spread my net for him, and he will be caught in my snare; I will bring him to Babylonia, the land of the Chaldeans, but he will not see it, and there he will die.

Ezekiel 12:14 I will scatter to the winds all those around him—his staff and all his troops—and I will pursue them with drawn sword.

Ezekiel 12:15 “They will know that I am the LORD, when I disperse them among the nations and scatter them through the countries.

Ezekiel 12:16 But I will spare a few of them from the sword, famine and plague, so that in the nations where they go they may acknowledge all their detestable practices. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 12:17 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 12:18 “Son of man, tremble as you eat your food, and shudder in fear as you drink your water.

Ezekiel 12:19 Say to the people of the land:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says about those living in Jerusalem and in the land of Israel: They will eat their food in anxiety and drink their water in despair, for their land will be stripped of everything in it because of the violence of all who live there.

Ezekiel 12:20 The inhabited towns will be laid waste and the land will be desolate. Then you will know that I am the LORD.’“

Ezekiel 12:21 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 12:22 “Son of man, what is this proverb you have in the land of Israel:`The days go by and every vision comes to nothing’?

Ezekiel 12:23 Say to them,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am going to put an end to this proverb, and they will no longer quote it in Israel.’ Say to them,`The days are near when every vision will be fulfilled.

Ezekiel 12:24 For there will be no more false visions or flattering divinations among the people of Israel.

Ezekiel 12:25 But I the LORD will speak what I will, and it shall be fulfilled without delay. For in your days, you rebellious house, I will fulfil whatever I say, declares the Sovereign LORD.’“

Ezekiel 12:26 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 12:27 “Son of man, the house of Israel is saying,`The vision he sees is for many years from now, and he prophesies about the distant future.’

Ezekiel 12:28 “Therefore say to them,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: None of my words will be delayed any longer; whatever I say will be fulfilled, declares the Sovereign LORD.’“

Ezekiel 13:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 13:2 “Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who are now prophesying. Say to those who prophesy out of their own imagination:`Hear the word of the LORD!

Ezekiel 13:3 This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing!

Ezekiel 13:4 Your prophets, O Israel, are like jackals among ruins.

Ezekiel 13:5 You have not gone up to the breaks in the wall to repair it for the house of Israel so that it will stand firm in the battle on the day of the LORD.

Ezekiel 13:6 Their visions are false and their divinations a lie. They say, “The LORD declares”, when the LORD has not sent them; yet they expect their words to be fulfilled.

Ezekiel 13:7 Have you not seen false visions and uttered lying divinations when you say, “The LORD declares”, though I have not spoken?

Ezekiel 13:8 “`Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because of your false words and lying visions, I am against you, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 13:9 My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and utter lying divinations. They will not belong to the council of my people or be listed in the records of the house of Israel, nor will they enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 13:10 “`Because they lead my people astray, saying, “Peace”, when there is no peace, and because, when a flimsy wall is built, they cover it with whitewash,

Ezekiel 13:11 therefore tell those who cover it with whitewash that it is going to fall. Rain will come in torrents, and I will send hailstones hurtling down, and violent winds will burst forth.

Ezekiel 13:12 When the wall collapses, will people not ask you, “Where is the whitewash you covered it with?”

Ezekiel 13:13 “`Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: In my wrath I will unleash a violent wind, and in my anger hailstones and torrents of rain will fall with destructive fury.

Ezekiel 13:14 I will tear down the wall you have covered with whitewash and will level it to the ground so that its foundation will be laid bare. When it falls, you will be destroyed in it; and you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 13:15 So I will spend my wrath against the wall and against those who covered it with whitewash. I will say to you, “The wall is gone and so are those who whitewashed it, Ezekiel 13:16 those prophets of Israel who prophesied to Jerusalem and saw visions of peace for her when there was no peace, declares the Sovereign LORD.”‘

Ezekiel 13:17 “Now, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who prophesy out of their own imagination. Prophesy against them

Ezekiel 13:18 and say,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Woe to the women who sew magic charms on all their wrists and make veils of various lengths for their heads in order to ensnare people. Will you ensnare the lives of my people but preserve your own?

Ezekiel 13:19 You have profaned me among my people for a few handfuls of barley and scraps of bread. By lying to my people, who listen to lies, you have killed those who should not have died and have spared those who should not live.

Ezekiel 13:20 “`Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against your magic charms with which you ensnare people like birds and I will tear them from your arms; I will set free the people that you ensnare like birds.

Ezekiel 13:21 I will tear off your veils and save my people from your hands, and they will no longer fall prey to your power. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 13:22 Because you disheartened the righteous with your lies, when I had brought them no grief, and because you encouraged the wicked not to turn from their evil ways and so save their lives,

Ezekiel 13:23 therefore you will no longer see false visions or practise divination. I will save my people from your hands. And then you will know that I am the LORD.’“

Ezekiel 14:1 Some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat down in front of me.

Ezekiel 14:2 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 14:3 “Son of man, these men have set up idols in their hearts and put wicked stumbling-blocks before their faces. Should I let them enquire of me at all?

Ezekiel 14:4 Therefore speak to them and tell them,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: When any Israelite sets up idols in his heart and puts a wicked stumbling-block before his face and then goes to a prophet, I the LORD will answer him myself in keeping with his great idolatry.

Ezekiel 14:5 I will do this to recapture the hearts of the people of Israel, who have all deserted me for their idols.’

Ezekiel 14:6 “Therefore say to the house of Israel,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Repent! Turn from your idols and renounce all your detestable practices!

Ezekiel 14:7 “`When any Israelite or any alien living in Israel separates himself from me and sets up idols in his heart and puts a wicked stumbling-block before his face and then goes to a prophet to enquire of me, I the LORD will answer him myself.

Ezekiel 14:8 I will set my face against that man and make him an example and a byword. I will cut him off from my people. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 14:9 “`And if the prophet is enticed to utter a prophecy, I the LORD have enticed that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand against him and destroy him from among my people Israel.

Ezekiel 14:10 They will bear their guilt—the prophet will be as guilty as the one who consults him.

Ezekiel 14:11 Then the people of Israel will no longer stray from me, nor will they defile themselves any more with all their sins. They will be my people, and I will be their God, declares the Sovereign LORD.'"

Ezekiel 14:12 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 14:13 "Son of man, if a country sins against me by being unfaithful and I stretch out my hand against it to cut off its food supply and send famine upon it and kill its men and their animals,

Ezekiel 14:14 even if these three men—Noah,Daniel and Job—were in it, they could save only themselves by their righteousness, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 14:15 "Or if I send wild beasts through that country and they leave it childless and it becomes desolate so that no-one can pass through it because of the beasts,

Ezekiel 14:16 as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, even if these three men were in it, they could not save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved, but the land would be desolate.

Ezekiel 14:17 "Or if I bring a sword against that country and say,`Let the sword pass throughout the land,' and I kill its men and their animals,

Ezekiel 14:18 as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, even if these three men were in it, they could not save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved.

Ezekiel 14:19 "Or if I send a plague into that land and pour out my wrath upon it through bloodshed, killing its men and their animals,

Ezekiel 14:20 as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, even if Noah, Daniel and Job were in it, they could save neither son nor daughter. They would save only themselves by their righteousness.

Ezekiel 14:21 "For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: How much worse will it be when I send against Jerusalem my four dreadful judgments—sword and famine and wild beasts and plague—to kill its men and their animals!

Ezekiel 14:22 Yet there will be some survivors—sons and daughters who will be brought out of it. They will come to you, and when you see their conduct and their actions, you will be consoled regarding the disaster I have brought upon Jerusalem—every disaster I have brought upon it.

Ezekiel 14:23 You will be consoled when you see their conduct and their actions, for you will know that I have done nothing in it without cause, declares the Sovereign LORD."

Ezekiel 15:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 15:2 "Son of man, how is the wood of a vine better than that of a branch on any of the trees in the forest?

Ezekiel 15:3 Is wood ever taken from it to make anything useful? Do they make pegs from it to hang things on?

Ezekiel 15:4 And after it is thrown on the fire as fuel and the fire burns both ends and chars the middle, is it then useful for anything?

Ezekiel 15:5 If it was not useful for anything when it was whole, how much less can it be made into something useful when the fire has burned it and it is charred?

Ezekiel 15:6 “Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: As I have given the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest as fuel for the fire, so will I treat the people living in Jerusalem.

Ezekiel 15:7 I will set my face against them. Although they have come out of the fire, the fire will yet consume them. And when I set my face against them, you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 15:8 I will make the land desolate because they have been unfaithful, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel 16:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 16:2 “Son of man, confront Jerusalem with her detestable practices

Ezekiel 16:3 and say,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says to Jerusalem: Your ancestry and birth were in the land of the Canaanites; your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite.

Ezekiel 16:4 On the day you were born your cord was not cut, nor were you washed with water to make you clean, nor were you rubbed with salt or wrapped in cloths.

Ezekiel 16:5 No-one looked on you with pity or had compassion enough to do any of these things for you. Rather, you were thrown out into the open field, for on the day you were born you were despised.

Ezekiel 16:6 “`Then I passed by and saw you kicking about in your blood, and as you lay there in your blood I said to you, “Live!”

Ezekiel 16:7 I made you grow like a plant of the field. You grew up and developed and became the most beautiful of jewels. Your breasts were formed and your hair grew, you who were naked and bare.

Ezekiel 16:8 “`Later I passed by, and when I looked at you and saw that you were old enough for love, I spread the corner of my garment over you and covered your nakedness. I gave you my solemn oath and entered into a covenant with you, declares the Sovereign LORD, and you became mine.

Ezekiel 16:9 “`I bathed you with water and washed the blood from you and put ointments on you.

Ezekiel 16:10 I clothed you with an embroidered dress and put leather sandals on you. I dressed you in fine linen and covered you with costly garments.

Ezekiel 16:11 I adorned you with jewellery: I put bracelets on your arms and a necklace around your neck,

Ezekiel 16:12 and I put a ring on your nose, ear-rings on your ears and a beautiful crown on your head.

Ezekiel 16:13 So you were adorned with gold and silver; your clothes were of fine linen and costly fabric and embroidered cloth. Your food was fine flour, honey and olive oil. You became very beautiful and rose to be a queen.

Ezekiel 16:14 And your fame spread among the nations on account of your beauty, because the splendour I had given you made your beauty perfect, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 16:15 "`But you trusted in your beauty and used your fame to become a prostitute. You lavished your favours on anyone who passed by and your beauty became his.

Ezekiel 16:16 You took some of your garments to make gaudy high places, where you carried on your prostitution. Such things should not happen, nor should they ever occur.

Ezekiel 16:17 You also took the fine jewellery I gave you, the jewellery made of my gold and silver, and you made for yourself male idols and engaged in prostitution with them.

Ezekiel 16:18 And you took your embroidered clothes to put on them, and you offered my oil and incense before them.

Ezekiel 16:19 Also the food I provided for you—the fine flour, olive oil and honey I gave you to eat—you offered as fragrant incense before them. That is what happened, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 16:20 "`And you took your sons and daughters whom you bore to me and sacrificed them as food to the idols. Was your prostitution not enough?

Ezekiel 16:21 You slaughtered my children and sacrificed them to the idols.

Ezekiel 16:22 In all your detestable practices and your prostitution you did not remember the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, kicking about in your blood.

Ezekiel 16:23 "`Woe! Woe to you, declares the Sovereign LORD. In addition to all your other wickedness,

Ezekiel 16:24 you built a mound for yourself and made a lofty shrine in every public square.

Ezekiel 16:25 At the head of every street you built your lofty shrines and degraded your beauty, offering your body with increasing promiscuity to anyone who passed by.

Ezekiel 16:26 You engaged in prostitution with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbours, and provoked me to anger with your increasing promiscuity.

Ezekiel 16:27 So I stretched out my hand against you and reduced your territory; I gave you over to the greed of your enemies, the daughters of the Philistines, who were shocked by your lewd conduct.

Ezekiel 16:28 You engaged in prostitution with the Assyrians too, because you were insatiable; and even after that, you still were not satisfied.

Ezekiel 16:29 Then you increased your promiscuity to include Babylonia, a land of merchants, but even with this you were not satisfied.

Ezekiel 16:30 “`How weak-willed you are, declares the Sovereign LORD, when you do all these things, acting like a brazen prostitute!

Ezekiel 16:31 When you built your mounds at the head of every street and made your lofty shrines in every public square, you were unlike a prostitute, because you scorned payment.

Ezekiel 16:32 “`You adulterous wife! You prefer strangers to your own husband!

Ezekiel 16:33 Every prostitute receives a fee, but you give gifts to all your lovers, bribing them to come to you from everywhere for your illicit favours.

Ezekiel 16:34 So in your prostitution you are the opposite of others; no-one runs after you for your favours. You are the very opposite, for you give payment and none is given to you.

Ezekiel 16:35 “`Therefore, you prostitute, hear the word of the LORD!

Ezekiel 16:36 This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you poured out your wealth and exposed your nakedness in your promiscuity with your lovers, and because of all your detestable idols, and because you gave them your children’s blood,

Ezekiel 16:37 therefore I am going to gather all your lovers, with whom you found pleasure, those you loved as well as those you hated. I will gather them against you from all around and will strip you in front of them, and they will see all your nakedness.

Ezekiel 16:38 I will sentence you to the punishment of women who commit adultery and who shed blood; I will bring upon you the blood vengeance of my wrath and jealous anger.

Ezekiel 16:39 Then I will hand you over to your lovers, and they will tear down your mounds and destroy your lofty shrines. They will strip you of your clothes and take your fine jewellery and leave you naked and bare.

Ezekiel 16:40 They will bring a mob against you, who will stone you and hack you to pieces with their swords.

Ezekiel 16:41 They will burn down your houses and inflict punishment on you in the sight of many women. I will put a stop to your prostitution, and you will no longer pay your lovers.

Ezekiel 16:42 Then my wrath against you will subside and my jealous anger will turn away from you; I will be calm and no longer angry.

Ezekiel 16:43 "`Because you did not remember the days of your youth but enraged me with all these things, I will surely bring down on your head what you have done, declares the Sovereign LORD. Did you not add lewdness to all your other detestable practices?

Ezekiel 16:44 "`Everyone who quotes proverbs will quote this proverb about you: "Like mother, like daughter."

Ezekiel 16:45 You are a true daughter of your mother, who despised her husband and her children; and you are a true sister of your sisters, who despised their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

Ezekiel 16:46 Your older sister was Samaria, who lived to the north of you with her daughters; and your younger sister, who lived to the south of you with her daughters, was Sodom.

Ezekiel 16:47 You not only walked in their ways and copied their detestable practices, but in all your ways you soon became more depraved than they.

Ezekiel 16:48 As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, your sister Sodom and her daughters never did what you and your daughters have done.

Ezekiel 16:49 "`Now this was the sin of your sister Sodom: She and her daughters were arrogant, overfed and unconcerned; they did not help the poor and needy.

Ezekiel 16:50 They were haughty and did detestable things before me. Therefore I did away with them as you have seen.

Ezekiel 16:51 Samaria did not commit half the sins you did. You have done more detestable things than they, and have made your sisters seem righteous by all these things you have done.

Ezekiel 16:52 Bear your disgrace, for you have furnished some justification for your sisters. Because your sins were more vile than theirs, they appear more righteous than you. So then, be ashamed and bear your disgrace, for you have made your sisters appear righteous.

Ezekiel 16:53 "`However, I will restore the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters and of Samaria and her daughters, and your fortunes along with them,

Ezekiel 16:54 so that you may bear your disgrace and be ashamed of all you have done in giving them comfort.

Ezekiel 16:55 And your sisters, Sodom with her daughters and Samaria with her daughters, will return to what they were before; and you and your daughters will return to what you were before.

Ezekiel 16:56 You would not even mention your sister Sodom in the day of your pride,

Ezekiel 16:57 before your wickedness was uncovered. Even so, you are now scorned by the daughters of Edom and all her neighbours and the daughters of the Philistines— all those around you who despise you.

Ezekiel 16:58 You will bear the consequences of your lewdness and your detestable practices, declares the LORD.

Ezekiel 16:59 "`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will deal with you as you deserve, because you have despised my oath by breaking the covenant.

Ezekiel 16:60 Yet I will remember the covenant I made with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you.

Ezekiel 16:61 Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed when you receive your sisters, both those who are older than you and those who are younger. I will give them to you as daughters, but not on the basis of my covenant with you.

Ezekiel 16:62 So I will establish my covenant with you, and you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 16:63 Then, when I make atonement for you for all you have done, you will remember and be ashamed and never again open your mouth because of your humiliation, declares the Sovereign LORD.'"

Ezekiel 17:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 17:2 "Son of man, set forth an allegory and tell the house of Israel a parable.

Ezekiel 17:3 Say to them,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: A great eagle with powerful wings, long feathers and full plumage of varied colours came to Lebanon. Taking hold of the top of a cedar,

Ezekiel 17:4 he broke off its topmost shoot and carried it away to a land of merchants, where he planted it in a city of traders.

Ezekiel 17:5 "`He took some of the seed of your land and put it in fertile soil. He planted it like a willow by abundant water,

Ezekiel 17:6 and it sprouted and became a low, spreading vine. Its branches turned towards him, but its roots remained under it. So it became a vine and produced branches and put out leafy boughs.

Ezekiel 17:7 "`But there was another great eagle with powerful wings and full plumage. The vine now sent out its roots towards him from the plot where it was planted and stretched out its branches to him for water.

Ezekiel 17:8 It had been planted in good soil by abundant water so that it would produce branches, bear fruit and become a splendid vine.'

Ezekiel 17:9 "Say to them,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Will it thrive? Will it not be uprooted and stripped of its fruit so that it withers? All its new growth will wither. It will not take a strong arm or many people to pull it up by the roots.

Ezekiel 17:10 Even if it is transplanted, will it thrive? Will it not wither completely when the east wind strikes it—wither away in the plot where it grew?'"

Ezekiel 17:11 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 17:12 "Say to this rebellious house,`Do you not know what these things mean?' Say to them:`The king of Babylon went to Jerusalem and carried off her king and her nobles, bringing them back with him to Babylon.

Ezekiel 17:13 Then he took a member of the royal family and made a treaty with him, putting him under oath. He also carried away the leading men of the land,

Ezekiel 17:14 so that the kingdom would be brought low, unable to rise again, surviving only by keeping his treaty.

Ezekiel 17:15 But the king rebelled against him by sending his envoys to Egypt to get horses and a large army. Will he succeed? Will he who does such things escape? Will he break the treaty and yet escape?

Ezekiel 17:16 "`As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, he shall die in Babylon, in the land of the king who put him on the throne, whose oath he despised and whose treaty he broke.

Ezekiel 17:17 Pharaoh with his mighty army and great horde will be of no help to him in war, when ramps are built and siege works erected to destroy many lives.

Ezekiel 17:18 He despised the oath by breaking the covenant. Because he had given his hand in pledge and yet did all these things, he shall not escape.

Ezekiel 17:19 "`Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: As surely as I live, I will bring down on his head my oath that he despised and my covenant that he broke.

Ezekiel 17:20 I will spread my net for him, and he will be caught in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon and execute judgment upon him there because he was unfaithful to me.

Ezekiel 17:21 All his fleeing troops will fall by the sword, and the survivors will be scattered to the winds. Then you will know that I the LORD have spoken.

Ezekiel 17:22 "`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself will take a shoot from the very top of a cedar and plant it; I will break off a tender sprig from its topmost shoots and plant it on a high and lofty mountain.

Ezekiel 17:23 On the mountain heights of Israel I will plant it; it will produce branches and bear fruit and become a splendid cedar. Birds of every kind will nest in it; they will find shelter in the shade of its branches.

Ezekiel 17:24 All the trees of the field will know that I the LORD bring down the tall tree and make the low tree grow tall. I dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish. “`I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it.’“

Ezekiel 18:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 18:2 “What do you people mean by quoting this proverb about the land of Israel: “`The fathers eat sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge’?

Ezekiel 18:3 “As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, you will no longer quote this proverb in Israel.

Ezekiel 18:4 For every living soul belongs to me, the father as well as the son—both alike belong to me. The soul who sins is the one who will die.

Ezekiel 18:5 “Suppose there is a righteous man who does what is just and right.

Ezekiel 18:6 He does not eat at the mountain shrines or look to the idols of the house of Israel. He does not defile his neighbour’s wife or lie with a woman during her period.

Ezekiel 18:7 He does not oppress anyone, but returns what he took in pledge for a loan. He does not commit robbery, but gives his food to the hungry and provides clothing for the naked.

Ezekiel 18:8 He does not lend at usury or take excessive interest. He withholds his hand from doing wrong and judges fairly between man and man.

Ezekiel 18:9 He follows my decrees and faithfully keeps my laws. That man is righteous; he will surely live, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 18:10 “Suppose he has a violent son, who sheds blood or does any of these other things

Ezekiel 18:11 (though the father has done none of them): “He eats at the mountain shrines. He defiles his neighbour’s wife.

Ezekiel 18:12 He oppresses the poor and needy. He commits robbery. He does not return what he took in pledge. He looks to the idols. He does detestable things.

Ezekiel 18:13 He lends at usury and takes excessive interest. Will such a man live? He will not! Because he has done all these detestable things, he will surely be put to death and his blood will be on his own head.

Ezekiel 18:14 “But suppose this son has a son who sees all the sins his father commits, and though he sees them, he does not do such things:

Ezekiel 18:15 “He does not eat at the mountain shrines or look to the idols of the house of Israel. He does not defile his neighbour’s wife.

Ezekiel 18:16 He does not oppress anyone or require a pledge for a loan. He does not commit robbery, but gives his food to the hungry and provides clothing for the naked.

Ezekiel 18:17 He withholds his hand from sin and takes no usury or excessive interest. He keeps my laws and follows my decrees. He will not die for his father’s sin; he will surely live.

Ezekiel 18:18 But his father will die for his own sin, because he practised extortion, robbed his brother and did what was wrong among his people.

Ezekiel 18:19 “Yet you ask,`Why does the son not share the guilt of his father?’ Since the son has done what is just and right and has been careful to keep all my decrees, he will surely live.

Ezekiel 18:20 The soul who sins is the one who will die. The son will not share the guilt of the father, nor will the father share the guilt of the son. The righteousness of the righteous man will be credited to him, and the wickedness of the wicked will be charged against him.

Ezekiel 18:21 “But if a wicked man turns away from all the sins he has committed and keeps all my decrees and does what is just and right, he will surely live; he will not die.

Ezekiel 18:22 None of the offences he has committed will be remembered against him. Because of the righteous things he has done, he will live.

Ezekiel 18:23 Do I take any pleasure in the death of the wicked? declares the Sovereign LORD. Rather, am I not pleased when they turn from their ways and live?

Ezekiel 18:24 “But if a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits sin and does the same detestable things the wicked man does, will he live? None of the righteous things he has done will be remembered. Because of the unfaithfulness he is guilty of and because of the sins he has committed, he will die.

Ezekiel 18:25 “Yet you say,`The way of the Lord is not just.’ Hear, O house of Israel: Is my way unjust? Is it not your ways that are unjust?

Ezekiel 18:26 If a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits sin, he will die for it; because of the sin he has committed he will die.

Ezekiel 18:27 But if a wicked man turns away from the wickedness he has committed and does what is just and right, he will save his life.

Ezekiel 18:28 Because he considers all the offences he has committed and turns away from them, he will surely live; he will not die.

Ezekiel 18:29 Yet the house of Israel says,`The way of the Lord is not just.' Are my ways unjust, O house of Israel? Is it not your ways that are unjust?

Ezekiel 18:30 "Therefore, O house of Israel, I will judge you, each one according to his ways, declares the Sovereign LORD. Repent! Turn away from all your offences; then sin will not be your downfall.

Ezekiel 18:31 Rid yourselves of all the offences you have committed, and get a new heart and a new spirit. Why will you die, O house of Israel?

Ezekiel 18:32 For I take no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Sovereign LORD. Repent and live!

Ezekiel 19:1 "Take up a lament concerning the princes of Israel

Ezekiel 19:2 and say: "`What a lioness was your mother among the lions! She lay down among the young lions and reared her cubs.

Ezekiel 19:3 She brought up one of her cubs, and he became a strong lion. He learned to tear the prey and he devoured men.

Ezekiel 19:4 The nations heard about him, and he was trapped in their pit. They led him with hooks to the land of Egypt.

Ezekiel 19:5 "`When she saw her hope unfulfilled, her expectation gone, she took another of her cubs and made him a strong lion.

Ezekiel 19:6 He prowled among the lions, for he was now a strong lion. He learned to tear the prey and he devoured men.

Ezekiel 19:7 He broke down their strongholds and devastated their towns. The land and all who were in it were terrified by his roaring.

Ezekiel 19:8 Then the nations came against him, those from regions round about. They spread their net for him, and he was trapped in their pit.

Ezekiel 19:9 With hooks they pulled him into a cage and brought him to the king of Babylon. They put him in prison, so his roar was heard no longer on the mountains of Israel.

Ezekiel 19:10 "`Your mother was like a vine in your vineyard planted by the water; it was fruitful and full of branches because of abundant water.

Ezekiel 19:11 Its branches were strong, fit for a ruler's sceptre. It towered high above the thick foliage, conspicuous for its height and for its many branches.

Ezekiel 19:12 But it was uprooted in fury and thrown to the ground. The east wind made it shrivel, it was stripped of its fruit; its strong branches withered and fire consumed them.

Ezekiel 19:13 Now it is planted in the desert, in a dry and thirsty land.

Ezekiel 19:14 Fire spread from one of its main branches and consumed its fruit. No strong branch is left on it fit for a ruler's sceptre.' This is a lament and is to be used as a lament."

Ezekiel 20:1 In the seventh year, in the fifth month on the tenth day, some of the elders of Israel came to enquire of the LORD, and they sat down in front of me.

Ezekiel 20:2 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 20:3 "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Have you come to enquire of me? As surely as I live, I will not let you enquire of me, declares the Sovereign LORD.'

Ezekiel 20:4 "Will you judge them? Will you judge them, son of man? Then confront them with the detestable practices of their fathers

Ezekiel 20:5 and say to them:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: On the day I chose Israel, I swore with uplifted hand to the descendants of the house of Jacob and revealed myself to them in Egypt. With uplifted hand I said to them, "I am the LORD your God."

Ezekiel 20:6 On that day I swore to them that I would bring them out of Egypt into a land I had searched out for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands.

Ezekiel 20:7 And I said to them, "Each of you, get rid of the vile images you have set your eyes on, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God."

Ezekiel 20:8 "`But they rebelled against me and would not listen to me; they did not get rid of the vile images they had set their eyes on, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. So I said I would pour out my wrath on them and spend my anger against them in Egypt.

Ezekiel 20:9 But for the sake of my name I did what would keep it from being profaned in the eyes of the nations they lived among and in whose sight I had revealed myself to the Israelites by bringing them out of Egypt.

Ezekiel 20:10 Therefore I led them out of Egypt and brought them into the desert.

Ezekiel 20:11 I gave them my decrees and made known to them my laws, for the man who obeys them will live by them.

Ezekiel 20:12 Also I gave them my Sabbaths as a sign between us, so they would know that I the LORD made them holy.

Ezekiel 20:13 “`Yet the people of Israel rebelled against me in the desert. They did not follow my decrees but rejected my laws— although the man who obeys them will live by them—and they utterly desecrated my Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out my wrath on them and destroy them in the desert.

Ezekiel 20:14 But for the sake of my name I did what would keep it from being profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out.

Ezekiel 20:15 Also with uplifted hand I swore to them in the desert that I would not bring them into the land I had given them—a land flowing with milk and honey, most beautiful of all lands—

Ezekiel 20:16 because they rejected my laws and did not follow my decrees and desecrated my Sabbaths. For their hearts were devoted to their idols.

Ezekiel 20:17 Yet I looked on them with pity and did not destroy them or put an end to them in the desert.

Ezekiel 20:18 I said to their children in the desert, “Do not follow the statutes of your fathers or keep their laws or defile yourselves with their idols.

Ezekiel 20:19 I am the LORD your God; follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws.

Ezekiel 20:20 Keep my Sabbaths holy, that they may be a sign between us. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God.”

Ezekiel 20:21 “`But the children rebelled against me: They did not follow my decrees, they were not careful to keep my laws— although the man who obeys them will live by them—and they desecrated my Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out my wrath on them and spend my anger against them in the desert.

Ezekiel 20:22 But I withheld my hand, and for the sake of my name I did what would keep it from being profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out.

Ezekiel 20:23 Also with uplifted hand I swore to them in the desert that I would disperse them among the nations and scatter them through the countries,

Ezekiel 20:24 because they had not obeyed my laws but had rejected my decrees and desecrated my Sabbaths, and their eyes [lusted] after their fathers’ idols.

Ezekiel 20:25 I also gave them over to statutes that were not good and laws they could not live by;

Ezekiel 20:26 I let them become defiled through their gifts—the sacrifice of every firstborn— that I might fill them with horror so that they would know that I am the LORD.’

Ezekiel 20:27 “Therefore, son of man, speak to the people of Israel and say to them,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: In this also your fathers blasphemed me by forsaking me:

Ezekiel 20:28 When I brought them into the land I had sworn to give them and they saw any high hill or any leafy tree, there they offered their sacrifices, made offerings that provoked me to anger, presented their fragrant incense and poured out their drink offerings.

Ezekiel 20:29 Then I said to them: What is this high place you go to?’“ (It is called Bamah to this day.)

Ezekiel 20:30 “Therefore say to the house of Israel:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Will you defile yourselves the way your fathers did and lust after their vile images?

Ezekiel 20:31 When you offer your gifts—the sacrifice of your sons in the fire—you continue to defile yourselves with all your idols to this day. Am I to let you enquire of me, O house of Israel? As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I will not let you enquire of me.

Ezekiel 20:32 “`You say, “We want to be like the nations, like the peoples of the world, who serve wood and stone.” But what you have in mind will never happen.

Ezekiel 20:33 As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I will rule over you with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with outpoured wrath.

Ezekiel 20:34 I will bring you from the nations and gather you from the countries where you have been scattered—with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with outpoured wrath.

Ezekiel 20:35 I will bring you into the desert of the nations and there, face to face, I will execute judgment upon you.

Ezekiel 20:36 As I judged your fathers in the desert of the land of Egypt, so I will judge you, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 20:37 I will take note of you as you pass under my rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant.

Ezekiel 20:38 I will purge you of those who revolt and rebel against me. Although I will bring them out of the land where they are living, yet they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 20:39 “`As for you, O house of Israel, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Go and serve your idols, every one of you! But afterwards you will surely listen to me and no longer profane my holy name with your gifts and idols.

Ezekiel 20:40 For on my holy mountain, the high mountain of Israel, declares the Sovereign LORD, there in the land the entire house of Israel will serve me, and there I will accept them. There I will require your offerings and your choice gifts, along with all your holy sacrifices.

Ezekiel 20:41 I will accept you as fragrant incense when I bring you out from the nations and gather you from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will show myself holy among you in the sight of the nations.

Ezekiel 20:42 Then you will know that I am the LORD, when I bring you into the land of Israel, the land I had sworn with uplifted hand to give to your fathers.

Ezekiel 20:43 There you will remember your conduct and all the actions by which you have defiled yourselves, and you will loathe yourselves for all the evil you have done.

Ezekiel 20:44 You will know that I am the LORD, when I deal with you for my name’s sake and not according to your evil ways and your corrupt practices, O house of Israel, declares the Sovereign LORD.’“

Ezekiel 20:45 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 20:46 “Son of man, set your face towards the south; preach against the south and prophesy against the forest of the southland.

Ezekiel 20:47 Say to the southern forest:`Hear the word of the LORD. This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am about to set fire to you, and it will consume all your trees, both green and dry. The blazing flame will not be quenched, and every face from south to north will be scorched by it.

Ezekiel 20:48 Everyone will see that I the LORD have kindled it; it will not be quenched.’“

Ezekiel 20:49 Then I said, “Ah, Sovereign LORD! They are saying of me,`Isn’t he just telling parables?’“

Ezekiel 21:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 21:2 “Son of man, set your face against Jerusalem and preach against the sanctuary. Prophesy against the land of Israel

Ezekiel 21:3 and say to her:`This is what the LORD says: I am against you. I will draw my sword from its scabbard and cut off from you both the righteous and the wicked.

Ezekiel 21:4 Because I am going to cut off the righteous and the wicked, my sword will be unsheathed against everyone from south to north.

Ezekiel 21:5 Then all people will know that I the LORD have drawn my sword from its scabbard; it will not return again.’

Ezekiel 21:6 “Therefore groan, son of man! Groan before them with broken heart and bitter grief.

Ezekiel 21:7 And when they ask you,`Why are you groaning?’ you shall say,`Because of the news that is coming. Every heart will melt and every hand go limp; every spirit will become faint and every knee become as weak as water.’ It is coming! It will surely take place, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel 21:8 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 21:9 “Son of man, prophesy and say,`This is what the Lord says: “`A sword, a sword, sharpened and polished—

Ezekiel 21:10 sharpened for the slaughter, polished to flash like lightning! “`Shall we rejoice in the sceptre of my son [Judah]? The sword despises every such stick.

Ezekiel 21:11 “`The sword is appointed to be polished, to be grasped with the hand; it is sharpened and polished, made ready for the hand of the slayer.

Ezekiel 21:12 Cry out and wail, son of man, for it is against my people; it is against all the princes of Israel. They are thrown to the sword along with my people. Therefore beat your breast.

Ezekiel 21:13 “`Testing will surely come. And what if the sceptre [of Judah], which the sword despises, does not continue? declares the Sovereign LORD.’

Ezekiel 21:14 “So then, son of man, prophesy and strike your hands together. Let the sword strike twice, even three times. It is a sword for slaughter—a sword for great slaughter, closing in on them from every side.

Ezekiel 21:15 So that hearts may melt and the fallen be many, I have stationed the sword for slaughter at all their gates. Oh! It is made to flash like lightning, it is grasped for slaughter.

Ezekiel 21:16 O sword, slash to the right, then to the left, wherever your blade is turned.

Ezekiel 21:17 I too will strike my hands together, and my wrath will subside. I the LORD have spoken.”

Ezekiel 21:18 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 21:19 “Son of man, mark out two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to take, both starting from the same country. Make a signpost where the road branches off to the city.

Ezekiel 21:20 Mark out one road for the sword to come against Rabbah of the Ammonites and another against Judah and fortified Jerusalem.

Ezekiel 21:21 For the king of Babylon will stop at the fork in the road, at the junction of the two roads, to seek an omen: He will cast lots with arrows, he will consult his idols, he will examine the liver.

Ezekiel 21:22 Into his right hand will come the lot for Jerusalem, where he is to set up battering-rams, to give the command to slaughter, to sound the battle cry, to set battering-rams against the gates, to build a ramp and to erect siege works.

Ezekiel 21:23 It will seem like a false omen to those who have sworn allegiance to him, but he will remind them of their guilt and take them captive.

Ezekiel 21:24 “Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says:`Because you people have brought to mind your guilt by your open rebellion, revealing your sins in all that you do—because you have done this, you will be taken captive.

Ezekiel 21:25 “`O profane and wicked prince of Israel, whose day has come, whose time of punishment has reached its climax,

Ezekiel 21:26 this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Take off the turban, remove the crown. It will not be as it was: The lowly will be exalted and the exalted will be brought low.

Ezekiel 21:27 A ruin! A ruin! I will make it a ruin! It will not be restored until he comes to whom it rightfully belongs; to him I will give it.’

Ezekiel 21:28 “And you, son of man, prophesy and say,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says about the Ammonites and their insults: “`A sword, a sword, drawn for the slaughter, polished to consume and to flash like lightning!

Ezekiel 21:29 Despite false visions concerning you and lying divinations about you, it will be laid on the necks of the wicked who are to be slain, whose day has come, whose time of punishment has reached its climax.

Ezekiel 21:30 Return the sword to its scabbard. In the place where you were created, in the land of your ancestry, I will judge you.

Ezekiel 21:31 I will pour out my wrath upon you and breathe out my fiery anger against you; I will hand you over to brutal men, men skilled in destruction.

Ezekiel 21:32 You will be fuel for the fire, your blood will be shed in your land, you will be remembered no more; for I the LORD have spoken.’“

Ezekiel 22:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 22:2 “Son of man, will you judge her? Will you judge this city of bloodshed? Then confront her with all her detestable practices

Ezekiel 22:3 and say:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: O city that brings on herself doom by shedding blood in her midst and defiles herself by making idols,

Ezekiel 22:4 you have become guilty because of the blood you have shed and have become defiled by the idols you have made. You have brought your days to a close, and the end of your years has come. Therefore I will make you an object of scorn to the nations and a laughing-stock to all the countries.

Ezekiel 22:5 Those who are near and those who are far away will mock you, O infamous city, full of turmoil.

Ezekiel 22:6 “`See how each of the princes of Israel who are in you uses his power to shed blood.

Ezekiel 22:7 In you they have treated father and mother with contempt; in you they have oppressed the alien and ill-treated the fatherless and the widow.

Ezekiel 22:8 You have despised my holy things and desecrated my Sabbaths.

Ezekiel 22:9 In you are slanderous men bent on shedding blood; in you are those who eat at the mountain shrines and commit lewd acts.

Ezekiel 22:10 In you are those who dishonour their fathers’ bed; in you are those who violate women during their period, when they are ceremonially unclean.

Ezekiel 22:11 In you one man commits a detestable offence with his neighbour’s wife, another shamefully defiles his daughter-in-law, and another violates his sister, his own father’s daughter.

Ezekiel 22:12 In you men accept bribes to shed blood; you take usury and excessive interest and make unjust gain from your neighbours by extortion. And you have forgotten me, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 22:13 “`I will surely strike my hands together at the unjust gain you have made and at the blood you have shed in your midst.

Ezekiel 22:14 Will your courage endure or your hands be strong in the day I deal with you? I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it.

Ezekiel 22:15 I will disperse you among the nations and scatter you through the countries; and I will put an end to your uncleanness.

Ezekiel 22:16 When you have been defiled in the eyes of the nations, you will know that I am the LORD.’“

Ezekiel 22:17 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 22:18 “Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me; all of them are the copper, tin, iron and lead left inside a furnace. They are but the dross of silver.

Ezekiel 22:19 Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says:`Because you have all become dross, I will gather you into Jerusalem.

Ezekiel 22:20 As men gather silver, copper, iron, lead and tin into a furnace to melt it with a fiery blast, so will I gather you in my anger and my wrath and put you inside the city and melt you.

Ezekiel 22:21 I will gather you and I will blow on you with my fiery wrath, and you will be melted inside her.

Ezekiel 22:22 As silver is melted in a furnace, so you will be melted inside her, and you will know that I the LORD have poured out my wrath upon you.'"

Ezekiel 22:23 Again the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 22:24 "Son of man, say to the land,`You are a land that has had no rain or showers in the day of wrath.'

Ezekiel 22:25 There is a conspiracy of her princes within her like a roaring lion tearing its prey; they devour people, take treasures and precious things and make many widows within her.

Ezekiel 22:26 Her priests do violence to my law and profane my holy things; they do not distinguish between the holy and the common; they teach that there is no difference between the unclean and the clean; and they shut their eyes to the keeping of my Sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them.

Ezekiel 22:27 Her officials within her are like wolves tearing their prey; they shed blood and kill people to make unjust gain.

Ezekiel 22:28 Her prophets whitewash these deeds for them by false visions and lying divinations. They say,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says'—when the LORD has not spoken.

Ezekiel 22:29 The people of the land practise extortion and commit robbery; they oppress the poor and needy and ill-treat the alien, denying them justice.

Ezekiel 22:30 "I looked for a man among them who would build up the wall and stand before me in the gap on behalf of the land so that I would not have to destroy it, but I found none.

Ezekiel 22:31 So I will pour out my wrath on them and consume them with my fiery anger, bringing down on their own heads all they have done, declares the Sovereign LORD."

Ezekiel 23:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 23:2 "Son of man, there were two women, daughters of the same mother.

Ezekiel 23:3 They became prostitutes in Egypt, engaging in prostitution from their youth. In that land their breasts were fondled and their virgin bosoms caressed.

Ezekiel 23:4 The older was named Oholah, and her sister was Oholibah. They were mine and gave birth to sons and daughters. Oholah is Samaria, and Oholibah is Jerusalem.

Ezekiel 23:5 "Oholah engaged in prostitution while she was still mine; and she lusted after her lovers, the Assyrians—warriors

Ezekiel 23:6 clothed in blue, governors and commanders, all of them handsome young men, and mounted horsemen.

Ezekiel 23:7 She gave herself as a prostitute to all the elite of the Assyrians and defiled herself with all the idols of everyone she lusted after.

Ezekiel 23:8 She did not give up the prostitution she began in Egypt, when during her youth men slept with her, caressed her virgin bosom and poured out their lust upon her.

Ezekiel 23:9 “Therefore I handed her over to her lovers, the Assyrians, for whom she lusted.

Ezekiel 23:10 They stripped her naked, took away her sons and daughters and killed her with the sword. She became a byword among women, and punishment was inflicted on her.

Ezekiel 23:11 “Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet in her lust and prostitution she was more depraved than her sister.

Ezekiel 23:12 She too lusted after the Assyrians—governors and commanders, warriors in full dress, mounted horsemen, all handsome young men.

Ezekiel 23:13 I saw that she too defiled herself; both of them went the same way.

Ezekiel 23:14 “But she carried her prostitution still further. She saw men portrayed on a wall, figures of Chaldeans portrayed in red,

Ezekiel 23:15 with belts round their waists and flowing turbans on their heads; all of them looked like Babylonian chariot officers, natives of Chaldea.

Ezekiel 23:16 As soon as she saw them, she lusted after them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea.

Ezekiel 23:17 Then the Babylonians came to her, to the bed of love, and in their lust they defiled her. After she had been defiled by them, she turned away from them in disgust.

Ezekiel 23:18 When she carried on her prostitution openly and exposed her nakedness, I turned away from her in disgust, just as I had turned away from her sister.

Ezekiel 23:19 Yet she became more and more promiscuous as she recalled the days of her youth, when she was a prostitute in Egypt.

Ezekiel 23:20 There she lusted after her lovers, whose genitals were like those of donkeys and whose emission was like that of horses.

Ezekiel 23:21 So you longed for the lewdness of your youth, when in Egypt your bosom was caressed and your young breasts fondled.

Ezekiel 23:22 “Therefore, Oholibah, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will stir up your lovers against you, those you turned away from in disgust, and I will bring them against you from every side—

Ezekiel 23:23 the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, the men of Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them, handsome young men, all of them governors and commanders, chariot officers and men of high rank, all mounted on horses.

Ezekiel 23:24 They will come against you with weapons, chariots and wagons and with a throng of people; they will take up positions against you on every side with large and small shields and with helmets. I will turn you over to them for punishment, and they will punish you according to their standards.

Ezekiel 23:25 I will direct my jealous anger against you, and they will deal with you in fury. They will cut off your noses and your ears, and those of you who are left will fall by the sword. They will take away your sons and daughters, and those of you who are left will be consumed by fire.

Ezekiel 23:26 They will also strip you of your clothes and take your fine jewellery.

Ezekiel 23:27 So I will put a stop to the lewdness and prostitution you began in Egypt. You will not look on these things with longing or remember Egypt any more.

Ezekiel 23:28 “For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am about to hand you over to those you hate, to those you turned away from in disgust.

Ezekiel 23:29 They will deal with you in hatred and take away everything you have worked for. They will leave you naked and bare, and the shame of your prostitution will be exposed. Your lewdness and promiscuity

Ezekiel 23:30 have brought this upon you, because you lusted after the nations and defiled yourself with their idols.

Ezekiel 23:31 You have gone the way of your sister; so I will put her cup into your hand.

Ezekiel 23:32 “This is what the Sovereign LORD says: “You will drink your sister’s cup, a cup large and deep; it will bring scorn and derision, for it holds so much.

Ezekiel 23:33 You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, the cup of ruin and desolation, the cup of your sister Samaria.

Ezekiel 23:34 You will drink it and drain it dry; you will dash it to pieces and tear your breasts. I have spoken, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 23:35 “Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Since you have forgotten me and thrust me behind your back, you must bear the consequences of your lewdness and prostitution.”

Ezekiel 23:36 The LORD said to me: “Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then confront them with their detestable practices, Ezekiel 23:37 for they have committed adultery and blood is on their hands. They committed adultery with their idols; they even sacrificed their children, whom they bore to me, as food for them.

Ezekiel 23:38 They have also done this to me: At that same time they defiled my sanctuary and desecrated my Sabbaths.

Ezekiel 23:39 On the very day they sacrificed their children to their idols, they entered my sanctuary and desecrated it. That is what they did in my house.

Ezekiel 23:40 “They even sent messengers for men who came from far away, and when they arrived you bathed yourself for them, painted your eyes and put on your jewellery.

Ezekiel 23:41 You sat on an elegant couch, with a table spread before it on which you had placed the incense and oil that belonged to me.

Ezekiel 23:42 “The noise of a carefree crowd was around her; Sabeans were brought from the desert along with men from the rabble, and they put bracelets on the arms of the woman and her sister and beautiful crowns on their heads.

Ezekiel 23:43 Then I said about the one worn out by adultery,`Now let them use her as a prostitute, for that is all she is.’

Ezekiel 23:44 And they slept with her. As men sleep with a prostitute, so they slept with those lewd women, Oholah and Oholibah.

Ezekiel 23:45 But righteous men will sentence them to the punishment of women who commit adultery and shed blood, because they are adulterous and blood is on their hands.

Ezekiel 23:46 “This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Bring a mob against them and give them over to terror and plunder.

Ezekiel 23:47 The mob will stone them and cut them down with their swords; they will kill their sons and daughters and burn down their houses.

Ezekiel 23:48 “So I will put an end to lewdness in the land, that all women may take warning and not imitate you.

Ezekiel 23:49 You will suffer the penalty for your lewdness and bear the consequences of your sins of idolatry. Then you will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel 24:1 In the ninth year, in the tenth month on the tenth day, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 24:2 “Son of man, record this date, this very date, because the king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day.

Ezekiel 24:3 Tell this rebellious house a parable and say to them:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: “`Put on the cooking pot; put it on and pour water into it.

Ezekiel 24:4 Put into it the pieces of meat, all the choice pieces— the leg and the shoulder. Fill it with the best of these bones;

Ezekiel 24:5 take the pick of the flock. Pile wood beneath it for the bones; bring it to the boil and cook the bones in it.

Ezekiel 24:6 "`For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: "`Woe to the city of bloodshed, to the pot now encrusted, whose deposit will not go away! Empty it piece by piece without casting lots for them.

Ezekiel 24:7 "`For the blood she shed is in her midst: She poured it on the bare rock; she did not pour it on the ground, where the dust would cover it.

Ezekiel 24:8 To stir up wrath and take revenge I put her blood on the bare rock, so that it would not be covered.

Ezekiel 24:9 "`Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: "`Woe to the city of bloodshed! I, too, will pile the wood high.

Ezekiel 24:10 So heap on the wood and kindle the fire. Cook the meat well, mixing in the spices; and let the bones be charred.

Ezekiel 24:11 Then set the empty pot on the coals till it becomes hot and its copper glows so its impurities may be melted and its deposit burned away.

Ezekiel 24:12 It has frustrated all efforts; its heavy deposit has not been removed, not even by fire.

Ezekiel 24:13 "`Now your impurity is lewdness. Because I tried to cleanse you but you would not be cleansed from your impurity, you will not be clean again until my wrath against you has subsided.

Ezekiel 24:14 "`I the LORD have spoken. The time has come for me to act. I will not hold back; I will not have pity, nor will I relent. You will be judged according to your conduct and your actions, declares the Sovereign LORD.'"

Ezekiel 24:15 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 24:16 "Son of man, with one blow I am about to take away from you the delight of your eyes. Yet do not lament or weep or shed any tears.

Ezekiel 24:17 Groan quietly; do not mourn for the dead. Keep your turban fastened and your sandals on your feet; do not cover the lower part of your face or eat the customary food [of mourners]."

Ezekiel 24:18 So I spoke to the people in the morning, and in the evening my wife died. The next morning I did as I had been commanded.

Ezekiel 24:19 Then the people asked me, "Won't you tell us what these things have to do with us?"

Ezekiel 24:20 So I said to them, "The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 24:21 Say to the house of Israel,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am about to desecrate my sanctuary—the stronghold in which you take pride, the delight of your eyes, the object of your affection. The sons and daughters you left behind will fall by the sword.

Ezekiel 24:22 And you will do as I have done. You will not cover the lower part of your face or eat the customary food [of mourners].

Ezekiel 24:23 You will keep your turbans on your heads and your sandals on your feet. You will not mourn or weep but will waste away because of your sins and groan among yourselves.

Ezekiel 24:24 Ezekiel will be a sign to you; you will do just as he has done. When this happens, you will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.’

Ezekiel 24:25 “And you, son of man, on the day I take away their stronghold, their joy and glory, the delight of their eyes, their heart’s desire, and their sons and daughters as well—

Ezekiel 24:26 on that day a fugitive will come to tell you the news.

Ezekiel 24:27 At that time your mouth will be opened; you will speak with him and will no longer be silent. So you will be a sign to them, and they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 25:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 25:2 “Son of man, set your face against the Ammonites and prophesy against them.

Ezekiel 25:3 Say to them,`Hear the word of the Sovereign LORD. This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you said “Aha!” over my sanctuary when it was desecrated and over the land of Israel when it was laid waste and over the people of Judah when they went into exile,

Ezekiel 25:4 therefore I am going to give you to the people of the East as a possession. They will set up their camps and pitch their tents among you; they will eat your fruit and drink your milk.

Ezekiel 25:5 I will turn Rabbah into a pasture for camels and Ammon into a resting place for sheep. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 25:6 For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you have clapped your hands and stamped your feet, rejoicing with all the malice of your heart against the land of Israel,

Ezekiel 25:7 therefore I will stretch out my hand against you and give you as plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the nations and exterminate you from the countries. I will destroy you, and you will know that I am the LORD.’“

Ezekiel 25:8 “This is what the Sovereign LORD says:`Because Moab and Seir said, “Look, the house of Judah has become like all the other nations,”

Ezekiel 25:9 therefore I will expose the flank of Moab, beginning at its frontier towns—Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon and Kiriathaim— the glory of that land.

Ezekiel 25:10 I will give Moab along with the Ammonites to the people of the East as a possession, so that the Ammonites will not be remembered among the nations;

Ezekiel 25:11 and I will inflict punishment on Moab. Then they will know that I am the LORD.'"

Ezekiel 25:12 "This is what the Sovereign LORD says:`Because Edom took revenge on the house of Judah and became very guilty by doing so,

Ezekiel 25:13 therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will stretch out my hand against Edom and kill its men and their animals. I will lay it waste, and from Teman to Dedan they will fall by the sword.

Ezekiel 25:14 I will take vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel, and they will deal with Edom in accordance with my anger and my wrath; they will know my vengeance, declares the Sovereign LORD.'"

Ezekiel 25:15 "This is what the Sovereign LORD says:`Because the Philistines acted in vengeance and took revenge with malice in their hearts, and with ancient hostility sought to destroy Judah,

Ezekiel 25:16 therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am about to stretch out my hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the Kerethites and destroy those remaining along the coast.

Ezekiel 25:17 I will carry out great vengeance on them and punish them in my wrath. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I take vengeance on them.'"

Ezekiel 26:1 In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 26:2 "Son of man, because Tyre has said of Jerusalem,`Aha! The gate to the nations is broken, and its doors have swung open to me; now that she lies in ruins I will prosper,'

Ezekiel 26:3 therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, O Tyre, and I will bring many nations against you, like the sea casting up its waves.

Ezekiel 26:4 They will destroy the walls of Tyre and pull down her towers; I will scrape away her rubble and make her a bare rock.

Ezekiel 26:5 Out in the sea she will become a place to spread fishing nets, for I have spoken, declares the Sovereign LORD. She will become plunder for the nations,

Ezekiel 26:6 and her settlements on the mainland will be ravaged by the sword. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 26:7 "For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: From the north I am going to bring against Tyre Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, with horses and chariots, with horsemen and a great army.

Ezekiel 26:8 He will ravage your settlements on the mainland with the sword; he will set up siege works against you, build a ramp up to your walls and raise his shields against you.

Ezekiel 26:9 He will direct the blows of his battering-rams against your walls and demolish your towers with his weapons.

Ezekiel 26:10 His horses will be so many that they will cover you with dust. Your walls will tremble at the noise of the war horses, wagons and chariots when he enters your gates as men enter a city whose walls have been broken through.

Ezekiel 26:11 The hoofs of his horses will trample all your streets; he will kill your people with the sword, and your strong pillars will fall to the ground.

Ezekiel 26:12 They will plunder your wealth and loot your merchandise; they will break down your walls and demolish your fine houses and throw your stones, timber and rubble into the sea.

Ezekiel 26:13 I will put an end to your noisy songs, and the music of your harps will be heard no more.

Ezekiel 26:14 I will make you a bare rock, and you will become a place to spread fishing nets. You will never be rebuilt, for I the LORD have spoken, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 26:15 “This is what the Sovereign LORD says to Tyre: Will not the coastlands tremble at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan and the slaughter takes place in you?

Ezekiel 26:16 Then all the princes of the coast will step down from their thrones and lay aside their robes and take off their embroidered garments. Clothed with terror, they will sit on the ground, trembling every moment, appalled at you.

Ezekiel 26:17 Then they will take up a lament concerning you and say to you: “`How you are destroyed, O city of renown, peopled by men of the sea! You were a power on the seas, you and your citizens; you put your terror on all who lived there.

Ezekiel 26:18 Now the coastlands tremble on the day of your fall; the islands in the sea are terrified at your collapse.’

Ezekiel 26:19 “This is what the Sovereign LORD says: When I make you a desolate city, like cities no longer inhabited, and when I bring the ocean depths over you and its vast waters cover you,

Ezekiel 26:20 then I will bring you down with those who go down to the pit, to the people of long ago. I will make you dwell in the earth below, as in ancient ruins, with those who go down to the pit, and you will not return or take your place in the land of the living.

Ezekiel 26:21 I will bring you to a horrible end and you will be no more. You will be sought, but you will never again be found, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel 27:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 27:2 “Son of man, take up a lament concerning Tyre.

Ezekiel 27:3 Say to Tyre, situated at the gateway to the sea, merchant of peoples on many coasts,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: “`You say, O Tyre, “I am perfect in beauty.”

Ezekiel 27:4 Your domain was on the high seas; your builders brought your beauty to perfection.

Ezekiel 27:5 They made all your timbers of pine trees from Senir; they took a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

Ezekiel 27:6 Of oaks from Bashan they made your oars; of cypress wood from the coasts of Cyprus they made your deck, inlaid with ivory.

Ezekiel 27:7 Fine embroidered linen from Egypt was your sail and served as your banner; your awnings were of blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah.

Ezekiel 27:8 Men of Sidon and Arvad were your oarsmen; your skilled men, O Tyre, were aboard as your seamen.

Ezekiel 27:9 Veteran craftsmen of Gebal were on board as shipwrights to caulk your seams. All the ships of the sea and their sailors came alongside to trade for your wares.

Ezekiel 27:10 “`Men of Persia, Lydia and Put served as soldiers in your army. They hung their shields and helmets on your walls, bringing you splendour.

Ezekiel 27:11 Men of Arvad and Helech manned your walls on every side; men of Gammad were in your towers. They hung their shields around your walls; they brought your beauty to perfection.

Ezekiel 27:12 “`Tarshish did business with you because of your great wealth of goods; they exchanged silver, iron, tin and lead for your merchandise.

Ezekiel 27:13 “`Greece, Tubal and Meshech traded with you; they exchanged slaves and articles of bronze for your wares.

Ezekiel 27:14 “`Men of Beth Togarmah exchanged work horses, war horses and mules for your merchandise.

Ezekiel 27:15 “`The men of Rhodes traded with you, and many coastlands were your customers; they paid you with ivory tusks and ebony.

Ezekiel 27:16 “`Aram did business with you because of your many products; they exchanged turquoise, purple fabric, embroidered work, fine linen, coral and rubies for your merchandise.

Ezekiel 27:17 “`Judah and Israel traded with you; they exchanged wheat from Minnith and confections, honey, oil and balm for your wares.

Ezekiel 27:18 “`Damascus, because of your many products and great wealth of goods, did business with you in wine from Helbon and wool from Zahar.

Ezekiel 27:19 “`Danites and Greeks from Uzal bought your merchandise; they exchanged wrought iron, cassia and calamus for your wares.

Ezekiel 27:20 “`Dedan traded in saddle blankets with you.

Ezekiel 27:21 “`Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were your customers; they did business with you in lambs, rams and goats.

Ezekiel 27:22 “`The merchants of Sheba and Raamah traded with you; for your merchandise they exchanged the finest of all kinds of spices and precious stones, and gold.

Ezekiel 27:23 “`Haran, Canneh and Eden and merchants of Sheba, Asshur and Kilmad traded with you.

Ezekiel 27:24 In your market-place they traded with you beautiful garments, blue fabric, embroidered work and multicoloured rugs with cords twisted and tightly knotted.

Ezekiel 27:25 “`The ships of Tarshish serve as carriers for your wares. You are filled with heavy cargo in the heart of the sea.

Ezekiel 27:26 Your oarsmen take you out to the high seas. But the east wind will break you to pieces in the heart of the sea.

Ezekiel 27:27 Your wealth, merchandise and wares, your mariners, seamen and shipwrights, your merchants and all your soldiers, and everyone else on board will sink into the heart of the sea on the day of your shipwreck.

Ezekiel 27:28 The shorelands will quake when your seamen cry out.

Ezekiel 27:29 All who handle the oars will abandon their ships; the mariners and all the seamen will stand on the shore.

Ezekiel 27:30 They will raise their voice and cry bitterly over you; they will sprinkle dust on their heads and roll in ashes.

Ezekiel 27:31 They will shave their heads because of you and will put on sackcloth. They will weep over you with anguish of soul and with bitter mourning.

Ezekiel 27:32 As they wail and mourn over you, they will take up a lament concerning you: “Who was ever silenced like Tyre, surrounded by the sea?”

Ezekiel 27:33 When your merchandise went out on the seas, you satisfied many nations; with your great wealth and your wares you enriched the kings of the earth.

Ezekiel 27:34 Now you are shattered by the sea in the depths of the waters; your wares and all your company have gone down with you.

Ezekiel 27:35 All who live in the coastlands are appalled at you; their kings shudder with horror and their faces are distorted with fear.

Ezekiel 27:36 The merchants among the nations hiss at you; you have come to a horrible end and will be no more.'"

Ezekiel 28:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 28:2 "Son of man, say to the ruler of Tyre,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: "`In the pride of your heart you say, "I am a god; I sit on the throne of a god in the heart of the seas." But you are a man and not a god, though you think you are as wise as a god.

Ezekiel 28:3 Are you wiser than Daniel? Is no secret hidden from you?

Ezekiel 28:4 By your wisdom and understanding you have gained wealth for yourself and amassed gold and silver in your treasuries.

Ezekiel 28:5 By your great skill in trading you have increased your wealth, and because of your wealth your heart has grown proud.

Ezekiel 28:6 "`Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: "`Because you think you are wise, as wise as a god,

Ezekiel 28:7 I am going to bring foreigners against you, the most ruthless of nations; they will draw their swords against your beauty and wisdom and pierce your shining splendour.

Ezekiel 28:8 They will bring you down to the pit, and you will die a violent death in the heart of the seas.

Ezekiel 28:9 Will you then say, "I am a god," in the presence of those who kill you? You will be but a man, not a god, in the hands of those who slay you.

Ezekiel 28:10 You will die the death of the uncircumcised at the hands of foreigners. I have spoken, declares the Sovereign LORD.'"

Ezekiel 28:11 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 28:12 "Son of man, take up a lament concerning the king of Tyre and say to him:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: "`You were the model of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

Ezekiel 28:13 You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone adorned you: ruby, topaz and emerald, chrysolite, onyx and jasper, sapphire, turquoise and beryl. Your settings and mountings were made of gold; on the day you were created they were prepared.

Ezekiel 28:14 You were anointed as a guardian cherub, for so I ordained you. You were on the holy mount of God; you walked among the fiery stones.

Ezekiel 28:15 You were blameless in your ways from the day you were created till wickedness was found in you.

Ezekiel 28:16 Through your widespread trade you were filled with violence, and you sinned. So I drove you in disgrace from the mount of God, and I expelled you, O guardian cherub, from among the fiery stones.

Ezekiel 28:17 Your heart became proud on account of your beauty, and you corrupted your wisdom because of your splendour. So I threw you to the earth; I made a spectacle of you before kings.

Ezekiel 28:18 By your many sins and dishonest trade you have desecrated your sanctuaries. So I made a fire come out from you, and it consumed you, and I reduced you to ashes on the ground in the sight of all who were watching.

Ezekiel 28:19 All the nations who knew you are appalled at you; you have come to a horrible end and will be no more.'"

Ezekiel 28:20 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 28:21 "Son of man, set your face against Sidon; prophesy against her Ezekiel 28:22 and say:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: "`I am against you, O Sidon, and I will gain glory within you. They will know that I am the LORD, when I inflict punishment on her and show myself holy within her.

Ezekiel 28:23 I will send a plague upon her and make blood flow in her streets. The slain will fall within her, with the sword against her on every side. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 28:24 "`No longer will the people of Israel have malicious neighbours who are painful briers and sharp thorns. Then they will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 28:25 "`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: When I gather the people of Israel from the nations where they have been scattered, I will show myself holy among them in the sight of the nations. Then they will live in their own land, which I gave to my servant Jacob.

Ezekiel 28:26 They will live there in safety and will build houses and plant vineyards; they will live in safety when I inflict punishment on all their neighbours who maligned them. Then they will know that I am the LORD their God.'"

Ezekiel 29:1 In the tenth year, in the tenth month on the twelfth day, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 29:2 "Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt and prophesy against him and against all Egypt.

Ezekiel 29:3 Speak to him and say:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: "`I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, you great monster lying among your streams. You say, "The Nile is mine; I made it for myself."

Ezekiel 29:4 But I will put hooks in your jaws and make the fish of your streams stick to your scales. I will pull you out from among your streams, with all the fish sticking to your scales.

Ezekiel 29:5 I will leave you in the desert, you and all the fish of your streams. You will fall on the open field and not be gathered or picked up. I will give you as food to the beasts of the earth and the birds of the air.

Ezekiel 29:6 Then all who live in Egypt will know that I am the LORD. “`You have been a staff of reed for the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 29:7 When they grasped you with their hands, you splintered and you tore open their shoulders; when they leaned on you, you broke and their backs were wrenched.

Ezekiel 29:8 “`Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will bring a sword against you and kill your men and their animals.

Ezekiel 29:9 Egypt will become a desolate wasteland. Then they will know that I am the LORD. “`Because you said, “The Nile is mine; I made it,”

Ezekiel 29:10 therefore I am against you and against your streams, and I will make the land of Egypt a ruin and a desolate waste from Migdol to Aswan, as far as the border of Cush.

Ezekiel 29:11 No foot of man or animal will pass through it; no-one will live there for forty years.

Ezekiel 29:12 I will make the land of Egypt desolate among devastated lands, and her cities will lie desolate for forty years among ruined cities. And I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them through the countries.

Ezekiel 29:13 “`Yet this is what the Sovereign LORD says: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the nations where they were scattered.

Ezekiel 29:14 I will bring them back from captivity and return them to Upper Egypt, the land of their ancestry. There they will be a lowly kingdom.

Ezekiel 29:15 It will be the lowliest of kingdoms and will never again exalt itself above the other nations. I will make it so weak that it will never again rule over the nations.

Ezekiel 29:16 Egypt will no longer be a source of confidence for the people of Israel but will be a reminder of their sin in turning to her for help. Then they will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.’“

Ezekiel 29:17 In the twenty-seventh year, in the first month on the first day, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 29:18 “Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon drove his army in a hard campaign against Tyre; every head was rubbed bare and every shoulder made raw. Yet he and his army got no reward from the campaign he led against Tyre.

Ezekiel 29:19 Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am going to give Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will carry off its wealth. He will loot and plunder the land as pay for his army.

Ezekiel 29:20 I have given him Egypt as a reward for his efforts because he and his army did it for me, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 29:21 “On that day I will make a horn grow for the house of Israel, and I will open your mouth among them. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 30:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 30:2 “Son of man, prophesy and say:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: “`Wail and say, “Alas for that day!”

Ezekiel 30:3 For the day is near, the day of the LORD is near—a day of clouds, a time of doom for the nations.

Ezekiel 30:4 A sword will come against Egypt, and anguish will come upon Cush. When the slain fall in Egypt, her wealth will be carried away and her foundations torn down.

Ezekiel 30:5 Cush and Put, Lydia and all Arabia, Libya and the people of the covenant land will fall by the sword along with Egypt.

Ezekiel 30:6 “`This is what the LORD says: “`The allies of Egypt will fall and her proud strength will fail. From Migdol to Aswan they will fall by the sword within her, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 30:7 “`They will be desolate among desolate lands, and their cities will lie among ruined cities.

Ezekiel 30:8 Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I set fire to Egypt and all her helpers are crushed.

Ezekiel 30:9 “`On that day messengers will go out from me in ships to frighten Cush out of her complacency. Anguish will take hold of them on the day of Egypt’s doom, for it is sure to come.

Ezekiel 30:10 “`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: “`I will put an end to the hordes of Egypt by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

Ezekiel 30:11 He and his army—the most ruthless of nations—will be brought in to destroy the land. They will draw their swords against Egypt and fill the land with the slain.

Ezekiel 30:12 I will dry up the streams of the Nile and sell the land to evil men; by the hand of foreigners I will lay waste the land and everything in it. I the LORD have spoken.

Ezekiel 30:13 “`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: “`I will destroy the idols and put an end to the images in Memphis. No longer will there be a prince in Egypt, and I will spread fear throughout the land.

Ezekiel 30:14 I will lay waste Upper Egypt, set fire to Zoan and inflict punishment on Thebes.

Ezekiel 30:15 I will pour out my wrath on Pelusium, the stronghold of Egypt, and cut off the hordes of Thebes.

Ezekiel 30:16 I will set fire to Egypt; Pelusium will writhe in agony. Thebes will be taken by storm; Memphis will be in constant distress.

Ezekiel 30:17 The young men of Heliopolis and Bubastis will fall by the sword, and the cities themselves will go into captivity.

Ezekiel 30:18 Dark will be the day at Tahpanhes when I break the yoke of Egypt; there her proud strength will come to an end. She will be covered with clouds, and her villages will go into captivity.

Ezekiel 30:19 So I will inflict punishment on Egypt, and they will know that I am the LORD.'"

Ezekiel 30:20 In the eleventh year, in the first month on the seventh day, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 30:21 “Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. It has not been bound up for healing or put in a splint so as to become strong enough to hold a sword.

Ezekiel 30:22 Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt. I will break both his arms, the good arm as well as the broken one, and make the sword fall from his hand.

Ezekiel 30:23 I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them through the countries.

Ezekiel 30:24 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put my sword in his hand, but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before him like a mortally wounded man.

Ezekiel 30:25 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh will fall limp. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he brandishes it against Egypt.

Ezekiel 30:26 I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them through the countries. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 31:1 In the eleventh year, in the third month on the first day, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 31:2 “Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his hordes: “`Who can be compared with you in majesty?

Ezekiel 31:3 Consider Assyria, once a cedar in Lebanon, with beautiful branches overshadowing the forest; it towered on high, its top above the thick foliage.

Ezekiel 31:4 The waters nourished it, deep springs made it grow tall; their streams flowed all around its base and sent their channels to all the trees of the field.

Ezekiel 31:5 So it towered higher than all the trees of the field; its boughs increased and its branches grew long, spreading because of abundant waters.

Ezekiel 31:6 All the birds of the air nested in its boughs, all the beasts of the field gave birth under its branches; all the great nations lived in its shade.

Ezekiel 31:7 It was majestic in beauty, with its spreading boughs, for its roots went down to abundant waters.

Ezekiel 31:8 The cedars in the garden of God could not rival it, nor could the pine trees equal its boughs, nor could the plane trees compare with its branches—no tree in the garden of God could match its beauty.

Ezekiel 31:9 I made it beautiful with abundant branches, the envy of all the trees of Eden in the garden of God.

Ezekiel 31:10 “`Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because it towered on high, lifting its top above the thick foliage, and because it was proud of its height,

Ezekiel 31:11 I handed it over to the ruler of the nations, for him to deal with according to its wickedness. I cast it aside,

Ezekiel 31:12 and the most ruthless of foreign nations cut it down and left it. Its boughs fell on the mountains and in all the valleys; its branches lay broken in all the ravines of the land. All the nations of the earth came out from under its shade and left it.

Ezekiel 31:13 All the birds of the air settled on the fallen tree, and all the beasts of the field were among its branches.

Ezekiel 31:14 Therefore no other trees by the waters are ever to tower proudly on high, lifting their tops above the thick foliage. No other trees so well-watered are ever to reach such a height; they are all destined for death, for the earth below, among mortal men, with those who go down to the pit.

Ezekiel 31:15 “`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: On the day it was brought down to the grave I covered the deep springs with mourning for it; I held back its streams, and its abundant waters were restrained. Because of it I clothed Lebanon with gloom, and all the trees of the field withered away.

Ezekiel 31:16 I made the nations tremble at the sound of its fall when I brought it down to the grave with those who go down to the pit. Then all the trees of Eden, the choicest and best of Lebanon, all the trees that were well-watered, were consoled in the earth below.

Ezekiel 31:17 Those who lived in its shade, its allies among the nations, had also gone down to the grave with it, joining those killed by the sword.

Ezekiel 31:18 “`Which of the trees of Eden can be compared with you in splendour and majesty? Yet you, too, will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the earth below; you will lie among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword. “`This is Pharaoh and all his hordes, declares the Sovereign LORD.’“

Ezekiel 32:1 In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month on the first day, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 32:2 “Son of man, take up a lament concerning Pharaoh king of Egypt and say to him: “`You are like a lion among the nations; you are like a monster in the seas thrashing about in your streams, churning the water with your feet and muddying the streams.

Ezekiel 32:3 “`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: “`With a great throng of people I will cast my net over you, and they will haul you up in my net.

Ezekiel 32:4 I will throw you on the land and hurl you on the open field. I will let all the birds of the air settle on you and all the beasts of the earth gorge themselves on you.

Ezekiel 32:5 I will spread your flesh on the mountains and fill the valleys with your remains.

Ezekiel 32:6 I will drench the land with your flowing blood all the way to the mountains, and the ravines will be filled with your flesh.

Ezekiel 32:7 When I snuff you out, I will cover the heavens and darken their stars; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon will not give its light.

Ezekiel 32:8 All the shining lights in the heavens I will darken over you; I will bring darkness over your land, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 32:9 I will trouble the hearts of many peoples when I bring about your destruction among the nations, among lands you have not known.

Ezekiel 32:10 I will cause many peoples to be appalled at you, and their kings will shudder with horror because of you when I brandish my sword before them. On the day of your downfall each of them will tremble every moment for his life.

Ezekiel 32:11 “`For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: “`The sword of the king of Babylon will come against you.

Ezekiel 32:12 I will cause your hordes to fall by the swords of mighty men—the most ruthless of all nations. They will shatter the pride of Egypt, and all her hordes will be overthrown.

Ezekiel 32:13 I will destroy all her cattle from beside abundant waters no longer to be stirred by the foot of man or muddied by the hoofs of cattle.

Ezekiel 32:14 Then I will let her waters settle and make her streams flow like oil, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 32:15 When I make Egypt desolate and strip the land of everything in it, when I strike down all who live there, then they will know that I am the LORD.’

Ezekiel 32:16 “This is the lament they will chant for her. The daughters of the nations will chant it; for Egypt and all her hordes they will chant it, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel 32:17 In the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 32:18 “Son of man, wail for the hordes of Egypt and consign to the earth below both her and the daughters of mighty nations, with those who go down to the pit.

Ezekiel 32:19 Say to them,`Are you more favoured than others? Go down and be laid among the uncircumcised.’

Ezekiel 32:20 They will fall among those killed by the sword. The sword is drawn; let her be dragged off with all her hordes.

Ezekiel 32:21 From within the grave the mighty leaders will say of Egypt and her allies,`They have come down and they lie with the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword.’

Ezekiel 32:22 “Assyria is there with her whole army; she is surrounded by the graves of all her slain, all who have fallen by the sword.

Ezekiel 32:23 Their graves are in the depths of the pit and her army lies around her grave. All who had spread terror in the land of the living are slain, fallen by the sword.

Ezekiel 32:24 “Elam is there, with all her hordes around her grave. All of them are slain, fallen by the sword. All who had spread terror in the land of the living went down uncircumcised to the earth below. They bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.

Ezekiel 32:25 A bed is made for her among the slain, with all her hordes around her grave. All of them are uncircumcised, killed by the sword. Because their terror had spread in the land of the living, they bear their shame with those who go down to the pit; they are laid among the slain.

Ezekiel 32:26 “Meshech and Tubal are there, with all their hordes around their graves. All of them are uncircumcised, killed by the sword because they spread their terror in the land of the living.

Ezekiel 32:27 Do they not lie with the other uncircumcised warriors who have fallen, who went down to the grave with their weapons of war, whose swords were placed under their heads? The punishment for their sins rested on their bones, though the terror of these warriors had stalked through the land of the living.

Ezekiel 32:28 “You too, O Pharaoh, will be broken and will lie among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword.

Ezekiel 32:29 “Edom is there, her kings and all her princes; despite their power, they are laid with those killed by the sword. They lie with the uncircumcised, with those who go down to the pit.

Ezekiel 32:30 “All the princes of the north and all the Sidonians are there; they went down with the slain in disgrace despite the terror caused by their power. They lie uncircumcised with those killed by the sword and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.

Ezekiel 32:31 “Pharaoh—he and all his army—will see them and he will be consoled for all his hordes that were killed by the sword, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 32:32 Although I had him spread terror in the land of the living, Pharaoh and all his hordes will be laid among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel 33:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 33:2 “Son of man, speak to your countrymen and say to them:`When I bring the sword against a land, and the people of the land choose one of their men and make him their watchman,

Ezekiel 33:3 and he sees the sword coming against the land and blows the trumpet to warn the people,

Ezekiel 33:4 then if anyone hears the trumpet but does not take warning and the sword comes and takes his life, his blood will be on his own head.

Ezekiel 33:5 Since he heard the sound of the trumpet but did not take warning, his blood will be on his own head. If he had taken warning, he would have saved himself.

Ezekiel 33:6 But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet to warn the people and the sword comes and takes the life of one of them, that man will be taken away because of his sin, but I will hold the watchman accountable for his blood.’

Ezekiel 33:7 “Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from me.

Ezekiel 33:8 When I say to the wicked,`O wicked man, you will surely die,’ and you do not speak out to dissuade him from his ways, that wicked man will die for his sin, and I will hold you accountable for his blood.

Ezekiel 33:9 But if you do warn the wicked man to turn from his ways and he does not do so, he will die for his sin, but you will be saved yourself.

Ezekiel 33:10 “Son of man, say to the house of Israel,`This is what you are saying: “Our offences and sins weigh us down, and we are wasting away because of them. How then can we live?”‘

Ezekiel 33:11 Say to them,`As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that they turn from their ways and live. Turn! Turn from your evil ways! Why will you die, O house of Israel?’

Ezekiel 33:12 “Therefore, son of man, say to your countrymen,`The righteousness of the righteous man will not save him when he disobeys, and the wickedness of the wicked man will not cause him to fall when he turns from it. The righteous man, if he sins, will not be allowed to live because of his former righteousness.’

Ezekiel 33:13 If I tell the righteous man that he will surely live, but then he trusts in his righteousness and does evil, none of the righteous things he has done will be remembered; he will die for the evil he has done.

Ezekiel 33:14 And if I say to the wicked man,`You will surely die,’ but he then turns away from his sin and does what is just and right—

Ezekiel 33:15 if he gives back what he took in pledge for a loan, returns what he has stolen, follows the decrees that give life, and does no evil, he will surely live; he will not die.

Ezekiel 33:16 None of the sins he has committed will be remembered against him. He has done what is just and right; he will surely live.

Ezekiel 33:17 “Yet your countrymen say,`The way of the Lord is not just.’ But it is their way that is not just.

Ezekiel 33:18 If a righteous man turns from his righteousness and does evil, he will die for it.

Ezekiel 33:19 And if a wicked man turns away from his wickedness and does what is just and right, he will live by doing so.

Ezekiel 33:20 Yet, O house of Israel, you say,`The way of the Lord is not just.’ But I will judge each of you according to his own ways.”

Ezekiel 33:21 In the twelfth year of our exile, in the tenth month on the fifth day, a man who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me and said, “The city has fallen!”

Ezekiel 33:22 Now the evening before the man arrived, the hand of the LORD was upon me, and he opened my mouth before the man came to me in the morning. So my mouth was opened and I was no longer silent.

Ezekiel 33:23 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 33:24 “Son of man, the people living in those ruins in the land of Israel are saying,`Abraham was only one man, yet he possessed the land. But we are many; surely the land has been given to us as our possession.’

Ezekiel 33:25 Therefore say to them,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Since you eat meat with the blood still in it and look to your idols and shed blood, should you then possess the land?

Ezekiel 33:26 You rely on your sword, you do detestable things, and each of you defiles his neighbour’s wife. Should you then possess the land?’

Ezekiel 33:27 “Say this to them:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: As surely as I live, those who are left in the ruins will fall by the sword, those out in the country I will give to the wild animals to be devoured, and those in strongholds and caves will die of a plague.

Ezekiel 33:28 I will make the land a desolate waste, and her proud strength will come to an end, and the mountains of Israel will become desolate so that no-one will cross them.

Ezekiel 33:29 Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolate waste because of all the detestable things they have done.’

Ezekiel 33:30 “As for you, son of man, your countrymen are talking together about you by the walls and at the doors of the houses, saying to each other,`Come and hear the message that has come from the LORD.’

Ezekiel 33:31 My people come to you, as they usually do, and sit before you to listen to your words, but they do not put them into practice. With their mouths they express devotion, but their hearts are greedy for unjust gain.

Ezekiel 33:32 Indeed, to them you are nothing more than one who sings love songs with a beautiful voice and plays an instrument well, for they hear your words but do not put them into practice.

Ezekiel 33:33 “When all this comes true—and it surely will—then they will know that a prophet has been among them.”

Ezekiel 34:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 34:2 “Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel; prophesy and say to them:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who only take care of themselves! Should not shepherds take care of the flock?

Ezekiel 34:3 You eat the curds, clothe yourselves with the wool and slaughter the choice animals, but you do not take care of the flock.

Ezekiel 34:4 You have not strengthened the weak or healed the sick or bound up the injured. You have not brought back the strays or searched for the lost. You have ruled them harshly and brutally.

Ezekiel 34:5 So they were scattered because there was no shepherd, and when they were scattered they became food for all the wild animals.

Ezekiel 34:6 My sheep wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill. They were scattered over the whole earth, and no-one searched or looked for them.

Ezekiel 34:7 “`Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:

Ezekiel 34:8 As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, because my flock lacks a shepherd and so has been plundered and has become food for all the wild animals, and because my shepherds did not search for my flock but cared for themselves rather than for my flock, Ezekiel 34:9 therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:

Ezekiel 34:10 This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against the shepherds and will hold them accountable for my flock. I will remove them from tending the flock so that the shepherds can no longer feed themselves. I will rescue my flock from their mouths, and it will no longer be food for them.

Ezekiel 34:11 "`For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself will search for my sheep and look after them.

Ezekiel 34:12 As a shepherd looks after his scattered flock when he is with them, so will I look after my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness.

Ezekiel 34:13 I will bring them out from the nations and gather them from the countries, and I will bring them into their own land. I will pasture them on the mountains of Israel, in the ravines and in all the settlements in the land.

Ezekiel 34:14 I will tend them in a good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel will be their grazing land. There they will lie down in good grazing land, and there they will feed in a rich pasture on the mountains of Israel.

Ezekiel 34:15 I myself will tend my sheep and make them lie down, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 34:16 I will search for the lost and bring back the strays. I will bind up the injured and strengthen the weak, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy. I will shepherd the flock with justice.

Ezekiel 34:17 "`As for you, my flock, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will judge between one sheep and another, and between rams and goats.

Ezekiel 34:18 Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture? Must you also trample the rest of your pasture with your feet? Is it not enough for you to drink clear water? Must you also muddy the rest with your feet?

Ezekiel 34:19 Must my flock feed on what you have trampled and drink what you have muddied with your feet?

Ezekiel 34:20 "`Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says to them: See, I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep.

Ezekiel 34:21 Because you shove with flank and shoulder, butting all the weak sheep with your horns until you have driven them away,

Ezekiel 34:22 I will save my flock, and they will no longer be plundered. I will judge between one sheep and another.

Ezekiel 34:23 I will place over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he will tend them; he will tend them and be their shepherd.

Ezekiel 34:24 I the LORD will be their God, and my servant David will be prince among them. I the LORD have spoken.

Ezekiel 34:25 "`I will make a covenant of peace with them and rid the land of wild beasts so that they may live in the desert and sleep in the forests in safety.

Ezekiel 34:26 I will bless them and the places surrounding my hill. I will send down showers in season; there will be showers of blessing.

Ezekiel 34:27 The trees of the field will yield their fruit and the ground will yield its crops; the people will be secure in their land. They will know that I am the LORD, when I break the bars of their yoke and rescue them from the hands of those who enslaved them.

Ezekiel 34:28 They will no longer be plundered by the nations, nor will wild animals devour them. They will live in safety, and no-one will make them afraid.

Ezekiel 34:29 I will provide for them a land renowned for its crops, and they will no longer be victims of famine in the land or bear the scorn of the nations.

Ezekiel 34:30 Then they will know that I, the LORD their God, am with them and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 34:31 You my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are people, and I am your God, declares the Sovereign LORD.'"

Ezekiel 35:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 35:2 "Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir; prophesy against it

Ezekiel 35:3 and say:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you and make you a desolate waste.

Ezekiel 35:4 I will turn your towns into ruins and you will be desolate. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 35:5 "`Because you harboured an ancient hostility and delivered the Israelites over to the sword at the time of their calamity, the time their punishment reached its climax,

Ezekiel 35:6 therefore as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I will give you over to bloodshed and it will pursue you. Since you did not hate bloodshed, bloodshed will pursue you.

Ezekiel 35:7 I will make Mount Seir a desolate waste and cut off from it all who come and go.

Ezekiel 35:8 I will fill your mountains with the slain; those killed by the sword will fall on your hills and in your valleys and in all your ravines.

Ezekiel 35:9 I will make you desolate for ever; your towns will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 35:10 "`Because you have said, "These two nations and countries will be ours and we will take possession of them," even though I the LORD was there,

Ezekiel 35:11 therefore as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I will treat you in accordance with the anger and jealousy you showed in your hatred of them and I will make myself known among them when I judge you.

Ezekiel 35:12 Then you will know that I the LORD have heard all the contemptible things you have said against the mountains of Israel. You said, "They have been laid waste and have been given over to us to devour."

Ezekiel 35:13 You boasted against me and spoke against me without restraint, and I heard it.

Ezekiel 35:14 This is what the Sovereign LORD says: While the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate.

Ezekiel 35:15 Because you rejoiced when the inheritance of the house of Israel became desolate, that is how I will treat you. You will be desolate, O Mount Seir, you and all of Edom. Then they will know that I am the LORD.'"

Ezekiel 36:1 "Son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say,`O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD.

Ezekiel 36:2 This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The enemy said of you, "Aha! The ancient heights have become our possession."'

Ezekiel 36:3 Therefore prophesy and say,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because they ravaged and hounded you from every side so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations and the object of people's malicious talk and slander,

Ezekiel 36:4 therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Sovereign LORD: This is what the Sovereign LORD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, to the desolate ruins and the deserted towns that have been plundered and ridiculed by the rest of the nations around you—

Ezekiel 36:5 this is what the Sovereign LORD says: In my burning zeal I have spoken against the rest of the nations, and against Edom, for with glee and with malice in their hearts they made my land their own possession so that they might plunder its pasture-land.'

Ezekiel 36:6 Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel and say to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I speak in my jealous wrath because you have suffered the scorn of the nations.

Ezekiel 36:7 Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I swear with uplifted hand that the nations around you will also suffer scorn.

Ezekiel 36:8 "`But you, O mountains of Israel, will produce branches and fruit for my people Israel, for they will soon come home.

Ezekiel 36:9 I am concerned for you and will look on you with favour; you will be ploughed and sown,

Ezekiel 36:10 and I will multiply the number of people upon you, even the whole house of Israel. The towns will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt.

Ezekiel 36:11 I will increase the number of men and animals upon you, and they will be fruitful and become numerous. I will settle people on you as in the past and will make you prosper more than before. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 36:12 I will cause people, my people Israel, to walk upon you. They will possess you, and you will be their inheritance; you will never again deprive them of their children.

Ezekiel 36:13 "`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because people say to you, "You devour men and deprive your nation of its children,"

Ezekiel 36:14 therefore you will no longer devour men or make your nation childless, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 36:15 No longer will I make you hear the taunts of the nations, and no longer will you suffer the scorn of the peoples or cause your nation to fall, declares the Sovereign LORD.'"

Ezekiel 36:16 Again the word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 36:17 "Son of man, when the people of Israel were living in their own land, they defiled it by their conduct and their actions. Their conduct was like a woman's monthly uncleanness in my sight.

Ezekiel 36:18 So I poured out my wrath on them because they had shed blood in the land and because they had defiled it with their idols.

Ezekiel 36:19 I dispersed them among the nations, and they were scattered through the countries; I judged them according to their conduct and their actions.

Ezekiel 36:20 And wherever they went among the nations they profaned my holy name, for it was said of them,`These are the LORD's people, and yet they had to leave his land.'

Ezekiel 36:21 I had concern for my holy name, which the house of Israel profaned among the nations where they had gone.

Ezekiel 36:22 "Therefore say to the house of Israel,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am going to do these things, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations where you have gone.

Ezekiel 36:23 I will show the holiness of my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, the name you have profaned among them. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, declares the Sovereign LORD, when I show myself holy through you before their eyes.

Ezekiel 36:24 “`For I will take you out of the nations; I will gather you from all the countries and bring you back into your own land.

Ezekiel 36:25 I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse you from all your impurities and from all your idols.

Ezekiel 36:26 I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh.

Ezekiel 36:27 And I will put my Spirit in you and move you to follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws.

Ezekiel 36:28 You will live in the land I gave your forefathers; you will be my people, and I will be your God.

Ezekiel 36:29 I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will call for the corn and make it plentiful and will not bring famine upon you.

Ezekiel 36:30 I will increase the fruit of the trees and the crops of the field, so that you will no longer suffer disgrace among the nations because of famine.

Ezekiel 36:31 Then you will remember your evil ways and wicked deeds, and you will loathe yourselves for your sins and detestable practices.

Ezekiel 36:32 I want you to know that I am not doing this for your sake, declares the Sovereign LORD. Be ashamed and disgraced for your conduct, O house of Israel!

Ezekiel 36:33 “`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: On the day I cleanse you from all your sins, I will resettle your towns, and the ruins will be rebuilt.

Ezekiel 36:34 The desolate land will be cultivated instead of lying desolate in the sight of all who pass through it.

Ezekiel 36:35 They will say, “This land that was laid waste has become like the garden of Eden; the cities that were lying in ruins, desolate and destroyed, are now fortified and inhabited.”

Ezekiel 36:36 Then the nations around you that remain will know that I the LORD have rebuilt what was destroyed and have replanted what was desolate. I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it.’

Ezekiel 36:37 “This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Once again I will yield to the plea of the house of Israel and do this for them: I will make their people as numerous as sheep, Ezekiel 36:38 as numerous as the flocks for offerings at Jerusalem during her appointed feasts. So will the ruined cities be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 37:1 The hand of the LORD was upon me, and he brought me out by the Spirit of the LORD and set me in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones.

Ezekiel 37:2 He led me to and fro among them, and I saw a great many bones on the floor of the valley, bones that were very dry.

Ezekiel 37:3 He asked me, “Son of man, can these bones live?” I said, “O Sovereign LORD, you alone know.”

Ezekiel 37:4 Then he said to me, “Prophesy to these bones and say to them,`Dry bones, hear the word of the LORD!

Ezekiel 37:5 This is what the Sovereign LORD says to these bones: I will make breath enter you, and you will come to life.

Ezekiel 37:6 I will attach tendons to you and make flesh come upon you and cover you with skin; I will put breath in you, and you will come to life. Then you will know that I am the LORD.’“

Ezekiel 37:7 So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I was prophesying, there was a noise, a rattling sound, and the bones came together, bone to bone.

Ezekiel 37:8 I looked, and tendons and flesh appeared on them and skin covered them, but there was no breath in them.

Ezekiel 37:9 Then he said to me, “Prophesy to the breath; prophesy, son of man, and say to it,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe into these slain, that they may live.’“

Ezekiel 37:10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and breath entered them; they came to life and stood up on their feet—a vast army.

Ezekiel 37:11 Then he said to me: “Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They say,`Our bones are dried up and our hope is gone; we are cut off.’

Ezekiel 37:12 Therefore prophesy and say to them:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: O my people, I am going to open your graves and bring you up from them; I will bring you back to the land of Israel.

Ezekiel 37:13 Then you, my people, will know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and bring you up from them.

Ezekiel 37:14 I will put my Spirit in you and you will live, and I will settle you in your own land. Then you will know that I the LORD have spoken, and I have done it, declares the LORD.’“

Ezekiel 37:15 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 37:16 “Son of man, take a stick of wood and write on it,`Belonging to Judah and the Israelites associated with him.’ Then take another stick of wood, and write on it,`Ephraim’s stick, belonging to Joseph and all the house of Israel associated with him.’

Ezekiel 37:17 Join them together into one stick so that they will become one in your hand.

Ezekiel 37:18 “When your countrymen ask you,`Won’t you tell us what you mean by this?’

Ezekiel 37:19 say to them,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am going to take the stick of Joseph—which is in Ephraim’s hand— and of the Israelite tribes associated with him, and join it to Judah’s stick, making them a single stick of wood, and they will become one in my hand.’

Ezekiel 37:20 Hold before their eyes the sticks you have written on

Ezekiel 37:21 and say to them,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will take the Israelites out of the nations where they have gone. I will gather them from all around and bring them back into their own land.

Ezekiel 37:22 I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel. There will be one king over all of them and they will never again be two nations or be divided into two kingdoms.

Ezekiel 37:23 They will no longer defile themselves with their idols and vile images or with any of their offences, for I will save them from all their sinful backsliding, and I will cleanse them. They will be my people, and I will be their God.

Ezekiel 37:24 “`My servant David will be king over them, and they will all have one shepherd. They will follow my laws and be careful to keep my decrees.

Ezekiel 37:25 They will live in the land I gave to my servant Jacob, the land where your fathers lived. They and their children and their children’s children will live there for ever, and David my servant will be their prince for ever.

Ezekiel 37:26 I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant. I will establish them and increase their numbers, and I will put my sanctuary among them for ever.

Ezekiel 37:27 My dwelling-place will be with them; I will be their God, and they will be my people.

Ezekiel 37:28 Then the nations will know that I the LORD make Israel holy, when my sanctuary is among them for ever.’“

Ezekiel 38:1 The word of the LORD came to me:

Ezekiel 38:2 “Son of man, set your face against Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal; prophesy against him

Ezekiel 38:3 and say:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

Ezekiel 38:4 I will turn you around, put hooks in your jaws and bring you out with your whole army—your horses, your horsemen fully armed, and a great horde with large and small shields, all of them brandishing their swords.

Ezekiel 38:5 Persia, Cush and Put will be with them, all with shields and helmets,

Ezekiel 38:6 also Gomer with all its troops, and Beth Togarmah from the far north with all its troops—the many nations with you.

Ezekiel 38:7 “`Get ready; be prepared, you and all the hordes gathered about you, and take command of them.

Ezekiel 38:8 After many days you will be called to arms. In future years you will invade a land that has recovered from war, whose people were gathered from many nations to the mountains of Israel, which had long been desolate. They had been brought out from the nations, and now all of them live in safety.

Ezekiel 38:9 You and all your troops and the many nations with you will go up, advancing like a storm; you will be like a cloud covering the land.

Ezekiel 38:10 “`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: On that day thoughts will come into your mind and you will devise an evil scheme.

Ezekiel 38:11 You will say, “I will invade a land of unwalled villages; I will attack a peaceful and unsuspecting people—all of them living without walls and without gates and bars.

Ezekiel 38:12 I will plunder and loot and turn my hand against the resettled ruins and the people gathered from the nations, rich in livestock and goods, living at the centre of the land.”

Ezekiel 38:13 Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish and all her villages will say to you, “Have you come to plunder? Have you gathered your hordes to loot, to carry off silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods and to seize much plunder?”‘

Ezekiel 38:14 “Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: In that day, when my people Israel are living in safety, will you not take notice of it?

Ezekiel 38:15 You will come from your place in the far north, you and many nations with you, all of them riding on horses, a great horde, a mighty army.

Ezekiel 38:16 You will advance against my people Israel like a cloud that covers the land. In days to come, O Gog, I will bring you against my land, so that the nations may know me when I show myself holy through you before their eyes.

Ezekiel 38:17 “`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Are you not the one I spoke of in former days by my servants the prophets of Israel? At that time they prophesied for years that I would bring you against them.

Ezekiel 38:18 This is what will happen in that day: When Gog attacks the land of Israel, my hot anger will be aroused, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 38:19 In my zeal and fiery wrath I declare that at that time there shall be a great earthquake in the land of Israel.

Ezekiel 38:20 The fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the beasts of the field, every creature that moves along the ground, and all the people on the face of the earth will tremble at my presence. The mountains will be overturned, the cliffs will crumble and every wall will fall to the ground.

Ezekiel 38:21 I will summon a sword against Gog on all my mountains, declares the Sovereign LORD. Every man’s sword will be against his brother.

Ezekiel 38:22 I will execute judgment upon him with plague and bloodshed; I will pour down torrents of rain, hailstones and burning sulphur on him and on his troops and on the many nations with him.

Ezekiel 38:23 And so I will show my greatness and my holiness, and I will make myself known in the sight of many nations. Then they will know that I am the LORD.’

Ezekiel 39:1 “Son of man, prophesy against Gog and say:`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

Ezekiel 39:2 I will turn you around and drag you along. I will bring you from the far north and send you against the mountains of Israel.

Ezekiel 39:3 Then I will strike your bow from your left hand and make your arrows drop from your right hand.

Ezekiel 39:4 On the mountains of Israel you will fall, you and all your troops and the nations with you. I will give you as food to all kinds of carrion birds and to the wild animals.

Ezekiel 39:5 You will fall in the open field, for I have spoken, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 39:6 I will send fire on Magog and on those who live in safety in the coastlands, and they will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 39:7 “`I will make known my holy name among my people Israel. I will no longer let my holy name be profaned, and the nations will know that I the LORD am the Holy One in Israel.

Ezekiel 39:8 It is coming! It will surely take place, declares the Sovereign LORD. This is the day I have spoken of.

Ezekiel 39:9 “`Then those who live in the towns of Israel will go out and use the weapons for fuel and burn them up—the small and large shields, the bows and arrows, the war clubs and spears. For seven years they will use them for fuel.

Ezekiel 39:10 They will not need to gather wood from the fields or cut it from the forests, because they will use the weapons for fuel. And they will plunder those who plundered them and loot those who looted them, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 39:11 “`On that day I will give Gog a burial place in Israel, in the valley of those who travel east towards the Sea. It will block the way of travellers, because Gog and all his hordes will be buried there. So it will be called the Valley of Hamon Gog.

Ezekiel 39:12 “`For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them in order to cleanse the land.

Ezekiel 39:13 All the people of the land will bury them, and the day I am glorified will be a memorable day for them, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 39:14 “`Men will be regularly employed to cleanse the land. Some will go throughout the land and, in addition to them, others will bury those that remain on the ground. At the end of the seven months they will begin their search.

Ezekiel 39:15 As they go through the land and one of them sees a human bone, he will set up a marker beside it until the gravediggers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon Gog.

Ezekiel 39:16 (Also a town called Hamonah will be there.) And so they will cleanse the land.’

Ezekiel 39:17 “Son of man, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Call out to every kind of bird and all the wild animals:`Assemble and come together from all around to the sacrifice I am preparing for you, the great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel. There you will eat flesh and drink blood.

Ezekiel 39:18 You will eat the flesh of mighty men and drink the blood of the princes of the earth as if they were rams and lambs, goats and bulls—all of them fattened animals from Bashan.

Ezekiel 39:19 At the sacrifice I am preparing for you, you will eat fat till you are glutted and drink blood till you are drunk.

Ezekiel 39:20 At my table you will eat your fill of horses and riders, mighty men and soldiers of every kind,’ declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 39:21 “I will display my glory among the nations, and all the nations will see the punishment I inflict and the hand I lay upon them.

Ezekiel 39:22 From that day forward the house of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God.

Ezekiel 39:23 And the nations will know that the people of Israel went into exile for their sin, because they were unfaithful to me. So I hid my face from them and handed them over to their enemies, and they all fell by the sword.

Ezekiel 39:24 I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and their offences, and I hid my face from them.

Ezekiel 39:25 “Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will now bring Jacob back from captivity and will have compassion on all the people of Israel, and I will be zealous for my holy name.

Ezekiel 39:26 They will forget their shame and all the unfaithfulness they showed towards me when they lived in safety in their land with no-one to make them afraid.

Ezekiel 39:27 When I have brought them back from the nations and have gathered them from the countries of their enemies, I will show myself holy through them in the sight of many nations.

Ezekiel 39:28 Then they will know that I am the LORD their God, for though I sent them into exile among the nations, I will gather them to their own land, not leaving any behind.

Ezekiel 39:29 I will no longer hide my face from them, for I will pour out my Spirit on the house of Israel, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel 40:1 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth of the month, in the fourteenth year after the fall of the city—on that very day the hand of the LORD was upon me and he took me there.

Ezekiel 40:2 In visions of God he took me to the land of Israel and set me on a very high mountain, on whose south side were some buildings that looked like a city.

Ezekiel 40:3 He took me there, and I saw a man whose appearance was like bronze; he was standing in the gateway with a linen cord and a measuring rod in his hand.

Ezekiel 40:4 The man said to me, “Son of man, look with your eyes and hear with your ears and pay attention to everything I am going to show you, for that is why you have been brought here. Tell the house of Israel everything you see.”

Ezekiel 40:5 I saw a wall completely surrounding the temple area. The length of the measuring rod in the man’s hand was six long cubits, each of which was a cubit and a handbreadth. He measured the wall; it was one measuring rod thick and one rod high.

Ezekiel 40:6 Then he went to the gate facing east. He climbed its steps and measured the threshold of the gate; it was one rod deep.

Ezekiel 40:7 The alcoves for the guards were one rod long and one rod wide, and the projecting walls between the alcoves were five cubits thick. And the threshold of the gate next to the portico facing the temple was one rod deep.

Ezekiel 40:8 Then he measured the portico of the gateway;

Ezekiel 40:9 it was eight cubits deep and its jambs were two cubits thick. The portico of the gateway faced the temple.

Ezekiel 40:10 Inside the east gate were three alcoves on each side; the three had the same measurements, and the faces of the projecting walls on each side had the same measurements.

Ezekiel 40:11 Then he measured the width of the entrance to the gateway; it was ten cubits and its length was thirteen cubits.

Ezekiel 40:12 In front of each alcove was a wall one cubit high, and the alcoves were six cubits square.

Ezekiel 40:13 Then he measured the gateway from the top of the rear wall of one alcove to the top of the opposite one; the distance was twenty-five cubits from one parapet opening to the opposite one.

Ezekiel 40:14 He measured along the faces of the projecting walls all around the inside of the gateway—sixty cubits. The measurement was up to the portico facing the courtyard.

Ezekiel 40:15 The distance from the entrance of the gateway to the far end of its portico was fifty cubits.

Ezekiel 40:16 The alcoves and the projecting walls inside the gateway were surmounted by narrow parapet openings all round, as was the portico; the openings all round faced inward. The faces of the projecting walls were decorated with palm trees.

Ezekiel 40:17 Then he brought me into the outer court. There I saw some rooms and a pavement that had been constructed all round the court; there were thirty rooms along the pavement.

Ezekiel 40:18 It abutted the sides of the gateways and was as wide as they were long; this was the lower pavement.

Ezekiel 40:19 Then he measured the distance from the inside of the lower gateway to the outside of the inner court; it was a hundred cubits on the east side as well as on the north.

Ezekiel 40:20 Then he measured the length and width of the gate facing north, leading into the outer court.

Ezekiel 40:21 Its alcoves—three on each side—its projecting walls and its portico had the same measurements as those of the first gateway. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

Ezekiel 40:22 Its openings, its portico and its palm tree decorations had the same measurements as those of the gate facing east. Seven steps led up to it, with its portico opposite them.

Ezekiel 40:23 There was a gate to the inner court facing the north gate, just as there was on the east. He measured from one gate to the opposite one; it was a hundred cubits.

Ezekiel 40:24 Then he led me to the south side and I saw a gate facing south. He measured its jambs and its portico, and they had the same measurements as the others.

Ezekiel 40:25 The gateway and its portico had narrow openings all round, like the openings of the others. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

Ezekiel 40:26 Seven steps led up to it, with its portico opposite them; it had palm tree decorations on the faces of the projecting walls on each side.

Ezekiel 40:27 The inner court also had a gate facing south, and he measured from this gate to the outer gate on the south side; it was a hundred cubits.

Ezekiel 40:28 Then he brought me into the inner court through the south gate, and he measured the south gate; it had the same measurements as the others.

Ezekiel 40:29 Its alcoves, its projecting walls and its portico had the same measurements as the others. The gateway and its portico had openings all round. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

Ezekiel 40:30 (The porticoes of the gateways around the inner court were twenty-five cubits wide and five cubits deep.)

Ezekiel 40:31 Its portico faced the outer court; palm trees decorated its jambs, and eight steps led up to it.

Ezekiel 40:32 Then he brought me to the inner court on the east side, and he measured the gateway; it had the same measurements as the others.

Ezekiel 40:33 Its alcoves, its projecting walls and its portico had the same measurements as the others. The gateway and its portico had openings all round. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

Ezekiel 40:34 Its portico faced the outer court; palm trees decorated the jambs on either side, and eight steps led up to it.

Ezekiel 40:35 Then he brought me to the north gate and measured it. It had the same measurements as the others,

Ezekiel 40:36 as did its alcoves, its projecting walls and its portico, and it had openings all round. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

Ezekiel 40:37 Its portico faced the outer court; palm trees decorated the jambs on either side, and eight steps led up to it.

Ezekiel 40:38 A room with a doorway was by the portico in each of the inner gateways, where the burnt offerings were washed.

Ezekiel 40:39 In the portico of the gateway were two tables on each side, on which the burnt offerings, sin offerings and guilt offerings were slaughtered.

Ezekiel 40:40 By the outside wall of the portico of the gateway, near the steps at the entrance to the north gateway were two tables, and on the other side of the steps were two tables.

Ezekiel 40:41 So there were four tables on one side of the gateway and four on the other—eight tables in all—on which the sacrifices were slaughtered.

Ezekiel 40:42 There were also four tables of dressed stone for the burnt offerings, each a cubit and a half long, a cubit and a half wide and a cubit high. On them were placed the utensils for slaughtering the burnt offerings and the other sacrifices.

Ezekiel 40:43 And double-pronged hooks, each a handbreadth long, were attached to the wall all around. The tables were for the flesh of the offerings.

Ezekiel 40:44 Outside the inner gate, within the inner court, were two rooms, one at the side of the north gate and facing south, and another at the side of the south gate and facing north.

Ezekiel 40:45 He said to me, “The room facing south is for the priests who have charge of the temple,

Ezekiel 40:46 and the room facing north is for the priests who have charge of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, who are the only Levites who may draw near to the LORD to minister before him.”

Ezekiel 40:47 Then he measured the court: It was square—a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits wide. And the altar was in front of the temple.

Ezekiel 40:48 He brought me to the portico of the temple and measured the jambs of the portico; they were five cubits wide on either side. The width of the entrance was fourteen cubits and its projecting walls were three cubits wide on either side.

Ezekiel 40:49 The portico was twenty cubits wide, and twelve cubits from front to back. It was reached by a flight of stairs, and there were pillars on each side of the jambs.

Ezekiel 41:1 Then the man brought me to the outer sanctuary and measured the jambs; the width of the jambs was six cubits on each side.

Ezekiel 41:2 The entrance was ten cubits wide, and the projecting walls on each side of it were five cubits wide. He also measured the outer sanctuary; it was forty cubits long and twenty cubits wide.

Ezekiel 41:3 Then he went into the inner sanctuary and measured the jambs of the entrance; each was two cubits wide. The entrance was six cubits wide, and the projecting walls on each side of it were seven cubits wide.

Ezekiel 41:4 And he measured the length of the inner sanctuary; it was twenty cubits, and its width was twenty cubits across the end of the outer sanctuary. He said to me, “This is the Most Holy Place.”

Ezekiel 41:5 Then he measured the wall of the temple; it was six cubits thick, and each side room round the temple was four cubits wide.

Ezekiel 41:6 The side rooms were on three levels, one above another, thirty on each level. There were ledges all round the wall of the temple to serve as supports for the side rooms, so that the supports were not inserted into the wall of the temple.

Ezekiel 41:7 The side rooms all round the temple were wider at each successive level. The structure surrounding the temple was built in ascending stages, so that the rooms widened as one went upward. A stairway went up from the lowest floor to the top floor through the middle floor.

Ezekiel 41:8 I saw that the temple had a raised base all round it, forming the foundation of the side rooms. It was the length of the rod, six long cubits.

Ezekiel 41:9 The outer wall of the side rooms was five cubits thick. The open area between the side rooms of the temple

Ezekiel 41:10 and the [priests'] rooms was twenty cubits wide all round the temple.

Ezekiel 41:11 There were entrances to the side rooms from the open area, one on the north and another on the south; and the base adjoining the open area was five cubits wide all round.

Ezekiel 41:12 The building facing the temple courtyard on the west side was seventy cubits wide. The wall of the building was five cubits thick all round, and its length was ninety cubits.

Ezekiel 41:13 Then he measured the temple; it was a hundred cubits long, and the temple courtyard and the building with its walls were also a hundred cubits long.

Ezekiel 41:14 The width of the temple courtyard on the east, including the front of the temple, was a hundred cubits.

Ezekiel 41:15 Then he measured the length of the building facing the courtyard at the rear of the temple, including its galleries on each side; it was a hundred cubits. The outer sanctuary, the inner sanctuary and the portico facing the court,

Ezekiel 41:16 as well as the thresholds and the narrow windows and galleries round the three of them—everything beyond and including the threshold was covered with wood. The floor, the wall up to the windows, and the windows were covered.

Ezekiel 41:17 In the space above the outside of the entrance to the inner sanctuary and on the walls at regular intervals all round the inner and outer sanctuary

Ezekiel 41:18 were carved cherubim and palm trees. Palm trees alternated with cherubim. Each cherub had two faces:

Ezekiel 41:19 the face of a man towards the palm tree on one side and the face of a lion towards the palm tree on the other. They were carved all round the whole temple.

Ezekiel 41:20 From the floor to the area above the entrance, cherubim and palm trees were carved on the wall of the outer sanctuary.

Ezekiel 41:21 The outer sanctuary had a rectangular door-frame, and the one at the front of the Most Holy Place was similar.

Ezekiel 41:22 There was a wooden altar three cubits high and two cubits square; its corners, its base and its sides were of wood. The man said to me, “This is the table that is before the LORD.”

Ezekiel 41:23 Both the outer sanctuary and the Most Holy Place had double doors.

Ezekiel 41:24 Each door had two leaves—two hinged leaves for each door.

Ezekiel 41:25 And on the doors of the outer sanctuary were carved cherubim and palm trees like those carved on the walls, and there was a wooden overhang on the front of the portico.

Ezekiel 41:26 On the side walls of the portico were narrow windows with palm trees carved on each side. The side rooms of the temple also had overhangs.

Ezekiel 42:1 Then the man led me northward into the outer court and brought me to the rooms opposite the temple courtyard and opposite the outer wall on the north side.

Ezekiel 42:2 The building whose door faced north was a hundred cubits long and fifty cubits wide.

Ezekiel 42:3 Both in the section twenty cubits from the inner court and in the section opposite the pavement of the outer court, gallery faced gallery at the three levels.

Ezekiel 42:4 In front of the rooms was an inner passageway ten cubits wide and a hundred cubits long. Their doors were on the north.

Ezekiel 42:5 Now the upper rooms were narrower, for the galleries took more space from them than from the rooms on the lower and middle floors of the building.

Ezekiel 42:6 The rooms on the third floor had no pillars, as the courts had; so they were smaller in floor space than those on the lower and middle floors.

Ezekiel 42:7 There was an outer wall parallel to the rooms and the outer court; it extended in front of the rooms for fifty cubits.

Ezekiel 42:8 While the row of rooms on the side next to the outer court was fifty cubits long, the row on the side nearest the sanctuary was a hundred cubits long.

Ezekiel 42:9 The lower rooms had an entrance on the east side as one enters them from the outer court.

Ezekiel 42:10 On the south side along the length of the wall of the outer court, adjoining the temple courtyard and opposite the outer wall, were rooms

Ezekiel 42:11 with a passageway in front of them. These were like the rooms on the north; they had the same length and width, with similar exits and dimensions. Similar to the doorways on the north

Ezekiel 42:12 were the doorways of the rooms on the south. There was a doorway at the beginning of the passageway that was parallel to the corresponding wall extending eastward, by which one enters the rooms.

Ezekiel 42:13 Then he said to me, “The north and south rooms facing the temple courtyard are the priests’ rooms, where the priests who approach the LORD will eat the most holy offerings. There they will put the most holy offerings—the grain offerings, the sin offerings and the guilt offerings—for the place is holy.

Ezekiel 42:14 Once the priests enter the holy precincts, they are not to go into the outer court until they leave behind the garments in which they minister, for these are holy. They are to put on other clothes before they go near the places that are for the people.”

Ezekiel 42:15 When he had finished measuring what was inside the temple area, he led me out by the east gate and measured the area all around:

Ezekiel 42:16 He measured the east side with the measuring rod; it was five hundred cubits.

Ezekiel 42:17 He measured the north side; it was five hundred cubits by the measuring rod.

Ezekiel 42:18 He measured the south side; it was five hundred cubits by the measuring rod.

Ezekiel 42:19 Then he turned to the west side and measured; it was five hundred cubits by the measuring rod.

Ezekiel 42:20 So he measured the area on all four sides. It had a wall round it, five hundred cubits long and five hundred cubits wide, to separate the holy from the common.

Ezekiel 43:1 Then the man brought me to the gate facing east,

Ezekiel 43:2 and I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east. His voice was like the roar of rushing waters, and the land was radiant with his glory.

Ezekiel 43:3 The vision I saw was like the vision I had seen when he came to destroy the city and like the visions I had seen by the Kebar River, and I fell face down.

Ezekiel 43:4 The glory of the LORD entered the temple through the gate facing east.

Ezekiel 43:5 Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

Ezekiel 43:6 While the man was standing beside me, I heard someone speaking to me from inside the temple.

Ezekiel 43:7 He said: “Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place for the soles of my feet. This is where I will live among the Israelites for ever. The house of Israel will never again defile my holy name—neither they nor their kings—by their prostitution and the lifeless idols of their kings at their high places.

Ezekiel 43:8 When they placed their threshold next to my threshold and their doorposts beside my doorposts, with only a wall between me and them, they defiled my holy name by their detestable practices. So I destroyed them in my anger.

Ezekiel 43:9 Now let them put away from me their prostitution and the lifeless idols of their kings, and I will live among them for ever.

Ezekiel 43:10 “Son of man, describe the temple to the people of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their sins. Let them consider the plan,

Ezekiel 43:11 and if they are ashamed of all they have done, make known to them the design of the temple—its arrangement, its exits and entrances—its whole design and all its regulations and laws. Write these down before them so that they may be faithful to its design and follow all its regulations.

Ezekiel 43:12 “This is the law of the temple: All the surrounding area on top of the mountain will be most holy. Such is the law of the temple.

Ezekiel 43:13 “These are the measurements of the altar in long cubits, that cubit being a cubit and a handbreadth: Its gutter is a cubit deep and a cubit wide, with a rim of one span around the edge. And this is the height of the altar:

Ezekiel 43:14 From the gutter on the ground up to the lower ledge it is two cubits high and a cubit wide, and from the smaller ledge up to the larger ledge it is four cubits high and a cubit wide.

Ezekiel 43:15 The altar hearth is four cubits high, and four horns project upward from the hearth.

Ezekiel 43:16 The altar hearth is square, twelve cubits long and twelve cubits wide.

Ezekiel 43:17 The upper ledge also is square, fourteen cubits long and fourteen cubits wide, with a rim of half a cubit and a gutter of a cubit all round. The steps of the altar face east.”

Ezekiel 43:18 Then he said to me, “Son of man, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: These will be the regulations for sacrificing burnt offerings and sprinkling blood upon the altar when it is built:

Ezekiel 43:19 You are to give a young bull as a sin offering to the priests, who are Levites, of the family of Zadok, who come near to minister before me, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 43:20 You are to take some of its blood and put it on the four horns of the altar and on the four corners of the upper ledge and all round the rim, and so purify the altar and make atonement for it.

Ezekiel 43:21 You are to take the bull for the sin offering and burn it in the designated part of the temple area outside the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 43:22 “On the second day you are to offer a male goat without defect for a sin offering, and the altar is to be purified as it was purified with the bull.

Ezekiel 43:23 When you have finished purifying it, you are to offer a young bull and a ram from the flock, both without defect.

Ezekiel 43:24 You are to offer them before the LORD, and the priests are to sprinkle salt on them and sacrifice them as a burnt offering to the LORD.

Ezekiel 43:25 “For seven days you are to provide a male goat daily for a sin offering; you are also to provide a young bull and a ram from the flock, both without defect.

Ezekiel 43:26 For seven days they are to make atonement for the altar and cleanse it; thus they will dedicate it.

Ezekiel 43:27 At the end of these days, from the eighth day on, the priests are to present your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the altar. Then I will accept you, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel 44:1 Then the man brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary, the one facing east, and it was shut.

Ezekiel 44:2 The LORD said to me, “This gate is to remain shut. It must not be opened; no-one may enter through it. It is to remain shut because the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered through it.

Ezekiel 44:3 The prince himself is the only one who may sit inside the gateway to eat in the presence of the LORD. He is to enter by way of the portico of the gateway and go out the same way.”

Ezekiel 44:4 Then the man brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple. I looked and saw the glory of the LORD filling the temple of the LORD, and I fell face down.

Ezekiel 44:5 The LORD said to me, “Son of man, look carefully, listen closely and give attention to everything I tell you concerning all the regulations regarding the temple of the LORD. Give attention to the entrance of the temple and all the exits of the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 44:6 Say to the rebellious house of Israel,`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Enough of your detestable practices, O house of Israel!

Ezekiel 44:7 In addition to all your other detestable practices, you brought foreigners uncircumcised in heart and flesh into my sanctuary, desecrating my temple while you offered me food, fat and blood, and you broke my covenant.

Ezekiel 44:8 Instead of carrying out your duty in regard to my holy things, you put others in charge of my sanctuary.

Ezekiel 44:9 This is what the Sovereign LORD says: No foreigner uncircumcised in heart and flesh is to enter my sanctuary, not even the foreigners who live among the Israelites.

Ezekiel 44:10 "`The Levites who went far from me when Israel went astray and who wandered from me after their idols must bear the consequences of their sin.

Ezekiel 44:11 They may serve in my sanctuary, having charge of the gates of the temple and serving in it; they may slaughter the burnt offerings and sacrifices for the people and stand before the people and serve them.

Ezekiel 44:12 But because they served them in the presence of their idols and made the house of Israel fall into sin, therefore I have sworn with uplifted hand that they must bear the consequences of their sin, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 44:13 They are not to come near to serve me as priests or come near any of my holy things or my most holy offerings; they must bear the shame of their detestable practices.

Ezekiel 44:14 Yet I will put them in charge of the duties of the temple and all the work that is to be done in it.

Ezekiel 44:15 "`But the priests, who are Levites and descendants of Zadok and who faithfully carried out the duties of my sanctuary when the Israelites went astray from me, are to come near to minister before me; they are to stand before me to offer sacrifices of fat and blood, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 44:16 They alone are to enter my sanctuary; they alone are to come near my table to minister before me and perform my service.

Ezekiel 44:17 "`When they enter the gates of the inner court, they are to wear linen clothes; they must not wear any woollen garment while ministering at the gates of the inner court or inside the temple.

Ezekiel 44:18 They are to wear linen turbans on their heads and linen undergarments round their waists. They must not wear anything that makes them perspire.

Ezekiel 44:19 When they go out into the outer court where the people are, they are to take off the clothes they have been ministering in and leave them in the sacred rooms, and put on other clothes, so that they do not consecrate the people by means of their garments.

Ezekiel 44:20 “`They must not shave their heads or let their hair grow long, but they are to keep the hair of their heads trimmed.

Ezekiel 44:21 No priest is to drink wine when he enters the inner court.

Ezekiel 44:22 They must not marry widows or divorced women; they may marry only virgins of Israelite descent or widows of priests.

Ezekiel 44:23 They are to teach my people the difference between the holy and the common and show them how to distinguish between the unclean and the clean.

Ezekiel 44:24 “`In any dispute, the priests are to serve as judges and decide it according to my ordinances. They are to keep my laws and my decrees for all my appointed feasts, and they are to keep my Sabbaths holy.

Ezekiel 44:25 “`A priest must not defile himself by going near a dead person; however, if the dead person was his father or mother, son or daughter, brother or unmarried sister, then he may defile himself.

Ezekiel 44:26 After he is cleansed, he must wait seven days.

Ezekiel 44:27 On the day he goes into the inner court of the sanctuary to minister in the sanctuary, he is to offer a sin offering for himself, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 44:28 “`I am to be the only inheritance the priests have. You are to give them no possession in Israel; I will be their possession.

Ezekiel 44:29 They will eat the grain offerings, the sin offerings and the guilt offerings; and everything in Israel devoted to the LORD will belong to them.

Ezekiel 44:30 The best of all the firstfruits and of all your special gifts will belong to the priests. You are to give them the first portion of your ground meal so that a blessing may rest on your household.

Ezekiel 44:31 The priests must not eat anything, bird or animal, found dead or torn by wild animals.

Ezekiel 45:1 “`When you allot the land as an inheritance, you are to present to the LORD a portion of the land as a sacred district, 25,000 cubits long and 20,000 cubits wide; the entire area will be holy.

Ezekiel 45:2 Of this, a section 500 cubits square is to be for the sanctuary, with 50 cubits around it for open land.

Ezekiel 45:3 In the sacred district, measure off a section 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide. In it will be the sanctuary, the Most Holy Place.

Ezekiel 45:4 It will be the sacred portion of the land for the priests, who minister in the sanctuary and who draw near to minister before the LORD. It will be a place for their houses as well as a holy place for the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 45:5 An area 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide will belong to the Levites, who serve in the temple, as their possession for towns to live in.

Ezekiel 45:6 “`You are to give the city as its property an area 5,000 cubits wide and 25,000 cubits long, adjoining the sacred portion; it will belong to the whole house of Israel.

Ezekiel 45:7 “`The prince will have the land bordering each side of the area formed by the sacred district and the property of the city. It will extend westward from the west side and eastward from the east side, running lengthwise from the western to the eastern border parallel to one of the tribal portions.

Ezekiel 45:8 This land will be his possession in Israel. And my princes will no longer oppress my people but will allow the house of Israel to possess the land according to their tribes.

Ezekiel 45:9 “`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: You have gone far enough, O princes of Israel! Give up your violence and oppression and do what is just and right. Stop dispossessing my people, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 45:10 You are to use accurate scales, an accurate ephah and an accurate bath.

Ezekiel 45:11 The ephah and the bath are to be the same size, the bath containing a tenth of a homer and the ephah a tenth of a homer; the homer is to be the standard measure for both.

Ezekiel 45:12 The shekel is to consist of twenty gerahs. Twenty shekels plus twenty-five shekels plus fifteen shekels equal one mina.

Ezekiel 45:13 “`This is the special gift you are to offer: a sixth of an ephah from each homer of wheat and a sixth of an ephah from each homer of barley.

Ezekiel 45:14 The prescribed portion of oil, measured by the bath, is a tenth of a bath from each cor (which consists of ten baths or one homer, for ten baths are equivalent to a homer).

Ezekiel 45:15 Also one sheep is to be taken from every flock of two hundred from the well-watered pastures of Israel. These will be used for the grain offerings, burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to make atonement for the people, declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 45:16 All the people of the land will participate in this special gift for the use of the prince in Israel.

Ezekiel 45:17 It will be the duty of the prince to provide the burnt offerings, grain offerings and drink offerings at the festivals, the New Moons and the Sabbaths—at all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel. He will provide the sin offerings, grain offerings, burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to make atonement for the house of Israel.

Ezekiel 45:18 “`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: In the first month on the first day you are to take a young bull without defect and purify the sanctuary.

Ezekiel 45:19 The priest is to take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the temple, on the four corners of the upper ledge of the altar and on the gateposts of the inner court.

Ezekiel 45:20 You are to do the same on the seventh day of the month for anyone who sins unintentionally or through ignorance; so you are to make atonement for the temple.

Ezekiel 45:21 “`In the first month on the fourteenth day you are to observe the Passover, a feast lasting seven days, during which you shall eat bread made without yeast.

Ezekiel 45:22 On that day the prince is to provide a bull as a sin offering for himself and for all the people of the land.

Ezekiel 45:23 Every day during the seven days of the Feast he is to provide seven bulls and seven rams without defect as a burnt offering to the LORD, and a male goat for a sin offering.

Ezekiel 45:24 He is to provide as a grain offering an ephah for each bull and an ephah for each ram, along with a hin of oil for each ephah.

Ezekiel 45:25 “`During the seven days of the Feast, which begins in the seventh month on the fifteenth day, he is to make the same provision for sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings and oil.

Ezekiel 46:1 “`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The gate of the inner court facing east is to be shut on the six working days, but on the Sabbath day and on the day of the New Moon it is to be opened.

Ezekiel 46:2 The prince is to enter from the outside through the portico of the gateway and stand by the gatepost. The priests are to sacrifice his burnt offering and his fellowship offerings. He is to worship at the threshold of the gateway and then go out, but the gate will not be shut until evening.

Ezekiel 46:3 On the Sabbaths and New Moons the people of the land are to worship in the presence of the LORD at the entrance to that gateway.

Ezekiel 46:4 The burnt offering the prince brings to the LORD on the Sabbath day is to be six male lambs and a ram, all without defect.

Ezekiel 46:5 The grain offering given with the ram is to be an ephah, and the grain offering with the lambs is to be as much as he pleases, along with a hin of oil for each ephah.

Ezekiel 46:6 On the day of the New Moon he is to offer a young bull, six lambs and a ram, all without defect.

Ezekiel 46:7 He is to provide as a grain offering one ephah with the bull, one ephah with the ram, and with the lambs as much as he wants to give, along with a hin of oil with each ephah.

Ezekiel 46:8 When the prince enters, he is to go in through the portico of the gateway, and he is to come out the same way.

Ezekiel 46:9 “`When the people of the land come before the LORD at the appointed feasts, whoever enters by the north gate to worship is to go out by the south gate; and whoever enters by the south gate is to go out by the north gate. No-one is to return through the gate by which he entered, but each is to go out by the opposite gate.

Ezekiel 46:10 The prince is to be among them, going in when they go in and going out when they go out.

Ezekiel 46:11 “`At the festivals and the appointed feasts, the grain offering is to be an ephah with a bull, an ephah with a ram, and with the lambs as much as one pleases, along with a hin of oil for each ephah.

Ezekiel 46:12 When the prince provides a freewill offering to the LORD whether a burnt offering or fellowship offerings—the gate— facing east is to be opened for him. He shall offer his burnt offering or his fellowship offerings as he does on the Sabbath day. Then he shall go out, and after he has gone out, the gate will be shut.

Ezekiel 46:13 “`Every day you are to provide a year-old lamb without defect for a burnt offering to the LORD; morning by morning you shall provide it.

Ezekiel 46:14 You are also to provide with it morning by morning a grain offering, consisting of a sixth of an ephah with a third of a hin of oil to moisten the flour. The presenting of this grain offering to the LORD is a lasting ordinance.

Ezekiel 46:15 So the lamb and the grain offering and the oil shall be provided morning by morning for a regular burnt offering.

Ezekiel 46:16 “`This is what the Sovereign LORD says: If the prince makes a gift from his inheritance to one of his sons, it will also belong to his descendants; it is to be their property by inheritance.

Ezekiel 46:17 If, however, he makes a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, the servant may keep it until the year of freedom; then it will revert to the prince. His inheritance belongs to his sons only; it is theirs.

Ezekiel 46:18 The prince must not take any of the inheritance of the people, driving them off their property. He is to give his sons their inheritance out of his own property, so that none of my people will be separated from his property.’“

Ezekiel 46:19 Then the man brought me through the entrance at the side of the gate to the sacred rooms facing north, which belonged to the priests, and showed me a place at the western end.

Ezekiel 46:20 He said to me, “This is the place where the priests will cook the guilt offering and the sin offering and bake the grain offering, to avoid bringing them into the outer court and consecrating the people.”

Ezekiel 46:21 He then brought me to the outer court and led me round to its four corners, and I saw in each corner another court.

Ezekiel 46:22 In the four corners of the outer court were enclosed courts, forty cubits long and thirty cubits wide; each of the courts in the four corners was the same size.

Ezekiel 46:23 Around the inside of each of the four courts was a ledge of stone, with places for fire built all round under the ledge.

Ezekiel 46:24 He said to me, “These are the kitchens where those who minister at the temple will cook the sacrifices of the people.”

Ezekiel 47:1 The man brought me back to the entrance of the temple, and I saw water coming out from under the threshold of the temple towards the east (for the temple faced east). The water was coming down from under the south side of the temple, south of the altar.

Ezekiel 47:2 He then brought me out through the north gate and led me round the outside to the outer gate facing east, and the water was flowing from the south side.

Ezekiel 47:3 As the man went eastward with a measuring line in his hand, he measured off a thousand cubits and then led me through water that was ankle-deep.

Ezekiel 47:4 He measured off another thousand cubits and led me through water that was knee-deep. He measured off another thousand and led me through water that was up to the waist.

Ezekiel 47:5 He measured off another thousand, but now it was a river that I could not cross, because the water had risen and was deep enough to swim in—a river that no-one could cross.

Ezekiel 47:6 He asked me, “Son of man, do you see this?” Then he led me back to the bank of the river.

Ezekiel 47:7 When I arrived there, I saw a great number of trees on each side of the river.

Ezekiel 47:8 He said to me, “This water flows towards the eastern region and goes down into the Arabah, where it enters the Sea. When it empties into the Sea, the water there becomes fresh.

Ezekiel 47:9 Swarms of living creatures will live wherever the river flows. There will be large numbers of fish, because this water flows there and makes the salt water fresh; so where the river flows everything will live.

Ezekiel 47:10 Fishermen will stand along the shore; from En Gedi to En Eglaim there will be places for spreading nets. The fish will be of many kinds—like the fish of the Great Sea.

Ezekiel 47:11 But the swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they will be left for salt.

Ezekiel 47:12 Fruit trees of all kinds will grow on both banks of the river. Their leaves will not wither, nor will their fruit fail. Every month they will bear, because the water from the sanctuary flows to them. Their fruit will serve for food and their leaves for healing.”

Ezekiel 47:13 This is what the Sovereign LORD says: “These are the boundaries by which you are to divide the land for an inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel, with two portions for Joseph.

Ezekiel 47:14 You are to divide it equally among them. Because I swore with uplifted hand to give it to your forefathers, this land will become your inheritance.

Ezekiel 47:15 “This is to be the boundary of the land: “On the north side it will run from the Great Sea by the Hethlon road past Lebo Hamath to Zedad, Ezekiel 47:16 Berothah and Sibraim (which lies on the border between Damascus and Hamath), as far as Hazer Hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran.

Ezekiel 47:17 The boundary will extend from the sea to Hazar Enan, along the northern border of Damascus, with the border of Hamath to the north. This will be the north boundary.

Ezekiel 47:18 “On the east side the boundary will run between Hauran and Damascus, along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel, to the eastern sea and as far as Tamar. This will be the east boundary.

Ezekiel 47:19 “On the south side it will run from Tamar as far as the waters of Meribah Kadesh, then along the Wadi [of Egypt] to the Great Sea. This will be the south boundary.

Ezekiel 47:20 “On the west side, the Great Sea will be the boundary to a point opposite Lebo Hamath. This will be the west boundary.

Ezekiel 47:21 “You are to distribute this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel.

Ezekiel 47:22 You are to allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the aliens who have settled among you and who have children. You are to consider them as native-born Israelites; along with you they are to be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel.

Ezekiel 47:23 In whatever tribe the alien settles, there you are to give him his inheritance,” declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 48:1 “These are the tribes, listed by name: At the northern frontier, Dan will have one portion; it will follow the Hethlon road to Lebo Hamath; Hazar Enan and the northern border of Damascus next to Hamath will be part of its border from the east side to the west side.

Ezekiel 48:2 “Asher will have one portion; it will border the territory of Dan from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:3 “Naphtali will have one portion; it will border the territory of Asher from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:4 “Manasseh will have one portion; it will border the territory of Naphtali from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:5 “Ephraim will have one portion; it will border the territory of Manasseh from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:6 “Reuben will have one portion; it will border the territory of Ephraim from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:7 “Judah will have one portion; it will border the territory of Reuben from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:8 “Bordering the territory of Judah from east to west will be the portion you are to present as a special gift. It will be 25,000 cubits wide, and its length from east to west will equal one of the tribal portions; the sanctuary will be in the centre of it.

Ezekiel 48:9 “The special portion you are to offer to the LORD will be 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide.

Ezekiel 48:10 This will be the sacred portion for the priests. It will be 25,000 cubits long on the north side, 10,000 cubits wide on the west side, 10,000 cubits wide on the east side and 25,000 cubits long on the south side. In the centre of it will be the sanctuary of the LORD.

Ezekiel 48:11 This will be for the consecrated priests, the Zadokites, who were faithful in serving me and did not go astray as the Levites did when the Israelites went astray.

Ezekiel 48:12 It will be a special gift to them from the sacred portion of the land, a most holy portion, bordering the territory of the Levites.

Ezekiel 48:13 “Alongside the territory of the priests, the Levites will have an allotment 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide. Its total length will be 25,000 cubits and its width 10,000 cubits.

Ezekiel 48:14 They must not sell or exchange any of it. This is the best of the land and must not pass into other hands, because it is holy to the LORD.

Ezekiel 48:15 “The remaining area, 5,000 cubits wide and 25,000 cubits long, will be for the common use of the city, for houses and for pasture-land. The city will be in the centre of it

Ezekiel 48:16 and will have these measurements: the north side 4,500 cubits, the south side 4,500 cubits, the east side 4,500 cubits, and the west side 4,500 cubits.

Ezekiel 48:17 The pasture-land for the city will be 250 cubits on the north, 250 cubits on the south, 250 cubits on the east, and 250 cubits on the west.

Ezekiel 48:18 What remains of the area, bordering on the sacred portion and running the length of it, will be 10,000 cubits on the east side and 10,000 cubits on the west side. Its produce will supply food for the workers of the city.

Ezekiel 48:19 The workers from the city who farm it will come from all the tribes of Israel.

Ezekiel 48:20 The entire portion will be a square, 25,000 cubits on each side. As a special gift you will set aside the sacred portion, along with the property of the city.

Ezekiel 48:21 “What remains on both sides of the area formed by the sacred portion and the city property will belong to the prince. It will extend eastward from the 25,000 cubits of the sacred portion to the eastern border, and westward from the 25,000 cubits to the western border. Both these areas running the length of the tribal portions will belong to the prince, and the sacred portion with the temple sanctuary will be in the centre of them.

Ezekiel 48:22 So the property of the Levites and the property of the city will lie in the centre of the area that belongs to the prince. The area belonging to the prince will lie between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin.

Ezekiel 48:23 “As for the rest of the tribes: Benjamin will have one portion; it will extend from the east side to the west side.

Ezekiel 48:24 “Simeon will have one portion; it will border the territory of Benjamin from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:25 “Issachar will have one portion; it will border the territory of Simeon from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:26 “Zebulun will have one portion; it will border the territory of Issachar from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:27 “Gad will have one portion; it will border the territory of Zebulun from east to west.

Ezekiel 48:28 “The southern boundary of Gad will run south from Tamar to the waters of Meribah Kadesh, then along the Wadi [of Egypt] to the Great Sea.

Ezekiel 48:29 “This is the land you are to allot as an inheritance to the tribes of Israel, and these will be their portions,” declares the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 48:30 “These will be the exits of the city: Beginning on the north side, which is 4,500 cubits long,

Ezekiel 48:31 the gates of the city will be named after the tribes of Israel. The three gates on the north side will be the gate of Reuben, the gate of Judah and the gate of Levi.

Ezekiel 48:32 “On the east side, which is 4,500 cubits long, will be three gates: the gate of Joseph, the gate of Benjamin and the gate of Dan.

Ezekiel 48:33 “On the south side, which measures 4,500 cubits, will be three gates: the gate of Simeon, the gate of Issachar and the gate of Zebulun.

Ezekiel 48:34 “On the west side, which is 4,500 cubits long, will be three gates: the gate of Gad, the gate of Asher and the gate of Naphtali.

Ezekiel 48:35 “The distance all around will be 18,000 cubits. “And the name of the city from that time on will be: THE LORD IS THERE.”

Daniel

1:1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it.

Daniel 1:2 And the Lord delivered Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, along with some of the articles from the temple of God. These he carried off to the temple of his god in Babylonia and put in the treasure-house of his god.

Daniel 1:3 Then the king ordered Ashpenaz, chief of his court officials, to bring in some of the Israelites from the royal family and the nobility—

Daniel 1:4 young men without any physical defect, handsome, showing aptitude for every kind of learning, well informed, quick to understand, and qualified to serve in the king’s palace. He was to teach them the language and literature of the Babylonians.

Daniel 1:5 The king assigned them a daily amount of food and wine from the king’s table. They were to be trained for three years, and after that they were to enter the king’s service.

Daniel 1:6 Among these were some from Judah: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah.

Daniel 1:7 The chief official gave them new names: to Daniel, the name Belteshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego.

Daniel 1:8 But Daniel resolved not to defile himself with the royal food and wine, and he asked the chief official for permission not to defile himself in this way.

Daniel 1:9 Now God had caused the official to show favour and sympathy to Daniel,

Daniel 1:10 but the official told Daniel, “I am afraid of my lord the king, who has assigned your food and drink. Why should he see you looking worse than the other young men of your age? The king would then have my head because of you.”

Daniel 1:11 Daniel then said to the guard whom the chief official had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah, Daniel 1:12 “Please test your servants for ten days: Give us nothing but vegetables to eat and water to drink.

Daniel 1:13 Then compare our appearance with that of the young men who eat the royal food, and treat your servants in accordance with what you see.”

Daniel 1:14 So he agreed to this and tested them for ten days.

Daniel 1:15 At the end of the ten days they looked healthier and better nourished than any of the young men who ate the royal food.

Daniel 1:16 So the guard took away their choice food and the wine they were to drink and gave them vegetables instead.

Daniel 1:17 To these four young men God gave knowledge and understanding of all kinds of literature and learning. And Daniel could understand visions and dreams of all kinds.

Daniel 1:18 At the end of the time set by the king to bring them in, the chief official presented them to Nebuchadnezzar.

Daniel 1:19 The king talked with them, and he found none equal to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah; so they entered the king’s service.

Daniel 1:20 In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king questioned them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters in his whole kingdom.

Daniel 1:21 And Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus.

Daniel 2:1 In the second year of his reign, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; his mind was troubled and he could not sleep.

Daniel 2:2 So the king summoned the magicians, enchanters, sorcerers and astrologers to tell him what he had dreamed. When they came in and stood before the king,

Daniel 2:3 he said to them, “I have had a dream that troubles me and I want to know what it means.”

Daniel 2:4 Then the astrologers answered the king in Aramaic, “O king, live for ever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will interpret it.”

Daniel 2:5 The king replied to the astrologers, “This is what I have firmly decided: If you do not tell me what my dream was and interpret it, I will have you cut into pieces and your houses turned into piles of rubble.

Daniel 2:6 But if you tell me the dream and explain it, you will receive from me gifts and rewards and great honour. So tell me the dream and interpret it for me.”

Daniel 2:7 Once more they replied, “Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will interpret it.”

Daniel 2:8 Then the king answered, “I am certain that you are trying to gain time, because you realise that this is what I have firmly decided:

Daniel 2:9 If you do not tell me the dream, there is just one penalty for you. You have conspired to tell me misleading and wicked things, hoping the situation will change. So then, tell me the dream, and I will know that you can interpret it for me.”

Daniel 2:10 The astrologers answered the king, “There is not a man on earth who can do what the king asks! No king, however great and mighty, has ever asked such a thing of any magician or enchanter or astrologer.

Daniel 2:11 What the king asks is too difficult. No-one can reveal it to the king except the gods, and they do not live among men.”

Daniel 2:12 This made the king so angry and furious that he ordered the execution of all the wise men of Babylon.

Daniel 2:13 So the decree was issued to put the wise men to death, and men were sent to look for Daniel and his friends to put them to death.

Daniel 2:14 When Arioch, the commander of the king’s guard, had gone out to put to death the wise men of Babylon, Daniel spoke to him with wisdom and tact.

Daniel 2:15 He asked the king’s officer, “Why did the king issue such a harsh decree?” Arioch then explained the matter to Daniel.

Daniel 2:16 At this, Daniel went in to the king and asked for time, so that he might interpret the dream for him.

Daniel 2:17 Then Daniel returned to his house and explained the matter to his friends Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah.

Daniel 2:18 He urged them to plead for mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery, so that he and his friends might not be executed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

Daniel 2:19 During the night the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven

Daniel 2:20 and said: “Praise be to the name of God for ever and ever; wisdom and power are his.

Daniel 2:21 He changes times and seasons; he sets up kings and deposes them. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the discerning.

Daniel 2:22 He reveals deep and hidden things; he knows what lies in darkness, and light dwells with him.

Daniel 2:23 I thank and praise you, O God of my fathers: You have given me wisdom and power, you have made known to me what we asked of you, you have made known to us the dream of the king.”

Daniel 2:24 Then Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to execute the wise men of Babylon, and said to him, “Do not execute the wise men of Babylon. Take me to the king, and I will interpret his dream for him.”

Daniel 2:25 Arioch took Daniel to the king at once and said, “I have found a man among the exiles from Judah who can tell the king what his dream means.”

Daniel 2:26 The king asked Daniel (also called Belteshazzar), “Are you able to tell me what I saw in my dream and interpret it?”

Daniel 2:27 Daniel replied, “No wise man, enchanter, magician or diviner can explain to the king the mystery he has asked about,

Daniel 2:28 but there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries. He has shown King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in days to come. Your dream and the visions that passed through your mind as you lay on your bed are these:

Daniel 2:29 “As you were lying there, O king, your mind turned to things to come, and the revealer of mysteries showed you what is going to happen.

Daniel 2:30 As for me, this mystery has been revealed to me, not because I have greater wisdom than other living men, but so that you, O king, may know the interpretation and that you may understand what went through your mind.

Daniel 2:31 “You looked, O king, and there before you stood a large statue—an enormous, dazzling statue, awesome in appearance.

Daniel 2:32 The head of the statue was made of pure gold, its chest and arms of silver, its belly and thighs of bronze,

Daniel 2:33 its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of baked clay.

Daniel 2:34 While you were watching, a rock was cut out, but not by human hands. It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and smashed them.

Daniel 2:35 Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver and the gold were broken to pieces at the same time and became like chaff on a threshing-floor in the summer. The wind swept them away without leaving a trace. But the rock that struck the statue became a huge mountain and filled the whole earth.

Daniel 2:36 “This was the dream, and now we will interpret it to the king.

Daniel 2:37 You, O king, are the king of kings. The God of heaven has given you dominion and power and might and glory;

Daniel 2:38 in your hands he has placed mankind and the beasts of the field and the birds of the air. Wherever they live, he has made you ruler over them all. You are that head of gold.

Daniel 2:39 “After you, another kingdom will rise, inferior to yours. Next, a third kingdom, one of bronze, will rule over the whole earth.

Daniel 2:40 Finally, there will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron—for iron breaks and smashes everything—and as iron breaks things to pieces, so it will crush and break all the others.

Daniel 2:41 Just as you saw that the feet and toes were partly of baked clay and partly of iron, so this will be a divided kingdom; yet it will have some of the strength of iron in it, even as you saw iron mixed with clay.

Daniel 2:42 As the toes were partly iron and partly clay, so this kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle.

Daniel 2:43 And just as you saw the iron mixed with baked clay, so the people will be a mixture and will not remain united, any more than iron mixes with clay.

Daniel 2:44 “In the time of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will it be left to another people. It will crush all those kingdoms and bring them to an end, but it will itself endure for ever.

Daniel 2:45 This is the meaning of the vision of the rock cut out of a mountain, but not by human hands—a rock that broke the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver and the gold to pieces. “The great God has shown the king what will take place in the future. The dream is true and the interpretation is trustworthy.”

Daniel 2:46 Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell prostrate before Daniel and paid him honour and ordered that an offering and incense be presented to him.

Daniel 2:47 The king said to Daniel, “Surely your God is the God of gods and the Lord of kings and a revealer of mysteries, for you were able to reveal this mystery.”

Daniel 2:48 Then the king placed Daniel in a high position and lavished many gifts on him. He made him ruler over the entire province of Babylon and placed him in charge of all its wise men.

Daniel 2:49 Moreover, at Daniel’s request the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego administrators over the province of Babylon, while Daniel himself remained at the royal court.

Daniel 3:1 King Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold, ninety feet high and nine feet wide, and set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon.

Daniel 3:2 He then summoned the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates and all the other provincial officials to come to the dedication of the image he had set up.

Daniel 3:3 So the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates and all the other provincial officials assembled for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up, and they stood before it.

Daniel 3:4 Then the herald loudly proclaimed, “This is what you are commanded to do, O peoples, nations and men of every language:

Daniel 3:5 As soon as you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes and all kinds of music, you must fall down and worship the image of gold that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up.

Daniel 3:6 Whoever does not fall down and worship will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace.”

Daniel 3:7 Therefore, as soon as they heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp and all kinds of music, all the peoples, nations and men of every language fell down and worshipped the image of gold that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Daniel 3:8 At this time some astrologers came forward and denounced the Jews.

Daniel 3:9 They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, “O king, live for ever!

Daniel 3:10 You have issued a decree, O king, that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes and all kinds of music must fall down and worship the image of gold,

Daniel 3:11 and that whoever does not fall down and worship will be thrown into a blazing furnace.

Daniel 3:12 But there are some Jews whom you have set over the affairs of the province of Babylon—Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego—who pay no attention to you, O king. They neither serve your gods nor worship the image of gold you have set up.”

Daniel 3:13 Furious with rage, Nebuchadnezzar summoned Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. So these men were brought before the king, Daniel 3:14 and Nebuchadnezzar said to them, “Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the image of gold I have set up?

Daniel 3:15 Now when you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes and all kinds of music, if you are ready to fall down and worship the image I made, very good. But if you do not worship it, you will be thrown immediately into a blazing furnace. Then what god will be able to rescue you from my hand?”

Daniel 3:16 Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego replied to the king, “O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to defend ourselves before you in this matter.

Daniel 3:17 If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to save us from it, and he will rescue us from your hand, O king.

Daniel 3:18 But even if he does not, we want you to know, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the image of gold you have set up."

Daniel 3:19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was furious with Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, and his attitude towards them changed. He ordered the furnace to be heated seven times hotter than usual

Daniel 3:20 and commanded some of the strongest soldiers in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego and throw them into the blazing furnace.

Daniel 3:21 So these men, wearing their robes, trousers, turbans and other clothes, were bound and thrown into the blazing furnace.

Daniel 3:22 The king's command was so urgent and the furnace so hot that the flames of the fire killed the soldiers who took up Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego,

Daniel 3:23 and these three men, firmly tied, fell into the blazing furnace.

Daniel 3:24 Then King Nebuchadnezzar leaped to his feet in amazement and asked his advisers, "Weren't there three men that we tied up and threw into the fire?" They replied, "Certainly, O king."

Daniel 3:25 He said, "Look! I see four men walking around in the fire, unbound and unharmed, and the fourth looks like a son of the gods."

Daniel 3:26 Nebuchadnezzar then approached the opening of the blazing furnace and shouted, "Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out! Come here!" So Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego came out of the fire,

Daniel 3:27 and the satraps, prefects, governors and royal advisers crowded around them. They saw that the fire had not harmed their bodies, nor was a hair of their heads singed; their robes were not scorched, and there was no smell of fire on them.

Daniel 3:28 Then Nebuchadnezzar said, "Praise be to the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, who has sent his angel and rescued his servants! They trusted in him and defied the king's command and were willing to give up their lives rather than serve or worship any god except their own God.

Daniel 3:29 Therefore I decree that the people of any nation or language who say anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego be cut into pieces and their houses be turned into piles of rubble, for no other god can save in this way."

Daniel 3:30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

Daniel 4:1 King Nebuchadnezzar, To the peoples, nations and men of every language, who live in all the world: May you prosper greatly!

Daniel 4:2 It is my pleasure to tell you about the miraculous signs and wonders that the Most High God has performed for me.

Daniel 4:3 How great are his signs, how mighty his wonders! His kingdom is an eternal kingdom; his dominion endures from generation to generation.

Daniel 4:4 I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at home in my palace, contented and prosperous.

Daniel 4:5 I had a dream that made me afraid. As I was lying in my bed, the images and visions that passed through my mind terrified me.

Daniel 4:6 So I commanded that all the wise men of Babylon be brought before me to interpret the dream for me.

Daniel 4:7 When the magicians, enchanters, astrologers and diviners came, I told them the dream, but they could not interpret it for me.

Daniel 4:8 Finally, Daniel came into my presence and I told him the dream. (He is called Belteshazzar, after the name of my god, and the spirit of the holy gods is in him.)

Daniel 4:9 I said, “Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no mystery is too difficult for you. Here is my dream; interpret it for me.

Daniel 4:10 These are the visions I saw while lying in my bed: I looked, and there before me stood a tree in the middle of the land. Its height was enormous.

Daniel 4:11 The tree grew large and strong and its top touched the sky; it was visible to the ends of the earth.

Daniel 4:12 Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit abundant, and on it was food for all. Under it the beasts of the field found shelter, and the birds of the air lived in its branches; from it every creature was fed.

Daniel 4:13 “In the visions I saw while lying in my bed, I looked, and there before me was a messenger, a holy one, coming down from heaven.

Daniel 4:14 He called in a loud voice:`Cut down the tree and trim off its branches; strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Let the animals flee from under it and the birds from its branches.

Daniel 4:15 But let the stump and its roots, bound with iron and bronze, remain in the ground, in the grass of the field. “`Let him be drenched with the dew of heaven, and let him live with the animals among the plants of the earth.

Daniel 4:16 Let his mind be changed from that of a man and let him be given the mind of an animal, till seven times pass by for him.

Daniel 4:17 “`The decision is announced by messengers, the holy ones declare the verdict, so that the living may know that the Most High is sovereign over the kingdoms of men and gives them to anyone he wishes and sets over them the lowliest of men.’

Daniel 4:18 “This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had. Now, Belteshazzar, tell me what it means, for none of the wise men in my kingdom can interpret it for me. But you can, because the spirit of the holy gods is in you.”

Daniel 4:19 Then Daniel (also called Belteshazzar) was greatly perplexed for a time, and his thoughts terrified him. So the king said, “Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its meaning alarm you.” Belteshazzar answered, “My lord, if only the dream applied to your enemies and its meaning to your adversaries!

Daniel 4:20 The tree you saw, which grew large and strong, with its top touching the sky, visible to the whole earth,

Daniel 4:21 with beautiful leaves and abundant fruit, providing food for all, giving shelter to the beasts of the field, and having nesting places in its branches for the birds of the air—

Daniel 4:22 you, O king, are that tree! You have become great and strong; your greatness has grown until it reaches the sky, and your dominion extends to distant parts of the earth.

Daniel 4:23 “You, O king, saw a messenger, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying,`Cut down the tree and destroy it, but leave the stump, bound with iron and bronze, in the grass of the field, while its roots remain in the ground. Let him be drenched with the dew of heaven; let him live like the wild animals, until seven times pass by for him.’

Daniel 4:24 “This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree the Most High has issued against my lord the king:

Daniel 4:25 You will be driven away from people and will live with the wild animals; you will eat grass like cattle and be drenched with the dew of heaven. Seven times will pass by for you until you acknowledge that the Most High is sovereign over the kingdoms of men and gives them to anyone he wishes.

Daniel 4:26 The command to leave the stump of the tree with its roots means that your kingdom will be restored to you when you acknowledge that Heaven rules.

Daniel 4:27 Therefore, O king, be pleased to accept my advice: Renounce your sins by doing what is right, and your wickedness by being kind to the oppressed. It may be that then your prosperity will continue.”

Daniel 4:28 All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar.

Daniel 4:29 Twelve months later, as the king was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon,

Daniel 4:30 he said, “Is not this the great Babylon I have built as the royal residence, by my mighty power and for the glory of my majesty?”

Daniel 4:31 The words were still on his lips when a voice came from heaven, “This is what is decreed for you, King Nebuchadnezzar: Your royal authority has been taken from you.

Daniel 4:32 You will be driven away from people and will live with the wild animals; you will eat grass like cattle. Seven times will pass by for you until you acknowledge that the Most High is sovereign over the kingdoms of men and gives them to anyone he wishes.”

Daniel 4:33 Immediately what had been said about Nebuchadnezzar was fulfilled. He was driven away from people and ate grass like cattle. His body was drenched with the dew of heaven until his hair grew like the feathers of an eagle and his nails like the claws of a bird.

Daniel 4:34 At the end of that time, I, Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes towards heaven, and my sanity was restored. Then I praised the Most High; I honoured and glorified him who lives for ever. His dominion is an eternal dominion; his kingdom endures from generation to generation.

Daniel 4:35 All the peoples of the earth are regarded as nothing. He does as he pleases with the powers of heaven and the peoples of the earth. No-one can hold back his hand or say to him: “What have you done?”

Daniel 4:36 At the same time that my sanity was restored, my honour and splendour were returned to me for the glory of my kingdom. My advisers and nobles sought me out, and I was restored to my throne and became even greater than before.

Daniel 4:37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and exalt and glorify the King of heaven, because everything he does is right and all his ways are just. And those who walk in pride he is able to humble.

Daniel 5:1 King Belshazzar gave a great banquet for a thousand of his nobles and drank wine with them.

Daniel 5:2 While Belshazzar was drinking his wine, he gave orders to bring in the gold and silver goblets that Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken from the temple in Jerusalem, so that the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines might drink from them.

Daniel 5:3 So they brought in the gold goblets that had been taken from the temple of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines drank from them.

Daniel 5:4 As they drank the wine, they praised the gods of gold and silver, of bronze, iron, wood and stone.

Daniel 5:5 Suddenly the fingers of a human hand appeared and wrote on the plaster of the wall, near the lampstand in the royal palace. The king watched the hand as it wrote.

Daniel 5:6 His face turned pale and he was so frightened that his knees knocked together and his legs gave way.

Daniel 5:7 The king called out for the enchanters, astrologers and diviners to be brought and said to these wise men of Babylon, “Whoever reads this writing and tells me what it means will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain placed around his neck, and he will be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”

Daniel 5:8 Then all the king’s wise men came in, but they could not read the writing or tell the king what it meant.

Daniel 5:9 So King Belshazzar became even more terrified and his face grew more pale. His nobles were baffled.

Daniel 5:10 The queen, hearing the voices of the king and his nobles, came into the banquet hall. “O king, live for ever!” she said. “Don’t be alarmed! Don’t look so pale!

Daniel 5:11 There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in him. In the time of your father he was found to have insight and intelligence and wisdom like that of the gods. King Nebuchadnezzar your father—your father the king, I say— appointed him chief of the magicians, enchanters, astrologers and diviners.

Daniel 5:12 This man Daniel, whom the king called Belteshazzar, was found to have a keen mind and knowledge and understanding, and also the ability to interpret dreams, explain riddles and solve difficult problems. Call for Daniel, and he will tell you what the writing means.”

Daniel 5:13 So Daniel was brought before the king, and the king said to him, “Are you Daniel, one of the exiles my father the king brought from Judah?

Daniel 5:14 I have heard that the spirit of the gods is in you and that you have insight, intelligence and outstanding wisdom.

Daniel 5:15 The wise men and enchanters were brought before me to read this writing and tell me what it means, but they could not explain it.

Daniel 5:16 Now I have heard that you are able to give interpretations and to solve difficult problems. If you can read this writing and tell me what it means, you will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain placed around your neck, and you will be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”

Daniel 5:17 Then Daniel answered the king, “You may keep your gifts for yourself and give your rewards to someone else. Nevertheless, I will read the writing for the king and tell him what it means.

Daniel 5:18 “O king, the Most High God gave your father Nebuchadnezzar sovereignty and greatness and glory and splendour.

Daniel 5:19 Because of the high position he gave him, all the peoples and nations and men of every language dreaded and feared him. Those the king wanted to put to death, he put to death; those he wanted to spare, he spared; those he wanted to promote, he promoted; and those he wanted to humble, he humbled.

Daniel 5:20 But when his heart became arrogant and hardened with pride, he was deposed from his royal throne and stripped of his glory.

Daniel 5:21 He was driven away from people and given the mind of an animal; he lived with the wild donkeys and ate grass like cattle; and his body was drenched with the dew of heaven, until he acknowledged that the Most High God is sovereign over the kingdoms of men and sets over them anyone he wishes.

Daniel 5:22 “But you his son, O Belshazzar, have not humbled yourself, though you knew all this.

Daniel 5:23 Instead, you have set yourself up against the Lord of heaven. You had the goblets from his temple brought to you, and you and your nobles, your wives and your concubines drank wine from them. You praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood and stone, which cannot see or hear or understand. But you did not honour the God who holds in his hand your life and all your ways.

Daniel 5:24 Therefore he sent the hand that wrote the inscription.

Daniel 5:25 “This is the inscription that was written: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, PARSIN

Daniel 5:26 “This is what these words mean: Mene: God has numbered the days of your reign and brought it to an end.

Daniel 5:27 Tekel: You have been weighed on the scales and found wanting.

Daniel 5:28 Peres: Your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians.”

Daniel 5:29 Then at Belshazzar’s command, Daniel was clothed in purple, a gold chain was placed around his neck, and he was proclaimed the third highest ruler in the kingdom.

Daniel 5:30 That very night Belshazzar, king of the Babylonians, was slain,

Daniel 5:31 and Darius the Mede took over the kingdom, at the age of sixty-two.

Daniel 6:1 It pleased Darius to appoint 120 satraps to rule throughout the kingdom,

Daniel 6:2 with three administrators over them, one of whom was Daniel. The satraps were made accountable to them so that the king might not suffer loss.

Daniel 6:3 Now Daniel so distinguished himself among the administrators and the satraps by his exceptional qualities that the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom.

Daniel 6:4 At this, the administrators and the satraps tried to find grounds for charges against Daniel in his conduct of government affairs, but they were unable to do so. They could find no corruption in him, because he was trustworthy and neither corrupt nor negligent.

Daniel 6:5 Finally these men said, “We will never find any basis for charges against this man Daniel unless it has something to do with the law of his God.”

Daniel 6:6 So the administrators and the satraps went as a group to the king and said: “O King Darius, live for ever!

Daniel 6:7 The royal administrators, prefects, satraps, advisers and governors have all agreed that the king should issue an edict and enforce the decree that anyone who prays to any god or man during the next thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be thrown into the lions’ den.

Daniel 6:8 Now, O king, issue the decree and put it in writing so that it cannot be altered—in accordance with the laws of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed.”

Daniel 6:9 So King Darius put the decree in writing.

Daniel 6:10 Now when Daniel learned that the decree had been published, he went home to his upstairs room where the windows opened towards Jerusalem. Three times a day he got down on his knees and prayed, giving thanks to his God, just as he had done before.

Daniel 6:11 Then these men went as a group and found Daniel praying and asking God for help.

Daniel 6:12 So they went to the king and spoke to him about his royal decree: “Did you not publish a decree that during the next thirty days anyone who prays to any god or man except to you, O king, would be thrown into the lions’ den?” The king answered, “The decree stands—in accordance with the laws of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed.”

Daniel 6:13 Then they said to the king, “Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or to the decree you put in writing. He still prays three times a day.”

Daniel 6:14 When the king heard this, he was greatly distressed; he was determined to rescue Daniel and made every effort until sundown to save him.

Daniel 6:15 Then the men went as a group to the king and said to him, “Remember, O king, that according to the law of the Medes and Persians no decree or edict that the king issues can be changed.”

Daniel 6:16 So the king gave the order, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the lions’ den. The king said to Daniel, “May your God, whom you serve continually, rescue you!”

Daniel 6:17 A stone was brought and placed over the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the rings of his nobles, so that Daniel’s situation might not be changed.

Daniel 6:18 Then the king returned to his palace and spent the night without eating and without any entertainment being brought to him. And he could not sleep.

Daniel 6:19 At the first light of dawn, the king got up and hurried to the lions' den.

Daniel 6:20 When he came near the den, he called to Daniel in an anguished voice, “Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to rescue you from the lions?”

Daniel 6:21 Daniel answered, “O king, live for ever!

Daniel 6:22 My God sent his angel, and he shut the mouths of the lions. They have not hurt me, because I was found innocent in his sight. Nor have I ever done any wrong before you, O king.”

Daniel 6:23 The king was overjoyed and gave orders to lift Daniel out of the den. And when Daniel was lifted from the den, no wound was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

Daniel 6:24 At the king's command, the men who had falsely accused Daniel were brought in and thrown into the lions' den, along with their wives and children. And before they reached the floor of the den, the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.

Daniel 6:25 Then King Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations and men of every language throughout the land: “May you prosper greatly!

Daniel 6:26 “I issue a decree that in every part of my kingdom people must fear and reverence the God of Daniel. “For he is the living God and he endures for ever; his kingdom will not be destroyed, his dominion will never end.

Daniel 6:27 He rescues and he saves; he performs signs and wonders in the heavens and on the earth. He has rescued Daniel from the power of the lions.”

Daniel 6:28 So Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Daniel 7:1 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream, and visions passed through his mind as he was lying on his bed. He wrote down the substance of his dream.

Daniel 7:2 Daniel said: “In my vision at night I looked, and there before me were the four winds of heaven churning up the great sea.

Daniel 7:3 Four great beasts, each different from the others, came up out of the sea.

Daniel 7:4 “The first was like a lion, and it had the wings of an eagle. I watched until its wings were torn off and it was lifted from the ground so that it stood on two feet like a man, and the heart of a man was given to it.

Daniel 7:5 “And there before me was a second beast, which looked like a bear. It was raised up on one of its sides, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told,`Get up and eat your fill of flesh!’

Daniel 7:6 “After that, I looked, and there before me was another beast, one that looked like a leopard. And on its back it had four wings like those of a bird. This beast had four heads, and it was given authority to rule.

Daniel 7:7 “After that, in my vision at night I looked, and there before me was a fourth beast—terrifying and frightening and very powerful. It had large iron teeth; it crushed and devoured its victims and trampled underfoot whatever was left. It was different from all the former beasts, and it had ten horns.

Daniel 7:8 “While I was thinking about the horns, there before me was another horn, a little one, which came up among them; and three of the first horns were uprooted before it. This horn had eyes like the eyes of a man and a mouth that spoke boastfully.

Daniel 7:9 “As I looked, “thrones were set in place, and the Ancient of Days took his seat. His clothing was as white as snow; the hair of his head was white like wool. His throne was flaming with fire, and its wheels were all ablaze.

Daniel 7:10 A river of fire was flowing, coming out from before him. Thousands upon thousands attended him; ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him. The court was seated, and the books were opened.

Daniel 7:11 “Then I continued to watch because of the boastful words the horn was speaking. I kept looking until the beast was slain and its body destroyed and thrown into the blazing fire.

Daniel 7:12 (The other beasts had been stripped of their authority, but were allowed to live for a period of time.)

Daniel 7:13 “In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like a son of man, coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into his presence.

Daniel 7:14 He was given authority, glory and sovereign power; all peoples, nations and men of every language worshipped him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed.

Daniel 7:15 “I, Daniel, was troubled in spirit, and the visions that passed through my mind disturbed me.

Daniel 7:16 I approached one of those standing there and asked him the true meaning of all this. “So he told me and gave me the interpretation of these things:

Daniel 7:17 `The four great beasts are four kingdoms that will rise from the earth.

Daniel 7:18 But the saints of the Most High will receive the kingdom and will possess it for ever—yes, for ever and ever.’

Daniel 7:19 “Then I wanted to know the true meaning of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others and most terrifying, with its iron teeth and bronze claws—the beast that crushed and devoured its victims and trampled underfoot whatever was left.

Daniel 7:20 I also wanted to know about the ten horns on its head and about the other horn that came up, before which three of them fell—the horn that looked more imposing than the others and that had eyes and a mouth that spoke boastfully.

Daniel 7:21 As I watched, this horn was waging war against the saints and defeating them,

Daniel 7:22 until the Ancient of Days came and pronounced judgment in favour of the saints of the Most High, and the time came when they possessed the kingdom.

Daniel 7:23 “He gave me this explanation:`The fourth beast is a fourth kingdom that will appear on earth. It will be different from all the other kingdoms and will devour the whole earth, trampling it down and crushing it.

Daniel 7:24 The ten horns are ten kings who will come from this kingdom. After them another king will arise, different from the earlier ones; he will subdue three kings.

Daniel 7:25 He will speak against the Most High and oppress his saints and try to change the set times and the laws. The saints will be handed over to him for a time, times and half a time.

Daniel 7:26 “`But the court will sit, and his power will be taken away and completely destroyed for ever.

Daniel 7:27 Then the sovereignty, power and greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven will be handed over to the saints, the people of the Most High. His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all rulers will worship and obey him.’

Daniel 7:28 “This is the end of the matter. I, Daniel, was deeply troubled by my thoughts, and my face turned pale, but I kept the matter to myself.”

Daniel 8:1 In the third year of King Belshazzar’s reign, I, Daniel, had a vision, after the one that had already appeared to me.

Daniel 8:2 In my vision I saw myself in the citadel of Susa in the province of Elam; in the vision I was beside the Ulai Canal.

Daniel 8:3 I looked up, and there before me was a ram with two horns, standing beside the canal, and the horns were long. One of the horns was longer than the other but grew up later.

Daniel 8:4 I watched the ram as he charged towards the west and the north and the south. No animal could stand against him, and none could rescue from his power. He did as he pleased and became great.

Daniel 8:5 As I was thinking about this, suddenly a goat with a prominent horn between his eyes came from the west, crossing the whole earth without touching the ground.

Daniel 8:6 He came towards the two-horned ram I had seen standing beside the canal and charged at him in great rage.

Daniel 8:7 I saw him attack the ram furiously, striking the ram and shattering his two horns. The ram was powerless to stand against him; the goat knocked him to the ground and trampled on him, and none could rescue the ram from his power.

Daniel 8:8 The goat became very great, but at the height of his power his large horn was broken off, and in its place four prominent horns grew up towards the four winds of heaven.

Daniel 8:9 Out of one of them came another horn, which started small but grew in power to the south and to the east and towards the Beautiful Land.

Daniel 8:10 It grew until it reached the host of the heavens, and it threw some of the starry host down to the earth and trampled on them.

Daniel 8:11 It set itself up to be as great as the Prince of the host; it took away the daily sacrifice from him, and the place of his sanctuary was brought low.

Daniel 8:12 Because of rebellion, the host [of the saints] and the daily sacrifice were given over to it. It prospered in everything it did, and truth was thrown to the ground.

Daniel 8:13 Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to him, “How long will it take for the vision to be fulfilled— the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, the rebellion that causes desolation, and the surrender of the sanctuary and of the host that will be trampled underfoot?”

Daniel 8:14 He said to me, “It will take 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be reconsecrated.”

Daniel 8:15 While I, Daniel, was watching the vision and trying to understand it, there before me stood one who looked like a man.

Daniel 8:16 And I heard a man’s voice from the Ulai calling, “Gabriel, tell this man the meaning of the vision.”

Daniel 8:17 As he came near the place where I was standing, I was terrified and fell prostrate. “Son of man,” he said to me, “understand that the vision concerns the time of the end.”

Daniel 8:18 While he was speaking to me, I was in a deep sleep, with my face to the ground. Then he touched me and raised me to my feet.

Daniel 8:19 He said: “I am going to tell you what will happen later in the time of wrath, because the vision concerns the appointed time of the end.

Daniel 8:20 The two-horned ram that you saw represents the kings of Media and Persia.

Daniel 8:21 The shaggy goat is the king of Greece, and the large horn between his eyes is the first king.

Daniel 8:22 The four horns that replaced the one that was broken off represent four kingdoms that will emerge from his nation but will not have the same power.

Daniel 8:23 “In the latter part of their reign, when rebels have become completely wicked, a stern-faced king, a master of intrigue, will arise.

Daniel 8:24 He will become very strong, but not by his own power. He will cause astounding devastation and will succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy the mighty men and the holy people.

Daniel 8:25 He will cause deceit to prosper, and he will consider himself superior. When they feel secure, he will destroy many and take his stand against the Prince of princes. Yet he will be destroyed, but not by human power.

Daniel 8:26 “The vision of the evenings and mornings that has been given you is true, but seal up the vision, for it concerns the distant future.”

Daniel 8:27 I, Daniel, was exhausted and lay ill for several days. Then I got up and went about the king’s business. I was appalled by the vision; it was beyond understanding.

Daniel 9:1 In the first year of Darius son of Xerxes (a Mede by descent), who was made ruler over the Babylonian kingdom—

Daniel 9:2 in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, understood from the Scriptures, according to the word of the LORD given to Jeremiah the prophet, that the desolation of Jerusalem would last seventy years.

Daniel 9:3 So I turned to the Lord God and pleaded with him in prayer and petition, in fasting, and in sackcloth and ashes.

Daniel 9:4 I prayed to the LORD my God and confessed: “O Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps his covenant of love with all who love him and obey his commands,

Daniel 9:5 we have sinned and done wrong. We have been wicked and have rebelled; we have turned away from your commands and laws.

Daniel 9:6 We have not listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

Daniel 9:7 “Lord, you are righteous, but this day we are covered with shame—the men of Judah and people of Jerusalem and all Israel, both near and far, in all the countries where you have scattered us because of our unfaithfulness to you.

Daniel 9:8 O LORD, we and our kings, our princes and our fathers are covered with shame because we have sinned against you.

Daniel 9:9 The Lord our God is merciful and forgiving, even though we have rebelled against him;

Daniel 9:10 we have not obeyed the LORD our God or kept the laws he gave us through his servants the prophets.

Daniel 9:11 All Israel has transgressed your law and turned away, refusing to obey you. “Therefore the curses and sworn judgments written in the Law of Moses, the servant of God, have been poured out on us, because we have sinned against you.

Daniel 9:12 You have fulfilled the words spoken against us and against our rulers by bringing upon us great disaster. Under the whole heaven nothing has ever been done like what has been done to Jerusalem.

Daniel 9:13 Just as it is written in the Law of Moses, all this disaster has come upon us, yet we have not sought the favour of the LORD our God by turning from our sins and giving attention to your truth.

Daniel 9:14 The LORD did not hesitate to bring the disaster upon us, for the LORD our God is righteous in everything he does; yet we have not obeyed him.

Daniel 9:15 “Now, O Lord our God, who brought your people out of Egypt with a mighty hand and who made for yourself a name that endures to this day, we have sinned, we have done wrong.

Daniel 9:16 O Lord, in keeping with all your righteous acts, turn away your anger and your wrath from Jerusalem, your city, your holy hill. Our sins and the iniquities of our fathers have made Jerusalem and your people an object of scorn to all those around us.

Daniel 9:17 “Now, our God, hear the prayers and petitions of your servant. For your sake, O Lord, look with favour on your desolate sanctuary.

Daniel 9:18 Give ear, O God, and hear; open your eyes and see the desolation of the city that bears your Name. We do not make requests of you because we are righteous, but because of your great mercy.

Daniel 9:19 O Lord, listen! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, hear and act! For your sake, O my God, do not delay, because your city and your people bear your Name.”

Daniel 9:20 While I was speaking and praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel and making my request to the LORD my God for his holy hill—

Daniel 9:21 while I was still in prayer, Gabriel, the man I had seen in the earlier vision, came to me in swift flight about the time of the evening sacrifice.

Daniel 9:22 He instructed me and said to me, “Daniel, I have now come to give you insight and understanding.

Daniel 9:23 As soon as you began to pray, an answer was given, which I have come to tell you, for you are highly esteemed. Therefore, consider the message and understand the vision:

Daniel 9:24 “Seventy`sevens’ are decreed for your people and your holy city to finish transgression, to put an end to sin, to atone for wickedness, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy and to anoint the most holy.

Daniel 9:25 “Know and understand this: From the issuing of the decree to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until the Anointed One, the ruler, comes, there will be seven`sevens’, and sixty-two`sevens’. It will be rebuilt with streets and a trench, but in times of trouble.

Daniel 9:26 After the sixty-two`sevens’, the Anointed One will be cut off and will have nothing. The people of the ruler who will come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end will come like a flood: War will continue until the end, and desolations have been decreed.

Daniel 9:27 He will confirm a covenant with many for one`seven’. In the middle of the`seven’ he will put an end to sacrifice and offering. And on a wing [of the temple] he will set up an abomination that causes desolation, until the end that is decreed is poured out on him.”

Daniel 10:1 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a revelation was given to Daniel (who was called Belteshazzar). Its message was true and it concerned a great war. The understanding of the message came to him in a vision.

Daniel 10:2 At that time I, Daniel, mourned for three weeks.

Daniel 10:3 I ate no choice food; no meat or wine touched my lips; and I used no lotions at all until the three weeks were over.

Daniel 10:4 On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was standing on the bank of the great river, the Tigris,

Daniel 10:5 I looked up and there before me was a man dressed in linen, with a belt of the finest gold round his waist.

Daniel 10:6 His body was like chrysolite, his face like lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and legs like the gleam of burnished bronze, and his voice like the sound of a multitude.

Daniel 10:7 I, Daniel, was the only one who saw the vision; the men with me did not see it, but such terror overwhelmed them that they fled and hid themselves.

Daniel 10:8 So I was left alone, gazing at this great vision; I had no strength left, my face turned deathly pale and I was helpless.

Daniel 10:9 Then I heard him speaking, and as I listened to him, I fell into a deep sleep, my face to the ground.

Daniel 10:10 A hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees.

Daniel 10:11 He said, “Daniel, you who are highly esteemed, consider carefully the words I am about to speak to you, and stand up, for I have now been sent to you.” And when he said this to me, I stood up trembling.

Daniel 10:12 Then he continued, “Do not be afraid, Daniel. Since the first day that you set your mind to gain understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to them.

Daniel 10:13 But the prince of the Persian kingdom resisted me twenty-one days. Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, because I was detained there with the king of Persia.

Daniel 10:14 Now I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the future, for the vision concerns a time yet to come.”

Daniel 10:15 While he was saying this to me, I bowed with my face towards the ground and was speechless.

Daniel 10:16 Then one who looked like a man touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and began to speak. I said to the one standing before me, “I am overcome with anguish because of the vision, my lord, and I am helpless.

Daniel 10:17 How can I, your servant, talk with you, my lord? My strength is gone and I can hardly breathe.”

Daniel 10:18 Again the one who looked like a man touched me and gave me strength.

Daniel 10:19 “Do not be afraid, O man highly esteemed,” he said. “Peace! Be strong now; be strong.” When he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, “Speak, my lord, since you have given me strength.”

Daniel 10:20 So he said, “Do you know why I have come to you? Soon I will return to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I go, the prince of Greece will come;

Daniel 10:21 but first I will tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. (No-one supports me against them except Michael, your prince.

Daniel 11:1 And in the first year of Darius the Mede, I took my stand to support and protect him.)

Daniel 11:2 “Now then, I tell you the truth: Three more kings will appear in Persia, and then a fourth, who will be far richer than all the others. When he has gained power by his wealth, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece.

Daniel 11:3 Then a mighty king will appear, who will rule with great power and do as he pleases.

Daniel 11:4 After he has appeared, his empire will be broken up and parcelled out towards the four winds of heaven. It will not go to his descendants, nor will it have the power he exercised, because his empire will be uprooted and given to others.

Daniel 11:5 “The king of the South will become strong, but one of his commanders will become even stronger than he and will rule his own kingdom with great power.

Daniel 11:6 After some years, they will become allies. The daughter of the king of the South will go to the king of the North to make an alliance, but she will not retain her power, and he and his power will not last. In those days she will be handed over, together with her royal escort and her father and the one who supported her.

Daniel 11:7 “One from her family line will arise to take her place. He will attack the forces of the king of the North and enter his fortress; he will fight against them and be victorious.

Daniel 11:8 He will also seize their gods, their metal images and their valuable articles of silver and gold and carry them off to Egypt. For some years he will leave the king of the North alone.

Daniel 11:9 Then the king of the North will invade the realm of the king of the South but will retreat to his own country.

Daniel 11:10 His sons will prepare for war and assemble a great army, which will sweep on like an irresistible flood and carry the battle as far as his fortress.

Daniel 11:11 “Then the king of the South will march out in a rage and fight against the king of the North, who will raise a large army, but it will be defeated.

Daniel 11:12 When the army is carried off, the king of the South will be filled with pride and will slaughter many thousands, yet he will not remain triumphant.

Daniel 11:13 For the king of the North will muster another army, larger than the first; and after several years, he will advance with a huge army fully equipped.

Daniel 11:14 “In those times many will rise against the king of the South. The violent men among your own people will rebel in fulfilment of the vision, but without success.

Daniel 11:15 Then the king of the North will come and build up siege ramps and will capture a fortified city. The forces of the South will be powerless to resist; even their best troops will not have the strength to stand.

Daniel 11:16 The invader will do as he pleases; no-one will be able to stand against him. He will establish himself in the Beautiful Land and will have the power to destroy it.

Daniel 11:17 He will determine to come with the might of his entire kingdom and will make an alliance with the king of the South. And he will give him a daughter in marriage in order to overthrow the kingdom, but his plans will not succeed or help him.

Daniel 11:18 Then he will turn his attention to the coastlands and will take many of them, but a commander will put an end to his insolence and will turn his insolence back upon him.

Daniel 11:19 After this, he will turn back towards the fortresses of his own country but will stumble and fall, to be seen no more.

Daniel 11:20 “His successor will send out a tax collector to maintain the royal splendour. In a few years, however, he will be destroyed, yet not in anger or in battle.

Daniel 11:21 “He will be succeeded by a contemptible person who has not been given the honour of royalty. He will invade the kingdom when its people feel secure, and he will seize it through intrigue.

Daniel 11:22 Then an overwhelming army will be swept away before him; both it and a prince of the covenant will be destroyed.

Daniel 11:23 After coming to an agreement with him, he will act deceitfully, and with only a few people he will rise to power.

Daniel 11:24 When the richest provinces feel secure, he will invade them and will achieve what neither his fathers nor his forefathers did. He will distribute plunder, loot and wealth among his followers. He will plot the overthrow of fortresses— but only for a time.

Daniel 11:25 “With a large army he will stir up his strength and courage against the king of the South. The king of the South will wage war with a large and very powerful army, but he will not be able to stand because of the plots devised against him.

Daniel 11:26 Those who eat from the king’s provisions will try to destroy him; his army will be swept away, and many will fall in battle.

Daniel 11:27 The two kings, with their hearts bent on evil, will sit at the same table and lie to each other, but to no avail, because an end will still come at the appointed time.

Daniel 11:28 The king of the North will return to his own country with great wealth, but his heart will be set against the holy covenant. He will take action against it and then return to his own country.

Daniel 11:29 “At the appointed time he will invade the South again, but this time the outcome will be different from what it was before.

Daniel 11:30 Ships of the western coastlands will oppose him, and he will lose heart. Then he will turn back and vent his fury against the holy covenant. He will return and show favour to those who forsake the holy covenant.

Daniel 11:31 “His armed forces will rise up to desecrate the temple fortress and will abolish the daily sacrifice. Then they will set up the abomination that causes desolation.

Daniel 11:32 With flattery he will corrupt those who have violated the covenant, but the people who know their God will firmly resist him.

Daniel 11:33 “Those who are wise will instruct many, though for a time they will fall by the sword or be burned or captured or plundered.

Daniel 11:34 When they fall, they will receive a little help, and many who are not sincere will join them.

Daniel 11:35 Some of the wise will stumble, so that they may be refined, purified and made spotless until the time of the end, for it will still come at the appointed time.

Daniel 11:36 “The king will do as he pleases. He will exalt and magnify himself above every god and will say unheard-of things against the God of gods. He will be successful until the time of wrath is completed, for what has been determined must take place.

Daniel 11:37 He will show no regard for the gods of his fathers or for the one desired by women, nor will he regard any god, but will exalt himself above them all.

Daniel 11:38 Instead of them, he will honour a god of fortresses; a god unknown to his fathers he will honour with gold and silver, with precious stones and costly gifts.

Daniel 11:39 He will attack the mightiest fortresses with the help of a foreign god and will greatly honour those who acknowledge him. He will make them rulers over many people and will distribute the land at a price.

Daniel 11:40 “At the time of the end the king of the South will engage him in battle, and the king of the North will storm out against him with chariots and cavalry and a great fleet of ships. He will invade many countries and sweep through them like a flood.

Daniel 11:41 He will also invade the Beautiful Land. Many countries will fall, but Edom, Moab and the leaders of Ammon will be delivered from his hand.

Daniel 11:42 He will extend his power over many countries; Egypt will not escape.

Daniel 11:43 He will gain control of the treasures of gold and silver and all the riches of Egypt, with the Libyans and Nubians in submission.

Daniel 11:44 But reports from the east and the north will alarm him, and he will set out in a great rage to destroy and annihilate many.

Daniel 11:45 He will pitch his royal tents between the seas at the beautiful holy mountain. Yet he will come to his end, and no-one will help him.

Daniel 12:1 “At that time Michael, the great prince who protects your people, will arise. There will be a time of distress such as has not happened from the beginning of nations until then. But at that time your people—everyone whose name is found written in the book—will be delivered.

Daniel 12:2 Multitudes who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake: some to everlasting life, others to shame and everlasting contempt.

Daniel 12:3 Those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the heavens, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever.

Daniel 12:4 But you, Daniel, close up and seal the words of the scroll until the time of the end. Many will go here and there to increase knowledge.”

Daniel 12:5 Then I, Daniel, looked, and there before me stood two others, one on this bank of the river and one on the opposite bank.

Daniel 12:6 One of them said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “How long will it be before these astonishing things are fulfilled?”

Daniel 12:7 The man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, lifted his right hand and his left hand towards heaven, and I heard him swear by him who lives for ever, saying, “It will be for a time, times and half a time. When the power of the holy people has been finally broken, all these things will be completed.”

Daniel 12:8 I heard, but I did not understand. So I asked, “My lord, what will the outcome of all this be?”

Daniel 12:9 He replied, “Go your way, Daniel, because the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end.

Daniel 12:10 Many will be purified, made spotless and refined, but the wicked will continue to be wicked. None of the wicked will understand, but those who are wise will understand.

Daniel 12:11 “From the time that the daily sacrifice is abolished and the abomination that causes desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days.

Daniel 12:12 Blessed is the one who waits for and reaches the end of the 1,335 days.

Daniel 12:13 “As for you, go your way till the end. You will rest, and then at the end of the days you will rise to receive your allotted inheritance.”

Hosea

1:1 The word of the LORD that came to Hosea son of Beeri during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and during the reign of Jeroboam son of Joash king of Israel:

Hosea 1:2 When the LORD began to speak through Hosea, the LORD said to him, “Go, take to yourself an adulterous wife and children of unfaithfulness, because the land is guilty of the vilest adultery in departing from the LORD.”

Hosea 1:3 So he married Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

Hosea 1:4 Then the LORD said to Hosea, “Call him Jezreel, because I will soon punish the house of Jehu for the massacre at Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of Israel.

Hosea 1:5 In that day I will break Israel’s bow in the Valley of Jezreel.”

Hosea 1:6 Gomer conceived again and gave birth to a daughter. Then the LORD said to Hosea, “Call her Lo-Ruhamah, for I will no longer show love to the house of Israel, that I should at all forgive them.

Hosea 1:7 Yet I will show love to the house of Judah; and I will save them—not by bow, sword or battle, or by horses and horsemen, but by the LORD their God.”

Hosea 1:8 After she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, Gomer had another son.

Hosea 1:9 Then the LORD said, “Call him Lo-Ammi, for you are not my people, and I am not your God.

Hosea 1:10 “Yet the Israelites will be like the sand on the seashore, which cannot be measured or counted. In the place where it was said to them,`You are not my people’, they will be called`sons of the living God’.

Hosea 1:11 The people of Judah and the people of Israel will be reunited, and they will appoint one leader and will come up out of the land, for great will be the day of Jezreel.

Hosea 2:1 “Say of your brothers,`My people’, and of your sisters,`My loved one’.

Hosea 2:2 “Rebuke your mother, rebuke her, for she is not my wife, and I am not her husband. Let her remove the adulterous look from her face and the unfaithfulness from between her breasts.

Hosea 2:3 Otherwise I will strip her naked and make her as bare as on the day she was born; I will make her like a desert, turn her into a parched land, and slay her with thirst.

Hosea 2:4 I will not show my love to her children, because they are the children of adultery.

Hosea 2:5 Their mother has been unfaithful and has conceived them in disgrace. She said,`I will go after my lovers, who give me my food and my water, my wool and my linen, my oil and my drink.'

Hosea 2:6 Therefore I will block her path with thornbushes; I will wall her in so that she cannot find her way.

Hosea 2:7 She will chase after her lovers but not catch them; she will look for them but not find them. Then she will say,`I will go back to my husband as at first, for then I was better off than now.'

Hosea 2:8 She has not acknowledged that I was the one who gave her the grain, the new wine and oil, who lavished on her the silver and gold—which they used for Baal.

Hosea 2:9 "Therefore I will take away my grain when it ripens, and my new wine when it is ready. I will take back my wool and my linen, intended to cover her nakedness.

Hosea 2:10 So now I will expose her lewdness before the eyes of her lovers; no-one will take her out of my hands.

Hosea 2:11 I will stop all her celebrations: her yearly festivals, her New Moons, her Sabbath days—all her appointed feasts.

Hosea 2:12 I will ruin her vines and her fig-trees, which she said were her pay from her lovers; I will make them a thicket, and wild animals will devour them.

Hosea 2:13 I will punish her for the days she burned incense to the Baals; she decked herself with rings and jewellery, and went after her lovers, but me she forgot," declares the LORD.

Hosea 2:14 "Therefore I am now going to allure her; I will lead her into the desert and speak tenderly to her.

Hosea 2:15 There I will give her back her vineyards, and will make the Valley of Achor a door of hope. There she will sing as in the days of her youth, as in the day she came up out of Egypt.

Hosea 2:16 "In that day," declares the LORD, "you will call me`my husband'; you will no longer call me`my master'.

Hosea 2:17 I will remove the names of the Baals from her lips; no longer will their names be invoked.

Hosea 2:18 In that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field and the birds of the air and the creatures that move along the ground. Bow and sword and battle I will abolish from the land, so that all may lie down in safety.

Hosea 2:19 I will betroth you to me for ever; I will betroth you in righteousness and justice, in love and compassion.

Hosea 2:20 I will betroth you in faithfulness, and you will acknowledge the LORD.

Hosea 2:21 “In that day I will respond,” declares the LORD—”I will respond to the skies, and they will respond to the earth;

Hosea 2:22 and the earth will respond to the grain, the new wine and oil, and they will respond to Jezreel.

Hosea 2:23 I will plant her for myself in the land; I will show my love to the one I called`Not my loved one’. I will say to those called`Not my people’,`You are my people’; and they will say,`You are my God.’“

Hosea 3:1 The LORD said to me, “Go, show your love to your wife again, though she is loved by another and is an adulteress. Love her as the LORD loves the Israelites, though they turn to other gods and love the sacred raisin cakes.”

Hosea 3:2 So I bought her for fifteen shekels of silver and about a homer and a lethek of barley.

Hosea 3:3 Then I told her, “You are to live with me for many days; you must not be a prostitute or be intimate with any man, and I will live with you.”

Hosea 3:4 For the Israelites will live for many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred stones, without ephod or idol.

Hosea 3:5 Afterwards the Israelites will return and seek the LORD their God and David their king. They will come trembling to the LORD and to his blessings in the last days.

Hosea 4:1 Hear the word of the LORD, you Israelites, because the LORD has a charge to bring against you who live in the land: “There is no faithfulness, no love, no acknowledgment of God in the land.

Hosea 4:2 There is only cursing, lying and murder, stealing and adultery; they break all bounds, and bloodshed follows bloodshed.

Hosea 4:3 Because of this the land mourns, and all who live in it waste away; the beasts of the field and the birds of the air and the fish of the sea are dying.

Hosea 4:4 “But let no man bring a charge, let no man accuse another, for your people are like those who bring charges against a priest.

Hosea 4:5 You stumble day and night, and the prophets stumble with you. So I will destroy your mother—

Hosea 4:6 my people are destroyed from lack of knowledge. “Because you have rejected knowledge, I also reject you as my priests; because you have ignored the law of your God, I also will ignore your children.

Hosea 4:7 The more the priests increased, the more they sinned against me; they exchanged their Glory for something disgraceful.

Hosea 4:8 They feed on the sins of my people and relish their wickedness.

Hosea 4:9 And it will be: Like people, like priests. I will punish both of them for their ways and repay them for their deeds.

Hosea 4:10 “They will eat but not have enough; they will engage in prostitution but not increase, because they have deserted the LORD to give themselves

Hosea 4:11 to prostitution, to old wine and new, which take away the understanding

Hosea 4:12 of my people. They consult a wooden idol and are answered by a stick of wood. A spirit of prostitution leads them astray; they are unfaithful to their God.

Hosea 4:13 They sacrifice on the mountaintops and burn offerings on the hills, under oak, poplar and terebinth, where the shade is pleasant. Therefore your daughters turn to prostitution and your daughters-in-law to adultery.

Hosea 4:14 “I will not punish your daughters when they turn to prostitution, nor your daughters-in-law when they commit adultery, because the men themselves consort with harlots and sacrifice with shrine-prostitutes—a people without understanding will come to ruin!

Hosea 4:15 “Though you commit adultery, O Israel, let not Judah become guilty. “Do not go to Gilgal; do not go up to Beth Aven. And do not swear,`As surely as the LORD lives!’

Hosea 4:16 The Israelites are stubborn, like a stubborn heifer. How then can the LORD pasture them like lambs in a meadow?

Hosea 4:17 Ephraim is joined to idols; leave him alone!

Hosea 4:18 Even when their drinks are gone, they continue their prostitution; their rulers dearly love shameful ways.

Hosea 4:19 A whirlwind will sweep them away, and their sacrifices will bring them shame.

Hosea 5:1 “Hear this, you priests! Pay attention, you Israelites! Listen, O royal house! This judgment is against you: You have been a snare at Mizpah, a net spread out on Tabor.

Hosea 5:2 The rebels are deep in slaughter. I will discipline all of them.

Hosea 5:3 I know all about Ephraim; Israel is not hidden from me. Ephraim, you have now turned to prostitution; Israel is corrupt.

Hosea 5:4 “Their deeds do not permit them to return to their God. A spirit of prostitution is in their heart; they do not acknowledge the LORD.

Hosea 5:5 Israel’s arrogance testifies against them; the Israelites, even Ephraim, stumble in their sin; Judah also stumbles with them.

Hosea 5:6 When they go with their flocks and herds to seek the LORD, they will not find him; he has withdrawn himself from them.

Hosea 5:7 They are unfaithful to the LORD; they give birth to illegitimate children. Now their New Moon festivals will devour them and their fields.

Hosea 5:8 “Sound the trumpet in Gibeah, the horn in Ramah. Raise the battle cry in Beth Aven; lead on, O Benjamin.

Hosea 5:9 Ephraim will be laid waste on the day of reckoning. Among the tribes of Israel I proclaim what is certain.

Hosea 5:10 Judah’s leaders are like those who move boundary stones. I will pour out my wrath on them like a flood of water.

Hosea 5:11 Ephraim is oppressed, trampled in judgment, intent on pursuing idols.

Hosea 5:12 I am like a moth to Ephraim, like rot to the people of Judah.

Hosea 5:13 “When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah his sores, then Ephraim turned to Assyria, and sent to the great king for help. But he is not able to cure you, not able to heal your sores.

Hosea 5:14 For I will be like a lion to Ephraim, like a great lion to Judah. I will tear them to pieces and go away; I will carry them off, with no-one to rescue them.

Hosea 5:15 Then I will go back to my place until they admit their guilt. And they will seek my face; in their misery they will earnestly seek me.”

Hosea 6:1 “Come, let us return to the LORD. He has torn us to pieces but he will heal us; he has injured us but he will bind up our wounds.

Hosea 6:2 After two days he will revive us; on the third day he will restore us, that we may live in his presence.

Hosea 6:3 Let us acknowledge the LORD; let us press on to acknowledge him. As surely as the sun rises, he will appear; he will come to us like the winter rains, like the spring rains that water the earth.”

Hosea 6:4 “What can I do with you, Ephraim? What can I do with you, Judah? Your love is like the morning mist, like the early dew that disappears.

Hosea 6:5 Therefore I cut you in pieces with my prophets, I killed you with the words of my mouth; my judgments flashed like lightning upon you.

Hosea 6:6 For I desire mercy, not sacrifice, and acknowledgment of God rather than burnt offerings.

Hosea 6:7 Like Adam, they have broken the covenant—they were unfaithful to me there.

Hosea 6:8 Gilead is a city of wicked men, stained with footprints of blood.

Hosea 6:9 As marauders lie in ambush for a man, so do bands of priests; they murder on the road to Shechem, committing shameful crimes.

Hosea 6:10 I have seen a horrible thing in the house of Israel. There Ephraim is given to prostitution and Israel is defiled.

Hosea 6:11 “Also for you, Judah, a harvest is appointed. “Whenever I would restore the fortunes of my people,

Hosea 7:1 whenever I would heal Israel, the sins of Ephraim are exposed and the crimes of Samaria revealed. They practise deceit, thieves break into houses, bandits rob in the streets;

Hosea 7:2 but they do not realise that I remember all their evil deeds. Their sins engulf them; they are always before me.

Hosea 7:3 “They delight the king with their wickedness, the princes with their lies.

Hosea 7:4 They are all adulterers, burning like an oven whose fire the baker need not stir from the kneading of the dough till it rises.

Hosea 7:5 On the day of the festival of our king the princes become inflamed with wine, and he joins hands with the mockers.

Hosea 7:6 Their hearts are like an oven; they approach him with intrigue. Their passion smoulders all night; in the morning it blazes like a flaming fire.

Hosea 7:7 All of them are hot as an oven; they devour their rulers. All their kings fall, and none of them calls on me.

Hosea 7:8 “Ephraim mixes with the nations; Ephraim is a flat cake not turned over.

Hosea 7:9 Foreigners sap his strength, but he does not realise it. His hair is sprinkled with grey, but he does not notice.

Hosea 7:10 Israel’s arrogance testifies against him, but despite all this he does not return to the LORD his God or search for him.

Hosea 7:11 “Ephraim is like a dove, easily deceived and senseless—now calling to Egypt, now turning to Assyria.

Hosea 7:12 When they go, I will throw my net over them; I will pull them down like birds of the air. When I hear them flocking together, I will catch them.

Hosea 7:13 Woe to them, because they have strayed from me! Destruction to them, because they have rebelled against me! I long to redeem them but they speak lies against me.

Hosea 7:14 They do not cry out to me from their hearts but wail upon their beds. They gather together for grain and new wine but turn away from me.

Hosea 7:15 I trained them and strengthened them, but they plot evil against me.

Hosea 7:16 They do not turn to the Most High; they are like a faulty bow. Their leaders will fall by the sword because of their insolent words. For this they will be ridiculed in the land of Egypt.

Hosea 8:1 “Put the trumpet to your lips! An eagle is over the house of the LORD because the people have broken my covenant and rebelled against my law.

Hosea 8:2 Israel cries out to me,`O our God, we acknowledge you!’

Hosea 8:3 But Israel has rejected what is good; an enemy will pursue him.

Hosea 8:4 They set up kings without my consent; they choose princes without my approval. With their silver and gold they make idols for themselves to their own destruction.

Hosea 8:5 Throw out your calf-idol, O Samaria! My anger burns against them. How long will they be incapable of purity?

Hosea 8:6 They are from Israel! This calf—a craftsman has made it; it is not God. It will be broken in pieces, that calf of Samaria.

Hosea 8:7 “They sow the wind and reap the whirlwind. The stalk has no head; it will produce no flour. Were it to yield grain, foreigners would swallow it up.

Hosea 8:8 Israel is swallowed up; now she is among the nations like a worthless thing.

Hosea 8:9 For they have gone up to Assyria like a wild donkey wandering alone. Ephraim has sold herself to lovers.

Hosea 8:10 Although they have sold themselves among the nations, I will now gather them together. They will begin to waste away under the oppression of the mighty king.

Hosea 8:11 “Though Ephraim built many altars for sin offerings, these have become altars for sinning.

Hosea 8:12 I wrote for them the many things of my law, but they regarded them as something alien.

Hosea 8:13 They offer sacrifices given to me and they eat the meat, but the LORD is not pleased with them. Now he will remember their wickedness and punish their sins: They will return to Egypt.

Hosea 8:14 Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces; Judah has fortified many towns. But I will send fire upon their cities that will consume their fortresses.”

Hosea 9:1 Do not rejoice, O Israel; do not be jubilant like the other nations. For you have been unfaithful to your God; you love the wages of a prostitute at every threshing-floor.

Hosea 9:2 Threshing-floors and winepresses will not feed the people; the new wine will fail them.

Hosea 9:3 They will not remain in the LORD’s land; Ephraim will return to Egypt and eat unclean food in Assyria.

Hosea 9:4 They will not pour out wine offerings to the LORD, nor will their sacrifices please him. Such sacrifices will be to them like the bread of mourners; all who eat them will be unclean. This food will be for themselves; it will not come into the temple of the LORD.

Hosea 9:5 What will you do on the day of your appointed feasts, on the festival days of the LORD?

Hosea 9:6 Even if they escape from destruction, Egypt will gather them, and Memphis will bury them. Their treasures of silver will be taken over by briers, and thorns will overrun their tents.

Hosea 9:7 The days of punishment are coming, the days of reckoning are at hand. Let Israel know this. Because your sins are so many and your hostility so great, the prophet is considered a fool, the inspired man a maniac.

Hosea 9:8 The prophet, along with my God, is the watchman over Ephraim, yet snares await him on all his paths, and hostility in the house of his God.

Hosea 9:9 They have sunk deep into corruption, as in the days of Gibeah. God will remember their wickedness and punish them for their sins.

Hosea 9:10 “When I found Israel, it was like finding grapes in the desert; when I saw your fathers, it was like seeing the early fruit on the fig-tree. But when they came to Baal Peor, they consecrated themselves to that shameful idol and became as vile as the thing they loved.

Hosea 9:11 Ephraim’s glory will fly away like a bird—no birth, no pregnancy, no conception.

Hosea 9:12 Even if they bring up children, I will bereave them of every one. Woe to them when I turn away from them!

Hosea 9:13 I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place. But Ephraim will bring out their children to the slayer.”

Hosea 9:14 Give them, O LORD—what will you give them? Give them wombs that miscarry and breasts that are dry.

Hosea 9:15 “Because of all their wickedness in Gilgal, I hated them there. Because of their sinful deeds, I will drive them out of my house. I will no longer love them; all their leaders are rebellious.

Hosea 9:16 Ephraim is blighted, their root is withered, they yield no fruit. Even if they bear children, I will slay their cherished offspring.”

Hosea 9:17 My God will reject them because they have not obeyed him; they will be wanderers among the nations.

Hosea 10:1 Israel was a spreading vine; he brought forth fruit for himself. As his fruit increased, he built more altars; as his land prospered, he adorned his sacred stones.

Hosea 10:2 Their heart is deceitful, and now they must bear their guilt. The LORD will demolish their altars and destroy their sacred stones.

Hosea 10:3 Then they will say, “We have no king because we did not revere the LORD. But even if we had a king, what could he do for us?”

Hosea 10:4 They make many promises, take false oaths and make agreements; therefore lawsuits spring up like poisonous weeds in a ploughed field.

Hosea 10:5 The people who live in Samaria fear for the calf-idol of Beth Aven. Its people will mourn over it, and so will its idolatrous priests, those who had rejoiced over its splendour, because it is taken from them into exile.

Hosea 10:6 It will be carried to Assyria as tribute for the great king. Ephraim will be disgraced; Israel will be ashamed of its wooden idols.

Hosea 10:7 Samaria and its king will float away like a twig on the surface of the waters.

Hosea 10:8 The high places of wickedness will be destroyed— it is the sin of Israel. Thorns and thistles will grow up and cover their altars. Then they will say to the mountains, “Cover us!” and to the hills, “Fall on us!”

Hosea 10:9 “Since the days of Gibeah, you have sinned, O Israel, and there you have remained. Did not war overtake the evildoers in Gibeah?

Hosea 10:10 When I please, I will punish them; nations will be gathered against them to put them in bonds for their double sin.

Hosea 10:11 Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh; so I will put a yoke on her fair neck. I will drive Ephraim, Judah must plough, and Jacob must break up the ground.

Hosea 10:12 Sow for yourselves righteousness, reap the fruit of unfailing love, and break up your unploughed ground; for it is time to seek the LORD, until he comes and showers righteousness on you.

Hosea 10:13 But you have planted wickedness, you have reaped evil, you have eaten the fruit of deception. Because you have depended on your own strength and on your many warriors,

Hosea 10:14 the roar of battle will rise against your people, so that all your fortresses will be devastated—as Shalman devastated Beth Arbel on the day of battle, when mothers were dashed to the ground with their children.

Hosea 10:15 Thus will it happen to you, O Bethel, because your wickedness is great. When that day dawns, the king of Israel will be completely destroyed.

Hosea 11:1 “When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son.

Hosea 11:2 But the more I called Israel, the further they went from me. They sacrificed to the Baals and they burned incense to images.

Hosea 11:3 It was I who taught Ephraim to walk, taking them by the arms; but they did not realise it was I who healed them.

Hosea 11:4 I led them with cords of human kindness, with ties of love; I lifted the yoke from their neck and bent down to feed them.

Hosea 11:5 “Will they not return to Egypt and will not Assyria rule over them because they refuse to repent?

Hosea 11:6 Swords will flash in their cities, will destroy the bars of their gates and put an end to their plans.

Hosea 11:7 My people are determined to turn from me. Even if they call to the Most High, he will by no means exalt them.

Hosea 11:8 “How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, Israel? How can I treat you like Admah? How can I make you like Zeboiim? My heart is changed within me; all my compassion is aroused.

Hosea 11:9 I will not carry out my fierce anger, nor will I turn and devastate Ephraim. For I am God, and not man—the Holy One among you. I will not come in wrath.

Hosea 11:10 They will follow the LORD; he will roar like a lion. When he roars, his children will come trembling from the west.

Hosea 11:11 They will come trembling like birds from Egypt, like doves from Assyria. I will settle them in their homes,” declares the LORD.

Hosea 11:12 Ephraim has surrounded me with lies, the house of Israel with deceit. And Judah is unruly against God, even against the faithful Holy One.

Hosea 12:1 Ephraim feeds on the wind; he pursues the east wind all day and multiplies lies and violence. He makes a treaty with Assyria and sends olive oil to Egypt.

Hosea 12:2 The LORD has a charge to bring against Judah; he will punish Jacob according to his ways and repay him according to his deeds.

Hosea 12:3 In the womb he grasped his brother’s heel; as a man he struggled with God.

Hosea 12:4 He struggled with the angel and overcame him; he wept and begged for his favour. He found him at Bethel and talked with him there—

Hosea 12:5 the LORD God Almighty, the LORD is his name of renown!

Hosea 12:6 But you must return to your God; maintain love and justice, and wait for your God always.

Hosea 12:7 The merchant uses dishonest scales; he loves to defraud.

Hosea 12:8 Ephraim boasts, “I am very rich; I have become wealthy. With all my wealth they will not find in me any iniquity or sin.”

Hosea 12:9 “I am the LORD your God, [who brought you] out of Egypt; I will make you live in tents again, as in the days of your appointed feasts.

Hosea 12:10 I spoke to the prophets, gave them many visions and told parables through them.”

Hosea 12:11 Is Gilead wicked? Its people are worthless! Do they sacrifice bulls in Gilgal? Their altars will be like piles of stones on a ploughed field.

Hosea 12:12 Jacob fled to the country of Aram; Israel served to get a wife, and to pay for her he tended sheep.

Hosea 12:13 The LORD used a prophet to bring Israel up from Egypt, by a prophet he cared for him.

Hosea 12:14 But Ephraim has bitterly provoked him to anger; his Lord will leave upon him the guilt of his bloodshed and will repay him for his contempt.

Hosea 13:1 When Ephraim spoke, men trembled; he was exalted in Israel. But he became guilty of Baal worship and died.

Hosea 13:2 Now they sin more and more; they make idols for themselves from their silver, cleverly fashioned images, all of them the work of craftsmen. It is said of these people, “They offer human sacrifice and kiss the calf-idols.”

Hosea 13:3 Therefore they will be like the morning mist, like the early dew that disappears, like chaff swirling from a threshing-floor, like smoke escaping through a window.

Hosea 13:4 “But I am the LORD your God, [who brought you] out of Egypt. You shall acknowledge no God but me, no Saviour except me.

Hosea 13:5 I cared for you in the desert, in the land of burning heat.

Hosea 13:6 When I fed them, they were satisfied; when they were satisfied, they became proud; then they forgot me.

Hosea 13:7 So I will come upon them like a lion, like a leopard I will lurk by the path.

Hosea 13:8 Like a bear robbed of her cubs, I will attack them and rip them open. Like a lion I will devour them; a wild animal will tear them apart.

Hosea 13:9 “You are destroyed, O Israel, because you are against me, against your helper.

Hosea 13:10 Where is your king, that he may save you? Where are your rulers in all your towns, of whom you said,`Give me a king and princes’?

Hosea 13:11 So in my anger I gave you a king, and in my wrath I took him away.

Hosea 13:12 The guilt of Ephraim is stored up, his sins are kept on record.

Hosea 13:13 Pains as of a woman in childbirth come to him, but he is a child without wisdom; when the time arrives, he does not come to the opening of the womb.

Hosea 13:14 “I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death. Where, O death, are your plagues? Where, O grave, is your destruction? “I will have no compassion,

Hosea 13:15 even though he thrives among his brothers. An east wind from the LORD will come, blowing in from the desert; his spring will fail and his well dry up. His storehouse will be plundered of all its treasures.

Hosea 13:16 The people of Samaria must bear their guilt, because they have rebelled against their God. They will fall by the sword; their little ones will be dashed to the ground, their pregnant women ripped open.”

Hosea 14:1 Return, O Israel, to the LORD your God. Your sins have been your downfall!

Hosea 14:2 Take words with you and return to the LORD. Say to him: “Forgive all our sins and receive us graciously, that we may offer the fruit of our lips.

Hosea 14:3 Assyria cannot save us; we will not mount war-horses. We will never again say`Our gods’ to what our own hands have made, for in you the fatherless find compassion.”

Hosea 14:4 “I will heal their waywardness and love them freely, for my anger has turned away from them.

Hosea 14:5 I will be like the dew to Israel; he will blossom like a lily. Like a cedar of Lebanon he will send down his roots;

Hosea 14:6 his young shoots will grow. His splendour will be like an olive tree, his fragrance like a cedar of Lebanon.

Hosea 14:7 Men will dwell again in his shade. He will flourish like the corn. He will blossom like a vine, and his fame will be like the wine from Lebanon.

Hosea 14:8 O Ephraim, what more have I to do with idols? I will answer him and care for him. I am like a green pine tree; your fruitfulness comes from me.”

Hosea 14:9 Who is wise? He will realise these things. Who is discerning? He will understand them. The ways of the LORD are right; the righteous walk in them, but the rebellious stumble in them.

Joel

1:1 The word of the LORD that came to Joel son of Pethuel.

Joel 1:2 Hear this, you elders; listen, all who live in the land. Has anything like this ever happened in your days or in the days of your forefathers?

Joel 1:3 Tell it to your children, and let your children tell it to their children, and their children to the next generation.

Joel 1:4 What the locust swarm has left the great locusts have eaten; what the great locusts have left the young locusts have eaten; what the young locusts have left other locusts have eaten.

Joel 1:5 Wake up, you drunkards, and weep! Wail, all you drinkers of wine; wail because of the new wine, for it has been snatched from your lips.

Joel 1:6 A nation has invaded my land, powerful and without number; it has the teeth of a lion, the fangs of a lioness.

Joel 1:7 It has laid waste my vines and ruined my fig-trees. It has stripped off their bark and thrown it away, leaving their branches white.

Joel 1:8 Mourn like a virgin in sackcloth grieving for the husband of her youth.

Joel 1:9 Grain offerings and drink offerings are cut off from the house of the LORD. The priests are in mourning, those who minister before the LORD.

Joel 1:10 The fields are ruined, the ground is dried up; the grain is destroyed, the new wine is dried up, the oil fails.

Joel 1:11 Despair, you farmers, wail, you vine growers; grieve for the wheat and the barley, because the harvest of the field is destroyed.

Joel 1:12 The vine is dried up and the fig-tree is withered; the pomegranate, the palm and the apple tree—all the trees of the field—are dried up. Surely the joy of mankind is withered away.

Joel 1:13 Put on sackcloth, O priests, and mourn; wail, you who minister before the altar. Come, spend the night in sackcloth, you who minister before my God; for the grain offerings and drink offerings are withheld from the house of your God.

Joel 1:14 Declare a holy fast; call a sacred assembly. Summon the elders and all who live in the land to the house of the LORD your God, and cry out to the LORD.

Joel 1:15 Alas for that day! For the day of the LORD is near; it will come like destruction from the Almighty.

Joel 1:16 Has not the food been cut off before our very eyes—joy and gladness from the house of our God?

Joel 1:17 The seeds are shrivelled beneath the clods. The storehouses are in ruins, the granaries have been broken down, for the grain has dried up.

Joel 1:18 How the cattle moan! The herds mill about because they have no pasture; even the flocks of sheep are suffering.

Joel 1:19 To you, O LORD, I call, for fire has devoured the open pastures and flames have burned up all the trees of the field.

Joel 1:20 Even the wild animals pant for you; the streams of water have dried up and fire has devoured the open pastures.

Joel 2:1 Blow the trumpet in Zion; sound the alarm on my holy hill. Let all who live in the land tremble, for the day of the LORD is coming. It is close at hand—

Joel 2:2 a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness. Like dawn spreading across the mountains a large and mighty army comes, such as never was of old nor ever will be in ages to come.

Joel 2:3 Before them fire devours, behind them a flame blazes. Before them the land is like the garden of Eden, behind them, a desert waste—nothing escapes them.

Joel 2:4 They have the appearance of horses; they gallop along like cavalry.

Joel 2:5 With a noise like that of chariots they leap over the mountaintops, like a crackling fire consuming stubble, like a mighty army drawn up for battle.

Joel 2:6 At the sight of them, nations are in anguish; every face turns pale.

Joel 2:7 They charge like warriors; they scale walls like soldiers. They all march in line, not swerving from their course.

Joel 2:8 They do not jostle each other; each marches straight ahead. They plunge through defences without breaking ranks.

Joel 2:9 They rush upon the city; they run along the wall. They climb into the houses; like thieves they enter through the windows.

Joel 2:10 Before them the earth shakes, the sky trembles, the sun and moon are darkened, and the stars no longer shine.

Joel 2:11 The LORD thunders at the head of his army; his forces are beyond number, and mighty are those who obey his command. The day of the LORD is great; it is dreadful. Who can endure it?

Joel 2:12 “Even now,” declares the LORD, “return to me with all your heart, with fasting and weeping and mourning.”

Joel 2:13 Rend your heart and not your garments. Return to the LORD your God, for he is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love, and he relents from sending calamity.

Joel 2:14 Who knows? He may turn and have pity and leave behind a blessing—grain offerings and drink offerings for the LORD your God.

Joel 2:15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, declare a holy fast, call a sacred assembly.

Joel 2:16 Gather the people, consecrate the assembly; bring together the elders, gather the children, those nursing at the breast. Let the bridegroom leave his room and the bride her chamber.

Joel 2:17 Let the priests, who minister before the LORD, weep between the temple porch and the altar. Let them say, “Spare your people, O LORD. Do not make your inheritance an object of scorn, a byword among the nations. Why should they say among the peoples,`Where is their God?'“

Joel 2:18 Then the LORD will be jealous for his land and take pity on his people.

Joel 2:19 The LORD will reply to them: “I am sending you grain, new wine and oil, enough to satisfy you fully; never again will I make you an object of scorn to the nations.

Joel 2:20 “I will drive the northern army far from you, pushing it into a parched and barren land, with its front columns going into the eastern sea and those in the rear into the western sea. And its stench will go up; its smell will rise.” Surely he has done great things.

Joel 2:21 Be not afraid, O land; be glad and rejoice. Surely the LORD has done great things.

Joel 2:22 Be not afraid, O wild animals, for the open pastures are becoming green. The trees are bearing their fruit; the fig-tree and the vine yield their riches.

Joel 2:23 Be glad, O people of Zion, rejoice in the LORD your God, for he has given you the autumn rains in righteousness. He sends you abundant showers, both autumn and spring rains, as before.

Joel 2:24 The threshing-floors will be filled with grain; the vats will overflow with new wine and oil.

Joel 2:25 “I will repay you for the years the locusts have eaten— the great locust and the young locust, the other locusts and the locust swarm— my great army that I sent among you.

Joel 2:26 You will have plenty to eat, until you are full, and you will praise the name of the LORD your God, who has worked wonders for you; never again will my people be shamed.

Joel 2:27 Then you will know that I am in Israel, that I am the LORD your God, and that there is no other; never again will my people be shamed.

Joel 2:28 “And afterwards, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions.

Joel 2:29 Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days.

Joel 2:30 I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and billows of smoke.

Joel 2:31 The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD.

Joel 2:32 And everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved; for on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be deliverance, as the LORD has said, among the survivors whom the LORD calls.

Joel 3:1 “In those days and at that time, when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem,

Joel 3:2 I will gather all nations and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat. There I will enter into judgment against them concerning my inheritance, my people Israel, for they scattered my people among the nations and divided up my land.

Joel 3:3 They cast lots for my people and traded boys for prostitutes; they sold girls for wine that they might drink.

Joel 3:4 “Now what have you against me, O Tyre and Sidon and all you regions of Philistia? Are you repaying me for something I have done? If you are paying me back, I will swiftly and speedily return on your own heads what you have done.

Joel 3:5 For you took my silver and my gold and carried off my finest treasures to your temples.

Joel 3:6 You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks, that you might send them far from their homeland.

Joel 3:7 “See, I am going to rouse them out of the places to which you sold them, and I will return on your own heads what you have done.

Joel 3:8 I will sell your sons and daughters to the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans, a nation far away.” The LORD has spoken.

Joel 3:9 Proclaim this among the nations: Prepare for war! Rouse the warriors! Let all the fighting men draw near and attack.

Joel 3:10 Beat your ploughshares into swords and your pruning hooks into spears. Let the weakling say, “I am strong!”

Joel 3:11 Come quickly, all you nations from every side, and assemble there. Bring down your warriors, O LORD!

Joel 3:12 “Let the nations be roused; let them advance into the Valley of Jehoshaphat, for there I will sit to judge all the nations on every side.

Joel 3:13 Swing the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Come, trample the grapes, for the winepress is full and the vats overflow— so great is their wickedness!”

Joel 3:14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! For the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

Joel 3:15 The sun and moon will be darkened, and the stars no longer shine.

Joel 3:16 The LORD will roar from Zion and thunder from Jerusalem; the earth and the sky will tremble. But the LORD will be a refuge for his people, a stronghold for the people of Israel.

Joel 3:17 “Then you will know that I, the LORD your God, dwell in Zion, my holy hill. Jerusalem will be holy; never again will foreigners invade her.

Joel 3:18 “In that day the mountains will drip new wine, and the hills will flow with milk; all the ravines of Judah will run with water. A fountain will flow out of the LORD’s house and will water the valley of acacias.

Joel 3:19 But Egypt will be desolate, Edom a desert waste, because of violence done to the people of Judah, in whose land they shed innocent blood.

Joel 3:20 Judah will be inhabited for ever and Jerusalem through all generations.

Joel 3:21 Their bloodguilt, which I have not pardoned, I will pardon.” The LORD dwells in Zion!

Amos

1:1 The words of Amos, one of the shepherds of Tekoa—what he saw concerning Israel two years before the earthquake, when Uzziah was king of Judah and Jeroboam son of Jehoash was king of Israel.

Amos 1:2 He said: “The LORD roars from Zion and thunders from Jerusalem; the pastures of the shepherds dry up, and the top of Carmel withers.”

Amos 1:3 This is what the LORD says: “For three sins of Damascus, even for four, I will not turn back [my wrath]. Because she threshed Gilead with sledges having iron teeth, Amos 1:4 I will send fire upon the house of Hazael that will consume the fortresses of Ben-Hadad.

Amos 1:5 I will break down the gate of Damascus; I will destroy the king who is in the Valley of Aven and the one who holds the sceptre in Beth Eden. The people of Aram will go into exile to Kir," says the LORD.

Amos 1:6 This is what the LORD says: "For three sins of Gaza, even for four, I will not turn back [my wrath]. Because she took captive whole communities and sold them to Edom, Amos 1:7 I will send fire upon the walls of Gaza that will consume her fortresses.

Amos 1:8 I will destroy the king of Ashdod and the one who holds the sceptre in Ashkelon. I will turn my hand against Ekron, till the last of the Philistines is dead," says the Sovereign LORD.

Amos 1:9 This is what the LORD says: "For three sins of Tyre, even for four, I will not turn back [my wrath]. Because she sold whole communities of captives to Edom, disregarding a treaty of brotherhood, Amos 1:10 I will send fire upon the walls of Tyre that will consume her fortresses."

Amos 1:11 This is what the LORD says: "For three sins of Edom, even for four, I will not turn back [my wrath]. Because he pursued his brother with a sword, stifling all compassion, because his anger raged continually and his fury flamed unchecked, Amos 1:12 I will send fire upon Teman that will consume the fortresses of Bozrah."

Amos 1:13 This is what the LORD says: "For three sins of Ammon, even for four, I will not turn back [my wrath]. Because he ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead in order to extend his borders,

Amos 1:14 I will set fire to the walls of Rabbah that will consume her fortresses amid war cries on the day of battle, amid violent winds on a stormy day.

Amos 1:15 Her king will go into exile, he and his officials together," says the LORD.

Amos 2:1 This is what the LORD says: "For three sins of Moab, even for four, I will not turn back [my wrath]. Because he burned, as if to lime, the bones of Edom's king,

Amos 2:2 I will send fire upon Moab that will consume the fortresses of Kerioth. Moab will go down in great tumult amid war cries and the blast of the trumpet.

Amos 2:3 I will destroy her ruler and kill all her officials with him," says the LORD.

Amos 2:4 This is what the LORD says: "For three sins of Judah, even for four, I will not turn back [my wrath]. Because they have rejected the law of the LORD and have not kept his decrees, because they have been led astray by false gods, the gods their ancestors followed, Amos 2:5 I will send fire upon Judah that will consume the fortresses of Jerusalem.”

Amos 2:6 This is what the LORD says: “For three sins of Israel, even for four, I will not turn back [my wrath]. They sell the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals.

Amos 2:7 They trample on the heads of the poor as upon the dust of the ground and deny justice to the oppressed. Father and son use the same girl and so profane my holy name.

Amos 2:8 They lie down beside every altar on garments taken in pledge. In the house of their god they drink wine taken as fines.

Amos 2:9 “I destroyed the Amorite before them, though he was tall as the cedars and strong as the oaks. I destroyed his fruit above and his roots below.

Amos 2:10 “I brought you up out of Egypt, and I led you for forty years in the desert to give you the land of the Amorites.

Amos 2:11 I also raised up prophets from among your sons and Nazirites from among your young men. Is this not true, people of Israel?” declares the LORD.

Amos 2:12 “But you made the Nazirites drink wine and commanded the prophets not to prophesy.

Amos 2:13 “Now then, I will crush you as a cart crushes when loaded with grain.

Amos 2:14 The swift will not escape, the strong will not muster their strength, and the warrior will not save his life.

Amos 2:15 The archer will not stand his ground, the fleet-footed soldier will not get away, and the horseman will not save his life.

Amos 2:16 Even the bravest warriors will flee naked on that day,” declares the LORD.

Amos 3:1 Hear this word the LORD has spoken against you, O people of Israel—against the whole family I brought up out of Egypt:

Amos 3:2 “You only have I chosen of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you for all your sins.”

Amos 3:3 Do two walk together unless they have agreed to do so?

Amos 3:4 Does a lion roar in the thicket when he has no prey? Does he growl in his den when he has caught nothing?

Amos 3:5 Does a bird fall into a trap on the ground where no snare has been set? Does a trap spring up from the earth when there is nothing to catch?

Amos 3:6 When a trumpet sounds in a city, do not the people tremble? When disaster comes to a city, has not the LORD caused it?

Amos 3:7 Surely the Sovereign LORD does nothing without revealing his plan to his servants the prophets.

Amos 3:8 The lion has roared—who will not fear? The Sovereign LORD has spoken—who can but prophesy?

Amos 3:9 Proclaim to the fortresses of Ashdod and to the fortresses of Egypt: “Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria; see the great unrest within her and the oppression among her people.”

Amos 3:10 “They do not know how to do right,” declares the LORD, “who hoard plunder and loot in their fortresses.”

Amos 3:11 Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: “An enemy will overrun the land; he will pull down your strongholds and plunder your fortresses.”

Amos 3:12 This is what the LORD says: “As a shepherd saves from the lion’s mouth only two leg bones or a piece of an ear, so will the Israelites be saved, those who sit in Samaria on the edge of their beds and in Damascus on their couches.”

Amos 3:13 “Hear this and testify against the house of Jacob,” declares the Lord, the LORD God Almighty.

Amos 3:14 “On the day I punish Israel for her sins, I will destroy the altars of Bethel; the horns of the altar will be cut off and fall to the ground.

Amos 3:15 I will tear down the winter house along with the summer house; the houses adorned with ivory will be destroyed and the mansions will be demolished,” declares the LORD.

Amos 4:1 Hear this word, you cows of Bashan on Mount Samaria, you women who oppress the poor and crush the needy and say to your husbands, “Bring us some drinks!”

Amos 4:2 The Sovereign LORD has sworn by his holiness: “The time will surely come when you will be taken away with hooks, the last of you with fish-hooks.

Amos 4:3 You will each go straight out through breaks in the wall, and you will be cast out towards Harmon,” declares the LORD.

Amos 4:4 “Go to Bethel and sin; go to Gilgal and sin yet more. Bring your sacrifices every morning, your tithes every three years.

Amos 4:5 Burn leavened bread as a thank-offering and brag about your freewill offerings—boast about them, you Israelites, for this is what you love to do,” declares the Sovereign LORD.

Amos 4:6 “I gave you empty stomachs in every city and lack of bread in every town, yet you have not returned to me,” declares the LORD.

Amos 4:7 “I also withheld rain from you when the harvest was still three months away. I sent rain on one town, but withheld it from another. One field had rain; another had none and dried up.

Amos 4:8 People staggered from town to town for water but did not get enough to drink, yet you have not returned to me," declares the LORD.

Amos 4:9 "Many times I struck your gardens and vineyards, I struck them with blight and mildew. Locusts devoured your fig and olive trees, yet you have not returned to me," declares the LORD.

Amos 4:10 "I sent plagues among you as I did to Egypt. I killed your young men with the sword, along with your captured horses. I filled your nostrils with the stench of your camps, yet you have not returned to me," declares the LORD.

Amos 4:11 "I overthrew some of you as I overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. You were like a burning stick snatched from the fire, yet you have not returned to me," declares the LORD.

Amos 4:12 "Therefore this is what I will do to you, Israel, and because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, O Israel."

Amos 4:13 He who forms the mountains, creates the wind, and reveals his thoughts to man, he who turns dawn to darkness, and treads the high places of the earth—the LORD God Almighty is his name.

Amos 5:1 Hear this word, O house of Israel, this lament I take up concerning you:

Amos 5:2 "Fallen is Virgin Israel, never to rise again, deserted in her own land, with no-one to lift her up."

Amos 5:3 This is what the Sovereign LORD says: "The city that marches out a thousand strong for Israel will have only a hundred left; the town that marches out a hundred strong will have only ten left."

Amos 5:4 This is what the LORD says to the house of Israel: "Seek me and live;

Amos 5:5 do not seek Bethel, do not go to Gilgal, do not journey to Beersheba. For Gilgal will surely go into exile, and Bethel will be reduced to nothing."

Amos 5:6 Seek the LORD and live, or he will sweep through the house of Joseph like a fire; it will devour, and Bethel will have no-one to quench it.

Amos 5:7 You who turn justice into bitterness and cast righteousness to the ground

Amos 5:8 (he who made the Pleiades and Orion, who turns blackness into dawn and darkens day into night, who calls for the waters of the sea and pours them out over the face of the land—the LORD is his name—

Amos 5:9 he flashes destruction on the stronghold and brings the fortified city to ruin), Amos 5:10 you hate the one who reproves in court and despise him who tells the truth.

Amos 5:11 You trample on the poor and force him to give you grain. Therefore, though you have built stone mansions, you will not live in them; though you have planted lush vineyards, you will not drink their wine.

Amos 5:12 For I know how many are your offences and how great your sins. You oppress the righteous and take bribes and you deprive the poor of justice in the courts.

Amos 5:13 Therefore the prudent man keeps quiet in such times, for the times are evil.

Amos 5:14 Seek good, not evil, that you may live. Then the LORD God Almighty will be with you, just as you say he is.

Amos 5:15 Hate evil, love good; maintain justice in the courts. Perhaps the LORD God Almighty will have mercy on the remnant of Joseph.

Amos 5:16 Therefore this is what the Lord, the LORD God Almighty, says: “There will be wailing in all the streets and cries of anguish in every public square. The farmers will be summoned to weep and the mourners to wail.

Amos 5:17 There will be wailing in all the vineyards, for I will pass through your midst,” says the LORD.

Amos 5:18 Woe to you who long for the day of the LORD! Why do you long for the day of the LORD? That day will be darkness, not light.

Amos 5:19 It will be as though a man fled from a lion only to meet a bear, as though he entered his house and rested his hand on the wall only to have a snake bite him.

Amos 5:20 Will not the day of the LORD be darkness, not light— pitch-dark, without a ray of brightness?

Amos 5:21 “I hate, I despise your religious feasts; I cannot stand your assemblies.

Amos 5:22 Even though you bring me burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them. Though you bring choice fellowship offerings, I will have no regard for them.

Amos 5:23 Away with the noise of your songs! I will not listen to the music of your harps.

Amos 5:24 But let justice roll on like a river, righteousness like a never-failing stream!

Amos 5:25 “Did you bring me sacrifices and offerings for forty years in the desert, O house of Israel?

Amos 5:26 You have lifted up the shrine of your king, the pedestal of your idols, the star of your god— which you made for yourselves.

Amos 5:27 Therefore I will send you into exile beyond Damascus," says the LORD, whose name is God Almighty.

Amos 6:1 Woe to you who are complacent in Zion, and to you who feel secure on Mount Samaria, you notable men of the foremost nation, to whom the people of Israel come!

Amos 6:2 Go to Calneh and look at it; go from there to great Hamath, and then go down to Gath in Philistia. Are they better off than your two kingdoms? Is their land larger than yours?

Amos 6:3 You put off the evil day and bring near a reign of terror.

Amos 6:4 You lie on beds inlaid with ivory and lounge on your couches. You dine on choice lambs and fattened calves.

Amos 6:5 You strum away on your harps like David and improvise on musical instruments.

Amos 6:6 You drink wine by the bowlful and use the finest lotions, but you do not grieve over the ruin of Joseph.

Amos 6:7 Therefore you will be among the first to go into exile; your feasting and lounging will end.

Amos 6:8 The Sovereign LORD has sworn by himself—the LORD God Almighty declares: "I abhor the pride of Jacob and detest his fortresses; I will deliver up the city and everything in it."

Amos 6:9 If ten men are left in one house, they too will die.

Amos 6:10 And if a relative who is to burn the bodies comes to carry them out of the house and asks anyone still hiding there, "Is anyone with you?" and he says, "No," then he will say, "Hush! We must not mention the name of the LORD."

Amos 6:11 For the LORD has given the command, and he will smash the great house into pieces and the small house into bits.

Amos 6:12 Do horses run on the rocky crags? Does one plough there with oxen? But you have turned justice into poison and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness—

Amos 6:13 you who rejoice in the conquest of Lo Debar and say, "Did we not take Karnaim by our own strength?"

Amos 6:14 For the LORD God Almighty declares, "I will stir up a nation against you, O house of Israel, that will oppress you all the way from Lebo Hamath to the valley of the Arabah."

Amos 7:1 This is what the Sovereign LORD showed me: He was preparing swarms of locusts after the king's share had been harvested and just as the second crop was coming up.

Amos 7:2 When they had stripped the land clean, I cried out, "Sovereign LORD, forgive! How can Jacob survive? He is so small!"

Amos 7:3 So the LORD relented. "This will not happen," the LORD said.

Amos 7:4 This is what the Sovereign LORD showed me: The Sovereign LORD was calling for judgment by fire; it dried up the great deep and devoured the land.

Amos 7:5 Then I cried out, “Sovereign LORD, I beg you, stop! How can Jacob survive? He is so small!”

Amos 7:6 So the LORD relented. “This will not happen either,” the Sovereign LORD said.

Amos 7:7 This is what he showed me: the Lord was standing by a wall that had been built true to plumb, with a plumb-line in his hand.

Amos 7:8 And the LORD asked me, “What do you see, Amos?” “A plumb-line,” I replied. Then the Lord said, “Look, I am setting a plumb-line among my people Israel; I will spare them no longer.

Amos 7:9 “The high places of Isaac will be destroyed and the sanctuaries of Israel will be ruined; with my sword I will rise against the house of Jeroboam.”

Amos 7:10 Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent a message to Jeroboam king of Israel: “Amos is raising a conspiracy against you in the very heart of Israel. The land cannot bear all his words.

Amos 7:11 For this is what Amos is saying: “`Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will surely go into exile, away from their native land.’“

Amos 7:12 Then Amaziah said to Amos, “Get out, you seer! Go back to the land of Judah. Earn your bread there and do your prophesying there.

Amos 7:13 Don’t prophesy any more at Bethel, because this is the king’s sanctuary and the temple of the kingdom.”

Amos 7:14 Amos answered Amaziah, “I was neither a prophet nor a prophet’s son, but I was a shepherd, and I also took care of sycamore-fig trees.

Amos 7:15 But the LORD took me from tending the flock and said to me,`Go, prophesy to my people Israel.’

Amos 7:16 Now then, hear the word of the LORD. You say, “`Do not prophesy against Israel, and stop preaching against the house of Isaac.’

Amos 7:17 “Therefore this is what the LORD says: “`Your wife will become a prostitute in the city, and your sons and daughters will fall by the sword. Your land will be measured and divided up, and you yourself will die in a pagan country. And Israel will certainly go into exile, away from their native land.’“

Amos 8:1 This is what the Sovereign LORD showed me: a basket of ripe fruit.

Amos 8:2 “What do you see, Amos?” he asked. “A basket of ripe fruit,” I answered. Then the LORD said to me, “The time is ripe for my people Israel; I will spare them no longer.

Amos 8:3 “In that day,” declares the Sovereign LORD, “the songs in the temple will turn to wailing. Many, many bodies—flung everywhere! Silence!”

Amos 8:4 Hear this, you who trample the needy and do away with the poor of the land,

Amos 8:5 saying, “When will the New Moon be over that we may sell grain, and the Sabbath be ended that we may market wheat?”—skimping the measure, boosting the price and cheating with dishonest scales,

Amos 8:6 buying the poor with silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, selling even the sweepings with the wheat.

Amos 8:7 The LORD has sworn by the Pride of Jacob: “I will never forget anything they have done.

Amos 8:8 “Will not the land tremble for this, and all who live in it mourn? The whole land will rise like the Nile; it will be stirred up and then sink like the river of Egypt.

Amos 8:9 “In that day,” declares the Sovereign LORD, “I will make the sun go down at noon and darken the earth in broad daylight.

Amos 8:10 I will turn your religious feasts into mourning and all your singing into weeping. I will make all of you wear sackcloth and shave your heads. I will make that time like mourning for an only son and the end of it like a bitter day.

Amos 8:11 “The days are coming,” declares the Sovereign LORD, “when I will send a famine through the land—not a famine of food or a thirst for water, but a famine of hearing the words of the LORD.

Amos 8:12 Men will stagger from sea to sea and wander from north to east, searching for the word of the LORD, but they will not find it.

Amos 8:13 “In that day “the lovely young women and strong young men will faint because of thirst.

Amos 8:14 They who swear by the shame of Samaria, or say,`As surely as your god lives, O Dan’, or,`As surely as the god of Beersheba lives’—they will fall, never to rise again.”

Amos 9:1 I saw the Lord standing by the altar, and he said: “Strike the tops of the pillars so that the thresholds shake. Bring them down on the heads of all the people; those who are left I will kill with the sword. Not one will get away, none will escape.

Amos 9:2 Though they dig down to the depths of the grave, from there my hand will take them. Though they climb up to the heavens, from there I will bring them down.

Amos 9:3 Though they hide themselves on the top of Carmel, there I will hunt them down and seize them. Though they hide from me at the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent to bite them.

Amos 9:4 Though they are driven into exile by their enemies, there I will command the sword to slay them. I will fix my eyes upon them for evil and not for good.”

Amos 9:5 The Lord, the LORD Almighty, he who touches the earth and it melts, and all who live in it mourn—the whole land rises like the Nile, then sinks like the river of Egypt—

Amos 9:6 he who builds his lofty palace in the heavens and sets its foundation on the earth, who calls for the waters of the sea and pours them out over the face of the land—the LORD is his name.

Amos 9:7 “Are not you Israelites the same to me as the Cushites?” declares the LORD. “Did I not bring Israel up from Egypt, the Philistines from Caphtor and the Arameans from Kir?

Amos 9:8 “Surely the eyes of the Sovereign LORD are on the sinful kingdom. I will destroy it from the face of the earth—yet I will not totally destroy the house of Jacob,” declares the LORD.

Amos 9:9 “For I will give the command, and I will shake the house of Israel among all the nations as grain is shaken in a sieve, and not a pebble will reach the ground.

Amos 9:10 All the sinners among my people will die by the sword, all those who say,`Disaster will not overtake or meet us.’

Amos 9:11 “In that day I will restore David’s fallen tent. I will repair its broken places, restore its ruins, and build it as it used to be, Amos 9:12 so that they may possess the remnant of Edom and all the nations that bear my name,” declares the LORD, who will do these things.

Amos 9:13 “The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when the reaper will be overtaken by the ploughman and the planter by the one treading grapes. New wine will drip from the mountains and flow from all the hills.

Amos 9:14 I will bring back my exiled people Israel; they will rebuild the ruined cities and live in them. They will plant vineyards and drink their wine; they will make gardens and eat their fruit.

Amos 9:15 I will plant Israel in their own land, never again to be uprooted from the land I have given them,” says the LORD your God.

Obadiah

1:1 The vision of Obadiah. This is what the Sovereign LORD says about Edom—We have heard a message from the LORD: An envoy was sent to the nations to say, “Rise, and let us go against her for battle”—

Obadiah 1:2 “See, I will make you small among the nations; you will be utterly despised.

Obadiah 1:3 The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rocks and make your home on the heights, you who say to yourself,`Who can bring me down to the ground?’

Obadiah 1:4 Though you soar like the eagle and make your nest among the stars, from there I will bring you down,” declares the LORD.

Obadiah 1:5 “If thieves came to you, if robbers in the night—Oh, what a disaster awaits you—would they not steal only as much as they wanted? If grape pickers came to you, would they not leave a few grapes?

Obadiah 1:6 But how Esau will be ransacked, his hidden treasures pillaged!

Obadiah 1:7 All your allies will force you to the border; your friends will deceive and overpower you; those who eat your bread will set a trap for you, but you will not detect it.

Obadiah 1:8 “In that day,” declares the LORD, “will I not destroy the wise men of Edom, men of understanding in the mountains of Esau?

Obadiah 1:9 Your warriors, O Teman, will be terrified, and everyone in Esau’s mountains will be cut down in the slaughter.

Obadiah 1:10 Because of the violence against your brother Jacob, you will be covered with shame; you will be destroyed for ever.

Obadiah 1:11 On the day you stood aloof while strangers carried off his wealth and foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem, you were like one of them.

Obadiah 1:12 You should not look down on your brother in the day of his misfortune, nor rejoice over the people of Judah in the day of their destruction, nor boast so much in the day of their trouble.

Obadiah 1:13 You should not march through the gates of my people in the day of their disaster, nor look down on them in their calamity in the day of their disaster, nor seize their wealth in the day of their disaster.

Obadiah 1:14 You should not wait at the crossroads to cut down their fugitives, nor hand over their survivors in the day of their trouble.

Obadiah 1:15 “The day of the LORD is near for all nations. As you have done, it will be done to you; your deeds will return upon your own head.

Obadiah 1:16 Just as you drank on my holy hill, so all the nations will drink continually; they will drink and drink and be as if they had never been.

Obadiah 1:17 But on Mount Zion will be deliverance; it will be holy, and the house of Jacob will possess its inheritance.

Obadiah 1:18 The house of Jacob will be a fire and the house of Joseph a flame; the house of Esau will be stubble, and they will set it on fire and consume it. There will be no survivors from the house of Esau." The LORD has spoken.

Obadiah 1:19 People from the Negev will occupy the mountains of Esau, and people from the foothills will possess the land of the Philistines. They will occupy the fields of Ephraim and Samaria, and Benjamin will possess Gilead.

Obadiah 1:20 This company of Israelite exiles who are in Canaan will possess [the land] as far as Zarephath; the exiles from Jerusalem who are in Sepharad will possess the towns of the Negev.

Obadiah 1:21 Deliverers will go up on Mount Zion to govern the mountains of Esau. And the kingdom will be the LORD's.

Jonah

1:1 The word of the LORD came to Jonah son of Amittai:

Jonah 1:2 "Go to the great city of Nineveh and preach against it, because its wickedness has come up before me."

Jonah 1:3 But Jonah ran away from the LORD and headed for Tarshish. He went down to Joppa, where he found a ship bound for that port. After paying the fare, he went aboard and sailed for Tarshish to flee from the LORD.

Jonah 1:4 Then the LORD sent a great wind on the sea, and such a violent storm arose that the ship threatened to break up.

Jonah 1:5 All the sailors were afraid and each cried out to his own god. And they threw the cargo into the sea to lighten the ship. But Jonah had gone below deck, where he lay down and fell into a deep sleep.

Jonah 1:6 The captain went to him and said, "How can you sleep? Get up and call on your god! Maybe he will take notice of us, and we will not perish."

Jonah 1:7 Then the sailors said to each other, "Come, let us cast lots to find out who is responsible for this calamity." They cast lots and the lot fell on Jonah.

Jonah 1:8 So they asked him, "Tell us, who is responsible for making all this trouble for us? What do you do? Where do you come from? What is your country? From what people are you?"

Jonah 1:9 He answered, "I am a Hebrew and I worship the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the land."

Jonah 1:10 This terrified them and they asked, "What have you done?" (They knew he was running away from the LORD, because he had already told them so.)

Jonah 1:11 The sea was getting rougher and rougher. So they asked him, “What should we do to you to make the sea calm down for us?”

Jonah 1:12 “Pick me up and throw me into the sea,” he replied, “and it will become calm. I know that it is my fault that this great storm has come upon you.”

Jonah 1:13 Instead, the men did their best to row back to land. But they could not, for the sea grew even wilder than before.

Jonah 1:14 Then they cried to the LORD, “O LORD, please do not let us die for taking this man’s life. Do not hold us accountable for killing an innocent man, for you, O LORD, have done as you pleased.”

Jonah 1:15 Then they took Jonah and threw him overboard, and the raging sea grew calm.

Jonah 1:16 At this the men greatly feared the LORD, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows to him.

Jonah 1:17 But the LORD provided a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was inside the fish three days and three nights.

Jonah 2:1 From inside the fish Jonah prayed to the LORD his God.

Jonah 2:2 He said: “In my distress I called to the LORD, and he answered me. From the depths of the grave I called for help, and you listened to my cry.

Jonah 2:3 You hurled me into the deep, into the very heart of the seas, and the currents swirled about me; all your waves and breakers swept over me.

Jonah 2:4 I said,`I have been banished from your sight; yet I will look again towards your holy temple.’

Jonah 2:5 The engulfing waters threatened me, the deep surrounded me; seaweed was wrapped around my head.

Jonah 2:6 To the roots of the mountains I sank down; the earth beneath barred me in for ever. But you brought my life up from the pit, O LORD my God.

Jonah 2:7 “When my life was ebbing away, I remembered you, LORD, and my prayer rose to you, to your holy temple.

Jonah 2:8 “Those who cling to worthless idols forfeit the grace that could be theirs.

Jonah 2:9 But I, with a song of thanksgiving, will sacrifice to you. What I have vowed I will make good. Salvation comes from the LORD.”

Jonah 2:10 And the LORD commanded the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

Jonah 3:1 Then the word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time:

Jonah 3:2 “Go to the great city of Nineveh and proclaim to it the message I give you.”

Jonah 3:3 Jonah obeyed the word of the LORD and went to Nineveh. Now Nineveh was a very important city—a visit required three days.

Jonah 3:4 On the first day, Jonah started into the city. He proclaimed: “Forty more days and Nineveh will be overturned.”

Jonah 3:5 The Ninevites believed God. They declared a fast, and all of them, from the greatest to the least, put on sackcloth.

Jonah 3:6 When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, took off his royal robes, covered himself with sackcloth and sat down in the dust.

Jonah 3:7 Then he issued a proclamation in Nineveh: “By the decree of the king and his nobles: Do not let any man or beast, herd or flock, taste anything; do not let them eat or drink.

Jonah 3:8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth. Let everyone call urgently on God. Let them give up their evil ways and their violence.

Jonah 3:9 Who knows? God may yet relent and with compassion turn from his fierce anger so that we will not perish.”

Jonah 3:10 When God saw what they did and how they turned from their evil ways, he had compassion and did not bring upon them the destruction he had threatened.

Jonah 4:1 But Jonah was greatly displeased and became angry.

Jonah 4:2 He prayed to the LORD, “O LORD, is this not what I said when I was still at home? That is why I was so quick to flee to Tarshish. I knew that you are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and abounding in love, a God who relents from sending calamity.

Jonah 4:3 Now, O LORD, take away my life, for it is better for me to die than to live.”

Jonah 4:4 But the LORD replied, “Have you any right to be angry?”

Jonah 4:5 Jonah went out and sat down at a place east of the city. There he made himself a shelter, sat in its shade and waited to see what would happen to the city.

Jonah 4:6 Then the LORD God provided a vine and made it grow up over Jonah to give shade for his head to ease his discomfort, and Jonah was very happy about the vine.

Jonah 4:7 But at dawn the next day God provided a worm, which chewed the vine so that it withered.

Jonah 4:8 When the sun rose, God provided a scorching east wind, and the sun blazed on Jonah’s head so that he grew faint. He wanted to die, and said, “It would be better for me to die than to live.”

Jonah 4:9 But God said to Jonah, “Do you have a right to be angry about the vine?” “I do,” he said. “I am angry enough to die.”

Jonah 4:10 But the LORD said, “You have been concerned about this vine, though you did not tend it or make it grow. It sprang up overnight and died overnight.

Jonah 4:11 But Nineveh has more than a hundred and twenty thousand people who cannot tell their right hand from their left, and many cattle as well. Should I not be concerned about that great city?”

Micah

1:1 The word of the LORD that came to Micah of Moresheth during the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah—the vision he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

Micah 1:2 Hear, O peoples, all of you, listen, O earth and all who are in it, that the Sovereign LORD may witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

Micah 1:3 Look! The LORD is coming from his dwelling-place; he comes down and treads the high places of the earth.

Micah 1:4 The mountains melt beneath him and the valleys split apart, like wax before the fire, like water rushing down a slope.

Micah 1:5 All this is because of Jacob’s transgression, because of the sins of the house of Israel. What is Jacob’s transgression? Is it not Samaria? What is Judah’s high place? Is it not Jerusalem?

Micah 1:6 “Therefore I will make Samaria a heap of rubble, a place for planting vineyards. I will pour her stones into the valley and lay bare her foundations.

Micah 1:7 All her idols will be broken to pieces; all her temple gifts will be burned with fire; I will destroy all her images. Since she gathered her gifts from the wages of prostitutes, as the wages of prostitutes they will again be used.”

Micah 1:8 Because of this I will weep and wail; I will go about barefoot and naked. I will howl like a jackal and moan like an owl.

Micah 1:9 For her wound is incurable; it has come to Judah. It has reached the very gate of my people, even to Jerusalem itself.

Micah 1:10 Tell it not in Gath; weep not at all. In Beth Ophrah roll in the dust.

Micah 1:11 Pass on in nakedness and shame, you who live in Shaphir. Those who live in Zaanan will not come out. Beth Ezel is in mourning; its protection is taken from you.

Micah 1:12 Those who live in Maroth writhe in pain, waiting for relief, because disaster has come from the LORD, even to the gate of Jerusalem.

Micah 1:13 You who live in Lachish, harness the team to the chariot. You were the beginning of sin to the Daughter of Zion, for the transgressions of Israel were found in you.

Micah 1:14 Therefore you will give parting gifts to Moresheth Gath. The town of Aczib will prove deceptive to the kings of Israel.

Micah 1:15 I will bring a conqueror against you who live in Mareshah. He who is the glory of Israel will come to Adullam.

Micah 1:16 Shave your heads in mourning for the children in whom you delight; make yourselves as bald as the vulture, for they will go from you into exile.

Micah 2:1 Woe to those who plan iniquity, to those who plot evil on their beds! At morning's light they carry it out because it is in their power to do it.

Micah 2:2 They covet fields and seize them, and houses, and take them. They defraud a man of his home, a fellow-man of his inheritance.

Micah 2:3 Therefore, the LORD says: "I am planning disaster against this people, from which you cannot save yourselves. You will no longer walk proudly, for it will be a time of calamity.

Micah 2:4 In that day men will ridicule you; they will taunt you with this mournful song:`We are utterly ruined; my people's possession is divided up. He takes it from me! He assigns our fields to traitors.'"

Micah 2:5 Therefore you will have no-one in the assembly of the LORD to divide the land by lot.

Micah 2:6 "Do not prophesy," their prophets say. "Do not prophesy about these things; disgrace will not overtake us."

Micah 2:7 Should it be said, O house of Jacob: "Is the Spirit of the LORD angry? Does he do such things?" "Do not my words do good to him whose ways are upright?

Micah 2:8 Lately my people have risen up like an enemy. You strip off the rich robe from those who pass by without a care, like men returning from battle.

Micah 2:9 You drive the women of my people from their pleasant homes. You take away my blessing from their children for ever.

Micah 2:10 Get up, go away! For this is not your resting place, because it is defiled, it is ruined, beyond all remedy.

Micah 2:11 If a liar and deceiver comes and says,`I will prophesy for you plenty of wine and beer,' he would be just the prophet for this people!

Micah 2:12 "I will surely gather all of you, O Jacob; I will surely bring together the remnant of Israel. I will bring them together like sheep in a pen, like a flock in its pasture; the place will throng with people.

Micah 2:13 One who breaks open the way will go up before them; they will break through the gate and go out. Their king will pass through before them, the LORD at their head."

Micah 3:1 Then I said, "Listen, you leaders of Jacob, you rulers of the house of Israel. Should you not know justice,

Micah 3:2 you who hate good and love evil; who tear the skin from my people and the flesh from their bones;

Micah 3:3 who eat my people's flesh, strip off their skin and break their bones in pieces; who chop them up like meat for the pan, like flesh for the pot."

Micah 3:4 Then they will cry out to the LORD, but he will not answer them. At that time he will hide his face from them because of the evil they have done.

Micah 3:5 This is what the LORD says: "As for the prophets who lead my people astray, if one feeds them, they proclaim`peace'; if he does not, they prepare to wage war against him.

Micah 3:6 Therefore night will come over you, without visions, and darkness, without divination. The sun will set for the prophets, and the day will go dark for them.

Micah 3:7 The seers will be ashamed and the diviners disgraced. They will all cover their faces because there is no answer from God."

Micah 3:8 But as for me, I am filled with power, with the Spirit of the LORD, and with justice and might, to declare to Jacob his transgression, to Israel his sin.

Micah 3:9 Hear this, you leaders of the house of Jacob, you rulers of the house of Israel, who despise justice and distort all that is right;

Micah 3:10 who build Zion with bloodshed, and Jerusalem with wickedness.

Micah 3:11 Her leaders judge for a bribe, her priests teach for a price, and her prophets tell fortunes for money. Yet they lean upon the LORD and say, "Is not the LORD among us? No disaster will come upon us."

Micah 3:12 Therefore because of you, Zion will be ploughed like a field, Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble, the temple hill a mound overgrown with thickets.

Micah 4:1 In the last days the mountain of the LORD's temple will be established as chief among the mountains; it will be raised above the hills, and peoples will stream to it.

Micah 4:2 Many nations will come and say, "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob. He will teach us his ways, so that we may walk in his paths." The law will go out from Zion, the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

Micah 4:3 He will judge between many peoples and will settle disputes for strong nations far and wide. They will beat their swords into ploughshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not take up sword against nation, nor will they train for war any more.

Micah 4:4 Every man will sit under his own vine and under his own fig-tree, and no-one will make them afraid, for the LORD Almighty has spoken.

Micah 4:5 All the nations may walk in the name of their gods; we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

Micah 4:6 "In that day," declares the LORD, "I will gather the lame; I will assemble the exiles and those I have brought to grief.

Micah 4:7 I will make the lame a remnant, those driven away a strong nation. The LORD will rule over them in Mount Zion from that day and for ever.

Micah 4:8 As for you, O watchtower of the flock, O stronghold of the Daughter of Zion, the former dominion will be restored to you; kingship will come to the Daughter of Jerusalem."

Micah 4:9 Why do you now cry aloud—have you no king? Has your counsellor perished, that pain seizes you like that of a woman in labour?

Micah 4:10 Writhe in agony, O Daughter of Zion, like a woman in labour, for now you must leave the city to camp in the open field. You will go to Babylon; there you will be rescued. There the LORD will redeem you out of the hand of your enemies.

Micah 4:11 But now many nations are gathered against you. They say, "Let her be defiled, let our eyes gloat over Zion!"

Micah 4:12 But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD; they do not understand his plan, he who gathers them like sheaves to the threshing-floor.

Micah 4:13 "Rise and thresh, O Daughter of Zion, for I will give you horns of iron; I will give you hoofs of bronze and you will break to pieces many nations." You will devote their ill-gotten gains to the LORD, their wealth to the Lord of all the earth.

Micah 5:1 Marshal your troops, O city of troops, for a siege is laid against us. They will strike Israel's ruler on the cheek with a rod.

Micah 5:2 "But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, though you are small among the clans of Judah, out of you will come for me one who will be ruler over Israel, whose origins are from of old, from ancient times."

Micah 5:3 Therefore Israel will be abandoned until the time when she who is in labour gives birth and the rest of his brothers return to join the Israelites.

Micah 5:4 He will stand and shepherd his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God. And they will live securely, for then his greatness will reach to the ends of the earth.

Micah 5:5 And he will be their peace. When the Assyrian invades our land and marches through our fortresses, we will raise against him seven shepherds, even eight leaders of men.

Micah 5:6 They will rule the land of Assyria with the sword, the land of Nimrod with drawn sword. He will deliver us from the Assyrian when he invades our land and marches into our borders.

Micah 5:7 The remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples like dew from the LORD, like showers on the grass, which do not wait for man or linger for mankind.

Micah 5:8 The remnant of Jacob will be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, like a lion among the beasts of the forest, like a young lion among flocks of sheep, which mauls and mangles as it goes, and no-one can rescue.

Micah 5:9 Your hand will be lifted up in triumph over your enemies, and all your foes will be destroyed.

Micah 5:10 "In that day," declares the LORD, "I will destroy your horses from among you and demolish your chariots.

Micah 5:11 I will destroy the cities of your land and tear down all your strongholds.

Micah 5:12 I will destroy your witchcraft and you will no longer cast spells.

Micah 5:13 I will destroy your carved images and your sacred stones from among you; you will no longer bow down to the work of your hands.

Micah 5:14 I will uproot from among you your Asherah poles and demolish your cities.

Micah 5:15 I will take vengeance in anger and wrath upon the nations that have not obeyed me."

Micah 6:1 Listen to what the LORD says: "Stand up, plead your case before the mountains; let the hills hear what you have to say.

Micah 6:2 Hear, O mountains, the LORD's accusation; listen, you everlasting foundations of the earth. For the LORD has a case against his people; he is lodging a charge against Israel.

Micah 6:3 "My people, what have I done to you? How have I burdened you? Answer me.

Micah 6:4 I brought you up out of Egypt and redeemed you from the land of slavery. I sent Moses to lead you, also Aaron and Miriam.

Micah 6:5 My people, remember what Balak king of Moab counselled and what Balaam son of Beor answered. Remember [your journey] from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteous acts of the LORD."

Micah 6:6 With what shall I come before the LORD and bow down before the exalted God? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?

Micah 6:7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousand rivers of oil? Shall I offer my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

Micah 6:8 He has showed you, O man, what is good. And what does the LORD require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.

Micah 6:9 Listen! The LORD is calling to the city—and to fear your name is wisdom—"Heed the rod and the One who appointed it.

Micah 6:10 Am I still to forget, O wicked house, your ill-gotten treasures and the short ephah, which is accursed?

Micah 6:11 Shall I acquit a man with dishonest scales, with a bag of false weights?

Micah 6:12 Her rich men are violent; her people are liars and their tongues speak deceitfully.

Micah 6:13 Therefore, I have begun to destroy you, to ruin you because of your sins.

Micah 6:14 You will eat but not be satisfied; your stomach will still be empty. You will store up but save nothing, because what you save I will give to the sword.

Micah 6:15 You will plant but not harvest; you will press olives but not use the oil on yourselves, you will crush grapes but not drink the wine.

Micah 6:16 You have observed the statutes of Omri and all the practices of Ahab's house, and you have followed their traditions. Therefore I will give you over to ruin and your people to derision; you will bear the scorn of the nations."

Micah 7:1 What misery is mine! I am like one who gathers summer fruit at the gleaning of the vineyard; there is no cluster of grapes to eat, none of the early figs that I crave.

Micah 7:2 The godly have been swept from the land; not one upright man remains. All men lie in wait to shed blood; each hunts his brother with a net.

Micah 7:3 Both hands are skilled in doing evil; the ruler demands gifts, the judge accepts bribes, the powerful dictate what they desire—they all conspire together.

Micah 7:4 The best of them is like a brier, the most upright worse than a thorn hedge. The day of your watchmen has come, the day God visits you. Now is the time of their confusion.

Micah 7:5 Do not trust a neighbour; put no confidence in a friend. Even with her who lies in your embrace be careful of your words.

Micah 7:6 For a son dishonours his father, a daughter rises up against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law—a man's enemies are the members of his own household.

Micah 7:7 But as for me, I watch in hope for the LORD, I wait for God my Saviour; my God will hear me.

Micah 7:8 Do not gloat over me, my enemy! Though I have fallen, I will rise. Though I sit in darkness, the LORD will be my light.

Micah 7:9 Because I have sinned against him, I will bear the LORD's wrath, until he pleads my case and establishes my right. He will bring me out into the light; I will see his righteousness.

Micah 7:10 Then my enemy will see it and will be covered with shame, she who said to me, "Where is the LORD your God?" My eyes will see her downfall; even now she will be trampled underfoot like mire in the streets.

Micah 7:11 The day for building your walls will come, the day for extending your boundaries.

Micah 7:12 In that day people will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, even from Egypt to the Euphrates and from sea to sea and from mountain to mountain.

Micah 7:13 The earth will become desolate because of its inhabitants, as the result of their deeds.

Micah 7:14 Shepherd your people with your staff, the flock of your inheritance, which lives by itself in a forest, in fertile pasture-lands. Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead as in days long ago.

Micah 7:15 "As in the days when you came out of Egypt, I will show them my wonders."

Micah 7:16 Nations will see and be ashamed, deprived of all their power. They will lay their hands on their mouths and their ears will become deaf.

Micah 7:17 They will lick dust like a snake, like creatures that crawl on the ground. They will come trembling out of their dens; they will turn in fear to the LORD our God and will be afraid of you.

Micah 7:18 Who is a God like you, who pardons sin and forgives the transgression of the remnant of his inheritance? You do not stay angry for ever but delight to show mercy.

Micah 7:19 You will again have compassion on us; you will tread our sins underfoot and hurl all our iniquities into the depths of the sea.

Micah 7:20 You will be true to Jacob, and show mercy to Abraham, as you pledged on oath to our fathers in days long ago.

Nahum

1:1 An oracle concerning Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

Nahum 1:2 The LORD is a jealous and avenging God; the LORD takes vengeance and is filled with wrath. The LORD takes vengeance on his foes and maintains his wrath against his enemies.

Nahum 1:3 The LORD is slow to anger and great in power; the LORD will not leave the guilty unpunished. His way is in the whirlwind and the storm, and clouds are the dust of his feet.

Nahum 1:4 He rebukes the sea and dries it up; he makes all the rivers run dry. Bashan and Carmel wither and the blossoms of Lebanon fade.

Nahum 1:5 The mountains quake before him and the hills melt away. The earth trembles at his presence, the world and all who live in it.

Nahum 1:6 Who can withstand his indignation? Who can endure his fierce anger? His wrath is poured out like fire; the rocks are shattered before him.

Nahum 1:7 The LORD is good, a refuge in times of trouble. He cares for those who trust in him,

Nahum 1:8 but with an overwhelming flood he will make an end of [Nineveh]; he will pursue his foes into darkness.

Nahum 1:9 Whatever they plot against the LORD he will bring to an end; trouble will not come a second time.

Nahum 1:10 They will be entangled among thorns and drunk from their wine; they will be consumed like dry stubble.

Nahum 1:11 From you, [O Nineveh,] has one come forth who plots evil against the LORD and counsels wickedness.

Nahum 1:12 This is what the LORD says: “Although they have allies and are numerous, they will be cut off and pass away. Although I have afflicted you, [O Judah,] I will afflict you no more.

Nahum 1:13 Now I will break their yoke from your neck and tear your shackles away.”

Nahum 1:14 The LORD has given a command concerning you, [Nineveh]: “You will have no descendants to bear your name. I will destroy the carved images and cast idols that are in the temple of your gods. I will prepare your grave, for you are vile.”

Nahum 1:15 Look, there on the mountains, the feet of one who brings good news, who proclaims peace! Celebrate your festivals, O Judah, and fulfil your vows. No more will the wicked invade you; they will be completely destroyed.

Nahum 2:1 An attacker advances against you, [Nineveh]. Guard the fortress, watch the road, brace yourselves, marshal all your strength!

Nahum 2:2 The LORD will restore the splendour of Jacob like the splendour of Israel, though destroyers have laid them waste and have ruined their vines.

Nahum 2:3 The shields of his soldiers are red; the warriors are clad in scarlet. The metal on the chariots flashes on the day they are made ready; the spears of pine are brandished.

Nahum 2:4 The chariots storm through the streets, rushing back and forth through the squares. They look like flaming torches; they dart about like lightning.

Nahum 2:5 He summons his picked troops, yet they stumble on their way. They dash to the city wall; the protective shield is put in place.

Nahum 2:6 The river gates are thrown open and the palace collapses.

Nahum 2:7 It is decreed that [the city] be exiled and carried away. Its slave girls moan like doves and beat upon their breasts.

Nahum 2:8 Nineveh is like a pool, and its water is draining away. “Stop! Stop!” they cry, but no-one turns back.

Nahum 2:9 Plunder the silver! Plunder the gold! The supply is endless, the wealth from all its treasures!

Nahum 2:10 She is pillaged, plundered, stripped! Hearts melt, knees give way, bodies tremble, every face grows pale.

Nahum 2:11 Where now is the lions’ den, the place where they fed their young, where the lion and lioness went, and the cubs, with nothing to fear?

Nahum 2:12 The lion killed enough for his cubs and strangled the prey for his mate, filling his lairs with the kill and his dens with the prey.

Nahum 2:13 “I am against you,” declares the LORD Almighty. “I will burn up your chariots in smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions. I will leave you no prey on the earth. The voices of your messengers will no longer be heard.”

Nahum 3:1 Woe to the city of blood, full of lies, full of plunder, never without victims!

Nahum 3:2 The crack of whips, the clatter of wheels, galloping horses and jolting chariots!

Nahum 3:3 Charging cavalry, flashing swords and glittering spears! Many casualties, piles of dead, bodies without number, people stumbling over the corpses—

Nahum 3:4 all because of the wanton lust of a harlot, alluring, the mistress of sorceries, who enslaved nations by her prostitution and peoples by her witchcraft.

Nahum 3:5 “I am against you,” declares the LORD Almighty. “I will lift your skirts over your face. I will show the nations your nakedness and the kingdoms your shame.

Nahum 3:6 I will pelt you with filth, I will treat you with contempt and make you a spectacle.

Nahum 3:7 All who see you will flee from you and say,`Nineveh is in ruins—who will mourn for her?’ Where can I find anyone to comfort you?”

Nahum 3:8 Are you better than Thebes, situated on the Nile, with water around her? The river was her defence, the waters her wall.

Nahum 3:9 Cush and Egypt were her boundless strength; Put and Libya were among her allies.

Nahum 3:10 Yet she was taken captive and went into exile. Her infants were dashed to pieces at the head of every street. Lots were cast for her nobles, and all her great men were put in chains.

Nahum 3:11 You too will become drunk; you will go into hiding and seek refuge from the enemy.

Nahum 3:12 All your fortresses are like fig-trees with their first ripe fruit; when they are shaken, the figs fall into the mouth of the eater.

Nahum 3:13 Look at your troops—they are all women! The gates of your land are wide open to your enemies; fire has consumed their bars.

Nahum 3:14 Draw water for the siege, strengthen your defences! Work the clay, tread the mortar, repair the brickwork!

Nahum 3:15 There the fire will devour you; the sword will cut you down and, like grasshoppers, consume you. Multiply like grasshoppers, multiply like locusts!

Nahum 3:16 You have increased the number of your merchants till they are more than the stars of the sky, but like locusts they strip the land and then fly away.

Nahum 3:17 Your guards are like locusts, your officials like swarms of locusts that settle in the walls on a cold day—but when the sun appears they fly away, and no-one knows where.

Nahum 3:18 O king of Assyria, your shepherds slumber; your nobles lie down to rest. Your people are scattered on the mountains with no-one to gather them.

Nahum 3:19 Nothing can heal your wound; your injury is fatal. Everyone who hears the news about you claps his hands at your fall, for who has not felt your endless cruelty?

Habakkuk

1:1 The oracle that Habakkuk the prophet received.

Habakkuk 1:2 How long, O LORD, must I call for help, but you do not listen? Or cry out to you, “Violence!” but you do not save?

Habakkuk 1:3 Why do you make me look at injustice? Why do you tolerate wrong? Destruction and violence are before me; there is strife, and conflict abounds.

Habakkuk 1:4 Therefore the law is paralysed, and justice never prevails. The wicked hem in the righteous, so that justice is perverted.

Habakkuk 1:5 “Look at the nations and watch—and be utterly amazed. For I am going to do something in your days that you would not believe, even if you were told.

Habakkuk 1:6 I am raising up the Babylonians, that ruthless and impetuous people, who sweep across the whole earth to seize dwelling-places not their own.

Habakkuk 1:7 They are a feared and dreaded people; they are a law to themselves and promote their own honour.

Habakkuk 1:8 Their horses are swifter than leopards, fiercer than wolves at dusk. Their cavalry gallops headlong; their horsemen come from afar. They fly like a vulture swooping to devour;

Habakkuk 1:9 they all come bent on violence. Their hordes advance like a desert wind and gather prisoners like sand.

Habakkuk 1:10 They deride kings and scoff at rulers. They laugh at all fortified cities; they build earthen ramps and capture them.

Habakkuk 1:11 Then they sweep past like the wind and go on—guilty men, whose own strength is their god.”

Habakkuk 1:12 O LORD, are you not from everlasting? My God, my Holy One, we will not die. O LORD, you have appointed them to execute judgment; O Rock, you have ordained them to punish.

Habakkuk 1:13 Your eyes are too pure to look on evil; you cannot tolerate wrong. Why then do you tolerate the treacherous? Why are you silent while the wicked swallow up those more righteous than themselves?

Habakkuk 1:14 You have made men like fish in the sea, like sea creatures that have no ruler.

Habakkuk 1:15 The wicked foe pulls all of them up with hooks, he catches them in his net, he gathers them up in his drag-net; and so he rejoices and is glad.

Habakkuk 1:16 Therefore he sacrifices to his net and burns incense to his drag-net, for by his net he lives in luxury and enjoys the choicest food.

Habakkuk 1:17 Is he to keep on emptying his net, destroying nations without mercy?

Habakkuk 2:1 I will stand at my watch and station myself on the ramparts; I will look to see what he will say to me, and what answer I am to give to this complaint.

Habakkuk 2:2 Then the LORD replied: “Write down the revelation and make it plain on tablets so that a herald may run with it.

Habakkuk 2:3 For the revelation awaits an appointed time; it speaks of the end and will not prove false. Though it linger, wait for it; it will certainly come and will not delay.

Habakkuk 2:4 “See, he is puffed up; his desires are not upright—but the righteous will live by his faith—

Habakkuk 2:5 indeed, wine betrays him; he is arrogant and never at rest. Because he is as greedy as the grave and like death is never satisfied, he gathers to himself all the nations and takes captive all the peoples.

Habakkuk 2:6 “Will not all of them taunt him with ridicule and scorn, saying, “`Woe to him who piles up stolen goods and makes himself wealthy by extortion! How long must this go on?’

Habakkuk 2:7 Will not your debtors suddenly arise? Will they not wake up and make you tremble? Then you will become their victim.

Habakkuk 2:8 Because you have plundered many nations, the peoples who are left will plunder you. For you have shed man’s blood; you have destroyed lands and cities and everyone in them.

Habakkuk 2:9 “Woe to him who builds his realm by unjust gain to set his nest on high, to escape the clutches of ruin!

Habakkuk 2:10 You have plotted the ruin of many peoples, shaming your own house and forfeiting your life.

Habakkuk 2:11 The stones of the wall will cry out, and the beams of the woodwork will echo it.

Habakkuk 2:12 “Woe to him who builds a city with bloodshed and establishes a town by crime!

Habakkuk 2:13 Has not the LORD Almighty determined that the people’s labour is only fuel for the fire, that the nations exhaust themselves for nothing?

Habakkuk 2:14 For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

Habakkuk 2:15 “Woe to him who gives drink to his neighbours, pouring it from the wineskin till they are drunk, so that he can gaze on their naked bodies.

Habakkuk 2:16 You will be filled with shame instead of glory. Now it is your turn! Drink and be exposed! The cup from the LORD’s right hand is coming round to you, and disgrace will cover your glory.

Habakkuk 2:17 The violence you have done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and your destruction of animals will terrify you. For you have shed man’s blood; you have destroyed lands and cities and everyone in them.

Habakkuk 2:18 “Of what value is an idol, since a man has carved it? Or an image that teaches lies? For he who makes it trusts in his own creation; he makes idols that cannot speak.

Habakkuk 2:19 Woe to him who says to wood,`Come to life!’ Or to lifeless stone,`Wake up!’ Can it give guidance? It is covered with gold and silver; there is no breath in it.

Habakkuk 2:20 But the LORD is in his holy temple; let all the earth be silent before him.”

Habakkuk 3:1 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet. On shigionoth.

Habakkuk 3:2 LORD, I have heard of your fame; I stand in awe of your deeds, O LORD. Renew them in our day, in our time make them known; in wrath remember mercy.

Habakkuk 3:3 God came from Teman, the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah His glory covered the heavens and his praise filled the earth.

Habakkuk 3:4 His splendour was like the sunrise; rays flashed from his hand, where his power was hidden.

Habakkuk 3:5 Plague went before him; pestilence followed his steps.

Habakkuk 3:6 He stood, and shook the earth; he looked, and made the nations tremble. The ancient mountains crumbled and the age-old hills collapsed. His ways are eternal.

Habakkuk 3:7 I saw the tents of Cushan in distress, the dwellings of Midian in anguish.

Habakkuk 3:8 Were you angry with the rivers, O LORD? Was your wrath against the streams? Did you rage against the sea when you rode with your horses and your victorious chariots?

Habakkuk 3:9 You uncovered your bow, you called for many arrows. Selah You split the earth with rivers;

Habakkuk 3:10 the mountains saw you and writhed. Torrents of water swept by; the deep roared and lifted its waves on high.

Habakkuk 3:11 Sun and moon stood still in the heavens at the glint of your flying arrows, at the lightning of your flashing spear.

Habakkuk 3:12 In wrath you strode through the earth and in anger you threshed the nations.

Habakkuk 3:13 You came out to deliver your people, to save your anointed one. You crushed the leader of the land of wickedness, you stripped him from head to foot. Selah

Habakkuk 3:14 With his own spear you pierced his head when his warriors stormed out to scatter us, gloating as though about to devour the wretched who were in hiding.

Habakkuk 3:15 You trampled the sea with your horses, churning the great waters.

Habakkuk 3:16 I heard and my heart pounded, my lips quivered at the sound; decay crept into my bones, and my legs trembled. Yet I will wait patiently for the day of calamity to come on the nation invading us.

Habakkuk 3:17 Though the fig-tree does not bud and there are no grapes on the vines, though the olive crop fails and the fields produce no food, though there are no sheep in the pen and no cattle in the stalls,

Habakkuk 3:18 yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will be joyful in God my Saviour.

Habakkuk 3:19 The Sovereign LORD is my strength; he makes my feet like the feet of a deer, he enables me to go on the heights. For the director of music. On my stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

1:1 The word of the LORD that came to Zephaniah son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, during the reign of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah:

Zephaniah 1:2 “I will sweep away everything from the face of the earth,” declares the LORD.

Zephaniah 1:3 “I will sweep away both men and animals; I will sweep away the birds of the air and the fish of the sea. The wicked will have only heaps of rubble when I cut off man from the face of the earth,” declares the LORD.

Zephaniah 1:4 “I will stretch out my hand against Judah and against all who live in Jerusalem. I will cut off from this place every remnant of Baal, the names of the pagan and the idolatrous priests—

Zephaniah 1:5 those who bow down on the roofs to worship the starry host, those who bow down and swear by the LORD and who also swear by Molech,

Zephaniah 1:6 those who turn back from following the LORD and neither seek the LORD nor enquire of him.

Zephaniah 1:7 Be silent before the Sovereign LORD, for the day of the LORD is near. The LORD has prepared a sacrifice; he has consecrated those he has invited.

Zephaniah 1:8 On the day of the LORD’s sacrifice I will punish the princes and the king’s sons and all those clad in foreign clothes.

Zephaniah 1:9 On that day I will punish all who avoid stepping on the threshold, who fill the temple of their gods with violence and deceit.

Zephaniah 1:10 “On that day,” declares the LORD, “a cry will go up from the Fish Gate, wailing from the New Quarter, and a loud crash from the hills.

Zephaniah 1:11 Wail, you who live in the market district; all your merchants will be wiped out, all who trade with silver will be ruined.

Zephaniah 1:12 At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps and punish those who are complacent, who are like wine left on its dregs, who think,`The LORD will do nothing, either good or bad.’

Zephaniah 1:13 Their wealth will be plundered, their houses demolished. They will build houses but not live in them; they will plant vineyards but not drink the wine.

Zephaniah 1:14 “The great day of the LORD is near—near and coming quickly. Listen! The cry on the day of the LORD will be bitter, the shouting of the warrior there.

Zephaniah 1:15 That day will be a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of trouble and ruin, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness,

Zephaniah 1:16 a day of trumpet and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the corner towers.

Zephaniah 1:17 I will bring distress on the people and they will walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD. Their blood will be poured out like dust and their entrails like filth.

Zephaniah 1:18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the LORD’s wrath. In the fire of his jealousy the whole world will be consumed, for he will make a sudden end of all who live in the earth.”

Zephaniah 2:1 Gather together, gather together, O shameful nation,

Zephaniah 2:2 before the appointed time arrives and that day sweeps on like chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD comes upon you, before the day of the LORD’s wrath comes upon you.

Zephaniah 2:3 Seek the LORD, all you humble of the land, you who do what he commands. Seek righteousness, seek humility; perhaps you will be sheltered on the day of the LORD’s anger.

Zephaniah 2:4 Gaza will be abandoned and Ashkelon left in ruins. At midday Ashdod will be emptied and Ekron uprooted.

Zephaniah 2:5 Woe to you who live by the sea, O Kerethite people; the word of the LORD is against you, O Canaan, land of the Philistines. “I will destroy you, and none will be left.”

Zephaniah 2:6 The land by the sea, where the Kerethites dwell, will be a place for shepherds and sheep pens.

Zephaniah 2:7 It will belong to the remnant of the house of Judah; there they will find pasture. In the evening they will lie down in the houses of Ashkelon. The LORD their God will care for them; he will restore their fortunes.

Zephaniah 2:8 “I have heard the insults of Moab and the taunts of the Ammonites, who insulted my people and made threats against their land.

Zephaniah 2:9 Therefore, as surely as I live,” declares the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, “surely Moab will become like Sodom, the Ammonites like Gomorrah—a place of weeds and salt pits, a wasteland for ever. The remnant of my people will plunder them; the survivors of my nation will inherit their land.”

Zephaniah 2:10 This is what they will get in return for their pride, for insulting and mocking the people of the LORD Almighty.

Zephaniah 2:11 The LORD will be awesome to them when he destroys all the gods of the land. The nations on every shore will worship him, every one in its own land.

Zephaniah 2:12 “You too, O Cushites, will be slain by my sword.”

Zephaniah 2:13 He will stretch out his hand against the north and destroy Assyria, leaving Nineveh utterly desolate and dry as the desert.

Zephaniah 2:14 Flocks and herds will lie down there, creatures of every kind. The desert owl and the screech owl will roost on her columns. Their calls will echo through the windows, rubble will be in the doorways, the beams of cedar will be exposed.

Zephaniah 2:15 This is the carefree city that lived in safety. She said to herself, “I am, and there is none besides me.” What a ruin she has become, a lair for wild beasts! All who pass by her scoff and shake their fists.

Zephaniah 3:1 Woe to the city of oppressors, rebellious and defiled!

Zephaniah 3:2 She obeys no-one, she accepts no correction. She does not trust in the LORD, she does not draw near to her God.

Zephaniah 3:3 Her officials are roaring lions, her rulers are evening wolves, who leave nothing for the morning.

Zephaniah 3:4 Her prophets are arrogant; they are treacherous men. Her priests profane the sanctuary and do violence to the law.

Zephaniah 3:5 The LORD within her is righteous; he does no wrong. Morning by morning he dispenses his justice, and every new day he does not fail, yet the unrighteous know no shame.

Zephaniah 3:6 “I have cut off nations; their strongholds are demolished. I have left their streets deserted, with no-one passing through. Their cities are destroyed; no-one will be left—no-one at all.

Zephaniah 3:7 I said to the city,`Surely you will fear me and accept correction!’ Then her dwelling would not be cut off, nor all my punishments come upon her. But they were still eager to act corruptly in all they did.

Zephaniah 3:8 Therefore wait for me," declares the LORD, "for the day I will stand up to testify. I have decided to assemble the nations, to gather the kingdoms and to pour out my wrath on them—all my fierce anger. The whole world will be consumed by the fire of my jealous anger.

Zephaniah 3:9 "Then will I purify the lips of the peoples, that all of them may call on the name of the LORD and serve him shoulder to shoulder.

Zephaniah 3:10 From beyond the rivers of Cush my worshippers, my scattered people, will bring me offerings.

Zephaniah 3:11 On that day you will not be put to shame for all the wrongs you have done to me, because I will remove from this city those who rejoice in their pride. Never again will you be haughty on my holy hill.

Zephaniah 3:12 But I will leave within you the meek and humble, who trust in the name of the LORD.

Zephaniah 3:13 The remnant of Israel will do no wrong; they will speak no lies, nor will deceit be found in their mouths. They will eat and lie down and no-one will make them afraid."

Zephaniah 3:14 Sing, O Daughter of Zion; shout aloud, O Israel! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, O Daughter of Jerusalem!

Zephaniah 3:15 The LORD has taken away your punishment, he has turned back your enemy. The LORD, the King of Israel, is with you; never again will you fear any harm.

Zephaniah 3:16 On that day they will say to Jerusalem, "Do not fear, O Zion; do not let your hands hang limp.

Zephaniah 3:17 The LORD your God is with you, he is mighty to save. He will take great delight in you, he will quiet you with his love, he will rejoice over you with singing."

Zephaniah 3:18 "The sorrows for the appointed feasts I will remove from you; they are a burden and a reproach to you.

Zephaniah 3:19 At that time I will deal with all who oppressed you; I will rescue the lame and gather those who have been scattered. I will give them praise and honour in every land where they were put to shame.

Zephaniah 3:20 At that time I will gather you; at that time I will bring you home. I will give you honour and praise among all the peoples of the earth when I restore your fortunes before your very eyes," says the LORD.

Haggai

1:1 In the second year of King Darius, on the first day of the sixth month, the word of the LORD came through the prophet Haggai to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest:

Haggai 1:2 This is what the LORD Almighty says: “These people say,`The time has not yet come for the LORD’s house to be built.’“

Haggai 1:3 Then the word of the LORD came through the prophet Haggai:

Haggai 1:4 “Is it a time for you yourselves to be living in your panelled houses, while this house remains a ruin?”

Haggai 1:5 Now this is what the LORD Almighty says: “Give careful thought to your ways.

Haggai 1:6 You have planted much, but have harvested little. You eat, but never have enough. You drink, but never have your fill. You put on clothes, but are not warm. You earn wages, only to put them in a purse with holes in it.”

Haggai 1:7 This is what the LORD Almighty says: “Give careful thought to your ways.

Haggai 1:8 Go up into the mountains and bring down timber and build the house, so that I may take pleasure in it and be honoured,” says the LORD.

Haggai 1:9 “You expected much, but see, it turned out to be little. What you brought home, I blew away. Why?” declares the LORD Almighty. “Because of my house, which remains a ruin, while each of you is busy with his own house.

Haggai 1:10 Therefore, because of you the heavens have withheld their dew and the earth its crops.

Haggai 1:11 I called for a drought on the fields and the mountains, on the grain, the new wine, the oil and whatever the ground produces, on men and cattle, and on the labour of your hands.”

Haggai 1:12 Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the whole remnant of the people obeyed the voice of the LORD their God and the message of the prophet Haggai, because the LORD their God had sent him. And the people feared the LORD.

Haggai 1:13 Then Haggai, the LORD’s messenger, gave this message of the LORD to the people: “I am with you,” declares the LORD.

Haggai 1:14 So the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of the whole remnant of the people. They came and began work on the house of the LORD Almighty, their God, Haggai 1:15 on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month in the second year of King Darius.

Haggai 2:1 On the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the word of the LORD came through the prophet Haggai:

Haggai 2:2 “Speak to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people. Ask them,

Haggai 2:3 `Who of you is left who saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Does it not seem to you like nothing?

Haggai 2:4 But now be strong, O Zerubbabel,’ declares the LORD.`Be strong, O Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land,’ declares the LORD,`and work. For I am with you,’ declares the LORD Almighty.

Haggai 2:5 `This is what I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt. And my Spirit remains among you. Do not fear.’

Haggai 2:6 “This is what the LORD Almighty says:`In a little while I will once more shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land.

Haggai 2:7 I will shake all nations, and the desired of all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory,’ says the LORD Almighty.

Haggai 2:8 `The silver is mine and the gold is mine,’ declares the LORD Almighty.

Haggai 2:9 `The glory of this present house will be greater than the glory of the former house,’ says the LORD Almighty.`And in this place I will grant peace,’ declares the LORD Almighty.”

Haggai 2:10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Haggai:

Haggai 2:11 “This is what the LORD Almighty says:`Ask the priests what the law says:

Haggai 2:12 If a person carries consecrated meat in the fold of his garment, and that fold touches some bread or stew, some wine, oil or other food, does it become consecrated?‟ The priests answered, “No.”

Haggai 2:13 Then Haggai said, “If a person defiled by contact with a dead body touches one of these things, does it become defiled?” “Yes,” the priests replied, “it becomes defiled.”

Haggai 2:14 Then Haggai said, “`So it is with this people and this nation in my sight,’ declares the LORD.`Whatever they do and whatever they offer there is defiled.

Haggai 2:15 “`Now give careful thought to this from this day on—consider how things were before one stone was laid on another in the LORD’s temple.

Haggai 2:16 When anyone came to a heap of twenty measures, there were only ten. When anyone went to a wine vat to draw fifty measures, there were only twenty.

Haggai 2:17 I struck all the work of your hands with blight, mildew and hail, yet you did not turn to me,' declares the LORD.

Haggai 2:18 `From this day on, from this twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, give careful thought to the day when the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid. Give careful thought:

Haggai 2:19 Is there yet any seed left in the barn? Until now, the vine and the fig-tree, the pomegranate and the olive tree have not borne fruit. "`From this day on I will bless you.'"

Haggai 2:20 The word of the LORD came to Haggai a second time on the twenty-fourth day of the month:

Haggai 2:21 "Tell Zerubbabel governor of Judah that I will shake the heavens and the earth.

Haggai 2:22 I will overturn royal thrones and shatter the power of the foreign kingdoms. I will overthrow chariots and their drivers; horses and their riders will fall, each by the sword of his brother.

Haggai 2:23 "`On that day,' declares the LORD Almighty,`I will take you, my servant Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel,' declares the LORD,`and I will make you like my signet ring, for I have chosen you,' declares the LORD Almighty."

Zecharaih

1:1 In the eighth month of the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berekiah, the son of Iddo:

Zecharaih 1:2 "The LORD was very angry with your forefathers.

Zecharaih 1:3 Therefore tell the people: This is what the LORD Almighty says:`Return to me,' declares the LORD Almighty,`and I will return to you,' says the LORD Almighty.

Zecharaih 1:4 Do not be like your forefathers, to whom the earlier prophets proclaimed: This is what the LORD Almighty says:`Turn from your evil ways and your evil practices.' But they would not listen or pay attention to me, declares the LORD.

Zecharaih 1:5 Where are your forefathers now? And the prophets, do they live for ever?

Zecharaih 1:6 But did not my words and my decrees, which I commanded my servants the prophets, overtake your forefathers? "Then they repented and said,`The LORD Almighty has done to us what our ways and practices deserve, just as he determined to do.'"

Zecharaih 1:7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berekiah, the son of Iddo.

Zecharaih 1:8 During the night I had a vision—and there before me was a man riding a red horse! He was standing among the myrtle trees in a ravine. Behind him were red, brown and white horses.

Zecharaih 1:9 I asked, “What are these, my lord?” The angel who was talking with me answered, “I will show you what they are.”

Zecharaih 1:10 Then the man standing among the myrtle trees explained, “They are the ones the LORD has sent to go throughout the earth.”

Zecharaih 1:11 And they reported to the angel of the LORD, who was standing among the myrtle trees, “We have gone throughout the earth and found the whole world at rest and in peace.”

Zecharaih 1:12 Then the angel of the LORD said, “LORD Almighty, how long will you withhold mercy from Jerusalem and from the towns of Judah, which you have been angry with these seventy years?”

Zecharaih 1:13 So the LORD spoke kind and comforting words to the angel who talked with me.

Zecharaih 1:14 Then the angel who was speaking to me said, “Proclaim this word: This is what the LORD Almighty says:`I am very jealous for Jerusalem and Zion,

Zecharaih 1:15 but I am very angry with the nations that feel secure. I was only a little angry, but they added to the calamity.’

Zecharaih 1:16 “Therefore, this is what the LORD says:`I will return to Jerusalem with mercy, and there my house will be rebuilt. And the measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem,’ declares the LORD Almighty.

Zecharaih 1:17 “Proclaim further: This is what the LORD Almighty says:`My towns will again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again comfort Zion and choose Jerusalem.’“

Zecharaih 1:18 Then I looked up—and there before me were four horns!

Zecharaih 1:19 I asked the angel who was speaking to me, “What are these?” He answered me, “These are the horns that scattered Judah, Israel and Jerusalem.”

Zecharaih 1:20 Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen.

Zecharaih 1:21 I asked, “What are these coming to do?” He answered, “These are the horns that scattered Judah so that no-one could raise his head, but the craftsmen have come to terrify them and throw down these horns of the nations who lifted up their horns against the land of Judah to scatter its people.”

Zecharaih 2:1 Then I looked up—and there before me was a man with a measuring line in his hand!

Zecharaih 2:2 I asked, “Where are you going?” He answered me, “To measure Jerusalem, to find out how wide and how long it is.”

Zecharaih 2:3 Then the angel who was speaking to me left, and another angel came to meet him

Zecharaih 2:4 and said to him: “Run, tell that young man,`Jerusalem will be a city without walls because of the great number of men and livestock in it.

Zecharaih 2:5 And I myself will be a wall of fire around it,’ declares the LORD,`and I will be its glory within.’

Zecharaih 2:6 “Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north,” declares the LORD, “for I have scattered you to the four winds of heaven,” declares the LORD.

Zecharaih 2:7 “Come, O Zion! Escape, you who live in the Daughter of Babylon!”

Zecharaih 2:8 For this is what the LORD Almighty says: “After he has honoured me and has sent me against the nations that have plundered you—for whoever touches you touches the apple of his eye—

Zecharaih 2:9 I will surely raise my hand against them so that their slaves will plunder them. Then you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me.

Zecharaih 2:10 “Shout and be glad, O Daughter of Zion. For I am coming, and I will live among you,” declares the LORD.

Zecharaih 2:11 “Many nations will be joined with the LORD in that day and will become my people. I will live among you and you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me to you.

Zecharaih 2:12 The LORD will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land and will again choose Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 2:13 Be still before the LORD, all mankind, because he has roused himself from his holy dwelling.”

Zecharaih 3:1 Then he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right side to accuse him.

Zecharaih 3:2 The LORD said to Satan, “The LORD rebuke you, Satan! The LORD, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebuke you! Is not this man a burning stick snatched from the fire?”

Zecharaih 3:3 Now Joshua was dressed in filthy clothes as he stood before the angel.

Zecharaih 3:4 The angel said to those who were standing before him, “Take off his filthy clothes.” Then he said to Joshua, “See, I have taken away your sin, and I will put rich garments on you.”

Zecharaih 3:5 Then I said, “Put a clean turban on his head.” So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him, while the angel of the LORD stood by.

Zecharaih 3:6 The angel of the LORD gave this charge to Joshua:

Zecharaih 3:7 “This is what the LORD Almighty says:`If you will walk in my ways and keep my requirements, then you will govern my house and have charge of my courts, and I will give you a place among these standing here.

Zecharaih 3:8 “`Listen, O high priest Joshua and your associates seated before you, who are men symbolic of things to come: I am going to bring my servant, the Branch.

Zecharaih 3:9 See, the stone I have set in front of Joshua! There are seven eyes on that one stone, and I will engrave an inscription on it,’ says the LORD Almighty,`and I will remove the sin of this land in a single day.

Zecharaih 3:10 “`In that day each of you will invite his neighbour to sit under his vine and fig-tree,’ declares the LORD Almighty.”

Zecharaih 4:1 Then the angel who talked with me returned and wakened me, as a man is wakened from his sleep.

Zecharaih 4:2 He asked me, “What do you see?” I answered, “I see a solid gold lampstand with a bowl at the top and seven lights on it, with seven channels to the lights.

Zecharaih 4:3 Also there are two olive trees by it, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left.”

Zecharaih 4:4 I asked the angel who talked with me, “What are these, my lord?”

Zecharaih 4:5 He answered, “Do you not know what these are?” “No, my lord,” I replied.

Zecharaih 4:6 So he said to me, “This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel:`Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit,’ says the LORD Almighty.

Zecharaih 4:7 “What are you, O mighty mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become level ground. Then he will bring out the capstone to shouts of`God bless it! God bless it!’“

Zecharaih 4:8 Then the word of the LORD came to me:

Zecharaih 4:9 “The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this temple; his hands will also complete it. Then you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me to you.

Zecharaih 4:10 “Who despises the day of small things? Men will rejoice when they see the plumb-line in the hand of Zerubbabel. “(These seven are the eyes of the LORD, which range throughout the earth.)”

Zecharaih 4:11 Then I asked the angel, “What are these two olive trees on the right and the left of the lampstand?”

Zecharaih 4:12 Again I asked him, “What are these two olive branches beside the two gold pipes that pour out golden oil?”

Zecharaih 4:13 He replied, “Do you not know what these are?” “No, my lord,” I said.

Zecharaih 4:14 So he said, “These are the two who are anointed to serve the Lord of all the earth.”

Zecharaih 5:1 I looked again—and there before me was a flying scroll!

Zecharaih 5:2 He asked me, “What do you see?” I answered, “I see a flying scroll, thirty feet long and fifteen feet wide.”

Zecharaih 5:3 And he said to me, “This is the curse that is going out over the whole land; for according to what it says on one side, every thief will be banished, and according to what it says on the other, everyone who swears falsely will be banished.

Zecharaih 5:4 The LORD Almighty declares,`I will send it out, and it will enter the house of the thief and the house of him who swears falsely by my name. It will remain in his house and destroy it, both its timbers and its stones.'“

Zecharaih 5:5 Then the angel who was speaking to me came forward and said to me, “Look up and see what this is that is appearing.”

Zecharaih 5:6 I asked, “What is it?” He replied, “It is a measuring basket.” And he added, “This is the iniquity of the people throughout the land.”

Zecharaih 5:7 Then the cover of lead was raised, and there in the basket sat a woman!

Zecharaih 5:8 He said, “This is wickedness,” and he pushed her back into the basket and pushed the lead cover down over its mouth.

Zecharaih 5:9 Then I looked up—and there before me were two women, with the wind in their wings! They had wings like those of a stork, and they lifted up the basket between heaven and earth.

Zecharaih 5:10 “Where are they taking the basket?” I asked the angel who was speaking to me.

Zecharaih 5:11 He replied, “To the country of Babylonia to build a house for it. When it is ready, the basket will be set there in its place.”

Zecharaih 6:1 I looked up again—and there before me were four chariots coming out from between two mountains—mountains of bronze!

Zecharaih 6:2 The first chariot had red horses, the second black,

Zecharaih 6:3 the third white, and the fourth dappled—all of them powerful.

Zecharaih 6:4 I asked the angel who was speaking to me, “What are these, my lord?”

Zecharaih 6:5 The angel answered me, “These are the four spirits of heaven, going out from standing in the presence of the Lord of the whole world.

Zecharaih 6:6 The one with the black horses is going towards the north country, the one with the white horses towards the west, and the one with the dappled horses towards the south.”

Zecharaih 6:7 When the powerful horses went out, they were straining to go throughout the earth. And he said, “Go throughout the earth!” So they went throughout the earth.

Zecharaih 6:8 Then he called to me, “Look, those going towards the north country have given my Spirit rest in the land of the north.”

Zecharaih 6:9 The word of the LORD came to me:

Zecharaih 6:10 “Take [silver and gold] from the exiles Heldai, Tobijah and Jedaiah, who have arrived from Babylon. Go the same day to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah.

Zecharaih 6:11 Take the silver and gold and make a crown, and set it on the head of the high priest, Joshua son of Jehozadak.

Zecharaih 6:12 Tell him this is what the LORD Almighty says:`Here is the man whose name is the Branch, and he will branch out from his place and build the temple of the LORD.

Zecharaih 6:13 It is he who will build the temple of the LORD, and he will be clothed with majesty and will sit and rule on his throne. And he will be a priest on his throne. And there will be harmony between the two.’

Zecharaih 6:14 The crown will be given to Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah and Hen son of Zephaniah as a memorial in the temple of the LORD.

Zecharaih 6:15 Those who are far away will come and help to build the temple of the LORD, and you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me to you. This will happen if you diligently obey the LORD your God.”

Zecharaih 7:1 In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, the month of Kislev.

Zecharaih 7:2 The people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regem-Melech, together with their men, to entreat the LORD

Zecharaih 7:3 by asking the priests of the house of the LORD Almighty and the prophets, “Should I mourn and fast in the fifth month, as I have done for so many years?”

Zecharaih 7:4 Then the word of the LORD Almighty came to me:

Zecharaih 7:5 “Ask all the people of the land and the priests,`When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months for the past seventy years, was it really for me that you fasted?

Zecharaih 7:6 And when you were eating and drinking, were you not just feasting for yourselves?

Zecharaih 7:7 Are these not the words the LORD proclaimed through the earlier prophets when Jerusalem and its surrounding towns were at rest and prosperous, and the Negev and the western foothills were settled?'"

Zecharaih 7:8 And the word of the LORD came again to Zechariah:

Zecharaih 7:9 "This is what the LORD Almighty says:`Administer true justice; show mercy and compassion to one another.

Zecharaih 7:10 Do not oppress the widow or the fatherless, the alien or the poor. In your hearts do not think evil of each other.'

Zecharaih 7:11 "But they refused to pay attention; stubbornly they turned their backs and stopped up their ears.

Zecharaih 7:12 They made their hearts as hard as flint and would not listen to the law or to the words that the LORD Almighty had sent by his Spirit through the earlier prophets. So the LORD Almighty was very angry.

Zecharaih 7:13 "`When I called, they did not listen; so when they called, I would not listen,' says the LORD Almighty.

Zecharaih 7:14 `I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations, where they were strangers. The land was left so desolate behind them that no-one could come or go. This is how they made the pleasant land desolate.'"

Zecharaih 8:1 Again the word of the LORD Almighty came to me.

Zecharaih 8:2 This is what the LORD Almighty says: "I am very jealous for Zion; I am burning with jealousy for her."

Zecharaih 8:3 This is what the LORD says: "I will return to Zion and dwell in Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth, and the mountain of the LORD Almighty will be called the Holy Mountain."

Zecharaih 8:4 This is what the LORD Almighty says: "Once again men and women of ripe old age will sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each with cane in hand because of his age.

Zecharaih 8:5 The city streets will be filled with boys and girls playing there."

Zecharaih 8:6 This is what the LORD Almighty says: "It may seem marvellous to the remnant of this people at that time, but will it seem marvellous to me?" declares the LORD Almighty.

Zecharaih 8:7 This is what the LORD Almighty says: "I will save my people from the countries of the east and the west.

Zecharaih 8:8 I will bring them back to live in Jerusalem; they will be my people, and I will be faithful and righteous to them as their God."

Zecharaih 8:9 This is what the LORD Almighty says: “You who now hear these words spoken by the prophets who were there when the foundation was laid for the house of the LORD Almighty, let your hands be strong so that the temple may be built.

Zecharaih 8:10 Before that time there were no wages for man or beast. No-one could go about his business safely because of his enemy, for I had turned every man against his neighbour.

Zecharaih 8:11 But now I will not deal with the remnant of this people as I did in the past,” declares the LORD Almighty.

Zecharaih 8:12 “The seed will grow well, the vine will yield its fruit, the ground will produce its crops, and the heavens will drop their dew. I will give all these things as an inheritance to the remnant of this people.

Zecharaih 8:13 As you have been an object of cursing among the nations, O Judah and Israel, so will I save you, and you will be a blessing. Do not be afraid, but let your hands be strong.”

Zecharaih 8:14 This is what the LORD Almighty says: “Just as I had determined to bring disaster upon you and showed no pity when your fathers angered me,” says the LORD Almighty, Zecharaih 8:15 “so now I have determined to do good again to Jerusalem and Judah. Do not be afraid.

Zecharaih 8:16 These are the things you are to do: Speak the truth to each other, and render true and sound judgment in your courts;

Zecharaih 8:17 do not plot evil against your neighbour, and do not love to swear falsely. I hate all this,” declares the LORD.

Zecharaih 8:18 Again the word of the LORD Almighty came to me.

Zecharaih 8:19 This is what the LORD Almighty says: “The fasts of the fourth, fifth, seventh and tenth months will become joyful and glad occasions and happy festivals for Judah. Therefore love truth and peace.”

Zecharaih 8:20 This is what the LORD Almighty says: “Many peoples and the inhabitants of many cities will yet come,

Zecharaih 8:21 and the inhabitants of one city will go to another and say,`Let us go at once to entreat the LORD and seek the LORD Almighty. I myself am going.’

Zecharaih 8:22 And many peoples and powerful nations will come to Jerusalem to seek the LORD Almighty and to entreat him.”

Zecharaih 8:23 This is what the LORD Almighty says: “In those days ten men from all languages and nations will take firm hold of one Jew by the hem of his robe and say,`Let us go with you, because we have heard that God is with you.’“

Zecharaih 9:1 The word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach and will rest upon Damascus—for the eyes of men and all the tribes of Israel are on the LORD—

Zecharaih 9:2 and upon Hamath too, which borders on it, and upon Tyre and Sidon, though they are very skilful.

Zecharaih 9:3 Tyre has built herself a stronghold; she has heaped up silver like dust, and gold like the dirt of the streets.

Zecharaih 9:4 But the Lord will take away her possessions and destroy her power on the sea, and she will be consumed by fire.

Zecharaih 9:5 Ashkelon will see it and fear; Gaza will writhe in agony, and Ekron too, for her hope will wither. Gaza will lose her king and Ashkelon will be deserted.

Zecharaih 9:6 Foreigners will occupy Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

Zecharaih 9:7 I will take the blood from their mouths, the forbidden food from between their teeth. Those who are left will belong to our God and become leaders in Judah, and Ekron will be like the Jebusites.

Zecharaih 9:8 But I will defend my house against marauding forces. Never again will an oppressor overrun my people, for now I am keeping watch.

Zecharaih 9:9 Rejoice greatly, O Daughter of Zion! Shout, Daughter of Jerusalem! See, your king comes to you, righteous and having salvation, gentle and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

Zecharaih 9:10 I will take away the chariots from Ephraim and the war-horses from Jerusalem, and the battle-bow will be broken. He will proclaim peace to the nations. His rule will extend from sea to sea and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Zecharaih 9:11 As for you, because of the blood of my covenant with you, I will free your prisoners from the waterless pit.

Zecharaih 9:12 Return to your fortress, O prisoners of hope; even now I announce that I will restore twice as much to you.

Zecharaih 9:13 I will bend Judah as I bend my bow and fill it with Ephraim. I will rouse your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and make you like a warrior’s sword.

Zecharaih 9:14 Then the LORD will appear over them; his arrow will flash like lightning. The Sovereign LORD will sound the trumpet; he will march in the storms of the south, Zecharaih 9:15 and the LORD Almighty will shield them. They will destroy and overcome with slingstones. They will drink and roar as with wine; they will be full like a bowl used for sprinkling the corners of the altar.

Zecharaih 9:16 The LORD their God will save them on that day as the flock of his people. They will sparkle in his land like jewels in a crown.

Zecharaih 9:17 How attractive and beautiful they will be! Grain will make the young men thrive, and new wine the young women.

Zecharaih 10:1 Ask the LORD for rain in the springtime; it is the LORD who makes the storm clouds. He gives showers of rain to men, and plants of the field to everyone.

Zecharaih 10:2 The idols speak deceit, diviners see visions that lie; they tell dreams that are false, they give comfort in vain. Therefore the people wander like sheep oppressed for lack of a shepherd.

Zecharaih 10:3 “My anger burns against the shepherds, and I will punish the leaders; for the LORD Almighty will care for his flock, the house of Judah, and make them like a proud horse in battle.

Zecharaih 10:4 From Judah will come the cornerstone, from him the tent peg, from him the battle-bow, from him every ruler.

Zecharaih 10:5 Together they will be like mighty men trampling the muddy streets in battle. Because the LORD is with them, they will fight and overthrow the horsemen.

Zecharaih 10:6 “I will strengthen the house of Judah and save the house of Joseph. I will restore them because I have compassion on them. They will be as though I had not rejected them, for I am the LORD their God and I will answer them.

Zecharaih 10:7 The Ephraimites will become like mighty men, and their hearts will be glad as with wine. Their children will see it and be joyful; their hearts will rejoice in the LORD.

Zecharaih 10:8 I will signal for them and gather them in. Surely I will redeem them; they will be as numerous as before.

Zecharaih 10:9 Though I scatter them among the peoples, yet in distant lands they will remember me. They and their children will survive, and they will return.

Zecharaih 10:10 I will bring them back from Egypt and gather them from Assyria. I will bring them to Gilead and Lebanon, and there will not be room enough for them.

Zecharaih 10:11 They will pass through the sea of trouble; the surging sea will be subdued and all the depths of the Nile will dry up. Assyria’s pride will be brought down and Egypt’s sceptre will pass away.

Zecharaih 10:12 I will strengthen them in the LORD and in his name they will walk,” declares the LORD.

Zecharaih 11:1 Open your doors, O Lebanon, so that fire may devour your cedars!

Zecharaih 11:2 Wail, O pine tree, for the cedar has fallen; the stately trees are ruined! Wail, oaks of Bashan; the dense forest has been cut down!

Zecharaih 11:3 Listen to the wail of the shepherds: their rich pastures are destroyed! Listen to the roar of the lions; the lush thicket of the Jordan is ruined!

Zecharaih 11:4 This is what the LORD my God says: “Pasture the flock marked for slaughter.

Zecharaih 11:5 Their buyers slaughter them and go unpunished. Those who sell them say,`Praise the LORD, I am rich!’ Their own shepherds do not spare them.

Zecharaih 11:6 For I will no longer have pity on the people of the land,” declares the LORD. “I will hand everyone over to his neighbour and his king. They will oppress the land, and I will not rescue them from their hands.”

Zecharaih 11:7 So I pastured the flock marked for slaughter, particularly the oppressed of the flock. Then I took two staffs and called one Favour and the other Union, and I pastured the flock.

Zecharaih 11:8 In one month I got rid of the three shepherds. The flock detested me, and I grew weary of them

Zecharaih 11:9 and said, “I will not be your shepherd. Let the dying die, and the perishing perish. Let those who are left eat one another’s flesh.”

Zecharaih 11:10 Then I took my staff called Favour and broke it, revoking the covenant I had made with all the nations.

Zecharaih 11:11 It was revoked on that day, and so the afflicted of the flock who were watching me knew it was the word of the LORD.

Zecharaih 11:12 I told them, “If you think it best, give me my pay; but if not, keep it.” So they paid me thirty pieces of silver.

Zecharaih 11:13 And the LORD said to me, “Throw it to the potter”—the handsome price at which they priced me! So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them into the house of the LORD to the potter.

Zecharaih 11:14 Then I broke my second staff called Union, breaking the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

Zecharaih 11:15 Then the LORD said to me, “Take again the equipment of a foolish shepherd.

Zecharaih 11:16 For I am going to raise up a shepherd over the land who will not care for the lost, or seek the young, or heal the injured, or feed the healthy, but will eat the meat of the choice sheep, tearing off their hoofs.

Zecharaih 11:17 “Woe to the worthless shepherd, who deserts the flock! May the sword strike his arm and his right eye! May his arm be completely withered, his right eye totally blinded!”

Zecharaih 12:1 This is the word of the LORD concerning Israel. The LORD, who stretches out the heavens, who lays the foundation of the earth, and who forms the spirit of man within him, declares:

Zecharaih 12:2 “I am going to make Jerusalem a cup that sends all the surrounding peoples reeling. Judah will be besieged as well as Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 12:3 On that day, when all the nations of the earth are gathered against her, I will make Jerusalem an immovable rock for all the nations. All who try to move it will injure themselves.

Zecharaih 12:4 On that day I will strike every horse with panic and its rider with madness,” declares the LORD. “I will keep a watchful eye over the house of Judah, but I will blind all the horses of the nations.

Zecharaih 12:5 Then the leaders of Judah will say in their hearts,`The people of Jerusalem are strong, because the LORD Almighty is their God.’

Zecharaih 12:6 “On that day I will make the leaders of Judah like a brazier in a woodpile, like a flaming torch among sheaves. They will consume right and left all the surrounding peoples, but Jerusalem will remain intact in her place.

Zecharaih 12:7 “The LORD will save the dwellings of Judah first, so that the honour of the house of David and of Jerusalem’s inhabitants may not be greater than that of Judah.

Zecharaih 12:8 On that day the LORD will shield those who live in Jerusalem, so that the feeblest among them will be like David, and the house of David will be like God, like the Angel of the LORD going before them.

Zecharaih 12:9 On that day I will set out to destroy all the nations that attack Jerusalem.

Zecharaih 12:10 “And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and supplication. They will look on me, the one they have pierced, and they will mourn for him as one mourns for an only child, and grieve bitterly for him as one grieves for a firstborn son.

Zecharaih 12:11 On that day the weeping in Jerusalem will be great, like the weeping of Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo.

Zecharaih 12:12 The land will mourn, each clan by itself, with their wives by themselves: the clan of the house of David and their wives, the clan of the house of Nathan and their wives,

Zecharaih 12:13 the clan of the house of Levi and their wives, the clan of Shimei and their wives,

Zecharaih 12:14 and all the rest of the clans and their wives.

Zecharaih 13:1 “On that day a fountain will be opened to the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to cleanse them from sin and impurity.

Zecharaih 13:2 “On that day, I will banish the names of the idols from the land, and they will be remembered no more,” declares the LORD Almighty. “I will remove both the prophets and the spirit of impurity from the land.

Zecharaih 13:3 And if anyone still prophesies, his father and mother, to whom he was born, will say to him,`You must die, because you have told lies in the LORD’s name.’ When he prophesies, his own parents will stab him.

Zecharaih 13:4 “On that day every prophet will be ashamed of his prophetic vision. He will not put on a prophet’s garment of hair in order to deceive.

Zecharaih 13:5 He will say,`I am not a prophet. I am a farmer; the land has been my livelihood since my youth.’

Zecharaih 13:6 If someone asks him,`What are these wounds on your body?’ he will answer,`The wounds I was given at the house of my friends.’

Zecharaih 13:7 “Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, against the man who is close to me!” declares the LORD Almighty. “Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered, and I will turn my hand against the little ones.

Zecharaih 13:8 In the whole land,” declares the LORD, “two-thirds will be struck down and perish; yet one-third will be left in it.

Zecharaih 13:9 This third I will bring into the fire; I will refine them like silver and test them like gold. They will call on my name and I will answer them; I will say,`They are my people,’ and they will say,`The LORD is our God.’“

Zecharaih 14:1 A day of the LORD is coming when your plunder will be divided among you.

Zecharaih 14:2 I will gather all the nations to Jerusalem to fight against it; the city will be captured, the houses ransacked, and the women raped. Half of the city will go into exile, but the rest of the people will not be taken from the city.

Zecharaih 14:3 Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations, as he fights in the day of battle.

Zecharaih 14:4 On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, east of Jerusalem, and the Mount of Olives will be split in two from east to west, forming a great valley, with half of the mountain moving north and half moving south.

Zecharaih 14:5 You will flee by my mountain valley, for it will extend to Azel. You will flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come, and all the holy ones with him.

Zecharaih 14:6 On that day there will be no light, no cold or frost.

Zecharaih 14:7 It will be a unique day, without daytime or night-time—a day known to the LORD. When evening comes, there will be light.

Zecharaih 14:8 On that day living water will flow out from Jerusalem, half to the eastern sea and half to the western sea, in summer and in winter.

Zecharaih 14:9 The LORD will be king over the whole earth. On that day there will be one LORD, and his name the only name.

Zecharaih 14:10 The whole land, from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem, will become like the Arabah. But Jerusalem will be raised up and remain in its place, from the Benjamin Gate to the site of the First Gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the royal winepresses.

Zecharaih 14:11 It will be inhabited; never again will it be destroyed. Jerusalem will be secure.

Zecharaih 14:12 This is the plague with which the LORD will strike all the nations that fought against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot while they are still standing on their feet, their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths.

Zecharaih 14:13 On that day men will be stricken by the LORD with great panic. Each man will seize the hand of another, and they will attack each other.

Zecharaih 14:14 Judah too will fight at Jerusalem. The wealth of all the surrounding nations will be collected—great quantities of gold and silver and clothing.

Zecharaih 14:15 A similar plague will strike the horses and mules, the camels and donkeys, and all the animals in those camps.

Zecharaih 14:16 Then the survivors from all the nations that have attacked Jerusalem will go up year after year to worship the King, the LORD Almighty, and to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.

Zecharaih 14:17 If any of the peoples of the earth do not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD Almighty, they will have no rain.

Zecharaih 14:18 If the Egyptian people do not go up and take part, they will have no rain. The LORD will bring on them the plague he inflicts on the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.

Zecharaih 14:19 This will be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.

Zecharaih 14:20 On that day HOLY TO THE LORD will be inscribed on the bells of the horses, and the cooking pots in the LORD's house will be like the sacred bowls in front of the altar.

Zecharaih 14:21 Every pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be holy to the LORD Almighty, and all who come to sacrifice will take some of the pots and cook in them. And on that day there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of the LORD Almighty.

Malachi

1:1 An oracle: The word of the LORD to Israel through Malachi.

Malachi 1:2 "I have loved you," says the LORD. "But you ask,`How have you loved us?' "Was not Esau Jacob's brother?" the LORD says. "Yet I have loved Jacob,

Malachi 1:3 but Esau I have hated, and I have turned his mountains into a wasteland and left his inheritance to the desert jackals."

Malachi 1:4 Edom may say, "Though we have been crushed, we will rebuild the ruins." But this is what the LORD Almighty says: "They may build, but I will demolish. They will be called the Wicked Land, a people always under the wrath of the LORD.

Malachi 1:5 You will see it with your own eyes and say,`Great is the LORD—even beyond the borders of Israel!'

Malachi 1:6 "A son honours his father, and a servant his master. If I am a father, where is the honour due to me? If I am a master, where is the respect due to me?" says the LORD Almighty. "It is you, O priests, who show contempt for my name. "But you ask,`How have we shown contempt for your name?'

Malachi 1:7 "You place defiled food on my altar. "But you ask,`How have we defiled you?' "By saying that the LORD's table is contemptible.

Malachi 1:8 When you bring blind animals for sacrifice, is that not wrong? When you sacrifice crippled or diseased animals, is that not wrong? Try offering them to your governor! Would he be pleased with you? Would he accept you?" says the LORD Almighty.

Malachi 1:9 "Now implore God to be gracious to us. With such offerings from your hands, will he accept you?"—says the LORD Almighty.

Malachi 1:10 "Oh, that one of you would shut the temple doors, so that you would not light useless fires on my altar! I am not pleased with you," says the LORD Almighty, "and I will accept no offering from your hands.

Malachi 1:11 My name will be great among the nations, from the rising to the setting of the sun. In every place incense and pure offerings will be brought to my name, because my name will be great among the nations," says the LORD Almighty.

Malachi 1:12 “But you profane it by saying of the Lord’s table,`It is defiled’, and of its food,`It is contemptible.’

Malachi 1:13 And you say,`What a burden!’ and you sniff at it contemptuously,” says the LORD Almighty. “When you bring injured, crippled or diseased animals and offer them as sacrifices, should I accept them from your hands?” says the LORD.

Malachi 1:14 “Cursed is the cheat who has an acceptable male in his flock and vows to give it, but then sacrifices a blemished animal to the Lord. For I am a great king,” says the LORD Almighty, “and my name is to be feared among the nations.

Malachi 2:1 “And now this admonition is for you, O priests.

Malachi 2:2 If you do not listen, and if you do not set your heart to honour my name,” says the LORD Almighty, “I will send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings. Yes, I have already cursed them, because you have not set your heart to honour me.

Malachi 2:3 “Because of you I will rebuke your descendants; I will spread on your faces the offal from your festival sacrifices, and you will be carried off with it.

Malachi 2:4 And you will know that I have sent you this admonition so that my covenant with Levi may continue,” says the LORD Almighty.

Malachi 2:5 “My covenant was with him, a covenant of life and peace, and I gave them to him; this called for reverence and he revered me and stood in awe of my name.

Malachi 2:6 True instruction was in his mouth and nothing false was found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many from sin.

Malachi 2:7 “For the lips of a priest ought to preserve knowledge, and from his mouth men should seek instruction—because he is the messenger of the LORD Almighty.

Malachi 2:8 But you have turned from the way and by your teaching have caused many to stumble; you have violated the covenant with Levi,” says the LORD Almighty.

Malachi 2:9 “So I have caused you to be despised and humiliated before all the people, because you have not followed my ways but have shown partiality in matters of the law.”

Malachi 2:10 Have we not all one Father? Did not one God create us? Why do we profane the covenant of our fathers by breaking faith with one another?

Malachi 2:11 Judah has broken faith. A detestable thing has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem: Judah has desecrated the sanctuary the LORD loves, by marrying the daughter of a foreign god.

Malachi 2:12 As for the man who does this, whoever he may be, may the LORD cut him off from the tents of Jacob— even though he brings offerings to the LORD Almighty.

Malachi 2:13 Another thing you do: You flood the LORD’s altar with tears. You weep and wail because he no longer pays attention to your offerings or accepts them with pleasure from your hands.

Malachi 2:14 You ask, “Why?” It is because the LORD is acting as the witness between you and the wife of your youth, because you have broken faith with her, though she is your partner, the wife of your marriage covenant.

Malachi 2:15 Has not [the LORD] made them one? In flesh and spirit they are his. And why one? Because he was seeking godly offspring. So guard yourself in your spirit, and do not break faith with the wife of your youth.

Malachi 2:16 “I hate divorce,” says the LORD God of Israel, “and I hate a man’s covering himself with violence as well as with his garment,” says the LORD Almighty. So guard yourself in your spirit, and do not break faith.

Malachi 2:17 You have wearied the LORD with your words. “How have we wearied him?” you ask. By saying, “All who do evil are good in the eyes of the LORD, and he is pleased with them” or “Where is the God of justice?”

Malachi 3:1 “See, I will send my messenger, who will prepare the way before me. Then suddenly the Lord you are seeking will come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, will come,” says the LORD Almighty.

Malachi 3:2 But who can endure the day of his coming? Who can stand when he appears? For he will be like a refiner’s fire or a launderer’s soap.

Malachi 3:3 He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; he will purify the Levites and refine them like gold and silver. Then the LORD will have men who will bring offerings in righteousness,

Malachi 3:4 and the offerings of Judah and Jerusalem will be acceptable to the LORD, as in days gone by, as in former years.

Malachi 3:5 “So I will come near to you for judgment. I will be quick to testify against sorcerers, adulterers and perjurers, against those who defraud labourers of their wages, who oppress the widows and the fatherless, and deprive aliens of justice, but do not fear me,” says the LORD Almighty.

Malachi 3:6 “I the LORD do not change. So you, O descendants of Jacob, are not destroyed.

Malachi 3:7 Ever since the time of your forefathers you have turned away from my decrees and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you,” says the LORD Almighty. “But you ask,`How are we to return?’

Malachi 3:8 “Will a man rob God? Yet you rob me. “But you ask,`How do we rob you?’ “In tithes and offerings.

Malachi 3:9 You are under a curse—the whole nation of you—because you are robbing me.

Malachi 3:10 Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house. Test me in this,” says the LORD Almighty, “and see if I will not throw open the floodgates of heaven and pour out so much blessing that you will not have room enough for it.

Malachi 3:11 I will prevent pests from devouring your crops, and the vines in your fields will not cast their fruit,” says the LORD Almighty.

Malachi 3:12 “Then all the nations will call you blessed, for yours will be a delightful land,” says the LORD Almighty.

Malachi 3:13 “You have said harsh things against me,” says the LORD. “Yet you ask,`What have we said against you?’

Malachi 3:14 “You have said,`It is futile to serve God. What did we gain by carrying out his requirements and going about like mourners before the LORD Almighty?

Malachi 3:15 But now we call the arrogant blessed. Certainly the evildoers prosper, and even those who challenge God escape.’“

Malachi 3:16 Then those who feared the LORD talked with each other, and the LORD listened and heard. A scroll of remembrance was written in his presence concerning those who feared the LORD and honoured his name.

Malachi 3:17 “They will be mine,” says the LORD Almighty, “in the day when I make up my treasured possession. I will spare them, just as in compassion a man spares his son who serves him.

Malachi 3:18 And you will again see the distinction between the righteous and the wicked, between those who serve God and those who do not.

Malachi 4:1 “Surely the day is coming; it will burn like a furnace. All the arrogant and every evildoer will be stubble, and that day that is coming will set them on fire,” says the LORD Almighty. “Not a root or a branch will be left to them.

Malachi 4:2 But for you who revere my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings. And you will go out and leap like calves released from the stall.

Malachi 4:3 Then you will trample down the wicked; they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day when I do these things,” says the LORD Almighty.

Malachi 4:4 “Remember the law of my servant Moses, the decrees and laws I gave him at Horeb for all Israel.

Malachi 4:5 “See, I will send you the prophet Elijah before that great and dreadful day of the LORD comes.

Malachi 4:6 He will turn the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers; or else I will come and strike the land with a curse.”

Matthew

1:1 A record of the genealogy of Jesus Christ the son of David, the son of Abraham:

Matthew 1:2 Abraham was the father of Isaac, Isaac the father of Jacob, Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers,

Matthew 1:3 Judah the father of Perez and Zerah, whose mother was Tamar, Perez the father of Hezron, Hezron the father of Ram,

Matthew 1:4 Ram the father of Amminadab, Amminadab the father of Nahshon, Nahshon the father of Salmon,

Matthew 1:5 Salmon the father of Boaz, whose mother was Rahab, Boaz the father of Obed, whose mother was Ruth, Obed the father of Jesse,

Matthew 1:6 and Jesse the father of King David. David was the father of Solomon, whose mother had been Uriah’s wife,

Matthew 1:7 Solomon the father of Rehoboam, Rehoboam the father of Abijah, Abijah the father of Asa,

Matthew 1:8 Asa the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat the father of Jehoram, Jehoram the father of Uzziah,

Matthew 1:9 Uzziah the father of Jotham, Jotham the father of Ahaz, Ahaz the father of Hezekiah,

Matthew 1:10 Hezekiah the father of Manasseh, Manasseh the father of Amon, Amon the father of Josiah,

Matthew 1:11 and Josiah the father of Jeconiah and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon.

Matthew 1:12 After the exile to Babylon: Jeconiah was the father of Shealtiel, Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel,

Matthew 1:13 Zerubbabel the father of Abiud, Abiud the father of Eliakim, Eliakim the father of Azor,

Matthew 1:14 Azor the father of Zadok, Zadok the father of Akim, Akim the father of Eliud,

Matthew 1:15 Eliud the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan, Matthan the father of Jacob, Matthew 1:16 and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

Matthew 1:17 Thus there were fourteen generations in all from Abraham to David, fourteen from David to the exile to Babylon, and fourteen from the exile to the Christ.

Matthew 1:18 This is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about: His mother Mary was pledged to be married to Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be with child through the Holy Spirit.

Matthew 1:19 Because Joseph her husband was a righteous man and did not want to expose her to public disgrace, he had in mind to divorce her quietly.

Matthew 1:20 But after he had considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, “Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit.

Matthew 1:21 She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins.”

Matthew 1:22 All this took place to fulfil what the Lord had said through the prophet:

Matthew 1:23 “The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel”— which means, “God with us.”

Matthew 1:24 When Joseph woke up, he did what the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took Mary home as his wife.

Matthew 1:25 But he had no union with her until she gave birth to a son. And he gave him the name Jesus.

Matthew 2:1 After Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the time of King Herod, Magi from the east came to Jerusalem

Matthew 2:2 and asked, “Where is the one who has been born king of the Jews? We saw his star in the east and have come to worship him.”

Matthew 2:3 When King Herod heard this he was disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him.

Matthew 2:4 When he had called together all the people’s chief priests and teachers of the law, he asked them where the Christ was to be born.

Matthew 2:5 “In Bethlehem in Judea,” they replied, “for this is what the prophet has written:

Matthew 2:6 “`But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for out of you will come a ruler who will be the shepherd of my people Israel.’“

Matthew 2:7 Then Herod called the Magi secretly and found out from them the exact time the star had appeared.

Matthew 2:8 He sent them to Bethlehem and said, “Go and make a careful search for the child. As soon as you find him, report to me, so that I too may go and worship him.”

Matthew 2:9 After they had heard the king, they went on their way, and the star they had seen in the east went ahead of them until it stopped over the place where the child was.

Matthew 2:10 When they saw the star, they were overjoyed.

Matthew 2:11 On coming to the house, they saw the child with his mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshipped him. Then they opened their treasures and presented him with gifts of gold and of incense and of myrrh.

Matthew 2:12 And having been warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, they returned to their country by another route.

Matthew 2:13 When they had gone, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream. “Get up,” he said, “take the child and his mother and escape to Egypt. Stay there until I tell you, for Herod is going to search for the child to kill him.”

Matthew 2:14 So he got up, took the child and his mother during the night and left for Egypt,

Matthew 2:15 where he stayed until the death of Herod. And so was fulfilled what the Lord had said through the prophet: “Out of Egypt I called my son.”

Matthew 2:16 When Herod realised that he had been outwitted by the Magi, he was furious, and he gave orders to kill all the boys in Bethlehem and its vicinity who were two years old and under, in accordance with the time he had learned from the Magi.

Matthew 2:17 Then what was said through the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled:

Matthew 2:18 “A voice is heard in Ramah, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because they are no more.”

Matthew 2:19 After Herod died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt

Matthew 2:20 and said, “Get up, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who were trying to take the child’s life are dead.”

Matthew 2:21 So he got up, took the child and his mother and went to the land of Israel.

Matthew 2:22 But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning in Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. Having been warned in a dream, he withdrew to the district of Galilee, Matthew 2:23 and he went and lived in a town called Nazareth. So was fulfilled what was said through the prophets: “He will be called a Nazarene.”

Matthew 3:1 In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the Desert of Judea

Matthew 3:2 and saying, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near.”

Matthew 3:3 This is he who was spoken of through the prophet Isaiah: “A voice of one calling in the desert,`Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight paths for him.’“

Matthew 3:4 John’s clothes were made of camel’s hair, and he had a leather belt round his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey.

Matthew 3:5 People went out to him from Jerusalem and all Judea and the whole region of the Jordan.

Matthew 3:6 Confessing their sins, they were baptised by him in the Jordan River.

Matthew 3:7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to where he was baptising, he said to them: “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?

Matthew 3:8 Produce fruit in keeping with repentance.

Matthew 3:9 And do not think you can say to yourselves,`We have Abraham as our father.’ I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham.

Matthew 3:10 The axe is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.

Matthew 3:11 “I baptise you with water for repentance. But after me will come one who is more powerful than I, whose sandals I am not fit to carry. He will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

Matthew 3:12 His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing-floor, gathering his wheat into the barn and burning up the chaff with unquenchable fire.”

Matthew 3:13 Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptised by John.

Matthew 3:14 But John tried to deter him, saying, “I need to be baptised by you, and do you come to me?”

Matthew 3:15 Jesus replied, “Let it be so now; it is proper for us to do this to fulfil all righteousness.” Then John consented.

Matthew 3:16 As soon as Jesus was baptised, he went up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and lighting on him.

Matthew 3:17 And a voice from heaven said, “This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased.”

Matthew 4:1 Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil.

Matthew 4:2 After fasting for forty days and forty nights, he was hungry.

Matthew 4:3 The tempter came to him and said, “If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread.”

Matthew 4:4 Jesus answered, “It is written:`Man does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.’“

Matthew 4:5 Then the devil took him to the holy city and had him stand on the highest point of the temple.

Matthew 4:6 “If you are the Son of God,” he said, “throw yourself down. For it is written: “`He will command his angels concerning you, and they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.’“

Matthew 4:7 Jesus answered him, “It is also written:`Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’“

Matthew 4:8 Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendour.

Matthew 4:9 “All this I will give you,” he said, “if you will bow down and worship me.”

Matthew 4:10 Jesus said to him, “Away from me, Satan! For it is written:`Worship the Lord your God, and serve him only.’“

Matthew 4:11 Then the devil left him, and angels came and attended him.

Matthew 4:12 When Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, he returned to Galilee.

Matthew 4:13 Leaving Nazareth, he went and lived in Capernaum, which was by the lake in the area of Zebulun and Naphtali—

Matthew 4:14 to fulfil what was said through the prophet Isaiah:

Matthew 4:15 “Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way to the sea, along the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles—

Matthew 4:16 the people living in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has dawned.”

Matthew 4:17 From that time on Jesus began to preach, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near.”

Matthew 4:18 As Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon called Peter and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen.

Matthew 4:19 “Come, follow me,” Jesus said, “and I will make you fishers of men.”

Matthew 4:20 At once they left their nets and followed him.

Matthew 4:21 Going on from there, he saw two other brothers,James son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee, preparing their nets. Jesus called them,

Matthew 4:22 and immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

Matthew 4:23 Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people.

Matthew 4:24 News about him spread all over Syria, and people brought to him all who were ill with various diseases, those suffering severe pain, the demon-possessed, those having seizures, and the paralysed, and he healed them.

Matthew 4:25 Large crowds from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea and the region across the Jordan followed him.

Matthew 5:1 Now when he saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him,

Matthew 5:2 and he began to teach them, saying:

Matthew 5:3 “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 5:4 Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Matthew 5:5 Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Matthew 5:6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Matthew 5:7 Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.

Matthew 5:8 Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Matthew 5:9 Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God.

Matthew 5:10 Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 5:11 “Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me.

Matthew 5:12 Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Matthew 5:13 “You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled by men.

Matthew 5:14 “You are the light of the world. A city on a hill cannot be hidden.

Matthew 5:15 Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house.

Matthew 5:16 In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven.

Matthew 5:17 “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfil them.

Matthew 5:18 I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished.

Matthew 5:19 Anyone who breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practises and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 5:20 For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 5:21 “You have heard that it was said to the people long ago,`Do not murder, and anyone who murders will be subject to judgment.’

Matthew 5:22 But I tell you that anyone who is angry with his brother will be subject to judgment. Again, anyone who says to his brother,`Raca,’ is answerable to the Sanhedrin. But anyone who says,`You fool!’ will be in danger of the fire of hell.

Matthew 5:23 “Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you,

Matthew 5:24 leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to your brother; then come and offer your gift.

Matthew 5:25 “Settle matters quickly with your adversary who is taking you to court. Do it while you are still with him on the way, or he may hand you over to the judge, and the judge may hand you over to the officer, and you may be thrown into prison.

Matthew 5:26 I tell you the truth, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny.

Matthew 5:27 “You have heard that it was said,`Do not commit adultery.’

Matthew 5:28 But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

Matthew 5:29 If your right eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell.

Matthew 5:30 And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to go into hell.

Matthew 5:31 "It has been said,`Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a certificate of divorce.'

Matthew 5:32 But I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for marital unfaithfulness, causes her to become an adulteress, and anyone who marries the divorced woman commits adultery.

Matthew 5:33 "Again, you have heard that it was said to the people long ago,`Do not break your oath, but keep the oaths you have made to the Lord.'

Matthew 5:34 But I tell you, Do not swear at all: either by heaven, for it is God's throne;

Matthew 5:35 or by the earth, for it is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the Great King.

Matthew 5:36 And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make even one hair white or black.

Matthew 5:37 Simply let your`Yes' be`Yes', and your`No',`No'; anything beyond this comes from the evil one.

Matthew 5:38 "You have heard that it was said,`Eye for eye, and tooth for tooth.'

Matthew 5:39 But I tell you, Do not resist an evil person. If someone strikes you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also.

Matthew 5:40 And if someone wants to sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well.

Matthew 5:41 If someone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles.

Matthew 5:42 Give to the one who asks you, and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.

Matthew 5:43 "You have heard that it was said,`Love your neighbour and hate your enemy.'

Matthew 5:44 But I tell you: Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you,

Matthew 5:45 that you may be sons of your Father in heaven. He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.

Matthew 5:46 If you love those who love you, what reward will you get? Are not even the tax collectors doing that?

Matthew 5:47 And if you greet only your brothers, what are you doing more than others? Do not even pagans do that?

Matthew 5:48 Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Matthew 6:1 “Be careful not to do your`acts of righteousness’ before men, to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven.

Matthew 6:2 “So when you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honoured by men. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full.

Matthew 6:3 But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing,

Matthew 6:4 so that your giving may be in secret. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

Matthew 6:5 “And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by men. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full.

Matthew 6:6 But when you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father, who is unseen. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

Matthew 6:7 And when you pray, do not keep on babbling like pagans, for they think they will be heard because of their many words.

Matthew 6:8 Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

Matthew 6:9 “This, then, is how you should pray: “`Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,

Matthew 6:10 your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Matthew 6:11 Give us today our daily bread.

Matthew 6:12 Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.

Matthew 6:13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.’

Matthew 6:14 For if you forgive men when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

Matthew 6:15 But if you do not forgive men their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins.

Matthew 6:16 “When you fast, do not look sombre as the hypocrites do, for they disfigure their faces to show men they are fasting. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full.

Matthew 6:17 But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face,

Matthew 6:18 so that it will not be obvious to men that you are fasting, but only to your Father, who is unseen; and your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

Matthew 6:19 “Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal.

Matthew 6:20 But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal.

Matthew 6:21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Matthew 6:22 “The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eyes are good, your whole body will be full of light.

Matthew 6:23 But if your eyes are bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

Matthew 6:24 “No-one can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and Money.

Matthew 6:25 “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more important than food, and the body more important than clothes?

Matthew 6:26 Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they?

Matthew 6:27 Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life?

Matthew 6:28 “And why do you worry about clothes? See how the lilies of the field grow. They do not labour or spin.

Matthew 6:29 Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendour was dressed like one of these.

Matthew 6:30 If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith?

Matthew 6:31 So do not worry, saying,`What shall we eat?’ or`What shall we drink?’ or`What shall we wear?’

Matthew 6:32 For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them.

Matthew 6:33 But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

Matthew 6:34 Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Matthew 7:1 “Do not judge, or you too will be judged.

Matthew 7:2 For in the same way as you judge others, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.

Matthew 7:3 “Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother’s eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye?

Matthew 7:4 How can you say to your brother,`Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ when all the time there is a plank in your own eye?

Matthew 7:5 You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother’s eye.

Matthew 7:6 “Do not give dogs what is sacred; do not throw your pearls to pigs. If you do, they may trample them under their feet, and then turn and tear you to pieces.

Matthew 7:7 “Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.

Matthew 7:8 For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will be opened.

Matthew 7:9 “Which of you, if his son asks for bread, will give him a stone?

Matthew 7:10 Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake?

Matthew 7:11 If you, then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good gifts to those who ask him!

Matthew 7:12 So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets.

Matthew 7:13 “Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it.

Matthew 7:14 But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.

Matthew 7:15 “Watch out for false prophets. They come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ferocious wolves.

Matthew 7:16 By their fruit you will recognise them. Do people pick grapes from thornbushes, or figs from thistles?

Matthew 7:17 Likewise every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit.

Matthew 7:18 A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit.

Matthew 7:19 Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

Matthew 7:20 Thus, by their fruit you will recognise them.

Matthew 7:21 “Not everyone who says to me,`Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

Matthew 7:22 Many will say to me on that day,`Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?’

Matthew 7:23 Then I will tell them plainly,`I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!’

Matthew 7:24 “Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock.

Matthew 7:25 The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had its foundation on the rock.

Matthew 7:26 But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand.

Matthew 7:27 The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell with a great crash.”

Matthew 7:28 When Jesus had finished saying these things, the crowds were amazed at his teaching,

Matthew 7:29 because he taught as one who had authority, and not as their teachers of the law.

Matthew 8:1 When he came down from the mountainside, large crowds followed him.

Matthew 8:2 A man with leprosy came and knelt before him and said, “Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean.”

Matthew 8:3 Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. “I am willing,” he said. “Be clean!” Immediately he was cured of his leprosy.

Matthew 8:4 Then Jesus said to him, “See that you don’t tell anyone. But go, show yourself to the priest and offer the gift Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.”

Matthew 8:5 When Jesus had entered Capernaum, a centurion came to him, asking for help.

Matthew 8:6 “Lord,” he said, “my servant lies at home paralysed and in terrible suffering.”

Matthew 8:7 Jesus said to him, “I will go and heal him.”

Matthew 8:8 The centurion replied, “Lord, I do not deserve to have you come under my roof. But just say the word, and my servant will be healed.

Matthew 8:9 For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell this one,`Go,' and he goes; and that one,`Come,' and he comes. I say to my servant,`Do this,' and he does it."

Matthew 8:10 When Jesus heard this, he was astonished and said to those following him, "I tell you the truth, I have not found anyone in Israel with such great faith.

Matthew 8:11 I say to you that many will come from the east and the west, and will take their places at the feast with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 8:12 But the subjects of the kingdom will be thrown outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

Matthew 8:13 Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go! It will be done just as you believed it would." And his servant was healed at that very hour.

Matthew 8:14 When Jesus came into Peter's house, he saw Peter's mother-in-law lying in bed with a fever.

Matthew 8:15 He touched her hand and the fever left her, and she got up and began to wait on him.

Matthew 8:16 When evening came, many who were demon-possessed were brought to him, and he drove out the spirits with a word and healed all the sick.

Matthew 8:17 This was to fulfil what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah: "He took up our infirmities and carried our diseases."

Matthew 8:18 When Jesus saw the crowd around him, he gave orders to cross to the other side of the lake.

Matthew 8:19 Then a teacher of the law came to him and said, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

Matthew 8:20 Jesus replied, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."

Matthew 8:21 Another disciple said to him, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father."

Matthew 8:22 But Jesus told him, "Follow me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

Matthew 8:23 Then he got into the boat and his disciples followed him.

Matthew 8:24 Without warning, a furious storm came up on the lake, so that the waves swept over the boat. But Jesus was sleeping.

Matthew 8:25 The disciples went and woke him, saying, "Lord, save us! We're going to drown!"

Matthew 8:26 He replied, “You of little faith, why are you so afraid?” Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the waves, and it was completely calm.

Matthew 8:27 The men were amazed and asked, “What kind of man is this? Even the winds and the waves obey him!”

Matthew 8:28 When he arrived at the other side in the region of the Gadarenes, two demon-possessed men coming from the tombs met him. They were so violent that no-one could pass that way.

Matthew 8:29 “What do you want with us, Son of God?” they shouted. “Have you come here to torture us before the appointed time?”

Matthew 8:30 Some distance from them a large herd of pigs was feeding.

Matthew 8:31 The demons begged Jesus, “If you drive us out, send us into the herd of pigs.”

Matthew 8:32 He said to them, “Go!” So they came out and went into the pigs, and the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and died in the water.

Matthew 8:33 Those tending the pigs ran off, went into the town and reported all this, including what had happened to the demon-possessed men.

Matthew 8:34 Then the whole town went out to meet Jesus. And when they saw him, they pleaded with him to leave their region.

Matthew 9:1 Jesus stepped into a boat, crossed over and came to his own town.

Matthew 9:2 Some men brought to him a paralytic, lying on a mat. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, “Take heart, son; your sins are forgiven.”

Matthew 9:3 At this, some of the teachers of the law said to themselves, “This fellow is blaspheming!”

Matthew 9:4 Knowing their thoughts, Jesus said, “Why do you entertain evil thoughts in your hearts?

Matthew 9:5 Which is easier: to say,`Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say,`Get up and walk’?

Matthew 9:6 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins....” Then he said to the paralytic, “Get up, take your mat and go home.”

Matthew 9:7 And the man got up and went home.

Matthew 9:8 When the crowd saw this, they were filled with awe; and they praised God, who had given such authority to men.

Matthew 9:9 As Jesus went on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collector’s booth. “Follow me,” he told him, and Matthew got up and followed him.

Matthew 9:10 While Jesus was having dinner at Matthew’s house, many tax collectors and “sinners” came and ate with him and his disciples.

Matthew 9:11 When the Pharisees saw this, they asked his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and`sinners’?”

Matthew 9:12 On hearing this, Jesus said, “It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick.

Matthew 9:13 But go and learn what this means:`I desire mercy, not sacrifice.’ For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners.”

Matthew 9:14 Then John’s disciples came and asked him, “How is it that we and the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?”

Matthew 9:15 Jesus answered, “How can the guests of the bridegroom mourn while he is with them? The time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them; then they will fast.

Matthew 9:16 “No-one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch will pull away from the garment, making the tear worse.

Matthew 9:17 Neither do men pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins will burst, the wine will run out and the wineskins will be ruined. No, they pour new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved.”

Matthew 9:18 While he was saying this, a ruler came and knelt before him and said, “My daughter has just died. But come and put your hand on her, and she will live.”

Matthew 9:19 Jesus got up and went with him, and so did his disciples.

Matthew 9:20 Just then a woman who had been subject to bleeding for twelve years came up behind him and touched the edge of his cloak.

Matthew 9:21 She said to herself, “If I only touch his cloak, I will be healed.”

Matthew 9:22 Jesus turned and saw her. “Take heart, daughter,” he said, “your faith has healed you.” And the woman was healed from that moment.

Matthew 9:23 When Jesus entered the ruler’s house and saw the flute players and the noisy crowd,

Matthew 9:24 he said, “Go away. The girl is not dead but asleep.” But they laughed at him.

Matthew 9:25 After the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took the girl by the hand, and she got up.

Matthew 9:26 News of this spread through all that region.

Matthew 9:27 As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed him, calling out, “Have mercy on us, Son of David!”

Matthew 9:28 When he had gone indoors, the blind men came to him, and he asked them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” “Yes, Lord,” they replied.

Matthew 9:29 Then he touched their eyes and said, “According to your faith will it be done to you”;

Matthew 9:30 and their sight was restored. Jesus warned them sternly, “See that no-one knows about this.”

Matthew 9:31 But they went out and spread the news about him all over that region.

Matthew 9:32 While they were going out, a man who was demon-possessed and could not talk was brought to Jesus.

Matthew 9:33 And when the demon was driven out, the man who had been mute spoke. The crowd was amazed and said, “Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel.”

Matthew 9:34 But the Pharisees said, “It is by the prince of demons that he drives out demons.”

Matthew 9:35 Jesus went through all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the good news of the kingdom and healing every disease and sickness.

Matthew 9:36 When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

Matthew 9:37 Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few.

Matthew 9:38 Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.”

Matthew 10:1 He called his twelve disciples to him and gave them authority to drive out evil spirits and to heal every disease and sickness.

Matthew 10:2 These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon (who is called Peter) and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John;

Matthew 10:3 Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus;

Matthew 10:4 Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

Matthew 10:5 These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: “Do not go among the Gentiles or enter any town of the Samaritans.

Matthew 10:6 Go rather to the lost sheep of Israel.

Matthew 10:7 As you go, preach this message:`The kingdom of heaven is near.’

Matthew 10:8 Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those who have leprosy, drive out demons. Freely you have received, freely give.

Matthew 10:9 Do not take along any gold or silver or copper in your belts;

Matthew 10:10 take no bag for the journey, or extra tunic, or sandals or a staff; for the worker is worth his keep.

Matthew 10:11 “Whatever town or village you enter, search for some worthy person there and stay at his house until you leave.

Matthew 10:12 As you enter the home, give it your greeting.

Matthew 10:13 If the home is deserving, let your peace rest on it; if it is not, let your peace return to you.

Matthew 10:14 If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake the dust off your feet when you leave that home or town.

Matthew 10:15 I tell you the truth, it will be more bearable for Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town.

Matthew 10:16 I am sending you out like sheep among wolves. Therefore be as shrewd as snakes and as innocent as doves.

Matthew 10:17 “Be on your guard against men; they will hand you over to the local councils and flog you in their synagogues.

Matthew 10:18 On my account you will be brought before governors and kings as witnesses to them and to the Gentiles.

Matthew 10:19 But when they arrest you, do not worry about what to say or how to say it. At that time you will be given what to say,

Matthew 10:20 for it will not be you speaking, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

Matthew 10:21 “Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; children will rebel against their parents and have them put to death.

Matthew 10:22 All men will hate you because of me, but he who stands firm to the end will be saved.

Matthew 10:23 When you are persecuted in one place, flee to another. I tell you the truth, you will not finish going through the cities of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

Matthew 10:24 “A student is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master.

Matthew 10:25 It is enough for the student to be like his teacher, and the servant like his master. If the head of the house has been called Beelzebub, how much more the members of his household!

Matthew 10:26 “So do not be afraid of them. There is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, or hidden that will not be made known.

Matthew 10:27 What I tell you in the dark, speak in the daylight; what is whispered in your ear, proclaim from the roofs.

Matthew 10:28 Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather, be afraid of the One who can destroy both soul and body in hell.

Matthew 10:29 Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from the will of your Father.

Matthew 10:30 And even the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

Matthew 10:31 So don't be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.

Matthew 10:32 "Whoever acknowledges me before men, I will also acknowledge him before my Father in heaven.

Matthew 10:33 But whoever disowns me before men, I will disown him before my Father in heaven.

Matthew 10:34 "Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword.

Matthew 10:35 For I have come to turn "`a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law—

Matthew 10:36 a man's enemies will be the members of his own household.'

Matthew 10:37 "Anyone who loves his father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves his son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me;

Matthew 10:38 and anyone who does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me.

Matthew 10:39 Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

Matthew 10:40 "He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives the one who sent me.

Matthew 10:41 Anyone who receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and anyone who receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward.

Matthew 10:42 And if anyone gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is my disciple, I tell you the truth, he will certainly not lose his reward."

Matthew 11:1 After Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples, he went on from there to teach and preach in the towns of Galilee.

Matthew 11:2 When John heard in prison what Christ was doing, he sent his disciples

Matthew 11:3 to ask him, “Are you the one who was to come, or should we expect someone else?”

Matthew 11:4 Jesus replied, “Go back and report to John what you hear and see:

Matthew 11:5 The blind receive sight, the lame walk, those who have leprosy are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is preached to the poor.

Matthew 11:6 Blessed is the man who does not fall away on account of me.”

Matthew 11:7 As John’s disciples were leaving, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John: “What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind?

Matthew 11:8 If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? No, those who wear fine clothes are in kings’ palaces.

Matthew 11:9 Then what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet.

Matthew 11:10 This is the one about whom it is written: “`I will send my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.’

Matthew 11:11 I tell you the truth: Among those born of women there has not risen anyone greater than John the Baptist; yet he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

Matthew 11:12 From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven has been forcefully advancing, and forceful men lay hold of it.

Matthew 11:13 For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John.

Matthew 11:14 And if you are willing to accept it, he is the Elijah who was to come.

Matthew 11:15 He who has ears, let him hear.

Matthew 11:16 “To what can I compare this generation? They are like children sitting in the market-places and calling out to others:

Matthew 11:17 “`We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we sang a dirge, and you did not mourn.’

Matthew 11:18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say,`He has a demon.’

Matthew 11:19 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say,`Here is a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and “sinners”.’ But wisdom is proved right by her actions.”

Matthew 11:20 Then Jesus began to denounce the cities in which most of his miracles had been performed, because they did not repent.

Matthew 11:21 “Woe to you, Korazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

Matthew 11:22 But I tell you, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you.

Matthew 11:23 And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted up to the skies? No, you will go down to the depths. If the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Sodom, it would have remained to this day.

Matthew 11:24 But I tell you that it will be more bearable for Sodom on the day of judgment than for you.”

Matthew 11:25 At that time Jesus said, “I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children.

Matthew 11:26 Yes, Father, for this was your good pleasure.

Matthew 11:27 “All things have been committed to me by my Father. No-one knows the Son except the Father, and no-one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

Matthew 11:28 “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.

Matthew 11:29 Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

Matthew 11:30 For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”

Matthew 12:1 At that time Jesus went through the cornfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry and began to pick some ears of corn and eat them.

Matthew 12:2 When the Pharisees saw this, they said to him, “Look! Your disciples are doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath.”

Matthew 12:3 He answered, “Haven’t you read what David did when he and his companions were hungry?

Matthew 12:4 He entered the house of God, and he and his companions ate the consecrated bread—which was not lawful for them to do, but only for the priests.

Matthew 12:5 Or haven’t you read in the Law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple desecrate the day and yet are innocent?

Matthew 12:6 I tell you that one greater than the temple is here.

Matthew 12:7 If you had known what these words mean,`I desire mercy, not sacrifice,’ you would not have condemned the innocent.

Matthew 12:8 For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

Matthew 12:9 Going on from that place, he went into their synagogue, Matthew 12:10 and a man with a shrivelled hand was there. Looking for a reason to accuse Jesus, they asked him, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?”

Matthew 12:11 He said to them, “If any of you has a sheep and it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will you not take hold of it and lift it out?

Matthew 12:12 How much more valuable is a man than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.”

Matthew 12:13 Then he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” So he stretched it out and it was completely restored, just as sound as the other.

Matthew 12:14 But the Pharisees went out and plotted how they might kill Jesus.

Matthew 12:15 Aware of this, Jesus withdrew from that place. Many followed him, and he healed all their sick,

Matthew 12:16 warning them not to tell who he was.

Matthew 12:17 This was to fulfil what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

Matthew 12:18 “Here is my servant whom I have chosen, the one I love, in whom I delight; I will put my Spirit on him, and he will proclaim justice to the nations.

Matthew 12:19 He will not quarrel or cry out; no-one will hear his voice in the streets.

Matthew 12:20 A bruised reed he will not break, and a smouldering wick he will not snuff out, till he leads justice to victory.

Matthew 12:21 In his name the nations will put their hope.”

Matthew 12:22 Then they brought him a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute, and Jesus healed him, so that he could both talk and see.

Matthew 12:23 All the people were astonished and said, “Could this be the Son of David?”

Matthew 12:24 But when the Pharisees heard this, they said, “It is only by Beelzebub, the prince of demons, that this fellow drives out demons.”

Matthew 12:25 Jesus knew their thoughts and said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself will be ruined, and every city or household divided against itself will not stand.

Matthew 12:26 If Satan drives out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then can his kingdom stand?

Matthew 12:27 And if I drive out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your people drive them out? So then, they will be your judges.

Matthew 12:28 But if I drive out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

Matthew 12:29 “Or again, how can anyone enter a strong man’s house and carry off his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he can rob his house.

Matthew 12:30 “He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters.

Matthew 12:31 And so I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven.

Matthew 12:32 Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come.

Matthew 12:33 “Make a tree good and its fruit will be good, or make a tree bad and its fruit will be bad, for a tree is recognised by its fruit.

Matthew 12:34 You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks.

Matthew 12:35 The good man brings good things out of the good stored up in him, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in him.

Matthew 12:36 But I tell you that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken.

Matthew 12:37 For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned.”

Matthew 12:38 Then some of the Pharisees and teachers of the law said to him, “Teacher, we want to see a miraculous sign from you.”

Matthew 12:39 He answered, “A wicked and adulterous generation asks for a miraculous sign! But none will be given it except the sign of the prophet Jonah.

Matthew 12:40 For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of a huge fish, so the Son of Man will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

Matthew 12:41 The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and now one greater than Jonah is here.

Matthew 12:42 The Queen of the South will rise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for she came from the ends of the earth to listen to Solomon’s wisdom, and now one greater than Solomon is here.

Matthew 12:43 “When an evil spirit comes out of a man, it goes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it.

Matthew 12:44 Then it says,`I will return to the house I left.’ When it arrives, it finds the house unoccupied, swept clean and put in order.

Matthew 12:45 Then it goes and takes with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the final condition of that man is worse than the first. That is how it will be with this wicked generation.”

Matthew 12:46 While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to him.

Matthew 12:47 Someone told him, “Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you.”

Matthew 12:48 He replied to him, “Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?”

Matthew 12:49 Pointing to his disciples, he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers.

Matthew 12:50 For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother.”

Matthew 13:1 That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the lake.

Matthew 13:2 Such large crowds gathered round him that he got into a boat and sat in it, while all the people stood on the shore.

Matthew 13:3 Then he told them many things in parables, saying: “A farmer went out to sow his seed.

Matthew 13:4 As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up.

Matthew 13:5 Some fell on rocky places, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow.

Matthew 13:6 But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root.

Matthew 13:7 Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants.

Matthew 13:8 Still other seed fell on good soil, where it produced a crop—a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown.

Matthew 13:9 He who has ears, let him hear.”

Matthew 13:10 The disciples came to him and asked, “Why do you speak to the people in parables?”

Matthew 13:11 He replied, “The knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you, but not to them.

Matthew 13:12 Whoever has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him.

Matthew 13:13 This is why I speak to them in parables: “Though seeing, they do not see; though hearing, they do not hear or understand.

Matthew 13:14 In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah: “`You will be ever hearing but never understanding; you will be ever seeing but never perceiving.

Matthew 13:15 For this people’s heart has become calloused; they hardly hear with their ears, and they have closed their eyes. Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts and turn, and I would heal them.’

Matthew 13:16 But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear.

Matthew 13:17 For I tell you the truth, many prophets and righteous men longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.

Matthew 13:18 “Listen then to what the parable of the sower means:

Matthew 13:19 When anyone hears the message about the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is the seed sown along the path.

Matthew 13:20 The one who received the seed that fell on rocky places is the man who hears the word and at once receives it with joy.

Matthew 13:21 But since he has no root, he lasts only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, he quickly falls away.

Matthew 13:22 The one who received the seed that fell among the thorns is the man who hears the word, but the worries of this life and the deceitfulness of wealth choke it, making it unfruitful.

Matthew 13:23 But the one who received the seed that fell on good soil is the man who hears the word and understands it. He produces a crop, yielding a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown.”

Matthew 13:24 Jesus told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field.

Matthew 13:25 But while everyone was sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and went away.

Matthew 13:26 When the wheat sprouted and formed ears, then the weeds also appeared.

Matthew 13:27 “The owner’s servants came to him and said,`Sir, didn’t you sow good seed in your field? Where then did the weeds come from?’

Matthew 13:28 “`An enemy did this,’ he replied. “The servants asked him,`Do you want us to go and pull them up?’

Matthew 13:29 “`No,’ he answered,`because while you are pulling the weeds, you may root up the wheat with them.

Matthew 13:30 Let both grow together until the harvest. At that time I will tell the harvesters: First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned; then gather the wheat and bring it into my barn.’“

Matthew 13:31 He told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his field.

Matthew 13:32 Though it is the smallest of all your seeds, yet when it grows, it is the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and perch in its branches.”

Matthew 13:33 He told them still another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed into a large amount of flour until it worked all through the dough.”

Matthew 13:34 Jesus spoke all these things to the crowd in parables; he did not say anything to them without using a parable.

Matthew 13:35 So was fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet: “I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things hidden since the creation of the world.”

Matthew 13:36 Then he left the crowd and went into the house. His disciples came to him and said, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field.”

Matthew 13:37 He answered, “The one who sowed the good seed is the Son of Man.

Matthew 13:38 The field is the world, and the good seed stands for the sons of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one,

Matthew 13:39 and the enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels.

Matthew 13:40 “As the weeds are pulled up and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the age.

Matthew 13:41 The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will weed out of his kingdom everything that causes sin and all who do evil.

Matthew 13:42 They will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Matthew 13:43 Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear.

Matthew 13:44 “The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field.

Matthew 13:45 “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls.

Matthew 13:46 When he found one of great value, he went away and sold everything he had and bought it.

Matthew 13:47 “Once again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was let down into the lake and caught all kinds of fish.

Matthew 13:48 When it was full, the fishermen pulled it up on the shore. Then they sat down and collected the good fish in baskets, but threw the bad away.

Matthew 13:49 This is how it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come and separate the wicked from the righteous

Matthew 13:50 and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Matthew 13:51 “Have you understood all these things?” Jesus asked. “Yes,” they replied.

Matthew 13:52 He said to them, “Therefore every teacher of the law who has been instructed about the kingdom of heaven is like the owner of a house who brings out of his storeroom new treasures as well as old.”

Matthew 13:53 When Jesus had finished these parables, he moved on from there.

Matthew 13:54 Coming to his home town, he began teaching the people in their synagogue, and they were amazed. “Where did this man get this wisdom and these miraculous powers?” they asked.

Matthew 13:55 “Isn’t this the carpenter’s son? Isn’t his mother’s name Mary, and aren’t his brothers James, Joseph, Simon and Judas?

Matthew 13:56 Aren’t all his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all these things?”

Matthew 13:57 And they took offence at him. But Jesus said to them, “Only in his home town and in his own house is a prophet without honour.”

Matthew 13:58 And he did not do many miracles there because of their lack of faith.

Matthew 14:1 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the reports about Jesus,

Matthew 14:2 and he said to his attendants, “This is John the Baptist; he has risen from the dead! That is why miraculous powers are at work in him.”

Matthew 14:3 Now Herod had arrested John and bound him and put him in prison because of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife,

Matthew 14:4 for John had been saying to him: “It is not lawful for you to have her.”

Matthew 14:5 Herod wanted to kill John, but he was afraid of the people, because they considered him a prophet.

Matthew 14:6 On Herod’s birthday the daughter of Herodias danced for them and pleased Herod so much

Matthew 14:7 that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked.

Matthew 14:8 Prompted by her mother, she said, “Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist.”

Matthew 14:9 The king was distressed, but because of his oaths and his dinner guests, he ordered that her request be granted

Matthew 14:10 and had John beheaded in the prison.

Matthew 14:11 His head was brought in on a platter and given to the girl, who carried it to her mother.

Matthew 14:12 John's disciples came and took his body and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus.

Matthew 14:13 When Jesus heard what had happened, he withdrew by boat privately to a solitary place. Hearing of this, the crowds followed him on foot from the towns.

Matthew 14:14 When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them and healed their sick.

Matthew 14:15 As evening approached, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a remote place, and it's already getting late. Send the crowds away, so that they can go to the villages and buy themselves some food."

Matthew 14:16 Jesus replied, "They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat."

Matthew 14:17 "We have here only five loaves of bread and two fish," they answered.

Matthew 14:18 "Bring them here to me," he said.

Matthew 14:19 And he directed the people to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke the loaves. Then he gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people.

Matthew 14:20 They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.

Matthew 14:21 The number of those who ate was about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Matthew 14:22 Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowd.

Matthew 14:23 After he had dismissed them, he went up on a mountainside by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone,

Matthew 14:24 but the boat was already a considerable distance from land, buffeted by the waves because the wind was against it.

Matthew 14:25 During the fourth watch of the night Jesus went out to them, walking on the lake.

Matthew 14:26 When the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified. "It's a ghost," they said, and cried out in fear.

Matthew 14:27 But Jesus immediately said to them: "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid."

Matthew 14:28 “Lord, if it’s you,” Peter replied, “tell me to come to you on the water.”

Matthew 14:29 “Come,” he said. Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water and came towards Jesus.

Matthew 14:30 But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, “Lord, save me!”

Matthew 14:31 Immediately Jesus reached out his hand and caught him. “You of little faith,” he said, “why did you doubt?”

Matthew 14:32 And when they climbed into the boat, the wind died down.

Matthew 14:33 Then those who were in the boat worshipped him, saying, “Truly you are the Son of God.”

Matthew 14:34 When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret.

Matthew 14:35 And when the men of that place recognised Jesus, they sent word to all the surrounding country. People brought all their sick to him

Matthew 14:36 and begged him to let the sick just touch the edge of his cloak, and all who touched him were healed.

Matthew 15:1 Then some Pharisees and teachers of the law came to Jesus from Jerusalem and asked,

Matthew 15:2 “Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders? They don’t wash their hands before they eat!”

Matthew 15:3 Jesus replied, “And why do you break the command of God for the sake of your tradition?

Matthew 15:4 For God said,`Honour your father and mother’ and`Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.’

Matthew 15:5 But you say that if a man says to his father or mother,`Whatever help you might otherwise have received from me is a gift devoted to God,’

Matthew 15:6 he is not to`honour his father’ with it. Thus you nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition.

Matthew 15:7 You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you:

Matthew 15:8 “`These people honour me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

Matthew 15:9 They worship me in vain; their teachings are but rules taught by men.’“

Matthew 15:10 Jesus called the crowd to him and said, “Listen and understand.

Matthew 15:11 What goes into a man’s mouth does not make him`unclean’, but what comes out of his mouth, that is what makes him`unclean’.”

Matthew 15:12 Then the disciples came to him and asked, “Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this?”

Matthew 15:13 He replied, “Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be pulled up by the roots.

Matthew 15:14 Leave them; they are blind guides. If a blind man leads a blind man, both will fall into a pit.”

Matthew 15:15 Peter said, “Explain the parable to us.”

Matthew 15:16 “Are you still so dull?” Jesus asked them.

Matthew 15:17 “Don’t you see that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and then out of the body?

Matthew 15:18 But the things that come out of the mouth come from the heart, and these make a man`unclean’.

Matthew 15:19 For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false testimony, slander.

Matthew 15:20 These are what make a man`unclean’; but eating with unwashed hands does not make him`unclean’.”

Matthew 15:21 Leaving that place, Jesus withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon.

Matthew 15:22 A Canaanite woman from that vicinity came to him, crying out, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on me! My daughter is suffering terribly from demon-possession.”

Matthew 15:23 Jesus did not answer a word. So his disciples came to him and urged him, “Send her away, for she keeps crying out after us.”

Matthew 15:24 He answered, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of Israel.”

Matthew 15:25 The woman came and knelt before him. “Lord, help me!” she said.

Matthew 15:26 He replied, “It is not right to take the children’s bread and toss it to their dogs.”

Matthew 15:27 “Yes, Lord,” she said, “but even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters’ table.”

Matthew 15:28 Then Jesus answered, “Woman, you have great faith! Your request is granted.” And her daughter was healed from that very hour.

Matthew 15:29 Jesus left there and went along the Sea of Galilee. Then he went up on a mountainside and sat down.

Matthew 15:30 Great crowds came to him, bringing the lame, the blind, the crippled, the mute and many others, and laid them at his feet; and he healed them.

Matthew 15:31 The people were amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled made well, the lame walking and the blind seeing. And they praised the God of Israel.

Matthew 15:32 Jesus called his disciples to him and said, “I have compassion for these people; they have already been with me three days and have nothing to eat. I do not want to send them away hungry, or they may collapse on the way.”

Matthew 15:33 His disciples answered, “Where could we get enough bread in this remote place to feed such a crowd?”

Matthew 15:34 “How many loaves do you have?” Jesus asked. “Seven,” they replied, “and a few small fish.”

Matthew 15:35 He told the crowd to sit down on the ground.

Matthew 15:36 Then he took the seven loaves and the fish, and when he had given thanks, he broke them and gave them to the disciples, and they in turn to the people.

Matthew 15:37 They all ate and were satisfied. Afterwards the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.

Matthew 15:38 The number of those who ate was four thousand, besides women and children.

Matthew 15:39 After Jesus had sent the crowd away, he got into the boat and went to the vicinity of Magadan.

Matthew 16:1 The Pharisees and Sadducees came to Jesus and tested him by asking him to show them a sign from heaven.

Matthew 16:2 He replied, “When evening comes, you say,`It will be fair weather, for the sky is red,’

Matthew 16:3 and in the morning,`Today it will be stormy, for the sky is red and overcast.’ You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times.

Matthew 16:4 A wicked and adulterous generation looks for a miraculous sign, but none will be given it except the sign of Jonah.” Jesus then left them and went away.

Matthew 16:5 When they went across the lake, the disciples forgot to take bread.

Matthew 16:6 “Be careful,” Jesus said to them. “Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

Matthew 16:7 They discussed this among themselves and said, “It is because we didn’t bring any bread.”

Matthew 16:8 Aware of their discussion, Jesus asked, “You of little faith, why are you talking among yourselves about having no bread?

Matthew 16:9 Do you still not understand? Don't you remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many basketfuls you gathered?

Matthew 16:10 Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many basketfuls you gathered?

Matthew 16:11 How is it you don't understand that I was not talking to you about bread? But be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

Matthew 16:12 Then they understood that he was not telling them to guard against the yeast used in bread, but against the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Matthew 16:13 When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say the Son of Man is?"

Matthew 16:14 They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

Matthew 16:15 "But what about you?" he asked. "Who do you say I am?"

Matthew 16:16 Simon Peter answered, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

Matthew 16:17 Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by man, but by my Father in heaven.

Matthew 16:18 And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not overcome it.

Matthew 16:19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven."

Matthew 16:20 Then he warned his disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Christ.

Matthew 16:21 From that time on Jesus began to explain to his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things at the hands of the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and on the third day be raised to life.

Matthew 16:22 Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. "Never, Lord!" he said. "This shall never happen to you!"

Matthew 16:23 Jesus turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling-block to me; you do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men."

Matthew 16:24 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.

Matthew 16:25 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me will find it.

Matthew 16:26 What good will it be for a man if he gains the whole world, yet forfeits his soul? Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul?

Matthew 16:27 For the Son of Man is going to come in his Father’s glory with his angels, and then he will reward each person according to what he has done.

Matthew 16:28 I tell you the truth, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.”

Matthew 17:1 After six days Jesus took with him Peter, James and John the brother of James, and led them up a high mountain by themselves.

Matthew 17:2 There he was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as the light.

Matthew 17:3 Just then there appeared before them Moses and Elijah, talking with Jesus.

Matthew 17:4 Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you wish, I will put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.”

Matthew 17:5 While he was still speaking, a bright cloud enveloped them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased. Listen to him!”

Matthew 17:6 When the disciples heard this, they fell face down to the ground, terrified.

Matthew 17:7 But Jesus came and touched them. “Get up,” he said. “Don’t be afraid.”

Matthew 17:8 When they looked up, they saw no-one except Jesus.

Matthew 17:9 As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, “Don’t tell anyone what you have seen, until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

Matthew 17:10 The disciples asked him, “Why then do the teachers of the law say that Elijah must come first?”

Matthew 17:11 Jesus replied, “To be sure, Elijah comes and will restore all things.

Matthew 17:12 But I tell you, Elijah has already come, and they did not recognise him, but have done to him everything they wished. In the same way the Son of Man is going to suffer at their hands.”

Matthew 17:13 Then the disciples understood that he was talking to them about John the Baptist.

Matthew 17:14 When they came to the crowd, a man approached Jesus and knelt before him.

Matthew 17:15 “Lord, have mercy on my son,” he said. “He has seizures and is suffering greatly. He often falls into the fire or into the water.

Matthew 17:16 I brought him to your disciples, but they could not heal him.”

Matthew 17:17 “O unbelieving and perverse generation,” Jesus replied, “how long shall I stay with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring the boy here to me.”

Matthew 17:18 Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of the boy, and he was healed from that moment.

Matthew 17:19 Then the disciples came to Jesus in private and asked, “Why couldn’t we drive it out?”

Matthew 17:20 He replied, “Because you have so little faith. I tell you the truth, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain,`Move from here to there’ and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you.”

Matthew 17:21

Matthew 17:22 When they came together in Galilee, he said to them, “The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men.

Matthew 17:23 They will kill him, and on the third day he will be raised to life.” And the disciples were filled with grief.

Matthew 17:24 After Jesus and his disciples arrived in Capernaum, the collectors of the two-drachma tax came to Peter and asked, “Doesn’t your teacher pay the temple tax?”

Matthew 17:25 “Yes, he does,” he replied. When Peter came into the house, Jesus was the first to speak. “What do you think, Simon?” he asked. “From whom do the kings of the earth collect duty and taxes—from their own sons or from others?”

Matthew 17:26 “From others,” Peter answered. “Then the sons are exempt,” Jesus said to him.

Matthew 17:27 “But so that we may not offend them, go to the lake and throw out your line. Take the first fish you catch; open its mouth and you will find a four-drachma coin. Take it and give it to them for my tax and yours.”

Matthew 18:1 At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?”

Matthew 18:2 He called a little child and had him stand among them.

Matthew 18:3 And he said: “I tell you the truth, unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 18:4 Therefore, whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 18:5 “And whoever welcomes a little child like this in my name welcomes me.

Matthew 18:6 But if anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a large millstone hung around his neck and to be drowned in the depths of the sea.

Matthew 18:7 “Woe to the world because of the things that cause people to sin! Such things must come, but woe to the man through whom they come!

Matthew 18:8 If your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life maimed or crippled than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into eternal fire.

Matthew 18:9 And if your eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fire of hell.

Matthew 18:10 “See that you do not look down on one of these little ones. For I tell you that their angels in heaven always see the face of my Father in heaven.

Matthew 18:11

Matthew 18:12 “What do you think? If a man owns a hundred sheep, and one of them wanders away, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hills and go to look for the one that wandered off?

Matthew 18:13 And if he finds it, I tell you the truth, he is happier about that one sheep than about the ninety-nine that did not wander off.

Matthew 18:14 In the same way your Father in heaven is not willing that any of these little ones should be lost.

Matthew 18:15 “If your brother sins against you, go and show him his fault, just between the two of you. If he listens to you, you have won your brother over.

Matthew 18:16 But if he will not listen, take one or two others along, so that`every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.’

Matthew 18:17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if he refuses to listen even to the church, treat him as you would a pagan or a tax collector.

Matthew 18:18 “I tell you the truth, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

Matthew 18:19 “Again, I tell you that if two of you on earth agree about anything you ask for, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven.

Matthew 18:20 For where two or three come together in my name, there am I with them.”

Matthew 18:21 Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, “Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother when he sins against me? Up to seven times?”

Matthew 18:22 Jesus answered, “I tell you, not seven times, but seventy-seven times.

Matthew 18:23 “Therefore, the kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants.

Matthew 18:24 As he began the settlement, a man who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him.

Matthew 18:25 Since he was not able to pay, the master ordered that he and his wife and his children and all that he had be sold to repay the debt.

Matthew 18:26 “The servant fell on his knees before him.`Be patient with me,’ he begged,`and I will pay back everything.’

Matthew 18:27 The servant’s master took pity on him, cancelled the debt and let him go.

Matthew 18:28 “But when that servant went out, he found one of his fellow-servants who owed him a hundred denarii. He grabbed him and began to choke him.`Pay back what you owe me!’ he demanded.

Matthew 18:29 “His fellow-servant fell to his knees and begged him,`Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.’

Matthew 18:30 “But he refused. Instead, he went off and had the man thrown into prison until he could pay the debt.

Matthew 18:31 When the other servants saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed and went and told their master everything that had happened.

Matthew 18:32 “Then the master called the servant in.`You wicked servant,’ he said,`I cancelled all that debt of yours because you begged me to.

Matthew 18:33 Shouldn’t you have had mercy on your fellow-servant just as I had on you?’

Matthew 18:34 In anger his master turned him over to the jailers to be tortured, until he should pay back all he owed.

Matthew 18:35 “This is how my heavenly Father will treat each of you unless you forgive your brother from your heart.”

Matthew 19:1 When Jesus had finished saying these things, he left Galilee and went into the region of Judea to the other side of the Jordan.

Matthew 19:2 Large crowds followed him, and he healed them there.

Matthew 19:3 Some Pharisees came to him to test him. They asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any and every reason?”

Matthew 19:4 “Haven’t you read,” he replied, “that at the beginning the Creator`made them male and female’,

Matthew 19:5 and said,`For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh’?

Matthew 19:6 So they are no longer two, but one. Therefore what God has joined together, let man not separate.”

Matthew 19:7 “Why then,” they asked, “did Moses command that a man give his wife a certificate of divorce and send her away?”

Matthew 19:8 Jesus replied, “Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because your hearts were hard. But it was not this way from the beginning.

Matthew 19:9 I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for marital unfaithfulness, and marries another woman commits adultery.”

Matthew 19:10 The disciples said to him, “If this is the situation between a husband and wife, it is better not to marry.”

Matthew 19:11 Jesus replied, “Not everyone can accept this word, but only those to whom it has been given.

Matthew 19:12 For some are eunuchs because they were born that way; others were made that way by men; and others have renounced marriage because of the kingdom of heaven. The one who can accept this should accept it.”

Matthew 19:13 Then little children were brought to Jesus for him to place his hands on them and pray for them. But the disciples rebuked those who brought them.

Matthew 19:14 Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.”

Matthew 19:15 When he had placed his hands on them, he went on from there.

Matthew 19:16 Now a man came up to Jesus and asked, “Teacher, what good thing must I do to get eternal life?”

Matthew 19:17 “Why do you ask me about what is good?” Jesus replied. “There is only One who is good. If you want to enter life, obey the commandments.”

Matthew 19:18 “Which ones?” the man enquired. Jesus replied, “`Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony,

Matthew 19:19 honour your father and mother,’ and`love your neighbour as yourself.’“

Matthew 19:20 “All these I have kept,” the young man said. “What do I still lack?”

Matthew 19:21 Jesus answered, “If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

Matthew 19:22 When the young man heard this, he went away sad, because he had great wealth.

Matthew 19:23 Then Jesus said to his disciples, “I tell you the truth, it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 19:24 Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

Matthew 19:25 When the disciples heard this, they were greatly astonished and asked, “Who then can be saved?”

Matthew 19:26 Jesus looked at them and said, “With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

Matthew 19:27 Peter answered him, “We have left everything to follow you! What then will there be for us?”

Matthew 19:28 Jesus said to them, “I tell you the truth, at the renewal of all things, when the Son of Man sits on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Matthew 19:29 And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or fields for my sake will receive a hundred times as much and will inherit eternal life.

Matthew 19:30 But many who are first will be last, and many who are last will be first.

Matthew 20:1 “For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire men to work in his vineyard.

Matthew 20:2 He agreed to pay them a denarius for the day and sent them into his vineyard.

Matthew 20:3 “About the third hour he went out and saw others standing in the market-place doing nothing.

Matthew 20:4 He told them,`You also go and work in my vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.’

Matthew 20:5 So they went. “He went out again about the sixth hour and the ninth hour and did the same thing.

Matthew 20:6 About the eleventh hour he went out and found still others standing around. He asked them,`Why have you been standing here all day long doing nothing?’

Matthew 20:7 “`Because no-one has hired us,’ they answered. “He said to them,`You also go and work in my vineyard.’

Matthew 20:8 “When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman,`Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last ones hired and going on to the first.’

Matthew 20:9 “The workers who were hired about the eleventh hour came and each received a denarius.

Matthew 20:10 So when those came who were hired first, they expected to receive more. But each one of them also received a denarius.

Matthew 20:11 When they received it, they began to grumble against the landowner.

Matthew 20:12 `These men who were hired last worked only one hour,’ they said,`and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the work and the heat of the day.’

Matthew 20:13 “But he answered one of them,`Friend, I am not being unfair to you. Didn’t you agree to work for a denarius?

Matthew 20:14 Take your pay and go. I want to give the man who was hired last the same as I gave you.

Matthew 20:15 Don’t I have the right to do what I want with my own money? Or are you envious because I am generous?’

Matthew 20:16 “So the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

Matthew 20:17 Now as Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside and said to them,

Matthew 20:18 “We are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and the teachers of the law. They will condemn him to death

Matthew 20:19 and will turn him over to the Gentiles to be mocked and flogged and crucified. On the third day he will be raised to life!”

Matthew 20:20 Then the mother of Zebedee’s sons came to Jesus with her sons and, kneeling down, asked a favour of him.

Matthew 20:21 “What is it you want?” he asked. She said, “Grant that one of these two sons of mine may sit at your right and the other at your left in your kingdom.”

Matthew 20:22 “You don’t know what you are asking,” Jesus said to them. “Can you drink the cup I am going to drink?” “We can,” they answered.

Matthew 20:23 Jesus said to them, “You will indeed drink from my cup, but to sit at my right or left is not for me to grant. These places belong to those for whom they have been prepared by my Father.”

Matthew 20:24 When the ten heard about this, they were indignant with the two brothers.

Matthew 20:25 Jesus called them together and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them.

Matthew 20:26 Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant,

Matthew 20:27 and whoever wants to be first must be your slave—

Matthew 20:28 just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Matthew 20:29 As Jesus and his disciples were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed him.

Matthew 20:30 Two blind men were sitting by the roadside, and when they heard that Jesus was going by, they shouted, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

Matthew 20:31 The crowd rebuked them and told them to be quiet, but they shouted all the louder, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

Matthew 20:32 Jesus stopped and called them. “What do you want me to do for you?” he asked.

Matthew 20:33 “Lord,” they answered, “we want our sight.”

Matthew 20:34 Jesus had compassion on them and touched their eyes. Immediately they received their sight and followed him.

Matthew 21:1 As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples,

Matthew 21:2 saying to them, “Go to the village ahead of you, and at once you will find a donkey tied there, with her colt by her. Untie them and bring them to me.

Matthew 21:3 If anyone says anything to you, tell him that the Lord needs them, and he will send them right away.”

Matthew 21:4 This took place to fulfil what was spoken through the prophet:

Matthew 21:5 “Say to the Daughter of Zion,`See, your king comes to you, gentle and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.’“

Matthew 21:6 The disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them.

Matthew 21:7 They brought the donkey and the colt, placed their cloaks on them, and Jesus sat on them.

Matthew 21:8 A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road.

Matthew 21:9 The crowds that went ahead of him and those that followed shouted, “Hosanna to the Son of David!” “Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!” “Hosanna in the highest!”

Matthew 21:10 When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked, “Who is this?”

Matthew 21:11 The crowds answered, “This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee.”

Matthew 21:12 Jesus entered the temple area and drove out all who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money-changers and the benches of those selling doves.

Matthew 21:13 “It is written,” he said to them, “`My house will be called a house of prayer,’ but you are making it a`den of robbers’.”

Matthew 21:14 The blind and the lame came to him at the temple, and he healed them.

Matthew 21:15 But when the chief priests and the teachers of the law saw the wonderful things he did and the children shouting in the temple area, “Hosanna to the Son of David,” they were indignant.

Matthew 21:16 “Do you hear what these children are saying?” they asked him. “Yes,” replied Jesus, “have you never read, “`From the lips of children and infants you have ordained praise’?”

Matthew 21:17 And he left them and went out of the city to Bethany, where he spent the night.

Matthew 21:18 Early in the morning, as he was on his way back to the city, he was hungry.

Matthew 21:19 Seeing a fig-tree by the road, he went up to it but found nothing on it except leaves. Then he said to it, “May you never bear fruit again!” Immediately the tree withered.

Matthew 21:20 When the disciples saw this, they were amazed. “How did the fig-tree wither so quickly?” they asked.

Matthew 21:21 Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, if you have faith and do not doubt, not only can you do what was done to the fig-tree, but also you can say to this mountain,`Go, throw yourself into the sea,’ and it will be done.

Matthew 21:22 If you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer.”

Matthew 21:23 Jesus entered the temple courts, and, while he was teaching, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him. “By what authority are you doing these things?” they asked. “And who gave you this authority?”

Matthew 21:24 Jesus replied, “I will also ask you one question. If you answer me, I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

Matthew 21:25 John’s baptism—where did it come from? Was it from heaven, or from men?” They discussed it among themselves and said, “If we say,`From heaven’, he will ask,`Then why didn’t you believe him?’

Matthew 21:26 But if we say,`From men’—we are afraid of the people, for they all hold that John was a prophet.”

Matthew 21:27 So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.” Then he said, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

Matthew 21:28 “What do you think? There was a man who had two sons. He went to the first and said,`Son, go and work today in the vineyard.’

Matthew 21:29 “`I will not,’ he answered, but later he changed his mind and went.

Matthew 21:30 “Then the father went to the other son and said the same thing. He answered,`I will, sir,’ but he did not go.

Matthew 21:31 “Which of the two did what his father wanted?” “The first,” they answered. Jesus said to them, “I tell you the truth, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God ahead of you.

Matthew 21:32 For John came to you to show you the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes did. And even after you saw this, you did not repent and believe him.

Matthew 21:33 “Listen to another parable: There was a landowner who planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a winepress in it and built a watchtower. Then he rented the vineyard to some farmers and went away on a journey.

Matthew 21:34 When the harvest time approached, he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his fruit.

Matthew 21:35 “The tenants seized his servants; they beat one, killed another, and stoned a third.

Matthew 21:36 Then he sent other servants to them, more than the first time, and the tenants treated them in the same way.

Matthew 21:37 Last of all, he sent his son to them.`They will respect my son,’ he said.

Matthew 21:38 “But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other,`This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him and take his inheritance.’

Matthew 21:39 So they took him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

Matthew 21:40 “Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?”

Matthew 21:41 “He will bring those wretches to a wretched end,” they replied, “and he will rent the vineyard to other tenants, who will give him his share of the crop at harvest time.”

Matthew 21:42 Jesus said to them, “Have you never read in the Scriptures: “`The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone; the Lord has done this, and it is marvellous in our eyes’?

Matthew 21:43 “Therefore I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.

Matthew 21:44 He who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but he on whom it falls will be crushed.”

Matthew 21:45 When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard Jesus’ parables, they knew he was talking about them.

Matthew 21:46 They looked for a way to arrest him, but they were afraid of the crowd because the people held that he was a prophet.

Matthew 22:1 Jesus spoke to them again in parables, saying:

Matthew 22:2 “The kingdom of heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding banquet for his son.

Matthew 22:3 He sent his servants to those who had been invited to the banquet to tell them to come, but they refused to come.

Matthew 22:4 “Then he sent some more servants and said,`Tell those who have been invited that I have prepared my dinner: My oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet.’

Matthew 22:5 “But they paid no attention and went off—one to his field, another to his business.

Matthew 22:6 The rest seized his servants, ill-treated them and killed them.

Matthew 22:7 The king was enraged. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers and burned their city.

Matthew 22:8 “Then he said to his servants,`The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited did not deserve to come.

Matthew 22:9 Go to the street corners and invite to the banquet anyone you find.’

Matthew 22:10 So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, both good and bad, and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

Matthew 22:11 “But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes.

Matthew 22:12 `Friend,’ he asked,`how did you get in here without wedding clothes?’ The man was speechless.

Matthew 22:13 “Then the king told the attendants,`Tie him hand and foot, and throw him outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

Matthew 22:14 “For many are invited, but few are chosen.”

Matthew 22:15 Then the Pharisees went out and laid plans to trap him in his words.

Matthew 22:16 They sent their disciples to him along with the Herodians. “Teacher,” they said, “we know you are a man of integrity and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. You aren’t swayed by men, because you pay no attention to who they are.

Matthew 22:17 Tell us then, what is your opinion? Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

Matthew 22:18 But Jesus, knowing their evil intent, said, “You hypocrites, why are you trying to trap me?

Matthew 22:19 Show me the coin used for paying the tax.” They brought him a denarius,

Matthew 22:20 and he asked them, “Whose portrait is this? And whose inscription?”

Matthew 22:21 “Caesar’s,” they replied. Then he said to them, “Give to Caesar what is Caesar’s, and to God what is God’s.”

Matthew 22:22 When they heard this, they were amazed. So they left him and went away.

Matthew 22:23 That same day the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to him with a question.

Matthew 22:24 “Teacher,” they said, “Moses told us that if a man dies without having children, his brother must marry the widow and have children for him.

Matthew 22:25 Now there were seven brothers among us. The first one married and died, and since he had no children, he left his wife to his brother.

Matthew 22:26 The same thing happened to the second and third brother, right on down to the seventh.

Matthew 22:27 Finally, the woman died.

Matthew 22:28 Now then, at the resurrection, whose wife will she be of the seven, since all of them were married to her?”

Matthew 22:29 Jesus replied, “You are in error because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God.

Matthew 22:30 At the resurrection people will neither marry nor be given in marriage; they will be like the angels in heaven.

Matthew 22:31 But about the resurrection of the dead—have you not read what God said to you,

Matthew 22:32 `I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’? He is not the God of the dead but of the living.”

Matthew 22:33 When the crowds heard this, they were astonished at his teaching.

Matthew 22:34 Hearing that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees got together.

Matthew 22:35 One of them, an expert in the law, tested him with this question:

Matthew 22:36 “Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?”

Matthew 22:37 Jesus replied: “`Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’

Matthew 22:38 This is the first and greatest commandment.

Matthew 22:39 And the second is like it:`Love your neighbour as yourself.’

Matthew 22:40 All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.”

Matthew 22:41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them,

Matthew 22:42 “What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is he?” “The son of David,” they replied.

Matthew 22:43 He said to them, “How is it then that David, speaking by the Spirit, calls him`Lord’? For he says, Matthew 22:44 “`The Lord said to my Lord: “Sit at my right hand until I put your enemies under your feet.”‘

Matthew 22:45 If then David calls him`Lord’, how can he be his son?”

Matthew 22:46 No-one could say a word in reply, and from that day on no-one dared to ask him any more questions.

Matthew 23:1 Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples:

Matthew 23:2 “The teachers of the law and the Pharisees sit in Moses’ seat.

Matthew 23:3 So you must obey them and do everything they tell you. But do not do what they do, for they do not practise what they preach.

Matthew 23:4 They tie up heavy loads and put them on men’s shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to lift a finger to move them.

Matthew 23:5 “Everything they do is done for men to see: They make their phylacteries wide and the tassels on their garments long;

Matthew 23:6 they love the place of honour at banquets and the most important seats in the synagogues;

Matthew 23:7 they love to be greeted in the market-places and to have men call them`Rabbi’.

Matthew 23:8 “But you are not to be called`Rabbi’, for you have only one Master and you are all brothers.

Matthew 23:9 And do not call anyone on earth`father’, for you have one Father, and he is in heaven.

Matthew 23:10 Nor are you to be called`teacher’, for you have one Teacher, the Christ.

Matthew 23:11 The greatest among you will be your servant.

Matthew 23:12 For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

Matthew 23:13 “Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You shut the kingdom of heaven in men’s faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let those enter who are trying to.

Matthew 23:14

Matthew 23:15 “Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You travel over land and sea to win a single convert, and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of hell as you are.

Matthew 23:16 “Woe to you, blind guides! You say,`If anyone swears by the temple, it means nothing; but if anyone swears by the gold of the temple, he is bound by his oath.’

Matthew 23:17 You blind fools! Which is greater: the gold, or the temple that makes the gold sacred?

Matthew 23:18 You also say,`If anyone swears by the altar, it means nothing; but if anyone swears by the gift on it, he is bound by his oath.’

Matthew 23:19 You blind men! Which is greater: the gift, or the altar that makes the gift sacred?

Matthew 23:20 Therefore, he who swears by the altar swears by it and by everything on it.

Matthew 23:21 And he who swears by the temple swears by it and by the one who dwells in it.

Matthew 23:22 And he who swears by heaven swears by God’s throne and by the one who sits on it.

Matthew 23:23 “Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You give a tenth of your spices—mint, dill and cummin. But you have neglected the more important matters of the law—justice, mercy and faithfulness. You should have practised the latter, without neglecting the former.

Matthew 23:24 You blind guides! You strain out a gnat but swallow a camel.

Matthew 23:25 “Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence.

Matthew 23:26 Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and dish, and then the outside also will be clean.

Matthew 23:27 “Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs, which look beautiful on the outside but on the inside are full of dead men’s bones and everything unclean.

Matthew 23:28 In the same way, on the outside you appear to people as righteous but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and wickedness.

Matthew 23:29 “Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the graves of the righteous.

Matthew 23:30 And you say,`If we had lived in the days of our forefathers, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’

Matthew 23:31 So you testify against yourselves that you are the descendants of those who murdered the prophets.

Matthew 23:32 Fill up, then, the measure of the sin of your forefathers!

Matthew 23:33 “You snakes! You brood of vipers! How will you escape being condemned to hell?

Matthew 23:34 Therefore I am sending you prophets and wise men and teachers. Some of them you will kill and crucify; others you will flog in your synagogues and pursue from town to town.

Matthew 23:35 And so upon you will come all the righteous blood that has been shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Barakiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.

Matthew 23:36 I tell you the truth, all this will come upon this generation.

Matthew 23:37 “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing.

Matthew 23:38 Look, your house is left to you desolate.

Matthew 23:39 For I tell you, you will not see me again until you say,`Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.’“

Matthew 24:1 Jesus left the temple and was walking away when his disciples came up to him to call his attention to its buildings.

Matthew 24:2 “Do you see all these things?” he asked. “I tell you the truth, not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down.”

Matthew 24:3 As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately. “Tell us,” they said, “when will this happen, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?”

Matthew 24:4 Jesus answered: “Watch out that no-one deceives you.

Matthew 24:5 For many will come in my name, claiming,`I am the Christ,’ and will deceive many.

Matthew 24:6 You will hear of wars and rumours of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come.

Matthew 24:7 Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places.

Matthew 24:8 All these are the beginning of birth-pains.

Matthew 24:9 “Then you will be handed over to be persecuted and put to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of me.

Matthew 24:10 At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other,

Matthew 24:11 and many false prophets will appear and deceive many people.

Matthew 24:12 Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold,

Matthew 24:13 but he who stands firm to the end will be saved.

Matthew 24:14 And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

Matthew 24:15 “So when you see standing in the holy place`the abomination that causes desolation’, spoken of through the prophet Daniel—let the reader understand—

Matthew 24:16 then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.

Matthew 24:17 Let no-one on the roof of his house go down to take anything out of the house.

Matthew 24:18 Let no-one in the field go back to get his cloak.

Matthew 24:19 How dreadful it will be in those days for pregnant women and nursing mothers!

Matthew 24:20 Pray that your flight will not take place in winter or on the Sabbath.

Matthew 24:21 For then there will be great distress, unequalled from the beginning of the world until now—and never to be equalled again.

Matthew 24:22 If those days had not been cut short, no-one would survive, but for the sake of the elect those days will be shortened.

Matthew 24:23 At that time if anyone says to you,`Look, here is the Christ!’ or,`There he is!’ do not believe it.

Matthew 24:24 For false Christs and false prophets will appear and perform great signs and miracles to deceive even the elect—if that were possible.

Matthew 24:25 See, I have told you ahead of time.

Matthew 24:26 “So if anyone tells you,`There he is, out in the desert,’ do not go out; or,`Here he is, in the inner rooms,’ do not believe it.

Matthew 24:27 For as lightning that comes from the east is visible even in the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man.

Matthew 24:28 Wherever there is a carcass, there the vultures will gather.

Matthew 24:29 “Immediately after the distress of those days “`the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from the sky, and the heavenly bodies will be shaken.’

Matthew 24:30 “At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory.

Matthew 24:31 And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

Matthew 24:32 “Now learn this lesson from the fig-tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near.

Matthew 24:33 Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it is near, right at the door.

Matthew 24:34 I tell you the truth, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened.

Matthew 24:35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

Matthew 24:36 “No-one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

Matthew 24:37 As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man.

Matthew 24:38 For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark;

Matthew 24:39 and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man.

Matthew 24:40 Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left.

Matthew 24:41 Two women will be grinding with a hand mill; one will be taken and the other left.

Matthew 24:42 “Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come.

Matthew 24:43 But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and would not have let his house be broken into.

Matthew 24:44 So you also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.

Matthew 24:45 “Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom the master has put in charge of the servants in his household to give them their food at the proper time?

Matthew 24:46 It will be good for that servant whose master finds him doing so when he returns.

Matthew 24:47 I tell you the truth, he will put him in charge of all his possessions.

Matthew 24:48 But suppose that servant is wicked and says to himself,`My master is staying away a long time,’

Matthew 24:49 and he then begins to beat his fellow-servants and to eat and drink with drunkards.

Matthew 24:50 The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he is not aware of.

Matthew 24:51 He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Matthew 25:1 “At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.

Matthew 25:2 Five of them were foolish and five were wise.

Matthew 25:3 The foolish ones took their lamps but did not take any oil with them.

Matthew 25:4 The wise, however, took oil in jars along with their lamps.

Matthew 25:5 The bridegroom was a long time in coming, and they all became drowsy and fell asleep.

Matthew 25:6 “At midnight the cry rang out:`Here’s the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!’

Matthew 25:7 “Then all the virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps.

Matthew 25:8 The foolish ones said to the wise,`Give us some of your oil; our lamps are going out.’

Matthew 25:9 “`No,’ they replied,`there may not be enough for both us and you. Instead, go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.’

Matthew 25:10 “But while they were on their way to buy the oil, the bridegroom arrived. The virgins who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet. And the door was shut.

Matthew 25:11 “Later the others also came.`Sir! Sir!’ they said.`Open the door for us!’

Matthew 25:12 “But he replied,`I tell you the truth, I don’t know you.’

Matthew 25:13 “Therefore keep watch, because you do not know the day or the hour.

Matthew 25:14 “Again, it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his property to them.

Matthew 25:15 To one he gave five talents of money, to another two talents, and to another one talent, each according to his ability. Then he went on his journey.

Matthew 25:16 The man who had received the five talents went at once and put his money to work and gained five more.

Matthew 25:17 So also, the one with the two talents gained two more.

Matthew 25:18 But the man who had received the one talent went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid his master’s money.

Matthew 25:19 “After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them.

Matthew 25:20 The man who had received the five talents brought the other five.`Master,’ he said,`you entrusted me with five talents. See, I have gained five more.’

Matthew 25:21 “His master replied,`Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master’s happiness!’

Matthew 25:22 “The man with the two talents also came.`Master,’ he said,`you entrusted me with two talents; see, I have gained two more.’

Matthew 25:23 “His master replied,`Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master’s happiness!’

Matthew 25:24 “Then the man who had received the one talent came.`Master,’ he said,`I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed.

Matthew 25:25 So I was afraid and went out and hid your talent in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you.’

Matthew 25:26 “His master replied,`You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed?

Matthew 25:27 Well then, you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest.

Matthew 25:28 "`Take the talent from him and give it to the one who has the ten talents.

Matthew 25:29 For everyone who has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him.

Matthew 25:30 And throw that worthless servant outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

Matthew 25:31 "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his throne in heavenly glory.

Matthew 25:32 All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate the people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.

Matthew 25:33 He will put the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

Matthew 25:34 "Then the King will say to those on his right,`Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world.

Matthew 25:35 For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in,

Matthew 25:36 I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.'

Matthew 25:37 "Then the righteous will answer him,`Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink?

Matthew 25:38 When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you?

Matthew 25:39 When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?'

Matthew 25:40 "The King will reply,`I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me.'

Matthew 25:41 "Then he will say to those on his left,`Depart from me, you who are cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels.

Matthew 25:42 For I was hungry and you gave me nothing to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink,

Matthew 25:43 I was a stranger and you did not invite me in, I needed clothes and you did not clothe me, I was sick and in prison and you did not look after me.'

Matthew 25:44 "They also will answer,`Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or needing clothes or sick or in prison, and did not help you?'

Matthew 25:45 “He will reply,`I tell you the truth, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me.’

Matthew 25:46 “Then they will go away to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life.”

Matthew 26:1 When Jesus had finished saying all these things, he said to his disciples,

Matthew 26:2 “As you know, the Passover is two days away—and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified.”

Matthew 26:3 Then the chief priests and the elders of the people assembled in the palace of the high priest, whose name was Caiaphas,

Matthew 26:4 and they plotted to arrest Jesus in some sly way and kill him.

Matthew 26:5 “But not during the Feast,” they said, “or there may be a riot among the people.”

Matthew 26:6 While Jesus was in Bethany in the home of a man known as Simon the Leper,

Matthew 26:7 a woman came to him with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, which she poured on his head as he was reclining at the table.

Matthew 26:8 When the disciples saw this, they were indignant. “Why this waste?” they asked.

Matthew 26:9 “This perfume could have been sold at a high price and the money given to the poor.”

Matthew 26:10 Aware of this, Jesus said to them, “Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a beautiful thing to me.

Matthew 26:11 The poor you will always have with you, but you will not always have me.

Matthew 26:12 When she poured this perfume on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial.

Matthew 26:13 I tell you the truth, wherever this gospel is preached throughout the world, what she has done will also be told, in memory of her.”

Matthew 26:14 Then one of the Twelve—the one called Judas Iscariot—went to the chief priests

Matthew 26:15 and asked, “What are you willing to give me if I hand him over to you?” So they counted out for him thirty silver coins.

Matthew 26:16 From then on Judas watched for an opportunity to hand him over.

Matthew 26:17 On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Where do you want us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?”

Matthew 26:18 He replied, “Go into the city to a certain man and tell him,`The Teacher says: My appointed time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.’“

Matthew 26:19 So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.

Matthew 26:20 When evening came, Jesus was reclining at the table with the Twelve.

Matthew 26:21 And while they were eating, he said, “I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me.”

Matthew 26:22 They were very sad and began to say to him one after the other, “Surely not I, Lord?”

Matthew 26:23 Jesus replied, “The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl with me will betray me.

Matthew 26:24 The Son of Man will go just as it is written about him. But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would be better for him if he had not been born.”

Matthew 26:25 Then Judas, the one who would betray him, said, “Surely not I, Rabbi?” Jesus answered, “Yes, it is you.”

Matthew 26:26 While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take and eat; this is my body.”

Matthew 26:27 Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, “Drink from it, all of you.

Matthew 26:28 This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Matthew 26:29 I tell you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it anew with you in my Father’s kingdom.”

Matthew 26:30 When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Matthew 26:31 Then Jesus told them, “This very night you will all fall away on account of me, for it is written: “`I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’

Matthew 26:32 But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.”

Matthew 26:33 Peter replied, “Even if all fall away on account of you, I never will.”

Matthew 26:34 “I tell you the truth,” Jesus answered, “this very night, before the cock crows, you will disown me three times.”

Matthew 26:35 But Peter declared, “Even if I have to die with you, I will never disown you.” And all the other disciples said the same.

Matthew 26:36 Then Jesus went with his disciples to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to them, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.”

Matthew 26:37 He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee along with him, and he began to be sorrowful and troubled.

Matthew 26:38 Then he said to them, “My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with me.”

Matthew 26:39 Going a little farther, he fell with his face to the ground and prayed, “My Father, if it is possible, may this cup be taken from me. Yet not as I will, but as you will.”

Matthew 26:40 Then he returned to his disciples and found them sleeping. “Could you men not keep watch with me for one hour?” he asked Peter.

Matthew 26:41 “Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the body is weak.”

Matthew 26:42 He went away a second time and prayed, “My Father, if it is not possible for this cup to be taken away unless I drink it, may your will be done.”

Matthew 26:43 When he came back, he again found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy.

Matthew 26:44 So he left them and went away once more and prayed the third time, saying the same thing.

Matthew 26:45 Then he returned to the disciples and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? Look, the hour is near, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Matthew 26:46 Rise, let us go! Here comes my betrayer!”

Matthew 26:47 While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived. With him was a large crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and the elders of the people.

Matthew 26:48 Now the betrayer had arranged a signal with them: “The one I kiss is the man; arrest him.”

Matthew 26:49 Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, “Greetings, Rabbi!” and kissed him.

Matthew 26:50 Jesus replied, “Friend, do what you came for.” Then the men stepped forward, seized Jesus and arrested him.

Matthew 26:51 With that, one of Jesus’ companions reached for his sword, drew it out and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

Matthew 26:52 “Put your sword back in its place,” Jesus said to him, “for all who draw the sword will die by the sword.

Matthew 26:53 Do you think I cannot call on my Father, and he will at once put at my disposal more than twelve legions of angels?

Matthew 26:54 But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen in this way?”

Matthew 26:55 At that time Jesus said to the crowd, “Am I leading a rebellion, that you have come out with swords and clubs to capture me? Every day I sat in the temple courts teaching, and you did not arrest me.

Matthew 26:56 But this has all taken place that the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled.” Then all the disciples deserted him and fled.

Matthew 26:57 Those who had arrested Jesus took him to Caiaphas, the high priest, where the teachers of the law and the elders had assembled.

Matthew 26:58 But Peter followed him at a distance, right up to the courtyard of the high priest. He entered and sat down with the guards to see the outcome.

Matthew 26:59 The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for false evidence against Jesus so that they could put him to death.

Matthew 26:60 But they did not find any, though many false witnesses came forward. Finally two came forward

Matthew 26:61 and declared, “This fellow said,`I am able to destroy the temple of God and rebuild it in three days.’“

Matthew 26:62 Then the high priest stood up and said to Jesus, “Are you not going to answer? What is this testimony that these men are bringing against you?”

Matthew 26:63 But Jesus remained silent. The high priest said to him, “I charge you under oath by the living God: Tell us if you are the Christ, the Son of God.”

Matthew 26:64 “Yes, it is as you say,” Jesus replied. “But I say to all of you: In the future you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One and coming on the clouds of heaven.”

Matthew 26:65 Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, “He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Look, now you have heard the blasphemy.

Matthew 26:66 What do you think?” “He is worthy of death,” they answered.

Matthew 26:67 Then they spat in his face and struck him with their fists. Others slapped him

Matthew 26:68 and said, “Prophesy to us, Christ. Who hit you?”

Matthew 26:69 Now Peter was sitting out in the courtyard, and a servant girl came to him. “You also were with Jesus of Galilee,” she said.

Matthew 26:70 But he denied it before them all. “I don’t know what you’re talking about,” he said.

Matthew 26:71 Then he went out to the gateway, where another girl saw him and said to the people there, “This fellow was with Jesus of Nazareth.”

Matthew 26:72 He denied it again, with an oath: “I don’t know the man!”

Matthew 26:73 After a little while, those standing there went up to Peter and said, “Surely you are one of them, for your accent gives you away.”

Matthew 26:74 Then he began to call down curses on himself and he swore to them, “I don’t know the man!” Immediately a cock crowed.

Matthew 26:75 Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken: “Before the cock crows, you will disown me three times.” And he went outside and wept bitterly.

Matthew 27:1 Early in the morning, all the chief priests and the elders of the people came to the decision to put Jesus to death.

Matthew 27:2 They bound him, led him away and handed him over to Pilate, the governor.

Matthew 27:3 When Judas, who had betrayed him, saw that Jesus was condemned, he was seized with remorse and returned the thirty silver coins to the chief priests and the elders.

Matthew 27:4 “I have sinned,” he said, “for I have betrayed innocent blood.” “What is that to us?” they replied. “That’s your responsibility.”

Matthew 27:5 So Judas threw the money into the temple and left. Then he went away and hanged himself.

Matthew 27:6 The chief priests picked up the coins and said, “It is against the law to put this into the treasury, since it is blood money.”

Matthew 27:7 So they decided to use the money to buy the potter’s field as a burial place for foreigners.

Matthew 27:8 That is why it has been called the Field of Blood to this day.

Matthew 27:9 Then what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: “They took the thirty silver coins, the price set on him by the people of Israel, Matthew 27:10 and they used them to buy the potter’s field, as the Lord commanded me.”

Matthew 27:11 Meanwhile Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?” “Yes, it is as you say,” Jesus replied.

Matthew 27:12 When he was accused by the chief priests and the elders, he gave no answer.

Matthew 27:13 Then Pilate asked him, “Don’t you hear the testimony they are bringing against you?”

Matthew 27:14 But Jesus made no reply, not even to a single charge—to the great amazement of the governor.

Matthew 27:15 Now it was the governor’s custom at the Feast to release a prisoner chosen by the crowd.

Matthew 27:16 At that time they had a notorious prisoner, called Barabbas.

Matthew 27:17 So when the crowd had gathered, Pilate asked them, “Which one do you want me to release to you: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?”

Matthew 27:18 For he knew it was out of envy that they had handed Jesus over to him.

Matthew 27:19 While Pilate was sitting on the judge’s seat, his wife sent him this message: “Don’t have anything to do with that innocent man, for I have suffered a great deal today in a dream because of him.”

Matthew 27:20 But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus executed.

Matthew 27:21 “Which of the two do you want me to release to you?” asked the governor. “Barabbas,” they answered.

Matthew 27:22 “What shall I do, then, with Jesus who is called Christ?” Pilate asked. They all answered, “Crucify him!”

Matthew 27:23 “Why? What crime has he committed?” asked Pilate. But they shouted all the louder, “Crucify him!”

Matthew 27:24 When Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere, but that instead an uproar was starting, he took water and washed his hands in front of the crowd. “I am innocent of this man’s blood,” he said. “It is your responsibility!”

Matthew 27:25 All the people answered, “Let his blood be on us and on our children!”

Matthew 27:26 Then he released Barabbas to them. But he had Jesus flogged, and handed him over to be crucified.

Matthew 27:27 Then the governor’s soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium and gathered the whole company of soldiers round him.

Matthew 27:28 They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him,

Matthew 27:29 and then twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on his head. They put a staff in his right hand and knelt in front of him and mocked him. “Hail, king of the Jews!” they said.

Matthew 27:30 They spat on him, and took the staff and struck him on the head again and again.

Matthew 27:31 After they had mocked him, they took off the robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.

Matthew 27:32 As they were going out, they met a man from Cyrene, named Simon, and they forced him to carry the cross.
